Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 30, 2006, American Tower Corporation (the Company) issued a press release reporting that a lawsuit purporting to be a securities class action was filed in United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts against American Tower Corporation and certain of its officers. This action alleges violations of the federal securities laws in connection with public statements by the Company relating to its stock option practices and related accounting. The Company announced on May 19, 2006 that it was conducting an internal review of its historic stock option granting practices. The Company intends to vigorously defend the lawsuit.

The Company also reported that a shareholder derivative lawsuit was filed in state court in Massachusetts by an individual identifying himself as a shareholder of the Company, purporting to act on behalf of the corporation, against certain current and former officers and directors for alleged breaches of fiduciary duties with respect to the Company's historic stock option granting practices. In response to the derivative lawsuit, the Company's board of directors plans to establish a special litigation committee to evaluate this lawsuit.

A copy of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

The Company does not intend to file further current reports on Form 8-K describing additional lawsuits, if any, that are shareholder derivative actions or that purport to be securities class actions, in either federal or state court, which are based on allegations substantially similar to those described above.
