

Edgar Filing: KOOKMIN BANK - Form 6-K

New Business Development

On November 15, 2002, Kookmin Bank announced the following plan for the future.

Branch Network Restructuring

Since its merger, Kookmin Bank has been consolidating its branch office network through gradual adjustment, relocation and functional conversion of the overlapping branches with a view to improve revenues and efficiency. As a newly recent initiative as part of the consolidation in progress, Kookmin Bank will close 55 branches during December.

According the announcement, 52 branches will shut down for closure after business on December 13, 2002 and the remaining 3 branches thereafter.

It was also disclosed that any additional closure has not yet been decided for 2004.
