Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

(a) Prior independent registered public accounting firm

On September 9, 2010, the board of directors (the Board) of Hercules Technology Growth Capital, Inc. (the Company) dismissed Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Board's decision to dismiss Ernst & Young was recommended by the audit committee of the Board.

Ernst & Young served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2008, and 2009. The reports of Ernst & Young on the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2008, and 2009 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

Prior to its dismissal, there were no disagreements with Ernst & Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its report, nor were there any reportable events as such term as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K, promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act).

The Company requested that Ernst & Young review the disclosures contained herein and asked Ernst & Young to furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission containing any new information, clarification of the Company's expression of Ernst & Young's views, or the respects in which Ernst & Young does not agree with the statements contained herein. A copy of Ernst & Young's letter dated September 10, 2010 is filed as an exhibit to this Form 8-K.

(b) New independent registered public accounting firm

On September 9, 2010, upon the recommendation of the audit committee of the Board, the Board engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PricewaterhouseCoopers) to serve as the Company's independent registered accounting firm to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010.

During the two most recent fiscal years and through September 9, 2010, the date of the engagement of PriceWaterhouseCoopers, neither the Company nor any person on its behalf has consulted with PriceWaterhouseCoopers with respect to either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement or a reportable event as such terms are described in Items 304(a)(1)(iv) or 304(a)(1)(v), respectively, of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Exchange Act.
