Bachoco Discloses Effects of Financial Volatility on Its Financial Position

Celaya, Guanajuato, Mexico, October 14, 2008

Industrias Bachoco S.A.B. de C.V. (“Bachoco” or “the Company”) (NYSE:IBA; BMV: Bachoco), Mexico’s leading producer and processor of poultry products, today announced the effects that recent worldwide volatility in the financial markets had on its financial position.

The mark-to-market of the Company’s financial derivative instruments had an effect of approximately US$50 million as of October 13, 2008.

Most of this amount is spread over the rest of the year and first half of 2009.

The Company is following closely the evolution of the financial markets and keeping close communications with the financial players to make appropriate decisions in order to reduce the above-mentioned effects.

Cristobal Mondragon, Bachoco’s CEO, stated, “Our solid financial structure is allowing us to deal with the present situation and meet all of our financial commitments.”
