The matters discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K include forward looking statements, which are subject to various risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results anticipated in such forward looking statements. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors include the uncertainties inherent in oil and gas development and production activities, the effect of actions by third parties including government officials, fluctuations in world oil prices and other risks detailed in the Company's Reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The forward-looking statements are intended to help shareholders and others assess the Company's business prospects and should be considered together with all information available. They are made in reliance upon the safe harbor provisions of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company cannot give assurance that the results will be attained.

Section 2 Financial Information

Item 2.02. Results Of Operations And Financial Condition

On November 17, 2004, CanArgo Energy Corporation (CanArgo or the Company) issued a press release. The following typographical errors were inadvertently contained in the press release:-

In paragraph three of the text of the press release it was stated that the net cash provided by the financing activities was $36,453,636. The correct figure for net cash provided by financing activities is $36,373,636. In the Consolidated Condensed Balance Sheets in the Financial Statements attached to the press release the figure for Total Liabilities as at December 31, 2003 was stated to be $152,000. The correct figure for Total Liabilities as at December 31, 2003 is $11,879,123. In the Consolidated Condensed Statements of Operations in the Financial Statements attached to the press release there was the heading Gain (loss) on disposition of subsidiary . The correct heading is "(Gain) loss on disposition of subsidiary .
