Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On April 27, 2004, Century Aluminum Company ("Century" or the "Company") completed the acquisition of Nordural hf ("Nordural") from Columbia Ventures Corporation ("CVC"), a privately-owned investment company headquartered in Vancouver, Washington. Nordural is an Icelandic company that owns a 90,000-metric-ton-per-year (mtpy) primary aluminum plant located in Grundartangi, Iceland (the "Nordural Facility"). Built in 1998, the Nordural facility has been and, following the acquisition, will continue to be used for the production of primary aluminum. An expansion is planned that will double the production capacity of the Nordural Facility to 180,000 mtpy by 2006.

The acquisition was effected pursuant the terms of an Amended and Restated Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 28, 2004, by and among Century, CVC and Nordural (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"). Under the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Century acquired all of the outstanding equity shares of Nordural for a cash purchase price of $175 million (including a $25 million payment that was contingent on the satisfaction of conditions related to the planned expansion), plus cash at December 31, 2003 and related adjustments totaling $13.2 million, subject to further purchase price adjustments. In addition, Nordural has long-term project debt of approximately $190 million.

The purchase price and other terms of the Nordural acquisition were determined based on negotiations between the Company and CVC. Century financed the cash purchase price and related payments with proceeds from an underwritten public offering of 9,000,000 shares of its common stock, which closed on April 14, 2004.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, which is listed as Exhibit 2.1 to
