PART IV OTHER INFORMATION

Item 3 Statement

Registrant's results of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2002, significantly change compared to the three and six months ended June 30, 2001, because of Registrant's merger-acquisition of The Capella Group, Inc. in June 2001.

Results of Operations

The following table sets forth selected results of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001. As a result of the merger-acquisition of The Capella Group, Inc. in June 2001, the 2002 results of operations of 2002 and 2001 are not comparable. The results of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2002 include those of The Capella Group, while the 2001 results of operations only include one month of The Capella Group operations and activities. In addition, beginning in January 2002, no goodwill amortization was recognized in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board 142, Goodwill and Intangible Assets. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2001, we recognized goodwill amortization of $101,930 and $146,074, while during the same periods in 2002 no goodwill amortization was recognized.

Comparison of the Three-Month Periods Ended June 30, 2002 and 2001

Product and Service Revenues. During the three months ended June 30, 2002, revenue of $11,073,558 was generated, an increase of $7,170,558 (or 184%) from $3,903,000 during the three months ended June 30, 2001. This increase was attributable to the operations of The Capella Group, Inc. that were acquired in June 2001. During the three months ended June 30, 2002, more than 90% of revenue was attributable to the Care Entrée membership program offered by The Capella

Group.

Cost of Operations. Cost of operations for the three-month period ended June 30, 2002 increased $342,173 to $3,045,036 from $2,702,863 for the same period in 2001. This increase was attributable to the commissions paid to representatives selling the Care Entrée membership program. The Care Entrée membership program is marketed through a network of independent marketing representatives. These marketing representatives are paid a 25% commission on the membership fees of each member they enroll and can also recruit other representatives and earn override commissions on sales made by those representatives. A total of 35% in commissions down through six levels of marketing representatives is paid. Cost of operations represented approximately 27.5% of revenue during the 2002 three-month period, while during the same period in 2001 cost of operations represented approximately 69% of revenue.

Sales and Marketing Expenses. Sales and marketing expenses increased $4,033,469 to $4,366,808 during the three months ended June 30, 2002 from $333,339 during the same period in 2001. This increase was attributable to the sales and marketing efforts associated with the Care Entrée membership program. Sales and marketing expenses represented approximately 39% and 9% of the 2002 and 2001 revenue, respectively. Because of the manner that the membership services programs are marketed, the associated sales and marketing expenses are significantly less as a percent of revenue compared to the sales and marketing expenses associated with the Care Entrée membership program which is marketed through a network of independent marketing representatives.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased $841,664 to $1,365,978 during the three months ended June 30, 2002 from $524,314 during the same period in 2001. This increase was attributable to an increase in overhead associated with the acquired operations of The Capella Group. General and administrative expenses represented approximately 12% and 13% of revenue for the three months ending June 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

Total Operating Expenses. During the three months ended June 30, 2002, total operating expenses (consisting of cost of operations, sales and marketing expenses, and general and administrative expenses) increased $5,271,306 to $8,777,822 from $3,506,516 during the same period in 2001. Total operating expenses represented approximately 79% and 90% of revenues for the three months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The Care Entrée membership program provides a greater operating margin on revenue compared to revenue attributable to other membership programs sold principally due to the lower cost of operations (although offset in part by the associated increased sales and marketing expenses).

Other Expense (Income). During the three months ended June 30, 2002, net interest expense of $16,476 as incurred, while during the same period in 2001 net interest income of $34,371 was realized. In accordance with financial reporting requirements, beginning on January 1, 2002, we ceased amortizing goodwill. During the three months ended June 30, 2001, we recognized goodwill amortization of $101,930, which was attributable and recorded in conjunction with our merger-acquisition of Foresight, Inc. in December 2000 and The Capella Group in June 2001.

Operating and Net Income. During the three months ended June 30, 2002, operating income of $2,295,736 (approximately 21% of revenue) was realized, an increase of $1,953,252 from $342,484 for the same period in 2001, and net income applicable to common shareholders of $1,451,260 was realized after provision for income taxes of $828,000. In comparison, during the three months ended June 30, 2001, net income applicable to common shareholders of $146,291 was realized after provision for income taxes of $68,634. During the three months ended June 30, 2002, net income per common stock share on a weighted average basis was $0.12 per share, compared to $0.04 per share for the same period in 2001.

Comparison of the Six-Month Periods Ended June 30, 2002 and 2001

Product and Service Revenues. During the six months ended June 30, 2002, revenue of $21,060,248 was generated, an increase of $14,803,089 (or 237%) from $6,257,159 during the six months ended June 30, 2001. This increase was attributable to the operations of The Capella Group, Inc. that were acquired in June 2001. During the six months ended

June 30, 2002, more than 90% of revenue was attributable to the Care Entrée membership program offered by The Capella Group.

Cost of Operations. Cost of operations for the six-month period ended June 30, 2002 increased $1,625,566 to $5,934,386 from $4,308,820 for the same period in 2001. This increase was attributable to the commissions paid to representatives selling The Capella Group's Care Entrée membership program. The Care Entrée program is marketed through a network of independent marketing representatives. These marketing representatives are paid a 25% commission on the membership fees of each member they enroll and can also recruit other representatives and earn override commissions on sales made by those representatives. A total of 35% in commissions down through six levels of marketing representatives is paid. Cost of operations represented approximately 28% of revenue during the 2002 six-month period, while during the same period in 2001 cost of operations represented approximately 69% of revenue.

Sales and Marketing Expenses. Sales and marketing expenses increased $7,547,840 to $8,168,527 during the six months ended June 30, 2002 from $620,687 during the same period in 2001. This increase was attributable to the sales and marketing efforts associated with the Care Entrée membership program. Sales and marketing expenses represented approximately 39% and 10% of the 2002 and 2001 revenue, respectively. Because of the manner in which the membership services programs, other than the Care Entrée membership program, are marketed, the associated sales and marketing expenses are significantly less as a percent of revenue compared to the sales and marketing expenses associated with the Care Entrée membership program which is marketed through a network of independent marketing representatives.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased $1,955,980 to $2,802,558 during the six months ended June 30, 2002 from $846,578 during the same period in 2001. This increase was attributable to an increase in overhead associated with the acquired operations of The Capella Group. General and administrative expenses represented approximately 13% of revenue for each of the six months ending June 30, 2002 and 2001.

Total Operating Expenses. During the six months ended June 30, 2002, total operating expenses (consisting of cost of operations, sales and marketing expenses, and general and administrative expenses) increased $11,134,386 to $16,910,471 from $5,776,085 during the same period in 2001. Total operating expenses represented approximately 80% and 92% of revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The Care Entrée membership program provides a greater operating margin on revenue compared to revenue attributable to other membership programs sold principally due to the lower cost of operations (although offset in part by the associated increased sales and marketing expenses).

Other Expense (Income). During the six months ended June 30, 2002, net interest expense of $17,428 was incurred, while during the same period in 2001 net interest income of $96,593 was realized. In accordance with financial reporting requirements, beginning on January 1, 2002, we ceased amortizing goodwill. During the six months ended June 30, 2001, we recognized goodwill amortization of $1146,074, which was attributable and recorded in conjunction with our merger-acquisition of Foresight, Inc. in December 2000 and The Capella Group in June 2001.

Operating and Net Income. During the six months ended June 30, 2002, operating income of $4,149,770 (approximately 20% of revenue) was realized (an increase of $3,668,696 from $481,074 for the same period in 2001), and net income applicable to common shareholders of $2,659,393 was realized after provision for income taxes of $1,472,955. In comparison, during the six months ended June 30, 2001, we realized net income applicable to common shareholders of $215,634 after provision for income taxes of $95,149. During the six months ended June 30, 2002, net income per common stock share on a weighted average basis was $0.22 per share, compared to $0.06 per share for the same period in 2001.
