Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 10, 2011, DeVry Inc. (“DeVry”), the lenders described in the paragraph immediately below, and Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent, entered into a new revolving credit agreement (the “Credit Agreement”). The amount of borrowing capacity available under the Credit Agreement is $400 million, with an option to request an increase of an additional $150 million, as needed, in the future. The Credit Agreement has a five year term ending May 2016.

The new Credit Agreement replaces DeVry’s prior $175 million credit facility that was set to expire in January 2012, which included Bank of America, Bank of Montreal, Northern Trust, and JP Morgan Chase as the lending group. The new Credit Agreement includes these existing lenders along with six other banks (PNC, US Bank, Fifth Third Bank, RBS Citizens, Associated Bank, and HSBC), with Bank of America serving as the administrative agent and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith as the lead arranger.

Borrowings under the Credit Agreement bear interest at LIBOR plus 175 basis points, although higher margins up to 250 basis points may apply based on the ratio of consolidated total debt to EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization). The Credit Agreement contains customary affirmative, negative and financial maintenance covenants, representations, warranties, events of default and remedies upon default including acceleration, and borrowing conditions. Full details of the Credit Agreement are contained in the agreement included as Exhibit 4.1 to this Form 8-K. Currently, there are no outstanding borrowings under either the expiring or new credit agreements.

There is no material relationship between DeVry or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates and any of the lending parties or the administrative agent, other than in respect of the Credit Agreement and certain banking relationships all entered into in the ordinary course of business.
