- c. Cash dividends to be distributed shall not be less than 50% of the total amount of dividends to be distributed.

During the year of privatization, the distributable earnings are limited to the earnings generated after privatization. The remaining distributable earnings can be distributed to the stockholders based on the resolution of stockholders' meeting.

If cash dividends to be distributed is less than NT$0.10 per share, such cash dividend shall be distributed in the form of common shares.

Under the ROC Company Law, the appropriation for legal reserve shall be made until the accumulated reserve equals the aggregate par value of the outstanding capital stock of the Company. This reserve can only be used to offset a deficit, or when reaching 50% of the aggregate par value of the outstanding capital stock of the Company, up to 50% of the reserve may, at the option of the Company, be declared as a stock dividend and transferred to capital.

11. EMPLOYEE STOCK COMPENSATION

The MOTC provided employees with two stock purchase plans: The market discount plan and the par value plan.

Market discount plan under the market discount plan, the MOTC sold shares of stock at discounted prices to employees at various times from October 2000 to September 2005. The employees purchased the common shares at discounts of 10% and 20% and 50% from the quoted market price in consideration for their commitment to hold the common shares for two, three and four years (the holding periods), respectively. The common shares are held by an escrow agent on behalf of the employees/stockholders. There are no circumstances under which the MOTC or the Company would be required to repurchase these common shares. Also, the employees are not required to remain employed with the Company during the duration of the holding periods. There were no market discount plan offerings during the period ended March 31, 2006 and 2007.

Par value plan under the par value plan, the MOTC sold shares of stock to employees at par value (NT$10). The difference between the market price of the stock on the offering dates and the par value was recognized as compensation expense. The total shares sold to employees by the MOTC for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2007 were 10,411,955 shares and zero share, respectively. The MOTC received total proceeds of NT$104 million (unaudited) and nil (unaudited) for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2007, respectively, from these sales.

The Company recognized NT$503 million (unaudited) and nil (unaudited) as compensation expense for the discounted shares purchased by employees under the par value plan for three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2007, respectively.

The basic earnings per share were reduced NT$0.05 (unaudited) and nil (unaudited) for three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2007, respectively, after the Company recognized the aforementioned compensation expenses under market discount plan and par value plan. There was no income tax benefit recognized in the statement of operation for share-based compensation arrangements and there was no effect on the statements of cash flow.

12. PENSION PLAN

Pension costs for the defined benefit plan amounted to NT$826 million (unaudited) and NT$748 million (unaudited) for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2007, respectively. Pension costs for the defined contribution plan amounted to NT$8 million (unaudited) and NT$11 million (unaudited) for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2007, respectively. The Company's contributions to all retirement plans were NT$444 million (unaudited) and NT$108 million (unaudited) for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2007, respectively.

The Company approved a Special Retirement Incentive Program (Program C) in December 2005. Program C allowed eligible employees who voluntarily applied to leave the Company from March 1 to March 31, 2006 to also receive benefit payments based on the respective original plan plus additional separation payments. The approval procedure took up to 15 days after applications were submitted therefore, if employees applied for the voluntary retirement on March 31, 2006, they were eligible to retire from the Company on or before April 14, 2006. The present value of such amount over and above the lump sum amount that would have been paid to the eligible employees was accounted for as special termination benefits. Accordingly, such benefits were recognized as a liability and charged to income when employees formally accepted the term of Program C. The Company recognized expense of NT$2,219 million (unaudited) for Program C for the three months ended March 31, 2006.

13. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

As of March 31, 2007, the Company has commitments under non-cancelable contracts with various parties as follows: (a) acquisitions of land and buildings of NT$1,186 million (unaudited), and (b) acquisitions of telecommunications equipment of NT$13,668 million (unaudited).

The Company also has non-cancelable operating leases covering certain buildings, computers, computer peripheral equipment and operating system software under contracts that expire in various years. Minimum rental commitments under those leases are as follows:

	March 31, 2007 NT$ (Unaudited)
Within the following year (April 1, 2007 to March 31, 2008)	$ 1,358
During the second year (April 1, 2008 to March 31, 2009)	966
During the third year (April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010)	681
During the fourth year (April 1, 2010 to March 31, 2011)	260
During the fifth year and thereafter (April 1, 2011 to thereafter.)	105
	$ 3,370

As of March 31, 2007, the Company had unused letters of credit of NT$1,127 million (unaudited).

As a part of the government's effort to upgrade the existing telecommunication infrastructures, the Company and other public utility companies were required by the ROC government to contribute a total of NT$4,500 million to funds called the Fixed-Line Fund and the Piping Fund (collectively referred to as the funds). Under the Fixed-Line Fund, the Company contributed NT$1,000 million to the fund, administered by the ROC Ministry of Interior Affairs, on June 30, 1995. Under the Piping Fund, the Company contributed NT$1,000 million to the fund, administered by the Taipei City Government, on August 15, 1996. Both contributions were accounted for by the Company as other assets other than the Company's balance sheets.

Through the use of the Funds, the governmental agencies will construct new underground fixed-lines and conduits and perform on-going maintenance operations. Currently, a portion of the fixed-lines and conduits are constructed and ready to be used. If the contributions to the funds were not sufficient to finance the construction of the new underground fixed lines and conduits, the contributors to the Funds and the governmental agencies will determine if and when to raise additional funds and the amounts of such contributions from each party.

The Company understands that (a) upon completion of the projects, the Company will receive a proportionate legal interest in the assets; or (b) if the projects are incomplete upon dissolution of the funds, the Company will receive its money back. No expiration or dissolution date is specified in the related documents.

14. LITIGATION

A portion of the land used by the Company during the period July 1, 1996 to December 31, 2004 was co-owned by the Company and Taiwan Post Co., Ltd. (the former Chunghwa Post Co., Ltd, Directorate General of Postal Service). In accordance with the claims process in Taiwan, on July 12, 2005, the Taiwan Taipei District Court sent a claim notice to the Company to reimburse Taiwan Post Co., Ltd. in the amount of NT$768 million for land usage compensation due to the portion of land usage area in excess of the Company's ownership, along with interest calculated at 5% interest rate from June 30, 2005 to the payment date. However, the Company believes that the computation used to derive the land usage compensation amount is inaccurate because most of the compensation amount has expired as result of the expiration clause. Therefore, the Company has filed an appeal at the Taiwan Taipei District Court. As of April 14, 2007, the case is still in the procedure of the first instance at the Taiwan Taipei District Court. While the Company cannot make any assurance regarding the eventual resolution of the litigation, the Company does not believe the final outcome will have a material adverse effect on its results of operations or financial condition. As of March 31, 2007, no provision was provided for the litigation.

The Company is involved in various legal proceedings of a nature considered normal to its business. It is the Company's policy to accrue for amounts related to these legal matters when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount is reasonably estimable.

The Company believes that the various asserted claims and litigation in which it is involved will not materially affect its financial position, future operating results or cash flows, although no assurance can be given with respect to the ultimate outcome of any such claim or litigation.

15. INFORMATION ON FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

a. Derivative financial instruments

The Company entered into forward exchange contracts and index future contracts to reduce its exposure to foreign currency risk and variability in operating results due to fluctuations in exchange rates underlying the value of assets denominated in foreign currencies until such assets are received and fluctuations in stock prices. The Company engaged in foreign currency forward exchange contracts and index future contracts during the three months ended March 31, 2007. Net losses arising from derivative financial instruments for the three months ended March 31, 2007 were NT$11 million (unaudited) (including realized settlement gains of NT$2 million (unaudited) and valuation losses of NT$13 million (unaudited)).

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value:

- Cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments the carrying amounts approximate fair values because of the short maturity of those instruments.
- Long-term investments the fair values of some investments are estimated based on quoted market prices for those or similar investments. For other investments for which there are no quoted market prices, a reasonable estimate of fair value could not be made without incurring excessive costs. Additional information pertinent to the value of an unquoted investment is provided above.
- Refundable deposits the carrying amounts approximate fair values as the carrying amounts are the amount receivable on demand at the reporting date.
- Customers deposits the fair value is the discounted value based on projected cash flows. The projected cash flows were discounted using the average expected customer service periods.
- Short-term loans and current portion of long-term loans the fair value is based on the current rates offered to the Company for debt of the same remaining maturities.

16. SEGMENT REPORTING

Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise regarding which separate financial information is available for regular evaluation by the chief operating decision maker, or decision making group, in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance.

The Company organizes its operating segments based on the various types of telecommunications services provided to customers. The operating segments are segregated as below:

- Local operations the provision of local telephone services;

Edgar Filing: CHUNGHWA TELECOM CO LTD - Form 6-K

- i DLD operations the provision of domestic long distance call services;
- i ILD operations the provision of international long distance call services;
- i Cellular operations the provision of cellular and related services;

- 14 -

- i Internet and data operation the provision of Internet access, lease line, and related services;
- i All other operations the services other than the above five categories, such as paging operations and carrying out project research and providing training.

The operating segments are managed separately because each operating segment represents a strategic business unit that serves different markets.

The Company evaluates performance based on several factors using information prepared on the ROC government regulations basis. The information below is provided on this basis with a summary of US GAAP adjustments to reconcile to the amounts presented in the statement of operations. The Company does not allocate interest and other income, interest expense or taxes to operating segments, nor does the Company's chief operating decision maker evaluate operating segments on these criteria. Except as discussed above, the accounting policies for segment reporting are the same as for the company as a whole. The Company's primary measure of segment profit is based on income or loss from operations.

Positive revenue growth was driven by strong Internet and data revenue growth, sustained mobile revenue growth, and a moderated decline in fixed-line revenue. 8.9% year-over-year Internet and data services revenue growth came on the heels of continued broadband subscriber growth and broadband speed upgrades. Mobile revenue increased 0.7% in the first quarter to $NT18.07 billion. This year-on-year increase was driven primarily by 13.4% mobile VAS revenue growth, a 2.8% increase in outgoing usage minutes, as well as a slower than expected fixed-to-mobile traffic decline. Fixed-line revenue decreased by 3.7%, the result of a 4.5% local revenue decrease due to mobile and broadband substitution and a 9.4% domestic long distance revenue decrease due to mobile substitution and VoIP. The decline in fixed-line revenue was partially offset by a 2.6% increase in International long distance revenue, primarily attributable to the launch of customized international calling cards for foreign workers and the continued increase in wholesale revenue.

Costs and Expenses

For 1Q 2007, total operating costs and expenses decreased year-over-year by 5.6% to NT$30.56 billion. This decrease was mainly due to excluding the one-off ERP cost incurred in 1Q 2006. Moreover, depreciation and amortization costs have continued to decrease, and were down by 3.1% year-over-year to NT$9.92 billion in 1Q 2007.

Net income for 1Q 2007 was NT$11.15 billion, a year-over-year increase of 19.6%. The increase in net income was mainly due to the exclusion of the one-off ERP cost incurred in 1Q 2006.

Capex

Capital expenditures totaled NT$4.90 billion for 1Q 2007, a 21.9% decrease compared to the same period last year. The decrease in capital expenditures was due primarily to a NT$1.88 billion decrease in mobile spending.

Cash Flows

Net cash flow from operations was NT$15.65 billion, as compared to NT$18.99 billion in 1Q 2006. As of March 31, 2007, the Company's cash and cash equivalents totaled NT$79.08 billion.
