On November 1, 2003, the board of directors of BGR Corporation approved a purchase agreement with Deville, Inc., an Arizona corporation. The board of directors of Deville, Inc. approved the purchase agreement on the same day. The purchase agreement was also consummated on November 1, 2003. The property acquired was the system for the operation of Lucky Lou's(R) restaurants, offering to the public steaks, hamburgers, sandwiches, pasta, beverages, including alcohol, fries and other limited-menu casual food restaurant items. The system includes, among other things, specific trademarks or service marks, including without limitation, the Lucky Lou's(R) trademark, logo and related commercial symbols and slogans, and recipes, including future recipes, developed by Deville Inc. Each location is expected to have sales of nearly a million in its first year of operation and profit nearly $250,000 annually by its third year with its first restaurant opening in January of 2004 and plans are to open four more within the next fourteen months. Pursuant to the terms of the purchase agreement, one million (1,000,000) common share of BGR Corporation and a note for four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) was exchanged for the aforementioned assets. Said shares shall be restricted. The principal followed in determining the amount of consideration given was based upon the current value and future revenue streams and the market exposure in relation to BGR Corporation's current position and the restrictive nature of the stock.
