Note B - Preparation of Financial Statements

The Company and its subsidiaries follow the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and have adopted a year-end of December 31 for all entities.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Management further acknowledges that it is solely responsible for adopting sound accounting practices, establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and preventing and detecting fraud. The Company's system of internal accounting control is designed to assure, among other items, that 1) recorded transactions are valid; 2) valid transactions are recorded; and 3) transactions are recorded in the proper period in a timely manner to produce financial statements which present fairly the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the Company for the respective periods being presented

During interim periods, the Company follows the accounting policies set forth in its annual audited financial statements filed with the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission on its Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2005. The information presented within these interim financial statements may not include all disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles and the users of financial information provided for interim periods should refer to the annual financial information and footnotes when reviewing the interim financial results presented herein.

American Ammunition, Inc. and Subsidiaries
September 30, 2006 and 2005

In the opinion of management, the accompanying interim financial statements, prepared in accordance with the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission's instructions for Form 10-QSB, are unaudited and contain all material adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the Company for the respective interim periods presented. The current period results of operations are not necessarily indicative of results which ultimately will be reported for the full fiscal year ending December 31, 2006.

For segment reporting purposes, the Company operated in only one industry segment during the periods represented in the accompanying financial statements and makes all operating decisions and allocates resources based on the best benefit to the Company as a whole.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements contain the accounts of American Ammunition, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, F&F Equipment, Inc.

and Industrial Plating Enterprise Co. All significant intercompany transactions have been eliminated. The consolidated entities are collectively referred to as "Company".

Note C - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

1. Cash and cash equivalents

For Statement of Cash Flows purposes, the Company considers all cash on hand and in banks, certificates of deposit and other highly-liquid investments with maturities of three months or less, when purchased, to be cash and cash equivalents.

Cash overdraft positions may occur from time to time due to the timing of making bank deposits and releasing checks, in accordance with the Company's cash management policies.

2. Accounts receivable and Revenue Recognition

In the normal course of business, the Company extends unsecured credit to virtually all of its customers which are located throughout the United States. Because of the credit risk involved, management has provided an allowance for doubtful accounts which reflects its opinion of amounts which will eventually become uncollectible. In the event of complete non-performance, the maximum exposure to the Company is the recorded amount of trade accounts receivable shown on the balance sheet at the date of non-performance.

The Company ships all product on an FOB-Plant, "as-is" basis. Accordingly, revenue is recognized by the Company at the point at which an order is shipped at a fixed price, collection is reasonably assured and the Company has no remaining performance obligations related to the sale. The Company sells all products with "no right of return" by the purchaser for any factor other than defects in the product's production.

On rare occasion, the Company may elect to accept product returns from customers on a case-by-case basis to offset unpaid accounts receivable. These situations are a "last case" scenario and are initiated by senior management through negotiations with the respective customer.

3. Inventory

Inventory consists of raw materials, work-in-process and finished goods related to the production and sale of small arms ammunition. Inventory is valued at the lower of cost or market using the first-in, first-out method.

Note C - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

3. Inventory

Inventory consists of raw materials, work-in-process and finished goods

related to the production and sale of small arms ammunition. Inventory is valued at the lower of cost or market using the first-in, first-out method.

4. Property, plant and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at historical cost. These costs are depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the individual assets using the straight-line method, generally three to ten years.

Gains and losses from disposition of property and equipment are recognized as incurred and are included in operations.

In accordance with SFAS No. 144, the Company evaluates the accompanying financial statements to determine if any impairment indicators are present related to its fixed assets and other long-term assets. If impairment indicators were present, future cash flows related to the asset group are estimated. The sum of the undiscounted future cash flows attributable to the asset group was then compared to the carrying amount of the asset group. The cash flows were estimated utilizing various assumptions regarding future revenue and expenses, availability of working capital, and proceeds, if any, from asset disposals on a basis consistent with the Company's strategic plan. If the carrying amount exceeded the sum of the future undiscounted future cash flows, the Company discounted the future cash flows using a risk-free discount rate and recorded an impairment charge as the difference between the discounted cash flows and the carrying value of the asset group. Generally, the Company performed its testing of the asset group at the overall corporate level, as this is the lowest level for which identifiable cash flows are available. As a result of the impairment testing described above, management is of the opinion that no impairment charge is appropriate.

5. Income Taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. At September 30, 2006 and 2005, the deferred tax asset and deferred tax liability accounts, as recorded when material to the financial statements, are entirely the result of temporary differences. Temporary differences represent differences in the recognition of assets and liabilities for tax and financial reporting purposes, primarily accumulated depreciation and amortization, allowance for doubtful accounts and vacation accruals.

As of September 30, 2006 and 2005, the deferred tax asset related to the Company's net operating loss carryforward is fully reserved. If these carryforwards are not utilized, they will begin to expire at the end of 2005.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC/FL - Form 10QSB/A

6. Earnings (loss) per share

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the respective period presented in our accompanying financial statements.

Fully diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed similar to basic income (loss) per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of common stock equivalents (primarily outstanding options and warrants).

Common stock equivalents represent the dilutive effect of the assumed exercise of the outstanding stock options and warrants, using the treasury stock method, at either the beginning of the respective period presented or the date of issuance, whichever is later, and only if the common stock equivalents are considered dilutive based upon the Company's net income (loss) position at the calculation date.

As of September 30, 2006 and 2005, and subsequent thereto, the Company had no options outstanding. The outstanding warrants and convertible preferred stock and mandatorily convertible debentures are anti-dilutive due to the Company's net operating loss position.

7. Advertising costs

The Company does not conduct any direct response advertising activities. For non-direct response advertising, the Company charges the costs of these efforts to operations at the first time the related advertising is published.

Note D - Correction of an Error

On August 22, 2007, our management concluded that the financial statements included in our Forms 10-QSB for June and September 2005, the calendar year 2006 and for the period ending March 31, 2007, and the Forms 10-KSB for the periods ending December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2006, all of which have been previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, need to be restated, due to the failure to include the beneficial conversion feature discount on unsecured convertible indebtedness.

Management discovered such changes needed to be made after consulting with Pollard-Kelley Auditing Services, our independent registered public accounting firm as of June 26, 2007, who have concurred with management as to the reexamination of the above mentioned issues.

The Company has entered into certain notes payable to shareholders and other affiliated parties with embedded conversion features and warrant issues. The appropriate accounting is governed by EITF 98-5: "Accounting for convertible securities with beneficial conversion features or contingency adjustable conversion" and EITF No. 00-27: "Application of issue No 98-5 to certain convertible instruments". Conversion features determined to be beneficial to the holder are valued at fair value and recorded to additional paid in capital. The fair value is determined to be ascribed to the detachable warrants issued with the convertible debentures utilizing the Black-Scholes method. Any discount derived from determining the fair value to the debenture conversion features and warrants is amortized to financing cost over the life of the debenture. The unamortized discount, if any, upon the conversion of the debentures is expensed to financing cost on a pro rata basis.

Debt issues with the variable conversion features are considered to be embedded derivatives and are accountable in accordance with FASB 133; "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities". The fair value of the embedded derivative is recorded to derivative liability. This liability is required to be marked each reporting period. The resulting discount on the debt is amortized to interest expense over the life of the related debt.

The errors discovered by management relate directly to the accounting for and recording various conversion features and warrants as follows:

In light of the restatements to the financial statements disclosed above, caused, in part, by a failure in the Company's internal control over financing reporting due to the limitations in the Company's accounting resources to identify and react in a timely manner to non-routine, complex and/or transactions originated by other parties on the Company's behalf, as well as gaining an adequate understanding of the disclosure requirements relating to these types of transactions, we feel that the existing controls and procedures were and remain effective. Because of said controls, which resulted in the review, discovery and disclosure by amendment of filings to adequately disclose required information, management also concludes that by requiring supplemental reviews of financing transactions that its existing controls and procedures will be more effective.

Note E - Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amount of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and notes payable, as applicable, approximates fair value due to the short term nature of these items and/or the current interest rates payable in relation to current market conditions.

Interest rate risk is the risk that the Company's earnings are subject to fluctuations in interest rates on either investments or on debt and is fully dependent upon the volatility of these rates. The Company does not use derivative instruments to moderate its exposure to interest rate risk, if any.

Financial risk is the risk that the Company's earnings are subject to fluctuations in interest rates or foreign exchange rates and are fully dependent upon the volatility of these rates. The company does not use derivative instruments to moderate its exposure to financial risk, if any.

Note F - Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash accounts in a single financial institutions subject to insurance coverage issued by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Under FDIC rules, the Company and its subsidiaries are entitled to aggregate coverage of $100,000 per account type per separate legal entity per financial institution.

During the period ended September 30, 2006 and the periods subsequent thereto, respectively, the various operating companies maintained deposits in this financial institution with credit risk exposures in excess of statutory FDIC coverage. The Company incurred no losses through September 30, 2006, and subsequent thereto, as a result of any of these unsecured situations.

payable (see Notes I and J to the accompanying consolidated financial statements).

The Company accounts for debt with embedded conversion features and warrant issues in accordance with EITF 98-5: "Accounting for convertible securities with beneficial conversion features or contingency adjustable conversion" and EITF No. 00-27: "Application of issue No 98-5 to certain convertible instruments". Any discount derived from determining the fair value to the debenture conversion features and warrants is amortized to financing cost over the life of the debenture. The unamortized discount, if any, upon the conversion of the debentures is expensed to financing cost on a pro rata basis.

Debt issues with the variable conversion features are considered to be embedded derivatives and are accountable in accordance with FASB 133; "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities". The fair value of the embedded derivative is recorded to derivative liability. This liability is required to be marked each reporting period. The resulting discount on the debt is amortized to interest expense over the life of the related debt.

General

American Ammunition, Inc. is a holding company with two operating subsidiaries: F&F Equipment, Inc. and Industrial Plating Enterprise Co.

F&F Equipment, Inc. (F&F) was incorporated on October 4, 1983 under the laws of the State of Florida. F&F was formed to engage principally in the "import, export, retail & wholesale of firearms equipment, ammunition & other devices and for the purpose of transacting any and/or all lawful business." F&F conducts its business operations under the assumed name of "American Ammunition."

In June 2002, American Ammunition, Inc. formed a wholly owned subsidiary, Industrial Plating Enterprise Co. (IPE), which started production on June 14, 2002. IPE is a fully licensed and approved electrochemical metallization facility with significant capacity for processing our line of projectiles as well as other products and services while employing environmentally sound water conservation and proven waste treatment techniques.

Results of Operations

Nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared with the nine months ended September 30, 2005.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2006, we experienced aggregate net revenues of approximately $1,685,000 ($306,000 in the current quarter), as compared to approximately $2,233,000 during the first nine months of Calendar 2005 ($378,000 in the current quarter). The decline in sales was attributable to our curtailing of production during January 2006 to improve the operating efficiency of our manufacturing equipment and better automate select machines so we can rely upon lower labor requirements in future periods.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC/FL - Form 10QSB/A

In 2004, the Company initiated a direct solicitation program for its "dealer direct" sales program. This endeavor has received a very positive initial response from the qualified retail resellers of the Company's product. We are realizing that the existence of previously announced contracts with various U. S. Governmental agencies and orders from foreign governments are becoming more erratic in their order placements. Accordingly, management is realizing that a consistent demand from the U. S. retail segment will be our best source of consistent sales. Further, we have identified certain production issues which has inhibited the full realization of existing product demands and management believes that the necessary steps are being taken to remedy any production deficiencies.

We experienced costs of goods sold of approximately $2,738,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 as compared to approximately $4,021,000 for the first nine months of Calendar 2005. Through September 30, 2006, and subsequent thereto, we continue to experience negative trends with relation to our calculated standard production costs for material and labor due to excess labor capacity due to anticipated governmental orders which did not materialize as management was led to believe from the various U. S. Governmental agencies contracting officers. Management remains of the opinion that the production labor force is stable and able to maintain a constant standard of quality in future periods. We experience variable costs in the area of material consumption and direct labor. In the second quarter of 2006, management took drastic steps to reduce excess labor capacity through the elimination of the 2nd shift, which was never able to reach full utilization. This action is not expected to have any adverse impact on our ability to meet our existing and future product demands.

For the nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, we generated a positive (negative) gross profit of approximately $1,053,000, or (62.5%), and approximately $(1,787,000), or (80.0%).

We experienced nominal research and development expenses of approximately $0- and $2,600, respectively, during the respective nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005.

During the nine months of Calendar 2006 and 2005, we expended approximately $94,000 and $162,000, respectively, in advertising and marketing expenses, principally in developing and promoting our retail dealer direct program. We anticipate to continue our marketing efforts in this area in future periods; however, the volume and frequency of our expenditures may fluctuate as management allocates available capital to these efforts.

Other general and administrative expenses were approximately $1,188,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 as compared to approximately $1,108,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2005. Included in these expenses are non-cash charges of approximately $260,000 and $198,000 for consulting fees related to the sale/issuance of common stock at less than "fair value". Management is of the opinion that G&A expenses are relatively stable and should not experience significant increases except for inflationary pressures caused principally by increases in energy costs which are affecting all businesses in all sectors of the U. S. economy.

We recognized a net loss of approximately $(3,023,000) and $(3,167,000) for the respective nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively, or $(0.65) and $(0.84) per share. We call to the reader's attention that the loss per share calculation for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 has been adjusted for the effect of our 1 for 20 reverse stock split on January 9, 2006.

Liquidity And Capital Resources

As of September 30, 2006, December 31, 2005 and September 30, 2005, respectively, we had working capital of approximately $(1,478,000), $(885,000) and $(265,000). Our working capital position continues to fluctuate based on collections on our trade accounts receivable and investments from the mandatory exercise of our outstanding warrant related to our convertible debenture. We anticipate that we have sufficient inventory levels to support our order demand and have access to raw material suppliers that will enable us to receive raw materials for future periods. We also note that we have approximately $1,075,000 in short-term notes payable to existing stockholders which may or may not be renegotiated, repaid in common stock of the Company or otherwise reclassified prior to their maturity on December 31, 2006. This amount is a contributing factor to our negative working capital position at September 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005.

We have used cash in operating activities of approximately $(1,247,000) and $(1,663,000) during the nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Due to our history of operating losses, our resources for additional working capital are becoming more scarce.

During the third quarter of 2006, we negotiated a settlement with La Jolla Cove Investors, Inc. and the assignment of the existing debentures and outstanding warrants to La Terraza Trading and Asset Management, Ltd. As a result of this transaction, the Company received a net $700,000 in restricted cash to be held for future exercise of outstanding warrants.

On March 1, 2006, the Company issued a Private Placement Memorandum offering up to 200,000 shares of Series E 8% Convertible Preferred Stock at an offering price of $5.00 per share on a "best efforts" basis through an unrelated placement agent. As of September 30, 2006, the Company has sold an aggregate of 100,000 shares for gross proceeds of $500,000 in two separate transactions pursuant to this Private Placement Memorandum. Management continues to undertake all prudent measures to assure that the Company can be self-supporting.

On September 13, 2006, the Company exercised its repurchase rights related to 50,000 shares of Series E 8% Convertible Preferred Stock for $275,000, including a prepayment penalty of $25,000.

We anticipate that our liquidity position will continue to improve as management is of the opinion that, with the current changes to our production capacity, the Company will be in a position to better support all existing orders and accept existing and future inquiries.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively, we added approximately $31,000 and $111,000 in new equipment. Any equipment to be added in future periods is fully dependent upon the Company's cash position, the availability of either new equity or debt capital and the ultimate realization of communicated future product sales demand. However, we may not be able to obtain additional funding or, that such funding, if available, will be obtained on terms favorable to or affordable by us.

Convertible Debenture

The Company entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with La Jolla Cove Investors, Inc. ("La Jolla") on October 4, 2002 for the sale of (i) $250,000 in convertible debentures and (ii) warrants to buy 30,000,000 shares of our common stock. On March 13, 2003 and May 6, 2003, La Jolla advanced an aggregate of $350,000 to our company which such funding was allocated towards the principal balance of our convertible debentures. This Agreement was transferred by La Jolla to La Terraza Trading and Asset Management, Ltd. on September 13, 2006. The Company paid an aggregate of $585,000 to retire the outstanding principal balance on the debentures, repayment of prepaid warrant exercises and all penalties, prepayment fees and other items contractually agreed to between the Company and La Jolla.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1 - Legal Proceedings

The Company may become involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, the ultimate disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse impact either individually or in the aggregate on consolidated results of operations, financial position or cash flows of the Company.

ITEM 2 - Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

The Company relied upon Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, for an exemption from registration of these shares and no underwriter was used in this transaction.
