2003 PROXY STATEMENT

FedEx's Board of Directors is furnishing you this proxy statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies on its behalf for the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The meeting will take place in the auditorium at the FedEx World Technology Center, 50 FedEx Parkway, Collierville, Tennessee 38017, on Monday, September 29, 2003, at 10:00 a.m. local time. At the meeting, stockholders will vote on the election of four directors, the adoption of FedEx's Incentive Stock Plan, the ratification of FedEx's independent auditors and, if properly presented at the meeting, a stockholder proposal. Stockholders also will consider any other matters that may properly come before the meeting, although we know of no other business to be presented.

By submitting your proxy (either by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card or by voting electronically on the Internet or by telephone), you authorize Kenneth R. Masterson, FedEx's Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, and Alan B. Graf, Jr., FedEx's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, to represent you and vote your shares at the meeting in accordance with your instructions. They also may vote your shares to adjourn the meeting and will be authorized to vote your shares at any postponements or adjournments of the meeting.

FedEx's Annual Report to Stockholders for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003, which includes FedEx's audited annual financial statements, accompanies this proxy statement. Although the Annual Report is being distributed with this proxy statement, it does not constitute a part of the proxy solicitation materials and is not incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

We are first sending this proxy statement, form of proxy and accompanying materials to stockholders on or about August 18, 2003.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING

What is the purpose of the annual meeting?

At the annual meeting, the stockholders will be asked to:

elect four directors, each for a term of three years;

approve the adoption of FedEx's Incentive Stock Plan; ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as FedEx's independent auditors; and act on a stockholder proposal, if properly presented at the meeting.

Stockholders also will transact any other business that may properly come before the meeting. Members of FedEx's management team will be present at the meeting to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

Who is entitled to vote?

The record date for the meeting is August 4, 2003. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on that date are entitled to vote at the meeting. The only class of stock entitled to be voted at the meeting is FedEx's common stock. Each outstanding share of common stock is entitled to one vote for all matters before the meeting. At the close of business on the record date there were 298,070,693 shares of FedEx common stock outstanding.

Am I entitled to vote if my shares are held in "street name"?

If your shares are held by a bank or brokerage firm, you are considered the "beneficial owner" of shares held in "street name." If your shares are held in street name, these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your bank or brokerage firm (the "record holder"), along with a voting instruction card. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your record holder how to vote your shares, and the record holder is required to vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give instructions to your bank or brokerage firm, it will nevertheless be entitled to vote your shares in its discretion on the election of directors (Proposal 1) and the ratification of the appointment of the independent auditors (Proposal 3). The record holder will not be permitted, however, to vote your shares on the adoption of the Incentive Stock Plan (Proposal 2) and the stockholder proposal (Proposal 4), and your shares will be considered "broker non-votes" on those proposals.

As the beneficial owner of shares, you are invited to attend the annual meeting. If you are a beneficial owner, however, you may not vote your shares in person at the meeting unless you obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares.

How many shares must be present to hold the meeting?

A quorum must be present at the meeting for any business to be conducted. The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding on the record date will constitute a quorum. Proxies received but marked as abstentions or treated as broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the meeting.

What if a quorum is not present at the meeting?

If a quorum is not present at the scheduled time of the meeting, the stockholders who are represented may adjourn the meeting until a quorum is present. The time and place of the adjourned meeting will be announced at the time the adjournment is taken, and no other notice will be given.

How do I vote?

1. YOU MAY VOTE BY MAIL. If you properly complete, sign and date the accompanying proxy card and return it in the enclosed envelope, it will be voted in accordance with your instructions. The enclosed envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in either the United States or Canada.

2. YOU MAY VOTE BY TELEPHONE OR ON THE INTERNET. If you are a registered stockholder (that is, if you hold your stock directly and not in street name), you may vote by telephone or on the Internet by following the instructions included on the proxy card. If you vote by telephone or on the Internet, you do not have to mail in your proxy card. If you wish to attend the meeting in person, however, you will need to bring the admission ticket attached to the proxy card with you. Internet and telephone voting are available 24 hours a day. Votes submitted through the Internet or by telephone must be received by 11:59 p.m. Eastern time on September 28, 2003.

If your shares are held in street name, you still may be able to vote your shares electronically by telephone or on the Internet. A large number of banks and brokerage firms participate in a program provided through ADP Investor Communications Services that offers telephone and Internet voting options. If your shares are held in an account at a bank or brokerage firm that participates in the ADP program, you may vote those shares electronically by telephone or on the Internet by following the instructions set forth on the voting form provided to you.

NOTE: If you vote on the Internet, you may elect to have next year's proxy statement and annual report to stockholders delivered to you via the Internet. We strongly encourage you to enroll in Internet delivery. It is a cost-effective way for us to send you proxy materials and annual reports.

3. YOU MAY VOTE IN PERSON AT THE MEETING. If you are a registered stockholder and attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person. Additionally, we will pass out written ballots to registered stockholders who wish to vote in person at the meeting. Beneficial owners of shares held in street name who wish to vote at the meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from their record holder.

How do I vote my shares held in a FedEx benefit plan?

If you own shares of FedEx common stock through a FedEx or subsidiary benefit plan, you can direct the trustee or the record holder to vote the shares held in your account in accordance with your instructions by completing the proxy card and returning it in the enclosed envelope or by registering your instructions via the Internet or telephone as directed on the proxy card. If you register your voting instructions by telephone or on the Internet, you do not have to mail in the proxy card. If you wish to attend the meeting in person, however, you will need to bring the admission ticket attached to the proxy card with you. In order to instruct a plan trustee on the voting of shares held in your account, your instructions must be received by September 24, 2003. If your voting instructions are not received by that date, each plan trustee will vote your shares in the same proportion as the shares for which voting instructions have been received.

Who can attend the meeting?

Only stockholders eligible to vote or their authorized representatives will be admitted to the meeting. If you plan to attend the meeting, detach and bring with you the stub portion of your proxy card, which is marked "Admission Ticket." You also must bring a valid, government-issued photo identification, such as a driver's license or a passport.

If your shares are held in street name, you must bring the indicated portion of your voter instruction card. Alternatively, you may bring other proof of ownership, such as your most recent brokerage account statement, which clearly shows your ownership of FedEx common stock as of the record date. In addition, you must bring a valid, government-issued photo identification, such as a driver's license or a passport.

Security measures will be in place at the meeting to help ensure the safety of attendees. Metal detectors similar to those used in airports will be located at the entrance to the auditorium and briefcases, handbags and packages will be inspected. No cameras or recording devices of any kind, or signs, placards, banners or similar materials, may be brought into the meeting. Anyone who refuses to comply with these requirements will not be admitted.

Can I change my vote after I submit my proxy?

Yes, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote:

by signing another proxy with a later date;

by voting by telephone or on the Internet (your latest telephone or Internet vote is counted); or if you are a registered stockholder, by giving written notice of such revocation to the Secretary of FedEx prior to or at the meeting or by voting in person at the meeting.

Your attendance at the meeting itself will not revoke your proxy unless you give written notice of revocation to the Secretary before your proxy is voted or you vote in person at the meeting.

Will my vote be kept confidential?

Yes, your vote will be kept confidential and not disclosed to FedEx unless:

required by law;

you expressly request disclosure on your proxy; or there is a proxy contest.

Who will count the votes?

FedEx's transfer agent, EquiServe Trust Company, N.A., will tabulate and certify the votes. A representative of the transfer agent will serve as the inspector of election.

How does the Board of Directors recommend I vote on the proposals?

Your Board recommends that you vote:

FOR the election of the four nominees to the Board of Directors;

FOR the adoption of FedEx's Incentive Stock Plan;

FOR the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as FedEx's independent auditors; and

AGAINST the stockholder proposal.

What if I do not specify how my shares are to be voted?

If you submit a proxy but do not indicate any voting instructions, your shares will be voted:

FOR the election of the four nominees to the Board of Directors;

FOR the adoption of FedEx's Incentive Stock Plan;

FOR the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as FedEx's independent auditors; and

AGAINST the stockholder proposal.

Will any other business be conducted at the meeting?

We know of no other business that will be presented at the meeting. If any other matter properly comes before the stockholders for a vote at the meeting, however, the proxy holders will vote your shares in accordance with their best judgment.

How many votes are required to elect the director nominees?

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting is required to elect the four nominees as directors. This means that the four nominees will be elected if they receive more affirmative votes than any other person. If you vote "Withheld" with respect to one or more nominees, your shares will not be voted with respect to the person or persons indicated, although they will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

What happens if a nominee is unable to stand for election?

If a nominee is unable to stand for election, the Board of Directors may either reduce the number of directors to be elected or select a substitute nominee. If a substitute nominee is selected, the proxy holders will vote your shares for the substitute nominee, unless you have withheld authority.

How many votes are required to adopt the Incentive Stock Plan?

The adoption of FedEx's Incentive Stock Plan requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote.

How many votes are required to ratify the appointment of FedEx's independent auditors?

The ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as FedEx's independent auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote.

How many votes are required to approve the stockholder proposal?

If the stockholder proposal is properly presented at the meeting, approval of the proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote.

How will abstentions be treated?

Abstentions will be treated as shares present for quorum purposes and entitled to vote, so they will have the same practical effect as votes against a proposal.

How will broker non-votes be treated?

Broker non-votes will be treated as shares present for quorum purposes, but not entitled to vote, so they will not affect the outcome of any proposal.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires directors and certain officers of FedEx and persons who own more than ten percent of FedEx's common stock to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of beneficial ownership (Form 3) and reports of subsequent changes in their beneficial ownership (Form 4 or Form 5) of FedEx's common stock. Such directors, officers and greater-than-ten-percent stockholders are required to furnish FedEx with copies of the Section 16(a) reports they file. The Securities and Exchange Commission has established specific due dates for these reports, and FedEx is required to disclose in this proxy statement any late filings or failures to file.

Based solely upon a review of the copies of the Section 16(a) reports (and any amendments thereto) furnished to FedEx and written representations from certain reporting persons that no additional reports were required, FedEx believes that its directors, reporting officers and greater-than-ten-percent stockholders complied with all these filing requirements for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003, except Joshua I. Smith, who filed a Form 4 reporting the following three transactions in FedEx common stock that were inadvertently not timely reported: his sale of 100 shares on March 2, 2000; his sale of 200 shares on March 14, 2000; and his sale of 900 shares on April 11, 2001. Subsequent to May 31, 2003, John A. Edwardson filed an amended Form 3 reporting beneficial ownership of 700 shares of FedEx common stock that was inadvertently not reported in the Form 3 he filed on June 3, 2003.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

In furtherance of its longstanding goal of providing effective governance of FedEx's business and affairs for the long-term benefit of stockholders, the Board of Directors approved and adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines during fiscal 2003. The Guidelines are available on FedEx's Web site at <http://fdx.client.shareholder.com/governance.cfm>. The information on FedEx's Web site, however, does not form part of this proxy statement.

Director Independence

The Board of Directors has determined that all of its members continuing as directors after the annual meeting are independent and meet the proposed independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange, except for Frederick W. Smith and J.R. Hyde, III. Mr. Smith is FedEx's Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Hyde has an ownership interest in HOOPS, L.P., with which FedEx has a relationship. For more information, please see page 14, "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions." The Board's standards for determining director independence are available on FedEx's Web site at <http://fdx.client.shareholder.com/governance.cfm>.

George J. Mitchell provides paid consulting services to FedEx and is a partner in the law firm of Piper Rudnick LLP, which provided $379 of legal services during fiscal 2003 to FedEx Ground. The Board concluded that these relationships are not material or otherwise impair, or appear to impair, Senator Mitchell's judgment, and therefore do not prevent him from being independent.

James L. Barksdale and Peter S. Willmott are former employees of FedEx's predecessor, Federal Express Corporation. Mr. Barksdale's employment with FedEx Express ended in 1992, and Mr. Willmott's employment ended in 1983. The Board determined that neither of these past relationships is material or otherwise impairs, or appears to impair, the judgment of Mr. Barksdale or Mr. Willmott, and therefore does not prevent either from being independent. In making this determination, the Board considered, among other factors, the length of time that had elapsed since the last date of employment.

Immediately following the annual meeting, each member of the Audit, Compensation and Nominating & Governance Committees will meet the applicable existing and proposed independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

Audit Committee Financial Experts

The Board of Directors has determined that at least one member of the Audit Committee, Peter S. Willmott, is an audit committee financial expert.

Executive Sessions of Non-Management Directors

Non-management Board members meet without management present at least twice annually at regularly scheduled executive sessions. The Chairman of the Nominating & Governance Committee presides over meetings of the non-employee directors.

Director Mandatory Retirement

A director must retire immediately before the annual meeting of FedEx's stockholders during the calendar year in which he or she attains age 72. Accordingly, Ralph D. DeNunzio is retiring as a director at the annual meeting.

Director Stock Ownership Goal

In order to further align the directors' interests with those of FedEx's stockholders, the Board of Directors has established a stock ownership goal that, within three years after joining the Board, each director should own FedEx shares valued at three times his or her annual retainer fee. Vested stock options are not counted toward this goal. As of August 4, 2003, ten of the eleven directors who have been on the Board for more than three years owned sufficient shares to comply with this goal.

Code of Business Conduct & Ethics

The Board of Directors has approved and adopted a Code of Business Conduct & Ethics for officers, directors and employees of FedEx.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Loans to Management

Prior to enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act in July 2002, FedEx made interest-free demand loans to Robert B. Carter, FedEx's Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer, and to T. Michael Glenn, FedEx's Executive Vice President Market Development and Corporate Communications, to assist them in exercising non-qualified stock options and paying any tax liability associated with such exercises. The highest outstanding balance of FedEx's loan to Mr. Carter during fiscal 2003 was $353,867; Mr. Carter repaid this loan in full during fiscal 2003. The highest outstanding balance of FedEx's loan to Mr. Glenn during fiscal 2003 was $3,935,208; the loan balance as of May 31, 2003 was $1,872,004. FedEx's outstanding loan to Mr. Glenn is fully secured by FedEx common stock, and is payable on demand.

FedEx has ceased providing any loans in connection with the exercise of stock options and no longer extends or maintains credit, arranges for the extension of credit, or renews an extension of credit, in the form of a personal loan, to or for any of its directors or executive officers.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation; Transactions with Management and Other Relationships

During fiscal 2003, Messrs. DeNunzio, Garrison, Hyde and Walsh served as members of the Compensation Committee. Mr. Busch was appointed to the Compensation Committee in June 2003.

On February 9, 2001, FedEx completed its acquisition of American Freightways, Inc. (now known as FedEx Freight East, Inc.). Mr. Garrison, who is retiring as a director at the annual meeting, is the founder of American Freightways and was an officer of American Freightways prior to this date. Mr. Garrison has not been an officer of FedEx or any of its subsidiaries since the completion of the acquisition. During fiscal 2003, Mr. Garrison's son and daughter served as officers of FedEx Freight. Mr. Garrison and FedEx Freight have entered into a consulting agreement under which he will provide consulting services to FedEx Freight as may be requested by the company through January 1, 2005. Mr. Garrison also has agreed not to compete with FedEx and to refrain from disclosing any proprietary information to any party. In consideration for his services, Mr. Garrison will be able to exercise all of his stock options that become exercisable during the term of the agreement. In addition, certain health insurance benefits will be provided to Mr. Garrison.

Mr. Hyde and his wife together own approximately 13% of HOOPS, L.P., the owner of the NBA Memphis Grizzlies professional basketball team. Mr. Hyde, through one of his companies, also is the general partner of the minority limited partner of HOOPS. During fiscal 2002, FedEx entered into a multi-year, $90 million naming rights agreement with HOOPS. Under this agreement, FedEx has certain marketing rights, including the right to name the new arena where the Grizzlies will play. Pursuant to a separate agreement with HOOPS, the City of Memphis and Shelby County, FedEx has agreed to pay $2.5 million a year for the balance of the twenty-five year term of the agreement if HOOPS terminates its lease for the new arena after 17 years. FedEx also purchased $2 million of municipal bonds issued by the Memphis and Shelby County Sports Authority, the proceeds of which are to be used to finance a portion of the construction costs of the new arena.

Senator Mitchell provided consulting services to FedEx during fiscal 2003 pursuant to a retainer arrangement for a fee of $100,000. This retainer arrangement has been in effect, at this level, throughout Senator Mitchell's Board service. FedEx expects to utilize the services of Senator Mitchell during fiscal 2004. Senator Mitchell is a partner in the law firm of Piper Rudnick LLP, which provided $379 of legal services during fiscal 2003 to FedEx Ground. Neither FedEx nor any of its subsidiaries presently intends to utilize the services of Piper Rudnick LLP in the future.

In November 1999, FedEx entered into a multi-year, $205 million naming rights agreement with the NFL Washington Redskins professional football team. Under this agreement, FedEx has certain marketing rights, including the right to name the Redskins' stadium "FedExField." Subject to approval by the National Football League, Frederick W. Smith has agreed to acquire an approximate 10% ownership interest in the Washington Redskins and join its board of directors. Approval by the NFL is expected.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Current Nominees

The Board of Directors currently consists of fourteen directors divided into three classes (Class I, Class II and Class III). Directors in each class are elected to serve for three-year terms that expire in successive years. The terms of the Class II directors will expire at the upcoming annual meeting. The Board of Directors has nominated August A. Bush IV, John A. Edwardson, George J. Mitchell and Joshua I. Smith for election as Class II directors for three-year terms expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2006 and until their successors are elected and qualified. Each nominee currently serves as a Class II director. Two current Class II directors, F.S. Garrison and Ralph D. DeNunzio, are not standing for election and are retiring as directors at the annual meeting.

Each nominee has consented to being named in this proxy statement and has agreed to serve if elected. If a nominee is unable to stand for election, the Board of Directors may either reduce the number of directors to be elected or select a substitute nominee. If a substitute nominee is selected, the proxy holders will vote your shares for the substitute nominee, unless you have withheld authority.

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting is required to elect the four nominees as directors. This means that the four nominees will be elected if they receive more affirmative votes than any other person.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE FOUR NOMINEES.

The following table sets forth, with respect to each nominee, his name, age, principal occupation and employment during the past five years, the year in which he first became a director of FedEx (or its predecessor, FedEx Express) and directorships held in other public companies.

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

Beginning in July 2003, non-employee (outside) directors will be paid:

a quarterly retainer of $15,000;

$2,000 for each in-person Board meeting attended;

$1,000 for each telephonic Board meeting attended;

$1,500 for each in-person committee meeting attended; and $750 for each telephonic committee meeting attended.

Committee chairpersons will be paid an additional annual fee of $10,000. Each outside director remaining in office after the annual meeting also will receive a stock option for 7,000 shares of common stock on the date of the 2003 annual meeting. Frederick W. Smith, the only director who is also a FedEx employee, receives no additional compensation for serving as a director.

The Compensation Committee annually reviews director compensation, including, among other things, comparing FedEx's director compensation practices with those of other public companies of comparable size. Before making a recommendation regarding director compensation to the Board, the Compensation Committee considers that the directors' independence may be compromised if compensation exceeds appropriate levels or if FedEx enters into other arrangements beneficial to the directors.

At its July 1997 meeting, the Board of Directors of FedEx Express (FedEx's predecessor) voted to freeze the Retirement Plan for Outside Directors (that is, no further benefits would be earned under this plan). This plan is unfunded and any benefits under the plan are payable out of the assets of FedEx as a general, unsecured obligation of FedEx.

Concurrent with the freeze, the Board amended the plan to accelerate the vesting of the benefits for each outside director who was not yet vested under the plan. In general, each outside director is entitled to a retirement benefit beginning as of the first day of the fiscal quarter of FedEx next following the date of termination of his or her directorship or the date such director attains age 60, whichever is later. The benefit is an annual amount, payable as a lump-sum distribution or in quarterly installments for no less than ten years and no more than fifteen years depending on years of service, equal to 10% for each year of service up to 100% of the annual retainer fee being paid to the outside director at the time the plan was frozen. Each outside director then serving on the Board who was not yet vested (two directors) will now receive a benefit equal to 10% for each year of service up to the date the plan was frozen. The remaining outside directors will receive their benefits based on their years of service and annual retainer at the time the plan was frozen. Once all benefits are paid from the plan, it will be terminated.

STOCK OPTION GRANTS IN LAST FISCAL YEAR

The following table sets forth information regarding stock option grants under FedEx's stock option plans made during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003 to the named executive officers. The amounts shown for each named executive officer as potential realizable values are based entirely on assumed annualized rates of stock price appreciation of five percent and ten percent over the full ten-year term of the options. These assumed rates of growth were selected by the Securities and Exchange Commission for illustration purposes only and are not intended to predict future stock prices, which will depend upon overall stock market conditions and FedEx's future performance and prospects. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the potential realizable values shown in this table will be achieved.

The exercise price of the options granted to the individuals shown above was the fair market value of FedEx's common stock (the average of the high and low prices of the stock on the New York Stock Exchange) at the date of grant. The options granted are subject to a vesting schedule as follows: 25% after one year from date of grant; 50% after two years; 75% after three years; and 100% after four years. The options may not be transferred in any manner other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution and may be exercised during the lifetime of the optionee only by the optionee. During fiscal 2003, options for a total of 3,173,800 shares were granted to various employees of FedEx and its subsidiaries.

AGGREGATED OPTION EXERCISES IN LAST FISCAL YEAR AND FISCAL YEAR-END OPTION VALUES

The following table sets forth for each named executive officer certain information about stock options exercised during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003 and unexercised stock options held at the end of the fiscal year. The value realized upon exercise of an option is the difference between the exercise price of the option and the fair market value of FedEx's common stock (the average of the high and low prices of the stock on the New York Stock Exchange) on the exercise date. The value of an unexercised in-the-money option at fiscal year-end is the difference between its exercise price and the fair market value of FedEx's common stock on May 30, 2003. The value of unexercised in-the-money options, unlike the amounts set forth in the column "Value Realized," has not been, and may never be, realized. Such options have not been, and may never be, exercised. The actual gain, if any, on exercise will depend on the value of FedEx's common stock on the date of exercise. An option is "in-the-money" if the fair market value of FedEx's common stock exceeds the exercise price of the option. An option is "unexercisable" if it has not yet vested.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLANS AWARDS IN LAST FISCAL YEAR

In 2001, the Compensation Committee established a long-term performance bonus plan to provide a long-term cash bonus opportunity to members of upper management, including executive officers, at the conclusion of fiscal year 2003 if FedEx achieved certain earnings-per-share targets established by the Compensation Committee with respect to the three-fiscal-year period 2001 through 2003. No bonuses were awarded in fiscal 2003 to upper management, including executive officers, under the long-term plan because of below-plan performance for the three-fiscal-year period.

The Compensation Committee has established long-term performance bonus plans for the three-fiscal-year periods 2002 through 2004, 2003 through 2005 and 2004 through 2006, providing bonus opportunities for fiscal 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively, if certain earnings-per-share targets are achieved with respect to those periods. No amounts can be earned for the 2002 through 2004, 2003 through 2005 and 2004 through 2006 plans until 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively, because achievement of the earnings-per-share targets can only be determined following the conclusion of the applicable three-fiscal-year period. The following table sets forth estimates of the possible future payouts to each of the named executive officers under FedEx's long-term performance bonus plans.

The estimated individual future payouts set forth in the table above are set dollar amounts ranging from threshold amounts if the earnings-per-share targets are minimally achieved, up to maximum amounts if the plan targets are substantially exceeded. There can be no assurance that the estimated future payouts shown in this table will be achieved.

PENSION PLAN TABLE

During 2003 FedEx announced to employees that the FedEx Corporation Employees' Pension Plan would be amended to add a cash balance feature, which is called the Portable Pension Account. Eligible employees as of May 31, 2003 may make a one-time election to accrue future pension benefits under either the new cash balance formula or the traditional pension benefit formula. This election is entirely optional. In either case, employees will retain all benefits previously accrued under the traditional pension benefit formula and will continue to receive the benefit of future salary increases on benefits accrued as of May 31, 2003. Eligible employees hired after May 31, 2003 will participate in the Portable Pension Account.

For employees accruing benefits under the Portable Pension Account, the pension benefit earned after May 31, 2003 is expressed as a cash balance account. For each plan year that a year of credited service is earned, a participant's Portable Pension Account is credited with a compensation credit based on the participant's age, service and eligible compensation for the prior calendar year based on the following table:

Age + Service on May 31	Compensation Credit
Less than 55	5%
55-64	6%
65-74	7%
75 or over	8%

A participant's Portable Pension Account is also credited with interest credits at the end of each fiscal quarter (August 31, November 30, February 28 and May 31). Interest credits are based on the Portable Pension Account balance and an annual interest credit rate equal to the greater of (a) the one-year Treasury constant maturities rate for April of the preceding plan year plus 1% or (b) 4%. The annual rate for each plan year, however, will not be more than the average 30-year Treasury rate for April of the preceding plan year. Interest credits will continue to be added until the last day of the month before plan benefits are distributed.

Each individual's one-time election to accrue future pension benefits under either the new cash balance formula or the traditional pension benefit formula is not known at this time, as the election can be made or changed on or before August 29, 2003. Therefore, the following table shows the estimated annual pension benefits, based on the traditional pension benefit formula, payable to participants upon retirement on a single life annuity basis in specified remuneration classes and years of credited service under the FedEx Corporation Employees' Pension Plan and the FedEx Corporation Retirement Parity Pension Plan, which provides 100% of the benefit that would otherwise be denied certain participants by reason of Internal Revenue Code limitations on qualified plan benefits. These plans (under the traditional pension benefit formula) generally provide for a maximum of 25 years of credited service for purposes of benefit accrual. The benefits listed in the table are not subject to any reduction for Social Security or other offset amounts.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Overview of Executive Compensation Philosophy and Program

FedEx's mission is to produce superior financial returns for stockholders by providing high value-added supply chain, transportation and related information services through focused independent operating companies that compete collectively and are managed collaboratively. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is committed to establishing and overseeing a compensation program for executive officers that furthers FedEx's mission.

FedEx's compensation program for executive officers consists of four key elements: (1) a base salary, (2) an annual incentive cash bonus plan, (3) a long-term incentive cash bonus plan, and (4) long-term equity incentives in the form of stock options and restricted stock. The executive officer compensation program is designed to:

Edgar Filing: FEDEX CORP - Form DEF 14A

Attract, retain and develop highly qualified and experienced executive officers by paying them competitively, motivate them to contribute to FedEx's success and reward them for their performance;

Link a significant part of each executive officer's compensation to corporate performance; and

Further align executive compensation with stockholder interests by focusing executive officers on building stockholder value and encouraging and facilitating significant ownership of FedEx common stock by executive officers.

The Compensation Committee believes that FedEx's compensation structure for executive officers promotes the best interests of FedEx and its stockholders. The program enables FedEx to attract and retain highly talented and productive executive officers, while ensuring that they are compensated in such a manner as to advance both the short- and long-term interests of stockholders.

Comparison Surveys

In its fiscal 2003 executive compensation review, the Compensation Committee considered compensation survey information published by two major consulting firms of general industry companies with annual sales in excess of $10 billion. The Compensation Committee believes that general industry is the appropriate comparison category in determining competitive compensation because FedEx's executives can be recruited from, and by, businesses outside FedEx's industry peer group.

Base Salary

Base salaries are reviewed annually for all executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer. The primary objective in setting salaries is to establish a competitive base compensation for FedEx executive officers.

Base salaries for executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, are generally targeted at the 75th percentile of base salaries for comparable positions in the two comparison surveys. With respect to Mr. Smith's base salary, the Compensation Committee also considers market survey data regarding projected base salary increases for chief executive officers of companies in the benchmark group. The base salary level of a particular executive officer may be adjusted to recognize individual competencies, skills and contributions, varying levels of experience and responsibilities, individual performance, internal equity issues or the desire to retain a valuable executive. None of these factors is given any particular weight and the specific factors used may vary among individual executives. Base salaries for executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer are based upon the recommendation of Mr. Smith.

Mr. Smith's base salary was increased in fiscal 2003 by 4.5% and was slightly above the market median of base salaries of chief executive officers in the comparison surveys.

Annual Incentive Cash Bonus Plans

The annual incentive cash bonus program and the long-term incentive cash bonus plan described below reflect the Compensation Committee's philosophy that there should be a strong relationship between pay and corporate performance and that a high proportion of executive officer compensation should be "at risk." Total annual salary and bonus for executive officers (assuming achievement of all individual and corporate objectives as described below) is designed to range from less than the 50th up to the 75th percentile of total annual salary and bonus for comparable positions in the comparison surveys.

FedEx Corporation executive vice presidents participate in the annual incentive cash bonus plan established for headquarters employees. Under this plan, an annual bonus target is established as a percentage of salary based on pay level. A threshold payout of up to 25% of the target bonus is based on the achievement of individual objectives established at the beginning of the fiscal year for each executive officer. For fiscal 2003, the balance of the bonus payout is based on FedEx's consolidated pre-tax income for the fiscal year and ranges, on a sliding scale, from a threshold amount if the plan's pre-established consolidated pre-tax income objectives are minimally achieved up to a maximum amount if such financial performance goals are substantially exceeded.

Each of the presidents of FedEx Express, FedEx Ground and FedEx Freight participates in the annual incentive cash bonus plan sponsored by his respective company. Under each of these plans, an annual bonus target is established as a percentage of salary based on pay level. Under the FedEx Express plan, a threshold payout of up to 25% of the target bonus is based on the achievement of pre-established individual objectives. Under the FedEx Ground and FedEx Freight plans, a threshold payout of up to 50% of the target bonus is based on the achievement of pre-established individual objectives. For fiscal 2003, the balance of the bonus payout under each of the plans is based on each respective company's operating income for the fiscal year and ranges, on a sliding scale, from a threshold amount if the plan's pre-established operating income objectives are minimally achieved up to a maximum amount if such financial performance goals are substantially exceeded.

A baseline amount for Mr. Smith's annual bonus is determined by whether corporate objectives for consolidated pre-tax income and earnings per share for the fiscal year are met or exceeded. Each of these objectives is given equal weight in determining Mr. Smith's baseline bonus amount. The Compensation Committee may adjust this amount upward or downward based on its consideration of several factors, including: FedEx's stock price performance relative to the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Index, the Dow Jones Transportation Average and the Dow Jones Industrial Average; FedEx's revenue and operating income growth relative to competitors; FedEx's cash flow; FedEx's U.S. revenue market share; FedEx's reputation rankings by various publications and surveys; and the Compensation Committee's assessment of the quality and effectiveness of Mr. Smith's leadership during the fiscal year. None of these factors is given any particular weight by the Compensation Committee in determining whether to adjust Mr. Smith's baseline bonus amount.

Taking into account these objectives and factors, the Compensation Committee approves a bonus that, when combined with base salary, may be up to the 75th percentile of total annual salary and bonus for chief executive officers in the comparison surveys. Mr. Smith received an annual bonus of $1,031,194 for fiscal 2003, which, together with his base salary, was below the 75th percentile of total annual salary and bonus for chief executive officers in the comparison surveys.

Long-Term Incentive Cash Bonus Plan

In keeping with the Compensation Committee's philosophy of providing a total compensation package for executive officers that favors variable, at-risk components of pay based on corporate performance, long-term incentives comprise a significant component of an executive officer's total compensation. The long-term incentives are in the form of a cash bonus opportunity and stock-based awards, which are discussed in more detail below. These incentives are designed to motivate and award executive officers for achieving long-term corporate financial performance goals and maximizing stockholder value. Long-term incentives also serve to encourage the long-term employment of key employees and executive officers.

In 2001, the Compensation Committee established a long-term incentive cash bonus plan for members of upper management, including executive officers. This plan provided a bonus opportunity at the conclusion of fiscal 2003 if FedEx achieved certain earnings-per-share targets established by the Compensation Committee with respect to the three-fiscal-year period 2001 through 2003. No bonuses were awarded in fiscal 2003 to any eligible participant under this plan because of below-plan performance for the three-fiscal-year period.

The Compensation Committee has established long-term performance bonus plans for the three-fiscal-year periods 2002 through 2004, 2003 through 2005 and 2004 through 2006, providing bonus opportunities for fiscal 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively, if certain earnings-per-share targets are achieved with respect to those periods. The Long-Term Incentive Plans table on page 24 sets forth the estimated future payouts to the named executive officers under these plans if the three-fiscal-year earnings-per-share targets are achieved.

Long-Term Equity Incentives

The Compensation Committee believes that stock-based compensation aligns the interests of executive officers with stockholder interests by creating a direct link between compensation and stockholder return and gives the executive officers a significant, long-term interest in FedEx's success. In addition, equity awards encourage and facilitate significant ownership of FedEx common stock by executive officers.

Under the terms of FedEx's stock option plans, FedEx may grant options to key employees (as determined by the Compensation Committee) to purchase such number of shares of FedEx common stock as is determined by the Compensation Committee. All decisions to grant stock options are in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee. In fiscal 2003, options for 3,173,800 shares of common stock were granted as long-term incentives to various key employees of FedEx, including executive officers.

Stock options granted to executive officers generally vest ratably over four years beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. Because the exercise price of stock options is equal to the "fair market value" (as defined in the plans) of FedEx's common stock on the date of grant, the options have value only if the stock price appreciates from the value on the date the options were granted. This design has the effect of focusing executive officers on the enhancement of stockholder value over the long-term.

Under the terms of FedEx's restricted stock plans, FedEx may award shares of restricted stock to key employees, including executive officers, as determined by the Compensation Committee. Shares of restricted stock awarded to executive officers generally vest ratably over four years beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. FedEx pays the taxes resulting from a restricted stock award on behalf of the recipient. In fiscal 2003, 343,500 shares of restricted stock were awarded to various key employees of FedEx, including executive officers.

Stock option and restricted stock awards are generally made on an annual basis to executive officers. In appropriate cases, however, special grants may be authorized outside of the annual-grant framework. No such special grants were made in fiscal 2003 to executive officers. Mr. Smith did not receive any restricted stock awards in fiscal 2003.

In determining the number of option shares and shares of restricted stock to award to executive officers, the Compensation Committee does not consider any measures of corporate or individual performance. The Compensation Committee also does not consider the stock option or common stock holdings of an executive officer in determining the size of an option or restricted stock grant to that individual. The primary factor that the Compensation Committee generally considers in determining the number of option shares and shares of restricted stock to award to executive officers is an individual's position and level of responsibility. The Compensation Committee generally designs the total annual base salary, bonus (assuming achievement of all individual and corporate objectives) and equity compensation (stock option grants and restricted stock awards) of executive officers to be comparable with the 75th percentile of total annual salary, bonus and equity compensation for comparable positions in the comparison surveys.

Other factors that the Compensation Committee may consider with respect to the number of option shares and shares of restricted stock to award to an executive officer include: the promotion of an individual to a more senior position; a desire to retain a valued executive; a desire to recognize a particular officer's contributions; the number of shares then available to be granted; and stockholder dilution. None of these factors is given any particular weight and the specific factors used may vary among individual executives.

Tax Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the income tax deduction by FedEx for compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer and the four other highest-paid executive officers to $1,000,000 per year, unless the compensation is "performance based compensation" or qualifies under certain other exceptions. The Compensation Committee designs certain components of executive compensation to ensure full deductibility. The Compensation Committee believes, however, that stockholder interests are best served by not restricting the Compensation Committee's discretion and flexibility in crafting compensation programs, even though such programs may result in certain non-deductible compensation expenses.

FedEx's stock option plans satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m). Accordingly, compensation recognized by the five highest-paid executive officers in connection with stock options granted under these plans is fully deductible. FedEx's annual and long-term incentive cash bonus plans and its restricted stock plans do not meet all of the conditions for qualification under Section 162(m). Compensation received by the five highest paid executive officers under these plans is subject, therefore, to the $1,000,000 deductibility limit.

Conclusion

The Compensation Committee believes FedEx's executive officer compensation policies and programs effectively serve the best interests of FedEx and its stockholders. The various components of executive officer compensation have been deliberately crafted to attract and retain highly qualified and effective executive officers and to motivate them to substantially contribute to FedEx's future success for the benefit of stockholders.

CHANGE-IN-CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

Stock Option and Restricted Stock Plans

FedEx's current stock option plans provide that, in the event of a change in control (as defined in the plans), each holder of an unexpired option under any of the plans has the right to exercise such option without regard to the date such option would first be exercisable, except that, under certain of the plans, no option may be exercised less than six months from the date of grant. This right continues, with respect to holders whose employment with FedEx terminates following a change in control, for a period of twelve months after such termination or until the option's expiration date, whichever is sooner.

FedEx's current restricted stock plans provide that, in the event of a change in control (as defined in the plans), the restricted shares will be canceled and FedEx shall make a cash payment to each holder in an amount equal to the product of the highest price per share received by the holders of FedEx's common stock in connection with the change in control multiplied by the number of restricted shares held.

Management Retention Agreements

FedEx has entered into Management Retention Agreements ("MRAs") with certain senior officers of FedEx and its subsidiaries, including the named executive officers. The purpose of the MRAs is to secure the executives' continued services in the event of any threat or occurrence of a change of control (as defined in the MRAs). The terms and conditions of the MRAs with the named executive officers are summarized below.

Term. The MRAs renew annually for consecutive two-year terms, unless FedEx gives six months' prior notice that the agreements will not be extended. The non-extension notices may not be given at any time when the Board of Directors has knowledge that any person has taken steps reasonably calculated to effect a change of control of FedEx.

Employment Period. Upon a change of control, the MRA immediately establishes a three-year employment agreement with the executive officer. During the employment period, the officer's position (including status, title, authority, duties and responsibilities) may not be diminished. The officer's position is considered diminished if FedEx becomes a subsidiary of another company or if another company acquires all or substantially all of FedEx's assets, unless the parent or successor assumes all of FedEx's obligations under the MRA and the officer assumes a position with the parent or successor commensurate with his former position.

Compensation. During the three-year employment period, the executive officer receives base salary (no less than his highest base salary over the twelve-month period prior to the change of control), annual bonus (no less than his average bonus over the three-year period prior to the change of control), incentive, savings and retirement plan benefits, expense reimbursement, fringe benefits, office and staff support, welfare plan benefits and vacation benefits. These benefits must be no less than the benefits the officer had during the 90-day period immediately prior to the change of control.

Termination. The MRA terminates immediately upon the executive officer's death. FedEx may terminate the MRA for disability if the disability is determined to be total after 26 weeks. Once disability is established, the officer receives 180 days' prior notice of termination. FedEx also may terminate the officer's MRA for "cause."

Benefits for Qualifying Terminations. A "Qualifying Termination" is a termination by FedEx other than for cause, disability or death, by the officer "for good reason" (principally relating to assignment of duties inconsistent with the officer's position and reductions in compensation) or by the officer for any reason during the thirty-day period beginning with the first anniversary date of the change of control.

Edgar Filing: FEDEX CORP - Form DEF 14A

In the event of a Qualifying Termination, the executive officer will receive: (1) a lump sum cash payment equal to three times his annual compensation, which includes his base salary, target annual bonus, target long-term incentive compensation, and company matching contributions to various benefit plans; and (2) a lump sum cash payment equal to the actuarial present value at termination of the amount required to be contributed by FedEx to fund the benefits to the officer under FedEx's pension and parity plans based on an additional 36 months of base salary and target annual bonus and an additional 36 months of age and service, or, if greater, the number of additional months of age and service necessary to provide the officer with 25 years of service and an attained age of 60 under the plans.

For a period ending on the earliest of (i) 36 months following the termination date, (ii) the commencement of equivalent benefits from a new employer, or (iii) the date on which the executive officer reaches age 60, FedEx agrees to keep in force each plan and policy providing medical, accidental death, disability and life coverage to the officer and his dependents with the same level of coverage and the same terms as each policy and plan in effect immediately prior to the termination date.

FedEx agrees to pay any taxes incurred by the officer for any payment, distribution or other benefit (including any acceleration of vesting of any benefit) received or deemed received by the officer from FedEx that triggers certain excise taxes.

In exchange for these benefits, the executive officer has agreed that, for the one-year period following his termination, he will not own, manage, operate, control or be employed by any enterprise that competes with FedEx or any of its affiliates.

STOCK PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the cumulative total return on FedEx's common stock during the last five fiscal years with the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Index and the Dow Jones Transportation Average during the same period. The graph shows the value, at the end of each of the last five fiscal years, of $100 invested in FedEx's common stock and in each of the foregoing indices on May 31, 1998, and assumes the reinvestment of all dividends. The graph depicts the change in the value of FedEx's common stock relative to the indices as of the end of each fiscal year and not for any interim period. Historical stock performance is not necessarily indicative of future stock price performance.

PROPOSAL 2 INCENTIVE STOCK PLAN

Purpose of the Plan

The purpose of the FedEx Corporation Incentive Stock Plan (the "Plan") is to promote the long-term success of FedEx and its subsidiaries and to increase stockholder value by:

attracting and retaining key employees and directors of outstanding ability;

encouraging key employees and directors to focus on long-range objectives; and further aligning the interests of key employees and directors with the interests of the stockholders.

In furtherance of these objectives, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, has adopted the Plan, subject to approval by the stockholders at this meeting. A summary of the Plan is set forth below. This summary is, however, qualified by and subject to the more complete information set forth in the Plan, a copy of which is attached as Appendix B.

Administration of the Plan

Edgar Filing: FEDEX CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Plan will be administered by those members (the "Committee"), not less than two, of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, each of whom is both an "outside director" within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and a "non-employee director" as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Committee, subject to the provisions of the Plan, will:

select persons to receive awards from among those eligible; determine the types of awards and the number of shares of common stock covered by such awards;

establish the terms, conditions, restrictions and other provisions of awards; and amend, modify, cancel or suspend awards.

The Committee has authority to interpret the Plan and all agreements and other instruments relating to awards, to adopt, amend and rescind rules for the administration of the Plan and to make such other determinations and take such other actions that it deems necessary or advisable for the effective administration of the Plan.

Types of Awards

The Committee may award restricted shares of FedEx common stock and options to purchase shares of FedEx common stock under the Plan.

Number of Shares That May Be Awarded

Under the Plan, FedEx may grant:

options to purchase for cash an aggregate of not more than 3,000,000 shares of FedEx common stock; and restricted stock awards of not more than 500,000 shares of FedEx common stock.

Both amounts are subject to adjustment in the event of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or other corporate reorganization. The total number of shares covered by the Plan represents 1.17% of the shares of common stock outstanding as of August 4, 2003. The Plan also provides that no person may be granted options for more than 600,000 shares during any fiscal year.

The Plan provides for the use of authorized but unissued shares or treasury shares. To the extent any shares of common stock covered by an award are forfeited, not issued or cease to be issuable for any reason, including, without limitation, because the award is terminated, canceled or expires unexercised, then the shares of common stock subject to such award may again be used for further awards under the Plan.

Term of the Plan

The Plan will become effective when approved by the stockholders. Unless the Plan is earlier terminated in accordance with its provisions, no awards will be made under the Plan after May 31, 2013, but outstanding options and restrictions on restricted shares issued under the Plan may extend beyond that date.

Eligibility to Receive Awards

Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, awards of restricted stock and stock options may be made to key employees, including approximately 250 officers, of FedEx and its subsidiaries, as may be designated by the Committee. In addition, non-employee directors may receive stock options as set forth in the Plan, but are not eligible to receive restricted stock awards.

Provisions Applicable to Restricted Stock Awards

Terms, Conditions and Restrictions. The Committee has authority to establish the terms, conditions, restrictions and other provisions of each restricted stock award. Unless otherwise specified by the Committee, restricted shares shall be restricted for a period of at least one year and not more than ten years. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or determined by the Committee, the recipient of restricted shares must remain employed by FedEx or a subsidiary during the restriction period or otherwise forfeit all right, title and interest in and to the restricted shares. Until such time as the restrictions on the restricted shares terminate, FedEx or its designee will hold the certificates for such restricted shares in escrow on the recipient's behalf.

Agreements and Stock Legends. A restricted stock award will be evidenced by a written agreement, in such form as may be specified by the Committee, issued by FedEx and setting forth the terms, conditions, restrictions and other provisions of the award. Stock certificates for restricted shares may, if the Committee so determines, bear a legend referring to the restrictions and the instruments to which the shares are subject.

Rights with Respect to Shares. The recipient of a restricted stock award has all rights of ownership with respect to such underlying shares, including the right to vote such shares and to receive any dividends paid thereon, subject, however, to the provisions of the Plan, the agreement relating to the award and any legend on the stock certificate for such shares. Any additional shares of FedEx common stock received incident to the ownership of restricted shares, as a result of a stock dividend, stock split, merger or otherwise, will also be restricted and be subject to the same restrictions and bear the same legend as the original restricted shares.

Transferability Restrictions. During the applicable restriction period, restricted shares may not be sold, pledged, assigned, exchanged, encumbered, hypothecated, transferred or disposed of in any manner.

Lapse of Restrictions. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, the restrictions applicable to restricted shares terminate with respect to such shares on the earliest to occur of:

the specified expiration of the restriction period (including upon a change of control), the recipient's retirement at or after the age of 60, the recipient's permanent disability, or the recipient's death,

provided that, in the event of the recipient's retirement at or after the age of 60 or permanent disability, the restrictions will not terminate prior to six months after the date of award, unless otherwise specified by the Committee. If a recipient retires at or after the age of 55, but before the age of 60, the restrictions will continue until the earlier of the specified expiration of the restriction period, the recipient's permanent disability or the recipient's death.

Tax Reimbursement. At the Committee's discretion, FedEx may make a tax reimbursement cash payment in favor of an award recipient in connection with the tax consequences resulting from the restricted stock award, the lapse of restrictions on the restricted shares or the payment by the recipient of any taxes related thereto, subject to any conditions the Committee may specify.

Provisions Applicable to Stock Options

Exercise Price. The Committee may grant options to purchase FedEx common stock for cash at a price not less than the fair market value of the shares, which is equal to the average of the high and low prices of the common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on the grant date. The closing price of FedEx's common stock on August 4, 2003 was $64.70.

Term of Options; Incentive Stock Options. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, options may not be exercised later than ten years after the grant date. Subject to the limitations imposed by the provisions of the Code, certain of the options granted under the Plan may be designated "incentive stock options."

Written Agreement. Each stock option granted under the Plan will be evidenced by a written agreement, in such form as may be specified by the Committee, issued by FedEx and setting forth the terms, conditions and other provisions of the stock option, including the number of shares covered by the stock option, the exercise price per share, the term of the stock option and the vesting schedule. A recipient of a stock option award may not exercise the stock option until he or she executes and delivers such agreement to FedEx.

Transferability Restrictions. A stock option issued under the Plan by its terms will be personal, and may not be sold, pledged, assigned, exchanged, encumbered, hypothecated, transferred or disposed of in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

Rights After Termination of Employment. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee:

No option may be exercised after termination of an optionee's employment or directorship for any reason other than death, disability or retirement.

If an optionee retires, such optionee's option will continue to vest in accordance with its terms and may be exercised until the expiration of the stated period of the option.

If an optionee's employment or directorship terminates by reason of permanent disability, such optionee's option immediately vests and may be exercised for a period of twenty-four months after such termination date (except no option may be exercised less than six months from the grant date) or until the expiration of the option, whichever period is shorter.

If an optionee dies after retirement or within the twenty-four month period following termination by reason of disability, the optionee's option may be exercised by the optionee's legal representative, to the extent to which it was exercisable at the time of death, for a period of twelve months from the date of death or until the expiration of the option, whichever period is shorter.

If an optionee dies while an employee or director, such optionee's options immediately vest and may be exercised by the optionee's legal representative for a period of twelve months from the date of death or until the expiration of the option, whichever period is shorter.

Payment of Exercise Price. Because the options are to be granted as incentives, FedEx will not receive any cash consideration for granting options. Payment in full of the option price in cash must be made upon exercise of any option.

Cancellation of Outstanding Options. The Committee may revoke and cancel any outstanding options which, in the aggregate, would create a significant adverse effect on FedEx's financial statements if the Financial Accounting Standards Board subjects such options to new accounting rules.

Stock Option Grants to Non-Employee Directors

The Committee may grant to each non-employee director who is elected at or who remains in office following an annual meeting, immediately following such meeting, an option to purchase such number of shares of FedEx common stock as shall be determined by the Committee. Each non-employee director who is elected or appointed a director other than at an annual meeting may be granted upon such election or appointment an option to purchase such number of shares of FedEx common stock as shall be determined by the Committee. Options granted to non-employee directors cannot be exercised earlier than one year from the grant date.

Repricing and Discounting Prohibited

The Plan prohibits the repricing of outstanding options (including, without limitation, by canceling an outstanding option and replacing such option with a new option with a lower exercise price) and the granting of discounted options.

Loans Prohibited

FedEx will not loan funds to an optionee for the purpose of paying the exercise price associated with a stock option issued under the Plan or for the purpose of paying any taxes associated with the issuance, exercise or vesting of any award under the Plan.

38

Change of Control

Upon the occurrence of a "change of control" (as defined in the Plan): (i) depending on the change of control event, the stock certificates evidencing any restricted shares will either be canceled and FedEx shall make a cash payment to the holders in an amount equal to the highest price per share received by the holders of FedEx's common stock in connection with the change of control multiplied by the number of restricted shares held, with any non-cash consideration to be valued in good faith by the Committee, or the restrictions applicable to any such shares will immediately lapse; and (ii) all outstanding stock options will become fully vested and immediately exercisable. Any option holder whose employment or directorship terminates following a change of control may exercise his or her option for a period ending on the earlier of the date of expiration of such option or the date which is twelve months after the termination of employment or directorship.

Termination and Amendment of the Plan

The Board of Directors or the Committee may suspend or terminate the Plan at any time and the Committee may amend or modify the Plan and amend, cancel or suspend any award made under the Plan at any time; provided, however, that without the consent of the recipients affected, no such suspension, termination, cancellation, amendment or modification may materially impair the rights of such recipients with respect to awards previously granted, except as provided in the Plan. Certain amendments and modifications as specified in the Plan, including an amendment to increase the number of shares issuable under the Plan or to reprice outstanding stock options, may not be made, however, without the requisite vote of FedEx's stockholders.

New Plan Benefits

The awards that will be granted to eligible participants under the Plan are subject to the discretion of the Committee and, therefore, are not determinable at this time.

Foreign Jurisdictions

In order to foster and promote achievement of the material purposes of the Plan in foreign jurisdictions and to fairly accommodate for differences in local law, tax policy or custom, the Committee may modify the terms of the Plan or provide additional terms. These modifications or additional terms may be reflected in sub-plans, supplements or alternative versions of the Plan.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a brief description of the material United States federal income tax consequences associated with awards under the Plan. It is based on existing United States laws and regulations, and there can be no assurance that those laws and regulations will not change in the future. Tax consequences in other countries may vary.

Restricted Stock. Restricted stock is not taxable to a recipient at the time of grant, but instead is included in ordinary income (at its then fair market value) when the restrictions lapse. A recipient may elect, however, to recognize income at the time of grant, in which case the fair market value of the restricted shares at the time of grant is included in ordinary income and there is no further income recognition when the restrictions lapse. FedEx is entitled to a tax deduction in an amount equal to the ordinary income recognized by the recipient.

A recipient's tax basis for restricted shares will be equal to the amount of ordinary income recognized by the recipient. The recipient will recognize capital gain (or loss) on a sale of the restricted stock if the sale price exceeds (or is lower than) such basis. The holding period for restricted shares for purposes of characterizing gain or loss on the sale of any shares as long- or short-term commences at the time the recipient recognizes ordinary income pursuant to an award.

Stock Options. Neither incentive stock option grants nor non-qualified stock option grants cause any tax consequences to the optionee or FedEx. Upon the exercise of a non-qualified stock option, the excess of the market value of the shares acquired over their exercise price is ordinary income to the optionee and is deductible by FedEx. The optionee's tax basis for the shares is the market value thereof at the time of exercise. Any gain or loss realized upon a subsequent disposition of the stock will generally constitute capital gain.

Upon the exercise of an incentive stock option, the optionee will not realize taxable income, but the excess of the fair market value of the stock over the exercise price may give rise to alternative minimum tax. When the stock acquired upon exercise of an incentive stock option is subsequently sold, the optionee will recognize income equal to the difference between the sales price and the exercise price of the option. If the sale occurs after the expiration of two years from the grant date and one year from the exercise date, the income will constitute long-term capital gain. If the sale occurs prior to that time, the optionee will recognize ordinary income to the extent of the lesser of the gain realized upon the sale or the difference between the fair market value of the acquired stock at the time of exercise and the exercise price; any additional gain will constitute capital gain. FedEx will be entitled to a deduction in an amount equal to the ordinary income recognized by the optionee. If the optionee exercises an incentive stock option more than three months after his or her termination of employment due to retirement or more than twelve months after his or her termination of employment due to permanent disability, he or she is deemed to have exercised a non-qualified stock option.

Compensation realized by optionees on the exercise of non-qualified stock options or the disposition of shares acquired upon exercise of any incentive stock options will be considered performance-based compensation under the Code and not subject to the $1,000,000 deductibility limit of Section 162(m) of the Code.

Vote Required for Approval

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote is required to approve the Plan.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THIS PROPOSAL.

EQUITY COMPENSATION PLANS

Equity Compensation Plans Approved by Stockholders

Stockholders approved FedEx's 1984, 1987, 1989, 1993, 1995 and 1997 Stock Incentive Plans, as amended, and the 1999 and 2002 Stock Incentive Plans. Although options are still outstanding under the 1984, 1987, 1989 and 1993 plans, no shares are available under these plans for future grants. Stockholders also approved FedEx's 1995 Restricted Stock Plan.

Equity Compensation Plans Not Approved by Stockholders

FedEx's 1997 and 2001 Restricted Stock Plans, as amended, were approved by the Board of Directors, but were not approved by the stockholders. Under the terms of these plans, key employees may receive restricted shares of common stock as determined by the Compensation Committee. Only treasury shares may be issued under these plans. Restrictions on the shares typically expire over four years from the award date. Holders of restricted shares are entitled to vote the shares and to receive any dividends paid on the shares.

In connection with its acquisition of Caliber System, Inc. in January 1998, FedEx assumed Caliber's deferred compensation plan. This plan was approved by Caliber's board of directors, but not by Caliber's or FedEx's stockholders. Following FedEx's acquisition of Caliber, Caliber stock units under the plan were converted to FedEx common stock equivalent units. In addition, the employer's 50% matching contribution on compensation deferred under the plan was made in FedEx common stock equivalent units. Subject to the provisions of the plan, distributions to participants with respect to their stock units are payable in shares of FedEx common stock on a one-for-one basis. Effective January 1, 2003, no further deferrals or employer matching contributions will be made under the plan. Participants may continue to acquire FedEx common stock equivalent units under the plan, however, pursuant to dividend equivalent rights.

Summary Table

The following table sets forth certain information as of May 31, 2003 with respect to compensation plans under which shares of FedEx common stock may be issued. REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in its oversight of FedEx's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee's responsibilities are more fully described in its charter, which is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement.

Edgar Filing: FEDEX CORP - Form DEF 14A

Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the financial reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003, including a discussion of the acceptability and quality of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant accounting judgments and critical accounting policies and estimates, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. The Audit Committee also discussed with the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of FedEx their respective certifications with respect to FedEx's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the acceptability and quality of FedEx's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards, including those matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). In addition, the Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and has discussed those disclosures and other matters relating to independence with the independent auditors.

The Audit Committee discussed with FedEx's internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets with the internal auditor and independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of FedEx's internal controls and the overall quality of FedEx's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, and the receipt of an unqualified opinion from Ernst & Young LLP dated June 23, 2003 regarding the audited financial statements of FedEx for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board approved, that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Audit-Related Fees. Represents fees for assurance services related to the audit of FedEx's financial statements. The amount shown for 2003 includes fees primarily for benefit plan audits. The amount shown for 2002 represents fees related to agreed-upon procedures required under law pertaining to FedEx Express's application for compensation under the Air Transportation Safety and System Stabilization Act.

Tax Fees. Represents fees for professional services provided primarily for domestic and international tax compliance and advice. Tax compliance and preparation fees totaled $842,000 and $194,000 in 2003 and 2002, respectively.

All Other Fees. Represents fees for products and services provided to FedEx not otherwise included in the categories above. The amount shown for 2002 includes fees for healthcare benefit claims reviews.

FedEx's Audit Committee has determined that the provision of non-audit services by Ernst & Young is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young's independence.

PROPOSAL 3 RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Appointment of Auditors

Ernst & Young LLP audited FedEx's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003. The Audit Committee has appointed Ernst & Young to be FedEx's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending May 31, 2004. The stockholders are asked to ratify this appointment at the annual meeting. Representatives of Ernst & Young will be present at the meeting to respond to appropriate questions and to make a statement if they so desire.

Policies Regarding Independent Auditor

The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the independent auditor. To help ensure the independence of the independent auditor, the Audit Committee has approved and adopted two policies: the Policy on Engagement of Independent Auditor and the Policy on Hiring Certain Employees and Partners of the Independent Auditor. The Policy on Engagement of Independent Auditor is available on FedEx's Web site at <http://fdx.client.shareholder.com/governance.cfm>.

Pursuant to the Policy on Engagement of Independent Auditor, the Audit Committee preapproves all audit services and non-audit services to be provided to FedEx by its independent auditor. The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more of its members the authority to grant the required approvals, provided that any exercise of such authority is presented at the next Audit Committee meeting.

Each audit or non-audit service that is approved by the Audit Committee (excluding tax services performed in the ordinary course of FedEx's business) will be reflected in a written engagement letter or writing specifying the services to be performed and the cost of such services, which will be signed by either a member of the Audit Committee or by an officer of FedEx authorized by the Audit Committee to sign on behalf of FedEx.

The Audit Committee will not approve any prohibited non-audit service or any non-audit service that individually or in the aggregate may impair, in the Audit Committee's opinion, the independence of the independent auditor.

In addition, beginning on January 1, 2004, FedEx's independent auditor may not provide any services to FedEx officers or Audit Committee members, including financial counseling and tax services.

Pursuant to the Policy on Hiring Certain Employees and Partners of the Independent Auditor, FedEx will not hire a person who is concurrently a partner or other professional employee of the independent auditor or, in certain cases, an immediate family member of such a person. Additionally, FedEx will not hire a former partner or professional employee of the independent auditor in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role if he or she remains in a position to influence the independent auditor's operations or policies, has capital balances in the independent auditor or maintains certain other financial arrangements with the independent auditor. FedEx will not hire a former member of the independent auditor's audit engagement team (with certain exceptions) in a financial reporting oversight role without waiting for a required "cooling-off" period to elapse.

The FedEx Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer will approve any hire who was employed during the preceding three years by the independent auditor, and will annually report all such hires to the Audit Committee.

Change of Auditors During Fiscal 2002

On March 11, 2002, FedEx determined, for itself and on behalf of its subsidiary FedEx Express, to dismiss its independent auditors, Arthur Andersen LLP, and to engage the services of Ernst & Young as its new independent auditors. The change in auditors became effective on April 12, 2002 following the completion by Arthur Andersen of its review report on the financial statements of FedEx and FedEx Express for the fiscal quarter ended February 28, 2002. This determination followed FedEx's decision to seek proposals from independent accountants to audit the financial statements of FedEx and FedEx Express, and was approved by FedEx's Board of Directors upon the recommendation of its Audit Committee.

During the two fiscal years of FedEx and FedEx Express ended May 31, 2001, and the subsequent interim period through April 12, 2002, there were no disagreements between FedEx or FedEx Express and Arthur Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to

Arthur Andersen's satisfaction, would have caused Arthur Andersen to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports.

None of the reportable events described under Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K occurred within the two fiscal years of FedEx or FedEx Express ended May 31, 2001 or within the interim period through April 12, 2002.

The audit reports of Arthur Andersen on the consolidated financial statements of FedEx and FedEx Express as of and for the fiscal years ended May 31, 2000 and 2001 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

In its letter dated April 12, 2002 to the Office of the Chief Accountant of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Arthur Andersen stated that it agreed with the statements in the four preceding paragraphs. This letter was filed as Exhibit 16.1 to FedEx's Amendment No. 1 to Current Report on Form 8-K/A, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 12, 2002.

During the two fiscal years of FedEx and FedEx Express ended May 31, 2001, and the subsequent interim period through April 12, 2002, neither FedEx nor FedEx Express consulted with Ernst & Young regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

Vote Required For Ratification

The Audit Committee is responsible for selecting FedEx's independent auditors. Accordingly, stockholder approval is not required to appoint Ernst & Young as FedEx's independent auditors for fiscal year 2004. The Board of Directors believes, however, that submitting the appointment of Ernst & Young to the stockholders for ratification is a matter of good corporate governance. If the stockholders do not ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee will review its future selection of independent auditors.

The ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young as FedEx's independent auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THIS PROPOSAL.

PROPOSAL 4 STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL

FedEx is not responsible for the content of this stockholder proposal or supporting statement.

Edgar Filing: FEDEX CORP - Form DEF 14A

FedEx has been notified that the International Brotherhood of Teamsters General Fund, 25 Louisiana Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20001, the beneficial owner of 176 shares of FedEx common stock, intends to present the following proposal for consideration at the annual meeting:

"RESOLVED: That the shareholders of the Federal Express Corporation ("FedEx" or "the Company") urge their Board of Directors to take the necessary steps, in compliance with state law, to declassify the Board for the purpose of director elections. The Board's declassification shall be completed in a manner that does not affect the unexpired terms of directors previously elected."

"SUPPORTING STATEMENT: Federal Express's board is divided into three classes of directors serving staggered three-year terms. This means that an individual director faces election only once every three years, and shareholders only vote on roughly one-third of the board each year.

We believe that annual elections can pave the way for improved board sensitivity to important shareholder issues. In particular, it can help speed the diversification of the Company's board and introduce new perspectives.

In addition, a declassified board allows the company to respond quickly to changes by giving the board the ability to appoint more qualified candidates each year. A declassified board can thus help give FedEx the responsiveness it needs to adapt to the current economic environment. We believe, too, that increased accountability will help the Company focus on long-term shareholder value while maintaining important relationships with FedEx customers, suppliers and employees.

The evidence indicates that shareholders disfavor classified boards. In 2002 the shareholders at more than 30 other companies voted in favor of resolutions recommending that all directors run for election each year. The average level of support for these declassification proposals was 62% of the yes-and-no vote, according to the Investor Responsibility Research Center.¹

¹ IRRC Governance Research Service 2003 Background Report C. Classified Boards (March 2003).

The Company states in its "Corporate Governance Guidelines" that it has a, "longstanding goal of providing effective governance of the Company's business and affairs for the long-term benefit of the Company's stockholders." By adopting annual elections, FedEx can demonstrate its commitment to fuller accountability to shareholders, accountability that honors shareholder concerns for good corporate governance.

We urge our fellow shareholders to vote FOR this proposal."

Board of Directors' Statement in Opposition

FedEx's bylaws divide the Board of Directors into three classes with directors elected to staggered three-year terms. The bylaw provision establishing our classified board structure was adopted by the stockholders of our predecessor, FedEx Express, in 1989.

The Board of Directors and its Nominating & Governance Committee have carefully considered this proposal and the arguments for and against a classified board. We have concluded that FedEx's classified board structure continues to promote the best interests of our stockholders, and oppose this proposal for the following reasons:

Continuity and stability. Our classified board structure helps to assure the continuity and stability of FedEx's management and policies, since a majority of the directors at any given time will have prior experience as FedEx directors and familiarity with FedEx's business. FedEx benefits greatly from the wisdom and institutional knowledge our directors develop through such prior experience. Such continuity and stability also help us attract and retain highly qualified Board members willing to commit the time and dedication necessary to understand FedEx's business.

Long-term focus. The continuity and stability that result from staggered terms foster effective long-term planning and help create long-term value for FedEx stockholders. The Board's goal, as stated in our Corporate Governance Guidelines and referenced in the proponent's supporting statement, is to govern for the long-term benefit of our stockholders. The governance reforms of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act likewise charge the Board with preventing short-term abuses. Longer terms are consistent with such a long-term focus.

Value protection. In the event of a hostile takeover attempt, the classification of our directors would benefit stockholders. It would not prevent a takeover, but would give the Board time to consider alternative proposals and act in the best interests of FedEx and the stockholders. It also encourages the person seeking to gain control of FedEx to initiate arm's-length discussions with the Board, which is in a position to negotiate a transaction that is most favorable to FedEx and our stockholders.

Director independence. Longer terms increase the independence of non-management directors by insulating them from outside short-term influences and reducing the threat that a director who refuses to conform will not be renominated.

The proponent argues that board declassification increases accountability to stockholders. We disagree. Directors have fiduciary duties to stockholders regardless of how often they are elected. Directors who are elected to three-year terms are not insulated from responsibility and are just as accountable to stockholders as directors who are elected annually.

The proponent claims to be motivated by a concern for good corporate governance. Good corporate governance, however, depends upon the quality of the board, not the quantity of years in the directors' terms.

FedEx has an independent, active and effective Board of Directors committed to first-rate corporate governance. Each FedEx director embodies the most important criteria for effective board service, as set forth in our Corporate Governance Guidelines, including personal qualities such as the highest level of personal and professional ethics, integrity and values, an inquiring and independent mind, the willingness to devote the required time to carrying out the duties and responsibilities of Board membership, and the willingness to represent the best interests of all stockholders and objectively appraise management performance. These qualities have nothing to do with term length. While the proponent focuses on the side issue of board structure, the Board of Directors continues to focus on issues of substance:

The Board has added two highly qualified, independent directors within the past year.

We have adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines to help promote the effective functioning of the Board and high quality corporate governance.

A substantial majority of our directors are independent from FedEx management.

The Board conducts an annual performance evaluation of each Board member, each Board committee and the Board of Directors as a whole to continue to improve our effectiveness.

We have adopted a Code of Business Conduct & Ethics to help maintain our high standard of business and personal ethics.

In short, we remain convinced that organizing our independent, active and effective Board of Directors into three classes best promotes our longstanding goal of providing effective governance and value protection for the long-term benefit of our stockholders. Accordingly, we recommend that you vote against this proposal.

Effect of Approval

Approval of this proposal would not automatically declassify the Board of Directors, but would merely serve as a recommendation to the Board to take the necessary steps to declassify itself. Such steps would, if taken, include repealing the classified board provision in FedEx's bylaws, which requires an 80% supermajority stockholder vote.

Vote Required for Approval

If this proposal is properly presented at the meeting, approval requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "AGAINST" THIS PROPOSAL.

OTHER MATTERS

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Proxy Solicitation

FedEx will bear all costs of this proxy solicitation. In addition to soliciting proxies by this mailing, we expect that our directors, officers and regularly engaged employees may solicit proxies personally or by mail, telephone, facsimile or other electronic means, for which solicitation they will not receive any additional compensation. FedEx will reimburse brokerage firms, custodians, fiduciaries and other nominees for their out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to beneficial owners upon our request. FedEx has retained Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies for a fee of up to $25,000, which includes reimbursement of expenses.

Householding

We have adopted a procedure approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission called "householding." Under this procedure, stockholders of record who have the same address and last name and do not participate in electronic delivery will receive only one copy of this proxy statement and the 2003 Annual Report to Stockholders, unless contrary instructions have been received from one or more of these stockholders. This procedure will reduce our printing costs and postage fees.

Stockholders who participate in householding will continue to receive separate proxy cards. Also, householding will not in any way affect dividend check mailings.

If you are eligible for householding, but you and other stockholders of record with whom you share an address currently receive multiple copies of our annual report or proxy statement, or if you hold stock in more than one account, and in either case you wish to receive only a single copy of our annual report or proxy statement for your household, please contact our transfer agent, EquiServe Trust Company, N.A. (in writing: P.O. Box 43069, Providence, Rhode Island 02940-3069; by telephone: in the U.S. or Canada, 1-800-446-2617; outside the U.S. or Canada, 1-781-575-2723).

If you participate in householding and wish to receive a separate copy of this proxy statement or the 2003 Annual Report, or if you do not wish to participate in householding and prefer to receive separate copies of future annual reports or proxy statements, please contact EquiServe as indicated above. A separate copy of this proxy statement and the 2003 Annual Report will be delivered promptly upon request.

Beneficial stockholders who are not record holders can request information about householding from their banks, brokers or other holders of record.

Stockholder Proposals for 2004 Annual Meeting

Stockholder proposals intended to be presented at FedEx's 2004 annual meeting must be received by FedEx no later than April 20, 2004 to be eligible for inclusion in FedEx's proxy statement and form of proxy for next year's meeting. Proposals should be addressed to FedEx Corporation, Attention: Corporate Secretary, 942 South Shady Grove Road, Memphis, Tennessee 38120.

For any proposal that is not submitted for inclusion in next year's proxy statement (as described in the preceding paragraph), but is instead sought to be presented directly at the 2004 annual meeting, Securities and Exchange Commission rules will permit management to vote proxies in its discretion if (1) FedEx receives notice of the proposal by July 5, 2004 and advises stockholders in next year's proxy statement about the nature of the matter and how management intends to vote on such matter, or (2) FedEx does not receive notice of the proposal by July 5, 2004. Notices of intention to present proposals at the 2004 annual meeting should be addressed to FedEx Corporation, Attention: Corporate Secretary, 942 South Shady Grove Road, Memphis, Tennessee 38120.

Unless the Plan is earlier terminated in accordance with the provisions hereof, no Award shall be granted under the Plan after May 31, 2013, but outstanding Stock Options and restrictions on Restricted Shares may extend beyond such date.

4. Administration of the Plan

(a) The Committee. (c) Restoration of Shares. To the extent any shares of Common Stock covered by an Award are forfeited, not issued or cease to be issuable for any reason, including, without limitation, because the Award is terminated, canceled or expires unexercised, then the shares of Common Stock subject to such Award may again be used for further Awards under the Plan.

(d) Source of Stock. Shares of Common Stock issued under the Plan may consist, in whole or in part, of authorized but unissued shares or treasury shares. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued under the Plan.

7. Eligibility and Participation in the Plan

(a) Eligible Recipients. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee,

The Committee shall, in its sole and complete discretion and subject to the provisions of the Plan, (1) select from time to time the employees, from among those eligible, who shall receive Awards, (2) determine the type of Award to be granted and (3) determine and establish the terms, provisions, conditions and restrictions of each Award, including the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the Award. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, Awards may be granted singly or in combination with other Awards or in combination with, in replacement of, as alternatives to or as the payment form for grants or rights under any other compensation plan, contract or agreement of the Company or any subsidiary. Non-Management Directors may be granted Stock Options as provided in Section 9(d).

(c) No Right to Receive Award. No employee or Non-Management Director shall have any right to receive an Award or, having received an Award, to receive a future Award.

(2) No person shall have any rights or claims under or pursuant to the Plan except in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.

8. Provisions Applicable to Restricted Stock Awards

(a) Terms, Conditions and Restrictions. The Committee shall establish the terms, conditions, restrictions and other provisions of each Restricted Stock Award. Unless otherwise specified by the Committee, shares subject to a Restricted Stock Award shall be restricted for a period of at least one year and not more than ten years (the "Restriction Period"). Except as provided in Section 8(g) below, the Participant must remain employed by the Company or a subsidiary during the Restriction Period or otherwise forfeit all right, title and interest in and to the Restricted Shares. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Participant retires at or after the age of 55, but before the age of 60, the Restriction Period shall continue after the Participant's retirement in accordance with the terms of the Restricted Stock Award or until the earlier to occur of the events described in Sections 8(g)(3) and (4) below.

(b) Agreements: Stock Legend. Each Restricted Stock Award will be evidenced by a written agreement, in such form as may be specified by the Committee, issued by the Company and setting forth the terms, conditions, restrictions and other provisions of such Award. As a condition to receiving a Restricted Stock Award, each proposed recipient must execute and deliver such agreement to the Company. Certificates for Restricted Shares may, if the Committee so determines, bear a legend referring to the restrictions and the instruments to which such shares are subject.

(c) Rights with Respect to Shares. A Participant who receives a Restricted Stock Award shall have all rights of ownership with respect to such underlying shares of Common Stock, including the right to vote such shares and to receive any dividends paid thereon, subject, however, to the provisions of the Plan, the agreement relating to the Restricted Stock Award and any legend on the certificate for such shares. Until such time as any restrictions imposed pursuant to Section 8(a) on any Restricted Shares shall terminate, the Company or its designee will hold the certificate(s) for such Restricted Shares in escrow on such Participant's behalf.

(d) Transferability Restriction. Shares of Common Stock subject to a Restricted Stock Award may not be sold, pledged, assigned, exchanged, encumbered, hypothecated, transferred or disposed of in any manner during the Restriction Period applicable thereto.

(e) Additional Shares Received With Respect to Restricted Shares. Any shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company received by a Participant as a stock dividend on, or in connection with a stock split or combination, share exchange, reorganization, recapitalization, merger, consolidation or otherwise with respect to, shares of Common Stock received as a Restricted Stock Award shall have the same status, be subject to the same restrictions and bear the same legend, if any, as the shares received pursuant to the Restricted Stock Award.

(f) Tax Reimbursement. In the sole discretion of the Committee, any agreement relating to a Restricted Stock Award may provide for a tax reimbursement cash payment to be made by the Company in favor of any Participant in connection with the tax consequences resulting from a Restricted Stock Award, the lapse of restrictions on any Restricted Shares or the payment by a Participant of any taxes related thereto, subject to such conditions as the Committee may specify.

(g) Lapse of Restrictions. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, any restrictions imposed pursuant to Section 8(a) on Restricted Shares shall terminate with respect to such shares on the earliest to occur of the following, provided, that no restrictions shall lapse less than six months from the date of award in the event of (2) and (3) below, unless otherwise specified by the Committee:

- (1) the expiration of the Restriction Period (including pursuant to Section 15(b)(1) below);
- (2) the Participant's retirement at or after the age of 60;
- (3) the Participant's permanent disability; or
- (4) the Participant's death.

Upon the termination of such restrictions, the certificates for such shares of Common Stock shall be released from escrow and delivered to the Participant or, in the event of the Participant's death, the Participant's personal representative and any legend on such certificates shall be removed.

9. Provisions Applicable to Stock Options

(a) Limit on Awards. No Participant shall receive Stock Options for more than 600,000 shares of Common Stock during any fiscal year of the Company.

B-4

(b) Agreements. Each Stock Option will be evidenced by a written agreement, in such form as may be specified by the Committee, issued by the Company and setting forth the terms, conditions and other provisions of the Stock Option, including the number of shares of Common Stock covered by the Stock Option, the exercise price per share, the term of the Stock Option and the vesting schedule. A Participant may not exercise a Stock Option until he or she executes and delivers such agreement to the Company.

(c) Terms and Conditions. All Stock Options shall be subject to the following terms and conditions and to such other terms and conditions consistent with the terms of the Plan as the Committee shall determine:

(1) Option Price. The exercise price per share shall be determined by the Committee, but shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. The "Fair Market Value" of the Common Stock on a particular date shall mean, for all purposes under the Plan, the average of the high and low sales prices of the Common Stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange composite tape on that date. In the event that such method for determining Fair Market Value is not practicable, then the Committee shall determine the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock in such manner as it deems appropriate.

(2) Time of Exercise of Option. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, each Stock Option shall be exercisable during and over such period ending not later than ten years from the grant date. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, no Stock Option shall be exercisable prior to the first anniversary of the grant date, except as provided in Sections 9(c)(4) and 15(b)(2) below.

(3) Method of Exercise and Payment. Each Stock Option may be exercised by giving written notice to the Company specifying the number of shares to be purchased and accompanied by payment in full (including applicable taxes, if any) in cash therefor. No Stock Option shall be exercised for less than the lesser of 50 shares or the full number of shares for which the Stock Option is then exercisable. No Participant shall have any rights to dividends or other rights of a stockholder with respect to shares subject to his or her Stock Option until he or she has given written notice of exercise, paid in full for such shares and, if requested, given the representation described in Section 10 below.

(4) Rights After Termination of Employment.

(i) Retirement. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, if a Participant's employment or directorship terminates by reason of his or her retirement, the Participant's Stock Option will continue to vest in accordance with its terms and may be exercised until the expiration of the stated period of the Stock Option; provided, however, that if the Participant dies after such termination of employment or directorship, any unexercised Stock Option, to the extent to which it was exercisable at the time of the Participant's death, may thereafter be exercised by the legal representative of the estate or by the legatee of the Stock Option under the last will for a period of twelve months from the date of the Participant's death or the expiration of the stated period of the Stock Option, whichever period is the shorter.

(ii) Disability. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, if a Participant's employment or directorship terminates by reason of permanent disability, the Participant's Stock Option may thereafter be exercised in full (except that no Stock Option may be exercised less than six months from the grant date) for a period of twenty-four months from the date of such termination of employment or directorship or the stated period of the Stock Option, whichever period is the shorter; provided, however, that if the Participant dies within a period of twenty-four months after such termination of employment or directorship, any outstanding Stock Option may thereafter be exercised by the legal representative of the estate or by the legatee of the Stock

Option under the last will for a period of twelve months from the date of the Participant's death or the expiration of the stated period of the Stock Option, whichever period is the shorter.

(iii) Death. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, if a Participant's employment or directorship terminates by reason of the Participant's death, the Participant's Stock Option may thereafter be exercised in full by the legal representative of the estate or by the legatee of the Stock Option under the last will for a period of twelve months from the date of the Participant's death or the expiration of the stated period of the Stock Option, whichever period is the shorter.

(iv) Other. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, if a Participant's employment or directorship terminates for any reason other than death, retirement or permanent disability, the Participant's Stock Option shall thereupon terminate.

(d) Grant of Stock Options to Non-Management Directors. Non-Management Directors shall not be eligible to receive any Awards other than Stock Options as specified in this Section 9(d).

(1) Discretionary Awards. The Committee may grant a Non-Qualified Option to any Non-Management Director for such number of shares of Common Stock as the Committee shall determine; provided, however, that such grants of Non-Qualified Options only may be made (i) immediately following an annual meeting of the Company's stockholders to any of the Non-Management Directors who are then incumbent after such meeting and (ii) in connection with a Non-Management Director's election or appointment to the Board of Directors if other than at an annual meeting.

(2) Terms and Conditions of Stock Options. The Committee shall establish the terms and conditions of Non-Qualified Options granted to Non-Management Directors, provided, that any Non-Qualified Option granted to a Non-Management Director (i) shall have an exercise price per share not less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the date of grant and (ii) shall not be exercisable earlier than one year from the date of grant, except as provided in Sections 9(c)(4) and 15(b)(2). Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, all provisions of the Plan with respect to the terms of Non-Qualified Options granted to employees shall be applicable to Non-Qualified Options granted to Non-Management Directors.

(e) Designation of Certain Options as Incentive Stock Options. Stock Options, or portions thereof, granted to employees may in the discretion of the Committee be designated as Incentive Stock Options. In addition to the other applicable terms and conditions contained in this Section 9, the aggregate Fair Market Value of the shares of Common Stock covered by an Incentive Stock Option (determined at the time the Stock Option is granted) with respect to which an Incentive Stock Option is exercisable for the first time by any individual Participant during any calendar year (under the Plan and all other similar plans of the Company and its subsidiaries) shall not exceed $100,000 (or such other amount as may be specified by Section 422(d) of the Code).

(f) Transferability Restriction. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, a Stock Option by its terms shall be personal and may not be sold, pledged, assigned, exchanged, encumbered, hypothecated, transferred or disposed of in any manner by the Participant other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. During a Participant's lifetime, only the Participant or a duly appointed legal representative may exercise the Stock Option, unless otherwise determined by the Committee.

(g) Repricing Prohibited. Neither the Committee nor the Company shall "reprice" outstanding Stock Options for any reason. For purposes of the Plan, a "repricing" means lowering the exercise price per share of an outstanding Stock Option or any other action that has the same effect or is treated as a repricing under generally accepted accounting principles and includes, without limitation, a tandem cancellation of a Stock Option at a time when its exercise price per share exceeds the fair market value of the underlying Common Stock and exchange for another option or other equity security (unless such cancellation and exchange occurs in connection with a merger, acquisition, spin-off or other similar corporate transaction).

(h) Use of Proceeds. Proceeds received by the Company pursuant to the exercise of Stock Options shall constitute general funds of the Company.

10. Compliance with Applicable Laws; Investment Representation

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan or any agreement relating to a particular Award, the Company shall have no obligation to issue any shares of Common Stock under the Plan unless such issuance would comply with all applicable laws and the applicable requirements of any securities exchange or similar entity. Prior to the issuance of any shares of Common Stock under the Plan, the Company may require a written statement that the Participant is acquiring such shares for his or her own account for investment and not for the purpose or with the intention of distributing the shares or any part thereof. The certificates representing shares of Common Stock issued under the Plan may bear such legend or legends as the Committee deems appropriate in order to assure compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations and to reflect any restrictions on transfers.

11. Transfer, Leave of Absence, Etc.

For purposes of the Plan, (a) a transfer of an employee from the Company to a subsidiary, or vice versa, or from one subsidiary to another, and (b) a leave of absence, duly authorized in writing by the Company or a subsidiary, shall not be deemed a termination of employment.

12. Tax Withholding

All distributions under the Plan (including, without limitation, the grant of Awards and the issuance of Common Stock pursuant to an Award) are subject to withholding of all applicable taxes, and the Committee may condition the delivery of any Award or the issuance of any Common Stock pursuant to an Award on the satisfaction of applicable withholding obligations (including, without limitation, by requiring a Participant to relinquish a portion of any proceeds received by the Participant in connection with the sale of shares acquired upon exercise of a Stock Option).

13. Prohibition on Loans

The Company shall not loan funds to any Participant for the purpose of paying the exercise price associated with any Stock Option or for the purpose of paying any taxes associated with the issuance, exercising or vesting of any Award.

14. Changes in Capitalization

If the outstanding Common Stock shall at any time be changed or exchanged as a result of a stock dividend, stock split, share combination, exchange or reclassification, recapitalization, merger, consolidation or other corporate reorganization affecting the Common Stock, (a) the number and kind of shares that have been issued and that may thereafter be issued under the Plan, (b) the number and kind of shares underlying Restricted Stock Awards still subject to a Restriction Period, (c) the exercise prices and the number and kind of shares subject to outstanding Stock Options and (d) such other terms of Awards as the Committee deems appropriate, shall be approximately and equitably adjusted by the Committee in its sole and complete discretion.

15. Change of Control

(a) Definition. For purposes of the Plan, the term "Change of Control" means the occurrence of any of the following events following the effective date of the Plan:

(1) Any "person" (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14 of the Exchange Act), other than (i) the Company, (ii) any subsidiary of the Company, (iii) any employee benefit plan (or a trust forming a part thereof) maintained by the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, (iv) any underwriter temporarily holding securities of the Company pursuant to an offering of such securities or (v) any person in connection with a transaction described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of Section 15(a)(2) below, becomes the "beneficial owner" (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of securities of the Company representing 30% or more of the total voting power of the Company's then outstanding voting securities, unless such securities (or, if applicable, securities that are being converted into voting securities) are acquired directly from the Company in a transaction approved by a majority of the Incumbent Board (as defined below).

(2) The consummation of a merger, consolidation or reorganization with or into the Company or in which securities of the Company are issued, or the sale or other disposition, in one transaction or a series of transactions, of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (a "Corporate Transaction"), unless:

(i) the stockholders of the Company immediately before such Corporate Transaction will own, directly or indirectly, immediately following such Corporate Transaction, at least 60% of the total voting power of the outstanding voting securities of the corporation or other entity resulting from such Corporate Transaction (including a corporation or other entity that acquires all or substantially all of the Company's assets, the "Surviving Company") or the ultimate parent company thereof in substantially the same proportion as their ownership of the voting securities of the Company immediately before such Corporate Transaction;

(ii) the individuals who were members of the Board of Directors immediately prior to the execution of the agreement providing for such Corporate Transaction constitute a majority of the members of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of the Surviving Company or the ultimate parent company thereof; and

(iii) no person, other than (A) the Company, (B) any subsidiary of the Company, (C) any employee benefit plan (or a trust forming a part thereof) maintained by the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, (D) the Surviving Company, (E) any subsidiary or parent company of the Surviving Company, or (F) any person who, immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction, was the beneficial owner of securities of the Company representing 30% or more of the total voting power of the Company's then outstanding voting securities, is the beneficial owner of 30% or more of the total voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of the Surviving Company or the ultimate parent company thereof.

(3) The stockholders of the Company approve a complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company.

(4) Directors who, as of the effective date of the Plan, constitute the Board of Directors (the "Incumbent Board"), cease to constitute at least a majority of the Board of Directors (or, in the event of any merger, consolidation or reorganization the principal purpose of which is to change the Company's state of incorporation, form a holding company or effect a similar reorganization as to form, the board of directors of such surviving company or its ultimate parent company); provided, however, that any individual becoming a member of the Board of Directors subsequent to the effective date of the Plan whose election, or nomination for election by the Company's stockholders, was approved by a vote of a majority of the directors then comprising the Incumbent Board shall be considered as though such individual were a member of the Incumbent Board, but excluding, for this purpose, any such individual whose initial assumption of office occurs as a result of either an actual or threatened proxy contest relating to the election of directors.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Change of Control will not be deemed to occur solely because any person (a "Subject Person") becomes the beneficial owner of more than the permitted amount of the outstanding voting securities of the Company as a result of the acquisition of voting securities by the Company which, by reducing the number of voting securities outstanding, increases the proportional number of voting securities beneficially owned by the Subject Person, provided, that if a Change of Control would occur (but for the operation of this sentence) as a result of the acquisition of voting securities by the Company, and after such acquisition by the Company, the Subject Person becomes the beneficial owner of any additional voting securities that increases the percentage of the then outstanding voting securities beneficially owned by the Subject Person to 30% or more of the total voting power, then a Change of Control will have occurred.

(b) Effect of Change of Control. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, upon a Change of Control:

(1) Restricted Shares. In the event of a Change of Control as described in Section 15(a)(2), as shall be determined by the Committee: (i) the stock certificates evidencing any Restricted Shares shall be canceled and the Company shall make a cash payment to those Participants in an amount equal to the highest price per share received by the holders of Common Stock in connection with such Change of Control multiplied by the number of Restricted Shares then held by such Participant, with any non-cash consideration to be valued in good faith by the Committee; or (ii) the Restriction Periods with respect to all outstanding Restricted Shares shall immediately lapse. In the event of a Change of Control as described in Section 15(a)(1), (3) or (4), the Restriction Periods with respect to all outstanding Restricted Shares shall immediately lapse.

(2) Stock Options. In the event of a Change of Control, all outstanding Stock Options shall become fully vested and immediately exercisable. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, any Participant whose employment or directorship terminates following a Change of Control may exercise his or her Stock Option in full for a period ending on the earlier of the date of expiration of such Stock Option or the date which is twelve months after such termination of employment or directorship.

(c) Deemed Change of Control. If the Company enters into an agreement or series of agreements or the Board of Directors adopts a resolution that results in the occurrence of a Change of Control, and the employment or directorship of a Participant is terminated after the entering into of such agreement or series of agreements or the adoption of such resolution, then, upon the occurrence of the Change of Control, a Change of Control shall be deemed to have retroactively occurred on the date of entering into of the earliest of such agreements or the adoption of such resolution.

16. Amendments

The Board of Directors or the Committee may suspend or terminate the Plan at any time and the Committee may amend or modify the Plan and amend, modify, cancel or suspend any Award at any time and from time to time; provided, however, that without the consent of the Participant affected, no such suspension, termination, cancellation, amendment or modification may materially impair the rights of any Participant under any Award theretofore granted, except as provided in

B-9

Section 17 below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, without the requisite vote of the Company's stockholders, no such amendment or modification may:

- (a) increase the total number of shares of Common Stock issuable under the Plan pursuant to Section 6;
- (b) expand the type of Awards available under the Plan;
- (c) materially expand the class of persons eligible to receive Awards;
- (d) extend the term of the Plan;
- (e) materially change the method of determining the exercise price per share of Stock Options;
- (f) "reprice" an outstanding Stock Option;
- (g) increase the maximum number of shares subject to Stock Options that may be granted to a Participant; or

(h) delete or limit the provisions of Section 9(g) (repricing prohibition) or Section 13 (loan prohibition).

In addition, any "material revision" of the Plan (within the meaning of the rules of the New York Stock Exchange) not listed in Sections 16(a) through (h) above also shall require the requisite vote of the Company's stockholders.

17. Cancellation of Outstanding Options

If the Committee, after consulting with management of the Company, determines that application of an accounting standard in compliance with any statement issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board concerning the treatment of Stock Options would have a significant adverse effect on the Company's financial statements because of the fact that Stock Options granted before the issuance of such statement are subject to new accounting rules, then the Committee in its absolute discretion may cancel and revoke all outstanding Stock Options to which such adverse effect is attributed and the holders of such Stock Options shall have no further rights in respect thereof. Such cancellation and revocation shall be effective upon written notice by the Committee to the holders of such Stock Options.

18. Foreign Jurisdictions

Awards granted to Participants who are foreign nationals or who are employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries outside of the United States may have such terms and conditions different from those specified in the Plan and such additional terms and conditions as the Committee, in its judgment, determines to be necessary, appropriate or desirable to foster and promote achievement of the material purposes of the Plan and to fairly accommodate for differences in local law, tax policy or custom or to facilitate administration of the Plan. The Committee may approve such sub-plans, appendices or supplements to, or amendments, restatements or alternative versions of, the Plan as it may consider necessary, appropriate or desirable, without thereby affecting the terms of the Plan as in effect for any other purpose. The special terms and any appendices, supplements, amendments, restatements or alternative versions, however, shall not include any provisions that are inconsistent with the terms of the Plan as then in effect, unless the Plan could have been amended to eliminate such inconsistency without further approval by the Company's stockholders.

B-10

19. Compliance with Section 16(b)

With respect to Participants who are subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act ("Reporting Persons"), transactions under the Plan are intended to comply with all applicable conditions of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act. All transactions under the Plan involving Reporting Persons are subject to such conditions, regardless of whether the conditions are expressly set forth in the Plan. Any provision of the Plan that is contrary to a condition of Rule 16b-3 shall not apply to such Reporting Persons.
