Meetings and Committees of the Board

Meetings

The Board met seven times during fiscal year 2005. All members of the Board attended each meeting, including the Board's annual meeting. No director attended less than 75% of the total number of meetings held by the committees of the Board on which the director served.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is comprised of the two independent directors of the Board. The audit committee exercises oversight with respect to the Company's accounting practices and procedures, and appoints and reviews the work of the independent auditors. The Audit Committee met four times during fiscal 2005.

The Board has prepared but not yet adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee. The Board anticipates adopting the charter in early fiscal 2006.

In the business judgment of the Board, the members of the Audit Committee are independent as defined by Rule 4200(a)(14) of the listing standards of the National Association of Securities Dealers.

The Board has determined that Mr. Feinsilver, a member of the Audit Committee, qualifies as a financial expert, as that term is defined by applicable rules.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is comprised of the two outside directors of the Board, and makes recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation of the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee met three times during fiscal 2005.

Nominating Committee

The Board has not established a nominating committee, as that function is handled by the entire Board. The size of the Board makes such a committee unnecessary. There has been no material change to the procedures by which shareholders may recommend nominees to the Board.

Shareholder Communications with Board

Shareholders may send written communication directly to any director at the address provided below. The Board is in the process of establishing an email address as an additional means for shareholders to send communications to the independent directors of the Board. This address will be provided on the Company's web site, www.acrgroup.com.

Code of Ethics

Edgar Filing: ACR GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

The Company has prepared, but not yet adopted, a written code of ethics applicable to the Company's officers and controllers. The code to be adopted restates the Company's practices of requiring honest, ethical conduct, including handling of apparent and actual conflicts of interest, full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable disclosure in reports and documents filed or submitted, compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, prompt reporting of violations of the code and accountability for adherence to the code. The Company anticipates adopting its written code in the next fiscal year.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Audit Committee's role is to exercise oversight with respect to the Company's accounting practices and procedures, and to appoint and determine appropriate compensation for the independent auditors, and discuss with them any questions regarding the financial statements or issues deemed relevant by the Audit Committee or independent auditors. The Audit Committee does not provide any expert or special assurance as to the Company's financial statements or any certification as to the work of the independent auditors.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements for fiscal 2005. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61 (codification of Statements on Auditing Standards), as may be modified or supplemented. The Audit Committee has received the required written disclosure and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and has discussed with the independent auditors their independence. Based on this review and discussion, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2005. The recommendation considers the Audit Committee's review of the independent auditors' qualifications, and other matters required to be considered under applicable rules, including the nature and extent of non-audit services performed by the independent auditors. In the business judgment of the Audit Committee, the nature and extent of non-audit services performed by the independent auditors during the year did not impair their independence.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The goal of the Compensation Committee is to ensure that the Company's compensation policies are suitable to attract and retain highly qualified executive officers and directors. Particular emphasis is placed on creating an appropriate blend of base and incentive compensation. Incentive compensation may also include both cash and equity components to align executives' interests with those of the shareholders. All components of compensation are directly related to Company performance.

The Compensation Committee reviews annually the compensation of the Company's CEO and other executive officers. In evaluating the level of base compensation, the Compensation Committee considers the relative compensation of executives in positions with similar responsibilities at companies with comparable sales, breadth and complexity, and reviews the Company's performance during the prior fiscal year.

For fiscal 2005 the Compensation Committee utilized the services of an independent compensation consultant to assist it in determining appropriate base salaries, an annual incentive bonus plan, and a long-term incentive plan for the Company's executive officers. The base salaries and annual incentive bonuses earned by the Company's executive officers under the annual incentive plan for fiscal 2005 is set forth in the Summary Compensation Table set forth above. The annual incentive bonus formula considered three quantitative operating performance objectives, all of which were met.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

On February 2, 2005, upon recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board dismissed Ernst & Young LLP ( E&Y ) as the Company's independent public accountants. E&Y's reports on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended February 28, 2003 and February 29, 2004, did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During such periods, and the period prior to the firm's dismissal, there were no disagreements between the Company and E&Y on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to E&Y's satisfaction, would have caused it to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with their reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for such years; and there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304 (a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K, except that in connection with the Company's restatement of certain of its financial statements as a result of its incorrect accounting treatment for certain interest rate derivative instruments, E&Y advised the Company of a material weakness as a result of the Company not having the technical expertise to apply the specific accounting requirements of Statements of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as part of the financial reporting process.

On February 4, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company and its Audit Committee engaged BDO Seidman, LLP ( BDO ) to serve as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending February 28, 2005. Prior to engaging BDO as its independent accountant, the Company did not consult with or obtain oral or written advice from BDO regarding any of the matters described in Item 304(a)(2)(i) or Item 304(a)(2)(ii) of Regulation S-K.

The Company anticipates re-appointing BDO as independent public accountants of the Company for fiscal 2006. A representative of BDO will be present at the annual meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if he desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions addressed to him.

All Other Fees

Edgar Filing: ACR GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

No other fees were billed by the Company's independent accountants for the year ended February 28, 2005.
