Item 8.01. Other Event

On October 16, 2009, SkyWest Airlines, Inc. (SkyWest Airlines), a wholly-owned subsidiary of SkyWest, Inc. (the Company), entered into a financing arrangement with United Air Lines, Inc. (United), and both parties agreed to modify certain aspects of their existing code-share relationship as described herein. Pursuant to the terms of the financing arrangement, SkyWest Airlines extended to United a secured term loan in the original principal amount of $80 million. The term loan is evidenced by a Promissory Note and is collateralized by United's grant of a security interest in certain United assets, principally ground equipment and airport slot rights. United's obligations under the Promissory Note are guaranteed by UAL Corporation (UAL).

Under the terms of the Promissory Note, United is obligated to make monthly payments of principal and interest beginning on December 1, 2009 and continuing until the maturity date of November 1, 2019, at which time all unpaid principal and interest is due and payable. The principal amount under the Promissory Note bears interest at a rate of 11% per annum. United has covenanted to maintain an agreed-upon loan to collateral ratio, and to supplement the collateral as necessary to maintain the collateral value ratio. The Promissory Note also contains restrictions on United's ability to dispose of any pledged collateral, certain representations and warranties made by United, defined events of default, indemnification provisions, and other general terms typically found in similar financing transactions. SkyWest Airlines has also agreed to increase the amount of the term loan by up to $20,000,000 if, among other things, United requests the increase within 90 days of the effective date of the financing arrangement described herein and United agrees to add certain additional collateral.

In addition to the financing arrangement described above, SkyWest Airlines and United agreed to modify certain terms of the United Express Agreement entered into between them as of July 31, 2003 (the United Express Agreement). Among the modified provisions, the parties have agreed to extend the term of SkyWest Airlines' operation of 40 Bombardier CRJ200 Regional Jet (CRJ200) aircraft currently flown by SkyWest Airlines on United's behalf under the terms of the United Express Agreement. United also granted the right for SkyWest Airlines to fly 13 additional CRJ200 aircraft under an express agreement to be negotiated among the parties. The additional 13 CRJ200 aircraft are expected to enter service between February 2010 and May 2010. United has agreed that the additional 13 aircraft may be flown by Atlantic Southeast Airlines, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (ASA). The Company currently intends for ASA to operate the additional aircraft using existing ASA CRJ200s. The parties have also agreed that United may defer up to $49 million on a rolling basis for a maximum period of 30 days amounts otherwise due and payable to SkyWest Airlines under the United Express Agreement, in exchange for United's payment of a deferral fee at a rate of 8.0% per annum.

The press release issued on October 20, 2009 announcing SkyWest Airline's financing arrangement with United, the extension of United Express flying and United Express flying for ASA is attached to this Report as Exhibit 99.1.
