Dear Fellow Shareholder:

This year we have the first ever contested election of our Board of Directors. We are writing to encourage you to vote for the current Directors and to provide some facts that support why you should vote your White Proxy Card.

As shareholders, it is important that you understand the background of this proxy contest with dissident shareholder Keith Edquist and why it is in your best interests to elect our slate of highly qualified nominees.

Highlights

- This is a time to have a calm, cohesive and focused Board of Directors in order to steer the Company through these challenging times. Our current Board and our nominees have these desirable qualities.
- Our Board nominees are the most qualified and have ALL shareholders best interests in mind.
- The recent performance that Mr. Edquist complains about is largely a result of the downturn in the national economy, and performance shortfalls are widespread among banks nationwide.
- Mr. Edquist was pivotal to the creation of the executive compensation packages about which he now complains. Contrary to his complaints, our executive officer compensation is tied to Company performance focused on long-term gain.

Where We Are

We were formed in 1986 when our founders, along with an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP), purchased a one-bank holding company in Paola, Kansas. The ESOP owns 24.4% of our common stock. We believe the ESOP reflects our corporate culture in that employees are the integral component of community banks. We intend to continue the ESOP, as it is a significant incentive to attract and retain qualified employees.

Since our formation we have grown our assets and net income through various economic cycles, and have been able to pay cash dividends on our common stock consistently. Our objectives continue to be to increase profits and preserve the value of our franchise. Recently, however, our financial condition and results of operations have suffered due to the downturn in the real estate segment of the economy. In 2007 and continuing in 2008, the economic downturn in the national housing market became more accelerated and pronounced than previously estimated. As a result, and after consulting with our primary banking regulator, we took several actions to strengthen our Company in the first quarter of 2008, including adding $2.0 million of capital to our banks and increasing our loan loss reserves significantly. We also determined to take a non-cash charge for a goodwill write-off of $6.0 million relating to our ownership of Colorado National Bank. As a result, we incurred a quarterly loss for the first time in our 22-year history. Also, this year our subsidiary banks were examined in detail by the Office of the Comptroller of Currency (the OCC). Although we have not received the OCC examination report, the Kansas City Field Office of the OCC issued letters in April that the banks were in troubled condition . We are cooperating, as we have always done, with the OCC to address its concerns. We have already implemented several actions to address the informal concerns expressed by our OCC examiners. You can be assured that we are addressing these issues, and we will expect the assistance and guidance of our Board members in this endeavor.

In the interim, the Nominating Committee of our Board, consisting solely of independent directors, determined that we needed a Board nominee who had significant bank oversight experience and who was familiar with our markets and our operations. The Nominating Committee chose Robert M. Blachly, an independent director of our subsidiary bank, TeamBank, N.A., who has a 30-year relationship with us. During this time of comprehensive oversight by banking regulators, we believe Mr. Blachly will be a valuable asset to our Board. He has served as a director of TeamBank since August 2006, having recently been appointed to a special board committee to oversee loan administration and credit risk. Mr. Blachly was chosen over all other Board candidates, including Mr. Edquist.

After we had completed all of our proxy material for the 2008 annual meeting Mr. Edquist resigned from the Board on May 20th to pursue a proxy contest. As disclosed by Mr. Edquist, his nominees bought our common stock in the days prior to Mr. Edquist's resignation from the Board. We believe Mr. Edquist and his hand-picked slate of two other nominees would not result in increased shareholder value and their presence on the Board would not be in your best interests. We believe Mr. Edquist's solicitation is a sour grapes attempt to obtain Board seats, due to our Nominating Committee's selection of Mr. Blachly to serve as a director instead of Mr. Edquist. Among other things, during the time Mr. Edquist served on the Board, he was generally uncooperative and antagonistic with the other Board members and our employees. We recently rejected an offer by Mr. Edquist to purchase one of our Nebraska bank branches because of the negative impact on our shareholders.

We strongly urge our shareholders to vote for the Company's nominees to the Board, all of whom are highly qualified and committed to our mission of increasing shareholder value through full service community banking provided by our dedicated and hard working employees, and to reject this dissident shareholder's proxy solicitation. Nominations to our Board are thoroughly discussed and analyzed by our Nominating Committee, all of whom are independent directors, using well thought out, established practices.

Why Our Nominees Are Superior

- All are experienced with our Company
- These thoughtful, hard working people, who are accessible to us on a moment's notice, will serve you well.
- All our nominees are committed to our Company and the importance of serving as a growing community banking organization
- Guidance provided by Mr. Kurtenbach and Ms. Jacobs was instrumental in the decisions, planning, and implementation of our growth in assets from approximately $80 million in 1986 to the current $800 million and increased revenue. During this time we purchased seven banks, three branch banks, opened seven new branches and became publicly traded.

Edgar Filing: TEAM FINANCIAL INC /KS - Form DEFA14A

- Our outside directors are vocal, independent and professionals

- Our independent directors express opinions and differences freely while, respecting the opinions of all. Keith Edquist's behavior has been counter productive as pointed out in his own proxy material by revealing a letter received two years ago from an outside, independent compensation consultant. In the letter it was suggested that Mr. Edquist be removed from the Compensation Committee due to his arrogance, lack of civility, vulgar language and attitude .

Denis Kurtenbach Our Nominee

- Other directors rely upon Mr. Kurtenbach's comprehensive knowledge of the Company which is irreplaceable as is his leadership.
- He has served us as a director of Team Financial and/or TeamBank for 26 years. He has been selected by the independent directors as the lead director and chairs their quarterly meetings which assures all directors an independent forum for discussions.
- Mr. Kurtenbach has invested more than money in the Company. He has invested numerous years in successfully leading the Company through regulatory and business challenges.
- When the Sarbanes-Oxley Act became law, he attended multiple seminars and training programs on executive compensation. As chairman of the Compensation Committee he assured that the Company provided special training for committee members and staff to ensure Sarbanes-Oxley compliance.

Carolyn Jacobs Our Nominee

- All directors have relied upon Ms. Jacobs to lead the Board in its mission as our ESOP Trustee. Her leadership has consistently resulted in exemplary regulatory ratings of our trust department.
- She has served as an employee, officer and director for 22 years and has led the TeamBank trust department for 22 years. As chairperson of the ESOP Plan Advisory Committee since 1986, she alone maintains all key relationships with the Company's plan professionals ESOP counsel, plan administrators, voting administrators, and plan auditors. She monitors plan compliance and has led the Board through every single change in the Company's ESOP plan documents. We would sorely miss her expertise were she not reelected to our Board.
- Ms. Jacobs brings an employee perspective to the decisions of the Board and is valued for her insight and thoroughness.

Robert Blachly Our Nominee

Edgar Filing: TEAM FINANCIAL INC /KS - Form DEFA14A

- He has a 30-year relationship with us, which began in his twenties when he spent three years as an employee, progressed through years as a valued customer of TeamBank and culminated in contributing as a respected bank director.
- He has been a source of solid and prolific work on behalf of the Company during regulatory examinations of its banks. The continuity of his being elected to our Board adds meaningful depth to the Board's oversight capacity.
- For years Mr. Blachly ran a large, multi-million dollar international company and oversaw the ESOP for his valued employees. His business philosophy and experience are consistent with our long term goals and corporate culture.
- As a result of serving as an advisory board member for Team, Mr. Blachly is familiar with the breadth of the Company in all locations and is already acquainted with our operations. He is ready to continue his service.

Significant Concerns Regarding the Edquist Nominees

Keith Edquist

- We believe Mr. Edquist's solicitation is an attempt to obtain Board seats as he was not selected by our Nominating Committee for election at this year's annual meeting. It is ironic that despite Mr. Edquist's categorization of the Company as abysmal, his nominees recently purchased our common stock just before Mr. Edquist resigned from our Board. In addition, we believe Mr. Edquist would not be a productive and committed Board member. Our belief is based upon his actions as a Board member discussed above. As another example, he has steadfastly refused the secured internet access provided for all Board members to receive Board information via a Company-provided computer. He was the only Board member who refused our offer.

Lloyd Byerhof

- In 2006 he resigned from our Board, choosing to leave the Company. We need directors who are 100% committed to the Company and its shareholders. Our nominees have a proven record of dedication to our Company and our shareholders.

Jeff Renner

- We have concern that a person who is on the boards of directors of our potential competitors will serve independently.
- His biographical information indicates he has no large bank, publicly traded company experience and little ESOP experience.
- He has less overall knowledge of the Company than our nominees.

Mr. Edquist's Concerns are Misplaced

Mr. Edquist's proxy solicitation expresses concern about the Company's executive pay practices. He has not disclosed that while on our Compensation Committee he was integral to reviewing our executives' compensation and in late 2005 led the approval of an executive employment and salary package for the then chief financial officer which was identical in material form to the compensation package offered to the Chief Executive Officer. The Company, its Board, and the various committees of the Board adhere to the corporate governance practices in compliance with applicable law, under the guiding principle that all actions taken by them will be in the best long-term interests of shareholders. The Compensation Committee, which is comprised solely of independent directors, diligently examines appropriate compensation levels for the Company's named executive officers. Compensation is reviewed annually and is tied to Company performance through numerous factors including asset growth, return on average equity, earnings growth compared to the prior year's performance, and strategic positioning of the Company for the future. The pay packages are designed to put less emphasis on base salary and more emphasis on incremental pay based on the achievement of assigned duties, objectives, strategic positioning of the Company, and Company performance. The Company disagrees with Mr. Edquist's conclusion that he was relieved of his Board committee responsibilities ...when I objected to the Chairman of the Compensation Committee's procedures. Our Compensation Committee will be addressing these issues in more detail shortly in a letter to you.
