Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Registrant's Articles of Incorporation provide that none of its directors or officers shall be personally liable to the Registrant or its shareholders for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty by such person as a director or officer, except that a director or officer shall be liable, to the extent provided by applicable law, (1) for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct, fraud, or a knowing violation of law, or (2) for the payment of dividends in violation of restrictions imposed by Section 78.300 of the Nevada General Corporation Law ("GCL"). The effect of these provisions is to eliminate the rights of the Registrant's shareholders, either directly or through stockholders' derivative suits brought on behalf of the Registrant, to recover monetary damages from a director or officer for breach of the fiduciary duty of care as a director or officer except in those instances provided under the Nevada GCL.

In addition, the Registrant has adopted provisions in its bylaws that require it to indemnify its directors, officers, and certain other representatives against expenses, liabilities, and other matters arising out of their conduct on the Registrant's behalf, or otherwise referred to in or covered by applicable provisions of the Nevada GCL, to the fullest extent permitted by the Nevada GCL.

Section 78.751 of the Nevada GCL provides that a corporation may indemnify its directors and officers against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the director or officer in connection with an action, suit or proceeding in which the director or officer has been made or is threatened to be made a party, if the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner which the director or officer reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reason to believe the director's or officer's conduct was unlawful. Any such indemnification may be made by the corporation only as ordered by a court or as authorized in a specific case upon a determination made in accordance with the Nevada GCL that such indemnification is proper in the circumstances.

Indemnification may not be made under the Nevada GCL for any claim, issue, or matter as to which the director or officer has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the corporation or for amounts paid in settlement to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines that in view of all the circumstances of the case, that the director or officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

To the extent that a director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the director or officer must be indemnified under the Nevada GCL by the corporation against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by the director or officer in connection with the defense.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the 1933 Act may be permitted to the Registrant's directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. If a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit, or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

A. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the 1933 Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the 1933 Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

B. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the 1934 Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the 1934 Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the 1933 Act may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
