Commercial Bankshares, Inc.

1550 S.W. 57th Avenue

Miami, Florida 33144

April 18, 2007

Dear Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of Shareholders of Commercial Bankshares, Inc. ( Commercial ), which will be held on May 21, 2007, at 11:00 a.m. local time. The special meeting will be held at Commercial's executive offices located at 1550 S.W. 57th Avenue, Miami, Florida.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote on approval of an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger ), dated as of January 23, 2007, between Commercial and The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. ( BancGroup ). The agreement provides for us to merge with BancGroup. In the Merger, you will receive either 2.0214 shares of BancGroup common stock or $49.00 cash in exchange for each share of Commercial common stock that you own. You will be allowed to make an election as to how much stock and how much cash you receive. However, under the terms of our agreement with BancGroup, it will not have to pay to Commercial's shareholders more than an aggregate of $152,433,659 in cash and more than an aggregate of 6,288,355 shares of BancGroup common stock assuming 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock are outstanding at the time of the completion of the Merger. Therefore, if Commercial shareholders in the aggregate elect to receive too much cash or too much stock, the form of consideration that was excessively elected will be reduced, and will instead be paid in the form of consideration that was under-elected on a pro rata basis. Shareholders who do not make an election will be deemed to have elected to receive $24.50 in cash and 1.0107 shares of BancGroup common stock for each of their shares of Commercial common stock, but are also subject to pro-ration if an excess election occurs. Your election form will be sent to you in a few business days in a separate package. Please take the time to complete and return the proxy card included in this package.

Please see the attached Proxy Statement-Prospectus for a detailed description of the terms of the Merger. Please refer to page 30 of the Proxy Statement-Prospectus for a more complete description of the consideration you will receive at the completion of the Merger.

Your board of directors has unanimously approved the agreement as being in the best interests of the Commercial shareholders and recommends that you vote in favor of the approval of the agreement.

Additional information regarding the special meeting, the Merger Agreement, the Merger, Commercial and BancGroup is set forth in the attached Proxy Statement-Prospectus. This document also serves as the prospectus for the shares of BancGroup common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger. BancGroup's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CNB. WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO READ THE ENTIRE PROXY STATEMENT-PROSPECTUS CAREFULLY. IN PARTICULAR, YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE DISCUSSION IN THE SECTION ENTITLED COLONIAL BANCGROUP RISK FACTORS, BEGINNING ON PAGE 11 OF THE PROXY STATEMENT-PROSPECTUS.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Commercial common stock is required to approve the agreement. Accordingly, your vote is important no matter how large or small your holdings may be. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, you are urged to complete, sign and promptly return the enclosed proxy card to assure that your shares will be voted at the special meeting. If you attend the special meeting, you may vote in person if you wish, and your proxy will not be used.

If you wish to make an election as to the form of consideration that you will receive, you must also complete the election form, which will be mailed to you within the next five business days, and return it to BancGroup's transfer agent by 5:00 p.m. on May 18, 2007. If the transfer agent has not received your completed election form by this time, then you will be deemed to have elected to receive $24.50 and 1.0107 shares of BancGroup common stock for each of your shares of Commercial common stock (subject to pro-ration if there is an excess election of either cash or BancGroup common stock).

Sincerely,

Joseph W. Armaly

Q: What is being voted on at the Commercial Bankshares special meeting?

A: Shareholders of Commercial are being asked to approve the merger between Commercial and Colonial pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement between such parties dated as of January 23, 2007. Under the merger agreement, Commercial will merge into Colonial BancGroup. When the merger becomes effective, Commercial will cease to exist as a separate entity and you, as a shareholder of Commercial, will be entitled to receive either 2.0214 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock or $49.00 cash for each share of Commercial common stock that you own (or some combination thereof). Under the terms of the merger agreement, Colonial BancGroup is not obligated to pay more than $152,433,659 in cash and 6,288,355 shares of stock for the outstanding shares of Commercial common stock (assuming 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock are outstanding at the time of the completion of the merger). If Commercial shareholders elect to receive more cash than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay, then Commercial shareholders electing cash will have the amount of cash they will receive reduced and the amount of stock they will receive increased on a pro rata basis. Alternatively, if Commercial shareholders elect to receive more stock than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay, then Commercial shareholders electing stock will have the amount of stock they will receive reduced and the amount of cash they will receive increased on a pro rata basis.

A: Send in your proxy card. After reviewing this document, indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote, and sign, date, and mail it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible to ensure that your shares will be represented at the special meeting.

If you sign, date, and send in your proxy and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the merger agreement and the merger. If you do not sign and send in your proxy, and if you do not attend and cast your vote in person at the special meeting, it will have the effect of voting against the merger.

Q: When will I receive my election form and what should I do when I receive it?

A: Send in your election form with your stock certificate(s). You should receive your election form in about five business days. You should complete, sign and date your election form and mail it in the envelope that will be provided. Your election form will be sent to Colonial BancGroup's transfer agent. It is not mandatory that you complete an election form, but if you do not complete and return it, your merger consideration for each of your shares of Commercial common stock will be $24.50 in cash and 1.0107 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock (subject to pro-ration if there is an excess election of either cash or Colonial BancGroup common stock). Even if you do not desire to make an election as to your desired form of consideration, we ask that you return your election form with your stock certificates as that will aid Colonial BancGroup's transfer agent in the exchange process. You may not make an election after, and any election you have made will be final, at 5:00 p.m. on the business day before the special meeting.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Yes, if you give your broker instructions on how to do so. Your broker will vote your shares of Commercial common stock only if you provide your broker with instructions on how to vote. You should instruct your broker how to vote your shares by following the directions your broker provides. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted and this will have the effect of voting against the merger agreement and the merger.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker complete my election form for me?

A: Yes, if you give your broker instructions on how to do so. Your broker will complete your election form only if you provide your broker with instructions on how to do so. You should instruct your broker how to complete your election form by following the directions your broker provides. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, your election form will not be completed and you will receive for each of your Commercial shares $24.50 and 1.0107 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock (subject to pro-ration if there is an excess election of either cash or Colonial BancGroup common stock).

Q: Can I change my mind and revoke my proxy?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy up to the time of the special meeting by taking any of the actions explained under "The Special Meeting Solicitation, Voting and Revocation of Proxies" on page 16 of this proxy statement-prospectus, including by giving a written notice of revocation, by signing and delivering a new later-dated proxy, or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

A: Yes. You may attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person rather than signing and mailing your proxy card.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: Do not return your certificates with your proxy card. After you receive your election form, you should complete and sign it and send in your stock certificates with the election form by following the instructions contained in the election form. If you make no election, after the merger is completed, Colonial BancGroup or its transfer agent will send you written instructions explaining how you exchange your Commercial common stock certificates for certificates representing shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We expect the merger to be completed in the late second or early third quarter of 2007. However, the timing of the completion of the merger is dependent on the merger agreement being approved by our shareholders as well as the approval of certain bank regulatory agencies and the satisfaction of other conditions described in this proxy statement-prospectus.

Q: Whom can I call with questions?

A: If you want additional copies of this document, or if you want to ask any questions about the merger agreement or the merger, you should contact: Bruce P. Steinberger, President and Corporate Secretary of Commercial Bankshares, Inc., Telephone: (305) 267-1200.

The Merger (page 17 and Appendix A)

The merger agreement is the document that controls the anticipated merger between Commercial and BancGroup. We encourage you to read the entire merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A.

The merger agreement provides for the following:

Commercial will merge into Colonial BancGroup. When the merger becomes effective, Commercial will cease to exist as a separate entity and you, as a shareholder of Commercial, will be entitled to receive either 2.0214 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock or $49.00 cash for each share of Commercial common stock that you own (or some combination thereof). Under the terms of the merger agreement, Colonial BancGroup is not obligated to pay more than $152,433,659 in cash and 6,288,355 shares of common stock for the outstanding shares of Commercial common stock (assuming 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock are outstanding at the time of the completion of the merger). If Commercial shareholders elect to receive more cash than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay, then Commercial shareholders electing cash will have the amount of cash they will receive reduced and the amount of common stock they will receive increased on a pro rata basis. Alternatively, if Commercial shareholders elect to receive more common stock than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay, then Commercial shareholders electing such common stock will have the amount of common stock they will receive reduced and the amount of cash they will receive increased on a pro rata basis.

As an example, if there are 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock outstanding at the time of the completion of the merger (in which case Colonial BancGroup is not obligated to pay more than $152,433,659 of the total merger consideration in cash), and the Commercial shareholders make an aggregate cash election of $200,000,000, then that would be $47,566,341 more than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay in cash, and would represent approximately 970,742 shares of Commercial common stock. The electing shareholders who had elected cash would have their cash portion of the merger consideration reduced on a pro rata basis and would instead receive an aggregate of 1,962,257 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. On an individual basis, each electing shareholder who had elected some portion of his or her merger consideration to be paid in cash would in fact receive cash for 76.2% of the Commercial common stock that he or she had originally elected to be paid in cash and the remaining 23.8% of Commercial common stock that the electing shareholder had requested cash for would be paid in Colonial BancGroup common stock.

Colonial BancGroup will not issue fractional shares in the merger. If the number of shares you are to receive is not a whole number, you will receive $49.00 cash times the fraction of your Commercial common stock that is not converted into Colonial BancGroup common stock.

Effect on Stock Options (page 32)

As of the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, Commercial directors, executive officers and employees held outstanding options which entitle the holders thereof to acquire up to 424,759 shares of Commercial common stock.

Prior to the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, holders who owned Commercial options granted under the Commercial Bankshares, Inc. 1994 Performance Stock Option Plan and 2004 Employee Stock Option Plans (collectively Employee Stock Option Plans ) were permitted to exercise their vested and unvested options for Commercial common stock through March 14, 2007.

Each holder of Commercial options granted under the Employee Stock Option Plans was given the alternative to exercise his or her Commercial options for the right to receive a cash payment on the Effective Date. The amount of such cash payment is equal to the number of shares of Commercial common stock subject to each Commercial option multiplied by the difference of $49.00 and the per share exercise price of such Commercial option, less any applicable withholding taxes. Each outside director and Joseph W. Armaly have agreed to elect the foregoing cashless exercise alternative with respect to all of their Commercial options. Stock options expiring on or about June 1, 2007 may be exercised by any holder thereof provided the merger has not closed prior to May 25, 2007.

Comparative Market Prices (page 41)

Colonial BancGroup's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CNB. On January 22, 2007, the last trading day before we announced the signing of the merger agreement, the closing price of Colonial BancGroup's common stock was $24.60.

Commercial's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ National Market System under the symbol CLBK. On January 22, 2007, the last trading day before we announced the signing of the merger agreement, the closing price of Commercial's common stock was $37.50.

The following table summarizes the comparative values of the two stocks just before the merger agreement was signed and the Colonial BancGroup equivalent price per share of Commercial common stock.

BancGroup(1)	Commercial(1)	Equivalent price per Commercial share(2)
$24.60	$ 37.50	$ 49.36

- (1) Closing price on January 22, 2007.
- (2) If the merger had closed on January 22, 2007, and if you had received the default election, then you would have received 1.0107 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and $24.50 in cash for each share of Commercial common stock you owned on that date.

Fairness Opinion (page 21 and Appendix B)

In deciding to recommend the merger to shareholders, Commercial's Board of Directors considered the opinion of its financial advisor, Hovde Financial, Inc., that, based upon and subject to the assumptions made and matters set forth in the written opinion, as of January 22, 2007, the consideration to be received by the shareholders of Commercial in the merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders. We have attached as Appendix B the written opinion of Hovde Financial, Inc., dated as of January 22, 2007. You should read it carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by Hovde Financial, Inc., in providing its opinion.

We will hold a special meeting of the shareholders of Commercial at 11:00 a.m. local time, on May 21, 2007 at 1550 S.W. 57th Avenue, Miami, Florida. At the meeting, we will ask the shareholders to approve the merger agreement and to act on any other matters that may be put to a vote at the meeting.

Our Recommendation to our Shareholders (page 28)

Based on Commercial's reasons for the merger described herein, including the opinion of Hovde Financial, Inc. referred to above, your Board of Directors believes that the merger is fair to you and in your best interests, and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Record Date; Voting Power (page 15)

You may vote at the special meeting if you owned Commercial shares as of the close of business on March 23, 2007. You will have one vote for each share of common stock you owned on that date.

Vote Required (page 15)

If a quorum is present at the special meeting, then the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares will be sufficient to approve the merger agreement. A quorum consists of a majority of the shares outstanding on the record date. On the record date, 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock were outstanding. The directors and executive officers of Commercial own an aggregate of 919,650 shares of Commercial common stock, representing approximately 14.8% of the outstanding shares. These individuals have agreed with Colonial BancGroup to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement. Accordingly, if these individuals vote as they have agreed with Colonial BancGroup, then the merger agreement will be approved if holders of 2,191,242 of the remaining outstanding shares, representing 35.2% of the total outstanding, also vote to approve the merger agreement. As to other matters that may properly come before the special meeting, such matters shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively, without regard to broker non-votes, as to that matter unless otherwise required by law.

Risk Factors (page 11)

In evaluating the merger and the merger agreement and before deciding how to vote your shares of Commercial common stock at the special meeting, you should read this proxy statement-prospectus carefully and especially consider certain factors, risks and uncertainties discussed in the section entitled Colonial BancGroup Risk Factors beginning on page 11 of this proxy statement-prospectus.

Election Form (page 30)

In a few days you should receive an election form. You may use this form to elect what percentage of cash or Colonial BancGroup common stock you wish to receive for your shares of Commercial common stock. If you do not return an election form by the deadline, then your merger consideration will be the default form of 1.0107 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and $24.50 in cash for each of your shares of Commercial common stock (subject to pro-ration in the case of an over election of cash or common stock). The deadline by which election forms must be received by Colonial BancGroup's transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services, LLC, is 5:00 p.m. on the business day prior to the special meeting. If you choose to receive some portion of your merger consideration in cash, you will be taxed on any gain you realize on the cash that you receive (see Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences on page 33).

Colonial BancGroup is only obligated to pay a certain portion of the total consideration for the outstanding shares of Commercial common stock in cash and a certain portion in common stock. Based on the 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock that were outstanding as of the record date, Colonial BancGroup will pay approximately $152,433,659 in cash and 6,288,355 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. If Commercial shareholders elect to receive too much cash, then all Commercial shareholders electing cash will have their cash election reduced and their common stock election increased on a pro rata basis. Alternatively, if Commercial shareholders elect to receive too much common stock, then all Commercial shareholders electing common stock will have their common stock election reduced and their cash election increased on a pro rata basis. If you have not received an election form within five business days of receiving this proxy statement-prospectus, or if you desire to receive another election form, please contact Bruce P. Steinberger at (305) 267-1200.

Exchange of Certificates (page 32)

Shortly after we complete the merger, Colonial BancGroup, or its transfer agent, will send you detailed instructions on how to exchange your shares. UNLESS YOU HAVE COMPLETED AN ELECTION FORM AND INCLUDED YOUR COMMON STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR ELECTION FORM IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ELECTION FORM INSTRUCTIONS, PLEASE DO NOT SEND US OR BANCGROUP ANY COMMON STOCK CERTIFICATES UNTIL YOU RECEIVE THOSE INSTRUCTIONS.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 34)

The completion of the merger depends on meeting a number of conditions, including the following:

the shareholders of Commercial must approve the merger agreement;

all required regulatory approvals must be received, and any waiting periods must have passed;

there must be no governmental order blocking completion of the merger, and no proceedings by a government body trying to block the merger; and the merger must be completed on or before October 31, 2007, or either party can terminate the merger agreement at will.

Unless prohibited by law, either Commercial or Colonial BancGroup could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger anyway. We cannot be certain whether or when any of these conditions will be satisfied, or waived where permissible, or that we will complete the merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 35)

Colonial BancGroup and Commercial can agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even if the shareholders of Commercial have already voted to approve it.

Either company can also terminate the merger agreement:

if the other party has materially breached the merger agreement and has not cured the breach;

if the merger has not been completed by October 31, 2007, (provided that the failure to complete has not been caused by the breach of the company electing to terminate); or if Commercial enters into a binding agreement with any third party to merge with, or sell control to, that third party. In that event, Colonial BancGroup will have the right to receive a payment of $12,500,000 from Commercial or its acquirer.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 33)

We expect that neither the two companies nor the Commercial shareholders will recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the merger, except in connection with any cash payment that a Commercial shareholder may receive as merger consideration or for a fractional share. Colonial BancGroup has received an opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP that this will be the case. The tax opinion is based upon customary assumptions contained therein, including the assumption that consideration other than Colonial BancGroup common stock (including cash in lieu of fractional shares, cash consideration in exchange for outstanding options and cash paid to Commercial shareholders that receive cash in the merger) will represent no more than 60% of the total fair market value of all consideration paid to Commercial shareholders in the transaction. The opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service, which could take a different view. We expect that any cash received will generally be treated as capital gain for federal income tax purposes.

Determining the actual tax consequences to you as an individual taxpayer can be complicated. For example, the opinion referred to above does not address any tax issues arising under state, local or foreign law. The overall tax treatment applicable to you will depend on your specific situation and many variables not within our control. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences to you.

Accounting Treatment (page 40)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase. The purchase price will be allocated to the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, with any amounts in excess thereof being assigned to goodwill. Goodwill will be recognized unless and until it is deemed to be impaired, in which case the impairment will be measured and any such amount will be charged against current earnings.

Interests of Persons Involved in the Merger that are Different from Yours (page 28)

Certain directors, executive officers and employees of Commercial have interests in the merger that are different from your interests. These differing interests include the following:

Directors, executive officers and employees of Commercial currently hold options to acquire 424,759 shares of Commercial common stock. As of the date of this Proxy Statement Prospectus, each holder of Commercial stock options has elected to exercise his or her Commercial stock options for the right to receive a cash payment on the Effective Date. The amount of such cash payment is equal to the aggregate of the number of shares of Commercial common stock subject to each Commercial stock option multiplied by the difference of $49.00 and the per share exercise price of such Commercial stock option, less any applicable withholding taxes. However, if the merger has not closed prior to May 25, 2007, the holders of 39,345 stock options will have the right to exercise those options prior to expiration on or about June 1, 2007.

Commercial currently indemnifies its directors and certain officers, employees and agents against loss from claims arising out of their position with Commercial. For a period of six years after the merger, Colonial BancGroup will, subject to some limitations, continue to indemnify those persons against claims that arise from the period when they worked for, or served as directors of, Commercial or Commercial Bank of Florida.

Upon completion of the merger, Commercial employees will either become employees of Colonial BancGroup or one of its subsidiaries and become eligible for Colonial BancGroup's employee benefits, or they will be eligible to receive severance benefits under Colonial BancGroup's severance policy.

Pursuant to their employment agreements with Commercial Bankshares and/or Commercial Bank of Florida, which agreements shall become the obligation of Colonial BancGroup upon completion of the merger, Joseph W. Armaly, Chairman and CEO, Bruce P. Steinberger, President and Corporate Secretary and Barbara E. Reed, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, are expected to be paid $3,030,014, $1,177,291 and $450,000, respectively, immediately after the completion of the merger.

Joseph W. Armaly has entered into a consulting agreement with Colonial Bank, N.A. that will become effective when and if the merger is completed. The agreement provides for a term of two years and an annual base consideration of approximately $200,000. The agreement also provides that Mr. Armaly will not be considered an employee of Colonial Bank, but rather an independent contractor and outside consultant. The consulting agreement also contains covenants prohibiting Mr. Armaly from soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees or competing against Colonial Bank during the term of the consulting agreement.

Steven Capellan has entered into an employment agreement with Colonial Bank that will become effective at the completion of the merger. This employment agreement provides for 18 months of employment at 115% of his current level of salary and at least 100% of his current bonus. The employment agreement also provides for a stock option grant of 7,500 shares of BancGroup's common stock and a signing bonus of 15% of Mr. Capellan's base salary.

Commercial's directors have entered into affiliate agreements with Colonial BancGroup regarding various issues associated with the merger. These agreements provide that each director would, among other things:

agree to vote his shares for the merger;

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form 424B3

not distribute BancGroup common stock issued in connection with the merger except in accordance with certain rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission; support the business of Colonial Bank, N.A. after the merger, and if not also an employee of Commercial, generally not compete with Colonial Bank, N.A. for a period of two years after the effective date of the merger.

Dissenters Rights (page 39)

In connection with the merger, Commercial shareholders are not entitled to exercise dissenters rights of appraisal under Florida law.

Recent Developments Colonial BancGroup

During the second quarter of 2007, Colonial BancGroup intends to issue debt securities which are intended to qualify as regulatory capital and utilize a portion of the proceeds in the Merger. While Colonial BancGroup has initiated the issuance process and does not anticipate any significant difficulties in issuing such securities, the actual form of the debt securities has not been finalized.

Precautionary Language Regarding the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about either Colonial BancGroup or Commercial. Such information can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement-prospectus and in the other public filings that Colonial BancGroup and Commercial make with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are available without charge at www.sec.gov.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that its parties made to each other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the merger agreement. While Colonial BancGroup and Commercial do not believe that such schedules contain information that the securities laws require to be publicly disclosed, other than information that has already been so disclosed, the disclosure schedules do contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the attached merger agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they may be materially modified by the underlying disclosure schedules. These disclosure schedules contain information that has been included in Colonial BancGroup's and Commercial's general prior public disclosures, as well as potential additional non-public information. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Colonial BancGroup's and Commercial's public disclosures.

- (a) The pro forma per share data of Colonial BancGroup and the equivalent pro forma per share data of Commercial have been presented using the assumption that the consideration paid by Colonial BancGroup consisted of 50% cash and 50% common stock.
- (b) Pro forma equivalent per share amounts are calculated by multiplying the pro forma combined total income per share and the pro forma combined total book value per share of Colonial BancGroup by the exchange ratio so that the per share amounts are equated to the respective values for one share of Commercial. For these pro forma equivalent share amounts, a 1.0107 Colonial BancGroup common stock exchange ratio is utilized.
- (c) Pro forma equivalent dividends per share are shown at Colonial BancGroup's common stock dividend per share rate multiplied by the 1.0107 exchange ratio per share of Commercial common stock. Colonial BancGroup presently contemplates that dividends will be declared in the future. However, the payment of cash dividends is subject to Colonial BancGroup's actual results of operations as well as certain other internal and external factors. Accordingly, there is no assurance that cash dividends will either be declared and paid in the future, or, if declared and paid, that such dividends will approximate the pro forma amounts indicated.

COLONIAL BANCGROUP RISK FACTORS

The business of Colonial BancGroup is subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties that could effect its future operations and the value of its common stock. These risks include, but are not limited to the following:

Industry Factors

As a financial services company, Colonial BancGroup's earnings are significantly affected by general business and economic conditions.

Colonial BancGroup's business and earnings are impacted by general business and economic conditions in the United States and abroad. These conditions include short-term and long-term interest rates, inflation, money supply, fluctuations in both debt and equity capital markets, the strength of the U.S. economy and the local economies in which it operates. For example, an economic downturn, increase in unemployment, or other events that negatively impact household and/or corporate incomes could decrease the demand for Colonial BancGroup's loan and non-loan products and services and increase the number of customers who fail to pay interest or principal on their loans.

Colonial BancGroup's earnings are significantly affected by the fiscal and monetary policies of the federal government and its agencies.

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System regulates the supply of money and credit in the United States. Its policies determine in large part Colonial BancGroup's cost of funds for lending and investing and the return it earns on those loans and investments, both of which impact its net interest margin, and can materially affect the value of financial instruments it holds, such as debt securities. Federal Reserve System policies also can affect Colonial BancGroup's borrowers, potentially increasing the risk that they may fail to repay their loans. Changes in Federal Reserve Board policies are beyond Colonial BancGroup's control and difficult to predict or anticipate.

The financial services industry is highly competitive.

Colonial BancGroup operates in a highly competitive industry which could become even more competitive as a result of legislative, regulatory and technological changes and continued consolidation. Banks, securities firms and insurance companies can now merge by creating a financial services company called a financial holding company, which can offer virtually any type of financial service, including banking, securities underwriting, insurance (both agency and underwriting) and merchant banking. A number of foreign banks have acquired financial services companies in the United States, further increasing competition in the U.S. market. Also, technology has lowered barriers to entry and made it possible for nonbanks to offer products and services traditionally provided by banks, such as automatic transfer and automatic payment systems. Many of Colonial BancGroup's competitors have fewer regulatory constraints and some have lower cost structures.

Colonial BancGroup is heavily regulated by federal agencies.

Colonial BancGroup, its subsidiary bank and certain nonbank subsidiaries are heavily regulated by federal agencies. This regulation is to protect depositors, federal deposit insurance funds and the banking system as a whole, not security holders. Congress and federal regulatory agencies continually review banking laws, regulations and policies for possible changes. Changes to statutes, regulations or regulatory policies, including changes in interpretation or implementation of statutes, regulations or policies, could affect us in substantial and unpredictable ways including limiting the types of financial services and products Colonial Bank may offer and/or increasing the ability of nonbanks to offer competing financial services and products. Also, any failure to comply with laws, regulations or policies could result in sanctions by regulatory agencies and damage to Colonial BancGroup's reputation. For more information, refer to discussions of regulatory considerations contained in Item 1 Business and Note 16, Regulatory Matters and Restrictions to the financial statements contained in Colonial BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Company Factors

Maintaining or increasing Colonial BancGroup's market share depends on market acceptance and regulatory approval of new products and services.

Colonial BancGroup's success depends, in part, on its ability to adapt its products and services to evolving industry standards. There is increasing pressure on financial services companies to provide products and services at lower prices. This can reduce Colonial Bank's net interest margin and revenues from its fee-based products and services. In addition, the widespread adoption of new technologies, including internet-based services, could require Colonial BancGroup to make substantial expenditures to modify or adapt its existing products and services. Colonial BancGroup might not successfully introduce new products and services, achieve market acceptance of its products and services, and/or develop and maintain loyal customers.

Colonial BancGroup relies on dividends from its subsidiaries for most of its revenue.

Colonial BancGroup is a separate and distinct legal entity from its subsidiaries. It receives substantially all of its revenue from dividends from its subsidiaries. These dividends are the principal source of funds to pay dividends on the holding company's common stock and interest and principal on its debt. Various federal and/or state laws and regulations limit the amount of dividends that Colonial BancGroup's bank and certain of its nonbank subsidiaries may pay to the holding company. Also, the holding company's right to participate in a distribution of assets upon a subsidiary's liquidation or reorganization is subject to the prior claims of the subsidiary's creditors. For more information, refer to Payment of Dividends and Other Restrictions in Item 1 and Note 16, Regulatory Matters and Restrictions in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Colonial BancGroup's accounting policies and methods determine how it reports its financial condition and results of operations, and such policies may require management to make estimates about matters that are inherently uncertain.

Colonial BancGroup's accounting policies and methods are fundamental to how it records and reports its financial condition and results of operations. Management must exercise judgment in selecting and applying many of these accounting policies and methods so that not only do they comply with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States but also that they reflect management's judgment as to the most appropriate manner in which to record and report Colonial BancGroup's financial condition and results of operations. In some cases, management must select the accounting policy or method to apply from two or more alternatives, any of which might be reasonable under the circumstances yet might result in Colonial BancGroup reporting materially different amounts than would have been reported under a different alternative. A description of Colonial BancGroup's significant accounting policies may be found at Note 1, Summary of Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies, to the Consolidated Financial Statements contained in Colonial BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Colonial BancGroup has identified five accounting policies as being critical to the presentation of its financial condition and results of operations because they require management to make particularly subjective and/or complex judgments about matters that are inherently uncertain and because of the likelihood that materially different amounts would be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions. These critical accounting policies relate to: (1) allowance for loan losses, (2) purchase accounting and goodwill, (3) income taxes, (4) consolidations and (5) stock-based compensation. For more information, refer to Critical Accounting Policies in the Management's Discussion and Analysis contained in Colonial BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Colonial BancGroup has an active acquisition program.

BancGroup's management typically do not comment publicly on a possible acquisition or business combination until there is a signed definitive agreement for the transaction.

Colonial BancGroup's ability to successfully complete an acquisition generally is subject to regulatory approval, and it cannot be certain when or if, or on what terms and conditions, any required regulatory approvals will be granted. Colonial BancGroup might be required to divest banks or branches as a condition to receiving regulatory approval.

Difficulty in integrating an acquired company may cause Colonial BancGroup not to realize expected revenue increases, cost savings, increases in geographic or product presence, and/or other projected benefits from the acquisition. Specifically, the integration process could result in higher than expected deposit attrition (run-off), loss of key employees, the disruption of Colonial BancGroup's business or the business of the acquired company, or otherwise adversely affect its ability to maintain relationships with customers and employees or achieve the anticipated benefits of the acquisition. Also, the negative impact of any divestitures required by regulatory authorities in connection with acquisitions or business combinations may be greater than expected.

Colonial BancGroup's mix of products and customers subject us to potential concentration risk.

Colonial Bank offers a defined group of products, both retail and commercial, to its customers throughout the branch network. As a result of the products offered and customers served, BancGroup is subject to concentration risk. See Concentration discussion within the Risk Management section of Management's Discussion and Analysis in Colonial BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 for further discussion.

Colonial BancGroup's stock price can be volatile.

Colonial BancGroup's stock price can fluctuate widely in response to a variety of factors including:

actual or anticipated variations in its quarterly operating results;

recommendations by securities analysts;

new technology used, or services offered, by its competitors;

significant acquisitions or business combinations, strategic partnerships, joint ventures or capital commitments by or involving us or its competitors;

failure to integrate its acquisitions or realize anticipated benefits from its acquisitions; operating and stock price performance of other companies that investors deem comparable to it;

news reports relating to trends, concerns and other issues in the financial services industry;

changes in government regulations; and geopolitical conditions such as acts or threats of terrorism or military conflicts.

General market fluctuations, industry factors and general economic and political conditions and events, such as economic slowdowns or recessions, interest rate changes or credit loss trends, also could cause Colonial BancGroup's stock price to decrease regardless of its operating results.

A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Commercial and Colonial BancGroup make forward-looking statements in this document and in Colonial BancGroup's and Commercial's public documents. When Commercial or Colonial BancGroup use words such as anticipate, believe, estimate, may, intend, expect, will, show or other similar expressions, Commercial or Colonial BancGroup refer to events or conditions that are subject to risks and uncertainties. When considering those forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risks, uncertainties and other cautionary statements made in this Proxy Statement-Prospectus. You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement, which speaks only as of the date made. In addition to the risks identified below, you should refer to Commercial's and Colonial BancGroup's public documents for specific risks which could cause actual results to be significantly different from those expressed or implied by those forward-looking statements. Some factors which may affect the accuracy of the forward-looking statements apply generally to the financial services industries, while other factors apply directly to Commercial or Colonial BancGroup. Any number of important factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

expected cost savings from reorganization into Colonial BancGroup are not fully realized;

deposit attrition, customer loss, or revenue loss following the reorganization into Colonial BancGroup are greater than expected;

the inability of Colonial BancGroup to realize elements of its strategic plan for 2007 and beyond;

deposit attrition, customer loss, or revenue loss in the ordinary course of business;

increases in competitive pressure in the banking industry;

changes in the interest rate environment which adversely affect margins or critical estimates as applied and projected return on investments;

general economic conditions, either nationally or regionally, that are less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality;

management's assumptions and estimates underlying critical accounting policies prove to be inadequate, materially incorrect or are not borne out by subsequent events;

the impact of recent and future federal and state regulatory changes;

current or future litigation, regulatory investigations, proceedings or inquiries;

strategies to manage interest rate risk may yield results other than those anticipated;

changes which may occur in the regulatory environment;

a significant rate of inflation or deflation;

natural disasters in BancGroup's primary market areas that result in prolonged business disruption or materially impair the value of collateral securing loans;

acts of terrorism or war; and changes in the securities markets.

Many of these factors are beyond Commercial's control and beyond the control of Colonial BancGroup. For a discussion of factors that could cause Colonial BancGroup's actual results to differ, please see the discussions in the sections entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. THE SPECIAL MEETING

General

This Proxy Statement-Prospectus is being furnished to the shareholders of Commercial Bankshares, Inc. ( Commercial ) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Commercial for use at the special meeting of the shareholders of Commercial to be held on May 21, 2007 (the Special Meeting ) and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The purpose of the Special Meeting is to consider and vote upon the Agreement which provides for the proposed merger (the Merger ) of Commercial with and into The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. ( BancGroup ). BancGroup will be the surviving corporation in the Merger.

The Board of Directors of Commercial believes that the Merger is in the best interests of the Commercial shareholders and unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR the Agreement (item 1 on the proxy card).

This Proxy Statement-Prospectus is also furnished by BancGroup in connection with the offer of shares of BancGroup common stock to be issued in the Merger. No vote of BancGroup shareholders is required to approve the Merger.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Vote Required

The Board of Directors of Commercial has fixed the close of business on March 23, 2007, as the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the Special Meeting (the Record Date ). There were 170 record holders of Commercial common stock and 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock outstanding, each entitled to one vote per share, as of the Record Date. As of the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, all holders of Commercial stock options have agreed to accept a cash-payment in respect of the remaining Commercial stock options (however, if the Merger has not closed prior to May 25, 2007, the holders of 39,345 stock options will have the right to exercise those options prior to expiration on June 1, 2007).

The presence at the Special Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Commercial common stock on the Record Date is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Special Meeting. In the absence of a quorum, the Special Meeting may be postponed from time to time until Commercial shareholders holding the requisite number of shares of Commercial common stock are represented in person or by proxy. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Commercial common stock, whether or not present or represented at the Special Meeting, is required to approve the Agreement. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted as votes FOR or AGAINST the proposal to approve the Agreement, and, as a result, such non-votes will have the same effect as votes cast AGAINST the Agreement. Each holder of record of shares of Commercial common stock is entitled to cast, for each share registered in his or her name, one vote on the Agreement as well as on any other matter presented to a vote of shareholders at the Special Meeting.

As of the Record Date, directors and executive officers of Commercial owned 919,650 shares of Commercial common stock, representing approximately 14.8% of the outstanding shares. These individuals have agreed with BancGroup to vote their shares in favor of the Agreement. Accordingly, if these individuals vote as they have agreed with BancGroup, then the Agreement will be approved if holders of 2,191,242 of the remaining shares (35.2% of the total outstanding) also vote to approve it.

If the Agreement is approved at the Special Meeting, Commercial is expected to merge with and into BancGroup promptly after the other conditions to the Agreement are satisfied. See Proposal 1: The Merger Conditions of Consummation of the Merger.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF COMMERCIAL URGES THE SHAREHOLDERS OF COMMERCIAL TO EXECUTE AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AND UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE PROXY BE VOTED FOR APPROVAL OF THE AGREEMENT.

A shareholder may revoke any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation by: (i) delivering to the Secretary of Commercial, prior to or at the Special Meeting, a written notice revoking the proxy; (ii) delivering to the Secretary of Commercial, at or prior to the Special Meeting, a duly executed proxy relating to the same shares and bearing a later date; or (iii) voting in person at the Special Meeting.

Proxies voted in favor of the approval of the Agreement, or proxies as to which no voting instructions are given, will be voted to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, in order to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the Agreement. Proxies voted against the approval of the Agreement and abstentions will not be voted for an adjournment. See Adjournment of the Special Meeting.

Effect of Merger on Outstanding BancGroup Common Stock

Assuming that 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock are outstanding on the Effective Date, BancGroup will issue approximately 6,288,355 shares in connection with the Merger. The issuance of 6,288,355 shares of BancGroup common stock would represent approximately 3.95% of the total number of shares of BancGroup common stock outstanding following the Merger, not counting any additional shares BancGroup may issue for reasons unconnected to the Merger.

PROPOSAL 1: THE MERGER

The following sets forth a summary of the material provisions of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A. All Commercial shareholders are urged to read the Agreement and the Appendices in their entirety.

General

The Agreement provides that, subject to approval by the shareholders of Commercial, receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and satisfaction of certain other conditions described below at Conditions to Consummation of the Merger, Commercial will merge with and into BancGroup. Upon completion of the Merger, the corporate existence of Commercial will cease, and BancGroup will succeed to the business formerly conducted by Commercial.

Background of the Merger

Members of the executive management of Commercial have periodically reviewed and assessed the strategic options of Commercial and have discussed such options with Commercial's Board of Directors. The Board and such executive management routinely have discussed the increasing level of competition, continuing consolidation, regulatory burden and related costs and other developments in the financial services industry, particularly in the Southeast.

Based upon the Board of Directors' collective experience and knowledge of Commercial's industry and sector, the Board remained confident in the viability of Commercial's strategic plan but also discussed the possibility that market conditions might present an opportunity to enhance shareholder value through a capital transaction.

At the August 18, 2006 Board of Directors meeting, members of the executive committee advised the Board of their recent discussions regarding various potential financial advisors and their possible engagement to assist Commercial in exploring its strategic alternatives, and discussed the advantages and disadvantages of each potential advisor with the Board. The Board then unanimously approved instructing executive management to invite Hovde Financial, Inc. ( "Hovde" ) to make a presentation to the Board regarding Commercial's strategic options. Thereupon, executive management met with and provided Hovde with data prepared by management relating to Commercial's financial condition and prospects.

On September 19, 2006, the Board of Directors met with and reviewed and assessed its strategic options with Hovde, including continuing to implement Commercial's strategic plan, a merger of Commercial, or other similar transaction. These discussions included analyses of the financial institution merger market on a national and regional basis, the potential value of the Commercial franchise based on current merger market fundamentals and the potential market value of Commercial common stock assuming the execution of its current business plan. Hovde also discussed with the Board of Directors the different types of methodologies that could be used to value Commercial. Based upon the presentation by Hovde, and Hovde's reputation and expertise in evaluating the financial condition and prospects of financial institutions, such as Commercial, the Board unanimously approved the engagement of Hovde as the financial advisor to Commercial whereupon the parties subsequently entered into a letter agreement providing for such advisory services.

At the September 19, 2006 meeting of the Board of Directors, in consultation with Hovde, the Board determined that it would be in the best interest of shareholders for Commercial to solicit on a selective basis nonpublic indications of interest for a possible transaction in respect of the acquisition of the capital stock of Commercial. The Board then set a time frame of mid-December 2006 for all potentially interested parties to submit final indications of interest. The Board determined that this process would be the most efficient method for allowing the Board to assess whether a transaction meets its objective of enhancing shareholder value could be realized.

Table of Contents

In early November, 2006 in accordance with the Board's instructions, Hovde began contacting potential bidders on a confidential basis, including, but not limited to, regional, national, and international bank holding companies. These parties were selected taking into account, among other things, a cross section of potential bidders that were either industry peers of Commercial or perceived as potentially interested in investing in or acquiring assets in the commercial banking sector. Whether particular firms or companies had the apparent management expertise, regulatory standing and financial ability to effectuate an acquisition of an organization such as Commercial was also considered.

On or about November 16, 2006, the Chairman of the Board received an unsolicited telephone call from a representative of a foreign financial institution, referred to as Bidder A, indicating that Bidder A had an interest in acquiring Commercial. The Chairman advised Bidder A's representative that Commercial had commenced a process of exploring strategic alternatives in the interest of maximizing shareholder value, and that Bidder A was invited to participate in this process by contacting Commercial's financial advisor, Hovde, directly. Bidder A thereafter contacted Hovde and Bidder A became a participant in the process.

During the months of November through December, Hovde was in contact with a total of 23 institutions, and obtained confidentiality agreements from twelve of these parties. These twelve parties received confidential information about the Company prepared by management relating to the Company's financial condition and prospects, to assist them in preparing their indication of value, which was requested by December 11, 2006. Hovde then received preliminary indications of interest from three of these parties.

At a December 21, 2006 meeting of the Board of Directors, Hovde presented to the Board written indications of value from three bidders, including BancGroup and Bidder A. BancGroup's bid was for the acquisition of Commercial for aggregate consideration consisting of 50% cash and 50% stock, and Bidder A's bid was for aggregate consideration consisting of all cash. BancGroup's bid was slightly higher than Bidder A's bid. The third bid was for aggregate consideration consisting of all stock and was the lowest of the three bids.

BancGroup communicated to Hovde that its bid was conditioned on Commercial pursuing an agreement with the bidder on an exclusive basis. At the December 21 meeting, the Board reviewed, in consultation with Hovde, the preliminary indications of interest and discussed the terms and merits of each bid. Following this discussion, the Board determined that it would be in the best interest of Commercial and its shareholders to continue the process and further explore with BancGroup the feasibility of a transaction that would maximize shareholder value. The Board determined to invite BancGroup to conduct further due diligence, with a view to reaching a definitive agreement. Hovde made such invitation to executive management of BancGroup, and the parties agreed, in order to accommodate various scheduling conflicts as a result of the holidays, to select the week of January 8 to conduct final due diligence.

On December 22, 2006, Robert Lowder, the Chairman of BancGroup, called Joseph Armaly, the Chairman of Commercial, to confirm BancGroup's serious interest in reaching an agreement, on the terms of the previously submitted bid, for the acquisition of Commercial as soon as possible, and then closing on such acquisition in a four to six month timeframe.

In the ensuing days, Hovde received a telephone call from Bidder A's financial advisor expressing Bidder A's willingness to increase its non-binding offer to an amount per share, in an all cash transaction, that would be slightly higher, based on BancGroup's common stock trading price on that date, than BancGroup's existing written non-binding offer. Hovde thereupon inquired of Bidder A's financial advisor what Bidder A's expected timeframe to close any such transaction would be and what financial and other assurances Bidder could give in this regard. Bidder A's financial representative was unable to provide any concrete timeframe or assurances. Hovde also communicated to BancGroup the existence and circumstances of the increased offer.

On the morning of December 29, 2006, Bidder A submitted to Hovde a revised written confidential non-binding offer to acquire all of the capital stock of Commercial in an all cash transaction for an amount per share slightly higher, based on BancGroup's common stock trading price on that date, than that proposed by BancGroup, subject to further due diligence and other contingencies. This written non-binding offer did not contain an expected timeframe to reach an agreement upon, or to close, any such transaction, nor provide for any financial or other assurances in regard to a closing. Bidder A's bid expressly stated closing of any such transaction was subject to approval of a foreign financial institution regulatory authority, as well as U.S. regulatory authorities.

The Board of Directors then met at 10:45 a.m. on December 29, 2006 to consider Bidder A's revised bid. In attendance at this meeting were Hovde and Akerman Senterfitt & Eidson, P.A. (Akerman Senterfitt), counsel to Commercial. The Board discussed the status of the BancGroup merger process, Bidder A's revised bid in relation to the value of BancGroup's bid as of such date, the structure of both the BancGroup and the Bidder A proposed transactions, the possibility of BancGroup pricing being revised upward, the fact that BancGroup's common stock was trading at the low end of its historical trading range, the ability of Commercial shareholders to participate in the future of the combined company in a transaction with BancGroup with the mix of stock and cash, and the ability to pay dividends during the merger process under the BancGroup proposal but not under Bidder A's proposal.

At the December 29 meeting, the Board also discussed the speed and the relative ability of each offering institution to complete and integrate U.S. domestic merger transactions. It was noted that Bidder A, a foreign bank holding company, had a limited presence in the United States, and that Bidder A's intent, as noted in its bid, was to enter the U.S. domestic market via the proposed acquisition. In contrast, it was noted that BancGroup is a regional U.S. bank holding company with a 25 year history and has completed numerous acquisitions, including acquisitions of public companies. Hovde reported that Bidder A's representatives were unable to commit, either contractually or monetarily, to a timeframe to closing any proposed transaction.

Hovde gave an analysis of BancGroup's and Bidder A's bids. Hovde further reported that Hovde had pressed BancGroup to increase its bid in view of a higher competing bid, but that BancGroup had declined after having previously raised its bid to the point at which it stood. The Board discussed its fiduciary obligations in consultation with its counsel, Akerman Senterfitt. The Board then unanimously authorized executive management to pursue, with the assistance of Commercial's legal and financial advisors, a definitive merger agreement with BancGroup on the basis of the proposal presented to the Board by BancGroup, and to continue to permit BancGroup to conduct due diligence on Commercial.

On January 22, 2007, the Board of Directors of Commercial held a special meeting at which representatives of Hovde and Akerman Senterfitt presented the terms of the definitive merger agreement and ancillary agreements and the findings of Hovde's due diligence investigation of BancGroup. A representative of Hovde made a presentation regarding the fairness of the merger consideration in the proposed BancGroup transaction to Commercial's shareholders from a financial point of view. Hovde delivered to the Board its written opinion, dated January 22, 2007, that the merger consideration in the proposed BancGroup transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Commercial. The Board reviewed with Akerman Senterfitt the fiduciary obligations applicable to the proposed transaction, the approvals and contingencies necessary to consummate the transaction and the regulatory issues and process involved. After those presentations and further discussions regarding the proposed mix of cash and common stock consideration and the fluctuation of the overall merger consideration under various scenarios, the Board determined that the merger agreement and transactions contemplated thereby were in the best interest of Commercial shareholders, unanimously approved the proposed merger and related agreements and authorized Mr. Armaly and executive management to execute the merger agreement and to take all steps necessary to effect the proposed transaction. Commercial and BancGroup subsequently executed the merger agreement dated as of January 23, 2007 (the Merger Agreement).

On January 23, 2007, Commercial and BancGroup each issued press releases announcing the transaction.

Commercial's Reasons for the Merger

Commercial's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and recommends that Commercial shareholders vote FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement.

The Commercial board has determined that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Commercial and its shareholders. In approving the Merger Agreement, the Board of Directors of Commercial consulted with its financial advisors with respect to the financial aspects and fairness of the transaction to Commercial's shareholders from a financial point of view and with its legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the Merger Agreement and related agreements. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger, the Board of Directors of Commercial, with the advice from certain members of executive management and financial and legal advisors, considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

The Board of Directors' understanding of strategic options available to Commercial and the assessment of those options by the board and certain members of executive management as to the prospects and estimated results of the execution of its business plan as an independent entity under various scenarios, and the determination that none of those strategic options or the execution of its business plan under the best case scenarios were likely to create greater value on a present value basis for shareholders than the merger consideration being paid by BancGroup.

The ability of Commercial shareholders to continue to participate in the future of the combined entity by receiving BancGroup common stock and ability of shareholders to elect to receive approximately 50% of the merger consideration in cash to moderate the effects of market fluctuations in BancGroup common stock and that shareholders would have potential value appreciation by owning the common stock of a highly-regarded and profitable financial institution operating in the Southeast region.

Information concerning the business, earnings, operations, financial condition, strategic initiatives and general prospects of Colonial as compared to the other institutions and the expected performance of BancGroup and Commercial on a combined basis. In particular, the Board of Directors considered the recent merger transactions consummated by BancGroup and the impact those transactions had on BancGroup's performance, the market value and trading history of the common stock of BancGroup in comparison to its peer institutions, and in comparison to Commercial's common stock, the combined franchise and geographic coverage that would result from a merger with BancGroup and the relative prospects of continued growth and performance of BancGroup based upon the expected interest rate environment in the near term and the structure of BancGroup's balance sheet and operating strategy.

The opinion rendered by Hovde, as financial advisor to Commercial, that, subject to the assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the merger consideration was, as of the date of the opinion, fair, from a financial point of view, to Commercial's shareholders.

The potential efficiencies and synergies that could result from a combination with BancGroup and the wider array of products and services that would be available to the current customers and communities served by Commercial and the prospect that the combined entity would be better able to capitalize on opportunities to provide increased financial services to Commercial customers.

The results of the due diligence review conducted on BancGroup, including the likelihood of the transaction receiving the requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner.

The effect of the merger on the depositors, customers and the communities served by Commercial. The acquisition by BancGroup was deemed to be an opportunity to provide depositors, customers and the communities served by Commercial with increased financial services and access to financial services throughout a wider market area.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form 424B3

That Joseph W. Armaly would remain involved with the combined entity as a consultant to Colonial Bank, N.A. ( Colonial Bank ) which would help the continued entity deal with transition issues.

The likelihood of regulatory and shareholder approvals and estimated transactional and severance costs associated with the merger and payments that could be triggered upon termination of or failure to consummate the merger.

The foregoing information and factors considered by Commercial's Board of Directors are not exhaustive, but include all material factors that Commercial's Board of Directors considered and discussed in approving and recommending the merger. In view of the wide variety of factors considered and discussed by Commercial's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these factors, the Board of Directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign any specific or relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision; rather it considered all of the factors as a whole. The Board of Directors discussed the foregoing factors, including asking questions of certain members of Commercial's executive management, and legal and financial advisers, and reached a general consensus that the merger was in the best interests of Commercial and its shareholders. In considering the foregoing factors, individual directors may have assigned different weights to different factors. Commercial's Board of Directors relied on the experience and expertise of Commercial's financial adviser for quantitative analysis of the financial terms of the merger. See Proposal 1: The Merger Fairness Opinion of Hovde Financial, Inc. below. It should be noted that this explanation of the reasoning of Commercial's Board of Directors and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under A Warning About Forward-Looking Statements on page 14.

Fairness Opinion of Hovde Financial, Inc.

On September 19, 2006, the Board of Directors of Commercial authorized the formalization of its retention of Hovde to provide its financial services to us including a potential sale of Commercial. Hovde has delivered to the Board of Directors of Commercial its opinion that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion dated January 22, 2007, the merger consideration to be paid to the shareholders of Commercial is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting Hovde's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by Commercial upon Hovde with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of Hovde, dated January 22, 2007, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached hereto as Appendix B. Commercial's shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

Hovde is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, Hovde has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. The Board of Directors of Commercial selected Hovde to act as its financial advisor based upon the firm's reputation and expertise in respect of financial institutions such as Commercial, including in transactions such as the merger.

Hovde received a fee from Commercial for performing a financial analysis of the merger and rendering a written opinion to the Board of Directors of Commercial as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger to the shareholders of Commercial. Commercial has agreed to pay Hovde fees upon the consummation of the merger equal to one and one-quarter percent of the final value of the transaction for its services as financial advisor in connection with the merger. Based upon a transaction value of $319.9 million, if the merger is consummated Commercial will pay Hovde approximately $4,000,000 for its services. In addition to its fees and regardless of whether the merger is consummated, Commercial has agreed to reimburse Hovde for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Commercial has also agreed to indemnify Hovde against any claims, losses and expenses arising out of the merger or Hovde's engagement that did not arise from Hovde's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Hovde's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Commercial as to how the shareholder should vote at the Special Meeting. The summary of the opinion of Hovde set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by Hovde in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain of these analyses were discussed in a presentation to the Board of Directors of Commercial by Hovde. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by Hovde in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by Hovde to the Board of Directors of Commercial, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by Hovde.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the Board of Directors of Commercial and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, Hovde made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Commercial and BancGroup. The analyses performed by Hovde are not necessarily indicative of actual value or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of Hovde's analysis of the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Commercial. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. Hovde's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which Commercial might engage. In addition, as described above, Hovde's opinion to the Board of Directors of Commercial was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Board of Directors of Commercial in making its determination to approve the Merger Agreement.

The opinion expressed by Hovde was based on market, economic and other relevant considerations as they existed and could be evaluated as of the date of the opinion. Events occurring after the date of issuance of the opinion, including changes affecting the securities markets, the results of operations or material changes in the financial condition of either Commercial or BancGroup could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing this opinion.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of Commercial and BancGroup and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

the Merger Agreement and all attachments thereto;

certain historical publicly available information concerning Commercial and BancGroup;

certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Commercial;

certain other information provided to Hovde by members of the executive management of Commercial and BancGroup for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of Commercial and BancGroup, including financial forecasts related to its business, earnings, assets and liabilities;

the historical market prices and trading volumes of BancGroup common stock;

the nature and terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that Hovde considered relevant; and the pro forma ownership of BancGroup common stock by the holders of Commercial common stock relative to the pro forma contribution of the Commercial's assets, liabilities, equity and earnings.

In addition, Hovde:

analyzed the pro forma impact of the merger on the combined company's earnings, consolidated equity capitalization and financial ratios;

took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations; and performed such other analyses and considered other factors as it deemed appropriate.

In rendering its opinion, Hovde assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information provided to it and relied upon the accuracy of the representations of the parties contained in the Merger Agreement. Hovde also assumed the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with Hovde by Commercial and BancGroup were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of executive management of Commercial and BancGroup as to the future financial performance of Commercial, BancGroup or the combined company, as the case may be. Hovde has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of Commercial.

Contribution Analysis. Hovde prepared a contribution analysis showing percentages of assets, net loans, deposits and equity at December 31, 2006 for Commercial and BancGroup, and the trailing twelve months and estimated calendar-year 2007 net income that would be contributed to the combined company on a pro-forma basis. These contribution percentages were compared to the approximately 7.18% (hypothetically assuming all Commercial common stock was to be converted entirely into BancGroup Common Stock) of the pro forma common shares outstanding that holders of Commercial common stock would own.

	Commercial (%)	BancGroup (%)
Assets	4.35	95.65

Deposits	4.97	95.03
Equity	4.20	95.80

Hovde calculated the medians of the following relevant transaction ratios in the Florida Merger Group, the Southeast Merger Group and the Nationwide Merger Group: the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company s book value; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company s tangible book value; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company s earnings for the twelve months preceding the announcement date of the transaction; and the tangible book value premium to core deposits. Hovde compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the merger, valuing the per share consideration including the special dividend that would be received pursuant to the Merger Agreement at $49.75 per diluted share of Commercial. In calculating the multiples for the merger, Hovde used Commercial's earnings for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006 and Commercial's book value, tangible book value and core deposits as of June 30, 2006. The results of this analysis are as follows:

	Offer Value to:			Ratio of Tangible Book Value Premium to Core Deposits
	Book Value (x)	Tangible Book Value (x)	12 months Preceding Earnings (x)	(%)
BancGroup	3.55	3.56	25.5	42.4
Florida Merger Group median	3.01	3.14	26.9	25.1
Southeast Merger Group median	2.98	3.22	22.8	26.4
Nationwide Merger Group median	2.55	2.98	20.1	29.9

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Hovde estimated the present value of all shares of the Commercial's common stock by utilizing Commercial's estimated future earnings stream. Hovde's assumptions of net income and dividends for the period 2007-2011 were based on Commercial's internal projections and historical averages. In all cases, the present value of these cash flows was calculated based on a range of discount rates of 12.0%, 13.0% and 14.0%. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Commercial's common stock.

Hovde derived the take-out value of Commercial's common stock using both the terminal value earnings multiple and book value approaches. In arriving at the terminal value of Commercial's earnings stream in 2011, Hovde assumed a terminal earnings value multiple at a range of 21.0x, 22.0x and 23.0x. Similarly, in arriving at the terminal value of Commercial's book value in 2011, Hovde assumed a terminal book value multiple at a range of 275.0%, 300.0% and 325.0%. The terminal values were then discounted, along with annual cash flows, to arrive at the present value for Commercial's common stock. These analyses and its underlying assumptions yielded a per share range of value for Commercial's common stock of approximately $34.95 to $41.06 with a midpoint of $37.90 based on the earnings approach and $34.32 to $43.12 with a midpoint of $38.55 based on the book value approach.

Comparable Company Analysis. Using publicly available information, Hovde compared the stock market valuation and operating characteristics of BancGroup on standalone basis with other Southeastern banks with assets between $5.0 billion and $50.0 billion (the Comparable Group). The Comparable Group consisted of the following 11 publicly traded institutions:

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Hovde determined that the merger consideration was fair from a financial point of view to the shareholders of Commercial.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Commercial

The Board of Directors of Commercial has determined that the Agreement is in the best interest of Commercial shareholders. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS OF COMMERCIAL VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF THE AGREEMENT.

BancGroup's Reasons for the Merger

The Board of Directors of BancGroup has unanimously approved the merger and the Agreement. The merger will allow BancGroup to expand its banking operations in Commercial's market area. As of December 31, 2006, BancGroup operated a commercial bank with 166 branches in Florida. The Board of Directors of BancGroup believes that the combination with Commercial is consistent with its current expansion strategy.

In approving the merger and the Agreement, the Board of Directors of BancGroup took into account: (i) the financial performance and condition of Commercial and Commercial Bank of Florida ( Commercial Bank ), including its capital and asset quality; (ii) similarities in the philosophies of BancGroup and Commercial, including the commitment of Commercial to delivering high quality personalized financial services to its customers; and (iii) the extensive knowledge of, and experience in, the Miami-Dade and Broward Counties, Florida, market area that has been demonstrated by the management of Commercial.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of the management and Boards of Directors of Commercial and Commercial Bank may be deemed to have certain interests in the merger in addition to their interest as shareholders of Commercial generally. The Board of Directors of Commercial was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in unanimously approving the Agreement.

Exercise and Cash-out of Options. As of the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, Commercial had outstanding options (the Commercial Options ) which entitle the holders thereof to acquire up to 424,759 shares of Commercial common stock. Each holder of a Commercial Option has either elected to exercise his or her options for Commercial common stock or elected to receive a cash payment for his or her Commercial Options, in a cashless exercise. The amount of such cash payment is equal to the aggregate of the number of shares of Commercial common stock subject to each Commercial Option multiplied by the difference of $49.00 and the per share exercise price of such Commercial Option, less any applicable withholding taxes. See Proposal 1: The Merger Treatment of Commercial Options.

Employees. Pursuant to existing employment agreements with Commercial and/or Commercial Bank of Florida, Joseph W. Armaly, Chairman and CEO, Bruce P. Steinberger, President and Secretary and Barbara E. Reed, Executive Vice President and CFO are expected to be paid $3,030,014, $1,177,291 and $450,000, respectively, at the completion of the merger as a result of the change in control of Commercial.

Joseph W. Armaly has entered into a consulting agreement with Colonial Bank that will become effective when and if the merger is completed. The agreement provides for a term of two years, and an annual base consideration of approximately $200,000. The agreement also provides that Mr. Armaly will not be considered an employee of Colonial Bank, but rather an independent contractor and outside consultant. The agreement also provides that Mr. Armaly may purchase the automobile currently provided to him by Commercial for $1.00, that reasonable out-of-pocket expenses will be reimbursed, and that Colonial will provide Mr. Armaly with office space and secretarial assistance. The consulting agreement also contains covenants prohibiting Mr. Armaly from soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees or competing against Colonial Bank during the term of the consulting agreement.

Steven Capellan has entered into an employment agreement with Colonial Bank that will become effective at the completion of the merger. This employment agreement provides for 18 months of employment at 115% of his current level of salary and at least 100% of his current bonus. The employment agreement also provides for a stock option grant of 7,500 shares of BancGroup's common stock and a signing bonus of 15% of Mr. Capellan's base salary. The employment agreement also contains covenants prohibiting Mr. Capellan from soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees or competing against Colonial Bank during the term of the employment agreement.

On the Effective Date, all employees of Commercial will, at BancGroup's option, either become employees of BancGroup or its subsidiaries or be entitled to severance benefits in accordance with Colonial Bank's severance policy. All employees of Commercial who become employees of BancGroup or its subsidiaries on the Effective Date will be entitled, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to participate in all benefit plans of BancGroup to the same extent as BancGroup's employees. Because BancGroup has frozen its defined benefit pension plan and new employees are not able to participate in it, Commercial employees will not be admitted into that plan.

Indemnification. Under the Agreement, BancGroup has agreed for a period of six years to indemnify the directors and executive officers of Commercial and its subsidiaries against certain claims and liabilities arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Date, to the extent that Commercial would have been authorized under Florida law, or under its Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, to indemnify such persons. BancGroup has also agreed to extend such indemnification to directors of Commercial Bank with respect to matters existing or occurring after the Effective Date during any extended term of service as a director of Commercial Bank. The foregoing indemnification is subject to the limitations imposed by 12 U.S.C. §1828(K) and 12 CFR Part 359 of the FDIC regulations.

Affiliate Agreements. Commercial's directors have entered into affiliate agreements with BancGroup regarding various issues associated with the merger. These agreements provide that the director will, among other things:

agree to vote his shares for the merger;

not distribute BancGroup common stock issued in connection with the merger except in accordance with certain rules of the SEC;
and support the business of Colonial Bank after the merger.

Additionally, Commercial's directors who are not also employees of Commercial agreed generally not to compete with Colonial Bank for a period of two years after the Effective Date.

Effective Date, Conversion of Commercial Common Stock

The Agreement provides for the merger of Commercial with and into BancGroup, with BancGroup to be the surviving corporation. Assuming all other conditions stated in the merger agreement have been or will be satisfied or waived as of the closing, the merger shall become effective as of the date and time the certificate of merger is accepted for filing by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. On the Effective Date, each share of Commercial common stock outstanding and held by the Commercial shareholders will be converted by operation of law and without any action by any holder thereof into either (i) 2.0214 shares of BancGroup common stock or (ii) $49.00 cash (the Merger Consideration). Accordingly, based upon the 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock outstanding as of the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, and assuming the exercise of no Commercial Options prior to the closing of the Merger, the number of shares of BancGroup common stock that may be issued in the Merger is expected to be approximately 6,288,355 shares, and the amount of cash that BancGroup is expected to pay in the Merger for the outstanding shares of Commercial's common stock is expected to be approximately $152,433,659.

No fractional shares of BancGroup common stock will be issued in connection with the Merger. Each shareholder of Commercial otherwise entitled to receive a fractional share of BancGroup common stock will receive instead a cash payment (without interest) equal to such fractional interest multiplied by $49.00.

The Agreement provides that if, prior to the Effective Date, BancGroup common stock is changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any recapitalization or reclassification, stock dividend, combination, stock split, or reverse stock split of the BancGroup common stock, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment will be made in the number of shares of BancGroup common stock into which the Commercial common stock will be converted in the Merger.

Election of Consideration

The Agreement allows each Commercial shareholder to choose how many shares of his or her Commercial common stock will be converted to BancGroup common stock and how many shares of his or her Commercial common stock will be converted to cash. You may elect to receive only stock, only cash or some combination of both. If you do not make an election by the election deadline, then you will be deemed to have elected to receive 1.0107 shares of BancGroup common stock and $24.50 in cash for each of your shares of Commercial common stock. The board of directors of Commercial believes that allowing this choice grants Commercial shareholders the opportunity to receive the form of consideration that is best suited to each shareholder's needs. If a Commercial shareholder elects to receive only cash as his or her consideration, and all Commercial shareholders opt in the aggregate to receive stock in exchange for at least 50% of Commercial's outstanding shares, then such Commercial shareholder will receive $49.00 cash for each share of Commercial common stock that such shareholder owns. Any Commercial shareholder who receives cash in the merger should understand that any gain realized on the disposition of his or her Commercial common stock will be recognized to the extent of the cash received (see Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences). If a Commercial shareholder elects to receive only BancGroup common stock as his or her consideration, and all Commercial shareholders opt in the aggregate to receive cash in exchange for at least 50% of Commercial's outstanding shares, then such Commercial shareholder will receive 2.0214 shares of BancGroup common stock for each share of Commercial common stock that such shareholder owns. No income will be recognized by a Commercial shareholder if such shareholder receives BancGroup common stock and no cash as his or her merger consideration (although income would be recognized in connection with the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share).

You will be sent an election form in a few days. You should follow the instructions on the election form or the instructions given to you by your broker to elect the number of shares of Commercial common stock that you desire to be converted into cash and the number of shares of your Commercial common stock that you desire to be converted into BancGroup common stock. Enclosed with your Election Form will be a return envelope addressed to BancGroup's Transfer Agent, Computershare Investor Services LLC (the Exchange Agent). You should complete your election form and mail it and your Commercial stock certificate(s) to the Exchange Agent in the envelope provided. In the event an election form is received by the Exchange Agent without Commercial stock certificates, it will be returned.

The Agreement places a maximum amount on BancGroup's obligation to pay cash and common stock for outstanding shares of Commercial common stock. Assuming there are 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock outstanding at the completion of the merger, the maximum cash amount would be $152,433,659 and the maximum common stock issued would be 6,288,355 shares. If Commercial shareholders elect to receive more cash than the maximum cash amount, then the Commercial shareholders electing to receive cash would have their cash consideration reduced and their common stock consideration increased on a pro rata basis. Alternatively, if Commercial shareholders elect to receive more common stock than the maximum stock amount, then the Commercial shareholders electing to receive common stock would have their common stock consideration reduced and their cash consideration increased on a pro rata basis.

As an example, if there are 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock outstanding at the time of the completion of the merger (in which case BancGroup is not obligated to pay more than $152,433,659 of the total Merger Consideration in cash), and the Commercial shareholders make an aggregate cash election of $200,000,000, then that would be $47,566,341 more than BancGroup is required to pay in cash, and would represent approximately 970,742 shares of Commercial common stock. The electing shareholders who had elected cash would have their cash portion of the Merger Consideration reduced on a pro rata basis and would instead receive an aggregate of 1,962,257 shares of BancGroup common stock. On an individual basis, each electing shareholder who had elected some portion of his or her Merger Consideration to be paid in cash would in fact receive cash for 76.2% of the Commercial common stock that he or she had originally elected to be paid in cash and the remaining 23.8% of Commercial common stock that the electing shareholder had requested cash for would be paid in BancGroup common stock. Thus, if a Commercial shareholder who owned 10,000 shares of Commercial common stock had elected to receive cash for 1,000 shares and BancGroup common stock for 9,000 shares, that shareholder would actually receive cash of $37,338 for 762 shares of Commercial common stock and 18,673 shares of BancGroup common stock (plus $16.80 for the cash value of a fractional share) for 9,238 shares of Commercial common stock.

The deadline to make an election is 5:00 p.m. on May 18, 2007. If the Exchange Agent has not received your completed election form, including your Commercial certificates, by the deadline, then each share of your Commercial common stock will be converted into $24.50 in cash and 1.0107 shares of BancGroup common stock (subject to pro-ration in the case of an over election of cash or stock consideration). You may change your election at any time prior to the election deadline, but once the election deadline has passed, all elections are final. You may, at any time prior to the election deadline, revoke your election by providing written notice to the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent's address and phone number are Computershare Investor Services LLC, P.O. Box 43078, Providence, RI 02940-3078 and (800) 485-1893.

If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a person other than the person named on the Commercial common stock certificate, no payment can be made on that stock certificate unless it is properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such payment shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other similar taxes required as a result of such payment to a person other than the registered holder of such Commercial stock certificate, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable. The Exchange Agent (or, subsequent to the six month anniversary of the completion of the merger, BancGroup) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration (including cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup common stock) otherwise payable in connection with the merger to any holder of Commercial common stock such amounts as the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, is required to deduct and withhold under the Internal Revenue Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law, with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent the amounts are so withheld by the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes as having been paid to the holder of shares of Commercial common stock in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be.

The Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall have the right to make all determinations, not inconsistent with the terms of the Agreement, governing (A) the validity of the election form and compliance by any Commercial shareholder with the election procedures, (B) the manner and extent to which elections are to be taken into account in making the determinations prescribed by the Agreement, (C) the issuance and delivery of BancGroup stock certificates into which shares of Commercial common stock are converted in the merger and (D) the method of payment of cash for shares of Commercial common stock converted into the right to receive cash and cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup common stock where the holder of the applicable Commercial stock certificate has no right to receive whole shares of BancGroup common stock.

Surrender of Commercial Common Stock Certificates

On the Effective Date and subject to the conditions described at Conditions to Consummation of the Merger, Commercial shareholders will automatically, and without further action by such shareholders or by BancGroup, become owners of BancGroup common stock and/or be entitled to receive a cash payment, as described herein. Outstanding certificates representing shares of the Commercial common stock will represent shares of BancGroup common stock or rights to a cash payment. Thereafter, upon surrender of the certificates formerly representing shares of Commercial common stock, the holders will be entitled to receive certificates for the BancGroup common stock and/or a cash payment. Dividends on the shares of BancGroup common stock will accumulate without interest and will not be distributed to any former shareholder of Commercial unless and until such shareholder surrenders for cancellation his certificate for Commercial common stock. No interest will be paid on any cash payment owed as consideration for the merger. Computershare Financial Services LLC, transfer agent for BancGroup common stock, will act as the Exchange Agent with respect to the shares of Commercial common stock surrendered in connection with the merger. The Exchange Agent will mail a detailed explanation of these arrangements to Commercial shareholders promptly following the Effective Date. Do not send your stock certificates to the Exchange Agent unless you include an Election Form or until such notice is received.

Treatment of Commercial Options

Vesting of Options. As of the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, Commercial directors, executive officers and employees held outstanding options which entitle the holders thereof to acquire up to 424,759 shares of Commercial common stock ( Commercial Options ).

Exercise of Options. Prior to the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, holders who owned Commercial options granted under the Commercial Bankshares, Inc. 1994 Performance Stock Option Plan and 2004 Employee Stock Option Plans (collectively Employee Stock Option Plans ) were permitted to exercise their vested and unvested options for Commercial common stock through March 14, 2007.

Holders of Commercial Options granted under the Employee Stock Option Plans were given the alternative to exercise his or her Commercial Options for the right to receive a cash payment on the Effective Date. The amount of such cash payment is equal to the number of shares of Commercial common stock subject to each Commercial Option multiplied by the difference of $49.00 and the per share exercise price of such Commercial Option, less any applicable withholding taxes. Each outside director and Joseph W. Armaly have agreed to elect the foregoing cashless exercise alternative with respect to all of their Options. Stock Options expiring on or about June 1, 2007 may be exercised by any holder thereof provided the merger has not closed prior to May 25, 2007.

The Commercial Options are issuable pursuant to the Commercial Bankshares, Inc. 1994 Performance Stock Option Plan and 2004 Employee Stock Option Plan and the Commercial Bankshares, Inc. 1994 and 2004 Outside Director Stock Option Plans. Commercial Options are not transferable except under the laws of descent and distribution.

Substantially all of the Commercial Options held by employees are incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon exercise of such an option, ordinary income would not normally result to the optionee even if the exercise price of the options is lower than the fair market value of the stock subject to the option at the date of exercise provided certain timing requirements are met. However, income could be recognized for alternative minimum tax purposes upon an exercise. No income for regular federal income tax purposes would be realized until the holder actually sells the stock obtained through the exercise of incentive stock options (or exchanges it for cash, as described above) as long as such stock is held long enough. The foregoing statements concerning federal income tax treatment are necessarily general and may not apply in a particular instance. Holders of Commercial options should contact their own professional tax advisors for advice concerning their particular tax situation.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

This document was not intended or written to be used, and it cannot be used by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding tax penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer. This document was written to support the promotion or marketing of the transaction or matters addressed in it. You should seek advice based on your particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor, not associated in any way with the transaction.

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). The obligation of each of Commercial and BancGroup to consummate the merger is conditioned on the receipt of an opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, BancGroup's tax advisor, to the effect that the merger will constitute such a reorganization. BancGroup has received this opinion. In delivering its opinion, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP received and relied upon certain representations contained in certificates of officers of BancGroup and Commercial and certain other information, data, documentation and other materials as it deemed necessary. The tax opinion is based upon customary assumptions contained therein, including the assumption that consideration other than BancGroup common stock (including cash in lieu of fractional shares and cash paid to Commercial shareholders that receive cash in the merger) will represent no more than 60% of the total fair market value of all consideration paid to Commercial shareholders in the transaction.

Neither Commercial nor BancGroup intends to seek a ruling from the IRS as to the federal income tax consequences of the merger. Shareholders of Commercial should be aware that the opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will not be binding on the IRS or the courts. Shareholders of Commercial also should be aware that some of the tax consequences of the merger are governed by provisions of the Code as to which there are no final regulations and little or no judicial or administrative guidance. There can be no assurance that future legislation, administrative rulings, or court decisions will not adversely affect the accuracy of the statements contained herein.

The tax opinion states that, provided the assumptions therein are satisfied, the merger will constitute a reorganization as defined in Section 368(a) of the Code, and the following federal income tax consequences will result to Commercial shareholders who exchange their shares of Commercial common stock for shares of BancGroup common stock, cash or a combination:

- (i) No gain or loss will be recognized by BancGroup or Commercial as a result of the Merger;
- (ii) The Commercial shareholders will not recognize any gain or loss related to BancGroup common stock received in exchange for their shares of Commercial common stock. To the extent that both cash and stock are received by a shareholder in the merger, gain (but not loss) will be recognized to the extent of the cash received.
- (iii) The tax basis of the BancGroup common stock received by each Commercial shareholder will equal the tax basis of such shareholder's Commercial shares surrendered in the merger, decreased by the fair market value of the consideration (other than BancGroup common stock) and the amount of cash received by such Commercial shareholder in the merger and increased by (i) the amount of gain, if any, recognized by such Commercial shareholder on the receipt of such other consideration and (ii) the amount, if any, which is treated as a dividend;
- (iv) The holding period of the BancGroup common stock received by the Commercial shareholders will include the holding period during which the Commercial common stock surrendered in exchange

therefor was held, provided that such stock is held as a capital asset in the hands of the Commercial shareholders on the date of the exchange under Internal Revenue Code Section 1223(1); and

(v) The cash received by a Commercial shareholder in lieu of a fractional share interest of BancGroup common stock will be treated as having been received as a distribution in full payment in exchange for the fractional share interest of BancGroup stock which he or she would otherwise be entitled to receive and will qualify for either capital gain or loss treatment, provided that such stock is held as a capital asset in the hands of the Commercial shareholder on the date of the exchange under Internal Revenue Code Section 1223(1).

Each Commercial shareholder will be required to report on such shareholder's federal income tax return for the fiscal year of such shareholder in which the merger occurs that such shareholder has received BancGroup common stock in a reorganization.

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION IS INTENDED ONLY AS A SUMMARY OF MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF COMMERCIAL, TO COMMERCIAL AND TO BANCGROUP AND DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF ALL POTENTIAL TAX EFFECTS OF THE MERGER. THE DISCUSSION DOES NOT ADDRESS THE TAX CONSEQUENCES THAT MAY BE RELEVANT TO A PARTICULAR SHAREHOLDER SUBJECT TO SPECIAL TREATMENT UNDER CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS, SUCH AS DEALERS IN SECURITIES, BANKS, INSURANCE COMPANIES, TAX-EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS, NON-UNITED STATES PERSONS, SHAREHOLDERS WHO DO NOT HOLD THEIR SHARES OF COMMERCIAL COMMON STOCK AS CAPITAL ASSETS WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 1221 OF THE CODE, AND SHAREHOLDERS WHO ACQUIRED THEIR SHARES OF COMMERCIAL COMMON STOCK PURSUANT TO THE EXERCISE OF OPTIONS OR OTHERWISE AS COMPENSATION, NOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCALITY OR FOREIGN JURISDICTION; MOREOVER, THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO HOLDERS OF COMMERCIAL OPTIONS ARE NOT DISCUSSED. THE DISCUSSION IS BASED UPON THE CODE, TREASURY REGULATIONS THEREUNDER AND ADMINISTRATIVE RULINGS AND COURT DECISIONS AS OF THE DATE HEREOF. ALL OF THE FOREGOING IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE, AND ANY SUCH CHANGE COULD AFFECT THE CONTINUING VALIDITY OF THIS DISCUSSION. COMMERCIAL SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS CONCERNING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THEM.

Other Possible Consequences

If the merger is consummated, the shareholders of Commercial, a Florida corporation, will become shareholders of BancGroup, a Delaware business corporation. For a discussion of the differences, if any, in the rights, preferences, and privileges attaching to Commercial common stock as compared with BancGroup common stock, see Comparative Rights of Shareholders.

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger

The parties' respective obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver, to the extent permitted by law) of various conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

The obligations of Commercial and BancGroup to consummate the merger are conditioned upon, among other things, (i) the approval of the Merger Agreement by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Commercial common stock; (ii) the notification to, or approval of the merger by, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation; (iii) the absence of pending or threatened litigation with a view to restraining or prohibiting consummation of the merger or to obtain divestiture, rescission or damages in connection with the merger; (iv) the absence of any investigation by any governmental agency which might result in any such proceeding; and

(v) consummation of the merger no later than October 31, 2007. The Merger Agreement permits the parties to waive, in writing, conditions for the consummation of the merger other than those required by law.

The obligation of Commercial to consummate the merger is further subject to several other conditions, including: (i) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition or affairs of BancGroup; (ii) the shares of BancGroup common stock to be issued under the Merger Agreement shall have been approved for listing on the NYSE; and (iii) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of BancGroup contained in the Merger Agreement and the performance by BancGroup of all of its covenants and agreements under the Merger Agreement.

The obligation of BancGroup to consummate the merger is subject to several other conditions, including: (i) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition or affairs of Commercial; (ii) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of Commercial contained in the Merger Agreement, (iii) the performance by Commercial of all of its covenants and agreements under the Merger Agreement, including certain restrictions on Commercial's conduct of its business; and (iv) the receipt of the applicable consents to the merger.

It is anticipated that the foregoing conditions, as well as certain other conditions contained in the Merger Agreement, such as the receipt of certificates of officers of each party as to compliance with the Merger Agreement and satisfaction of each party of all representations, warranties and covenants, will either be satisfied or waived by the parties. The Merger Agreement provides that each of Commercial and BancGroup may waive all conditions to its respective obligation to consummate the merger, other than the receipt of the requisite approvals of regulatory authorities and approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of Commercial. In making any decision regarding a waiver of one or more conditions to consummation of the merger or an amendment of the Merger Agreement, the Boards of Directors of Commercial and BancGroup would be subject to the fiduciary duty standards imposed upon such boards by relevant law that would require such boards to act in the best interests of their respective shareholders.

Amendment or Termination of Merger Agreement

To the extent permitted by law, the Merger Agreement may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by each of the parties upon the approval of the Boards of Directors of each of the parties. However, after approval of the Merger Agreement by the holders of Commercial common stock, no amendment changing the amount or kind of consideration to be received by Commercial shareholders or changing any other terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement if such change would materially and adversely affect Commercial or the holders of Commercial common stock may be made without the further approval of such shareholders. The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to or on the Effective Date, whether before or after approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of Commercial, by the mutual consent of the respective Boards of Directors of Commercial and BancGroup or by the Board of Directors of either BancGroup or Commercial under certain circumstances including, but not limited to: (i) a material breach which cannot or has not been cured within 30 days of notice of such breach being given by the non-breaching party, (ii) failure to consummate the transactions contemplated under the Merger Agreement by October 31, 2007, provided that such failure to consummate is not caused by any breach of the Merger Agreement by the party electing to terminate and (iii) if Commercial enters into a binding agreement with any third party to merge with, or sell control to, that third party. In the latter event, BancGroup will have the right to receive a payment of $12,500,000 (the Termination Fee) from Commercial or its acquirer.

Commitment with Respect to Other Offers

Until the earlier of the Effective Date or, subject to certain limitations, the termination of the Agreement, neither Commercial nor any of its directors or officers (or any person representing any of the foregoing) may directly or indirectly solicit inquiries or proposals with respect to, furnish any information relating to or participate in any negotiations or discussions concerning, any acquisition or purchase of all or of a substantial portion of the assets of, or of a substantial equity interest in, Commercial or any business combination involving Commercial (collectively, an Acquisition Proposal ) other than as contemplated by the Agreement. Commercial is required to notify BancGroup promptly if any such inquiries or proposals are received by Commercial, if any such information is requested from Commercial, or if any such negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated with Commercial. Commercial is required to instruct its officers, directors, agents or affiliates or their subsidiaries to refrain from doing any of the above. Commercial may communicate information about an Acquisition Proposal to its shareholders if and to the extent Commercial's board of directors, after consultation with counsel determines that it is required to do so in order to comply with its legal obligations.

Table of Contents

If Commercial enters into a letter of intent or a definitive agreement to be acquired by any party other than BancGroup prior to the closing of the merger or the termination of the Agreement, or, under certain circumstances, if Commercial is acquired by a party other than BancGroup within twelve months after the termination of the Agreement, then BancGroup shall be entitled to receive payment of the Termination Fee. Such payment shall compensate BancGroup for its direct and indirect costs and expenses associated with pursuing the merger and BancGroup's loss as a result of the failure to complete the merger. The Termination Fee may also have the effect of increasing the likelihood that the Merger will be consummated by making it more difficult and expensive for any third party to acquire control of Commercial while BancGroup is seeking to consummate the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals

Section 8.2 of the Agreement provides that as a condition to closing, approvals, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to BancGroup and Commercial, shall have been entered by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and other appropriate bank regulatory agencies granting the authority necessary for the consummation of the holding company merger and the possible merger of Commercial Bank with and into Colonial Bank (the Bank Merger ), if such Bank Merger is desired by BancGroup.

An application must be filed with the Federal Reserve pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the BHCA ) and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto for its prior approval of BancGroup's merger with Commercial. In addition, approval of BancGroup's acquisition of Commercial Bank as a result of the holding company merger must be obtained from the Florida Office of Financial Regulation (the Florida Office ). These applications were filed on February 28, 2007. On April 6, 2007, the Federal Reserve approved BancGroup's Section 3 application.

In order to be in a position to consummate the Bank Merger should BancGroup decide to effect it, the prior approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the OCC ) must be obtained and notice of the Bank Merger must be filed with the Florida Office. With respect to the Bank Merger, an application was filed with the OCC on March 1, 2007, and a notification was filed with the Florida Office on March 7, 2007. Additional information was filed with the OCC on March 15, 2007.

Federal Reserve Approval. Pursuant to Section 3 of the BHCA, and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the approval of the Federal Reserve must be obtained prior to BancGroup merging with Commercial. In evaluating an application filed pursuant to Section 3, the Federal Reserve will consider whether the performance of the activities can reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public (such as greater convenience, increased competition and gains in efficiency) that outweigh possible adverse effects (such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition and unsound banking practices). The Federal Reserve will also take into consideration, among other factors, the financial condition and managerial resources of BancGroup, its subsidiaries, Commercial and Commercial Bank. The Federal Reserve will also consider the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the compliance records of Colonial Bank and Commercial Bank under the Community Reinvestment Act.

In addition, the Federal Reserve is expressly permitted to approve applications under Section 3 of the BHCA for a bank holding company that is adequately capitalized and adequately managed to acquire control of a bank located in a state other than the home state of such bank holding company (an Interstate Acquisition ), without regard to whether such transaction is prohibited under the law of any state.

Table of Contents

Under certain circumstances, the Federal Reserve is prohibited from approving an Interstate Acquisition. For example, it may not approve an Interstate Acquisition if the acquiring bank holding company controls, or upon consummation of the acquisition, would control, more than 10% of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the United States. Subject to certain exceptions, the Federal Reserve may not approve an application pertaining to an Interstate Acquisition if, among other things, the bank holding company, upon consummation of the acquisition, would control 30% or more of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the state where the target bank is located.

The Federal Reserve's regulations provide for the publication of notice and public comment on the application and authorize the Federal Reserve to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approval required for consummation of the transaction.

Florida Office Approval. The Florida Office must approve the change of control of Commercial Bank which would be effected by the holding company merger. Pursuant to Section 658.25 of the Florida Banking Code, the Florida Office shall issue a Certificate of Approval for a change in control of a Florida state bank only after it has made an investigation and has determined that the proposed new owner of a controlling interest of such Florida state bank is qualified by reputation, character, experience, and financial responsibility to control and operate the bank in a legal and proper manner and that the interest of the other shareholders, if any, and the depositors and creditors of the bank and the interest of the public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed change in ownership, controlling interest or management.

OCC Approval. Pursuant to Section 18(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (the Bank Merger Act) and OCC regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the OCC's prior approval of the Bank Merger must be obtained in order for BancGroup to directly merge Commercial Bank with and into Colonial Bank. The OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if it would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States. In addition, the OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if its effect, in any section of the country, would be substantially to lessen competition, or to tend to create a monopoly, or which in any other manner would be in restraint of trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the Bank Merger are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the Bank Merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served. The OCC is required to take into consideration the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions, and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The OCC will consider the compliance records of Colonial Bank and Commercial Bank under the Community Reinvestment Act and the effectiveness of the institutions in combating money laundering activities.

Because the Bank Merger is an interstate bank merger, certain additional requirements are applicable. For example, the OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if the bank resulting from the Bank Merger, including all insured depository institutions that are affiliates of such resulting bank, upon consummation of the transaction, would control more than 10% of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the United States. The OCC is also prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if either party to the Bank Merger has a branch in any state in which any other bank involved in the Bank Merger has a branch, and the resulting bank, upon consummation of the Bank Merger, would control 30% or more of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in any such state. Finally, the OCC may approve an interstate bank merger only if each bank involved in the transaction is adequately capitalized as of the date the application is filed, and the OCC determines that the resulting bank will continue to be adequately capitalized and adequately managed upon consummation of the Bank Merger.

The Bank Merger Act and the OCC regulations promulgated pursuant thereto provide for the publication of notice and public comment on the application and authorize the OCC to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approval required for consummation of the Bank Merger. The Bank Merger Act imposes a waiting period which prohibits consummation of the Bank Merger, in ordinary circumstances, for a period ranging from 15 to 30 days following the OCC's approval of the Bank Merger. During such period, the United States Department of Justice, should it object to the Bank Merger for antitrust reasons, may challenge the consummation of the Bank Merger.

The Agreement provides that the obligation of each of BancGroup and Commercial to consummate the transaction is conditioned upon the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals. There can be no assurance that the applications necessary for BancGroup to consummate the transaction will be approved, and, if such approvals are received, that such approvals will not be conditioned upon terms and conditions that would cause the parties to abandon the transaction.

Any approval received from bank regulatory agencies reflects only their view that the transaction does not contravene applicable competitive standards imposed by law, and that the transaction is consistent with regulatory policies relating to safety and soundness. THE APPROVAL OF THE BANK REGULATORY AGENCIES IS NOT AN ENDORSEMENT OR RECOMMENDATION OF THE TRANSACTION.

BancGroup is not aware of any governmental approvals or actions that may be required for consummation of the transaction except for the approvals described above. Should any such approval or action be required, it is presently contemplated that such approval or action would be sought.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

The Merger Agreement contains certain restrictions on the conduct of the business of Commercial pending consummation of the merger. The Merger Agreement prohibits Commercial from taking, without the prior written consent of BancGroup, any of the following actions, prior to the Effective Date, subject to certain limited exceptions previously agreed to by BancGroup and Commercial:

- (i) Issuing, delivering or agreeing to issue or deliver any stock, bonds or other corporate securities (whether authorized and unissued or held in the treasury), except shares of Commercial common stock issued upon the exercise of Commercial Options and shares issued as director's qualifying shares;
- (ii) Borrowing or agreeing to borrow any funds or incurring or becoming subject to, any liability (absolute or contingent) except borrowings, obligations and liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice;
- (iii) Paying any material obligation or liability (absolute or contingent) other than current liabilities reflected in or shown on the most recent balance sheet and current liabilities incurred since that date in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice;
- (iv) Declaring or making or agreeing to declare or make, any payment of dividends or distributions of any assets of any kind whatsoever to shareholders, or purchasing or redeeming or agreeing to purchase or redeem, any of its outstanding securities, provided that Commercial may continue to make its normal quarterly cash dividends of no more than $0.21 per share at times consistent with past practice and accelerate the vesting of Commercial Options;
- (v) Except in the ordinary course of business or as requested by BancGroup, selling or transferring or agreeing to sell or transfer, any of its assets, property or rights or canceling, or agreeing to cancel, any debts or claims;
- (vi) Except in the ordinary course of business, entering or agreeing to enter into any agreement or arrangement granting any preferential rights to purchase any of its assets, property or rights or requiring the consent of any party to the transfer and assignment of any of its assets, property or rights;
- (vii) Waiving any rights of value which in the aggregate are material considering the business as a whole;

(viii) Except in the ordinary course of business, making or permitting any amendment or termination of any contract, agreement or license to which it is a party if such amendment or termination is material considering its business as a whole;

(ix) Except in accordance with past practice, making any accrual or arrangement for or payment of bonuses or special compensation of any kind or any severance or termination pay to any present or former officer or employee;

(x) Except in accordance with past practice, increasing the rate of compensation payable to or to become payable to any of its officers or employees or making any material increase in any profit-sharing, bonus, deferred compensation, savings, insurance, pension, retirement or other employee benefit plan, payment or arrangement made to, for or with any of its officers or employees;

(xi) Failing to operate its business in the ordinary course in a manner intended so as to preserve its business intact and intended to preserve the goodwill of its customers and others with whom it has business relations;

(xii) Entering into any other material transaction other than in the ordinary course of business or as requested by BancGroup; and (xiii) Agreeing in writing, or otherwise, to take any action described in clauses (i) through (xii) above.

The Merger Agreement provides that, prior to the Effective Date, Commercial will use its commercially reasonable efforts so that no director or officer of Commercial or any of its subsidiaries shall, directly or indirectly, own, manage, operate, join, control, be employed by or participate in the ownership, proposed ownership, management, operation or control of or be connected in any manner with, any business, corporation or partnership which is competitive to the business of Commercial or its subsidiaries.

The Merger Agreement also provides that: (i) at the request of BancGroup, Commercial will consult with BancGroup and advise BancGroup in advance of all loan requests outside the ordinary course of business or in excess of $1,000,000 (excluding renewals) that are not single-family residential loan requests; and (ii) Commercial will consult with BancGroup on a reasonable basis to coordinate various business issues.

Indemnification

BancGroup has agreed to indemnify for six years present and former directors and officers of Commercial and Commercial Bank against liabilities arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Date to the maximum extent allowed under the Florida Business Corporation Act, Bylaws of Commercial and pursuant to any existing indemnification agreements. BancGroup has also agreed to extend such indemnification to directors of Commercial Bank with respect to matters existing or occurring after the Effective Date during any extended term of service as a director of Commercial Bank. The foregoing indemnification is also subject to the limitations imposed by 12 U.S.C. §1828(K) and 12 CFR Part 359 of the FDIC regulations.

Appraisal Rights

Commercial is a Florida corporation, and under Florida law Commercial shareholders are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Merger. Pursuant to Section 607.1302 of the Florida Business Corporation Act, appraisal rights are not available to holders of shares of any class that are designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers (as is Commercial common stock) where the shareholders are not required by the terms of the Merger to accept in exchange for their shares anything other than (a) cash, or (b) shares of stock of a corporation listed on a national securities exchange (as is BancGroup common stock). Because the terms of the Merger Agreement and the circumstances of the companies satisfy these conditions, rights of appraisal are not available in connection with the Merger.

Delisting and Deregistration of Commercial Common Stock after the Merger

When the Merger is completed, the Commercial common stock will be delisted from The Nasdaq National Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Resale of BancGroup Common Stock Issued in the Merger

The issuance of the shares of BancGroup common stock pursuant to the Merger (including any shares to be issued pursuant to Commercial Options) has been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act). As a result, shareholders of Commercial who are not affiliates of Commercial (as such term is defined under the Securities Act) may resell, without restriction, all shares of BancGroup common stock which they receive in connection with the Merger. Under the Securities Act, only affiliates of Commercial are subject to restrictions on the resale of the BancGroup common stock which they receive in the Merger.

The BancGroup common stock received by affiliates of Commercial (directors and executive officers) who do not also become affiliates of BancGroup after the consummation of the Merger may not be sold except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering such shares or in compliance with Rule 145 under the Securities Act or another applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Generally, Rule 145 permits BancGroup common stock held by such shareholders to be sold in accordance with certain provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. In general, these provisions of Rule 144 permit a person to sell on the open market in brokers or certain other transactions within any three-month period a number of shares that does not exceed the greater of 1% of the then outstanding shares of BancGroup common stock or the average weekly trading volume in BancGroup common stock reported on the NYSE during the four calendar weeks preceding such sale. Sales under Rule 144 are also subject to the availability of current public information about BancGroup. The restrictions on sales will cease to apply under most circumstances once the former Commercial affiliate has held the BancGroup common stock for at least one year. BancGroup common stock held by affiliates of Commercial who become affiliates of BancGroup, if any, will be subject to additional restrictions on the ability of such persons to resell such shares.

Commercial has provided BancGroup with the identity of those persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Commercial. Commercial has obtained from each such person a written undertaking to the effect that no sale or transfer will be made of any shares of BancGroup common stock by such person except pursuant to Rule 145 or pursuant to an effective registration statement or an exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Accounting Treatment

BancGroup will account for the Merger as a purchase transaction in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The purchase price will be assigned to the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, with any amounts in excess thereof being assigned to goodwill. The valuation of intangibles, if any, will be made as of the Effective Date of the Merger. Qualifying intangibles, such as core deposit intangibles, will be amortized by charges to future earnings over their expected useful lives. The goodwill will be recognized and evaluated for impairment on an annual basis, or if circumstances arise in which it is more likely than not the fair value of the related reporting unit has been reduced. If such goodwill were to be deemed impaired, such impairment would be measured and any such amount would be charged against current earnings.

The following statements with respect to BancGroup common stock, preferred stock and preference stock are brief summaries of material provisions of Delaware law, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the BancGroup Certificate), as amended, and Bylaws of BancGroup, do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the foregoing.

BancGroup Common Stock

Dividends. Subject to the rights of holders of preferred stock and/or preference stock, if any, to receive certain dividends prior to the declaration of dividends on shares of BancGroup common stock, when and as dividends, payable in cash, stock or other property, are declared by the BancGroup Board of Directors, the holders of BancGroup common stock are entitled to share ratably in such dividends.

Voting Rights. Each holder of BancGroup common stock has one vote for each share held on matters presented for consideration by the shareholders.

Preemptive Rights. The holders of BancGroup common stock have no preemptive rights to acquire any additional shares of BancGroup.

Issuance of Stock. The BancGroup Certificate authorizes the Board of Directors of BancGroup to issue authorized shares of BancGroup common stock without shareholder approval. However, BancGroup's common stock is listed on the NYSE, which requires shareholder approval of the issuance of additional shares of BancGroup common stock under certain circumstances.

Liquidation Rights. In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of BancGroup, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of BancGroup common stock will be entitled to share ratably in any of its assets or funds that are available for distribution to its shareholders after the satisfaction of its liabilities (or after adequate provision is made therefor) and after preferences of any outstanding preferred stock and/or preference stock.

Preferred Stock

The preferred stock may be issued from time to time as a class without series, or if so determined by the Board of Directors of BancGroup, either in whole or in part in one or more series. The voting rights, and such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, if any, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, including, but not limited to, the dividend rights, conversion rights, redemption rights and liquidation preferences, if any, of any wholly unissued series of preferred stock (or of the entire class of preferred stock if none of such shares has been issued), the number of shares constituting any such series and the terms and conditions of the issue thereof may be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors of BancGroup. Preferred stock may have a preference over the BancGroup common stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation or winding-up of BancGroup and such other preferences as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of BancGroup. The preferred stock is available for possible financing, acquisition transactions, capital management and other general purposes, but BancGroup has undertaken not to use the preferred stock as an anti-takeover device.

Preference Stock

The preference stock may be issued from time to time as a class without series, or if so determined by the Board of Directors of BancGroup, either in whole or in part in one or more series. The voting rights, and such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, if any, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, including, but not limited to, the dividend rights, conversion rights, redemption rights and liquidation preferences, if any, of any wholly unissued series of preference stock (or of the entire class of preference stock if none of such shares has been issued), the number of shares constituting any such series and the terms and conditions of the issue thereof may be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors of BancGroup. Preference stock may have a preference over the BancGroup common stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation or winding-up of BancGroup and such other preferences as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of BancGroup. The preference stock is available for possible financing, acquisition transactions, capital management and other general purposes, including being used as an anti-takeover device.

BancGroup Debt

In connection with the ASB Bancshares, Inc. acquisition on February 5, 1998, BancGroup issued $7,725,000 of variable rate subordinated debentures due February 5, 2008 ( 1998 Debentures ). These variable rate subordinated debentures bear interest equal to the New York Prime Rate minus 1% (but in no event less than 7% per annum).

On March 15, 1999, Colonial Bank issued $100 million of subordinated notes, due March 15, 2009, of which $56.7 million was outstanding at December 31, 2006. The notes qualify as Tier II capital, bear interest at 8.00% and are not subject to redemption prior to maturity.

On May 23, 2001, Colonial Bank issued $150 million in 9.375% subordinated notes due June 1, 2011, of which $56.8 million was outstanding at December 31, 2006. This debt qualifies as Tier II capital. In connection with this issuance, Colonial Bank executed an interest rate swap whereby Colonial Bank will receive a fixed rate and pay a floating rate, effectively converting the fixed rate notes to floating. The result of this interest rate swap created an effective floating rate of 3-month LIBOR plus 3.2775%.

Effective December 7, 2005, Colonial Bank issued $125 million in new subordinated notes and exchanged $43.3 million of the March 1999 subordinated notes and $93.2 million of the May 2001 subordinated notes for new subordinated notes. The new notes are due December 1, 2015 and bear interest at 6.375%. Concurrent with this exchange, Colonial Bank partially terminated the interest rate swaps on the original subordinated notes in an amount equal to the principal value of the notes exchanged. Colonial Bank executed four interest rate swaps effectively converting the fixed rate on the new notes to an effective floating rate of 3-month LIBOR plus 1.3771%.

On January 29, 1997, BancGroup issued, through a special purpose trust, $70 million of trust preferred securities, representing $72 million in junior subordinated debt, that qualified as Tier I capital. The securities bore interest at 8.92% and were subject to redemption by BancGroup, in whole or in part, at any time on or after January 29, 2007 until maturity in January 2027. On February 2, 2007 BancGroup redeemed these trust preferred securities.

On March 21, 2002, BancGroup issued, through a special purpose trust, $100 million of trust preferred securities, representing $103 million in junior subordinated debt, that qualify as Tier I capital. The securities bear interest at 8.32% and are subject to redemption by BancGroup, in whole or in part, at any time on or after April 1, 2007 until maturity in April 2032.

On September 16, 2003, BancGroup issued, through a special purpose trust, $100 million of trust preferred securities, representing $103 million in junior subordinated debt, that qualify as Tier I capital. The securities bear interest at 7.875% and are subject to redemption by BancGroup, in whole or in part, at any time on or after October 1, 2008 until maturity in October 2033.

In May 2004, BancGroup added $15 million in trust preferred securities, representing $15 million in junior subordinated debt, as part of the acquisition of P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc. These securities qualify as Tier I capital and bear interest at average rates of 3-month LIBOR plus 3.40% on $10 million and 3-month LIBOR plus 3.15% on $5 million. BancGroup may redeem $10 million, in whole or in part, on any March 26, June 26, September 26 or December 26 on or after September 26, 2007 until maturity in September 2032. BancGroup may redeem $5 million, in whole or in part, on any March 26, June 26, September 26 or December 26 on or after March 26, 2008 until maturity in March 2033.

In May 2005, BancGroup added $5 million in trust preferred securities, representing $5 million in junior subordinated debt, as part of the acquisition of FFLC Bancorp, Inc. These securities qualify as Tier I capital and bear interest at a rate of 3-month LIBOR plus 3.40%. The securities are subject to redemption by BancGroup, in whole or in part, on any March 26, June 26, September 26 or December 26 on or after September 26, 2007 until maturity in September 2032.

The subordinated debentures, notes, trust preferred securities and junior subordinated debt described above are subordinate to substantially all remaining liabilities of BancGroup.

FHLB credit availability at December 31, 2006 was $1.3 billion based on current collateral, which consists of 1-4 family residential, commercial real estate, home equity lines of credit, and second mortgage loans, along with specified mortgage-backed securities.

Change in Control

Certain provisions of the BancGroup Certificate and the BancGroup Bylaws may have the effect of preventing, discouraging or delaying any change in control of BancGroup. The BancGroup Board of Directors is authorized to issue BancGroup preference stock with such rights and privileges, including voting rights, as it may deem appropriate in order to enable BancGroup's Board of Directors to prevent a change in control despite a shift in ownership of the BancGroup common stock. See Preference Stock. In addition, the power of BancGroup's Board of Directors to issue additional shares of BancGroup common stock may help delay or deter a change in control by increasing the number of shares needed to gain control. See BancGroup Common Stock. The following provisions also may deter any change in control of BancGroup.

Classified Board. BancGroup's Board of Directors is classified into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, with the members of each class elected to three-year terms. Thus, one-third of BancGroup's Board of Directors is elected by shareholders each year. With this provision, two annual elections are required in order to change a majority of the Board of Directors. There are currently 16 directors of BancGroup. This provision of the BancGroup Certificate also stipulates that (i) directors can be removed only for cause upon a vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting as a class, (ii) vacancies in the Board of Directors may only be filled by a majority vote of the directors remaining in office, (iii) the maximum number of directors shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors, and (iv) the provisions relating to the classified Board of Directors can only be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting as a class.

Business Combinations. Certain Business Combinations of BancGroup with a Related Person may only be undertaken with the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, plus the affirmative vote of at least 67% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, not counting shares owned by the Related Person, unless the continuing Directors of BancGroup approve such Business Combination. A Related Person is a person, or group, who owns or acquires 10% or more of the outstanding shares of BancGroup common stock, provided that no person shall be a Related Person if such person would have been a Related Person on the date of approval of this provision by BancGroup's Board of Directors, i.e., April 20, 1994. An effect of this provision may be to exclude Robert E. Lowder, the current Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of BancGroup, from the definition of Related Person. A Continuing Director is a director who was a member of the Board of Directors immediately prior to the time a person became a Related Person. This provision may not be amended without the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, plus the affirmative vote of the outstanding shares of at least 67% of the outstanding Voting Stock, excluding shares held by a Related Person. This provision may have the effect of giving the incumbent Board of Directors a veto over a merger or other Business Combination that could be desired by a majority of BancGroup's shareholders. As of February 20, 2007, the Board of Directors of BancGroup owned approximately 5.04% of the outstanding shares of BancGroup common stock.

Board Evaluation of Mergers. The BancGroup Certificate permits the Board of Directors to consider certain factors such as the character and financial stability of the other party, the projected social, legal, and economic effects of a proposed transaction upon the employees, suppliers, regulatory agencies and customers and communities of BancGroup, and other factors when considering whether BancGroup should undertake a merger, sale of assets, or other similar transaction with another party. This provision may not be amended except by the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of BancGroup common stock. This provision may give greater latitude to the Board of Directors in terms of the factors which the board may consider in recommending or rejecting a merger or other Business Combination of BancGroup.

Director Authority. The BancGroup Certificate prohibits shareholders from calling special shareholders' meetings and acting by written consent. It also provides that only BancGroup's Board of Directors has the authority to undertake certain actions with respect to governing BancGroup such as appointing committees, electing officers, and establishing compensation of officers, and it allows the Board of Directors to act by majority vote.

Bylaw Provisions. The BancGroup Bylaws provide that shareholders wishing to propose nominees for the Board of Directors or other business to be taken up at an annual meeting of BancGroup shareholders must comply with certain advance written notice provisions. These bylaw provisions are intended to provide for the more orderly conduct of shareholders' meetings but could make it more difficult for shareholders to nominate directors or introduce business at shareholders' meetings.

Delaware Business Combination Statute. Subject to some exceptions, Delaware law prohibits BancGroup from entering into certain business combinations (as defined) involving persons beneficially owning 15% or more of the outstanding BancGroup common stock (or one who is an affiliate of BancGroup and has over the past three years beneficially owned 15% or more of such stock) (either, for the purpose of this paragraph, an Interested Shareholder), unless the Board of Directors has approved either (i) the business combination or (ii) prior to the stock acquisition by which such person's beneficial ownership interest reached 15% (a Stock Acquisition), the Stock Acquisition. The prohibition lasts for three years from the date of the Stock Acquisition. Notwithstanding the preceding, Delaware law allows BancGroup to enter into a business combination with an Interested Shareholder if (i) the business combination is approved by BancGroup's Board of Directors and authorized by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock of BancGroup which is not owned by the Interested Shareholder or (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the shareholder becoming an Interested Shareholder, such shareholder owned at least 85% of the outstanding BancGroup common stock (excluding BancGroup common stock held by officers and directors of BancGroup or by certain BancGroup stock plans). These provisions of Delaware law apply simultaneously with the provisions of the BancGroup Certificate relating to business combinations with a related person, described above at Business Combinations, but they are generally less restrictive than the BancGroup Certificate.

Control Acquisitions. As it relates to BancGroup, the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978 prohibits a person or group of persons from acquiring control of a bank holding company unless the Federal Reserve has been given 60 days' prior written notice of such proposed acquisition and within that time period the Federal Reserve has not issued a notice disapproving the proposed acquisition or extending for up to another 30 days the period during which such a disapproval may be issued. An acquisition may be made prior to the expiration of the disapproval period if the Federal Reserve issues written notice of its intent not to disapprove the action. Under a rebuttable presumption established by the Federal Reserve, the acquisition of more than 10% of a class of voting stock of a bank holding company with a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as BancGroup, would, under the circumstances set forth in the presumption, constitute the acquisition of control. The receipt of revocable proxies, provided the proxies terminate within a reasonable time after the meeting to which they relate, is not included in determining percentages for change in control purposes.

COMPARATIVE RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

If the Merger is consummated, shareholders of Commercial, a Florida corporation, may become holders of BancGroup common stock. BancGroup is a Delaware corporation. The rights of the holders of the Commercial common stock who become holders of BancGroup common stock following the Merger, will be governed by the BancGroup Certificate and the BancGroup Bylaws, as well as the laws of Delaware.

The following summary compares the rights of the holders of Commercial common stock with the rights of the holders of the BancGroup common stock. For a more detailed description of the rights of the holders of BancGroup common stock, including certain features of the BancGroup Certificate and the Delaware General Corporation Law ( DGCL ) that might limit the circumstances under which a change in control of BancGroup could occur, see BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt.

The following information is qualified in its entirety by the BancGroup Certificate and the BancGroup Bylaws, and the Commercial Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws and the Florida Business Corporation Act ( FBCA ).

Director Elections

Commercial. Commercial s directors are elected to terms of one year and are elected annually. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors.

BancGroup. BancGroup s directors are elected to terms of three years with approximately one-third of the Board to be elected annually. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors. See BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control Classified Board.

Removal of Directors

Commercial. Under Commercial s Bylaws, any director, or the entire board of directors, may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 51% of the outstanding voting stock of Commercial, voting together as a single class.

BancGroup. The BancGroup Certificate provides that a director may be removed from office, but only for cause and by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

Voting

Commercial. Each share of Commercial common stock is entitled to one vote per share on all matters properly presented at meetings of shareholders of Commercial, and shareholders of Commercial do not have the right to cumulate votes in an election of directors.

BancGroup. Each shareholder of BancGroup is entitled to one vote for each share of BancGroup common stock held, and such holders are not entitled to cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Preemptive Rights

Commercial. Holders of Commercial common stock do not have preemptive rights with respect to any shares of Commercial common stock that may be issued.

BancGroup. The holders of BancGroup common stock have no preemptive rights to acquire any additional shares of BancGroup common stock or any other shares of BancGroup capital stock.

Directors Liability

Commercial. Commercial's Bylaws provide that no director of Commercial will ever have any liability by reason of being or having been a director of Commercial if such director performs his duties as a director in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of Commercial and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

BancGroup. The BancGroup Certificate provides that a director of BancGroup will have no personal liability to BancGroup or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for the payment of certain unlawful dividends and the making of certain stock purchases or redemptions, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This provision would absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence. It would not permit a director to be exculpated, however, for liability for actions involving conflicts of interest or breaches of the traditional duty of loyalty to BancGroup and its shareholders, and it would not affect the availability of injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy.

Indemnification

Commercial. The Florida Business Corporation Act permits a corporation to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents for expenses incurred by them by reason of their position with the corporation if the person has acted in good faith and with the reasonable belief that his or her conduct was in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, with no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The Florida Business Corporation Act does not permit a corporation to indemnify persons in actions brought by or in the right of the corporation if the person is adjudged to be liable to the corporation (although it does permit indemnification in such situations if, any only to the extent, approved by the court in which such proceeding was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction). To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, that person shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Commercial's Bylaws generally provide that Commercial shall indemnify persons against all liabilities incurred by such persons in connection with any brought or threatened proceeding in which such person is involved by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Commercial to the fullest extent authorized by the Florida Business Corporation Act, provided that except with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, Commercial shall indemnify any such person in connection with a proceeding initiated by such person only if the proceeding was authorized by the board of directors of Commercial.

Commercial's Bylaws further provide that the right to indemnification shall include the right to be paid by Commercial for expenses the indemnified person incurs in defending the proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided that if the Florida Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses shall be made only upon delivery to Commercial of an undertaking to repay all amounts so advanced if it is ultimately determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that the indemnified party is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under Commercial's Bylaws or otherwise.

Commercial maintains an officers and directors insurance policy. Commercial maintains separate indemnification agreements with each of its directors pursuant to which directors of Commercial would be entitled to indemnification against certain liabilities, including reimbursement of certain expenses that extends beyond the minimum indemnification provided by the FBCA.

Table of Contents

BancGroup. The BancGroup Certificate provides that directors, officers, employees and agents of BancGroup shall be indemnified to the full extent permitted under the DGCL. Section 145 of the DGCL contains detailed and comprehensive provisions providing for indemnification of directors and officers of Delaware corporations against expenses, judgments, fines and settlements in connection with litigation. Under the DGCL, other than an action brought by or in the right of BancGroup, such indemnification is available if it is determined that the proposed indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of BancGroup and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of BancGroup, such indemnification is limited to expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of such action if the indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of BancGroup and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to BancGroup unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

To the extent that the proposed indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding (or any claim, issue or matter therein), he or she must be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

BancGroup maintains an officers' and directors' insurance policy and a separate indemnification agreement pursuant to which officers and directors of BancGroup would be entitled to indemnification against certain liabilities, including reimbursement of certain expenses that extends beyond the minimum indemnification provided by Section 145 of the DGCL.

Special Meetings of Shareholders; Action Without a Meeting

Commercial. Under the Bylaws of Commercial special meetings of the shareholders of Commercial may be called only by the board of directors of Commercial acting on its own initiative and shall be called by the Board of Directors upon request of the Chairman of the Board, the President of Commercial or the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares of Commercial entitled to vote at the special meeting.

The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Commercial provide that any action required or permitted to be taken by the shareholders of Commercial may be effected by consent in writing signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes required to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

BancGroup. Under the BancGroup Certificate, a special meeting of BancGroup's shareholders may only be called by a majority of the BancGroup Board of Directors or by the chairman of the Board of Directors of BancGroup. Holders of BancGroup common stock may not call special meetings or act by written consent.

Mergers, Share Exchanges and Sales of Assets

Commercial. The Florida Business Corporation Act generally requires the approval of the Commercial board of directors and the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Commercial common stock for mergers and consolidations in which Commercial is a participating corporation and for sales of all or substantially all of Commercial's assets.

BancGroup. The DGCL provides that mergers and sales of substantially all of the assets of Delaware corporations must be approved by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. The DGCL also provides, however, that the shareholders of the corporation surviving a merger need not approve the transaction if: (i) the agreement of merger does not amend in any respect the certificate of incorporation of such corporation; (ii) each share of stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger is to be an identical outstanding or treasury share of the surviving corporation after the effective date of the Merger; and (iii) either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation and no shares, securities or obligations convertible into such common stock are to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, or the authorized unissued shares or the treasury shares of common stock of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger plus those initially issuable upon conversion of any other shares, securities or obligations to be issued or delivered under such plan do not exceed 20% of the shares of common stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger. See also BancGroup Capital Stock and Debentures Changes in Control for a description of the statutory provisions and the provisions of the BancGroup Certificate relating to changes of control of BancGroup.

Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

Commercial. Under the FBCA, a Florida corporation's Articles of Incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, and a majority of the outstanding shares of each class entitled to vote as a class, unless the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws or the Board of Directors require the vote of a larger portion of the stock or unless the amendment would create dissenter's rights. In latter case a majority of all votes entitled to be cast on the amendment is required. Commercial's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not have any super-majority shareholder approval provisions.

As is permitted by the FBCA, the Bylaws of Commercial give the Board of Directors the power to adopt, amend or repeal Commercial's Bylaws. The shareholders entitled to vote have concurrent power to adopt, amend or repeal the Commercial's Bylaws.

BancGroup. Under the DGCL, a Delaware corporation's Certificate of Incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, and a majority of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote as a class, unless the certificate requires the vote of a larger portion of the stock. The BancGroup Certificate of Incorporation requires super-majority Shareholder approval to amend or repeal any provision of, or adopt any provision inconsistent with, certain provisions in the BancGroup Certificate of Incorporation governing (i) the election or removal of directors, (ii) business combinations between BancGroup and a Related Person, and (iii) board of directors evaluation of business combination procedures. See BancGroup Capital Stock and Debentures Changes in Control.

As is permitted by the DGCL, the Certificate of Incorporation gives the Board of Directors the power to adopt, amend or repeal the BancGroup Bylaws. The shareholders entitled to vote have concurrent power to adopt, amend or repeal the BancGroup Bylaws.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Commercial. Under the FBCA, a shareholder has the right, in certain circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate transactions and receive the fair value of his or her shares in cash in lieu of the consideration he or she otherwise would have received in the transaction. For this purpose, fair value may be determined by all generally accepted techniques of valuation used in the financial community, excluding any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the transaction, unless exclusion would be inequitable to the corporation and its remaining shareholders. Appraisal rights are not available, however, to shareholders of a corporation (i) if the shares are listed on a national securities exchange or quoted on the Nasdaq NMS (as is Commercial common stock), or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders with a market value of at least $10 million, and (ii) shareholders are permitted by the terms of the merger or consolidation to accept in exchange for their shares (a) shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation, (b) shares of stock of another corporation listed on a national securities exchange, or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders with a market value of at least $10 million, (c) cash in lieu of fractional shares of such stock, or (d) any combination thereof. Shareholders are not permitted appraisal rights in a merger if such corporation is the surviving corporation and no vote of its shareholders is required.

BancGroup. Under the DGCL, a shareholder has the right, in certain circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate transactions and receive the fair value of his or her shares in cash in lieu of the consideration he or she otherwise would have received in the transaction. For this purpose, fair value may be determined by all generally accepted techniques of valuation used in the financial community, excluding any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the transaction, but including elements of future value that are known or susceptible of proof. Such fair value is determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, if a petition for appraisal is timely filed. Appraisal rights are not available, however, to shareholders of a corporation (i) if the shares are listed on a national securities exchange (as is BancGroup common stock) or quoted on the Nasdaq NMS, or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders (as is BancGroup common stock), and (ii) shareholders are permitted by the terms of the merger or consolidation to accept in exchange for their shares (a) shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation, (b) shares of stock of another corporation listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders, (c) cash in lieu of fractional shares of such stock, or (d) any combination thereof. Shareholders are not permitted appraisal rights in a merger if such corporation is the surviving corporation and no vote of its shareholders is required.

Preferred Stock

Commercial. The Commercial articles of incorporation authorizes up to 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors of Commercial. Currently, no shares of preferred stock are issued and outstanding.

BancGroup. The BancGroup Certificate authorizes the issuance of 1,000,000 shares of preference stock and 50,000,000 of preferred stock from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors of BancGroup. Currently, no shares either of preference stock or preferred stock are issued and outstanding. See BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Preference Stock and Preferred Stock.

Control Share Acquisitions

Commercial. Section 607.0602 of the FBCA generally provides that certain shares of stock of a Florida corporation such as Commercial which has not opted out of coverage by this section in the prescribed manner shall not have any voting rights. Shares of stock whose voting rights may be restricted would be those that, upon acquisition by a person or group of persons, when added to all other shares of the same class of stock owned by such person or group of persons, would entitle the holder thereof to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power within any of the following ranges of voting power: (a) one-fifth or more but less than one-third of all voting power; (b) one-third or more but less than a majority of all voting power; and (c) a majority of all voting power. Control shares acquired in a control-share acquisition have the same voting rights as were accorded the shares before the control share acquisition only to the extent granted by resolution approved by the shareholders of the corporation.

BancGroup. For information with respect to provisions under BancGroup's governing documents and the DGCL regarding provisions which may have the effect of presenting, discouraging or delaying any change in control of BancGroup, see BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Change in Control.

Effect of the Merger on Commercial Shareholders

As of March 23, 2007, Commercial had 170 shareholders of record and 6,221,782 outstanding shares of common stock. As of February 20, 2007, there were 152,810,673 shares of BancGroup Common Stock outstanding held by approximately 9,288 shareholders of record.

Assuming that 6,221,782 shares of Commercial common stock are outstanding on the Effective Date, an aggregate number of 6,288,355 shares of BancGroup common stock would be issued to the shareholders of Commercial pursuant to the Merger. These shares would represent approximately 3.95% of the total shares of BancGroup common stock outstanding after the Merger, not counting any shares of BancGroup common stock to be issued in other transactions.

The issuance of BancGroup common stock pursuant to the Merger will reduce the percentage interest of BancGroup common stock currently held by each principal shareholder and each director and officer of BancGroup. Based upon the foregoing assumption, the directors and executive officers of BancGroup who owned approximately 5.39% of BancGroup's outstanding shares as of February 20, 2007, would own approximately 5.18% after the Merger. See BancGroup Security Ownership of Management and Management Information.

Transactions with Related Persons

Federal regulations generally require that loans or extensions of credit to executive officers and directors must be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the general public and must not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features. In addition, loans made to a director or executive officer in excess of the greater of $25,000 or 5% of the Bank's capital and surplus (up to a maximum of $500,000) must be approved in advance by a majority of the disinterested members of the board of directors.

Interested Transactions

In addition to a discussion of certain relationships and related transactions which is incorporated into this Proxy Statement-Prospectus by reference to Commercial's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, shareholders of Commercial are encouraged to read "Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" on page 28 for a discussion of interests of management and other shareholders held in this merger.

The Bank currently makes loans to its executive officers and directors on the same terms and conditions offered to the general public. All loans made by the Bank to its executive officers and directors are made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and do not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

ADJOURNMENT OF SPECIAL MEETING

Approval of the Agreement by Commercial shareholders requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Commercial common stock. In the event there are an insufficient number of shares of Commercial common stock present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting to approve the Agreement, the Commercial Board of Directors intends to adjourn the Special Meeting to a later date provided a majority of the shares present and voting on the motion have voted in favor of such adjournment. The place and date to which the Special Meeting would be adjourned would be announced at the Special Meeting. Proxies voted against the Agreement and abstentions will not be voted to adjourn the Special Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be voted on this matter but will not count as "no" votes. However, an abstention or a broker non-vote has the same effect as a "no" vote. If it is necessary to adjourn the Special Meeting and the adjournment is for a period of not more than 30 days from the original date of the Special Meeting, no notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting need be given the shareholders, other than an announcement made at the Special Meeting.

The effect of any such adjournment would be to permit Commercial to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Agreement. Such an adjournment would not invalidate any proxies previously filed as long as the record date for the adjourned meeting remained the same, including proxies filed by shareholders voting against the Agreement.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors of Commercial is not aware of any business to come before the Special Meeting other than the matter described above in this Proxy Statement-Prospectus. If, however, any other matters not now known should properly come before the Special Meeting, the proxy holders named in the accompanying proxy will vote such proxy on such matters as determined by a majority of the Board of Directors of Commercial.

Other Matters that may Properly Come Before the Meeting

The Board of Directors knows of no business that will be presented for consideration at the Special Meeting other than as stated in the Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the Special Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy card to vote the shares represented thereby on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

(subject to section 3.3 hereof) of BancGroup Common Stock or (B) $49.00 in cash in accordance with sections 3.1(a)(ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Agreement.

(ii) A holder of Acquired Corporation Stock may, prior to the Shareholders Meeting, file a written election form (an Election Form ) with the Acquired Corporation specifying whether such holder prefers to have the Merger Consideration paid to such holder in shares of BancGroup Common Stock only, cash only, or any proportion of cash and whole shares of BancGroup Common Stock that such holder desires to receive, subject to the limitation on cash and share consideration in sections 3.1(a)(iii) and (iv) of this Agreement.

(iii) Notwithstanding section 3.1(a)(ii) of this Agreement and notwithstanding any elections made pursuant to the Election Forms, the aggregate amount of cash to be distributed in the Merger for Acquired Corporation Stock shall be the amount of 50% of the number of shares of outstanding Acquired Corporation Stock at the time of the Closing times $49.00 (the Cash Consideration ) (approximately $148,480,658 assuming 6,060,435 shares of Acquired Corporation Stock are outstanding at the time of the Closing) even if the aggregate amount of cash elected by stockholders (the Aggregate Cash Amount ) is less than or exceeds the Cash Consideration. Notwithstanding section 3.1(a)(ii) of this Agreement and notwithstanding any elections made pursuant to the Election Forms, the aggregate number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock to be distributed in the Merger shall be 50% of the number of shares of the outstanding Acquired Corporation Stock at the time of the Closing times 2.0214 (the Stock Consideration ) (approximately 6,125,281 shares of BancGroup Common Stock assuming 6,060,435 shares of Acquired Corporation Stock are outstanding at the time of the Closing), even if the aggregate number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock elected by stockholders (the Aggregate Stock Amount ) is less than or exceeds the Stock Consideration. If the aggregate of all Acquired Corporation shareholders Cash Elections (or Stock Elections) exceeds the Cash Consideration (or the Stock Consideration), the Merger Consideration distributable to each holder of Acquired Corporation Stock shall be adjusted by taking the following steps: (1) determine the amount by which the Aggregate Cash Amount (or Aggregate Stock Amount) exceeds the Cash Consideration (or Stock Consideration); (2) reduce the amount of cash (or BancGroup Common Stock) that each such Shareholder who elects, or is deemed to elect, cash (or BancGroup Common Stock) will receive on a pro rata basis until the Aggregate Cash Amount (or the Aggregate Stock Amount) is equal to the Cash Consideration (or the Stock Consideration) (the aggregate amount of this reduction shall be referred to as the Excess Election ); (3) determine the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock that each Acquired Corporation Shareholder s pro rata portion of the Excess Election represents (which will be the pro rata portion of the Excess Election divided by $49.00 in the case of a Cash Excess Election (or the pro-rata portion of the Excess Election divided by 2.0214 in the case of a BancGroup Common Stock Excess Election)); (4) increase such Shareholder s stock (or cash) component of such Shareholder s Merger Consideration by 2.0214 shares of BancGroup Common Stock (or $49.00) for each share of Acquired Corporation Stock determined in step (3) above.

(iv) Elections made shall apply to all shares of record of Acquired Corporation Stock held immediately prior to the Effective Time by a record holder making the election. If an Acquired Corporation shareholder does not submit an Election Form, then such holder shall be deemed to have elected to receive $24.50 in cash and 1.0107 shares of BancGroup Common Stock for each share of Acquired Corporation Stock as his or her portion of the Merger Consideration. Interest will not be paid on any cash to be paid as part of the Merger Consideration.

(b) Promptly after the execution of this Agreement, the Acquired Corporation shall inform all holders of employee stock options to purchase Acquired Corporation Stock ( Employee Plan Options ) (whether or not such options are vested or exercisable) of their ability to exercise their options within (30) days of such notice, and after such thirty (30) day period, of their ability to exercise their Employee Plan Options for cash as described in subparagraph (c) of this Section 3.1; provided that the election or non-election by the option holders to so exchange their Employee Plan options for cash as described in this section shall not be a condition to the Closing.

(c) Each holder of Employee Plan Options and each holder of Acquired Corporation Options granted under the outside director stock option plans of Acquired Corporation ( Outside Director Options ), in each case may, no later than five days prior to the Effective Date, may exercise his or her Acquired Corporation Options (in each case whether then or not vested or exercisable) through a cashless exercise with such exercised stock being exchanged for cash payable on or within five (5) business days after the Effective Time. As a result of this cashless exercise, the amount of cash to be received shall be determined by calculating the difference between (i) the number obtained by multiplying the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock issuable pursuant to his or her Acquired Corporation Options times $49.00 less (ii) the number obtained by multiplying the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock issuable pursuant to his or her Acquired Corporation Options times the exercise price per share (as determined pursuant to the applicable stock option plan and stock option agreement of the Acquired Corporation). In the event that the exercise prices of all Acquired Corporation Options are not the same, the above calculation shall be made for each series of options. The amount of cash paid to option holders shall not be considered as part of the Cash Consideration.

3.2 Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock shall be issued, and each holder of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock having a fractional interest arising upon the conversion of such shares into shares of BancGroup Common Stock shall, at the time of surrender of the certificates previously representing Acquired Corporation Stock, be paid by BancGroup an amount in cash equal to $49.00 per share.

3.3 Adjustments. In the event that prior to the Effective Time BancGroup Common Stock shall be changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any recapitalization or reclassification, stock dividend, combination, stock split, or reverse stock split of the BancGroup Common Stock, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made in the number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock into which the Acquired Corporation Stock shall be converted.

3.4 BancGroup Stock. The shares of Common Stock of BancGroup issued and outstanding immediately before the Effective Time shall continue to be issued and outstanding shares of the Resulting Corporation.

3.5 [Reserved].

3.6 Election and Exchange Procedures. Each holder of record of shares of the Acquired Corporation Stock ( Holder ) shall have the right, subject to the limitations set forth in this Article 3, to submit an election and exchange his or her Acquired Corporation stock certificates (the Acquired Corporation Stock Certificates ) in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The Election. Each Holder may specify in a request made in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.6 (herein called an Election ) (x) the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock owned by such Holder with respect to which such Holder desires to receive a portion of the Stock Consideration (a Stock Election ) and (y) the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock owned by such Holder with respect to which such Holder desires to receive a portion of the Cash Consideration (a Cash Election ).

(b) Form of Election. BancGroup shall prepare a form reasonably acceptable to the Acquired Corporation (the Form of Election ) which shall be mailed to the Acquired Corporation's stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting of the stockholders of the Acquired Corporation at which the stockholders of the Acquired Corporation consider and vote on this Agreement (the Acquired Corporation Stockholders Meeting ) so as to permit the Acquired Corporation's stockholders to exercise their right to make an Election prior to the Election Deadline (as defined in Section 3.6(d)).

(c) Distribution of Forms of Election. BancGroup shall make the Form of Election initially available at the time that the Proxy Statement (as defined herein) is made available to the stockholders of the Acquired Corporation, to such stockholders, and shall use all reasonable efforts to make available as promptly as possible a Form of Election to any stockholder of the Acquired Corporation who requests such Form of Election following the initial mailing of the Forms of Election and prior to the Election Deadline. In no event shall the Form of Election be made available for the first time less than twenty (20) calendar days prior to the Election Deadline.

(d) Proper Election and Exchange Agent. Any Election shall have been made properly only if the Person authorized to receive the Elections and to act as Exchange Agent under this Agreement, which Person shall be designated by BancGroup and not reasonably objected to by the Acquired Corporation (the Exchange Agent ), pursuant to an agreement entered into as soon as reasonably practicable after the execution of this Agreement and not reasonably objected to by the Acquired Corporation, shall have received, by 5:00 p.m. local time in the city in which the principal office of such Exchange Agent is located, on the date of the Election Deadline, a Form of Election properly completed and signed and accompanied by Acquired Corporation Stock Certificates to which such Form of Election relates or by an appropriate customary guarantee of delivery of such certificates, as set forth in such Form of Election from a member of any registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States; provided, that such certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent by the time required in such guarantee of delivery. Failure to deliver shares of Acquired Corporation Stock covered by such a guarantee of delivery within the time set forth on such guarantee shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made Election, unless otherwise determined by BancGroup, in its sole discretion. As used herein, Election Deadline means 5:00 p.m. on the date that is the day prior to the date of the Acquired Corporation Stockholder Meeting. The Acquired Corporation and BancGroup shall cooperate to issue a press release reasonably satisfactory to each of them announcing the date of the Election Deadline not more than thirty (30) business days before and at least five (5) Business Days prior to, the Election Deadline. If BancGroup shall determine in its reasonable discretion that any Election is not properly made with respect to any shares of Acquired Corporation Stock, such Election shall be deemed to be not in effect, and the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock covered by such Election shall, for purposes hereof, be treated as if no Election had been made, unless a proper Election is thereafter timely made.

(e) Modification and Revocation of Form of Election. Any Acquired Corporation stockholder may, at any time prior to the Election Deadline, change or revoke his or her Election by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed, revised Form of Election or by withdrawal prior to the Election Deadline of his or her Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate, or of the guarantee of delivery of such certificates, previously deposited with the Exchange Agent. All Elections shall be revoked automatically if the Exchange Agent is notified in writing by BancGroup or the Acquired Corporation that this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with Article 13.

(f) Proper Designation and Taxes. If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name an Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate so surrendered is registered, it shall be a condition to such payment that such Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the Person requesting such payment shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other similar Taxes required as a result of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable. The Exchange Agent (or, subsequent to the six month anniversary of the Effective Time, BancGroup) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration (including cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock) and from payments made to holders of Acquired Corporation Employee Plan Options and Outside Directors Plan Options ( Acquired Corporation Options ) otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Acquired Corporation Stock or of Acquired Corporation Options such amounts as the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, is required to deduct and withhold under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law, with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent the amounts are so withheld by the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock or of Acquired Corporation Options in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be.

(g) Power of Determination. BancGroup, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall have the right to make all determinations, not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, governing (A) the issuance and delivery of BancGroup Stock Certificates into which shares of Acquired Corporation Stock are converted in the Merger and (B) the method of payment for shares of Acquired Corporation Stock converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock where the holder of the applicable Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate has no right to receive whole shares of BancGroup Common Stock.

(h) Exchange Fund. BancGroup agrees to make available to the Exchange Agent from time to time as needed, certificates representing the BancGroup Common Stock, and agrees to deliver in escrow to the Exchange Agent, at least one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing, for the benefit of the holders of the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock and Acquired Corporation Options, and cash sufficient to pay the cash component of the Merger Consideration, the cash payable hereunder to the holders of Acquired Corporation Options, cash in lieu of fractional shares and any dividends and other distributions. Any cash and certificates of BancGroup Common Stock deposited with the Exchange Agent shall hereinafter be referred to as the Exchange Fund. For six months following the Effective Time, the Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

(i) Exchange Procedures. Within five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time, the Resulting Corporation shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of an Acquired Corporation Certificate: (i) a letter of transmittal ( Letter of Transmittal ) which shall specify that delivery shall be effected and risk of loss and title to the Acquired Corporation Certificates shall pass only upon delivery of the Acquired Corporation Certificates to the Exchange Agent and which Letter of Transmittal shall be in customary form and have such other provisions as BancGroup or the Resulting Corporation, as the case may be, may reasonably specify and (ii) instructions for effecting the surrender of such Acquired Corporation Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of an Acquired Corporation Certificate to the Exchange Agent together with such Letter of Transmittal, duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Acquired Corporation Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, and Resulting Corporation shall instruct Exchange Agent to transmit as promptly as commercially practicable, (i) one or more shares of BancGroup Common Stock (which may be in uncertificated book-entry form unless a physical certificate is requested) representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of shares that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) a check for any cash portion of the Merger Consideration and for the cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Agreement, including cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock and dividends and other distributions required or permitted by this Agreement. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable for the cash portion of the Merger Consideration. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Acquired Corporation Stock which is not registered in the transfer records of Acquired Corporation, one or more shares of BancGroup Common Stock evidencing, in the aggregate, the proper number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock and a check for the cash portion of the Merger Consideration, the cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Agreement, may be issued with respect to such Acquired Corporation Stock to such a transferee if the Acquired Corporation Certificate representing such shares of Acquired Corporation Stock is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

(j) No Further Ownership Rights in Acquired Corporation Stock. All shares of BancGroup Common Stock issued and cash paid upon conversion of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock in accordance with the terms of this Article 3 (including any cash paid pursuant to this Agreement) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.6, each Acquired Corporation Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions to which a holder of Acquired Corporation Stock on or prior to the Effective Time is entitled to receive under this Agreement.

(k) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of the Acquired Corporation Certificate six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Resulting Corporation and any holders of the Acquired Corporation Certificates who have not theretofore complied with this Section 3.6 shall thereafter look only to the Resulting Corporation for the Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock formerly represented thereby to which such holders are entitled pursuant to this Agreement, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock to which such holders are entitled pursuant to this Agreement and any dividends or distributions with respect to shares of BancGroup Common Stock to which such holders are entitled pursuant to this Agreement.

(l) No Liability. None of BancGroup, the Acquired Corporation, the Resulting Corporation or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any Merger Consideration from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(m) Lost Certificates. If any Acquired Corporation Certificate shall have been lost, stolen, destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Acquired Corporation Certificate to be lost, stolen, or destroyed and, if required by the Resulting Corporation that posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as the Resulting Corporation may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Acquired Corporation Certificate the applicable Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock formerly represented thereby, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock, and unpaid dividends and distributions on shares of BancGroup Common Stock deliverable in respect thereof, in each case, pursuant to this Agreement.

(n) Stock Transfer Books. The stock transfer books of the Acquired Corporation shall be closed immediately at the Effective Time and there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock thereafter on the records of Acquired Corporation. On or after the Effective Time, any Acquired Corporation Certificates presented to the Exchange Agent or the Resulting Corporation for any reason shall be converted into the Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock formerly represented thereby, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to this Agreement and any dividends or other distributions to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to this Agreement.

(o) Investment of Exchange Fund. The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund, as directed by the Resulting Corporation, on a daily basis. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Resulting Corporation. To the extent that there are losses with respect to such investments, or the Exchange Fund diminishes for other reasons below the level required to make prompt payments of the Merger Consideration as contemplated hereby, Resulting Corporation shall promptly replace or restore the portion of the Exchange Fund lost through investments or other events so as to ensure that the Exchange Fund is, at all times, maintained at a level sufficient to make such payments.

(a) Operations. Acquired Corporation will conduct its business and the business of each Acquired Corporation Company in a proper and prudent manner and will use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain its relationships with its depositors, customers and employees. Without the prior written consent of BancGroup, no Acquired Corporation Company will engage in any material transaction outside the ordinary course of business or make any material change in its accounting policies or methods of operation, nor will Acquired Corporation willingly permit the occurrence of any change or event which would render any of the representations and warranties in Article 5 hereof untrue in any material respect at and as of the Effective Time with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such Effective Time, unless such representation or warranty is made as of a specific date. Except as set described in detail on Schedule 6.2(a), Acquired Corporation shall cause the Bank to postpone all branch relocation and/or expansion plans prior to the Effective Time or the date of termination pursuant to this Agreement. Acquired Corporation will take no action that would prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368 of the Code, and Acquired Corporation will treat the merger consistently with such qualification for all income Tax purposes. Acquired Corporation will comply with all reporting requirements applicable to reorganizations within the meaning of Section 368 of the Code.

Except to the extent the Acquired Corporation's Board of Directors, after consultation with counsel, determines in good faith it necessary to comply with its fiduciary duties, no Acquired Corporation Company or any Representative thereof shall furnish any non-public information that it is not legally obligated to furnish, negotiate with respect to, or enter into any Contract with respect to, any Acquisition Proposal, and each Acquired Corporation Company shall direct and use its reasonable efforts to cause all of its Representatives not to engage in any of the foregoing, but Acquired Corporation may communicate information about such an Acquisition Proposal to its shareholders if and to the extent, after consultation with counsel, that it determines in good faith that it is required to do so in order to comply with its legal obligations. Acquired Corporation shall promptly notify BancGroup orally and in writing in the event that any Acquired Corporation Company receives after the date hereof any written inquiry or proposal relating to any such Acquisition Proposal. Acquired Corporation shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions, or negotiations with any Persons other than BancGroup conducted heretofore with respect to any of the foregoing.

Such payment shall compensate BancGroup for its direct and indirect costs and expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including BancGroup's management time devoted to negotiation and preparation for the Merger and BancGroup's loss as a result of the Merger not being consummated. The Parties acknowledge and agree that it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to fix the actual damages resulting from the foregoing events and, therefore, the Parties have agreed upon the foregoing payment as liquidated damages which shall not be deemed to be in the nature of a penalty. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit the Acquired Corporation from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2(a) promulgated under the 1933 Act or from making any disclosure to the Acquired Corporation's stockholders if the Board of Directors of the Acquired Corporation (or any committee thereof) determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that it is required to do so under applicable Law.

15.4 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to constitute an original. Each such counterpart shall become effective when one counterpart has been signed by each Party thereto.

15.5 Headings. The headings of the various articles and sections of this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed a part of this Agreement or considered in construing the provisions thereof.

15.6 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining terms and provisions thereof or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction, and if any term or provision of this Agreement is held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void, voidable, invalid or unenforceable in any given circumstance or situation, then all other terms and provisions, being severable, shall remain in full force and effect in such circumstance or situation and the term or provision shall remain valid and in effect in any other circumstances or situation, except if such omitted term or provision would so materially adversely impact the economic benefits of the transaction to a Party as contemplated by this Agreement so as to render inadvisable the consummation of the Merger.

15.7 Construction. Use of the masculine pronoun herein shall be deemed to refer to the feminine and neuter genders and the use of singular references shall be deemed to include the plural and vice versa, as appropriate. No inference in favor of or against any Party shall be drawn from the fact that such Party or such Party's counsel has drafted any portion of this Agreement.

15.8 Return of Information. In the event of termination of this Agreement prior to the Effective Time, each Party shall return to the other, without retaining copies thereof, all confidential or non-public documents, work papers and other materials obtained from the other Party in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and shall keep such information confidential, not disclose such information to any other person or entity, and not use such information in connection with its business.

15.9 Equitable Remedies. The parties hereto agree that, in the event of a breach of this Agreement by either Party, the other Party may be without an adequate remedy at law owing to the unique nature of the contemplated transactions. In recognition thereof, in addition to (and not in lieu of) any remedies at law that may be available to the non-breaching Party, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to obtain equitable relief, including the remedies of specific performance and injunction, in the event of a breach of this Agreement by the other Party, and no attempt on the part of the non-breaching Party to obtain such equitable relief shall be deemed to constitute an election of remedies by the non-breaching Party that would preclude the non-breaching Party from obtaining any remedies at law to which it would otherwise be entitled.

15.10 Attorneys Fees. If any Party hereto shall bring an action at law or in equity to enforce its rights under this Agreement (including an action based upon a misrepresentation or the breach of any warranty, covenant, agreement or obligation contained herein), the prevailing Party in such action shall be entitled to recover from the other Party its costs and expenses incurred in connection with such action (including fees, disbursements and expenses of attorneys and costs of investigation).

15.11 No Waiver. No failure, delay or omission of or by any Party in exercising any right, power or remedy upon any breach or Default of any other Party shall impair any such rights, powers or remedies of the Party not in breach or Default, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such right, power or remedy, or an acquiescence in any similar breach or Default; nor shall any waiver of any single breach or Default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any Party of any provisions of this Agreement must be in writing and be executed by the Parties to this Agreement and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

15.12 Remedies Cumulative. All remedies provided in this Agreement, by law or otherwise, shall be cumulative and not alternative.

15.13 Entire Contract. This Agreement, the Confidentiality Agreement and the documents and instruments referred to herein constitute the entire contract between the parties to this Agreement and supersede all other understandings with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement

Board of Directors

Commercial Bankshares, Inc.

1550 South West 57th Avenue

Miami, FL 33144

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Commercial Bankshares, Inc., a Florida corporation (the Company), and The Colonial BancGroup, a Delaware corporation (Colonial), are about to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement), to be dated January 22, 2007, pursuant to which the Company will merge with and into Colonial, with Colonial as the surviving entity (the Merger). In connection with the Merger, except as otherwise provided for in the Agreement and subject to certain restrictions and limitations contained therein, at the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement), each issued and outstanding share of common stock of the Company (the Company Common Stock) shall be converted into the right to receive (i) $49.00, (ii) 2.0214 shares of common stock of Colonial (the Colonial Common Stock), or (iii) a combination thereof (collectively, the Merger Consideration). In connection with the Merger and the Agreement, you have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be paid to the shareholders of the Company.

Hovde Financial, Inc. (Hovde), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bidding, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

We were retained by the Company to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Agreement and the Merger. We will receive compensation from the Company in connection with our services, all or a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Additionally, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed the Agreement and all attachments thereto;
- (ii) reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning the Company and Colonial;
- (iii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning the Company;
- (iv) analyzed certain financial projections prepared by the management of the Company;
- (v) held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and Colonial for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of the Company and Colonial, including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings (the Synergies) expected to be achieved as a result of the Merger;

(vi) reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of Colonial Common Stock;

(vii) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks and bank holding companies that we considered relevant;

(viii) evaluated the pro forma ownership of Colonial Common Stock by the holders of the Company Common Stock relative to the pro forma contribution of the Company's assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the combined company;

(ix) analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and

(x) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We also took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by the Company and Colonial and in the discussions with the managements of the Company and Colonial. In that regard, we have assumed that the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the synergies and projections regarding under-performing and nonperforming assets and net charge-offs have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates of the Company and Colonial and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances made by the subsidiaries of the Company and Colonial are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. We were not retained to and did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of the Company, Colonial or their respective subsidiaries. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of the Company, Colonial or any of their respective subsidiaries and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have further assumed that the Merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles. We have assumed that the Merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to the Company, Colonial and their subsidiaries. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger and we have further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals, no restriction will be imposed on Colonial or the surviving corporations that would have a material adverse effect on the surviving corporations or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. We have also assumed that no change in applicable law or regulation would occur that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of Colonial or any of the surviving corporations after the Merger.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us and the economic, market and other circumstances, as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof, except as otherwise agreed in our engagement letter.

We are not expressing any opinion herein as to the prices at which Colonial Common Stock issued in the Merger may trade if and when they are issued or at any future time, nor does our opinion constitute a recommendation to any holder of the Company Common Stock as to how such holder should vote with respect to the Agreement at any meeting of holders of the Company Common Stock.

This letter is solely for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose, nor is it to be filed with, included in or referred to in whole or in part in any registration statement, proxy statement or any other document, except in each case in accordance with our prior written consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that we hereby consent to the inclusion and reference to this letter in any registration statement, proxy statement, information statement or tender offer document to be delivered to the shareholders of the Company in connection with the Merger if and only if this letter is quoted in full or attached as an exhibit to such document and this letter has not been withdrawn prior to the date of such document.

Subject to the foregoing and based on our experience as investment bankers, our activities and assumptions as described above, and other factors we have deemed relevant, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that the Merger Consideration to be paid to the shareholders of the Company pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view.

Sincerely,
