TO OUR SHAREHOLDERS

June 30, 2018

Dear Fellow Shareholders:

It is a pleasure to welcome each of our new shareholders to Foxby Corp. and to submit this 2018 Semi-Annual Report. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective of total return by exercising a flexible strategy in the selection of securities, and is not limited by the issuer's location, size, or market capitalization. The Fund may invest in equity and fixed income securities of new and seasoned U.S. and foreign issuers, including securities convertible into common stock, debt securities, futures, options, derivatives, and other instruments. The Fund also may employ aggressive and speculative investment techniques, such as selling securities short and borrowing money for investment purposes, a practice known as "leveraging," and may invest defensively in short term, liquid, high grade securities and money market instruments.

Economic and Market Report

At the June 2018 meeting of the Federal Open Market Committee ("FOMC") of the Federal Reserve Bank (the "Fed"), the Fed staff's review of the economic situation suggested "that real gross domestic product (GDP) appeared to be rising at a solid rate in the first half of the year." The staff viewed labor market conditions as strong, citing the decrease in the national unemployment rate to 3.8% in May 2018. Regarding inflation, the staff noted that "consumer price inflation, as measured by the 12-month percentage change in the price index for personal consumption expenditures (PCE), was 2 percent in April." In addition, compensation, as measured by hourly earnings, increased 2.7% in the twelve months ended March 31, 2018, a faster pace than in the equivalent prior year period.

Addressing the financial markets, the Fed staff noted that even though "global financial markets were buffeted by increased concerns about the outlook for foreign growth . . . broad domestic stock price indexes increased on net, as generally strong corporate earnings reports helped support prices. Meanwhile, financing conditions . . . remained supportive of economic activity on balance." In conclusion, the Fed staff projected that "the economy would expand at an above-trend pace ... and the unemployment rate was projected to decline further below the staff's estimate of its longer-run natural rate." After considering the generally positive economic data, the staff decided that "further gradual increases in the target range for the federal funds rate" are advisable and that "risks to the economic outlook appear roughly balanced." The Fed appeared to reach mostly positive conclusions about the current economy, which suggests to us that investors might anticipate favorable markets ahead, although certain danger signs, such as potential trade wars, high stock market valuations, and growing systemic leverage, indicate a cautious approach might be in order for the rest of 2018.

Investment Strategy and Returns

In view of these economic and market developments, the Fund's strategy in the first half of 2018 was to focus on quality companies deemed by Midas Management Corporation (the "Investment Manager") to be undervalued. Generally, the Fund purchased and held equity securities in seeking to achieve its investment objective of total return and sold investments that appeared to have appreciated to levels reflecting full or over-valuation. In the six months ended June 30, 2018, the Fund's net investment loss, net realized gain on investments, and unrealized depreciation on investments were, respectively, $24,510, $751,633, and $982,705, which contributed significantly to the Fund's net asset value return of (3.19)%. Profitable sales in the period were made of, among others, part of the Fund's holding of Wal-Mart, Inc. in the general merchandise stores sector and The Greenbrier Companies, Inc. in the transportation equipment sector. Losses were taken on, among others, Cenovus Energy Inc. in the oil and gas extraction sector and Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. in the home furniture, furnishings, and equipment stores sector. Although no particular investment was responsible for the majority of the unrealized appreciation or depreciation on investments over the period, Pilgrim's Pride Corporation in the food and kindred products sector and Affiliated Managers Group, Inc. in the security and commodity brokers, dealers, exchanges, and services sector were significant contributors to unrealized depreciation during the period. At the same time, the Fund benefited from unrealized appreciation from its holdings of Discovery, Inc. in the communications sector and Alphabet Inc. Class A in the business services sector.

The Fund's market return for the first half of 2018 was 5.74%. Generally, the Fund's total return on a market value basis will be higher than total return on a net asset value basis in periods where there is a decrease in the discount or an increase in the premium of the market value to the net asset value from the beginning to the end of such periods. For comparison, in the same period, the S&P 500 Index total return was 2.65%. This index is unmanaged and does not reflect fees and expenses, nor is it available for direct investment. At June 30, 2018, the Fund's portfolio included over 50 securities of different issuers, with the top ten amounting to approximately 37% of total assets. The total net asset value was approximately $7,900,000, of which approximately $7,700,000 was invested in securities, with the balance comprised of cash and other assets net of liabilities. As the Fund pursues its investment objective of total return, these holdings and allocations are subject to change at any time.

9 Semi-Annual Report 2018 FOXBY CORP.

Financial Statements

1. ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES Foxby Corp. (the “Fund”), a Maryland corporation registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Company Act”), is a non-diversified, closed end management investment company whose shares are quoted over the counter under the ticker symbol FXBY. The Fund’s non-fundamental investment objective is total return which it may seek from growth of capital and from income in any security type and in any industry sector. The Fund retains Midas Management Corporation (the “Investment Manager”) as its investment manager.

As an investment company, the Fund follows the accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standard Codification Topic 946 “Financial Services – Investment Companies.” The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”), which require management to make certain estimates and assumptions at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Subsequent events, if any, through the date that the financial statements were issued have been evaluated in the preparation of the financial statements. The following summarizes the significant accounting policies of the Fund:

Valuation of Investments – Portfolio securities are valued by various methods depending on the primary market or exchange on which they trade. Most equity securities for which the primary market is in the United States are usually valued at the official closing price, last sale price or, if no sale has occurred, at the closing bid price. Most equity securities for which the primary market is outside the United States are usually valued using the official closing price or the last sale price in the principal market in which they are traded. If the last sale price on the local exchange is unavailable, the last evaluated quote or closing bid price normally is used. In the event of an unexpected closing of the primary market or exchange, a security may continue to trade on one or more other markets, and the price as reflected on those other trading venues may be more reflective of the security’s value than an earlier price from the primary market or exchange. Accordingly, the Fund may seek to use these additional sources of pricing data or information when prices from the primary market or exchange are unavailable, or are earlier and less representative of current market value. Certain debt securities may be priced through pricing services that may utilize a matrix pricing system which takes into consideration factors such as yields, prices, maturities, call features, and ratings on comparable securities or according to prices quoted by a securities dealer that offers pricing services. Open end investment companies are valued at their net asset value. Foreign securities markets may be open on days when the U.S.

markets are closed. For this reason, the value of any foreign securities owned by the Fund could change on a day when shareholders cannot buy or sell shares of the Fund. Securities for which market quotations are not readily available or reliable and other assets may be valued as determined in good faith by the Investment Manager under the direction of or pursuant to procedures approved by the Fund’s Board of Directors (the “Board”), called “fair value pricing.” Due to the inherent uncertainty of valuation, fair value pricing values may differ from the values that would have been used had a readily available or reliable market quotation for the securities existed. These differences in valuation could be material. A security’s valuation may differ depending on the method used for determining value. The use of fair value pricing by the Fund may cause the net asset value of its shares to differ from the net asset value that would be calculated using market prices. A fair value price is an estimate and there is no assurance that such price will be at or close to the price at which a security is next quoted or traded.

Cash – Cash may include deposits allocated among banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in amounts up to the insurance coverage maximum amount of $250,000. Cash may also include uninvested cash balances held by the Fund’s custodian.

Foreign Currency Translation – Securities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars at prevailing exchange rates. Realized gain or loss on sales of such investments in local currency terms is reported separately from gain or loss attributable to a change in foreign exchange rates for those investments.

Short Sales – The Fund may sell a security short it does not own in anticipation of a decline in the market value of the security. When the Fund sells a security short, it must borrow the security sold short and deliver it to the broker/dealer through which it made the short sale. The Fund is liable for any dividends or interest paid on securities sold short. A gain, limited to the price at which the Fund sold the security short, or a loss, unlimited in size, normally is recognized upon the termination of the short sale. Securities sold short result in off balance sheet risk as the Fund’s ultimate obligation to satisfy the terms of a sale of securities sold short may exceed the amount recognized in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

Derivatives – The Fund may use derivatives for a variety of reasons, such as to attempt to protect against possible changes in the value of its portfolio holdings or to generate potential gain. Derivatives are financial instruments that derive their values from other securities or commodities, or that are based on indices. Derivative instruments are marked to market with the change in value reflected in unrealized appreciation or depreciation. Upon disposition, a realized gain or loss is recognized accordingly, except when taking delivery of a security underlying a contract. In these instances, the recognition of gain or loss is postponed until the disposal of the security underlying the contract. Risk may arise as a result of the potential inability of the counterparties to meet the terms of their contracts. Derivative instruments include written options, purchased options, futures contracts, forward foreign currency exchange contracts, and swap agreements.

Investments in Other Investment Companies – The Fund may invest in shares of other investment companies such as closed end funds, exchange traded funds, and mutual funds (each, an “Acquired Fund”) in accordance with the Company Act and related rules. Shareholders in the Fund bear the pro rata portion of the fees and expenses of the Acquired Funds in addition to the Fund’s expenses. Expenses incurred by the Fund that are disclosed in the Statement of Operations do not include fees and expenses incurred by the Acquired Funds. The fees and expenses of an Acquired Fund are reflected in such Acquired Fund’s total returns.

Investment Transactions – Investment transactions are accounted for on the trade date (the date the order to buy or sell is executed). Realized gains or losses are determined by specifically identifying the cost basis of the investment sold.

Investment Income – Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date or in the case of certain foreign securities, as soon as practicable after the Fund is notified. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Amortization of premium and accretion of discount on corporate bonds and notes are included in interest income. Taxes withheld on foreign dividends have been provided for in accordance with the Fund’s understanding of the applicable country’s tax rules and rates.

Expenses – Expenses deemed by the Investment Manager to have been incurred solely by the Fund are normally charged to the Fund in the entirety. Expenses deemed by the Investment Manager to have been incurred jointly by the Fund and one or more of the other investment companies for which the Investment Manager or its affiliates serve as investment manager, or other related entities, are generally allocated based on the most practicable method deemed equitable at the time the expense is incurred, including, without limitation, on the basis of relative assets under management.

Expense Reduction Arrangement – Through an arrangement with the Fund’s former custodian, State Street Bank and Trust Company (“SSB”), credits realized as a result of borrowing activity were used to reduce custodian expenses. Credits realized by the Fund during the six months ended June 30, 2018 are shown as a reduction of total expenses in the Statement of Operations. This expense reduction arrangement terminated in June 2018.

Distributions to Shareholders – Distributions to shareholders are determined in accordance with income tax regulations and are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Income Taxes – No provision has been made for U.S. income taxes because the Fund’s current intention is to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company under the Internal Revenue Code (the “IRC”) and to distribute to its shareholders substantially all of its taxable income and net realized gains. Foreign securities held by the Fund may be subject to foreign taxation. Foreign taxes, if any, are recorded based on the tax regulations and rates that exist in the foreign markets in which the Fund invests. The Fund recognizes the tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only where the position is “more likely than not” to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. The Fund has reviewed its tax positions and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken on federal, state, and local income tax returns for open tax years (2015-2017) or expected to be taken in the Fund’s 2018 tax returns.

The Fund may be subject to foreign taxation related to income received, capital gains on the sale of securities, and certain foreign currency transactions in the foreign jurisdictions in which it invests. Foreign taxes, if any, are recorded based on the tax regulations and rates that exist in the foreign markets in which the Fund invests. When a capital gain tax is determined to apply, the Fund records an estimated deferred tax liability in an amount that would be payable if the securities were disposed of on the valuation date.

2. FEES AND TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES The Fund has retained the Investment Manager pursuant to an investment management agreement. Under the terms of the investment management agreement, the Investment Manager receives a fee payable monthly for investment advisory services at an annual rate of 0.95% of the Fund’s Managed Assets. “Managed Assets” means the average weekly value of the Fund’s total assets minus the sum of the Fund’s liabilities, which liabilities exclude debt relating to leverage, short term debt, and the aggregate liquidation preference of any outstanding preferred stock.

Pursuant to the investment management agreement, the Fund reimburses the Investment Manager for providing at cost certain administrative services comprised of compliance and accounting services. For the six months ended June 30, 2018, the Fund’s reimbursements of such costs were $3,750, of which $2,215 and $1,535 was for compliance and accounting services, respectively. Certain officers and directors of the Fund are officers and directors of the Investment Manager. As of June 30, 2018, affiliates of the Investment Manager owned approximately 24% of the Fund's outstanding shares.

The Fund compensates each director who is not an employee of the Investment Manager or its affiliates. These directors receive fees for service as a director from the Fund and the other investment companies for which the Investment Manager or its affiliates serve as investment manager. In addition, director out-of-pocket expenses are allocated to each fund for which the Investment Manager or its affiliates serve as investment manager based on the most practicable method deemed equitable at the time the expense is incurred, including, without limitation, on the basis of relative assets under management.

As of December 31, 2017, the components of distributable earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

|-------------------------|--------------|
| Capital loss carryover | $ (779,419) |
| Unrealized appreciation | 1,432,518 |
| | $ 653,099 |

Capital loss carryovers are calculated and reported as of a specific date. Results of transactions and other activity after that date may affect the amount of capital loss carryovers actually available for the Fund to utilize under the IRC and related regulations. Capital losses incurred in taxable years beginning after December 22, 2010 are allowed to be carried forward indefinitely and retain the character of the original loss. As a transition rule, post-enactment net capital losses are required to be utilized before pre-enactment net capital losses. As of December 31, 2017, the Fund has a net capital loss carryover of $779,419, comprised of short term losses, which expires in 2018.

3. VALUE MEASUREMENTS GAAP establishes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods. The three levels of inputs are:

- Level 1 – unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities including securities actively traded on a securities exchange.
- Level 2 – observable inputs other than quoted prices included in level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability which may include quoted prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates, and similar data.
- Level 3 – unobservable inputs for the asset or liability including the Fund's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for investments categorized in level 3. The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. The inputs or methodology used for valuing investments are not an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a description of the valuation techniques applied to the Fund's major categories of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Equity securities (common and preferred stock) – Most publicly traded equity securities are valued usually at the most recent official closing price, last sale price, evaluated quote, or closing bid price. To the extent these securities are actively traded and valuation adjustments are not applied, they may be categorized in level 1 of the fair value hierarchy. Equities on inactive markets or valued by reference to similar instruments may be categorized in level 2.

Restricted and/or illiquid securities – Restricted and/or illiquid securities for which quotations are not readily available or reliable may be valued with fair value pricing as determined in good faith by the Investment Manager under the direction of or pursuant to procedures approved by the Fund's Board. Restricted securities issued by publicly traded companies are generally valued at a discount to similar publicly traded securities. Restricted or illiquid securities issued by nonpublic entities may be valued by reference to comparable public entities or fundamental data relating to the issuer or both or similar inputs. Depending on the relative significance of valuation inputs, these instruments may be categorized in either level 2 or level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

Except to the extent of the receipt of payment of in-kind dividends from level 3 preferred stocks as shown above, there were no transfers into or out of level 3 assets during the period. Unrealized gains (losses) are included in the related amounts on investments in the Statement of Operations.

The Investment Manager, under the direction of or pursuant to procedures approved by the Fund's Board, considers various valuation techniques and inputs for valuing assets categorized within level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. These include, but are not limited to: the type of the security; the size of the asset; the initial cost of the security; the existence of any contractual restrictions on the security's disposition; prices of and extent of public trading in similar securities of the issuer or of comparable companies; quotations or evaluated prices from broker-dealers and/or pricing services; information obtained from the issuer or analysts; an analysis of the company's or issuer's financial statements; an evaluation of the forces that influence the issuer and the market in which the asset is purchased and sold; multiples of earnings, cash flow, enterprise value, and similar measures; and the discount rate for lack of marketability. Significant changes in any of those inputs in isolation may result in a significantly lower or higher fair value measurement. The pricing of all fair value assets is regularly reported to the Fund's Board.

The following table presents additional information about valuation techniques and inputs used for assets that are measured at fair value and categorized as level 3 as of June 30, 2018:

| | Fair Value | Valuation Technique | Unobservable Input | Range |
| Common Stocks | | | | |

4. INVESTMENT TRANSACTIONS Purchases and proceeds from sales of investment securities, excluding short term securities, were $1,624,873 and $3,861,639, respectively, for the six months ended June 30, 2018. As of June 30, 2018, for federal income tax purposes, subject to change, the aggregate cost of securities was $7,317,383 and net unrealized appreciation was $389,750, comprised of gross unrealized appreciation of $1,213,430 and gross unrealized depreciation of $823,680. The aggregate cost of securities for tax purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during the entirety of its fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations.

5. ILLIQUID AND RESTRICTED SECURITIES The Fund owns securities which have a limited trading market and/or certain restrictions on trading and, therefore, may be considered illiquid and/or restricted. Such securities have been valued using fair value pricing. Due to the inherent uncertainty of valuation, fair value pricing values may differ from the values that would have been used had a readily available or reliable market quotation for the securities existed. These differences in valuation could be material. Illiquid and/or restricted securities owned as of June 30, 2018 were as follows:

| | Acquisition Date | Cost | Value |
|---|---------------------|------------|-----------|
| Amerivon Holdings LLC preferred shares | 9/20/07 | $ 497,531 | $ 87,298 |
| common equity units | 9/20/07 | 0 | 0 |
| Total | | $ 497,531 | $ 87,298 |
| Percent of net assets | | 6% | 1% |

6. CREDIT FACILITY Effective June 18, 2018, the Fund entered into a Revolving Credit Agreement and other related agreements (collectively, the "HNB Credit Agreement") with The Huntington National Bank ("HNB"), the Fund's custodian, under which HNB may make loans to the Fund in such amounts as the Fund may from time to time request. The maximum loan amount under the HNB Credit Agreement is the lesser of: (i) $2,000,000 or (ii) 30% of the Fund's daily market value, which market value may be decreased by the exclusion of certain Fund assets or asset classes, as HNB may decide from time to time in its sole discretion. The Fund pledges its securities and other assets as collateral to secure its obligations under the HNB Credit Agreement and retains the risks and rewards of the ownership of such securities and other assets pledged.

Borrowings under the HNB Credit Agreement bear an interest rate per annum to be applied to the principal balance outstanding, from time to time, equal to the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 1.20%. An unused fee is charged equal to 0.125% per annum of the daily excess of the loan amount over the outstanding principal balance of the loan. The Fund was charged an origination fee of $2,500 upon entering into the HNB Credit Agreement and such cost is amortized ratably through June 1, 2019, the maturity date of the HNB Credit Agreement.

Previously, the Fund had a Liquidity Agreement (“LA”) with SSB, formerly the Fund’s custodian and securities lending agent. The LA, which was terminated effective June 15, 2018, allowed the Fund to draw up to $2 million (maximum liquidity commitment) and included a securities lending authorization by the Fund to SSB to engage in agency securities lending and reverse repurchase activity. Interest was charged on the drawn amount at the rate of one-month LIBOR plus 1.20% per annum and a non-usage fee was charged on the difference between the maximum liquidity commitment and the drawn amount at the rate of one-month LIBOR plus 0.07% per annum.

There was no outstanding loan balance as of June 30, 2018. The weighted average interest rate and average daily amount outstanding under the HNB Credit Agreement and LA for the six months ended June 30, 2018 were 2.85% and $559,635, respectively. The maximum amount outstanding during the six months ended June 30, 2018 was $2,000,000.

7. FOREIGN SECURITIES RISK Investments in the securities of foreign issuers involve special risks which include changes in foreign exchange rates and the possibility of future adverse political, tax, and economic developments which could adversely affect the value of such securities. Moreover, securities of foreign issuers and securities traded in foreign markets may be less liquid and their prices more volatile than those of U.S. issuers and markets. In addition, in certain foreign countries, there is the possibility of expropriation or confiscatory taxation, political, or social instability, or diplomatic developments that could affect U.S. investments in the securities of issuers domiciled in those countries.

8. LEVERAGE RISK The Fund from time to time may borrow under its credit facility to increase the assets in its investment portfolio over its net assets, a practice called leverage. Leverage borrowing creates an opportunity for increased return but, at the same time, involves special risk considerations. Leverage increases the likelihood of greater volatility of net asset value and market price of the Fund’s shares. If the return that the Fund earns on the additional securities purchased fails to cover the interest and fees incurred on the monies borrowed, the net asset value of the Fund (and the return of the Fund) would be lower than if borrowing had not been incurred. In addition, when the Fund borrows at a variable interest rate, there is a risk that fluctuations in the interest rate may adversely affect the return to the Fund's shareholders. Interest payments and fees incurred in connection with such borrowings will reduce the amount of net income available for distribution to shareholders. There is no assurance that a borrowing strategy will be successful during any period in which it is employed. Borrowing on a secured basis results in certain additional risks. Should securities that are pledged as collateral to secure its obligations under the credit facility decline in value, the Fund may be required to pledge additional assets in the form of cash or securities to the lender to avoid liquidation of the pledged assets. In the event of a steep drop in the value of pledged securities, it might not be possible to liquidate assets quickly enough and this could result in mandatory liquidation of the pledged assets in a declining market at relatively low prices. Furthermore, the Investment Manager's ability to sell the pledged securities is limited by the terms of the credit facility, which may reduce the Fund's investment flexibility over the pledged securities. Because the fee paid to the Investment Manager is calculated on the basis of the average weekly value of the Fund's total assets minus the sum of the Fund's liabilities, which liabilities exclude debt relating to leverage, short term debt and the aggregate liquidation preference of any outstanding preferred stock, the dollar amount of the management fee paid by the Fund to the Investment Manager will be higher (and the Investment Manager will benefit to that extent) when leverage is utilized.

9. CYBERSECURITY RISK With the increased use of technologies such as the Internet to conduct business, the Fund is susceptible to operational, information security, and related risks. Cyber incidents affecting the Fund or its service providers may cause disruptions and impact business operations, potentially resulting in financial losses, interference with the Fund's ability to calculate its net asset value, impediments to trading, the inability of shareholders to transact business, violations of applicable privacy and other laws, regulatory fines, penalties, reputational damage, reimbursement or other compensation costs, or additional related costs.

10. CAPITAL STOCK As of June 30, 2018, there were 2,610,050 shares of $.01 par value common stock outstanding and 500,000,000 shares authorized. There were no transactions in capital stock during the six months ended June 30, 2018 and the year ended December 31, 2017.

11. SHARE REPURCHASE PROGRAM In accordance with Section 23(c) of the Company Act, the Fund may from time to time repurchase its shares in the open market at the discretion of and upon such terms as determined by the Board. The Fund did not repurchase any of its shares during the six months ended June 30, 2018 and the year ended December 31, 2017.

12. CONTINGENCIES The Fund indemnifies its officers and directors from certain liabilities that might arise from their performance of their duties for the Fund. Additionally, in the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties and which may provide general indemnifications. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as it involves future claims that may be made against the Fund under circumstances that have not occurred.

13. OTHER INFORMATION The Fund may at times raise cash for investment by issuing shares through one or more offerings, including rights offerings. Proceeds from any such offerings will be invested in accordance with the investment objective and policies of the Fund.

(1) The per share amounts were calculated using the average number of shares outstanding during the period.

- (2) Total return on a market value basis is calculated assuming a purchase of common stock on the opening of the first day and a sale on the closing of the last day of each period reported. Dividends and distributions, if any, are assumed for purposes of this calculation to be reinvested at prices obtained under the Fund's dividend reinvestment plan if in effect or, if there is no plan in effect, at the lower of the per share net asset value or the closing market price of the Fund's shares on the dividend/distribution date. Generally, total return on a net asset value basis will be higher than total return on a market value basis in periods where there is an increase in the discount or a decrease in the premium of the market value to the net asset value from the beginning to the end of such periods. Conversely, total return on a net asset value basis will be lower than total return on a market value basis in periods where there is a decrease in the discount or an increase in the premium of the market value to the net asset value from the beginning to the end of such periods. The calculation does not reflect brokerage commissions, if any.
- (3) The ratio of net expenses excluding loan interest and fees from the use of leverage to average net assets was 2.12%[†] for the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2.62%, 2.68%, 2.29%, 1.86%, and 1.60% for the years ended December 31, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014, and 2013, respectively.
- (4) Represents the value of total assets less liabilities not represented by senior securities representing indebtedness divided by the total number of senior indebtedness units, where one unit equals $1,000 of senior indebtedness. For purposes of this calculation, the LA is considered a senior security representing indebtedness.

BOARD APPROVAL OF INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT (Unaudited)

Additional Information

The renewal of the investment management agreement (“Agreement”) between Foxby Corp. (“Fund”) and the investment manager, Midas Management Corporation (“Investment Manager”), was unanimously approved by the Fund’s Board of Directors (“Board”), including all of the Fund’s directors who are not “interested persons” of the Fund (“Independent Directors”) as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, at an in person meeting held on March 12, 2018 (“Meeting”). In this connection, the Board considered a number of factors, including, among other things, information that had been provided at other meetings, as well as information furnished to the Board for the Meeting. Such information included, among other things: information comparing the management fees of the Fund with a peer group of broadly comparable funds as determined by Broadridge (“Broadridge”), an independent provider of investment company data, which uses information sourced from both Lipper and Broadridge; information regarding the Fund’s investment performance on an absolute basis and in comparison to a relevant peer group of funds (“Peer Group”); the economic outlook and the general investment outlook in relevant investment markets; the Investment Manager’s results and financial condition and the overall organization of the Investment Manager; the allocation of brokerage and the benefits received by the Investment Manager as a result of brokerage allocation; the Investment Manager’s trading practices, including soft dollars; the Investment Manager’s management of relationships with the Fund’s custodian, transfer agent, pricing agents, brokers, and other service providers; the resources devoted to the Investment Manager’s compliance efforts undertaken on behalf of the Fund and the record of compliance with the compliance programs of the Fund, the Investment Manager, and its affiliates; the quality, nature, cost, and character of the administrative and other non-investment management services provided by the Investment Manager and its affiliates; the terms of the Agreement; the Investment Manager’s gifts and entertainment log; the reasonableness and appropriateness of the fee paid by the Fund for the services described in its Agreement and whether it was the product of arm’s length bargaining; the nature, extent, and quality of the services provided by the Investment Manager; the fiduciary duty assumed by the Investment Manager in connection with the services rendered to the Fund and the business reputation of the Investment Manager and its financial resources; the character and amount of other incidental or “fall-out” benefits received by the Investment Manager and its affiliates from its association with the Fund; the extent to which economies of scale would be realized as the Fund grows; whether fee levels reflect these economies of scale for the benefit of Fund investors; and comparisons of the services rendered and the amounts paid under the Agreement with those under other advisory contracts, such as contracts of the same type between other investment advisers and other registered investment companies or other types of clients (e.g., pension funds).

The Board also reviewed in detail and at length the Investment Manager’s responses to the Board’s request for certain information related to, among other things: the Investment Manager’s general business, personnel, and operations; fees, profitability, and financial information; trading information; Fund performance; compliance and legal; and other related matters. The Board expressed its satisfaction with the Investment Manager’s responses to their request for such information.

The Board also considered the nature, extent, and quality of the management services provided by the Investment Manager. In so doing, the Board considered the Investment Manager's management capabilities with respect to the types of investments held by the Fund, including information relating to the education, experience, and number of investment professionals and other personnel who provide services under the Agreement. The Board also took into account the time and attention devoted by management to the Fund. In this regard, the Board noted that the Investment Manager is responsible for, among other things, overseeing the selection of investments for the Fund, making investment decisions for the Fund, monitoring the investment operations and composition of the Fund, and, in connection therewith, monitoring compliance with the Fund's investment objective, policies, and restrictions, as well as the Fund's compliance with applicable law; monitoring brokerage selection, commissions and other trading costs, quality of execution, and other brokerage matters; and implementing the Board's directives as they relate to the Fund. Further, the Board considered that the Investment Manager's responsibilities include daily monitoring of investment, operational, enterprise, legal, regulatory, and compliance risks as they relate to the Fund. The Board evaluated the level of skill required to manage the Fund and concluded that the resources available at the Investment Manager are appropriate to fulfill effectively its duties on behalf of the Fund. The Board noted that the Investment Manager has managed the Fund for several years and indicated its belief that a long term relationship with capable, conscientious personnel is in the best interests of the Fund.

The Board received information concerning the investment philosophy and investment process applied by the Investment Manager in managing the Fund. In this regard, the Investment Manager stated to the Board that the investment philosophy and/or investment process applied in managing the Fund had not changed.

The Board also considered the Investment Manager's in-house research capabilities as well as other resources available to the Investment Manager's personnel, including research services that may be available to the Investment Manager as a result of securities transactions effected for the Fund. The Board concluded that the Investment Manager's investment process, research capabilities, and philosophy were well suited to the Fund, given the Fund's investment objective and policies.

In its review of comparative information with respect to the Fund's investment performance, the Board received information from Broadridge comparing the Fund's investment performance on an absolute basis and to that of its peer Group selected by Broadridge. The Board observed that the Fund's total return (i) underperformed the median total return of its Peer Group in the one, two, three, four, five and ten year periods ended December 31, 2017, and (ii) underperformed the average total return of its Peer Group in the one, two, three, four, five and ten year periods. The Board discussed with personnel of the Investment Manager the factors that contributed to the Fund's underperformance and the steps that the Investment Manager had taken, or intended to take, to seek to improve the Fund's short and long term performance. The Board concluded that the Fund's performance is being addressed and noted that it would continue to monitor these efforts and the performance of the Fund.

The Board noted that performance is only one of the factors that it deems relevant to its consideration of the Agreement and that, after considering all relevant factors, it can reach a decision to renew the Agreement notwithstanding the Fund's underperformance over certain periods.

With respect to its review of the fee payable under the Agreement, the Board considered information from Broadridge comparing the Fund's management fee and expense ratio to those of its Peer Group. The Board observed that the Fund's management fee was higher than the median in its Peer Group and its total expense ratio was higher than the median in its Peer Group. The Board concluded that although the Fund's expense ratio was higher relative to the Fund's Peer Group, it was competitive with comparable funds in light of the quality of services received and the level of assets managed. The Board also evaluated any apparent or anticipated economies of scale in relation to the services the Investment Manager provides to the Fund. The Board considered that the Fund is a closed end fund that does not continuously offer shares and that, without daily inflows and outflows of capital, there are limited opportunities for significant economies of scale to be realized by the Investment Manager in managing the Fund's assets.

The information provided assisted the Board in concluding that the fee paid by the Fund is within a range of those paid by comparable funds within the fund industry and is fair and reasonable in light of the quality of services received and the level of assets managed. Further, the Board concluded that the Investment Manager's fee bears a reasonable relationship to the services rendered and has been the product of arm's length bargaining.

The Board also considered information regarding the character and amount of other incidental benefits received by the Investment Manager and its affiliates from its association with the Fund. The Board concluded that potential "fall-out" benefits that the Investment Manager and its affiliates may receive, such as increased ability to obtain research services, appear to be fair and reasonable and may, in some cases, benefit the Fund.

The Board also considered the profitability of the Investment Manager from its association with the Fund. In this regard, the Board considered the costs of the services provided, and the profits realized, if any, by the Investment Manager in connection with the operation of the Fund and was satisfied that the profitability was not excessive under the circumstances. In addition, the Board considered the financial stability of the Investment Manager.

The Board did not consider any single factor as controlling in determining whether or not to renew the Agreement. In assessing the information provided by the Investment Manager and its affiliates, the Board also noted that it was taking into consideration the benefits to shareholders of investing in a Fund that is part of a fund complex which provides a variety of shareholder services.

Based on its consideration of the foregoing factors and conclusions, and such other factors and conclusions as it deemed relevant, the Board, including all of the Independent Directors, concluded that the approval of the Agreement, including the fee structure, is in the best interests of the Fund.

Foxby Corp. is part of a fund complex which includes Midas Fund, Midas Magic, and Dividend and Income Fund.

Policies and Updates

Certain provisions in the Fund's Charter and/or Bylaws ("Governing Documents") could have the effect of, among other things, depriving the owners of shares in the Fund of opportunities to sell their shares at a premium over prevailing market prices by discouraging a third party from seeking to obtain control of the Fund in a tender offer or similar transaction or bringing litigation against the Fund and/or any director, officer, employee or affiliate thereof. The overall effect of these provisions is to, among other things, render more difficult the accomplishment of a merger or the assumption of control by a principal shareholder. The foregoing summary is subject to the Governing Documents of the Fund, which are on file with the SEC and available on the Fund's website <http://www.FoxbyCorp.com>.

Section 23 Notice

Pursuant to Section 23 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, notice is hereby given that the Fund may in the future purchase its own shares in the open market. These purchases may be made from time to time, at such times, and in such amounts, as may be deemed advantageous to the Fund, although nothing herein shall be considered a commitment to purchase such shares.

This report is for shareholder information. This is not a prospectus intended for use in the purchase or sale of Fund shares.

Additional Information

Investment Strategies

In seeking its objective, the Fund exercises a flexible strategy in the selection of securities, and is not limited by the issuer's location, size, or market capitalization. The Fund may invest in equity and fixed income securities of new and seasoned U.S. and foreign issuers, including securities convertible into common stock, debt securities, futures, options, derivatives, and other instruments. The Fund also may employ aggressive and speculative investment techniques, such as selling securities short and borrowing money for investment purposes, a practice known as "leveraging," and may invest defensively in short term, liquid, high grade securities and money market instruments. There is a risk that these transactions sometimes may reduce returns or increase volatility. In addition, derivatives, such as options and futures, can be illiquid and highly sensitive to changes in their underlying security, interest rate or index, and as a result can be highly volatile. A small investment in certain derivatives could have a potentially large impact on the Fund's performance. The Fund may invest in debt securities rated below investment grade, commonly referred to as junk bonds, as well as investment grade and U.S. Government securities. Generally, investments in securities in the lower rating categories or comparable unrated securities provide higher yields but involve greater price volatility and risk of loss of principal and interest than investments in securities with higher ratings. A potential benefit of its closed end structure, the Fund may invest without limit in illiquid investments such as private placements and private companies.

Please Note

There is no assurance that the Fund's investment objective will be attained. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. You should consider the investment objective, risks, and charges and expenses of the Fund carefully before investing. The Fund's investment policies, management fees, and other matters of interest to prospective investors may be found in its filings with the SEC, including its annual and semi-annual reports. To obtain a copy of the reports, please call us at 212-785-0900 or download them at www.foxbycorp.com/shareholder-reports.html. Please read the reports carefully before investing.

Shares of closed end funds frequently trade at a discount from their Net Asset Value ("NAV"). This characteristic is a risk separate and distinct from the risk that the Fund's NAV could decrease as a result of its investment activities. Neither the Fund nor its Investment Manager can predict whether shares of the Fund will trade at, below, or above NAV. The risk of holding shares of the Fund that might trade at a discount is more pronounced for investors expecting to sell their shares in a relatively short period of time after acquiring them because, for those investors, realization of a gain or loss on their investments is likely to be more dependent upon the existence of a premium or discount than upon portfolio performance. The shares of the Fund are designed primarily for long term investors and should not be considered a vehicle for trading purposes. The NAV of the Fund shares typically will fluctuate with price changes of the Fund's portfolio securities, and these fluctuations are likely to be greater in the case of a fund which uses leverage, as the Fund may from time to time. In the event that shares of the Fund trade at a premium to NAV, there is no assurance that any such premium will be sustained for any period of time and will not decrease, or that the shares of the Fund will not trade at a discount to NAV thereafter. The market price for the Fund is based on supply and demand which fluctuates daily based on many factors, such as economic conditions and global events, investor sentiment, and security-specific factors.

This report, including the financial statements herein, is provided for informational purposes only. This is not a prospectus, circular, or representation intended for use in the purchase of shares of the Fund or any securities mentioned in this report.
