PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON JUNE 7, 2006

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement and enclosed Proxy Card are being furnished commencing on or about April 21, 2006 in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Barnes & Noble, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), of proxies for use at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on June 7, 2006 (the "Meeting") for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Any proxy given pursuant to such solicitation and received in time for the Meeting will be voted as specified in such proxy. If no instructions are given, proxies will be voted FOR the election of the nominees listed below under the caption "Election of Directors" Information Concerning the Directors and Nominees "Nominees for Election as Director," FOR the ratification of the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as independent certified public accountants for the Company's fiscal year ending February 3, 2007 (collectively, the "Proposals"), and in the discretion of the proxies named on the Proxy Card with respect to any other matters properly brought before the Meeting and any adjournments thereof. Any proxy may be revoked by written notice received by the Secretary of the Company at any time prior to the voting thereof by submitting a subsequent proxy or by attending the Meeting and voting in person.

Only holders of record of the Company's voting securities as of the close of business on April 12, 2006 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. As of the record date, 66,503,467 shares of Common Stock, par value $.001 per share ("Common Stock"), were outstanding. Each share of Common Stock entitles the record holder thereof to one vote on each of the Proposals and on all other matters properly brought before the Meeting. The presence of a majority of the combined outstanding shares of the Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting will constitute a quorum.

Vote Required

The three nominees for Director receiving the highest vote totals will be elected as Directors of the Company to serve until the 2009 annual meeting of stockholders. The proposal to ratify the appointment of the Company's independent certified public accountants will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on these matters in person or by proxy at the Meeting.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

With respect to the proposal to elect the three nominees for Director and the proposal to ratify the appointment of the Company's independent certified public accountants, abstentions and "broker non-votes" will not be included in vote totals and will have no effect on the outcome of these proposals. A "broker non-vote" occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power on that matter and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Abstentions and "broker non-votes" are included in determining whether a quorum is present.

It should be noted that all of the Directors and executive officers of the Company, together with principal stockholders of the Company with which they are affiliated, own or control the voting power of approximately 22.5% of the Common Stock outstanding as of March 31, 2006, and have advised the Company that they intend to vote FOR all of the Proposals.

A Proxy Card is enclosed for your use. YOU ARE SOLICITED ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO COMPLETE, SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE PROXY CARD IN THE ACCOMPANYING ENVELOPE, which is postage paid if mailed in the United States.

NO PERSON IS AUTHORIZED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION OR TO MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT, AND, IF GIVEN OR MADE, SUCH INFORMATION MUST NOT BE RELIED UPON AS HAVING BEEN AUTHORIZED. THE DELIVERY OF THIS PROXY STATEMENT SHALL, UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES, CREATE ANY IMPLICATION THAT THERE HAS BEEN NO CHANGE IN THE AFFAIRS OF THE COMPANY SINCE THE DATE OF THIS PROXY STATEMENT.

Miller, Margaret T. Monaco, William F. Reilly and William Sheluck, Jr. are independent under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange, and have made such determination based on the fact that none of such persons have had, or currently have, any relationship with the Company or its affiliates or any executive officer of the Company or his or her affiliates, that would currently impair their independence, including, without limitation, any commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable or familial relationship.

See our Web site at www.barnesandnobleinc.com for a description of the Company's strategic planning process and the Board of Directors involvement in that process.

The Board of Directors has three standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee has the principal function of, among other things, reviewing the adequacy of the Company's internal system of accounting controls, the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the independent certified public accountants, conferring with the independent certified public accountants concerning the scope of their examination of the books and records of the Company, reviewing and approving related party transactions and considering other appropriate matters regarding the financial affairs of the Company. In addition, the Audit Committee has established procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of confidential and anonymous complaints regarding the Company's accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter setting out the functions of the Audit Committee, a copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at www.barnesandnobleinc.com and is available in print to any stockholder who requests it, in writing to the Company's Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Sheluck (Chairman), Berdon and Del Giudice. In addition to meeting the independence standards of the New York Stock Exchange, each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate and meets the independence standards established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The Board of Directors has also determined that each member of the Audit Committee has the requisite attributes of an audit committee financial expert as defined by regulations promulgated by the SEC and that such attributes were acquired through relevant education and/or experience. The Audit Committee met 13 times during fiscal 2005.

Compensation Committee. The principal function of the Compensation Committee is to, among other things, review and approve the compensation and employment arrangements for the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee is also responsible for administering the Company's 2004 Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan"), 1996 Incentive Plan and 1991 Employee Incentive Plan, each as amended, as well as the 2004 Executive Performance Plan (the "Performance Plan"). The current members of the Compensation Committee are Mr. Berdon (Chairman), Ms. Monaco and Mr. Sheluck, all of whom meet the independence standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter setting out the functions of the Compensation Committee, which is available on the Company's Web site at www.barnesandnobleinc.com and is available in print to any stockholder who requests it, in writing to the Company's Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011. The Compensation Committee met three times during fiscal 2005.

Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee. The function of the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee is to, among other things, seek qualified individuals to serve as Directors of the Company. The current members of the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee are Messrs. Dillard and Sheluck, both of whom meet the independence standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter setting out the functions of the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee, which is available on the Company's Web site at www.barnesandnobleinc.com and is available in print to any stockholder who requests it, in writing to the Company's Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011. The Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee met twice during fiscal 2005.

Minimum Qualifications

The Company does not set specific criteria for Directors except to the extent required to meet applicable legal, regulatory and stock exchange requirements, including, but not limited to, the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and the SEC, as applicable. Nominees for Director will be selected on the basis of outstanding achievement in their personal careers; board experience; wisdom; integrity; ability to make independent, analytical inquiries; understanding of the business environment; and willingness to devote adequate time to Board duties. While the selection of qualified Directors is a complex and subjective process that requires consideration of many intangible factors, the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee believes that each Director should have a basic understanding of (i) the principal operational and financial objectives and plans and strategies of the Company, (ii) the results of operations and financial condition of the Company and of any significant subsidiaries or business segments, and (iii) the relative standing of the Company and its business segments in relation to its competitors.

Nominating Process

Although the process for identifying and evaluating candidates to fill vacancies and/or expand the Board will inevitably require a practical approach in light of the particular circumstances at such time, the Board of Directors has adopted the following process to guide the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee in this respect. The Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee is willing to consider candidates submitted by a variety of sources (including incumbent Directors, stockholders (as described below), Company management and third party search firms) when reviewing candidates to fill vacancies and/or expand the Board. If a vacancy arises or the Board decides to expand its membership, the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee asks each Director to submit a list of potential candidates for consideration. The Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee then evaluates each potential candidate's educational background, employment history, outside commitments and other relevant factors to determine whether he/she is potentially qualified to serve on the Board. At that time, the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee also will consider potential nominees submitted by stockholders in accordance with the procedures described below, or by the Company's management, and if the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee deems it necessary, retain an independent third party search firm to provide potential candidates. The Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee seeks to identify and recruit the best available candidates, and it intends to evaluate qualified stockholder nominees on the same basis as those submitted by Board members, Company management, third party search firms or other sources.

After completing this process, the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee will determine whether one or more candidates are sufficiently qualified to warrant further investigation. If the process yields one or more desirable candidates, the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee will rank them by order of preference, depending on their respective qualifications and the Company's needs. The Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee Chair will then contact the preferred candidate(s) to evaluate their potential interest and to set up interviews with the full Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee. All such interviews are held in person, and include only the candidate and the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee members. Based upon interview results and appropriate background checks, the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee then decides whether it will recommend the candidate's nomination to the full Board.

When nominating a sitting Director for re-election at an annual meeting, the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee will consider the Director's performance on the Board and the Director's qualifications in respect of the criteria referred to above.

Consideration of Stockholder Nominated Directors

The Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee also will consider potential nominees submitted by stockholders if a vacancy arises or if the Board decides to expand its membership, and at such other times as the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee deems necessary or appropriate. Any stockholder wishing to submit a candidate for consideration should send the following information to the Company's Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011: (i) stockholder's name, number of shares owned, length of period held, and proof of ownership; (ii) name, age and address of candidate; (iii) a detailed resume describing, among other things, the candidate's educational background, occupation, employment history for at least the previous five years, and material outside commitments (e.g., memberships on other boards and committees, charitable foundations, etc.); (iv) a supporting statement which describes the candidate's reasons for seeking election to the Board; (v) a description of any arrangements or understandings between the candidate and the Company; and (vi) a signed statement from the candidate, confirming his/her willingness to serve on the Board. In accordance with the Company's Bylaws, in order for the Company to consider a candidate submitted by a stockholder, the Company must receive the foregoing information not less than 30 days, nor more than 60 days, prior to a meeting of the Company's stockholders for the election of Directors; provided, that if less than 40 days' notice of such meeting is given to stockholders, the Company must receive the foregoing information no later than the 10th day following the day on which notice of the date of such meeting was mailed or publicly disclosed. The Company's Secretary will promptly forward such materials to the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee. The Company's Secretary also will maintain copies of such materials for future reference by the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee when filling Board positions.

At least once annually, the independent, non-management Directors will meet. The Board of Directors has selected the Chair of the Audit Committee as the presiding Director at the executive sessions of the non-management Directors.

Communications Between Stockholders and the Board

Stockholders and other interested persons seeking to communicate with the Board should submit any communications in writing to the Company's Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011. Any such communication must state the number of shares beneficially owned by the stockholder making the communication. The Company's Secretary will forward such communication to the full Board or to any individual Director or Directors (including the presiding Director of the executive sessions of the non-management Directors or the non-management Directors as a group) to whom the communication is directed.

- (1) Calculated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: volatility of 30.0%, risk-free interest rate of 4.17% and an expected life of six years. The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Because the Company's stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, in management's opinion, the Black-Scholes model does not necessarily provide a reliable measure of the fair value of the Company's stock options.

Employees Retirement Plan

As of December 31, 1999, substantially all employees of the Company were covered under the Company's Employees Retirement Plan (the Retirement Plan). The Retirement Plan is a defined benefit pension plan. As of January 1, 2000, the Retirement Plan was amended so that employees no longer earn benefits for subsequent service. Subsequent service continues to be the basis for vesting of benefits not yet vested at December 31, 1999 and the Retirement Plan will continue to hold assets and pay benefits. The amendment was treated as a curtailment in fiscal 1999.

A participant's annual benefit is determined for an employee, including an officer, generally as (i) 0.7% of the participant's average annual pay as determined in accordance with the Retirement Plan up to Social Security-covered compensation, multiplied by the participant's years of credited service, plus (ii) 1.3% of the participant's average annual pay as determined in accordance with the Retirement Plan in excess of Social Security-covered compensation, multiplied by the participant's years of credited service. A participant's maximum benefit is limited pursuant to Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), to $130,000 for 1999, indexed annually. Compensation recognized is limited to $160,000 based upon the Retirement Plan.

Credited years of service under the Retirement Plan as of January 28, 2006 for the individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table above are: Stephen Riggio 12 years; Mitchell S. Klipper 11 years; Marie J. Toulantis 4 years, and J. Alan Kahn 2 years. Leonard Riggio and Joseph J. Lombardi are not participants.

The following table illustrates the maximum annual amounts payable at age 65 under the Retirement Plan, based on various levels of highest average annual salary and years of credited service:

Assumed Highest Average Salary	Years of Credited Service
	15	20	25	30	35
$125,000	21,135	28,180	35,225	42,270	49,315
$150,000	26,010	34,680	43,350	52,020	60,690
$160,000 and above (1)	27,960	37,280	46,600	55,920	65,240

Edgar Filing: BARNES & NOBLE INC - Form DEF 14A

- (1) The benefits shown corresponding to this compensation reflect the compensation limit under Section 401(a)(17) of the Code. A participant's compensation in excess of $150,000 (as adjusted to reflect cost-of-living increases) is disregarded for purposes of determining highest average earnings in plan years beginning in 1994 through 1996. A participant's compensation in excess of $160,000 (as adjusted to reflect cost-of-living increases) is disregarded for purposes of determining highest average earnings in plan years beginning in 1997 through 1999. Benefits accrued as of the last day of the plan year beginning in 1993 on the basis of compensation in excess of $150,000 are preserved.

Deferred Compensation Plan

The Barnes & Noble, Inc. Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Deferred Comp Plan") permits Company employees making an annual salary in excess of $130,000 (increasing to $160,000 on May 1, 2006) to elect to defer receipt of up to 50% of their annual salary and up to 100% of their annual bonus. Participants may elect to have deferred amounts paid after one of the following events: (i) retirement; (ii) termination of employment; or (iii) the beginning of a designated year not later than the year in which the participant would attain the age of 70-1/2.

Amounts paid to a participant under the Deferred Comp Plan are paid in a lump sum, except in the case of retirement, where a participant may elect to have payments made in equal annual installments for a period of up to 15 years. Amounts in the Deferred Comp Plan may be withdrawn by a participant at any time subject to a 10% penalty, which may be waived by the Compensation Committee in the case of financial hardship.

Ms. Toulantis is also entitled to a cash retention bonus of $1,000,000 on each of the first and second anniversaries of the merger of barnesandnoble.com inc. with a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, subject to her continued employment on such anniversary dates, the first payment of which was paid in May 2005. Ms. Toulantis is also entitled to the retention bonus if, prior to the first or second anniversary date, her employment is terminated for any reason other than for Cause (as defined in the agreement) or she voluntarily terminates her employment for Good Cause (as defined in the agreement). The agreement provides for lump sum severance in the event Ms. Toulantis' employment is terminated involuntarily (other than for Cause or her death or disability), equal to the product of: (a) the greater of (x) two or (y) the number of years remaining under the term of the agreement (including fractions) and (b) the sum of her annual salary, bonus and

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's executive officer compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee), consisting of the three non-employee directors listed below. The Committee is responsible to the Company's Board of Directors and to stockholders for approving compensation awarded to the named executive officers also listed below. The program is based upon the following guiding principles:

1. The pay and benefits provided by the Company to its executive officers should be competitive and allow the Company to attract and retain individuals whose skills are critical to the long-term success of the Company.
2. The compensation offered by the Company should reward and motivate individual and team performance in attaining business objectives and maximizing stockholder value.
3. The Committee designs compensation awards based upon the fundamental principle of aligning the long-term interests of the Company's employees with those of the Company's stockholders.

The Committee reviews the Company's executive compensation program each year. This review includes a comparison of the Company's executive compensation, corporate performance, stock appreciation and total return to the stockholders with that of other companies, including other retailers. In 2004, the Board of Directors and stockholders approved the Performance Plan. In 2004, the Committee also selected and engaged Frederic W. Cook & Co., Inc. (the Independent Consultants) to provide independent insights on executive compensation matters, both generally and within the retail industry.

The key elements of the Company's executive compensation package consist of base salary, annual bonus, stock options and restricted stock. The Company's policies with respect to each of these elements are discussed below. In addition, while the elements of compensation described below are considered separately, the Committee also considers and reviews the full compensation package afforded by the Company to its executive officers, including pension, insurance and other benefits. The Committee makes its determinations after receiving and considering the recommendations of the Company's chief executive officer and, from time to time, the Committee seeks the advice of outside consultants.

Base Salaries. An executive officer's base salary is determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held, the individual's experience and the competitive marketplace for executive talent. The base salary is intended to be competitive with base salaries paid to executive officers with comparable qualifications, experience and responsibilities at other companies.

Annual Bonuses. The Committee is responsible for the administration of the Performance Plan. In addition to a base salary, each executive officer is eligible for an annual bonus. Bonuses for senior executive officers of the Company are based upon annual net earnings of the Company and are determined pursuant to the Performance Plan. The purpose of the Performance Plan is to permit the Company, through awards of annual incentive compensation that satisfy the requirements for performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code, to attract and retain management who, because of the extent of their responsibilities, can and do make significant contributions to the success of the Company by their ability, industry, loyalty and exceptional service.

The Performance Plan provides that not later than 90 days after the commencement of each fiscal year of the Company, the Compensation Committee shall designate, in writing, one or more performance periods for such fiscal year, provided that any performance period of less than one year shall be designated no later than the date on which 25% of such performance period has lapsed, and shall also do the following:

determine the participants for the performance period, which will be, except as otherwise determined by the Committee, each named executive officer in the Company's annual proxy statement following the conclusion of the applicable performance period;

affirm the Incentive Pool (as defined in the Performance Plan) for the applicable performance period, which will equal 5% of the Company's operating income, without regard to certain extraordinary items and changes in accounting standards required by generally accepted accounting principles; and assign to each participant under the Performance Plan such participant's percentage of the Incentive Pool, which may not exceed 40% of the Incentive Pool for any performance period.

The aggregate amount of all awards under the Performance Plan for any performance period will not exceed 100% of the Incentive Pool for such performance period. Awards will be paid in cash or, in the Committee's sole discretion, in stock obtained from any equity compensation plan of the Company (including the 2004 Incentive Plan), or any combination thereof.

In accordance with the Performance Plan, the Committee (i) determined that the participants for the performance period would be the named executive officers in the Company's annual proxy statement following the conclusion of the performance period, (ii) affirmed the performance goal as the Incentive Pool, and (iii) allocated to each participant 20% of the Incentive Pool.

Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards. The general purpose of long-term awards, currently in the form of stock options or restricted stock awards, is to align the interests of the executive officers with the interests of the Company's stockholders. Additionally, long-term awards offer executive officers an incentive for the achievement of superior performance over time and foster the retention of key management personnel. In determining annual stock option grants and restricted stock awards, the Committee has based its decision on the individual's performance and potential to improve stockholder value. The issuance of options at 100% of the fair market value also assures that executives will receive a benefit only when the stock price increases. Under the Performance Plan, the Committee may determine to make all or any portion of the annual incentive award in the form of stock options or restricted stock awards granted under the Incentive Plan.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Stephen Riggio's annual compensation is determined pursuant to the principles outlined above in the same manner as they were applied to the other named executive officers of the Company. Mr. Riggio's annual salary for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2006 was $750,000 with a bonus of $656,250 compared to an annual salary for the fiscal year ended January 29, 2005 of $750,000 with a bonus of $562,500. Mr. Riggio's bonus for the years ended January 28, 2006 and January 29, 2005 was determined in accordance with the Performance Plan. Specific consideration is given to Mr. Riggio's responsibilities and experience in the industry and the compensation package awarded to chief executive officers of other comparable companies.

Impact of Section 162(m) of the Code. The Committee has considered the potential impact of Section 162(m) of the Code, adopted under the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993. This section disallows a tax deduction for any publicly held corporation, for individual compensation exceeding $1,000,000 in any taxable year paid to its chief executive officer or any of its four other highest paid officers unless (i) the compensation is payable solely on account of the attainment of performance goals, (ii) the performance goals are determined by a committee of two or more outside directors, (iii) the material terms under which compensation is to be paid are disclosed to and approved by stockholders and (iv) the committee certifies that the performance goals were met. The Company's Performance Plan was approved by the Company's stockholders so that compensation attributable to stock options and certain other awards granted under that Performance Plan may be excluded from the $1.0 million cap. As a result, compensation paid in fiscal 2005, subject to the Section 162(m) cap, is not expected to exceed $1.0 million for any named executive officer. The Committee believes that the Company will not be subject to any Section 162(m) limitations on deductibility of compensation paid to the Company's named executive officers for fiscal 2005.

The Committee continues to consider other steps which might be in the Company's best interest to comply with Section 162(m), while reserving the right to award future compensation which would not comply with the Section 162(m) requirements for non-deductibility if the Compensation Committee concluded that this was in the Company's best interests.

The following table compares the cumulative total stockholder return on the Common Stock for the period commencing February 2, 2001 through January 27, 2006 (the last trading date of fiscal 2005) with the cumulative total return on the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index (the S&P 500) and the Dow Jones Retailers, Other Specialty Industry Group Index (the Dow Jones Specialty Retailers Index) over the same period. Total return values were calculated based on cumulative total return assuming (i) the investment of $100 in the Common Stock, the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Specialty Retailers Index on February 2, 2001 and (ii) reinvestment of dividends.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company believes that the transactions and agreements discussed below (including renewals of any existing agreements) between the Company and its affiliates are at least as favorable to the Company as could be obtained from unaffiliated parties. The Board of Directors and the Audit Committee are designated to approve in advance any new proposed transaction or agreement with affiliates and will utilize procedures in evaluating the terms and provisions of such proposed transaction or agreement as are appropriate in light of the fiduciary duties of directors under Delaware law.

The amount paid by B&N College to the Company approximates the cost per square foot paid by the Company to its unaffiliated third-party landlord.

Total purchases were $16,842,000, $18,148,000 and $13,829,000 for fiscal years 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. Barnes & Noble.com is paid a commission based on the price paid by MBS to the consumer. Total commissions were $46,000, $62,000 and $75,000 for fiscal years 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Barnes & Noble.com licenses the Barnes & Noble name under a royalty-free license agreement, dated October 31, 1998, as amended, between Barnes & Noble.com and B&N College (the License Agreement). Pursuant to the License Agreement, Barnes & Noble.com has been granted an exclusive license to use the Barnes & Noble name and trademark in perpetuity for the purpose of selling books over the Internet (excluding sales of college textbooks). Under a separate agreement dated as of January 2001, between Barnes & Noble.com and Textbooks.com, Inc. (Textbooks.com), a corporation owned by Leonard Riggio, Barnes & Noble.com was granted the right to sell college textbooks over the Internet using the Barnes & Noble name. Pursuant to this agreement, Barnes & Noble.com pays Textbooks.com a royalty on revenues (net of product returns, applicable sales tax and excluding shipping and handling) realized by Barnes & Noble.com from the sale of books designated as textbooks. The term of the agreement is for five years and renews annually for additional one-year periods unless terminated 12 months prior to the end of any given term. Royalty expense was $4,870,000, $4,551,000 and $3,984,000 for fiscal years 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively, under the terms of this agreement.

The Company paid B&N College certain operating costs B&N College incurred on the Company's behalf. These charges are included in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations and approximated $198,000, $219,000 and $237,000 for fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. B&N College purchased inventory, at cost plus an incremental fee, of $49,997,000, $46,468,000 and $43,403,000 from the Company during fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. The Company charged B&N College $2,527,000, $2,439,000 and $2,198,000 for fiscal years 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively, for capital expenditures, business insurance and other operating costs incurred on its behalf.

The Company uses a jet aircraft owned by B&N College and pays for the costs and expenses of operating the aircraft based upon the Company's usage. Such costs which include fuel, insurance and other costs approximated $2,590,000, $2,361,000 and $2,373,000 during fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

GameStop, a company in which Leonard Riggio is a member of the Board of Directors and a minority shareholder, operates departments within some of the Company's bookstores. GameStop pays a license fee to the Company in an amount equal to 7% of the gross sales of such departments. The Company charged GameStop a license fee of $857,000, $859,000 and $974,000 during fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003.

Until June 2005, GameStop participated in the Company's worker's compensation, property and general liability insurance programs. The costs incurred by the Company under these programs were allocated to GameStop based upon GameStop's total payroll expense, property and equipment, and insurance claim history. The Company charged GameStop for these services $1,726,000, $2,548,000 and $2,363,000 during fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. Although GameStop secured its own insurance coverage, costs will likely continue to be incurred by the Company on insurance claims which were incurred under its programs prior to June 2005 and any such costs applicable to insurance claims against GameStop will be allocated to GameStop.

In fiscal 2003, GameStop purchased an airplane from B&N College. The purchase price was $9,500,000 and was negotiated through an independent third party following an independent appraisal.

The Company is provided with national freight distribution, including trucking services by the Argix Direct Inc. (Argix) (formerly the LTA Group, Inc.), a company in which a brother of Leonard and Stephen Riggio owns a 20% interest. The Company believes the cost of freight delivered to the stores is comparable to the prices charged by publishers and other third-party freight distributors. Argix subleased warehouse space from the Company in Jamesburg, New Jersey. The Company charged Argix $1,993,000, $1,828,000 and $1,822,000 for such subleased space and other operating costs incurred on its behalf during fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Since 1993, the Company has used AEC One Stop Group, Inc. (AEC) as its primary music and DVD/video supplier and to provide a music and video database. AEC is one of the largest wholesale distributors of music and DVD/videos in the United States. In 1999, AEC's parent corporation was acquired by an investor group in which Leonard Riggio was a minority investor. The Company paid AEC $326,913,000, $309,702,000 and $298,727,000 for merchandise purchased during fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. In addition, during fiscal 2005, AEC spun-off their Digital on Demand subsidiary, which provided the database equipment and services to the Company. Leonard Riggio has a minority interest in Digital on Demand. The Company paid AEC/Digital on Demand $4,974,000, $6,206,000 and $4,211,000 for database equipment and services during fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. The Company believes the cost charged by AEC/Digital on Demand are comparable to other suppliers. Amounts payable to AEC for merchandise purchased were $35,416,000 and $30,837,000 as of January 28, 2006 and January 29, 2005, respectively.

Michael N. Rosen, the Secretary and a Director of the Company, is a partner at Bryan Cave LLP, which law firm represents the Company.

The items discussed below in the following paragraphs are eliminated in consolidation subsequent to the merger in fiscal 2003 of barnesandnoble.com inc. with a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

The Company subleased to Barnes & Noble.com approximately one-third of a 300,000-square-foot warehouse facility located in New Jersey. The Company has received from Barnes & Noble.com $558,000 for such subleased space during fiscal 2003. The amount paid by Barnes & Noble.com to the Company approximates the cost per square foot paid by the Company as a tenant pursuant to the lease of the space from an unaffiliated third party.

The Company had an agreement (the Supply Agreement) with Barnes & Noble.com whereby the Company charged Barnes & Noble.com the costs associated with purchases of inventory plus incremental overhead incurred by the Company in connection with providing such inventory. The Supply Agreement was subject to certain termination provisions. Barnes & Noble.com purchased $113,758,000 of merchandise from the Company during fiscal 2003. The Company charged Barnes & Noble.com incremental fees of $3,303,000 during fiscal 2003.

The Company entered into agreements whereby Barnes & Noble.com received various services from the Company, including, among others, services for payroll processing, benefits administration, insurance (property, casualty, medical, dental, life, etc.), tax, traffic, fulfillment and telecommunications. In accordance with the terms of such agreements, the Company received fees in an amount equal to the direct costs plus incremental expenses associated with providing such services. The Company received $2,025,000 for such services during fiscal 2003.

In 2002, the Company through its wholly owned subsidiary, Marketing Services (Minnesota) Corp., entered into an agreement with Barnes & Noble.com for marketing services, which included the issuance of gift cards. Under this agreement, the Company paid Barnes & Noble.com $18,153,000 during fiscal 2003, which represented reimbursement for gift cards purchased in a Barnes & Noble store and redeemed on the Barnes & Noble.com Web site.

Barnes & Noble.com, through its fulfillment centers, ships various customer orders for the Company to its retail stores as well as to the Company's customers' homes. Barnes & Noble.com charged the Company the costs associated with such shipments plus any incremental overhead incurred by Barnes & Noble.com to process these orders. The Company paid Barnes & Noble.com $2,662,000 for shipping and handling during fiscal 2003. The Company and Barnes & Noble.com had an agreement whereby the Company paid a commission on all items ordered by customers at the Company's stores and shipped directly to customers' homes by Barnes & Noble.com. Commissions paid for these sales were $1,505,000 during fiscal 2003.

The firm of BDO Seidman, LLP (BDO Seidman) has been selected as independent accountants for the Company. The independent accountants examine annual financial statements and provide other non-audit and tax-related services for the Company. The Company and the Audit Committee have considered whether other non-audit services provided by BDO Seidman are compatible with maintaining the independence of BDO Seidman in its audit of the Company and are not considered prohibited services under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

In each case, tax fees included professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

All Other Fees. The Company did not pay BDO Seidman for any other fees in fiscal 2005 and 2004.

Pre-approval Policies and Procedures. The Audit Committee Charter adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company requires that, among other things, the Audit Committee pre-approve the rendering by the Company's independent auditor of all audit and permissible non-audit services. The Audit Committee has approved the services provided by BDO Seidman referred to above. The Audit Committee has also authorized the Company's management in advance to engage the Company's independent auditor from time to time in the future to perform certain services in areas pre-approved by the Audit Committee that at any one time will not involve more than $25,000 per project and more than $50,000 in the aggregate.
