NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited consolidated condensed financial statements of SKRM Interactive, Inc. ("SKRM" or the "Company"), have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-QSB and Item 310(b) of Regulation S-B. They do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary for a fair presentation, have been included in the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements. Operating results for the periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

Note 2 – REVERSE MERGER

On September 12, 2007, the Company, Jeffrey Martin (a principal shareholders of the Company), Sector 10 Services-USA, Inc. ("Sector 10 Services"), Sector 10 Holdings, Inc. ("Sector 10 Holdings") and the Pericles DeAvila Institute for Humanitarian Studies (the "DeAvila Institute") entered into a Stock Exchange Agreement (the "Exchange Agreement") setting forth the terms and conditions upon which the above named parties thereto proposed to consummate a stock exchange transaction pursuant to which Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute would transfer to the Company approximately 75% of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Sector 10 Services in exchange for (i) the Company's issuance and delivery to Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute of 47,058,824 and 2,941,176 newly-issued shares of the Company's common stock (the "Common Stock"), respectively, and (ii) Mr. Martin's transfer and delivery to Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute of 14,117,674 and 882,353 outstanding shares of Common Stock, respectively (collectively, the "Sector 10 Transaction"). A summary of the terms of the Exchange Agreement and related details were originally disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 11, 2007 (the "October Form 8-K").

As disclosed in the October Form 8-K, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement was conditioned upon the Company's amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation to authorize the issuance of sufficient shares of the Company's common stock to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement. On or about September 13, 2007 the Company obtained the written consent of the holders of sufficient shares of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock to amend the Company's Certificate of Incorporation for the purpose of increasing the authorized capital of the Company to 200,000,000 shares of capital stock, consisting of 190,000,000 shares of Common Stock and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock. Based on the approval of the Company's shareholders holding a majority of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock, on September 15, 2007, the Company filed a Certificate of Amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation for the purpose of affecting the increase in the number of authorized shares of the Company's capital stock.

In November 2007, based upon the approval of the Company's shareholders holding a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock of the Certificate of Amendment, and the filing of the Certificate of Amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the Company completed the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement, including the issuance and delivery to Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute of 47,058,824 and 2,941,176 newly-issued shares of the Company's common stock, respectively. The Company believes the issuance of such shares to Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute was exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), pursuant to the provisions of Section 4(2) thereof.

The shareholders of Sector 10 Services owned 85% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock immediately after the Sector 10 Transaction was completed in November 2007. The Sector 10 Transaction is treated as a reverse merger for accounting purposes, with Sector 10 Services treated as the surviving entity. The Company's financial statements have been adjusted to eliminate all prior SKRM Interactive information and include prior Sector 10 Services financial information.

Edgar Filing: SKRM Interactive, Inc. - Form 10QSB/A

A summary of significant adjustments to the balance sheet of the Company resulting from the Sector 10 Transaction is as follows:

DR (CR)

The reporting period for the new entity has been requested to continue with a March 31 fiscal year end. The Company is currently conducting its operations under the assumed name of Sector 10 Services, and management intends to seek shareholder approval to change the name of the Company to Sector 10, Inc. The Company's management currently anticipates that the change of the Company's name will occur prior to the conclusion of the Company's fiscal year ending March 31, 2008.

Note 3 – EQUITY

During the Quarter ended: December 31, 2007:

In November 2007, the Company received approval to increase its authorized capital stock to 200,000,000 shares. With this authorization, the Company issued 50,000,000 shares of Common Stock (47,058,824 shares to Sector 10 Holdings Inc and 2,941,176 shares to the DeAvila Institute) as part of the Sector 10 Transaction.

On November 30, 2007, the Company redeemed outstanding convertible notes in the original principal amount of $600,000, in exchange for the issuance of 1,200,000 shares of Common Stock. A shareholder provided the shares in the initial transaction. The financial statements present a liability to shareholders of 649,200 at December 31, 2007. This amount will be converted to equity when the 1,200,000 shares are issued to the shareholder. The shares are expected to be issued before the conclusion of the Company's fiscal year ending March 31, 2008.

On November 30, 2006, the Company issued warrants to purchase 10,000,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.75 per share to its convertible note holders. The warrants were amended as part of the November 30, 2007 repurchase agreement to remove any variable factors that could require adjustments to the outstanding warrants. As of December 31, 2007, the exercise price of the warrants was fixed at $1.75 and the warrants have been treated as equity for financial reporting purposes.

As a result of the Sector 10 Transaction, various adjustments were required to eliminate the prior SKRM Interactive activity and to include the information regarding Sector 10 Services. The merger adjustments and their impact on the Company's balance sheet are identified in the schedule presented above in Note 2 – Reverse Merger.

Note 4 – GOING CONCERN

As of December 31, 2007, the Company's revenue generating activities were not in place, and the Company has incurred significant losses since inception. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Management is currently negotiating contracts that are anticipated to generate revenues in the 4th quarter of the Company's fiscal year ending March 31, 2008. Management also intends to seek additional capital through equity and/or debt financing to assist the Company until profitable operations can be achieved. There can be no assurance that such funds will be available to the Company or available on terms acceptable to the Company. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of these uncertainties.

Note 5 – INCOME TAXES

Income taxes are accounted for using the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and net operating loss carryforwards. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce net deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

The Company's financial statements for the three and nine-month periods ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 do not include any provision for income taxes. Accordingly, deferred tax assets have been entirely offset by valuation allowances. The difference between the amounts of income tax benefit that would result from applying domestic federal statutory income tax rates to the net loss and the net deferred tax assets is related to certain nondeductible expenses, state income taxes, and the change in the valuation allowance.

In June 2006, FASB issued FIN48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes – an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109. It is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company has determined that the application of FIN 48 is immaterial to the Company's financial statements for the current period. As the Company expects the business to change significantly in the future, an evaluation regarding the impact of FIN 48 will be reviewed on a quarterly basis.

Item 2. Management's Discussion And Analysis Or Plan Of Operation

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 29a of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21e of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical or anticipated results. You should not place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements, and, when considering such forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risk factors noted in this report, including the section of this report entitled "Risks Related to Our Business and Operations." You should also keep in mind that all forward-looking statements are based on management's existing beliefs about present and future events outside of management's control and on assumptions that may prove to be incorrect. The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the Company's financial statements and notes thereto, which are included elsewhere in this report.

Overview

On September 12, 2007, the Company, Jeffrey Martin (a principal shareholders of the Company), Sector 10 Services-USA, Inc. ("Sector 10 Services"), Sector 10 Holdings, Inc. ("Sector 10 Holdings") and the Pericles DeAvila Institute for Humanitarian Studies (the "DeAvila Institute") entered into a Stock Exchange Agreement (the "Exchange Agreement") setting forth the terms and conditions upon which the above named parties thereto proposed to consummate a stock exchange transaction pursuant to which Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute would transfer to the Company approximately 75% of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Sector 10 Services in exchange for (i) the Company's issuance and delivery to Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute of 47,058,824 and 2,941,176 newly-issued shares of the Company's common stock (the "Common Stock"), respectively, and (ii) Mr. Martin's transfer and delivery to Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute of 14,117,674 and 882,353 outstanding shares of Common Stock, respectively (collectively, the "Sector 10 Transaction"). A summary of the terms of the Exchange Agreement and related details were originally disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 11, 2007 (the “October Form 8-K”).

In November 2007, based upon the approval by the Company's shareholders of the Certificate of Amendment, and the filing of the Certificate of Amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the Company completed the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement, including the issuance and delivery to Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute of 47,058,824 and 2,941,176 newly-issued shares of Common Stock, respectively. The Company believes the issuance of such shares to Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute was exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), pursuant to the provisions of Section 4(2) thereof.

Prior to the execution of the Exchange Agreement, the Company entered into agreements with Sterling LLC ("Sterling") and HLB & Associates, LLC ("HLB"), pursuant to which Sterling agreed to provide to the Company and its affiliates certain research, market review, strategic analysis, review and planning services and HLB agreed to provide to the Company certain planning, development, advertising and promotional services. As a result of the Company's consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement, and the corresponding change in the nature of the Company's business operations, the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") determined that the Company's continued performance of the Sterling and HLB agreements was not in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. Accordingly, on December 17, 2007 the Board terminated the Sterling and HLB agreements described above. The Company did not incur any early termination penalties as a result of the termination of either agreement.

Sector 10 Services has been developing relationships and presently has contracts under review that could generate significant revenues for the Company. The initial contracts are expected to be completed before the conclusion of the year ending March 31, 2008. If the Company is successful in negotiating and executing purchase contracts, and if the Company is able to expand its operations to fulfill product orders which could be issued under those contracts, neither possibility of which the Company can presently assure, the Company's management believes the Company's revenues and related cash flows of the Company would have a material impact on the Company financial statements.

Going Concern Qualification

The notes to the Company's consolidated financial statements disclose that the limited cash flow of the Company has been absorbed in operating activities and the Company has incurred net losses since inception, and the Company has a working capital deficiency. In the event that funding from internal sources or from public or private financing is insufficient to fund the Company's business, the Company will have to substantially cut back its level of spending, which could substantially curtail the Company's operations. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's going concern uncertainty may affect its ability to raise additional capital, and may also affect its ability to raise additional capital, and may also affect its relationships with suppliers and customers. Investors should carefully examine the Company's financial statements.

The Company may consider also generating funding from the sale of shares of Common Stock to in private transactions. If the Company is not able to raise additional debt or equity, the Company's ability to continue its business operations is highly unlikely.

Obtaining additional financing would be subject to a number of factors, including investor sentiment. Risks Related to the Company's Business and Operations

Investing in the Common Stock involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the risks described below, and all of the other information set forth in this report before deciding to invest in shares of the Company's common stock. In addition to historical information, the information in this report contains forward-looking statements about the Company's future business and performance. The Company's actual operating results and financial performance may be different from what the Company's management expects as of the date of this report. The risks described in this report represent the risks that the Company's management has identified and determined to be material to the Company. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to the Company's management, or that the Company's management currently deems to be immaterial, may also materially harm the Company's business operations and financial condition.

Going Concern Qualification

The Company has generated limited cash flow, has incurred net losses since inception and has a working capital deficiency. In the event that contracts are not executed, the Company will not be able to generate revenues sufficient to cover anticipated expenses. Existing funding from internal sources or from public or private financing is insufficient to fund the Company's business. If the Company is unable to quickly generate capital from operating activities or from external sources, the Company will have to substantially curtail its operations and will likely need to suspend its operations entirely. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's going concern uncertainty will likely affect its ability to raise additional capital, and may also affect its relationships with suppliers and prospective customers. Investors should carefully examine the Company's financial statements.

The Company has not generated revenues and has not executed any contracts for the sale of the Company's products.

The Company has not generated any revenues. Based on the consummation of the Sector 10 Transaction, the Company has changed its business operations. Currently the Company is negotiating contracts that may generate revenues; however, none of those contracts has been executed, and the Company can provide no assurance that any such contracts will ever be executed. There can be no assurance that the Company will generate any revenues. If the Company does not generate revenues in the near term, the Company will have to substantially curtail its operations and will likely need to suspend its operations entirely.

The Company uses outside sources to fulfill contract obligations and has limited control over the provider's ability to meet the Company obligations.

The Company will be required to supply various equipment and services under the contracts currently under negotiation. If the contracts are executed, of which the Company can provide no assurance, the Company intends to engage third-party suppliers to manufacture the products the Company proposes to sell under the contracts. The Company has no control over such third-party suppliers. If any or all of those third-party suppliers fails to supply sufficient products on a timely basis to meet the terms of any contract, the Company would be unable to perform its obligations to its customers, if any. If the Company is successful in negotiating and executing contracts for the sale of its products and if a third-party supplier fails to perform its obligations under its arrangement with the Company, the Company's financial condition and results of operation would be materially and adversely affected.

The directors, executive officers and principal shareholders of the Company have effective control of the Company, preventing non-affiliate shareholders from significantly influencing the Company's direction and future.

The Company's directors, officers, and principal shareholders and their affiliates control in excess of 80% of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock and are expected to continue to control a majority of our outstanding common stock following any financing transactions projected for the foreseeable future. These directors, officers and affiliates effectively control all matters requiring approval by the Company's shareholders, including any determination with respect to the acquisition or disposition of assets, future issuances of securities, declarations of dividends and the election of directors. This concentration of ownership may also delay, defer, or prevent a change in control and otherwise prevent stockholders other than management's affiliates from influencing the Company's direction and future.

The market for the Company's stock is thin and subject to manipulation.

The volume of trading in the Common Stock is limited and can be dominated by a few individuals. The limited volume, if any, can make the price of the Common Stock subject to manipulation by one or more shareholders and will significantly limit the number of shares of Common Stock that one can purchase or sell in a short period of time. An investor may find it difficult to dispose of shares of Common Stock or obtain a fair price for the Common Stock in the market.

The market price for the Common Stock is volatile and may change dramatically at any time.

The market price of the Common Stock is highly volatile. The price for the Common Stock may change dramatically as the result of announcements of the Company's operating or financial results, the rate of the Company's expansion, significant litigation or other factors or events that would be expected to affect the Company's business or financial condition, results of operations and other factors specific to the Company's business and future prospects. In addition, the market price for the Common Stock may be affected by various factors not directly related to the Company's business, including the following:

- intentional manipulation of the price of the Common Stock by existing or future stockholders;
- short selling of the Common Stock or related derivative securities;
- a single acquisition or disposition, or several related acquisitions or dispositions, of a large number of the Company's shares of Common Stock;

- the interest, or lack of interest, of the market in the Company's business sector, without regard to the Company's financial condition or results of operations;
- the adoption of governmental regulations and similar developments in the United States or abroad that may affect the Company's ability to offer the Company's products and services or affect the Company's cost structure;
- developments in the businesses of companies that purchase the Company's products; and
- economic and other external market factors, such as a general decline in market prices due to poor economic indicators or investor distrust.

Our business may be affected by increased compensation and benefits costs.

The Company is currently negotiating various contracts that may generate revenues beginning in the quarter ended March 31, 2008. If the Company is able to execute any such contracts, of which there can be no assurance, the Company intends to new personnel to assist in the development and conduct of the Company's business operations. The increased compensation and benefits associated with any new hires will impact the net results of the Company.

The Company has not paid dividends and does not anticipate paying dividends in the future.

The Company has not paid any cash dividends on its common stock to date and does not anticipate any cash dividends being paid to holders of its common stock in the foreseeable future. While the Company's dividend policy will be based on the operating results and capital needs of the business, it is anticipated that any earnings will be retained to finance the Company's future expansion. As the Company has no plans to issue cash dividends in the future, its common stock could be less desirable to other investors and as a result, the value of our common stock may decline, or fail to reach the valuations of other similarly situated companies who have issued cash dividends.

The Common Stock is a "low-priced stock" and subject to regulation that limits or restricts the potential market for the stock.

Shares of the Common Stock should be considered to be "low-priced" or "penny stock," resulting in increased risks to investors and certain requirements being imposed on some brokers who execute transactions in the common stock. In general, a low-priced stock is an equity security that:

- Is priced under five dollars;
- Is not traded on a national stock exchange, the Nasdaq Global Market or the Nasdaq Capital Market;
- Is issued by a company that has less than $5 million in net tangible assets (if it has been in business less than three years) or has less than $2 million in net tangible assets (if it has been in business for at least three years); and
- Is issued by a company that has average revenues of less than $6 million for the past three years.

The Company believes the Common Stock is presently a "penny stock." At any time that the Common Stock qualifies as a penny stock, the following requirements, among others, will generally apply:

- Certain broker-dealers who recommend penny stock to persons other than established customers and accredited investors must make a special written suitability determination for the purchaser and receive the purchaser's written agreement to a transaction prior to sale.

- Prior to executing any transaction involving a penny stock, certain broker-dealers must deliver to certain purchasers a disclosure schedule explaining the risks involved in owning penny stock, the broker-dealer's duties to the customer, a toll-free telephone number for inquiries about the broker-dealer's disciplinary history and the customer's rights and remedies in case of fraud or abuse in the sale.
- In connection with the execution of any transaction involving a penny stock, certain broker-dealers must deliver to certain purchasers the following:
 - bid and offer price quotes and volume information;
 - the broker-dealer's compensation for the trade;
 - the compensation received by certain salespersons for the trade;
 - monthly accounts statements; and
 - a written statement of the customer's financial situation and investment goals.

Compliance with existing and new regulations of corporate governance and public disclosure may result in additional expenses.

Compliance with changing laws, regulations, and standards relating to corporate governance and public disclosure, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and other SEC regulations, requires large amounts of management attention and external resources. This may result in increased general and administrative expenses and a diversion of management time and attention from revenue-generating activities to compliance activities.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures

(a) Based on the evaluation of our “disclosure controls and procedures” (as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Rules 13a-15(e) or 15d-15(e)) required by paragraph (b) of Rules 13a-15 or 15d-15, the Company’s principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that as of December 31, 2007, the Company’s disclosure controls and procedures were not effective. This conclusion was based on the fact we were not able to prepare our financial information and provide sufficient time for review by the independent registered professional accounting firm in order to report within the time periods specified by the SEC’s rules and forms. The December 31, 2007 Form 10-QSB was filed prior to receiving final approval from its professional team thereby resulting in a need to amend various disclosures. This control deficiency resulted in a need to file amendments to the Company’s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-QSB for the quarters ended September 30, 2007 and December 31, 2007. The Company has hired a new Chief Financial Officer who the Company anticipates will commence employment with the Company in March 2008. The Company intends to design controls and procedures for the financial reporting process to mitigate future timing and review issues. These new controls are expected to be in place for the fiscal year end March 31, 2008.

(b) There have been no changes in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting identified in connection with the evaluation required by paragraph (d) of Exchange Act Rules 13a-15 or 15d-15 that occurred during the Company’s last fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company’s internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

On September 12, 2007, the Company, Jeffrey Martin, Sector 10 Services, Sector 10 Holdings, and the DeAvila Institute the Section 10 Transaction Exchange Agreement. The offer and sale of shares of common stock in the Sector 10 Transaction were effected in reliance upon the exemptions for sales of securities not involving a public offering, as set forth in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder, based upon the following: (a) there was no public offering or general solicitation with respect to the Sector 10 Transaction offering; (b) each of Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute investor was provided with certain disclosure materials and all other information requested with respect to the Company; (c) each of Sector 10 Holdings and the DeAvila Institute acknowledged that all securities being purchased were “restricted securities” for purposes of the Securities Act, and agreed to transfer such securities only in a transaction registered under the Securities Act or exempt from registration under the Securities Act; and (d) a legend was placed on the certificates representing each such security stating that it was restricted and could only be transferred if subsequently registered under the Securities Act or transferred in a transaction exempt from registration under the Securities Act.
