This Proxy Statement, Phoenix Footwear's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 30, 2006 filed with the Securities Exchange Commission (the SEC) and the enclosed proxy will first be sent or given to stockholders on or about April 30, 2007. You may also obtain a copy of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K without charge upon written request submitted to Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc., c/o Kenneth E. Wolf, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, 5840 El Camino Real, Suite 106, Carlsbad, California 92008 or, without charge, at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

SOLICITATION AND VOTING

The close of business on April 20, 2007 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting and at any adjournment. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held of record in his or her name on that date. The Company had outstanding on the record date 8,363,158 shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share, being the only class of stock of the Company issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting.

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company, which has designated the nominees for directors listed below. A stockholder giving such proxy has the right to revoke it at the meeting or at any time prior thereto. A stockholder may revoke such proxy by attending the meeting and voting in person or by filing an instrument in writing revoking the proxy or by filing another duly executed proxy bearing a later date with the Secretary. All shares represented by proxies in the form enclosed herewith will be voted at the meeting and at any adjournments in accordance with the terms of such proxies, provided such proxies appear to be valid and to have been executed by stockholders of record entitled to vote at the meeting and have not previously been revoked. If no contrary instructions are given, the persons named in the proxy will vote FOR the nine nominees described on the following pages.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors does not know of any matters not specifically referred to in this Proxy Statement which may come before the meeting. The deadline under Phoenix Footwear's By-Laws for stockholders to notify the Company of any director nominations or proposals to be presented at the Annual Meeting has passed. If any other business should properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons appointed by the enclosed form of proxy shall have discretionary authority to vote all such proxies, as they shall decide.

In order to conduct any business at the Annual Meeting, a quorum must be present in person or represented by valid proxy. The By-Laws of the Company provide that a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting, constitutes a quorum. Directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting by a plurality of the votes cast. Accordingly, the nine nominees receiving the highest number of votes cast at the Annual Meeting shall be elected to the Board of Directors. A majority of the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is required in order to approve any other matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders, except in the case where the vote of a greater number of shares is required by law or under the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws.

Table of Contents

Abstentions may not be specified on the proposal relating to the election of directors. Shares which abstain from voting on any other matter which is properly presented shall be included for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but shall be excluded in tabulating votes cast for or against any proposal to which the abstention pertains.

Votes that are withheld with respect to any proposal will be excluded entirely from the vote taken for the proposal and will not be counted as present for purposes of the vote on such matter.

If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters and will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. Shares represented by such broker non-votes, however, will be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

All costs of preparing, assembling and mailing the enclosed proxy material, and any additional material which may hereafter be sent in connection with the solicitation and collection of the enclosed proxy, will be paid by the Company and no part will be paid directly or indirectly by any other person. Solicitation of proxies may be made by personal interview, mail, telephone or telecopier by officers and regular employees of the Company but no additional compensation will be paid them for the time so employed.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board of Directors held nine meetings during 2006. Each of the incumbent directors attended more than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and any committee on which he served. The Company has no policy regarding the attendance of directors at annual stockholder meetings. At the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders, seven of the incumbent directors attended the meeting.

The Board has an Executive Committee whose function is to act when the full Board of Directors is unavailable. It has the authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Company, except those powers that cannot be delegated by the Board of Directors by law. Messrs. Riedman, Harden and DePerrior are members of the Committee. The Executive Committee did not meet in 2006.

The Board Compensation Committee oversees and administers the Company's compensation program for its executive officers and directors. The Compensation Committee bases its decisions on both individual performance and the Company's financial results. All compensation decisions are made solely by the Compensation Committee; however, the Compensation Committee may consult with the Chairman of the Board and the Company's Chief Executive Officer as part of its decision making process when examining their respective compensation packages. However, the Chief Executive Officer, as required by the AMEX, may not be present during voting or deliberations as to his or her compensation. The members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Kratzer, DePerrior and Port, each of whom is independent as defined in AMEX listing standards. The Compensation Committee met four times during 2006. The Compensation Committee has a charter, a current copy of which is available at the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com.

The Board has a Retirement Plan Committee to administer its Retirement Savings Partnership Plan, or 401(k) Plan. Messrs. Riedman and DePerrior are members of the Committee, which met two times during 2006.

The Board has a Nominating and Governance Committee whose function is to make recommendations to the Board in identifying individuals qualified to become Board members and to recommend to the Board nominees for election to the Board; to assist the Board in establishing and implementing an effective corporate governance policy; to recommend appropriate committee charters; to lead the Board in its annual review of the Board's performance, and to recommend to the Board director nominees for each committee. Messrs. Kratzer, Harden and Robbins are members of the Committee, each of whom is independent as defined in AMEX listing standards. A current copy of the Nominating and Governance Committee Charter is posted at the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com.

The Nominating and Governance Committee met once during 2006 and acted by written consent. The Committee recommended to the Company's Board of Directors, the nominees for director at the Annual Meeting.

The Committee believes that persons nominated to serve as a director should possess certain minimum qualifications including, integrity, absence of conflicts of interest, demonstrated achievement in one or more fields, management or policy-making experience, business understanding and available time. These are only threshold criteria, however, and the Committee may also consider the contributions that a candidate can be expected to make to the collective functioning of the Board based on the totality of the candidate's credentials, experience and expertise, the composition of the board at the time, and other relevant circumstances. The Committee may also approve the candidacy of a nominee who does not satisfy all of these requirements if it believes the service of such nominee is in the best interests of the Company. Generally, the Committee will first consider current Board members because they meet the criteria listed above and possess an in depth knowledge of the Company, its history, strengths, weaknesses, goals and objectives. Before nominating a sitting director for re-election at the Annual Meeting, however, the Committee will consider the director's performance on the Board.

Table of Contents

When seeking candidates for director, the Committee may solicit suggestions from incumbent directors, management or others. After conducting an initial evaluation and considering the candidate suitable, the Committee will interview the candidate and will ask the candidate to meet with other directors and management. If the Committee believes the candidate would be a valuable addition to the Board, it will recommend to the full Board that candidate's election.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders who comply with the timing, procedures and information requirements of Section 1.11 of the Company's By-laws, the text of which is set forth in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. Stockholder nominees that meet the criteria outlined above will receive the same consideration that the Committee's nominees receive.

The Board also has an Audit Committee whose function is providing oversight of the Company's accounting and financial reporting functions and internal controls, retaining the Company's independent registered public accountants, reviewing their independence, reviewing and pre-approving any non-audit services that they may perform, reviewing the adequacy of accounting and financial controls, reviewing the Company's critical accounting policies and reviewing and approving any related party transactions. Committee members at the end of 2006 were Messrs. Harden, Gunst, Robbins and Port, each of whom was determined by the Board to be independent as defined in AMEX listing standards. A current copy of the Audit Committee Charter is posted on the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com. The Audit Committee met ten times during 2006.

The Board has designated both Gregory Harden, Chairman of the Audit Committee, and Robert Gunst, as audit committee financial experts. However, as specified by the SEC, such designation does not impose on them any duties, obligations or liabilities that are greater than the duties, obligations and liability imposed on them as members of the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors in the absence of such designation; nor does it affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the Audit Committee or the Board.

The Company has adopted policies on ethical behavior (Code of Ethics), a copy of which is provided on the Company's web site, www.phoenixfootwear.com. The Code of Ethics applies to all employees, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer.

Our business strategy is focused on building value within our existing portfolio of brands through investments in key personnel, product development and operating process improvements and expanding the distribution of our products. This includes attracting, retaining and motivating qualified personnel well versed in the operating disciplines of the footwear, apparel and accessories business. As a result, our Compensation Committee views compensation as an important component of implementing our corporate strategy.

Board Process. The Compensation Committee approves all compensation and equity-based awards to named executive officers. Generally, on its own initiative the Compensation Committee reviews the performance and compensation of the named executive officers following discussions with those individuals. For the other management-level employees, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer make recommendations to the Compensation Committee. The Committee can exercise its discretion in modifying any recommended adjustments or awards. With respect to equity compensation awarded to these other management level employees, the Compensation Committee makes deferred stock awards, generally based upon the Company's compensation philosophy recommendations of the Chairman, and Chief Executive Officer.

General Philosophy. We compensate our senior executives through a mix of base salary, bonus and equity compensation designed to be competitive with comparable employers and to align management's incentives with the long-term interests of our stockholders. At the senior-most levels, we design the incentive compensation to reward company-wide performance through tying awards primarily to earnings growth, brand development and stock appreciation. At lower levels, we design the incentive compensation to reward the achievement of specific operational goals within areas under the control of the relevant employees, although company-wide performance is also a factor.

Targeted Compensation Levels. In order to ensure a performance based executive compensation strategy, our Compensation Committee has established a compensation philosophy which targets market levels of base salaries, market levels of annual incentives once plan is achieved and above market levels of equity grants.

In determining market levels, the committee has worked with Fred W. Cook Consultants, an independent compensation consultant. Through this relationship, it has identified peer group information for companies in our industry and published survey information for companies similar in size in order to ensure consistency with our compensation philosophy. The peer group is comprised of the following companies:

Footwear

R.G Barry Corp.
LaCrosse Footwear, Inc.
Wellco Enterprises, Inc.

Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc.
Steven Madden, Ltd.
The Stride Rite Corporation

Deckers Outdoor Corporation
Rocky Brands, Inc.

Table of Contents

Through the use of published survey and peer group data, the Company identified the 50th percentile for each component of compensation and developed compensation recommendations within this approximate range.

Elements of Compensation. Under our compensation structure, we utilize a mix of base salary, bonus and equity compensation for our named executive officers. The elements of compensation are:

Base Salaries. We want to provide our senior management with a level of assured cash compensation in the form of base salary that allows us to attract qualified executives to achieve our short and long term objectives. The factors used in determining executive base salaries include:

- I. The responsibilities for each executive position;
- II. Market levels of salaries for the position;
- III. Past performance and experience of the named executive officers; and
- IV. Our compensation philosophy.

For 2006, the Committee awarded no salary increase for the Chairman or former CEO above the amounts in their respective employment agreements. The CFO received an increase for 2006 of approximately 20.0 percent based on its market assessment to bring his salary more in line with the targeted compensation levels identified by the Committee. Sivaprasad Reddy, Executive Vice-President, Sourcing, joined the Company in March 2006 and his salary was set by the Committee utilizing this method as well.

Annual Incentives. The Compensation Committee may award annual incentives based on individual and Company performance. For named executive officers, in 2005 we established a corporate executive incentive plan. This plan provides non-discretionary bonus incentives based on profitability targets and individual goals and objectives. The amount of the bonus depends on whether the executive meets or exceeds one of three target levels: threshold, target or superior. The profitability target is based upon the Company achieving a certain level of earnings per share for the fiscal year. The individual goals and objectives for each executive are based upon his or her areas of responsibility, including efforts to integrate and consolidate the Company's acquired brands. The bonuses paid are determined as a percentage of each corporate executive's annual compensation. The target levels for 2006 were set by the Committee in March 2006. For brand managers, the incentives are based upon the actual net contribution of that division to our operating earnings and specific objectives associated with the brand.

The targeted levels of revenue and net earnings were not met under the named executive officers' incentive awards plan for 2006. As a result, no bonuses were paid to named executive officers for 2006.

Equity Compensation. We maintain the Amended and Restated 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan, or 2001 Plan, for providing equity incentive compensation to our officers, directors, employees and consultants. Historically, the primary form of equity compensation that we awarded consisted of non-qualified stock options. We selected this form because of the favorable accounting and tax treatments and the prevalent use of stock options in our industry. However, beginning in 2006 the accounting treatment for stock options changed as a result of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), making the accounting treatment of stock options less attractive. As a result, we assessed the desirability of making performance-based stock awards to employees, particularly members of senior management, and concluded that deferred stock awards would provide a more performance based form of incentive compensation while permitting us to issue fewer shares, thereby reducing potential dilution to shareholders.

The deferred stock awards are performance based meaning that in order for the underlying shares to vest, predetermined performance goals must be achieved within the three-year performance period covered by the awards. We will begin recognizing compensation expense for these awards based on the fair market value when vesting becomes probable. Since the cost is not recognized until the time that the awards vest, no compensation cost would be recognized on awards for which employees do not render the requisite service. Additionally, the vesting opportunity would expire if the performance targets are not achieved by the end of the term of the award. This is distinguished from stock option compensation under the 2001 Plan where the cost is recognized over the period during which an employee is required to provide service in exchange for the stock option grant.

Table of Contents

For brand managers, the performance criteria for vesting are based upon the achievement of key brand goals which are determined by the Chairman and approved by the Compensation Committee. For named executive officers, the vesting criteria are based upon the achievement of consolidated revenue and earnings goals.

The Committee sets these performance targets based on a number of factors, including benchmarks for revenue and earnings for comparable companies who the Committee believes perform above industry averages, and our past performance. The Committee set these targets at a growth rate with a moderate/high increase over the prior year, to reflect the integration of our recently acquired brands. In determining the number of deferred stock awards to make to each named executive officer, the Committee took into consideration the duties and scope of responsibilities of each executive position.

Employment Agreements and Severance Benefits. We have employment agreements with our Chairman and new Chief Executive Officer, and had an employment agreement with our former chief executive officer. These employment agreements provide terms and conditions defining the employment relationship, including compensation, benefits, severance, change of control and other provisions. The Committee believes that any severance benefits should reflect the fact that it may be difficult for employees to find comparable employment within a short period of time. In such circumstances the Committee has generally looked to approve severance terms which provide for compensation benefits from 12 to 18 months of base salary.

Perquisites and Other Benefits. We have no specific policy on perquisites and other personal benefits awarded to named executive officers. In 2006, we did not provide any perquisites to named executive officers other than an automobile allowance to Mr. Riedman.

Our named executive officers also participate in our benefit plans on the same terms as other employees. These plans include medical and dental insurance, 401(k), life insurance and discounts on our products. Relocation expenses may also be reimbursed but are individually negotiated at the time of hiring.

Impact of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally limits the tax deductibility of annual compensation paid to certain officers to $1 million, unless specified requirements are met. Special rules apply for performance-based compensation. The Committee expects that all compensation paid to officers will qualify as a tax deductible expense. The Company has not adopted any formal policy with respect to Section 162(m) of the Code.

Employment Contracts and Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control

The Company and James R. Riedman, our Chairman, are parties to a three-year employment agreement effective January 1, 2004. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $325,000 and participation in executive bonus plans as may be established. The agreement also provides for confidentiality, employee non-solicitation and customer non-solicitation covenants that extend for one year after the termination of his employment. The agreement renews automatically for one year terms unless either party gives written ninety day written notice of their intent not to renew.

Mr. Riedman's employment may be terminated by us at any time without cause, effective upon one month written notice of termination. In such an event, we are obligated to continue to pay him as severance an amount equal to his salary and benefits (other than incentive compensation amounts) for 18 months, payable under the same terms as provided while he was an employee. If Mr. Riedman was terminated as of December 29, 2006, without cause, he would have been entitled to a payment of $487,500, payable weekly through June 2008, and medical, life and disability benefits, and a car allowance in the total amount of $27,533. For cause is defined in the agreement and includes (i) repeated and persistent neglect or refusal to substantially perform his duties other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to physical or mental illness; (ii) the engaging in criminal conduct; (iii) the commission of a felony, or a misdemeanor which impairs his ability substantially to perform his duties with the Company; (iv) any material misappropriation of funds or intentional material damage to the property or business of the Company; or (v) the material breach of the employment agreement other than as specified above.

The employment agreement also provides that if his employment is terminated by us without cause in connection with a change of control, we would be obligated to make a severance payment to him in lieu of other payments under the employment agreement. Additionally, under his performance-based deferred stock award agreement with us, the shares of common stock under the agreement immediately vest in connection with a change in control. If the Company experienced a change in control on December 29, 2006, Mr. Riedman would be entitled to receive 75,000 shares of common stock valued at $330,000 based on the closing stock price of $4.40 per share on the American Stock Exchange on December 29, 2006. Under his employment agreement, the severance payment is reduced in an amount sufficient to render the aggregate of the remaining payments not an excess parachute payment as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 280G. As a result, if Mr. Riedman were also terminated in connection a change in control, he would be entitled to receive a severance payment under his employment agreement in the approximate amount of $128,300. In the event Mr. Riedman waived his rights to the performance shares, he could instead receive a payment of up to 2.99 times his base amount compensation, as defined in Code Section 280G, or approximately $971,750. This calculation is an estimate for proxy statement disclosure purposes only. Payments on an actual change in control may differ based on factors such as transaction price, timing of employment termination and payments, changes in compensation and reasonable compensation analyses.

Table of Contents

Messrs. Wolf and Reddy have also entered into performance-based deferred stock award agreements which provide for immediate vesting on a change in control as defined in the agreement. control, each participant immediately vests in the award, unless such acceleration would be inconsistent with Section 162(m) of the Code with respect to a performance-based stock award granted to an executive officer.

If the Company experienced a change in control on December 30, 2006, the named executive officers would be entitled to receive the following number of shares of common stock:

	Shares of	Market
	Common Stock	Value⁽¹⁾
James R. Riedman	75,000	$ 330,000
Kenneth E. Wolf	45,000	$ 198,000

Ms. Taylor is entitled to an award of performance-based deferred stock awards under the Company's 2001 Long Term Incentive Plan, covering up to 420,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The performance criteria provide for the vesting of these shares based upon the Company and certain of its brands meeting financial performance measures on a trailing 12 month basis and Ms. Taylor implementing organizational development initiatives during her employment term, or, as an alternative, the vesting upon the Company's stock price closing above $23 per share for 60 consecutive trading days. Ms. Taylor is obligated to abide by non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality provisions. She is also entitled to be appointed to our Board of Directors and thereafter nominated annually for continued election to the Board of Directors.

Ms. Taylor's employment is terminable for any reason by the Company, with or without cause, at any time. She is also entitled to a pro rated portion of any bonus earned, if terminated during the last four months of a fiscal year. Additionally, if the termination is by her with good reason, or by the Company without cause, following a change of control, as defined in the agreement, all unvested performance-based deferred stock awards not previously forfeited vest. INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

On October 24, 2006, our Audit Committee approved the engagement of Grant Thornton, LLP to be the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and to audit our financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 and report on the results of their audit. A representative of Grant Thornton is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires and to respond to appropriate questions.

Deloitte & Touche LLP had been the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and had audited the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2005. The Company dismissed Deloitte & Touche effective April 8, 2005 as its certifying accountants. The decision to change the Company's independent auditors was made by the Audit Committee.

Deloitte & Touche's report on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2005 was unqualified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. There were no disagreements with Deloitte & Touche on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure during that fiscal year, and in the subsequent interim period through the termination date, which, if not resolved to Deloitte & Touche's satisfaction, would have caused Deloitte & Touche to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report. During the two most recent fiscal years and interim period preceding such dismissal, there were no reportable events (as defined in Regulation S-K, Item 304(a)(1)(v)).

Deloitte & Touche furnished a letter addressed to the SEC dated April 14, 2005 stating that they agreed with the statements made by the Company in its disclosure of the change in accountants. Deloitte & Touche has informed the Company that it does not believe that the statements made in this Proxy Statement by the Company with respect to the change in accountants are incorrect or incomplete. Prior to its engagement as the Company's independent auditors, Grant Thornton had not been consulted by the Company either with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements.

A. Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the Company's audited financial statements contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 30, 2006. It also discussed with Grant Thornton the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards 61, as amended.

Grant Thornton has provided the Audit Committee with the written disclosures and letter required by Independent Standards Board Statement No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and the Audit Committee has discussed with Grant Thornton, Grant Thornton's independence.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for 2006 for filing with the SEC.

(ii) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (C) of paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 1.11, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and such other business must be a proper matter for stockholder action. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the date of the Corporation's proxy statement released to stockholders in connection with the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.
