Item 8.01 Other Events.

Effective January 8, 2010, Washington Federal Savings & Loan Association, a federally-chartered savings and loan association (the Bank) and wholly-owned subsidiary of Washington Federal, Inc., a Washington corporation (the Company), acquired certain assets and liabilities, including most of the loans and deposits, of Horizon Bank, headquartered in Bellingham, Washington (Horizon) from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), as receiver for Horizon (the Acquisition). As of September 30, 2009, Horizon reported total assets of $1.3 billion and total deposits of $1.2 billion. All branches of Horizon have reopened as offices of the Bank.

Horizon operated through eighteen full-service offices, four commercial loan centers and four real estate loan centers in Washington with approximately 225 employees. Total assets purchased by the Bank amounted to approximately $1.14 billion, including an estimated $971 million in loans and $32 million in foreclosed real estate, and total liabilities assumed were approximately $1.01 billion, including an estimated $874 million in deposits. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Bank received a discount of approximately $177 million on the assets and paid a 0% deposit premium.

The loans and foreclosed real estate purchased are covered by two loss share agreements between the FDIC and the Bank (one for single family loans and the other for all other loans and foreclosed real estate), which affords the Bank significant loss protection. Under the loss share agreements, the FDIC will cover 80% of covered loan and foreclosed real estate losses up to $536 million and 95% of losses in excess of that amount. The term for loss sharing on residential real estate loans is ten years, while the term for loss sharing on non-residential real estate loans is five years with respect to losses and eight years with respect to loss recoveries. The losses reimbursable by the FDIC are based on the book value of the relevant loan as determined by the FDIC at the date of the transaction. New loans made after that date are not covered by the loss share agreements.

The assets acquired and liabilities assumed will be subject to purchase accounting adjustments when recorded on the Bank's financial statements.

A copy of the press release issued by the Company announcing the transaction is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
