PART III – NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

NexCen Brands, Inc. (the “Company”) will not file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2009 by the required filing date and will not file such report within the five day grace period provided in Rule 12b-25.

On August 11, 2009, the Company amended its Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2007, which included restated 2007 audited financial statements. As previously disclosed, the Company is in the process of completing the preparation and audit of its 2008 financial statements. The Company expects to request a reporting accommodation from the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) that would allow it to file a comprehensive Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 (the “Comprehensive 2008 10-K”) in lieu of filing both an Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for each of the quarters ended March 31, 2008, June 30, 2008 and September 30, 2008. The Company is in the process of finalizing all of the information that would allow it to file a Comprehensive 2008 10-K. In addition, the Company is also in the process of finalizing its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2009 and June 30, 2009.

The Company expects its Comprehensive 2008 10-K and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2009 to be complete and ready for filing with the SEC by September 22, 2009. Following these filings, the Company expects to complete and file as soon as possible its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2009. The Company is working expeditiously to complete these reports and file them as soon as possible.

The Company did not initiate its brand management and franchising business until the second half of 2006. From the second half of 2006 through the end of 2008, the Company acquired nine brands and disposed of two brands. The nine brands acquired were: The Athlete's Foot (November 2006), Bill Blass (February 2007), Maggie Moo's (February 2007), Marble Slab (February 2007), Waverly (May 2007), Pretzel Time and Pretzelmaker (August 2007), Great American Cookies (January 2008) and Shoebox New York (January 2008). The Company sold Waverly in October 2008 and Bill Blass in December 2008. Additionally, the Company completed a comprehensive restructuring of its credit facility in August 2008 (with additional subsequent amendments in December 2008, January 2009, July 2009 and August 2009). Further, as previously disclosed, the Company expects that it will record total non-cash impairment charges of approximately $242 million in 2008 related to reductions in the carrying value of the Company's trademarks, goodwill and other intangible assets and that it will record an aggregate loss on sale of approximately $15 million in 2008 in connection with the Company's sale of Waverly and Bill Blass. As a result, the Company's revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities for the period ended June 30, 2009 differ substantially from the period ended June 30, 2008.
