On March 24, 2005, Healthcare Business Resources, Inc. ( HBR ) filed a complaint against QuadraMed Corporation (the Company ) in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (Case No. 2:05-cv-01404), alleging a breach of an agreement between the Company and HBR (the Contract ) and seeking: (i) a declaratory judgment to the effect that HBR is entitled to immediate possession and permanent use of the most current version of the source code for all software covered by the Contract; (ii) preliminary and permanent injunctive relief; and (iii) damages in excess of $1 million, plus litigation costs.

On February 7, 2006, we entered into a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement (the Settlement Agreement ) with HBR, pursuant to which the Company will provide HBR with licensing and certain technical consultation and support. The Settlement Agreement, which may be terminated by either party in certain limited circumstances, contains mutual releases by the parties and does not require the payment by the Company of any damages nor does it result in any material financial or other obligations on the part of the Company.
