3. Content of the report: First International Telecom file for NT$20mn compensation from Chunghwa Telecom
4. Summary of the information provided by investors: None
5. Company's explanation of the reportage or provided information:

The Company had started to negotiate the ISRs traffic transfer contract with First International Telecom(FITEL) in July 2004; however, both companies did not sign the Type II traffic contract with FITEL until April 1, 2006. FITEL claimed that the ISR transfer rate during the two years shall be NT$6.6 per minute, and asked the Company to pay NT$20mn compensation. However, given FITEL does not have the ISR traffic pricing right, the Company argues that the ISRs transfer rate shall be NT$2.35 per minute, and there is a discrepancy between the two companies.

6. Countermeasures: The Company will follow the findings of NCC

7. Any other matters that need to be specified: None.
