PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Lannett Company, Inc. (the Company) will need to delay the filing of its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2007 (the 2007 Form 10-K) with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to restate its financial results for the first nine months of fiscal 2007. It is anticipated that the filing delay will not extend beyond September 28, 2007. During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2007, we identified a number of production orders that were completed and removed from production in our information system during fiscal 2007, however, such activity was not properly reflected in the corresponding quarterly financial statements. The result was that work in process inventory was overstated and cost of goods sold was understated by $840,000 as of and for the year ended June 30, 2007, with the following quarterly pre tax accounting effect of the misstatement as follows: three months ended September 30, 2006 was $394,000; three months ended December 31, 2006 was $158,000; and three months ended March 31, 2007 was $95,000.

(Area Code)

333-9000
(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Operating results for the three months and full year ending June 30, 2007 reflect decreased profit margins versus prior year as a result of increased sales of lower margin products and decreased pricing on certain products. As a result of the need to restate financial statements as described above, the Company can not provide a reasonable estimate of results at this time. Additional detail and explanation of Lannett's operating results is planned to be filed on Form 10-K no later than September 28, 2007.
