Item 8.01 Other Events

The following information was reported by Pamrapo Bancorp, Inc. on December 7, 2009.

A. As previously reported by Pamrapo Bancorp, Inc. (Pamrapo), Pamrapo Savings Bank, S.L.A. (Pamrapo Bank), the wholly-owned subsidiary of Pamrapo, received federal grand jury subpoenas from the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey (U.S. Attorney's Office). The subpoenas were issued to Pamrapo Bank in connection with an ongoing investigation being conducted by the U.S. Attorney's Office, the Internal Revenue Service, and the Department of Justice (the DOJ) regarding Pamrapo Bank's anti-money laundering and Bank Secrecy Act compliance during the period from 2003 to the end of 2008. Certain individuals, including Pamrapo Bank's senior officers and directors, have received grand jury testimony subpoenas in connection with this investigation. In addition, Pamrapo Bank and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Pamrapo Service Corporation, have also received federal grand jury subpoenas from the U.S. Attorney's Office relating to certain commissions paid to the manager of Pamrapo Service Corporation through the first quarter of 2009. Pamrapo Bank has, and continues to, fully cooperate with the investigation. It is anticipated that the investigation will be resolved in the first quarter of 2010.

Also as previously reported by Pamrapo, no penalties, either criminal or civil, have been imposed on Pamrapo Bank to date as a result of the investigation. However, as first disclosed in Pamrapo's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2009, it is probable that Pamrapo Bank will incur monetary penalties in the form of fines and forfeitures as a result of these matters. Pursuant to FASB ASC 450, a company must accrue funds for a possible litigation loss if a loss is probable and the amount of the expected loss is reasonably estimable. As previously disclosed, Pamrapo Bank accrued a $3 million litigation loss reserve in the second quarter of 2009. New information, which was not available as of the filing date of Pamrapo's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2009, has come to light as a result of which Pamrapo Bank has determined that it is now appropriate to accrue an additional $2 million litigation loss reserve to reflect a potential criminal forfeiture of $5 million.

Although Pamrapo Management of Pamrapo Bank (Pamrapo Management) does not believe the additional litigation loss reserve will be material to the pro forma information contained in the November 9, 2009 Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus (Joint Proxy Statement) related to Pamrapo's merger with BCB Bancorp, Inc (BCB), Pamrapo Management anticipates the additional $2.0 million litigation loss reserve is expected to reduce the combined entity's equity capital by less than 2.0 percent and reduce book value per share by between $0.12 and $0.13 per share. Pamrapo Management expects the combined entity will remain well capitalized.

Pamrapo Management believes, based on discussions with the DOJ, that the $5 million litigation loss reserve represents the maximum amount of the potential criminal forfeiture. However, any final resolution entered into between Pamrapo Bank and all involved government agencies may result in additional losses. Such additional losses would relate to potential criminal fines that may be imposed separately by a court, and civil money penalties that may be imposed by the Office of Thrift Supervision, Pamrapo Bank's primary federal regulator, and Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, a part of the United States Treasury Department (FinCEN). The additional reserve will be recorded in the fourth quarter ending December 31, 2009 and it is anticipated that Pamrapo Bank will continue to be well capitalized after the charge.

B. Pamrapo recently became aware that a complaint had been filed on December 2, 2009 in the Superior Court of New Jersey in Hudson County against Pamrapo, Pamrapo Bank, and each of its directors. The action was brought by William J. Campbell, who is the largest shareholder of Pamrapo and was Pamrapo Bank's former President and Chief Executive Officer from 1970 until February 13, 2009. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the directors of Pamrapo are in breach of their fiduciary duties to shareholders in connection with Pamrapo's entry into an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of June 29, 2009, with BCB (the Agreement), pursuant to which Pamrapo will merge with and into BCB, with BCB as the surviving entity. Additionally, the complaint alleges that Pamrapo failed to disclose that Kenneth Poesl and Robert Doria, former directors of BCB and now directors of Pamrapo, still own BCB stock. While Pamrapo and directors believe the directors' ownership of BCB stock is immaterial, set forth below is the share ownership of each Pamrapo director in Pamrapo stock and BCB stock:

| Name | Shares of Pamrapo Common | | Shares of BCB Common | |
|----------------------|--------------------------------|---------------|----------------------------|---------------|
| | Stock | Percentage(1) | Stock | Percentage(2) |
| Daniel J. Massarelli | 209,116 | 4.24% | 3,000 | 0.06% |
| Kenneth R. Poesl | 70,903 | 1.44 | 168,479 | 3.62 |
| Robert G. Doria | 19,807 | 0.14 | 21,040 | 0.45 |
| Patrick D. Conaghan | 50,500 | 1.02 | 2,000 | 0.04 |
| Herman L. Brockman | 25,000 | 0.51 | 0 | 0.00 |
| John A. Morecraft(3) | 150,381 | 3.05 | 2,080 | 0.04 |

(1) Based on 4,935,542 outstanding shares of Pamrapo as of June 29, 2009.

(2) Based on 4,659,475 outstanding shares of BCB as of June 29, 2009.

(3) Share ownership based upon approximate information. Mr. Morecraft passed away on August 29, 2009.

As fully disclosed in the Joint Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors of Pamrapo unanimously approved the merger.

The complaint seeks, among other things, for the Court to enjoin the defendants from consummating the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and to award the plaintiff attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in bringing the lawsuit. Mr. Campbell simultaneously filed an Order to Show Cause Seeking Preliminary Injunction. Mr. Campbell's lawsuit was identified as a related case to the pending, and previously reported, consolidated purported class action lawsuit.

Pamrapo, Pamrapo Bank, and their directors believe that the allegations in the complaint are without merit and intend to vigorously defend the preliminary injunction motion and the claims and causes of action asserted in this legal matter.
