State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q,10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 for Patriot National Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company") cannot be filed within the prescribed time period because the completion of the Company's financial statements for year-end 2008 have been delayed as a result of the unprecedented turmoil in the financial markets and the particular impact that is having on the Company's market areas, as discussed more fully in Part IV. The Company expects to be in a position to file its Form 10-K no later than March 31, 2009.

Yes  No

3. Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Patriot National Bancorp, Inc. expects that its financial results for 2008 will be significantly below those for 2007. The Company's banking subsidiary, Patriot National Bank (the "Bank") operates primarily in Fairfield County, Connecticut and, to a lesser extent, Westchester County, New York. These areas are historically of high affluence with a significant percentage of residents who work in or have employment dependent on the New York City based financial industry. The deteriorating job market combined with significant losses of equity, housing wealth and the tightening of credit conditions have contributed to the continued steep decline in late 2008 and into 2009 of residential sales activity and valuations.

The Bank continuously updates loan files with current financial information about borrowers and about the value of real estate collateral. That process continues as the Bank and its independent auditor review such information for the purpose of finalizing the 2008 financial statements. Subject to completion of the audit, the Company currently estimates that it will record a net loss for 2008 of $7.1 million, or $1.50 per share. The $7.1 million loss is primarily due to higher loan loss reserves relating to an increase in non-accruing loans to $80.2 million at year end. Included in the loss is a one time write-off of goodwill in the amount of $1.4 million, a $1.1 million impairment charge for FHLMC preferred stock and a $2.1 million impairment charge on auction rate preferred stock primarily relating to companies in the financial services industry. These auction rate securities are all investment grade and making scheduled interest payments but have experienced significant depreciation in value due to the deterioration in the financial services industry. Despite the loss for the year, the Company and the Bank remain well capitalized pursuant to regulatory guidelines.
