ITEM 1(a). CHANGE IN CONTROL OF REGISTRANT.

On June 22, 2004, Reebok International Ltd. ("Reebok"), through a wholly owned subsidiary (the "Purchaser"), acquired approximately 92% of the Common Shares of The Hockey Company Holdings Inc. ("Holdings"), the parent of The Hockey Company (the "Company"), pursuant to a tender offer (the "Offer") commenced on April 22, 2004, in accordance with the terms of a Support Agreement dated as of April 7, 2004 between Reebok and Holdings at a purchase price of Canadian $21.25 per share. Based on information provided to Reebok and Holdings by Computershare Investor Services Inc., the depositary for the Offer, an aggregate of 12,392,264 Common Shares were tendered and not withdrawn in connection with the Offer. Following a compulsory merger in accordance with the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "Canadian Merger"), Holdings will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Reebok.

In addition, in connection with the Offer and immediately following the payment for the Common Shares pursuant to the Offer, and pursuant to the terms and conditions of an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of June 22, 2004 (the "Merger Agreement") between The Hockey Company Acquisition Corp., a newly-formed, wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings ("Acquisition Corp.") and the Company, Acquisition Corp. merged with and into the Company (the "US Merger"), with the Company being the surviving entity. As a result, the Company became a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings and an indirect subsidiary of Reebok. Pursuant to the US Merger, each then outstanding Exchangeable Share was converted into the right to receive the same price per share, Canadian $21.25 in cash, being offered by the Purchaser in the Offer, subject to Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law regarding appraisal rights.

Reebok paid an aggregate of approximately Canadian $263,335,610 out of existing funds to acquire Holdings and the Company in connection with the Offer. Reebok will pay an additional Canadian $21,942,197.50 in the aggregate pursuant to the Canadian Merger and the US Merger.
