Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

(b) Reference is made to the registrant's press release dated September 24, 2008, filed as Exhibit 99.1 to the registrant's Form 8-K filed September 24, 2008, in which the registrant announced that as a result of recent market events, it would provide support to clients invested in money market mutual funds, cash sweep funds and similar collective funds impacted by the Lehman Brothers bankruptcy. The information in this Form 8-K does not alter the statements in the registrant's press release dated September 24, 2008 regarding the registrant's expectations with respect to incurring an after-tax charge of approximately $425 million in the third quarter in connection with the support it is providing to clients invested in money market mutual funds, cash sweep funds and similar collective funds impacted by the Lehman Brothers bankruptcy filing, including additional costs associated with previously disclosed support agreements that were outstanding at the end of the second quarter.

On September 30, 2008, the registrant became liable for obligations arising out of off-balance sheet arrangements, as follows. The registrant entered into agreements with four liquidating accounts established by certain commingled cash funds trustee by an affiliate of the registrant (as identified below) holding designated debt securities issued by Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. or affiliates (the Designated Securities). Under these agreements, the registrant agreed to pay certain amounts to the liquidating account in question, upon the occurrence of any of the following events with respect to the Designated Securities held by such liquidating account: (i) the final sale or other final liquidation of the Designated Securities for cash consideration; (ii) the receipt of final payment on the Designated Securities in cash; (iii) the liquidation and winding up without further distribution of the obligor under the Designated Securities; (iv) a court discharge of the obligor under the Designated Securities from liability in respect of the Designated Securities; (v) the rescission, cancellation or similar extinguishment of the obligations of the obligor under the Designated Securities; and (vi) the good faith determination by the registrant and the applicable liquidating account that the Designated Securities have zero value.

Upon the occurrence of any of these events, the registrant is obligated to pay to the applicable liquidating account the difference between the face amount of the Designated Securities (or in some cases, a specified amount of accrued interest on the Designated Securities) held by such liquidating account and the amount realized by the applicable liquidating account with respect to the principal amount of the Designated Securities (or in some cases, with respect to a specified amount of accrued interest on the Designated Securities) held by such liquidating account.

These agreements were entered into with: DF Temporary Investment Fund Lehman (Liquidating Fund); EB SMAM Short Term Investment Fund Lehman (Liquidating Fund); EB Temporary Investment Fund Lehman (Liquidating Fund); and Pooled Employee Daily Liquidity Fund Lehman (Liquidating Fund). The maximum aggregate amount which the registrant may potentially be called upon to pay under all of these agreements is approximately $235,000,000.

In addition, as of September 25, 2008 the registrant entered into capital support agreements with EB Daily Liquidity Money Market Fund, a commingled cash fund trustee by an affiliate of the registrant. These agreements obligate the registrant to pay amounts to the fund upon the occurrence of any of the following events with respect to designated debt securities issued by Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. or affiliates (the Designated Securities) held by the fund: (i) the final sale or other final liquidation by the fund of the Designated Securities; (ii) the receipt by the fund of final payment on the Designated Securities; or (iii) a court discharge of the obligor on the Designated Securities from liability in respect of the Designated Securities. Upon the occurrence of such an event, the registrant is required to contribute capital to the fund that is equal to the least of the following amounts: (i) the amount by which the amortized cost of the Designated Securities exceeds the amount received by the fund in respect of the Designated Securities; (ii) the amount necessary to restore the net asset value per share of the fund to a specified threshold amount; or (iii) the remaining amount of the aggregate capital contribution limit, taking into account all prior contributions. The registrant will not receive any consideration from the fund for the contributed capital, if any, under the agreements. The maximum aggregate amount which the registrant may potentially be called upon to pay under these agreements is approximately $4,380,000.

The registrant also anticipates entering into arrangements with various securities lending customers relating to losses anticipated with respect to designated debt securities issued by Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. or affiliates held by certain funds used for the reinvestment of cash collateral trusted by an affiliate of the registrant or held in the accounts of customers used for the reinvestment of cash collateral, under which the registrant would provide partial support for any losses incurred. These arrangements would include arrangements with customers holding interests in the BNY Mellon Institutional Cash Reserve Fund.

In addition, as previously disclosed, on September 15, 2008 and September 17, 2008, the registrant entered into capital support agreements with Dreyfus Liquid Assets Inc., Dreyfus BASIC Money Market Fund Inc., Dreyfus Worldwide Dollar Money Market Fund, Inc. and Dreyfus Cash Management Plus, Inc. These agreements, as subsequently amended, obligate the registrant to pay amounts to the applicable fund upon the occurrence of any of the following events with respect to designated debt securities issued by Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. or affiliates (the Designated Securities ) held by the fund: (i) the final sale or other final liquidation by the fund of the Designated Securities; (ii) the receipt by the fund of final payment on the Designated Securities; or (iii) a court discharge of the obligor under the Designated Securities from liability in respect of the Designated Securities. Upon the occurrence of such an event, the registrant is required to contribute capital to the applicable fund that is equal to the least of the following amounts: (i) the amount by which the amortized cost of the Designated Securities exceeds the amount received by the fund in respect of the Designated Securities; (ii) the amount necessary to restore the net asset value per share of the fund to a specified threshold amount; or (iii) the remaining amount of the aggregate capital contribution limit, taking into account all prior contributions. The registrant will not receive any consideration from the applicable fund for the contributed capital, if any, under the agreement. The maximum aggregate amount which the registrant may potentially be called upon to pay under all of these agreements is approximately $238,000,000.
