Item 2.01                      Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On January 1, 2012, Chrome Systems, Inc. ("Chrome"), a wholly owned subsidiary of DealerTrack Holdings, Inc. ("DealerTrack"), contributed substantially all of its assets and liabilities to the joint venture (the "Joint Venture") formed pursuant to the terms of the Omnibus Agreement, dated as of December 20, 2011, by and among Chrome, Autodata Solutions, Inc. ("Autodata"), Autodata Solutions Company, and AutoChrome Company (the "Omnibus Agreement"). As a result, the business of Chrome will now be operated by the Joint Venture.

The consideration received by Chrome was a 50% interest in the Joint Venture. DealerTrack, Inc. also received a perpetual, irrevocable license to use certain Joint Venture intellectual property and data in its products and services.

Pursuant to the Omnibus Agreement, the parties formed "Chrome Data Solutions" as the Joint Venture through the organization of (i) a Delaware limited liability company, (ii) a Delaware limited partnership that is a subsidiary of such limited liability company and (iii) a Nova Scotia unlimited liability company, pursuant to which the parties will collaboratively develop, market and sell automotive content products and services. As noted above, Chrome contributed substantially all of its assets and liabilities to the Joint Venture. In addition, Autodata contributed substantially all of the assets and liabilities of its content division, other than certain intellectual property that has been exclusively licensed to the Joint Venture. The Omnibus Agreement also provides for a working capital adjustment and other customary adjustments.

The foregoing description of the Omnibus Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Omnibus Agreement, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
