ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE ARRANGEMENT.

On July 30, 2010, Tigrent Inc. (the Company) agreed to a forbearance (the Forbearance) with M. Barry Strudwick, Susan Weiss and certain other parties with respect to the previously disclosed settlement memorandum (Settlement Memorandum) providing for settlement and release of certain claims with respect to its previously disclosed litigation relating to Monterey del Mar, S.A., a Panamanian company and other matters. Under the terms of the Settlement Memorandum, the Company agreed to pay Mr. Strudwick and Ms. Weiss a total of $3.8 million, $1.2 million of which was paid in 2009. The Company issued two promissory notes for the remaining $2.6 million, one in the amount of $2.3 million (the First Note) and the other in the amount of $300,000 (the Second Note) and, together with the First Note, the Notes). The Company missed payments of approximately $220,337 and $5,983 with respect to the First Note and Second Note, respectively, that were due on July 15, 2010, which nonpayment became an event of default on July 25, 2010 after continuing for a period of over ten (10) days.

Under the terms of the Forbearance, the holders of the Notes agreed to forbear from enforcing their rights and remedies under the Notes and the Settlement Memorandum for a period ending August 13, 2010 (the Forbearance Period) in consideration of the payment of $50,000 made by the Company on July 30, 2010 to be applied against the Company's obligations under the Notes. The Company and the holders of the Notes continue to consider and discuss plans to repay or restructure the Notes. Although the Company intends to work diligently with the holders of the Notes to finalize a repayment or restructuring plan, there is no guarantee that the parties will reach a mutually agreeable plan. If the Company is unable to pay or negotiate a repayment or restructuring plan with the holders of the Notes during the Forbearance Period, the holders may attempt to fully exercise their rights and remedies under the Notes and Settlement Memorandum, subject to any applicable defenses.
