Diageo to acquire highly rated Rosenblum Cellars

Diageo, the world's leading premium drinks business, announced today that it has entered into an agreement to acquire Rosenblum Cellars. The acquisition represents a unique opportunity to own a highly rated Zinfandel brand and therefore it further enhances Diageo Chateau and Estate Wines' brand range in the fastest growing segment of US wines, the premium segment. The consideration $105 million and it is anticipated that the acquisition will be economic profit positive during the fourth full year of ownership.

The transaction, which is subject to regulatory approval in the United States, is expected to complete in the first quarter of calendar year 2008.

Commenting, Ivan Menezes, President, Diageo North America said:

The acquisition of Rosenblum Cellars represents an important strategic fit for us, as it enhances Diageo's presence in the premium Zinfandel segment, one of the fastest growing varietals in the US. We look forward to working with the Rosenblums in growing this brand as we continue to focus on the quality for which these wines are known and in addition allow the wines to benefit from Diageo's superior distribution network in the US.
