Dear Fellow Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of The Lubrizol Corporation to be held on June 9, 2011, at 8:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time, at the InterContinental Hotel, 9801 Carnegie Avenue, Six Continents Room, Cleveland, Ohio 44106.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to vote to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger among Berkshire Hathaway Inc., Ohio Merger Sub, Inc. (a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway Inc.), and The Lubrizol Corporation (the merger agreement). If the merger is completed, each of your Lubrizol common shares will be converted into the right to receive $135.00 in cash, without interest. Upon completion of the merger, Lubrizol common shares will cease to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and Ohio Merger Sub, Inc. will be merged into Lubrizol, which will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway.

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of Lubrizol of proxies to be used at the special meeting of shareholders.

The board of directors (the Board) has reviewed and considered carefully the terms and conditions of the proposed merger. Based on its review, the Board has determined that the merger is advisable and in the best interests of Lubrizol and its shareholders. Accordingly, the Board has approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

The Board also recommends that you vote FOR any proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Your vote is very important, and I urge you to vote as soon as possible. Only holders of record of Lubrizol common shares at the close of business on April 27, 2011 will be entitled to vote at the special meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please vote by proxy over the internet or by telephone by following the instructions on the proxy card, or vote by completing, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope. If you hold your shares in street name, you should instruct your broker how to vote by using your voting instruction form. Completing a proxy now will not prevent you from being able to vote at the special meeting by attending in person and casting a vote. You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by following the instructions in this proxy statement. Failure to either submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement.

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of Lubrizol common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

This proxy statement explains the proposed merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and provides specific information concerning the special meeting. We encourage you to read the entire proxy statement carefully.

Sincerely,

James L. Hambrick
Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON JUNE 9, 2011

To Shareholders of The Lubrizol Corporation:

The special meeting of shareholders of The Lubrizol Corporation will be held on June 9, 2011, at 8:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time, at the InterContinental Hotel, 9801 Carnegie Avenue, Six Continents Room, Cleveland, Ohio 44106, unless adjourned or postponed to a later date. The special meeting will be held for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 13, 2011, by and among Berkshire Hathaway Inc., Ohio Merger Sub, Inc. (a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway Inc.), and The Lubrizol Corporation. As a result of the merger, (a) Ohio Merger Sub, Inc. will be merged into The Lubrizol Corporation, (b) The Lubrizol Corporation will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway Inc., and (c) each outstanding Lubrizol common share will be converted into the right to receive $135.00 in cash, without interest.
2. To approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Only holders of record of Lubrizol common shares at the close of business on April 27, 2011, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof. Each common share is entitled to vote on all matters that are properly brought before the special meeting and is entitled to one vote on each matter.

Lubrizol's Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. Lubrizol cannot complete the merger unless the merger agreement is adopted by the affirmative vote of holders of the majority of Lubrizol common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Lubrizol's Board also unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

This proxy statement describes the proposed merger and the actions to be taken in connection with the merger and provides additional information about the parties involved.

Please give this information your careful attention. Under Ohio law, if you do not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement you will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of your Lubrizol common shares under Sections 1701.84 and 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law if the merger is completed, but only if you submit a written demand for an appraisal on or before the tenth day following the special meeting and you comply with the Ohio law procedures explained in this proxy statement. See The Merger Appraisal Rights of Lubrizol Shareholders beginning on page 48.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please give your proxy over the internet or by telephone by following the instructions on the proxy card, or complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope. You may revoke the proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting in the manner described in this proxy statement. Completing a proxy now will not prevent you from being able to vote at the special meeting by attending in person and casting a vote. Your vote at the special meeting will supersede any previously submitted proxy. If you fail to return your proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting and will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the adoption of the merger agreement.

Edgar Filing: LUBRIZOL Corp - Form DEFM14A

Please give your proxy over the internet or by telephone by following the instructions on the proxy card, or complete, date and sign the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope. Please do not send any share certificates at this time.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting of our shareholders will be held June 9, 2011, at 8:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time, at the InterContinental Hotel, 9801 Carnegie Avenue, Six Continents Room, Cleveland, Ohio 44106.

Purpose

You will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement among Berkshire Hathaway, Ohio Merger Sub and Lubrizol. The merger agreement provides that Ohio Merger Sub will merge into Lubrizol, and Lubrizol will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway. Each Lubrizol common share you own at the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive $135.00 in cash, without interest.

You will also be asked to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Record Date; Shareholders Entitled to Vote

You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned Lubrizol common shares as of the close of business on April 27, the record date for the special meeting. On the record date, there were 64,291,450 common shares outstanding (all of which are entitled to vote at the special meeting), of which a total of 274,194 common shares (or approximately 0.43% of the total outstanding) were held by Lubrizol's directors and executive officers. You will have one vote for each Lubrizol common share that you owned as of the close of business on the record date on each matter submitted to a vote at the special meeting.

How You May Vote

If you are the record owner of Lubrizol common shares, you or your authorized agent can vote your shares directly in any one of the following ways. If you vote over the internet or by telephone, you do not need to return the proxy card.

By Internet: Log onto the website indicated on the proxy card and follow the instructions given.

By Telephone: Call the toll-free number shown on the proxy card and follow the voice prompts.

By Mail: Mark, sign, date and mail the proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

By Ballot: Attend the special meeting in person and use a ballot, which will be provided to you.

If you submit your proxy through use of the internet or telephone voting procedures or by returning your signed proxy card by mail, but do not indicate FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN on a proposal to be voted, your shares will be voted in favor of that proposal. If you indicate ABSTAIN on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

How to Vote Shares Held by Your Bank or Broker

If your shares are held by a bank or broker, you must follow the voting instructions provided by the bank or broker. Unless you give your bank or broker instructions on how to vote your shares, your bank or broker will not be able to vote your shares on the proposals.

Changing or Revoking Your Vote

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by notifying the corporate secretary in writing; voting at a later time by internet or by telephone; returning a later-dated proxy card; or voting in person at the special meeting.

Special Instructions for Shareholders who Hold Lubrizol Common Shares under the Company 401(k) Plan

You cannot directly vote any Lubrizol common shares that you hold under The Lubrizol Corporation Employees Profit Sharing and Savings Plan (the Company 401(k) Plan) on matters presented at the special meeting. Instead, any Lubrizol common shares that you hold under the Company 401(k) Plan will be voted on matters presented at the special meeting by the trustee of the Company 401(k) Plan in accordance with your instructions as set forth on the proxy card.

Quorum, Effect of Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes and Vote Required

A quorum of shareholders is necessary to hold a valid special meeting of Lubrizol. Under our Second Amended and Restated Regulations, the holders of a majority of Lubrizol common shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum.

Both abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting. Abstentions, broker non-votes and shares not in attendance and not voted at the special meeting will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Lubrizol common shares entitled to vote. It is very important that ALL Lubrizol shareholders submit their proxy in order for their shares to be voted, so please give your proxy over the internet or by telephone by following the instructions on the proxy card or promptly complete and return the enclosed proxy card.

Counting of Votes; Vote Results; Confidential Voting

Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. serves as the independent tabulator of votes. We intend to announce the preliminary voting results at the special meeting. Following the meeting, Broadridge will certify the final voting results, and we will disclose the final results within four business days after the special meeting in a Current Report on Form 8-K, which will be filed with the SEC. In reporting the voting results, Broadridge will not identify to us how you voted on any issue unless it is required to do so by law or you authorize it.

Solicitation of Proxies and Expenses

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of proxies to be used at the special meeting of shareholders of Lubrizol. The solicitation of proxies is being made initially by mail. Directors, officers and other employees of Lubrizol may solicit proxies in person, by telephone, electronically, by mail or other means, but they will not be specifically compensated for these services. Lubrizol has also retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting and has agreed to pay Innisfree a fee not to exceed $75,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket costs and expenses. We have also agreed to indemnify Innisfree against various liabilities and expenses that relate to or arise out of its solicitation of proxies. Brokers, banks and other persons will be reimbursed by Lubrizol for expenses they incur in forwarding proxy material to obtain voting instructions from beneficial shareholders.

Shareholders should not send in their share certificates with their proxies. A transmittal form with instructions for the surrender of certificates representing common shares will be mailed to shareholders if the merger is completed.

Board Recommendation (page 26)

The Board has approved the merger agreement and the merger and unanimously recommends that Lubrizol's shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. The Board also recommends that Lubrizol shareholders vote FOR any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit further proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

The Merger and the Merger Agreement (pages 16 & 51)

The rights and obligations of the parties to the merger agreement are governed by the specific terms and conditions of the merger agreement and not by any summary or other information in this proxy statement. Therefore, the information in this proxy statement regarding the merger agreement and the merger is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety because it is the principal legal agreement that governs the merger.

Structure of the Merger

At the effective time of the merger, Ohio Merger Sub will be merged into Lubrizol. Lubrizol will continue as the surviving corporation and become a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway, and Lubrizol common shares will cease to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Lubrizol Equity and Equity-Based Awards

the total number of Lubrizol common shares covered by the option, multiplied by the excess, if any, of $135.00 over the per share exercise price of the option.

Performance Share Units and Restricted Share Units

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding performance share unit will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into a cash payment, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of $135.00 multiplied by the number of Lubrizol common shares subject to the performance share unit, determined and paid under the applicable plan and award agreement based on performance as of the effective time of the merger.

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding time-based vesting restricted share unit will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into a cash payment, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of $135.00 multiplied by the number of Lubrizol common shares underlying the restricted share unit.

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding equity-based award granted under a plan maintained primarily for international Lubrizol employees will be settled in accordance with the terms of the applicable plan but solely in cash in an amount based on the merger consideration.

Deferred Compensation Awards

At the effective time of the merger, each notional share under any deferred compensation plan will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into the right to receive $135.00 in cash, less any applicable withholding tax, payable at the time specified in the applicable plan.

Shareholders are urged to read this opinion carefully and in its entirety. Evercore's opinion was provided for the information of the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration from a financial point of view and did not address any other aspects or implications of the merger. Evercore was not requested to consider, and its opinion did not address, the underlying business decision of Lubrizol to effect the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Lubrizol or the effect of any other transaction in which Lubrizol might engage. Evercore's opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed merger or otherwise.

Opinion of Citigroup Global Markets Inc.

In connection with the merger, the Board received a written opinion, dated March 12, 2011, from Citigroup Global Markets Inc., which is referred to as Citi, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the merger consideration to be received by Lubrizol shareholders. The full text of Citi's written opinion, which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C, sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. Shareholders are encouraged to read this opinion carefully and in its entirety. Citi's opinion was provided for the information of the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration from a financial point of view and did not address any other aspects or implications of the merger. Citi was not requested to consider, and its opinion did not address, the underlying business decision of Lubrizol to effect the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Lubrizol or the effect of any other transaction in which Lubrizol might engage. Citi's opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed merger or otherwise.

Conditions to the Merger

A number of conditions must be satisfied or waived before the merger can be completed. See and read carefully The Merger Agreement Conditions of the Merger beginning on page 63. Neither Berkshire Hathaway nor Lubrizol can offer any assurance that all of the conditions will be satisfied or waived or that the merger will occur, or the timing of the merger if it occurs.

Termination of the Merger Agreement and Termination Fees

The merger agreement may be terminated by the mutual written consent of Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub, or under certain specified circumstances by either Lubrizol or Berkshire Hathaway. Upon termination of the merger agreement under certain specified circumstances, we are required to pay a termination fee of $200 million to Berkshire Hathaway. See The Merger Agreement Termination beginning on page 64 and The Merger Agreement Termination Fee on page 65.

No Solicitation

The merger agreement limits our ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding a proposal to acquire our assets or securities. However, if we receive an unsolicited takeover proposal from a third party that the Board determines in good faith (after consulting with financial advisors and receiving the advice of outside legal counsel) constitutes a superior proposal or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal under certain circumstances and in accordance with procedures set forth in the merger agreement, we may furnish nonpublic information to that third party and engage in negotiations regarding a takeover proposal with that third party, subject to specified conditions. See The Merger Agreement Covenants and Agreements No Solicitation; Board Recommendation beginning on page 58.

Governmental Review

The merger is subject to review under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. Under the provisions of the HSR Act, the merger cannot be completed until the companies have made required notifications, given certain information and materials to the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and to the U.S. Department of Justice and a required waiting period has expired or been terminated. On April 8, 2011, the FTC granted an early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act without the imposition of any conditions or restrictions on the consummation of the merger. In addition, we are required to make merger control filings in various foreign jurisdictions with respect to the merger, and in certain circumstances, receive their approval prior to consummation of the merger. See The Merger Governmental and Regulatory Matters beginning on page 46.

Certain United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 47)

Generally, as a result of the merger a shareholder will recognize taxable gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference between (1) the amount of cash such holder receives and (2) the adjusted tax basis of the Lubrizol common shares exchanged for cash.

You should read The Merger Certain United States Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning on page 47 for a more complete discussion of the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular circumstances. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences of the merger to you (including the application and effect of any state, local or foreign income and other tax laws).

Interests of Lubrizol Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 41)

In considering the Board's recommendation to vote for the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and the merger, Lubrizol shareholders should be aware that the directors and executive officers of Lubrizol have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Lubrizol shareholders generally and that may create potential conflicts of interest, including:

vesting of stock options, performance share units and restricted share units;

payment of severance and other benefits under certain circumstances; and provision under the merger agreement of certain indemnification arrangements by Berkshire Hathaway.

The Board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending the adoption of the merger agreement to Lubrizol shareholders.

For a more detailed discussion of these interests, see The Merger Interests of Lubrizol Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 41.

Appraisal Rights of Lubrizol Shareholders (page 48)

Under Ohio law, if you own Lubrizol common shares and do not vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement, you will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of your Lubrizol common shares under Sections 1701.84 and 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law (the "OGCL"), if the merger is completed. This value could be more than, less than, or the same as the merger consideration for Lubrizol common shares. Failure to strictly comply with all procedures required by Section 1701.85 of the OGCL will result in a loss of the right to appraisal.

Table of Contents

For example, merely voting against the adoption of the merger agreement will not preserve your right to appraisal under the OGCL. Also, the submission of a proxy not marked AGAINST or ABSTAIN will result in the waiver of appraisal rights. If you hold shares in the name of a broker or other nominee, you must instruct your nominee to take the steps necessary to enable you to demand appraisal for your Lubrizol common shares.

Annex D to this proxy statement contains the full text of Sections 1701.84 and 1701.85 of the OGCL, which relates to appraisal rights. We encourage you to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety.

Certain Litigation Related to the Merger (page 50)

Lubrizol is aware of five shareholder derivative and purported class actions that have been filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Lake County, Ohio relating to the proposed transaction. The lawsuits generally allege that the directors of Lubrizol breached their fiduciary duties to Lubrizol shareholders by agreeing to enter into the transaction for an allegedly unfair price and as the result of an allegedly unfair process and that the shareholders have not been provided sufficient information about the proposed merger. The lawsuits also allege that Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway aided and abetted the directors' breaches of fiduciary duties. The lawsuits seek, among other things, injunctive relief against the consummation of the proposed transaction and rescission of the merger agreement. Lubrizol and its directors believe that the allegations against them lack merit and intend to defend the lawsuits vigorously.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

When we refer to we, us, our, the Company and Lubrizol in this proxy statement, we are referring to The Lubrizol Corporation, unless the context requires otherwise.

We are furnishing this proxy statement to our shareholders as part of the solicitation of a proxy by our Board for use at the special meeting in connection with the proposed merger and the other items to be voted on at the special meeting. This proxy statement provides Lubrizol shareholders with the information they need to know to be able to vote, or instruct their vote to be cast, at the special meeting.

Date, Time and Place

We will hold the special meeting on June 9, 2011, at 8:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time, at the InterContinental Hotel, 9801 Carnegie Avenue, Six Continents Room, Cleveland, Ohio 44106.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, Lubrizol shareholders will consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement. You will also be asked to vote on any proposal to approve the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that Ohio Merger Sub will merge into Lubrizol, and Lubrizol will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway. Each Lubrizol common share you own will be converted into the right to receive $135.00 in cash, without interest. The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote, and instruct their votes be cast, FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Record Date; Shareholders Entitled to Vote

The record date for the special meeting is April 27, 2011. Record holders of Lubrizol common shares at the close of business on the record date are entitled to vote or have their votes cast at the special meeting. Table of Contents

If you submit your proxy through use of the internet or by telephone voting procedures or by returning your signed proxy card, but do not indicate FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN on a proposal to be voted, your shares will be voted in favor of that proposal. If you indicate ABSTAIN on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

PROPOSALS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE SPECIAL MEETING

ITEM 1 THE MERGER

As discussed elsewhere in this proxy statement, our shareholders will consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the merger agreement. You should read carefully this proxy statement in its entirety for more detailed information concerning the merger agreement and the merger. In particular, you should read in its entirety the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

The Board unanimously recommends that Lubrizol shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

If you return a properly executed proxy card without instructions indicating how you want to vote, your Lubrizol common shares represented by such proxy card will be voted FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

ITEM 2 APPROVE ADJOURNMENT OR POSTPONEMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING, IF NECESSARY, TO PERMIT FURTHER SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Shareholders may be asked to vote on a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Revocation of Proxies

Any proxy given by a Lubrizol shareholder may be revoked at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by doing any of the following:

delivering a written notice bearing a date later than the date of the previous proxy to Lubrizol's corporate secretary stating that the previous proxy is revoked;

voting at a later time by internet or by telephone;

completing, signing and delivering a proxy card relating to the same Lubrizol common shares and bearing a later date than the date of the previous proxy; or attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Quorum

A quorum must be present to transact business at the special meeting. Under our Second Amended and Restated Regulations, the holders of a majority of Lubrizol common shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or by use of communications equipment or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum. If you submit a properly executed proxy card, even if you abstain from voting or vote against the adoption of the merger agreement, your shares will be counted for purposes of calculating whether a quorum is present at the special meeting. As of the April 27, 2011 record date, 64,291,450 common shares were outstanding and entitled to vote.

If a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies. If a new record date is set for the adjourned meeting, however, a new quorum would have to be established at the adjourned meeting.

Shareholder Vote Required to Adopt the Proposals at the Special Meeting

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of the majority of Lubrizol common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. If a broker holds a shareholder's common shares in its name and the shareholder does not give the broker voting instructions, under the rules of the NYSE, the broker may not vote the shares on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. If a shareholder does not give a broker voting instructions and the broker does not vote the shares, this is referred to as a broker non-vote. An abstention occurs when a shareholder attends the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting or does not vote. Abstentions, broker non-votes and shares not present and not voted at the special meeting have the same effect as votes AGAINST the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

If a quorum is present, approval of postponements or adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement, requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of Lubrizol common shares present in person or represented by proxy that are entitled to and actually voted on the matter. In this situation, abstentions, broker non-votes and shares not in attendance at the special meeting will have no effect on the outcome of any vote to adjourn or postpone the special meeting.

If a quorum is not present, approval of adjournments or postponements of the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of Lubrizol common shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon. In this situation, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting. Broker non-votes and shares not in attendance at the special meeting will have no effect on the outcome of any vote to adjourn or postpone the special meeting.

It is very important that ALL Lubrizol shareholders vote their Lubrizol common shares, so please promptly give your proxy over the internet or by telephone by following the instructions on the proxy card, or complete and return the enclosed proxy card.

Solicitation Costs

Lubrizol is soliciting your proxy on behalf of our Board. In addition to solicitation by mail, our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies in person, by telephone or by electronic means. These persons will not be specifically compensated for doing this.

Lubrizol will ask banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward our proxy solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of Lubrizol common shares. Lubrizol will reimburse these holders for their customary clerical and mailing expenses incurred in forwarding the proxy solicitation materials to the beneficial owners.

Lubrizol has retained Innisfree to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting and has agreed to pay Innisfree a fee not to exceed $75,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket costs and expenses. We have also agreed to indemnify Innisfree against certain liabilities and expenses that relate to its solicitation of proxies.

Exchange of Share Certificates

Lubrizol shareholders should not send share certificates with their proxies. Separate transmittal documents for the surrender of Lubrizol common share certificates in exchange for the $135.00 per share cash merger consideration will be mailed to Lubrizol shareholders if and when the merger is completed. See The Merger Agreement Payment for Shares beginning on page 53.

THE MERGER

The discussion in this proxy statement of the merger and the principal terms of the merger agreement is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A. You should read the entire merger agreement carefully.

Background of the Merger

As part of their ongoing oversight and management of Lubrizol's business, the Board and senior management of Lubrizol regularly review strategic alternatives available to Lubrizol and assess takeover preparedness. In connection with these reviews and assessments, the Board and senior management enlist the assistance of outside legal counsel and financial advisors. Jones Day, as legal counsel, and Citi and Evercore, as financial advisors, have on occasion assisted Lubrizol with this strategic review and assessment.

For the past several years, Lubrizol's common shares have traded at a discount to its specialty chemicals peers on an enterprise/EBITDA multiple basis and a price/earnings multiple basis. In an effort to improve Lubrizol's valuation, Lubrizol evaluated during 2010 a range of strategic alternatives with the assistance of Citi and Evercore, including several large potential acquisition opportunities. Lubrizol also considered increasing share repurchases as a means of returning excess cash to shareholders in the event that Lubrizol was unable to complete one or more large acquisitions.

On October 5, 2010, Lubrizol made a public presentation to investors and analysts in New York. At this presentation, Lubrizol's management communicated a 2013 earnings per share target of $13.50 per share. This 2013 target included $1.25 per share that would result from completion of Lubrizol's authorized share repurchase program.

On November 9, 2010, the Board convened a regularly scheduled meeting. In connection with the Board's ongoing oversight and management and its obligations to shareholders, the Board received a presentation from Lubrizol's general counsel concerning the Board's fiduciary duties and Lubrizol's various takeover defenses. This presentation was part of the planned board agenda for the year and was conducted using materials prepared by Jones Day and Evercore, and was not made or prepared in response to any actual or perceived takeover threat or proposal. During this meeting, the Board and Lubrizol's senior management continued to discuss strategic acquisitions and share repurchase activities.

During the Fall of 2010, David L. Sokol was the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of NetJets and the Chairman of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company, two subsidiaries of Berkshire Hathaway. From time to time, Mr. Sokol met with various investment banking firms, including Citi, to discuss capital-raising and transaction ideas. In the course of general discussions between Mr. Sokol and Citi, Mr. Sokol requested more information regarding possible transactions in several industries, including the chemical industry. Using publicly available information, Citi generated a list and descriptions of 18 companies, including Lubrizol, in the chemical industry.

On December 13, 2010, Mr. Sokol and Citi met to discuss the list of companies. During the course of the meeting, Mr. Sokol said that the only company on Citi's list that he found interesting was Lubrizol. When Mr. Sokol learned from Citi's representatives that Citi had an investment banking relationship with Lubrizol and its Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. James L. Hambrick, he asked one of the Citi representatives to inform Mr. Hambrick that he was interested in speaking with him and discussing Berkshire Hathaway and Lubrizol, if Mr. Hambrick were available. Mr. Sokol also advised Citi that Berkshire Hathaway does not engage in hostile transactions, and that Mr. Hambrick should understand that if they met and nothing came of the meeting, their meeting would remain confidential. Thereafter, Citi made Lubrizol aware of these discussions, as more fully described below.

On December 14, 2010, the Board convened a regularly scheduled meeting and discussed a number of matters, including the status of Lubrizol's investigation and evaluation of a number of opportunities for Lubrizol to make acquisitions.

On December 17, 2010, Citi called Mr. Hambrick and relayed the substance of the conversation between Citi and Mr. Sokol on December 13, 2010. Mr. Hambrick indicated that he would inform the Board of Berkshire Hathaway's possible interest and discussed that Citi would so inform Mr. Sokol. Later on December 17, 2010, Citi informed Mr. Sokol that Mr. Hambrick had indicated that he would discuss Berkshire Hathaway's possible interest with the Board.

On January 6, 2011, the Board convened a special meeting. During the course of the special meeting, Mr. Hambrick outlined Berkshire Hathaway's possible interest as he understood it from his conversation with Citi. The Board engaged in an extensive and thorough discussion about Berkshire Hathaway's possible interest. The Board determined that it needed to retain outside legal counsel and financial advisors to assist it in connection with any response to Mr. Sokol, including the process that the Board should undertake in connection with its review of Berkshire Hathaway's possible interest in acquiring Lubrizol. The Board decided to engage Jones Day and Evercore to assist it.

On January 7, 2011, Mr. Hambrick and other members of Lubrizol's senior management met with Jones Day to brief the firm on Mr. Sokol's expression of possible interest from Berkshire Hathaway, and to provide an update on a number of acquisition opportunities that Lubrizol was evaluating.

On January 10, 2011, the Board convened a special meeting. Evercore and Jones Day participated in the meeting. The Board received from Jones Day detailed instruction about its fiduciary duties in connection with the receipt of an unsolicited proposal. The Board engaged in an extensive and thorough discussion about Berkshire Hathaway's possible interest. The Board consulted with Evercore and Jones Day for their recommendations on how to respond, including the factors that the Board should consider in connection with its review, and the potential ramifications to Lubrizol depending on the response to Mr. Sokol's proposal for a meeting. Since Lubrizol was in the process of evaluating a number of potential acquisitions (including one large potential acquisition), the Board instructed Lubrizol's management to assess, with the assistance of Citi and Evercore (both of which were assisting Lubrizol in its evaluation of a large potential acquisition), (i) the Berkshire Hathaway expression of possible interest, including the value that might be achieved through negotiations with Berkshire Hathaway, (ii) the large potential acquisition, and (iii) a scenario in which Lubrizol completed only smaller acquisitions and continued to repurchase shares, taking into account the expected risks and benefits to Lubrizol's shareholders of each scenario. In an effort to determine whether substantial value for Lubrizol's shareholders could be realized in an acquisition of Lubrizol by Berkshire Hathaway, the Board instructed Mr. Hambrick to arrange a meeting with Mr. Sokol.

On or about January 10, 2011, Mr. Hambrick requested that Citi contact Mr. Sokol to inform him that he should expect a call from Mr. Hambrick and thereafter Citi so informed Mr. Sokol.

On January 12, 2011, the Board formally engaged Evercore to evaluate potential strategic and financial alternatives, including but not limited to (i) the sale of some or all of the equity of Lubrizol, and (ii) acquisitions by Lubrizol.

On January 14, 2011, Mr. Sokol and Mr. Hambrick had a telephone conference during which they generally discussed the corporate cultures and philosophies of both Berkshire Hathaway and Lubrizol, and arranged to have an in person meeting on January 25, 2011.

On January 19, 2011, members of Lubrizol's senior management met with Citi and Evercore to discuss Mr. Hambrick's upcoming meeting with Mr. Sokol.

On January 25, 2011, Mr. Sokol and Mr. Hambrick met in Cleveland, Ohio. The two executives discussed their respective backgrounds and businesses. Mr. Hambrick provided Mr. Sokol with an overview of Lubrizol's corporate culture, philosophy and operations. Mr. Hambrick also discussed Lubrizol's overall business and past and expected financial performance, and provided Mr. Sokol a package of materials that included Lubrizol's publicly available past results, forecasts through 2013, Lubrizol's financial performance for the fiscal year 2010, as well as internal forecasts for fiscal years 2014 and 2015. Mr. Hambrick also gave his views on the future of the specialty chemicals industry and general industry dynamics. Mr. Hambrick asked whether there was additional information regarding Lubrizol that he could provide. Mr. Hambrick and Mr. Sokol did not discuss price for a potential transaction because Mr. Sokol said that any price discussion would occur with Mr. Warren E. Buffett, Berkshire Hathaway's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Hambrick also offered to have a follow-up meeting with Mr. Sokol and Mr. Buffett if Mr. Sokol thought that such a meeting would be helpful to Berkshire Hathaway. Mr. Sokol indicated that he did not believe that there was any more information that Berkshire Hathaway needed at that time, but said that he would get back to Mr. Hambrick if additional meetings would be helpful. Mr. Sokol indicated that, as is typical in other Berkshire Hathaway acquisitions, if Berkshire Hathaway were to acquire Lubrizol, it would want Mr. Hambrick to continue to run the business. In response to a question from Mr. Sokol, Mr. Hambrick indicated that he had no present intention of retiring. However, at no point during the meeting did Mr. Sokol and Mr. Hambrick discuss potential compensation or employment terms for Mr. Hambrick in the event that a transaction between the two companies were to occur.

On January 26, 2011, Mr. Hambrick briefed Citi and Evercore on his meeting with Mr. Sokol.

On January 27, 2011, Mr. Sokol responded to Mr. Hambrick's offer to meet with Mr. Buffett by calling Mr. Hambrick, stating that it would be helpful for Mr. Hambrick to meet with Mr. Buffett, and asking whether he would be willing to meet with Mr. Buffett in Omaha, Nebraska on February 8, 2011. Mr. Hambrick told Mr. Sokol that, subject to instruction by his Board, he was willing to meet with Mr. Buffett on February 8th. Mr. Sokol also said that, if Mr. Buffett wanted Berkshire Hathaway to proceed with an acquisition of Lubrizol, Mr. Buffett would have a view on what Berkshire Hathaway would be willing to pay, but that Mr. Buffett would not make an offer unless Mr. Hambrick wanted him to do so.

On January 28, 2011, the Board held an informal session in which a majority of the directors participated. Evercore, Jones Day and Lubrizol's general counsel participated in the meeting. The Board received from Jones Day detailed instruction about its fiduciary duties in connection with the events that had taken place. Mr. Hambrick briefed the participants on his meeting and subsequent conversation with Mr. Sokol. Evercore informed the participants that on January 27, 2011, Mr. Buffett had called Evercore's Chairman and indicated that Mr. Sokol's feedback on his meeting with Mr. Hambrick had been very positive and that Mr. Buffett was interested in having Berkshire Hathaway acquire the outstanding shares of Company common stock if it could be done at a price that made sense to Berkshire Hathaway. Mr. Buffett also indicated that he was very interested in an opportunity to meet with Mr. Hambrick, and that, subject to the meeting, Berkshire Hathaway would be willing to make an offer at the meeting on February 8, 2011 if Lubrizol was willing to receive such an offer. The Board then engaged in an extensive and thorough discussion about Lubrizol's other strategic activities, including the potential acquisitions that it was evaluating. The Board consulted with Evercore and Jones Day for their recommendation as to how to proceed, including whether or not Mr. Hambrick should meet with Mr. Buffett. In an effort to determine whether substantial value for Lubrizol's shareholders could be realized in an acquisition of Lubrizol by Berkshire Hathaway, the Board agreed that Mr. Hambrick should meet with Mr. Buffett. However, the Board reiterated to Evercore and Jones Day that the Board was confident about Lubrizol's strategic direction and that the Board felt no pressure to sell Lubrizol. The Board also reiterated that Lubrizol should continue to evaluate and pursue all of its potential acquisitions as if the discussions with Berkshire Hathaway were not taking place.

On February 2, 2011, Lubrizol held an earnings call, during which management disclosed Lubrizol's 2010 financial results, including 2010 pro forma earnings per share of $9.91, as adjusted for restructuring and impairment charges. Lubrizol's management also stated that Lubrizol's margin and growth assumptions underlying the 2011 earnings per share guidance of $11.05 to $11.55 were consistent with the 2013 trajectory that had been communicated to investors on October 5, 2010 and included the effects of Lubrizol's share repurchase program.

On February 4, 2011, Mr. Hambrick met with Evercore's Chairman to discuss Mr. Hambrick's upcoming meeting with Mr. Buffett, and the strategies that might be employed to elicit an expression of interest in Lubrizol at an attractive per share value.

On February 8, 2011, Mr. Hambrick met with Mr. Buffett in Omaha, Nebraska. Mr. Hambrick provided Mr. Buffett with an overview of Lubrizol's corporate culture, philosophy and operations. Mr. Hambrick also discussed Lubrizol's overall business and financial performance and described Lubrizol's publicly available past results and publicly available forecasts through fiscal year 2013. Mr. Hambrick gave his views on the future of the specialty chemicals manufacturing industry and general industry dynamics. At this meeting, Mr. Buffett responded to a question from Mr. Hambrick about price by saying that Berkshire Hathaway would like to make an offer to buy all of the outstanding shares of Company common stock for $135.00 per share in cash. Mr. Hambrick told Mr. Buffett that he would relay Berkshire Hathaway's proposal to the Board, but that he did not know whether or not the Board would be inclined to recommend the offer.

On February 9, 2011, the Board held an informal session in which a majority of the directors participated. Evercore and Jones Day participated in the meeting. The Board received from Jones Day detailed instruction about its fiduciary duties in connection with the events that had taken place. Mr. Hambrick briefed the participants on his meeting with Mr. Buffett. The Board instructed Evercore to perform an analysis, and to form a judgment about the value of Lubrizol. The Board also instructed Evercore to perform an analysis, and form a judgment about what the value of Lubrizol would be if it were able to complete the large potential acquisition that had been under evaluation. The Board indicated that it wished for the management of Lubrizol and Evercore to undertake all necessary actions, and perform all necessary analyses, so that the Board could make an informed review of Lubrizol's strategic alternatives at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting.

On February 21 and February 22, 2011, the Board convened a regularly scheduled meeting. Members of Lubrizol's senior management, Jones Day, Citi and Evercore participated in the meeting. The Board was provided another overview by Jones Day of its fiduciary duties. Among other matters considered by the Board, the Board engaged in an extensive and thorough discussion about (i) Berkshire Hathaway's $135.00 per share proposal to acquire Lubrizol, (ii) the potentially large acquisition that Lubrizol had been evaluating and (iii) a scenario in which Lubrizol completed only smaller acquisitions and continued to repurchase shares, taking into account the potential risks and benefits to Lubrizol's shareholders of each scenario. Evercore reviewed with the Board its assessment of Berkshire Hathaway's proposal and Evercore's other assessments of Lubrizol, including valuation analyses. The Board then reviewed and considered detailed analyses prepared by Lubrizol's management of the present value of Lubrizol's expected future cash flows and the present value of future share prices based on various earnings per share projections and price to earnings ratios. The Board then discussed with Lubrizol's management and advisors various possible execution and other risks associated with Lubrizol's strategic plan and the potential acquisitions that it was evaluating. The Board also continued its discussion of stock buyback programs, taking into account the Board's and management's views that stock buybacks would not have a meaningful lasting impact on the market price of Lubrizol's shares. After further discussion and consideration, the Board instructed Evercore to inform Berkshire Hathaway that the Board would be willing to recommend that shareholders accept an offer to buy all of the outstanding shares of Company common stock for $140.00 per share in cash.

On March 2, 2011, Evercore's Chairman called Mr. Buffett to inform him that the Board was willing to support a transaction by which Berkshire Hathaway would acquire all of the outstanding shares of Lubrizol for $140.00 per share in cash. Mr. Buffett told Evercore's Chairman that Berkshire Hathaway was unwilling to raise its offer beyond $135.00 per share.

On March 3, 2011, Lubrizol formally engaged Evercore to provide financial advisory services in connection with evaluating strategic and financial alternatives related to the proposal received from Berkshire Hathaway about a merger or sale of all or part of the equity, business or assets of Lubrizol or another significant corporate transaction with Berkshire Hathaway.

Also on March 3, 2011, the Board convened a special meeting. Evercore and Jones Day participated in the meeting. Jones Day provided the directors with another overview of its fiduciary duties. Evercore described for the Board the March 2, 2011 discussion between Evercore's Chairman and Mr. Buffett. There was additional discussion about Evercore's various valuation analyses. Evercore also indicated that, in its view, contacting other potential purchasers was unlikely to result in an offer being made for Lubrizol in excess of Berkshire Hathaway's $135.00 per share cash offer. Evercore also noted that Berkshire Hathaway generally does not participate in auctions and that if Lubrizol contacted other potential parties, Berkshire Hathaway might withdraw its offer. Members of the Board asked numerous questions of Evercore and Jones Day, and the Board engaged in an extensive and thorough discussion about Berkshire Hathaway's offer. Mr. Hambrick indicated that during his meetings with Berkshire Hathaway, no terms of Mr. Hambrick's future employment had been discussed other than in response to a statement by Mr. Buffett that he would expect Mr. Hambrick to remain with Lubrizol for five years following a transaction with Berkshire Hathaway and Mr. Hambrick stated to Mr. Buffett that, if a transaction between the companies were to occur, he would be willing to remain for such period. Mr. Hambrick also informed the Board that he would be willing to support a transaction at $135.00 per share even if he would not remain employed by Lubrizol after the closing of the transaction.

After more discussion among the directors, including discussions about (i) the Berkshire Hathaway proposal, (ii) the large potential acquisition that Lubrizol had been evaluating, and (iii) a scenario in which Lubrizol completed only smaller acquisitions and continued to repurchase shares, taking into account the potential risks and benefits to Lubrizol's shareholders of each scenario, the Board determined to pursue negotiations with Berkshire Hathaway toward a possible transaction for $135.00 per share in cash. The Board also determined that it would not be in the best interest of Lubrizol's shareholders to solicit other bids for Lubrizol at that time. The Board therefore instructed Evercore's Chairman to call Mr. Buffett to inform him that the Board was willing to pursue negotiations toward a possible transaction in which Berkshire Hathaway would acquire all of the outstanding shares of Lubrizol for $135.00 per share in cash, subject to Berkshire Hathaway entering into a confidentiality agreement and Berkshire Hathaway being willing and able to move quickly to signing an acceptable definitive merger agreement.

On March 7, 2011, Evercore's Chairman called Mr. Buffett to inform him that the Board was willing to negotiate a transaction in which Berkshire Hathaway would acquire all of the outstanding shares of Company common stock for $135.00 per share in cash, subject to Berkshire Hathaway executing a confidentiality agreement and Berkshire Hathaway being willing and able to move quickly to signing an acceptable definitive merger agreement. Mr. Buffett responded by confirming that Berkshire Hathaway was willing and able to move quickly to signing a definitive merger agreement and that Berkshire Hathaway did not need to perform any further due diligence. Evercore's Chairman indicated that Lubrizol's outside legal counsel would prepare a merger agreement based on the merger agreement entered into by Berkshire Hathaway in connection with its acquisition of Burlington Northern Santa Fe Corporation, which provided for a termination fee of approximately 1.0% of the transaction equity value.

During the evening of March 7, 2011, Jones Day provided a draft merger agreement and confidentiality agreement with a standstill provision to Berkshire Hathaway's counsel, Munger Tolles & Olson, or Munger Tolles. The draft merger agreement provided for, among other things, a 60 day go-shop period with a termination fee equal to 0.5% of the transaction equity value for a superior transaction identified during the go-shop period, and a termination fee equal to 1.0% of the transaction equity value for a superior transaction identified after the go-shop period.

On March 8, 2011, Berkshire Hathaway and Lubrizol entered into the confidentiality agreement. Later that day, Munger Tolles provided Jones Day with initial comments on the draft merger agreement. Munger Tolles indicated that the go-shop concept was unacceptable to Berkshire Hathaway, as it would not participate in auctions, and that Berkshire Hathaway would not accept a termination fee of less than $200,000,000, or approximately 2.2% of the transaction equity value.

Jones Day and Munger Tolles continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement. During the course of these discussions, Jones Day informed Munger Tolles that a termination fee of $200,000,000 in the event of a topping bid was unacceptable and was inconsistent with the terms upon which the Board was willing to enter into a transaction. Munger Tolles reiterated that Berkshire Hathaway would not agree to a deal with a termination fee of less than $200,000,000.

In addition to the discussions between Jones Day and Munger Tolles about the terms of the merger agreement, on March 10, 2011, Evercore reiterated to Munger Tolles that a $200,000,000 termination fee in the event of a topping bid was unacceptable to the Board and that a termination fee of 1.0% of the transaction equity value would be acceptable to the Board. Munger Tolles told Evercore that Berkshire Hathaway would not agree to a deal with a termination fee of less than $200,000,000. Jones Day and Evercore informed Munger Tolles that the size of the termination fee was an issue on which the Board would need to make a final decision. Throughout March 10 and 11, 2011, Jones Day continued to negotiate with Munger Tolles for a lower termination fee, but was ultimately unsuccessful.

On March 12, 2011, the Board convened a special meeting to consider the proposed transaction. All of the directors of Lubrizol attended this meeting, except one who had an international travel commitment that could not be changed. Members of Lubrizol's senior management, Jones Day, Citi and Evercore participated in the meeting. The Board first met separately with Jones Day. Jones Day discussed a number of aspects of the proposed transaction and related matters, including an overview of the process and discussions with Berkshire Hathaway to date (including the discussions about the proposed transaction price and Berkshire Hathaway's insistence on a $200,000,000 termination fee), the material terms of the proposed merger agreement and the negotiations between Jones Day and Munger Tolles over those terms, and the terms of Lubrizol's engagements with each of Citi and Evercore and the fees payable to them under the terms of those engagements. Jones Day also reviewed with the Board their fiduciary duties in the context of the proposed transaction. The Board then engaged in an extensive and thorough discussion about all of these matters, including (i) the Berkshire Hathaway proposal, (ii) the large potential acquisition that Lubrizol had been evaluating, and (iii) a scenario in which Lubrizol completed only smaller acquisitions and continued to repurchase shares, taking into account the potential risks and benefits to Lubrizol's shareholders of each scenario. The Board engaged in a further discussion regarding the risks and uncertainties associated with the large potential acquisition that Lubrizol was evaluating, including integration risk and the fact that the contemplated purchase price represented a projected return that would not be materially above Lubrizol's cost of capital. The Board also engaged in an extensive discussion regarding the risks and challenges to Lubrizol in executing its strategic plan in a situation where it remained independent and did not complete any large acquisitions. During the course of the discussion Mr. Hambrick confirmed that he had no discussions with Mr. Buffett or any other representative of Berkshire Hathaway regarding the terms of his employment should a transaction occur. As Mr. Hambrick previously noted to the Board on March 3, 2011, in response to a statement by Mr. Buffett that he would expect Mr. Hambrick to remain with Lubrizol for five years following a transaction with Berkshire Hathaway, Mr. Hambrick indicated that he would be willing to so commit.

The Board then asked members of Lubrizol's senior management, Citi and Evercore to join the meeting. The Board again considered whether to contact other potential acquirors to solicit interest for an acquisition of Lubrizol. In connection with this consideration, Evercore discussed the likelihood of a potential topping offer and the $200,000,000 termination fee upon which Berkshire Hathaway was insisting. Evercore listed financial sponsors that may have the financial capability to consider a topping offer, and strategic buyers that might participate if an auction for the sale of Lubrizol was conducted. Evercore concluded that, in its view, it was unlikely that there would be any financial sponsors or strategic buyers that reasonably would be expected to be willing to pay more than $135.00 per share in cash even if Lubrizol were to conduct an auction. Evercore stated that the $200,000,000 termination fee was toward the low end of the range for termination fees of comparable size transactions, and that a $200,000,000 termination fee would not preclude a serious interloper from making an offer. Evercore also noted that Berkshire Hathaway generally does not participate in auctions and that if Lubrizol contacted other potential parties, Berkshire Hathaway might withdraw its offer. Citi concurred that a termination fee of approximately 2.2% of the transaction equity value was toward the lower end of break-up fees in selected transactions of comparable size. Citi also concurred that Berkshire Hathaway generally takes the position that it does not participate in auctions. After further discussion, the Board concluded that it would not be in the best interests of the shareholders of Lubrizol to solicit other bids for Lubrizol prior to entering into a merger agreement with Berkshire Hathaway.

At this meeting, Jones Day summarized certain merger agreement obligations, conditions and termination rights relating to obtaining regulatory approvals, as well as the provisions and termination fee applicable in situations in which the transaction was made the subject of competitive bids from third parties or in which the Board withdrew its recommendation of the transaction. The directors asked a variety of questions of Jones Day about those and other matters. Citi and Evercore indicated that they performed their respective financial analyses independently.

Evercore then reviewed with the Board its financial analyses of the $135.00 per share cash consideration, which are described under Opinion of Evercore Group L.L.C. below, and rendered to the Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated March 12, 2011, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the various assumptions and limitations set forth in its opinion, the $135.00 per share cash consideration to be received in the merger by Lubrizol shareholders was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The full text of the written opinion of Evercore, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with its opinion is attached as Annex B.

Citi then reviewed with the Board its financial analyses of the $135.00 per share cash consideration, which are described under Opinion of Citigroup Global Markets Inc. below, and rendered to the Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated March 12, 2011, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the various assumptions and limitations set forth in its opinion, the $135.00 per share cash consideration to be received in the merger by holders of Company common shares was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The full text of the written opinion of Citi, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with its opinion is attached as Annex C.

The Board then excused Citi, Evercore and members of Lubrizol's senior management. Following an extensive and thorough discussion, all of Lubrizol's directors participating in the meeting unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were fair to and in the best interests of Lubrizol's shareholders, declared that the merger was advisable, approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, directed that the adoption of the merger agreement be submitted to a vote at a meeting of Lubrizol's shareholders and resolved to recommend to Lubrizol's shareholders that they adopt the merger agreement.

Following the conclusion of the special meeting, Jones Day called Munger Tolles to inform them of the result of Lubrizol's special meeting.

On March 13, 2011, the board of directors of Berkshire Hathaway convened a special meeting of its board of directors to consider the proposed transaction. All of the directors of Berkshire Hathaway participating in the meeting unanimously approved the merger agreement that evening.

During the evening of March 13, 2011, Berkshire Hathaway and Lubrizol executed and delivered the merger agreement.

During the early morning on March 14, 2011, Berkshire Hathaway and Lubrizol announced the signing of the merger agreement through a joint press release.

On March 30, 2011, Berkshire Hathaway issued a press release announcing the resignation of Mr. Sokol. The press release also indicated that Mr. Sokol purchased shares of Lubrizol common stock on December 14, 2010 and on January 5, 6 and 7, 2011. Lubrizol first learned of these share purchases and Mr. Sokol's resignation on March 30, 2011. Berkshire Hathaway's March 30, 2011 press release is available at Berkshire Hathaway's website at <http://www.berkshirehathaway.com>. Lubrizol's Reasons for the Merger

The Board, at a special meeting held on March 12, 2011:

determined that the merger agreement and the merger were advisable and in the best interests of Lubrizol's shareholders;

approved the merger agreement; and voted to recommend that Lubrizol's shareholders vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

In evaluating the merger, the Board consulted with management as well as Lubrizol's legal and financial advisors. The Board also considered various material factors that are discussed below. The discussion in this section is not intended to be an exhaustive list of the information and factors considered by the Board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with the merger, the Board did not consider it practicable to, nor did it attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific material factors it considered in reaching its decision. In addition, individual members of the Board may have given different weight to different factors. The Board considered this information and these factors as a whole in deciding to recommend the adoption of the merger agreement.

The Board considered the following factors as generally supporting its decision to recommend that Lubrizol's shareholders vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement:

the current and historical market prices of Lubrizol's common shares, including the fact that the $135.00 per share cash merger consideration represented a premium of approximately 28.0% over the closing price of Lubrizol's common shares on the NYSE on March 11, 2011, the last full trading day before the Board met to review and consider approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

the fact that the merger consideration represented a premium of approximately 23.4% to the average closing price of Lubrizol's common shares for the 30 trading days prior to and including March 11, 2011 and a premium of approximately 17.6% over the highest closing price for Lubrizol common shares during the 12-month period prior to March 11, 2011, and that Lubrizol's common shares have never closed at or above $135.00;

its belief, based on discussions and negotiations with the assistance of Lubrizol's management and advisors with Berkshire Hathaway, including Berkshire Hathaway's statement that the $135.00 per share price was its best and final offer, that $135.00 per share was the highest price that Berkshire Hathaway would be willing to pay and that Berkshire Hathaway generally does not participate in auctions and might withdraw its offer if Lubrizol were to conduct an auction process;

its belief that it was unlikely that any other financial sponsors or strategic buyers would be willing to pay more than $135.00 per share in cash, even if Lubrizol were to conduct an auction process;

its belief that, unless Lubrizol were able to implement successfully a variety of strategic initiatives, at least maintain its current margins, achieve volume growth greater than its long-term outlook and experience a significant increase in the trading multiple of its common shares, Lubrizol's common share price was not likely to reach $135.00 in the short or medium term;

Edgar Filing: LUBRIZOL Corp - Form DEFM14A

the fact that Lubrizol's common shares have historically traded at a discount to its specialty chemicals peers on an enterprise/EBITDA multiple basis and a price/earnings multiple basis, and its belief that, due to the low growth rate of many of the end-markets in Lubrizol's lubricant additives business and the uncertainty among investors regarding the sustainability of Lubrizol's operating margins, Lubrizol's stock price was not likely to exceed the merger consideration in the near to medium term;

its knowledge of the current economic environment generally, including recent increases in commodity prices, and the impact of such conditions and changes on the specialty chemicals industry generally and on Lubrizol specifically, including the likely effects of these conditions and changes on Lubrizol's potential growth, productivity, strategic options and the trading price of its common shares;

based on its knowledge and discussions with management regarding Lubrizol's business, financial condition, results of operations, competitive position, business strategy, strategic options and prospects, as well as the risks involved in achieving these prospects, the nature of Lubrizol's business and the industry in which it competes, and industry, economic and market conditions, both on a historical and on a prospective basis, its belief that the merger presented an opportunity for Lubrizol's shareholders to realize greater value than the value likely to be realized by Lubrizol's shareholders in the event Lubrizol remained independent or pursued other alternatives;

based on the review of the possible alternatives to a sale of Lubrizol, including the prospects of continuing to operate Lubrizol in accordance with the existing business plan or undertaking additional share buyback programs, recapitalization or other strategic initiatives, the potential value to shareholders of such alternatives and the timing and likelihood of actually achieving additional value for shareholders from these alternatives, its belief that none of these options, on a risk-adjusted basis, was reasonably likely to create value for shareholders greater than the merger consideration;

Evercore's and Citi's respective opinions and financial presentations, each dated March 12, 2011, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of such date, to Lubrizol shareholders of the merger consideration to be received by such shareholders, as more fully described below under the captions "Opinion of Evercore Group L.L.C." beginning on page 26 and "Opinion of Citigroup Global Markets Inc." beginning on page 35, respectively;

based on the Board's general knowledge of Berkshire Hathaway's business, operations, management, reputation and strong financial condition, its belief that there was a high probability that the merger would be completed successfully on the agreed-upon terms after a merger agreement was entered into with Berkshire Hathaway;

the fact that the merger consideration consists solely of cash (which provides certainty of value to Lubrizol shareholders and does not expose them to any future risks related to the business, as compared to a transaction in which shareholders receive shares or other securities, or as compared to remaining independent) and that the merger is not subject to any financing conditions;

the continued costs, risks and uncertainties associated with continuing to operate as a public company, including risks associated with Lubrizol's operations;

the fact that the merger agreement permits Lubrizol to declare and pay to its shareholders dividends on a basis consistent with past practice during the period prior to the closing of the merger, which effectively increases the potential amount payable to Lubrizol's shareholders through the effective time of the merger;

the fact that Lubrizol shareholders who dissent from the merger will have appraisal rights, as described in the section entitled "Appraisal Rights of Lubrizol Shareholders" beginning on page 48;

the terms of the merger agreement, as reviewed by the Board with Lubrizol's legal advisors, including:

sufficient operating flexibility for Lubrizol to conduct its business in the ordinary course between the execution of the merger agreement and consummation of the merger;

the fact that the completion of the merger is not conditioned on Berkshire Hathaway obtaining financing; the fact that the conditions required to be satisfied prior to completion of the merger can be expected to be fulfilled in the ordinary course and the corresponding likelihood that the merger will be consummated on a timely basis;

the Board's ability to withdraw or modify its recommendation that Lubrizol's shareholders vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement if, and to the extent, the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that failing to take such actions would result in a breach of the Board's fiduciary duties;

the Board's ability to furnish information to and engage in negotiations with third parties under certain circumstances, as more fully described in "The Merger Agreement Covenants and Agreements No Solicitation; Board Recommendation" beginning on page 58;

the Board's ability to consider, and under certain conditions, to accept, an unsolicited superior proposal in order to comply with the Board's fiduciary duties, and Lubrizol's corresponding right to terminate the merger agreement upon the payment of a termination fee of $200 million to Berkshire Hathaway in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a superior proposal; and the $200 million termination fee payable in the merger, which the Board believed, after consultation with Lubrizol's advisors, was reasonable and not likely to preclude a superior alternative proposal for a business combination with Lubrizol.

In addition, the Board considered a number of potential negative factors in its deliberations concerning the merger, including the following:

the non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement that restrict Lubrizol's ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding a proposal to acquire Lubrizol, and the fact that, upon termination of the merger agreement under certain specified circumstances, Lubrizol will be required to pay a termination fee, which could have the effect of discouraging alternative proposals for a business combination with Lubrizol. However, the Board also noted that the termination fee provisions of the merger agreement were a necessary aspect of assuring Berkshire Hathaway's entry into the merger agreement and, after consultation with Lubrizol's advisors, the Board determined that the termination fee provisions of the merger agreement were reasonable and not likely to preclude a superior alternative proposal for a business combination with Lubrizol;

the fact that the merger may not be completed unless and until specified conditions are satisfied (see "The Merger Agreement Conditions of the Merger" beginning on page 63);

the potential risk and costs to Lubrizol if the merger does not close, including the potential distraction of employee and management attention during the pendency of the transaction, employee attrition, the possible impact on customer relationships, the potential effect on existing relationships with other parties, and the impact that the failure of the merger to close could have on the trading price of Lubrizol common shares, Lubrizol's operating results (including the costs incurred in connection with the transactions) and Lubrizol's ability to maintain sales, but the Board believed that these risks were reasonable and worthwhile to undertake considering the terms of the merger agreement, including the likelihood that conditions to closing would be satisfied, and the absence of a financing contingency;

the fact that gains from an all-cash transaction would generally be taxable to shareholders for United States federal income tax purposes (see "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 47);

the fact that the all-cash price, while providing relative certainty of value, would not allow Lubrizol shareholders to participate, on a tax-efficient basis, in any future appreciation of Berkshire Hathaway's stock or benefit from any future appreciation in the value of Lubrizol after the merger;

the potential of shareholder suits or other litigation relating to the proposed merger and the associated costs, burden and inconvenience involved in defending those proceedings; and the fact that the merger agreement restricts Lubrizol's ability to engage in certain activities between the date the merger agreement was signed and the effective time of the merger, and that these restrictions could prevent Lubrizol from taking advantage of business opportunities, such as potential acquisitions, which would be advisable if Lubrizol were to remain an independent company, but the Board believed these restrictions would not interfere with Lubrizol's ability to operate in the ordinary course of business.

During its consideration of the merger with Ohio Merger Sub, the Board was also aware that some of Lubrizol's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that differ from or are in addition to those of Lubrizol's shareholders generally, as described in "Interests of Lubrizol Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 41.

This summary is not meant to be an exhaustive description of the information and factors considered by the Board but is believed to address the material information and factors considered. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Board, it is not possible to quantify or to give relative weights to the various factors. In considering the factors discussed above, individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. After taking into consideration all of the factors set forth above as a whole, as well as other factors not specifically described above, the Board concluded that the merger is advisable and in the best interests of Lubrizol's shareholders, and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Recommendation of Lubrizol's Board of Directors

At its meeting on March 12, 2011, after due consideration, the Board approved the merger agreement and the merger and unanimously recommended that Lubrizol's shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Opinion of Evercore Group L.L.C.

On March 12, 2011, Evercore delivered an oral opinion to the Board, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by Evercore as set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration to be received by Lubrizol shareholders pursuant to the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders.

The full text of the written opinion of Evercore, dated March 12, 2011, which sets forth, among other things, the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of review undertaken in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference in its entirety into this proxy statement. You are urged to read Evercore's opinion carefully and in its entirety. Evercore's opinion was directed to the Board and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the Lubrizol shareholders entitled to receive the merger consideration. The opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any Lubrizol shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to any matters relating to the merger. Evercore's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to other business or financial strategies that might be available to Lubrizol, nor does it address the underlying business decision of Lubrizol to engage in the merger.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Evercore has, among other things:

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Lubrizol that Evercore deemed to be relevant, including publicly available research analysts' estimates;

reviewed certain non-public historical financial statements and other non-public historical financial and operating data relating to Lubrizol prepared and furnished to Evercore by management of Lubrizol;

For purposes of its analysis and opinion, Evercore assumed and relied upon, without undertaking any independent verification of, the accuracy and completeness of all of the information publicly available, and all of the information supplied or otherwise made available to, discussed with, or reviewed by Evercore, and Evercore assumed no liability therefor. Evercore expressed no view as to any projected financial data relating to Lubrizol or the assumptions on which they are based.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Evercore assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the merger agreement are true and correct, that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the merger agreement and that all conditions to the consummation of the merger will be satisfied without material waiver or modification thereof. Evercore did not express any view on, and its opinion did not address, the fairness of the merger to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other securities, creditors or other constituencies of Lubrizol, nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of Lubrizol, or any class of such persons, whether relative to the merger consideration or otherwise. Evercore assumed that any modification to the structure of the merger would not affect its analysis in any material respect. Evercore's opinion did not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to other business or financial strategies that might be available to Lubrizol, nor did it address the underlying business decision of Lubrizol to engage in the merger. Evercore was not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, interest from any third party with respect to the acquisition of any or all of the Lubrizol common shares or any business combination or other extraordinary transaction involving Lubrizol. Evercore's opinion did not constitute a recommendation to the Board or to any other persons in respect of the merger, including as to how any shareholder should vote or act in respect of the merger. Evercore expressed no opinion as to the price at which shares of Lubrizol will trade at any time. Evercore is not a legal, regulatory, accounting or tax expert and assumed the accuracy and completeness of assessments by Lubrizol and its advisors with respect to legal, regulatory, accounting and tax matters.

Except as described above, the Board imposed no other instructions or limitations on Evercore with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by Evercore in rendering its opinion. Evercore's opinion was only one of many factors considered by the Board in its evaluation of the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Board or Lubrizol's management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration payable in the merger.

Set forth below is a summary of the material financial analyses reviewed by Evercore with the Board on March 12, 2011 in connection with rendering its opinion. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Evercore. The order of the analyses described and the results of these analyses do not represent relative importance or weight given to these analyses by Evercore. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data that existed on or before March 11, 2011 (the last trading day prior to March 12, 2011, the date on which the Board approved the merger), and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

The following summary of financial analyses includes information presented in tabular format. These tables must be read together with the text of each summary in order to understand fully the financial analyses. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Evercore's financial analyses.

Summary of Projections. The following is a summary of the projections that were relied upon by Evercore in performing its analysis (the projections). The projections reflect the following adjustments made by Evercore to the management projections, all of which adjustments were approved by Lubrizol's management. With respect to estimates for earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) and for earnings per share (EPS), the projections exclude non-recurring charges, and the EPS projections were tax-adjusted at a tax rate of 32.0%. Additionally, the projections for pro forma fiscal year 2010 and estimated fiscal year 2011 were adjusted to include the pro forma contributions resulting from the $166 million acquisition of Nalco Personal Care assets announced January 26, 2011. In addition, the 2011-2015 projection period reflects the pro forma application of excess cash (as defined by Lubrizol's management) to future share repurchases, which impacted EPS estimates as well as projected cash and cash equivalents balances over the projection period.

The following table summarizes the projections (dollars in millions, except for per share amounts):

Ratios of total enterprise value (TEV) (which represents market capitalization plus the total outstanding debt and minority interest (interests held by third parties in certain of Lubrizol's subsidiaries), less cash and cash equivalents balance) to EBITDA, which is commonly referred to as TEV / EBITDA multiple, for each of Lubrizol's pro forma fiscal year 2010, estimated fiscal year 2011 and estimated fiscal year 2012; and

Ratios of the applicable closing price of Lubrizol common shares to EPS, which is commonly referred to as price to earnings multiple, for each of Lubrizol's pro forma fiscal year 2010, estimated fiscal year 2011 and estimated fiscal year 2012.

Research Analyst Price Targets. Evercore analyzed research analyst estimates of potential future value for Lubrizol common shares (price targets) based on publicly available equity research published with respect to Lubrizol. Evercore observed that, as of March 11, 2011, research analyst one-year forward price targets for Lubrizol common shares ranged from $117.00 to $148.00 per share, with an average price target of $128.83 per share. Analysis of Selected Publicly Traded Companies. Evercore reviewed and compared certain financial and operating information relating to Lubrizol to corresponding information of a group of selected publicly traded companies in the specialty chemicals industry. Although none of the selected publicly traded companies are directly comparable to Lubrizol, the companies were chosen because they have certain characteristics that are similar to those of Lubrizol. The selected companies were as follows:

Albemarle Corp.	NewMarket Corp.
Cytec Industries Inc.	PPG Industries, Inc.
Dow Chemical Co.	Rockwood Holdings, Inc.
E.I. DuPont de Nemours & Co.	Valspar Corp.
Eastman Chemical Co.

Evercore calculated and analyzed various financial multiples and ratios of Lubrizol and the selected companies as follows:

TEV / EBITDA multiple for calendar year 2010, estimated calendar year 2011 and estimated calendar year 2012; and Price to earnings multiple for calendar year 2010, estimated calendar year 2011 and estimated calendar year 2012.

The multiples for each of the selected companies were calculated using the closing price of the selected companies' common stock on March 11, 2011 and were based on, and derived from, publicly available filings, publicly available research estimates published by independent equity research analysts associated with various Wall Street firms and financial data provided by FactSet Research Systems Inc. The multiples for Lubrizol were calculated using the closing price of Lubrizol common shares on March 11, 2011 and were based on, and derived from, publicly available information and the projections.

(2) Lubrizol 2012E Price/Earnings multiple assumes no share repurchases

As part of its analysis, Evercore examined the historical similarity in forward trading EBITDA and price to earnings multiples between Lubrizol and NewMarket Corp., the only other publicly traded company in the comparison group that is primarily focused on lubricant additives products and that historically has traded at multiples similar to those of Lubrizol (and at a discount to the other selected publicly traded companies). Given the similarities between Lubrizol and NewMarket Corp., Evercore applied substantially greater weighting to NewMarket Corp.'s current trading multiple than to the larger group of selected publicly traded companies.

In order to derive an implied equity value range for Lubrizol, Evercore applied ranges of selected multiples of the financial and operating information to the comparable data for Lubrizol, based on the projections. Evercore derived these ranges of selected multiples based on its professional judgment and experience, including its understanding of the size, product diversity, commodity exposure, relative profitability and expected growth of Lubrizol, and taking into account the multiples and ratios for the selected publicly traded companies, including the added weighting given to NewMarket Corp.

For the TEV to EBITDA multiple valuation, the selected multiple range was applied to the EBITDA metric to obtain an implied TEV. Implied equity value was calculated by subtracting debt and minority interest from the implied TEV, and adding cash and cash equivalents, all balances as of December 31, 2010. Evercore divided the implied equity value by the number of fully diluted shares of Lubrizol as provided by Lubrizol's management as of March 4, 2011 and compared each resulting implied per share equity value range against the merger consideration.

Multiple	Applicable 2011E Metric	Range of Multiples	Implied Per Share Reference Range
TEV / EBITDA	$1,373 million	5.5x 7.0x	$102.75 $133.63
Price / Earnings	$11.25	9.0x 12.0x	$101.21 $134.95

While none of the companies that participated in the selected transactions is directly comparable to Lubrizol and none of the transactions in the selected transactions analysis is directly comparable to the merger, Evercore selected these transactions because each of the target companies was involved in the specialty chemical industry and had operating characteristics and products that for purposes of analysis may be considered similar to certain of Lubrizol's operating characteristics and products.

For each of the selected transactions, Evercore calculated and compared TEV based on the implied transaction price as a multiple of the target's last twelve months (LTM), EBITDA. Evercore noted that public financial information was unavailable for certain of the transactions. The results of this TEV/LTM EBITDA analysis indicated a low value of 6.7x and a high value of 16.0x.

Applying a range of multiples of TEV to LTM EBITDA of 7.0x - 8.0x to Lubrizol's pro forma fiscal year 2010 EBITDA of $1,297 million, this analysis indicated a range of implied per share equity values for Lubrizol of approximately $125.62 to $145.06 as compared to the merger consideration of $135.00 per share.

Evercore derived these ranges of selected multiples based on its professional judgment and experience, including its understanding of the size, product diversity, commodity exposure, relative profitability and expected growth of Lubrizol, and taking into account the multiples for the selected precedent transactions.

Present Value of Future Stock Price Analysis. Using the projections, Evercore analyzed the present value of the future share price of Lubrizol. This analysis was designed to provide an indication of the present value of a theoretical future value of a company's equity as a function of such company's estimated future EBITDA and EPS, and its assumed TEV to EBITDA multiple and price to earnings multiple.

Evercore applied the present value of future stock price methodology to a two-year time horizon through December 31, 2012 and a four-year time horizon through December 31, 2014.

For the EBITDA multiple analysis over the two-year time horizon, Evercore first multiplied the 2013 EBITDA estimate by a range of forward TEV to EBITDA multiples of 5.5x to 7.0x and next subtracted the debt and minority interest and added projected cash and cash equivalents as of December 31, 2012.

For the price to earnings analysis over the two-year time horizon, Evercore multiplied the 2013 EPS estimate by a range of forward price to earnings multiples of 9.0x to 12.0x.

For each analysis, Evercore then calculated the implied per share future equity values before dividends received for the Lubrizol common shares at the end of fiscal year 2012 and discounted those values to December 31, 2010 using an equity discount rate of 11.5%. The discount rate was based on Evercore's analysis of the equity cost of capital for Lubrizol.

For each analysis, Evercore also calculated the present value, as of December 31, 2010, of the dividends per share to be received by shareholders in fiscal years 2011 and 2012 using estimates prepared by Lubrizol's management and applying an equity discount rate of 11.5%.

After adding together the present value of the implied equity per share and the present value of the dividends per share to be received by shareholders in fiscal years 2011 and 2012, the analysis resulted in a range of implied share prices as of December 31, 2010 for Lubrizol, as summarized below:

Multiple	Applicable 2013E Metric	Range of Multiples	Implied Per Share Reference Range
TEV / EBITDA	$1,580 million	5.5x - 7.0x	$114.29	$146.34
Price / Earnings	$14.64	9.0x - 12.0x	$109.19	$144.52

Table of Contents

Evercore also performed the same analysis but applied Lubrizol's forward trading multiples as of March 11, 2011, which were 5.6x EBITDA and 9.4x price to earnings, which resulted in an estimated implied share price as of December 31, 2010 for Lubrizol, as summarized below:

Multiple	Applicable 2013E Metric	Current Company Trading Multiple (March 11, 2011)	Implied Per Share Equity Reference
TEV / EBITDA	$1,580 million	5.6x	$117.08
Price / Earnings	$14.64	9.4x	$113.61

For the EBITDA multiple analysis over the four-year time horizon, Evercore first multiplied the 2015 EBITDA estimate by a range of TEV to EBITDA multiples of 5.5x to 7.0x and next subtracted the debt and minority interest and added projected cash and cash equivalents as of December 31, 2014.

For the price to earnings analysis over the four-year time horizon, Evercore multiplied the 2015 EPS estimate by a range of forward price to earnings multiples of 9.0x to 12.0x.

For each analysis, Evercore then calculated the implied per share future equity values before dividends received for the Lubrizol common shares at the end of fiscal year 2014 and discounted those values to December 31, 2010 using an equity discount rate of 11.5%.

For each analysis, Evercore also calculated the present value, as of December 31, 2010, of the dividends per share to be received by shareholders in fiscal years 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 using estimates prepared by Lubrizol's management and applying an equity discount rate of 11.5%.

After adding together the present value of the implied equity per share and the present value of the dividends per share to be received by shareholders in fiscal years 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014, the analysis resulted in a range of implied share prices as of December 31, 2010 for Lubrizol, as summarized below:

Multiple	Applicable 2015E Metric	Range of Multiples	Implied Per Share Reference Range
TEV / EBITDA	$1,765 million	5.5x 7.0x	$121.29 $153.51
Price / Earnings	$18.18	9.0x 12.0x	$112.32 $147.60

Evercore also performed the same analysis but applied Lubrizol's forward trading multiples as of March 11, 2011, which were 5.6x EBITDA and 9.4x price to earnings, which resulted in an estimated implied share price as of December 31, 2010 for Lubrizol, as summarized below:

Multiple	Applicable 2016E Metric	Current Company Trading Multiple (March 11, 2011)	Implied Per Share Equity Reference
TEV / EBITDA	$1,765 million	5.6x	$124.10
Price / Earnings	$18.18	9.4x	$116.74

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Evercore performed a discounted cash flow analysis on the projections with respect to the estimated future performance of Lubrizol for the purpose of determining the fully diluted equity value per share of Lubrizol common shares. Evercore calculated the unlevered free cash flows that Lubrizol expected to generate (based upon the projections) for fiscal years 2011 through 2015. Evercore also calculated a range of terminal values of Lubrizol at the end of fiscal year 2015 by applying a range of terminal trailing EBITDA multiples of 5.5x to 7.5x (which was selected by Evercore based on its judgment and experience as informed by the historical trading multiple range for Lubrizol) to Lubrizol's estimated fiscal year 2015 EBITDA. The unlevered free cash flows and range of terminal values were then discounted to present values as of December 31, 2010 using a discount rate of 10.0%, which was selected by Evercore based upon an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of Lubrizol. Evercore then calculated a range of TEVs of Lubrizol by adding the present values of the unlevered free cash flows to the present values of Lubrizol's terminal value at December 31, 2015 for each EBITDA multiple within the chosen range.

To calculate the illustrative range of implied equity values per share, Evercore subtracted Lubrizol's estimated total debt and minority interest and divided such equity value by the number of fully diluted shares of Lubrizol as provided by Lubrizol's management as of March 4, 2011. This analysis resulted in a range of implied equity values per share of approximately $122.06 to $154.92 per share of Lubrizol common shares.

Evercore also performed the same analysis but applied Lubrizol's trailing trading multiple as of March 11, 2011, which was 6.0x EBITDA, which resulted in an estimated implied share price as of December 31, 2010, of $129.65 per share.

Leveraged Buyout Analysis. Evercore performed a leveraged buyout analysis of Lubrizol in order to ascertain the price per share that one or more potential financial buyers might be willing to pay based upon the projections. Evercore calculated the implied value per share of Lubrizol common shares that would generate an internal rate of return ranging between 18.0% and 22.0% assuming the following valuation scenarios: (i) selected exit multiples are equal to the purchase price multiple across a range of purchase prices, (ii) the selected exit multiple is equal to 6.5x estimated EBITDA in 2015, and (iii) the selected exit multiple is equal to 6.5x estimated EBITDA in 2015 and a recapitalization is assumed to occur at December 31, 2013, the proceeds of which are assumed to be paid to the financial buyers as a cash dividend, thereby improving the calculated internal rate of return. Using the results of these analyses and its judgment, Evercore derived an implied value per share of Lubrizol common shares of $125.00 to $135.00.

Miscellaneous. The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by Evercore. In connection with the review of the merger by the Board, Evercore performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary described above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Evercore's opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Evercore considered the results of all the analyses and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one analysis or factor considered by it for purposes of its opinion. Rather, Evercore made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all the analyses. In addition, Evercore may have considered various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions, so that the range of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should therefore not be taken to be Evercore's view of the value of Lubrizol. No company used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to Lubrizol, and no transaction used is directly comparable to the merger. Further, Evercore's analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies or transactions used, including judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Lubrizol or its respective advisors.

Evercore prepared these analyses for the purpose of providing an opinion to the Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the Lubrizol shareholders. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to necessarily reflect the prices at which the business or securities actually may be sold. Any estimates contained in these analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates. Accordingly, estimates used in, and the results derived from, Evercore's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty, and Evercore assumes no responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecasted in such estimates. The merger consideration to be received by the Lubrizol shareholders pursuant to the merger was determined through arm s-length negotiations between Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway and was approved by the Board. Evercore did not recommend any specific consideration to Lubrizol or that any given consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration.

Pursuant to the terms of Evercore s engagement letter with Lubrizol, a contingent fee of $26.0 million becomes payable to Evercore promptly upon consummation of the merger, $3.0 million of which was deemed earned upon delivery of Evercore s fairness opinion to the Board. Also, a previously earned and received advisory fee of $1.0 million for general financial and strategic advisory services to Lubrizol and the Board will also be credited against the total advisory fee. In addition, Lubrizol has agreed to reimburse Evercore for its reasonable and customary expenses (including legal and other professional fees, expenses and disbursements), and to indemnify Evercore for certain liabilities arising out of its engagement.

Prior to its engagement, Evercore and its affiliates provided financial advisory services to Lubrizol and received fees for the rendering of those services, including the reimbursement of expenses. During the two year period prior to the date of its opinion, no material relationship existed between Evercore and its affiliates and Berkshire Hathaway pursuant to which compensation was received by Evercore or its affiliates as a result of such a relationship. Evercore may provide financial or other services to Lubrizol or Berkshire Hathaway or their respective affiliates in the future and in connection with any such services Evercore may receive compensation.

In the ordinary course of business, Evercore or its affiliates may actively trade the securities, or related derivative securities, or financial instruments of Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and their respective affiliates, for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities or instruments.

The Board engaged Evercore to act as a financial advisor based on its qualifications, experience and reputation. Evercore is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, competitive biddings, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes.

Opinion of Citigroup Global Markets Inc.

Lubrizol has retained Citi as a financial advisor in connection with the merger and requested that Citi evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by Lubrizol shareholders. On March 12, 2011, at a meeting of the Board at which the merger was approved, Citi rendered to the Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated March 12, 2011, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the matters described in its opinion, the merger consideration to be received by Lubrizol shareholders was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of Citi s written opinion, dated March 12, 2011, which describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C and is incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. The description of Citi s opinion set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Citi s opinion. Citi s opinion was provided for the information of the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration from a financial point of view and did not address any other aspects or implications of the merger. Citi was not requested to consider, and its opinion did not address, the underlying business decision of Lubrizol to effect the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Lubrizol or the effect of any other transaction in which Lubrizol might engage. Citi s opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed merger or otherwise.

Table of Contents

In arriving at its opinion, Citi:

reviewed a draft, dated March 12, 2011, of the merger agreement;

held discussions with certain senior officers, directors and other representatives and advisors of Lubrizol concerning the business, operations and prospects of Lubrizol;

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Lubrizol;

reviewed certain financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Lubrizol provided to or discussed with Citi by Lubrizol's management;

reviewed the financial terms of the merger as set forth in the merger agreement in relation to, among other things, current and historical market prices and trading volumes of Lubrizol common shares, Lubrizol's historical and projected earnings and other operating data and Lubrizol's capitalization and financial condition;

analyzed certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the businesses of other companies whose operations Citi considered relevant in evaluating those of Lubrizol;

analyzed, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other transactions which Citi considered relevant in evaluating the merger; and conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information and financial, economic and market criteria as Citi deemed appropriate in arriving at its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Citi assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Citi and upon the assurances of the management of Lubrizol that it was not aware of any relevant information that was omitted or remained undisclosed to Citi. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Lubrizol provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Citi, Citi was advised by Lubrizol's management, and Citi assumed, with Lubrizol's consent, that the forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Lubrizol's management as to the future financial performance of Lubrizol.

Citi did not make, and it was not provided with, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Lubrizol, and Citi did not make any physical inspection of the properties or assets of Lubrizol. Citi assumed, with Lubrizol's consent, that the merger would be consummated in accordance with its terms without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Lubrizol or the merger. Representatives of Lubrizol advised Citi, and Citi also assumed, that the final terms of the merger agreement would not vary materially from those set forth in the draft reviewed by Citi.

Citi's opinion did not address any terms (other than the merger consideration to the extent expressly specified in its opinion) or other aspects or implications of the merger, including, without limitation, the form or structure of the merger. Citi was not requested to, and it did not, solicit third-party indications of interest in the possible acquisition of all or a part of Lubrizol. Citi expressed no view as to, and its opinion did not address, the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount or nature or any other aspect of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the merger, or any class of such persons, relative to the merger consideration or otherwise. Citi's opinion was necessarily based on information available to Citi, and financial, stock market and other conditions and circumstances existing and disclosed to Citi, as of the date of its opinion. Except as described in this summary, Lubrizol imposed no other instructions or limitations on Citi with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by Citi in rendering its opinion.

In preparing its opinion, Citi performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. This summary of the analyses is not a complete description of Citi's opinion or the analyses underlying, and factors considered in connection with, Citi's opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a financial opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. Citi arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole, and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one factor or method of analysis for purposes of its opinion. Accordingly, Citi believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

In its analyses, Citi considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters existing as of the date of its opinion, many of which are beyond the control of Lubrizol. No company, business or transaction reviewed is identical to Lubrizol or the merger. An evaluation of these analyses is not entirely mathematical; rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions reviewed.

The estimates contained in Citi's analyses and the valuation ranges resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by its analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Citi's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Citi was not requested to, and it did not, recommend the specific consideration payable in the merger. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger was determined through negotiations between Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway and the decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the Board. Citi's opinion was only one of many factors considered by the Board in its evaluation of the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Board or management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented to the Board in connection with Citi's opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Citi's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Citi's financial analyses. For purposes of Citi's financial analyses described below, certain historical financial data provided by Lubrizol's management for fiscal year 2010 was adjusted to include the pro forma effect of Lubrizol's $166 million acquisition of Nalco's performance products group announced January 26, 2011 as approved by Lubrizol's management.

Celanese Corporation

Table of Contents

Eastman Chemical Company

FMC Corporation

Huntsman Corporation

Nalco Holding Company

NewMarket Corporation

Rockwood Holdings, Inc.

Solutia Inc.

Citi reviewed, among other information, enterprise values of the selected companies, calculated as equity values based on closing stock prices on March 11, 2011, plus debt, less cash and other adjustments, as a multiple of calendar years 2011 and 2012 estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, referred to as EBITDA. Citi also reviewed equity values of the selected companies, based on closing stock prices on March 11, 2011, as a multiple of calendar year 2011 estimated earnings per share, referred to as EPS. Citi then applied a range of selected multiples of calendar years 2011 and 2012 estimated EBITDA and calendar year 2011 estimated EPS derived from the selected companies to Lubrizol's calendar years 2011 and 2012 estimated EBITDA and calendar year 2011 estimated net income, respectively. Financial data of the selected companies were based on publicly available research analysts' estimates, public filings and other publicly available information. Financial data of Lubrizol were based on internal estimates of Lubrizol's management. This analysis indicated the following approximate implied per share equity value reference range for Lubrizol, as compared to the merger consideration:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range	Merger Consideration
for Lubrizol $103.50 $137.50	$135.00

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis. Using publicly available information, Citi reviewed financial data relating to the following 11 selected transactions involving chemicals and materials companies:

Citi reviewed, among other information, transaction values of the selected transactions, calculated as the purchase prices paid for the target companies, plus debt, less cash and other adjustments, as a multiple of such target companies' latest 12 months EBITDA as adjusted for certain one-time and nonrecurring items, referred to as adjusted EBITDA. Citi then applied a range of selected multiples of latest 12 months adjusted EBITDA derived from the selected transactions to Lubrizol's calendar year 2010 adjusted EBITDA. Financial data of the selected transactions were based on information publicly available at the time of announcement of the relevant transaction. Financial data of Lubrizol were based on Lubrizol's public filings and internal data provided by Lubrizol's management. This analysis indicated the following approximate implied per share equity value reference range for Lubrizol, as compared to the merger consideration:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range for Lubrizol	Merger Consideration
$125.25 - $144.50	$135.00

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Citi performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Lubrizol by calculating the estimated present value of the unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Lubrizol was forecasted to generate during fiscal years 2011 through 2015 based on internal estimates of Lubrizol's management. Citi calculated terminal values for Lubrizol by applying a range of terminal value multiples of 6.0x to 7.5x to Lubrizol's fiscal year 2015 estimated EBITDA. The present values (as of December 31, 2010) of the cash flows and terminal values were then calculated using discount rates ranging from 10.46% to 12.50%. This analysis indicated the following approximate implied per share equity value reference range for Lubrizol, as compared to the merger consideration:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range for Lubrizol	Merger Consideration
$116.25 - $150.50	$135.00

Leveraged Buyout Analysis. Citi performed a leveraged buyout analysis to estimate the theoretical purchase prices that could be paid by a hypothetical financial buyer in an acquisition of Lubrizol taking into account the potential pro forma leverage structure of Lubrizol that could result from financing such acquisition under customary market terms and assuming that such financial buyer would attempt to realize a return on its investment in Lubrizol's fiscal year 2015. Estimated financial data of Lubrizol were based on internal estimates of Lubrizol's management. Estimated exit values for Lubrizol were calculated by applying to Lubrizol's fiscal year 2015 estimated EBITDA a range of exit value multiples of 6.0x to 7.5x assuming a range of total leverage of 5.0x to 5.5x Lubrizol's calendar year 2010 adjusted EBITDA. Citi then derived a range of theoretical purchase prices based on an assumed required internal rate of return for a financial buyer of approximately 20.0% to 22.5%. This analysis indicated the following approximate implied per share equity value reference range for Lubrizol, as compared to the merger consideration:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range for Lubrizol	Merger Consideration
$116.50 - $135.75	$135.00

Other Information. Citi also reviewed, for informational purposes, among other things, the following:

historical trading prices of Lubrizol common shares during the 52-week period ended March 11, 2011, which reflected intraday low and high share prices during such period of approximately $77.75 to $117.50 per share;

one-year forward share price targets for Lubrizol common shares in recently published, publicly available Wall Street research analyst reports, which indicated low and high share price targets of approximately $117.00 to $148.00 per share and low and high share price targets discounted to present value of approximately $104.25 to $131.75 per share; and premiums paid in selected transactions with enterprise values of between $5 billion and $15 billion announced between January 1, 2000 and March 11, 2011 which, utilizing a selected range of premiums one trading day prior to public announcement of the selected transactions, indicated an implied per share equity value reference range for Lubrizol of approximately $130.50 to $136.75 per share.

Miscellaneous. Under the terms of Citi's engagement, Lubrizol has agreed to pay Citi for its financial advisory services in connection with the merger an aggregate fee of $26 million, $3 million of which was earned upon delivery of Citi's opinion and the balance of which is contingent upon completion of the merger. Lubrizol also has agreed to reimburse Citi for reasonable expenses incurred by Citi in performing its services, including reasonable fees and expenses of its legal counsel, and to indemnify Citi and related persons against liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement. Citi and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide services to Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and/or certain of their respective affiliates and subsidiaries unrelated to the proposed merger, for which services Citi and its affiliates received and may receive compensation, including, during the two-year period prior to the date of Citi's opinion, having acted or currently acting as (i) financial advisor to Lubrizol in connection with certain merger and acquisition transactions, (ii) co-lead arranger, co-bookrunner and/or agent for, and lender under, certain credit facilities of Lubrizol, (iii) joint bookrunner in connection with certain debt offerings and joint dealer manager in connection with certain debt tender offers of Lubrizol and (iv) a lender under certain credit facilities of Berkshire Hathaway and its subsidiaries. In the ordinary course of business, Citi and its affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and/or their respective affiliates and subsidiaries for their own account or for the account of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In addition, Citi and its affiliates (including Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates) may maintain relationships with Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and/or their respective affiliates and subsidiaries.

Lubrizol selected Citi as its financial advisor in connection with the merger based on Citi's reputation and experience and familiarity with Lubrizol and its business. Citi is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that regularly engages in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. The issuance of Citi's opinion was authorized by Citi's fairness opinion committee.

Certain Prospective Financial Information

As described under Background of the Merger, we provided Berkshire Hathaway non-public financial projections prepared by our senior management. Lubrizol does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance or earnings and the portions of these financial projections set forth below are included in this proxy statement only because this information was provided to Berkshire Hathaway. This information also was provided to Lubrizol's financial advisors in connection with their respective opinions as described under Opinion of Evercore Group L.L.C. on page 26 and Opinion of Citigroup Global Markets Inc. beginning on page 35. You should note that these financial projections constitute forward-looking statements. See Forward-Looking Statements May Prove Inaccurate on page 11. Except as otherwise indicated, this information does not reflect changes in general business and economic conditions since the date of preparation, or that may occur in the future that we did not anticipate at the time we prepared this information.

Lubrizol advised Berkshire Hathaway that the financial projections are subjective in many respects. The financial projections are based on a variety of estimates and assumptions of our senior management regarding our business, industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond our control. The projections set forth below do not reflect any of the effects of the merger or other alternatives to a sale of Lubrizol. In particular, these forward-looking statements were prepared on the assumption that Lubrizol remained a publicly-traded company and were based on numerous other assumptions that management believed were reasonable at the time, but have not been updated to reflect current market and industry conditions. These projections were not prepared in the same manner or process in which we would prepare projections for budgeting or other planning purposes. You should not regard the inclusion of these projections in this proxy statement as an indication that Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway or any of their respective affiliates or representatives considered or consider the projections to be necessarily predictive of actual future events, and you should not rely on the projections as such. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the assumptions made in preparing the projections will prove accurate. It is expected that there will be differences between actual and projected results, and actual results may be materially greater or less than those contained in the projections. In addition, if the merger is not consummated, we may not be able to achieve these financial projections. None of Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway or any of their respective affiliates or representatives has made or makes any representations to any person regarding the ultimate performance of Lubrizol compared to the information contained in the projections.

The financial projections have been prepared by, and are the responsibility of, Lubrizol's senior management. Neither Lubrizol's independent auditors, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the financial projections set forth below, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance with respect thereto and assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the financial projections. The financial projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or compliance with published guidelines of the SEC or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. We do not intend to update these financial projections or to make other projections public in the future.

The financial projections included (in millions of dollars):

Interests of Lubrizol Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the Board's recommendation to vote for the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and the merger, Lubrizol shareholders should be aware that the directors and executive officers of Lubrizol have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Lubrizol shareholders generally and that may create potential conflicts of interest. The Board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending the adoption of the merger agreement to Lubrizol shareholders.

Set forth below are descriptions of the interests of directors and executive officers, including interests in equity or equity-based awards, change in control severance arrangements and other compensation and benefit arrangements. The dates used in the discussions below to quantify certain of these interests have been selected for illustrative purposes only. They do not necessarily reflect the dates on which certain events will occur.

Treatment of Stock Options

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding stock option to purchase Lubrizol common shares under Lubrizol's equity compensation plans (whether or not vested and exercisable prior to the effective time of the merger) will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into the right of the holder to receive an amount in cash, less applicable withholding tax, paid within 15 business days following the effective time of the merger, equal to the product of the total number of Lubrizol common shares covered by the stock option, multiplied by the excess of $135.00 over the per share exercise price of the stock option.

The following table summarizes the outstanding vested and unvested stock options held by each of our directors, each of James L. Hambrick, Charles P. Cooley, Stephen F. Kirk, Joseph W. Bauer and Daniel L. Sheets, who are collectively referred to in this proxy statement as the named executive officers, and all other executive officers as a group (which executive officers are Suzanne F. Day, W. Treatment of Performance Share Units and Restricted Share Units

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding performance share unit will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into the right of the holder to receive an amount in cash, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of $135.00 multiplied by the number of Lubrizol common shares subject to the performance share unit, determined under the applicable plan based on performance as of the effective time of the merger. Performance share units will generally be paid within 15 business days following the effective time of the merger, but certain performance share units will be paid later in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and award agreement, including any conditions relating to continued employment beyond the effective time of the merger. No outstanding performance share units are held by our directors.

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding time-based vesting restricted share unit will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into the right of the holder to receive an amount in cash, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of $135.00 multiplied by the number of Lubrizol common shares underlying the restricted share unit. Restricted share units will generally be paid within 15 business days following the effective time of the merger. No outstanding restricted share units are held by our named executive officers or other executive officers.

The following table summarizes (i) the estimated aggregate number of performance share units that would be determined for each of the named executive officers and all other executive officers as a group under the applicable plans based on performance under the applicable plan and award agreement and (ii) the aggregate number of outstanding time-based vesting restricted share units held by our directors as of April 27, 2011, and the consideration that each of them may become entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement in connection with the adjustment of these awards, assuming continued employment of the named executive

Treatment of Deferred Compensation Awards

At the effective time of the merger, each notional share under any deferred compensation plan will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into the right to receive $135.00 in cash, less any applicable withholding tax, payable at the time specified in the applicable plan, subject to any conditions relating to continued employment or service beyond the effective time of the merger.

Bauer, who retired as our vice president and general counsel effective as of January 3, 2011) and each of the other executive officers (other than Jeffrey A. Vavruska and W. Scott Emerick) has a change in control agreement with Lubrizol that provides for certain payments and benefits under specified conditions after the merger. Under the change in control agreements, upon termination of employment by Lubrizol without cause or upon termination of employment by the executive for good reason (as described below), in each case within three years after the effective time of the merger, the executive will receive a severance payment equal to the sum of the following: a pro rata annual bonus for the year of termination or, if higher, a pro rata portion of the highest annual incentive payment received in the prior three years; three times his or her annual base salary based on the highest amount of annual base salary he or she had ever received as a Lubrizol employee; three times the highest annual incentive payment he or she received in the prior three years; three years' accrual under The Lubrizol Corporation Pension Plan, The Lubrizol Corporation 2005 Excess Defined Benefit Plan and The Lubrizol Corporation 2005 Officers' Supplemental Retirement Plan (to the extent applicable); three years of profit-sharing contributions under The Lubrizol Corporation Employees' Profit Sharing and Savings Plan and The Lubrizol Corporation 2005 Excess Defined Contribution Plan; three years of company matching contributions at the highest rate under the Employees' Profit Sharing and Savings Plan; to the extent such benefits are currently provided to the executive, three years of COBRA premiums, three years of executive physicals for the executive and his or her spouse, three years of business club membership dues, three years of life insurance coverage premiums, three years of financial planning and three years of long-term disability premiums; and reimbursement for legal fees and expenses relating to any claims under the agreement. In addition to payment upon a change in control for terminations without cause or for executive terminations for good reason during the three years after a change in control, the agreements entered into with the executives prior to September 2009 (i.e., all executives with change in control agreements other than Suzanne F. Day) provide for payment upon termination for any reason during a 90-day period starting on the first anniversary of the effective time of the merger. Each change in control agreement with a named executive officer or other executive officer, other than the agreement with Suzanne F. Day, provides that if any payment triggered by a change in control, whether under the change in control agreement or otherwise, qualifies as an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the executive will receive a gross-up payment for any related excise taxes imposed with respect to the payment. The change in control agreements impose a one-year non-compete obligation if severance is paid under the agreement.

For purposes of the change in control agreements, the term "good reason" is defined as:

failure to maintain the executive in substantially the same position;

a significant adverse change in the nature and scope of the executive's duties and responsibilities;

a good faith determination by the executive that he or she is unable to carry out his or her duties and responsibilities;

the reorganization of Lubrizol unless the successors continue to honor the executive's change in control agreement;

the relocation of Lubrizol's executive offices, or the requirement that the executive move his or her principal place of business, by more than 25 miles away; or any material breach of the change in control agreement.

Change in Control Severance Plan

Jeffrey A. Vavruska and W. Scott Emerick are participants in The Lubrizol Corporation Change in Control Severance Compensation Plan. None of the other executive officers and none of the named executive officers or directors participates in the change in control severance plan. Under the change in control severance plan, upon termination of employment by Lubrizol without cause or upon termination of employment by the executive officer due to Lubrizol's reduction of the executive officer's base compensation or relocation of the executive officer's principal place of business by more than 25 miles, in each case within 15 months after the effective time of the merger, the executive officer will receive a lump sum severance payment equal to the compensation (including basic salary, overtime, shift premiums, vacation and holiday pay, bonuses, commissions, and deferred compensation) the executive officer received during the previous 12 months.

Severance Payments and Benefits

The following table summarizes the cash severance payments and other benefits that each named executive officer, and the other named executive officers as a group, would be entitled to receive under the agreements and plans described above (excluding the value of equity awards, which are described above, and any legal fees and expenses that may become payable) based on compensation and benefit levels as of April 27, 2011, and assuming the effective time of the merger occurs on July 1, 2011 and that each named executive officer and each other executive officer experiences a simultaneous qualifying termination of employment.

- (2) Estimates are subject to change based on the effective time of the merger, date of termination of the executive officer, interest rates then in effect and certain other assumptions used in the calculation. The estimates also do not take into account the value of any non-competition agreement with a named executive officer or other executive officer or certain amounts that may be reasonable compensation provided to the named executive officer or other executive officer, either before or after the effective time of the merger, each of which may, in some cases, significantly reduce the amount of the potential gross-up payments.
- (3) Mr. Bauer retired as our vice president and general counsel effective as of January 3, 2011.

Annual Incentive Pay Plan

In addition, all of the named executive officers and other executive officers participate in the Annual Incentive Pay Plan, which provides for annual incentive compensation upon the achievement of specified performance objectives. At the effective time of the merger, awards under the Annual Incentive Pay Plan will vest based upon accruals recorded as of the date of the change in control and will be paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Annual Incentive Pay Plan, including any conditions relating to continued employment beyond the effective time of the merger.

Deferred Compensation Trust

Upon the effective time of the merger, Lubrizol is required to deposit in The Lubrizol Corporation Deferred Compensation Trust an amount equal to the value of 115% of participants accrued benefits under certain Lubrizol plans, including Lubrizol's deferred compensation plans (including those for directors).

Employee Benefits Matters

For two years following the effective time of the merger, current and former employees of Lubrizol and its subsidiaries, including the executive officers, will receive compensation and benefits that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those provided to them immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, although Berkshire Hathaway or the surviving corporation may make changes to compensation and benefits that are currently contemplated by Lubrizol, are in response to business conditions or are collectively bargained for. In addition, Berkshire Hathaway has agreed to honor and cause the surviving corporation to honor all Lubrizol employee benefit plans and arrangements in accordance with their terms following the effective time of the merger. For a more detailed description of these provisions of the merger agreement, please see the section of this proxy statement titled "The Merger Agreement - Covenants and Agreements - Employee Benefits Matters" on page 62.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

Each director and officer of Lubrizol is covered by an indemnification agreement that provides for indemnity and defense against any and all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, fines, liabilities, judgments or amounts paid in settlement with the approval of the indemnifying party, and for the reimbursement of any legal fees incurred in defending a lawsuit brought against him or her in his or her capacity as a director or officer. The indemnification agreements contain by their terms a funding obligation in connection with a change of control. Indemnification is not provided where a director or officer has not met the applicable standard of conduct (e.g., not acting in good faith) or where, by law, we cannot provide indemnification to the director or officer.

Under the merger agreement, Berkshire Hathaway has agreed to cause the surviving corporation to honor Lubrizol's obligations existing as of the date of the merger agreement to indemnify, defend and hold harmless each current and former director and officer of Lubrizol and its subsidiaries from liability and expenses for matters arising at or prior to the completion of the merger to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Ohio law and Lubrizol's organizational documents and pursuant to individual indemnification agreements.

In addition, from and after the effective time of the merger and subject to certain limitations described in the merger agreement, Berkshire Hathaway will, and will cause the surviving corporation in the merger to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who has served as an officer or director of Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries against any and all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, fines, liabilities, judgments or amounts paid in settlement with the approval of the indemnifying party, that result from any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (a) based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries, whether pertaining to any action or omission existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger and whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time and (b) based in whole or in part on, arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby.

Governmental and Regulatory Matters

The merger is subject to review under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. Under the provisions of the HSR Act, the merger cannot be completed until the companies have made required notifications, given certain information and materials to the Federal Trade Commission and to the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and a required 30-day waiting period has expired or been terminated. On April 8, 2011, the FTC granted an early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act without the imposition of any conditions or restrictions on the consummation of the merger.

At any time before or after the consummation of the merger, the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the merger or seeking divestiture of certain of Lubrizol's or Berkshire Hathaway's assets. Private parties and State Attorneys General may also bring legal actions under the antitrust laws.

In addition, Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway are required to make merger control filings in various foreign jurisdictions with respect to the merger, and in certain circumstances, receive their approval prior to consummation of the merger. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if such a challenge is made, that it would not be successful.

Certain United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of certain United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to Lubrizol's shareholders whose common shares are converted into the right to receive cash under the merger agreement. The summary is based on provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, United States Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial opinions and published positions of the United States Internal Revenue Service, each in effect as of the date of this proxy statement and all of which are subject to differing interpretation and to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary applies only to shareholders who hold our common shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code. This summary does not purport to consider all aspects of United States federal income taxation that might be relevant to Lubrizol shareholders in light of their particular circumstances and does not apply to shareholders that are subject to special rules under the United States federal income tax laws (including, for example, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, dealers in securities, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, persons who hold or have held our common shares as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale, conversion or other integrated transaction for tax purposes, and persons who acquired our common shares in compensatory transactions). If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) is a beneficial owner of our common shares, the tax treatment of a partner in that partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership.

This summary does not address the United States federal income tax consequences to any shareholder who, for United States federal income tax purposes, is a non-resident alien individual, foreign corporation, foreign partnership or foreign estate or trust, and does not address any aspect of state, local or foreign taxation.

All of our shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the receipt of cash in exchange for such shares pursuant to the merger.

In general, a shareholder who surrenders our common shares for cash pursuant to the merger will recognize a capital gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received in the merger and the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in our common shares surrendered. Gain or loss will be determined separately for each block of shares (i.e., shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) surrendered for cash pursuant to the merger. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if a shareholder's holding period for such shares is more than one year at the time of the completion of the merger. In the case of individuals, long-term capital gain is currently eligible for reduced rates of United States federal income tax. There are limitations on the deductibility of capital losses.

The surrender of our common shares in the Company 401(k) Plan for cash pursuant to the merger will not result in any tax consequences to the plan participants.

Backup federal tax withholding may apply with respect to certain payments, including cash received in the merger, unless a payee (1) is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact or (2) provides a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and that such shareholder is a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien) and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Each of our shareholders and, if applicable, each other payee should complete and sign the Substitute Form W-9 that will be included as part of the letter of transmittal to be returned to the paying agent in order to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding tax, unless an exemption applies and is established in a manner satisfactory to the paying agent.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against your United States federal income tax liability provided that you furnish the required information to the United States Internal Revenue Service.

The summary of the United States federal income tax consequences set forth above is for general informational purposes only and is not intended to constitute a complete description of all tax consequences relating to the merger. Because individual circumstances may differ, we urge all shareholders to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the merger to them, including the application of state, local and foreign tax laws.

Appraisal Rights of Lubrizol Shareholders

If the merger agreement is adopted, each Lubrizol shareholder objecting to the merger agreement may be entitled to seek relief as a dissenting shareholder under Sections 1701.84 and 1701.85 of the OGCL. The following is a summary of the principal steps a shareholder must take to perfect his or her appraisal rights under the OGCL. This summary is qualified by reference to a complete copy of Sections 1701.84 and 1701.85 of the OGCL, which is attached as Annex D to this proxy statement. Any dissenting shareholder contemplating exercise of his or her appraisal rights is urged to carefully review the provisions of Sections 1701.84 and 1701.85 and to consult an attorney, since failure to follow fully and precisely the procedural requirements of the statute may result in termination or waiver of such rights.

To perfect appraisal rights, a dissenting shareholder must satisfy each of the following conditions and must otherwise comply with Section 1701.85:

A dissenting shareholder must be a record holder on April 27, 2011 of the Lubrizol common shares as to which such shareholder seeks to exercise appraisal rights. Because only shareholders of record on the record date may exercise appraisal rights, any person who beneficially owns Lubrizol common shares that are held of record by a broker, fiduciary, nominee or other holder and who desires to exercise appraisal rights must instruct the record holder of the Lubrizol common shares to satisfy all of the requirements outlined under Section 1701.85.

A dissenting shareholder must not vote his or her Lubrizol common shares in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting. Failing to vote or abstaining from voting does not waive a dissenting shareholder's rights. However, a proxy returned to Lubrizol signed but not marked to specify voting instructions will be voted in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and will be deemed a waiver of appraisal rights. A dissenting shareholder may revoke his or her proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by: (i) filing with Lubrizol an instrument revoking it; (ii) delivering a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (iii) attending and giving notice of the revocation of the proxy at the special meeting.

A dissenting shareholder must deliver a written demand for payment of the fair value of his or her Lubrizol common shares to Lubrizol on or before the tenth day following the special meeting. Any written demand must specify the shareholder's name and address, the number and class of shares held on the record date, and the amount claimed as the fair cash value of the Lubrizol common shares. Lubrizol will not notify shareholders of the expiration of this ten-day period.

If Lubrizol so requests, a dissenting shareholder must submit his or her common share certificates to Lubrizol within 15 days of such request for endorsement thereon by Lubrizol that demand for appraisal has been made. Such a request is not an admission by Lubrizol that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to relief. Lubrizol will promptly return the share certificates to the dissenting shareholder. At the option of Lubrizol, a dissenting shareholder who fails to deliver his or her certificate upon request from Lubrizol may have his or her appraisal rights terminated, unless a court otherwise directs for good cause shown.

Lubrizol and a dissenting shareholder may come to agreement as to the fair cash value of the Lubrizol common shares. If Lubrizol and any dissenting shareholder cannot agree upon the fair cash value of the Lubrizol common shares, then either may, within three months after service of demand by the dissenting shareholder, file a petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Lake County, Ohio, for a determination that the shareholder is entitled to exercise appraisal rights and to determine the fair cash value of the Lubrizol common shares. The court may appoint one or more appraisers to recommend a fair cash value. The fair cash value is to be determined as of the day prior to the date of the special meeting. The fair cash value is the amount that a willing seller, under no compulsion to sell, would be willing to accept, and that a willing buyer, under no compulsion to purchase, would be willing to pay, but in no event may the fair cash value exceed the amount specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand. In determining this value, any appreciation or depreciation in the market value of the Lubrizol common shares resulting from the merger is excluded. The Ohio Supreme Court, in Armstrong v. Marathon Oil Company, 32 Ohio St. 3d 397 (1987), has held that fair cash value for publicly traded shares of a company with significant trading activity will be the market price for such shares on the date that the transaction is submitted to the shareholders or directors for final approval, as adjusted to exclude the impact of the transaction giving rise to the appraisal rights. The fair cash value may ultimately be more or less than the per share merger consideration. Shareholders should note that investment banking opinions as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration payable in a sale transaction, such as the merger, are not intended to be opinions as to fair value under the OGCL. Interest on the fair cash value and costs of the proceedings, including reasonable compensation to any appraisers, are to be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable.

Payment of the fair cash value must be made within 30 days after the later of the final determination of such value or the closing date of the merger. Such payment shall be made only upon simultaneous surrender to Lubrizol of the share certificates for which such payment is made.

A dissenting shareholder's rights to receive the fair cash value of his or her Lubrizol common shares will terminate if:

the dissenting shareholder has not complied with Section 1701.85;

the merger is abandoned or is finally enjoined or prevented from being carried out or the Lubrizol shareholders rescind their adoption of the merger agreement;

the dissenting shareholder withdraws his or her demand with the consent of Lubrizol by its Board; or the dissenting shareholder and Lubrizol's Board have not agreed on the fair cash value per share and neither has filed a timely complaint in the Court of Common Pleas of Lake County, Ohio.

All rights accruing from Lubrizol common shares, including voting and dividend and distribution rights, are suspended from the time a dissenting shareholder makes demand with respect to such shares until the termination or satisfaction of the rights and obligations of the dissenting shareholder and Lubrizol arising from the demand. During this period of suspension, any dividend or distribution paid on the Lubrizol common shares will be paid to the record owner as a credit upon the fair cash value thereof. If a shareholder's appraisal rights are terminated other than by purchase by Lubrizol of the dissenting shareholder's Lubrizol common shares, then at the time of termination all rights will be restored and all distributions that would have been made, but for suspension, will be made.

Accounting Treatment

Berkshire Hathaway will account for the merger as a purchase, as that term is used under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, for accounting and financial reporting purposes.

Termination of Quotation and Deregistration of Lubrizol Common Shares

Lubrizol common shares are currently listed on the NYSE under the symbol `LZ`. Upon consummation of the merger, Lubrizol common shares will cease to be listed on the NYSE, and Lubrizol common shares will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Certain Litigation Related to the Merger

Lubrizol is aware of five shareholder derivative and purported class actions that have been filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Lake County, Ohio relating to the proposed transaction. The lawsuits generally allege that the directors of Lubrizol breached their fiduciary duties to Lubrizol shareholders by agreeing to enter into the transaction for an allegedly unfair price and as the result of an allegedly unfair process and that the shareholders have not been provided sufficient information about the proposed merger. The lawsuits also allege that Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway aided and abetted the directors' breaches of fiduciary duties. The lawsuits seek, among other things, injunctive relief against the consummation of the proposed transaction and rescission of the merger agreement. Lubrizol and its directors believe that the allegations against them lack merit and intend to defend the lawsuits vigorously.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and is incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. We urge you to read carefully this entire proxy statement, including the annexes and the other documents to which we have referred you. You should also review the section titled Additional Information beginning on page 71.

The merger agreement has been included for your convenience to provide you with information regarding its terms, and we recommend that you read it in its entirety. The merger agreement is a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations between Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway with respect to the merger. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties made by Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub, on the one hand, and Lubrizol, on the other hand, that are qualified in several important respects, which you should consider as you read them in the merger agreement.

First, the merger agreement is intended to govern the contractual rights and relationships, and to allocate risks, among Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub. Following the completion of the merger, each Lubrizol shareholder is entitled to enforce the provisions of the merger agreement to the extent necessary to receive the merger consideration to which such Lubrizol shareholder is entitled. In the event of termination of the merger agreement, any party to the merger agreement may seek damages under the merger agreement in the case of a willful and material breach of the merger agreement by the other party or parties (and the damages sought by Lubrizol may be based on the consideration payable to Lubrizol shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement and may include the benefit of the bargain lost by Lubrizol shareholders, including lost shareholder premium).

Second, the representations and warranties are qualified in their entirety by certain information of Lubrizol filed with the SEC prior to the date of the merger agreement, as well as by a confidential disclosure letter that Lubrizol prepared and delivered to Berkshire Hathaway immediately prior to signing the merger agreement.

Third, certain of the representations and warranties made by Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub, on the one hand, and Lubrizol, on the other hand, were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to shareholders, and may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement rather than as establishing matters as facts.

Fourth, none of the representations or warranties will survive the closing of the merger and they will therefore have no legal effect under the merger agreement after the closing of the merger. The parties will not be able to assert the inaccuracy of the representations and warranties as a basis for refusing to close unless all such inaccuracies as a whole would reasonably be expected to have or result in, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the party that made the representations and warranties, except for: (i) certain limited representations and warranties that must be true and correct in all respects; and (ii) certain limited representations and warranties that must be true and correct in all respects, excluding any de minimis inaccuracies therein.

The merger agreement is intended to govern the contractual rights and relationships, and to allocate risks, among Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub. Information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, and subsequently developed or new information qualifying a representation or warranty may have been included in a filing with the SEC made since the date of the merger agreement (including in this proxy statement). Lubrizol will provide additional disclosure in its public reports of any material information necessary to provide Lubrizol's shareholders with a materially complete understanding of the disclosures relating to the merger agreement. Other than as disclosed in this proxy statement and the documents incorporated herein by reference, as of the date of this proxy statement, neither Lubrizol nor Berkshire Hathaway is aware of any material facts that are required to be disclosed under the federal securities laws that would contradict the representations, warranties or covenants in the merger agreement. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement and the description of them in this proxy statement should not be read alone but instead should be read in conjunction with the other information contained in the reports, statements and filings Lubrizol publicly files with the SEC. Such information can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the public filings Lubrizol makes with the SEC, as described in the section titled Additional Information beginning on page 71.

The Merger

At the effective time of the merger, Ohio Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway, will be merged into Lubrizol. The separate corporate existence of Ohio Merger Sub will cease, and Lubrizol will continue as the surviving corporation. As a result, Lubrizol will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway. Ohio Merger Sub was created solely for purposes of the merger and has no material assets or operations of its own.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

The closing of the merger will take place at 10:00 a.m. on the second business day after the satisfaction or waiver of all of the conditions described below under Conditions of the Merger beginning on page 63 (other than any condition that by its nature cannot be satisfied until the closing of the merger, but subject to satisfaction of any such condition), unless Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub agree to another time in writing.

The merger will become effective at the time a certificate of merger is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Ohio or such later time as is specified in the certificate of merger and as is agreed to by Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway, which is referred to as the effective time of the merger.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time of the merger, each then issued and outstanding Lubrizol common share (other than any Lubrizol common shares (i) held in the treasury of Lubrizol, (ii) owned by Berkshire Hathaway, (iii) owned by any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Lubrizol or Berkshire Hathaway (including Ohio Merger Sub), and (iv) held by Lubrizol shareholders exercising appraisal rights) will be cancelled and extinguished and converted into the right to receive $135.00 in cash, without interest, which is referred to as the merger consideration. Following the effective time of the merger, each holder of Lubrizol common shares will cease to have any rights with respect to such Lubrizol common shares, except for the right to receive the merger consideration therefor, without interest.

Cancellation of Shares

Each Lubrizol common share held by Lubrizol as a treasury share and each Lubrizol common share owned by Berkshire Hathaway or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway (including Ohio Merger Sub) or Lubrizol immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be automatically cancelled and extinguished and will not be entitled to any merger consideration.

Treatment of Equity and Equity-Based Awards

Each outstanding stock option under Lubrizol's equity compensation plans, whether or not vested or exercisable, to acquire Lubrizol common shares will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into the right of the holder to receive an amount in cash, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of the total number of Lubrizol common shares covered by the stock option, multiplied by the excess, if any, of the merger consideration over the per share exercise price of the stock option. Each outstanding performance share unit will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into a cash payment, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of the merger consideration multiplied by the number of Lubrizol common shares subject to the performance share unit, determined and paid under the applicable plan and award agreement based on performance as of the effective time of the merger. Each outstanding time-based vesting restricted share unit will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into a cash payment, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of the merger consideration multiplied by the number of Lubrizol common shares underlying the restricted share unit. Outstanding equity-based awards granted under a plan maintained primarily for international Lubrizol employees will be settled in accordance with the terms of the applicable plans but solely in cash. Notional shares under any deferred compensation plan will be adjusted under the applicable plan and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, less any applicable withholding tax, payable at the time specified in the applicable plan.

Appraisal Rights

The merger agreement provides that any Lubrizol common shares held by a shareholder who has demanded and perfected the demand for appraisal of such holder's Lubrizol common shares pursuant to Sections 1701.84 and 1701.85 of the OGCL and as of the effective time of the merger has not withdrawn or lost the right to such appraisal will not be converted into or represent the right to receive merger consideration and such holder will only be entitled to the rights granted to dissenting shareholders under applicable provisions of Ohio law; provided, however, that if such holder effectively withdraws or loses the right to appraisal (through failure to perfect or otherwise), then the holder's shares will automatically be converted into and represent only the right to receive the merger consideration.

Payment for Shares

Prior to completion of the merger, Ohio Merger Sub will appoint Lubrizol's transfer agent or another bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to Lubrizol to act as paying agent for the payment of the merger consideration. When and as needed, Berkshire Hathaway or Ohio Merger Sub will deposit, or will cause to be deposited, with the paying agent funds sufficient to pay the merger consideration.

As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger (but no later than three business days after the effective time of the merger), Berkshire Hathaway will cause the paying agent to mail to all record holders of certificates or book-entry shares representing Lubrizol common shares whose shares were converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, a letter of transmittal and instructions on how to surrender certificates representing such Lubrizol common shares in exchange for the merger consideration. The certificates or book-entry shares can be surrendered to the paying agent until the first anniversary of the effective time of the merger. Upon delivery of a valid letter of transmittal and the surrender of Lubrizol common shares certificates on or before the first anniversary of the effective time of the merger, Ohio Merger Sub will cause the paying agent to pay the holder of such certificates or book-entry shares, in exchange therefor, cash in an amount equal to the merger consideration multiplied by the number of Lubrizol common shares represented by such certificate or book-entry share, without interest. Each certificate or book-entry share representing Lubrizol common shares that is surrendered will be cancelled. You should not send in your Lubrizol common share certificates until you receive a letter of transmittal with instructions from the paying agent. Do not send Lubrizol common share certificates with your proxy card.

Payment of the merger consideration may be made to a person other than the person in whose name a surrendered Lubrizol common share certificate is registered if:

such certificate is properly endorsed or otherwise is in proper form for transfer; and the person requesting such payment establishes to the satisfaction of the paying agent that any transfer and other taxes required by reason of such payment in a name other than that of the registered holder of such surrendered certificate have been paid or are not applicable.

Table of Contents

The merger consideration paid upon the surrender of certificates representing Lubrizol common shares in accordance with the merger agreement will be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Lubrizol common shares previously represented by such certificates subject, however, to the surviving corporation's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distributions, in each case with a record date (i) prior to the effective time of the merger that may have been declared or made by Lubrizol on such common shares in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement or (ii) prior to the date of the merger agreement and in each case which remain unpaid at the effective time of the merger. At the effective time of the merger, the share transfer books of Lubrizol will be closed and there will not be any further registration of transfers of any Lubrizol common shares thereafter on the records of Lubrizol.

If, during the period between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger, any change in the common shares shall occur, by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any dividend thereon with a record date during such period, but excluding any change that results from any exercise of stock options, the merger consideration and any other amounts payable pursuant to the merger agreement, shall be appropriately adjusted.

If your Lubrizol common share certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, you will be entitled to obtain payment of the merger consideration by making an affidavit to that effect and, if required by the surviving corporation, posting a bond, in such reasonable amount as the surviving corporation may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the surviving corporation with respect to your lost, stolen or destroyed Lubrizol common share certificate.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Berkshire Hathaway, the surviving corporation and the paying agent may deduct and withhold from the merger consideration and any other amounts payable under the merger agreement in connection with the stock options, share units and deferred payments, any amounts required to be withheld or deducted under the applicable federal, state, local or foreign tax laws with respect to the making of such payments.

neither Lubrizol nor any of its subsidiaries will enter into an agreement, contract, commitment or arrangement to do any of the foregoing, or to authorize, recommend, propose or announce an intention to do any of the foregoing.

No Solicitation; Board Recommendation

Lubrizol has agreed to immediately cease any discussions or negotiations with any parties that may have been ongoing with respect to a takeover proposal and to seek to have returned to Lubrizol any confidential information that has been provided in any such discussions or negotiations. We have also agreed that we will not, nor will we authorize or permit any of our subsidiaries or our or their officers, directors or employees or any affiliate, investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information which has not been previously publicly disseminated), or take any other action designed to facilitate, any inquiries or the making of any proposal which constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any takeover proposal; or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any takeover proposal.

The merger agreement provides that, notwithstanding the restrictions described above, if, at any time following the receipt of a superior proposal or a proposal which is reasonably expected to lead to a superior proposal that in either case was unsolicited and made after the execution of the merger agreement in circumstances not otherwise involving a breach of the merger agreement, the Board determines in good faith, after considering applicable provisions of state law and after consultation with outside counsel, that a failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, the Board may, in response to such takeover proposal:

request information from the party making the takeover proposal for the sole purpose of the Board informing itself about the takeover proposal;

furnish information with respect to Lubrizol to the party making the takeover proposal pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement (provided that such confidentiality agreement may not include any provision calling for an exclusive right to negotiate with Lubrizol and Lubrizol advises Berkshire Hathaway of all such nonpublic information delivered to such person concurrently with its delivery to the requesting party); and participate in negotiations with such party regarding such takeover proposal.

Any violation of the restrictions set forth in the non-solicitation provision by any executive officer, director or investment banker, attorney or other advisor or representative of Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries will be deemed a breach of the merger agreement. Lubrizol also agreed not to waive or fail to enforce any provision of any confidentiality or standstill agreement to which it is a party relating to a potential or actual takeover proposal.

Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, in the event the Board determines in good faith, in response to a superior proposal that was unsolicited and made after the date hereof in circumstances not otherwise involving a breach of the merger agreement, after considering applicable provisions of state law and after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, the Board may:

withdraw or modify its approval, determination of advisability or recommendation of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

approve, determine to be advisable or recommend a superior proposal; or cause Lubrizol to enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement upon compliance with the termination procedures (see Termination beginning on page 64 for applicable termination procedures).

Such actions may only be taken after the second business day following Berkshire Hathaway's receipt of written notice from Lubrizol advising Berkshire Hathaway that the Board has received a superior proposal specifying the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal, identifying the person making the superior proposal and providing notice of the action the Board has determined to take.

In addition, and notwithstanding anything in the merger agreement to the contrary, the Board may at any time (other than in connection with a takeover proposal) withdraw or modify its approval, determination of advisability or recommendation of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in the event it determines in good faith, after considering applicable provisions of state law and after consultation with outside counsel, that any such withdrawal or modification of its approval, determination of advisability or recommendation is required in order for the Board to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Lubrizol must provide to Berkshire Hathaway five business days prior written notice advising Berkshire Hathaway that the Board intends to take such action and specifying, in reasonable detail, the reasons for such action.

We have also agreed to promptly advise Berkshire Hathaway orally and in writing of any request for confidential information in connection with a takeover proposal or of any takeover proposal, the material terms and conditions of such request or the takeover proposal and the identity of the person making such request or takeover proposal. Further, Lubrizol will keep Berkshire Hathaway promptly advised of all significant developments which could reasonably be expected to culminate in the Board withdrawing, modifying or amending its recommendation of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or in exercising any of its other rights under the non-solicitation provision.

A superior proposal as used herein means a bona fide written offer from any person (other than Berkshire Hathaway and its subsidiaries, affiliates and representatives) for a direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of 50% or more of the consolidated assets (including equity interests in subsidiaries) of Lubrizol and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or 50% or more of any class of equity securities of Lubrizol, any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 50% or more of any class of equity securities of Lubrizol, or any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries (other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement) (i) which, considering all relevant factors, is more favorable to Lubrizol and its shareholders than the proposed merger, and (ii) for which the third party has demonstrated that the financing for such offer is fully committed or is reasonably likely to be obtained, in each case as determined by the Board in its good faith judgment (after consulting with financial advisors and receiving the advice of outside counsel).

A takeover proposal as used herein means any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person (other than Berkshire Hathaway and its subsidiaries, affiliates and representatives) relating to any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of 10% or more of the consolidated assets (including equity interests in subsidiaries) of Lubrizol and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or 10% or more of any class of equity securities of Lubrizol, any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 10% or more of any class of equity securities of Lubrizol, or any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Nothing described above limits our ability to take and disclose to our shareholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) or Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act or to make any other disclosure to our shareholders if, in our Board's determination in good faith after consultation with outside counsel, such disclosure is required under applicable law (provided that our Board may not change its recommendation except to the extent expressly permitted by the exceptions referenced above).

Reasonable Best Efforts and Certain Pre-Closing Obligations

Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under any applicable laws to consummate and make effective in the most expeditious manner the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including using reasonable best efforts in:

the preparation and filing of all forms, registrations and notices required to be filed to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the satisfaction of the other parties' conditions to consummating the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

taking all reasonable actions necessary to obtain (and cooperating with each other in obtaining) any consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any third party, including any governmental entity (which actions shall include furnishing all information required under the HSR Act and in connection with approvals of or filings with any other governmental entity) required to be obtained or made in connection with the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to fully carry out the purposes thereof;

the fulfillment of all conditions precedent to the merger; and not taking any action after the date of the merger agreement that would reasonably be expected to materially delay the obtaining of, or result in not obtaining, any permission, approval or consent from any governmental entity necessary to be obtained prior to the closing of the merger.

In addition, Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway have each agreed to:

cooperate in the preparation and filing of this proxy statement with the SEC as soon as reasonably practicable, to the extent specified in the merger agreement;

use reasonable best efforts to file as promptly as practicable (but in any event no later than fifteen business days after the date of the merger agreement) notifications under the HSR Act and to file, as promptly as practicable, any other filings and/or notifications under applicable antitrust laws;

use reasonable best efforts to respond, as promptly as practicable, to any inquiries received from the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice for additional information or documentation and to respond, as promptly as practicable, to all inquiries and information requests received from any governmental entity in connection with antitrust matters;

use reasonable best efforts to resolve any objections that may be asserted by any governmental entity with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement under the HSR Act, the Sherman Act, as amended, the Clayton Act, as amended, the Federal Trade Commission Act, as amended, and any other United States federal or state or foreign antitrust laws, as promptly as practicable; and use all reasonable best efforts to take such action as may be required to cause the expiration of the notice periods under the HSR Act or other antitrust laws with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as promptly as practicable after the execution of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing or anything to the contrary in the merger agreement, the parties agreed that in no event shall Berkshire Hathaway or its subsidiaries (including Ohio Merger Sub) or affiliates be required to agree to (i) any prohibition of or limitation on its or their ownership (or any limitation that would materially affect its or their operation) of any portion of their respective businesses or assets, including after giving effect to the merger, (ii) divest, hold separate or otherwise dispose of any portion of its or their respective businesses or assets, including after giving effect to the merger, (iii) any limitation on its or their ability to effect the merger, or the ability of Lubrizol (or Ohio Merger Sub) or its or their respective subsidiaries to acquire, hold or exercise full rights of ownership of any capital stock of any subsidiary of Lubrizol, or (iv) any other limitation on its or their ability to effectively control their respective businesses or any limitation that would materially affect its or their ability to control their respective operations, including after giving effect to the merger, other than the foregoing restrictions, individually or in the aggregate with all other restrictions, for which the aggregate fair value of all businesses or assets (including stock) affected, prior to giving effect to the merger, (A) would not exceed $50,000,000 in the case of Lubrizol and its subsidiaries and affiliates, taken as a whole, and (B) would not exceed $50,000,000 in the case of Berkshire Hathaway and its subsidiaries and affiliates, taken as a whole.

Access to Information; Confidentiality

Subject to the confidentiality agreement between Berkshire Hathaway and Lubrizol and applicable law relating to the sharing of information, we have agreed to provide, and cause our subsidiaries to provide, Berkshire Hathaway and its representatives, from time to time prior to the earlier of the effective time of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement, with reasonable access during normal business hours to, and upon request, copies of relevant information regarding (i) our and our subsidiaries' respective properties, books, contracts, commitments, personnel and records and (ii) such other information as Berkshire Hathaway shall reasonably request regarding Lubrizol and its subsidiaries and their respective businesses, financial condition and operations. Berkshire Hathaway will and will cause its affiliates and representatives to keep confidential any non-public information received from Lubrizol, its affiliates or representatives, directly or indirectly, in accordance with the confidentiality agreement between Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway.

Meeting of Our Shareholders

We have agreed to, as soon as practicable after the date of the merger agreement, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of our shareholders for the purpose of considering and taking action upon the adoption of the merger agreement, which meeting is the subject of this proxy statement.

Indemnification and Insurance

Under the merger agreement, from and after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation will, and Berkshire Hathaway will cause the surviving corporation to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of the merger agreement or who becomes such prior to the effective time of the merger, an officer or director of Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries, which are referred to as the indemnified parties, against (i) any and all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, fines, liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement with the approval of the indemnifying party of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation based in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries, whether pertaining to any action or omission existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger and whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time of the merger and (ii) all of such liabilities based in whole or in part on, or pertaining to the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

In the case of the surviving corporation, the foregoing indemnification shall be to the fullest extent a corporation is permitted under Ohio law to indemnify its own directors and officers, and in the case of indemnification by Berkshire Hathaway, Berkshire Hathaway's indemnification shall not be limited by Ohio law, but Berkshire Hathaway shall not be required to indemnify applicable directors and officers if a final, non-appealable judgment or adjudication in an action against indemnified parties by a claimant (not including an action brought by Berkshire Hathaway, the surviving corporation or any insurer of either) establishes: (a) that the acts or omissions of such directors and officers were the result of deliberate criminal or fraudulent acts by the party seeking indemnification or (b) that the claim against the indemnified party arises out of, is based upon, or is attributable to the gaining in fact of any financial profit or other advantage to which the indemnified party was not legally entitled.

The parties have agreed that Berkshire Hathaway, Ohio Merger Sub and the surviving corporation, as the case may be, will pay all expenses of each indemnified party in advance of the final disposition of any such action or proceeding, but in the case of Ohio Merger Sub and the surviving corporation only to the fullest extent permitted by law upon receipt of an undertaking of the kind described in Section 1701.13(E)(5) of the OGCL and in the form provided for in the indemnification agreements with Lubrizol directors and officers in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, in the event any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation is brought against any indemnified party (whether arising before or after the effective time of the merger), (i) the indemnified parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them and reasonably satisfactory to Berkshire Hathaway, (ii) Berkshire Hathaway shall, or shall cause the surviving corporation to, pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the indemnified parties promptly as statements therefor are received, and (iii) Berkshire Hathaway shall, and shall cause the surviving corporation to, use all reasonable efforts to assist in the vigorous defense of any such matter, provided that none of Berkshire Hathaway, Ohio Merger Sub or the surviving corporation shall be liable for any settlement of any claim effected without its written consent, which consent, however, shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Any indemnified party wishing to claim indemnification under the indemnification provision upon learning of any such claim shall notify Berkshire Hathaway, Ohio Merger Sub or the surviving corporation (but the failure to so notify an indemnifying party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have under the indemnification provision except to the extent such failure materially prejudices such party), and shall deliver to the surviving corporation (but not Berkshire Hathaway) an undertaking of the kind described under applicable Ohio law and in the form provided for in the indemnification agreements with Lubrizol directors and officers in effect as of the date of the merger agreement.

Employee Benefits Matters

Under the merger agreement, Berkshire Hathaway has agreed to honor and cause the surviving corporation to honor all Lubrizol employee benefit plans and arrangements after the effective time of the merger.

In addition, Berkshire Hathaway has agreed to provide, for a period of two years after the effective time of the merger, compensation and benefits to employees and former employees of Lubrizol and its subsidiaries no less favorable in the aggregate than the compensation and benefits provided immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. This agreement will not, however, restrict Berkshire Hathaway or the surviving corporation from making changes that are consistent with changes that are currently planned or contemplated by Lubrizol, are in response to business conditions which may exist at the time of such changes or are collectively bargained for.

Furthermore, the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries will not, after the effective time of the merger, provide any form of equity-based compensation, including options to purchase shares of the surviving corporation or any of its subsidiaries, but any equity-based compensation provided by Lubrizol and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be taken into account in determining whether the compensation and benefits provided by Berkshire Hathaway and the surviving corporation are less favorable than those provided by Lubrizol immediately prior to effective time of the merger.

Service credit will be provided to Lubrizol employees for all purposes under the surviving corporation's employee benefit plans, except as would result in a duplication of benefits.

Additional Agreements

The merger agreement contains additional agreements between us and Berkshire Hathaway relating to, among other things:

consultations regarding public announcements;

notification of certain matters; and compliance of Ohio Merger Sub with all of its obligations under or related to the merger agreement.

Conditions of the Merger

The obligation of each party to the merger agreement to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver on or before the closing date of the merger of the following conditions:

adoption of the merger agreement by Lubrizol shareholders;

(i) the waiting period (including any extension thereof) applicable to the consummation of the merger under the HSR Act will have expired or been terminated and (ii) with respect to non-U.S. jurisdictions where any merger control consents or approvals are deemed necessary in the reasonable opinion of both Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway, all notifications and filings have been made, all appropriate waiting periods (including extensions thereof) have expired or been terminated and all clearances and approvals have been granted (or deemed granted in accordance with relevant law) by the relevant governmental entity; and no order or law, entered, enacted, promulgated, enforced or issued by any court of competent jurisdiction, or any other governmental entity, or other legal restraint or prohibition shall be in effect preventing the consummation of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (provided, however, that each of the parties to the merger agreement will have used its reasonable best efforts to prevent the entry of any such restraints and to appeal as promptly as possible any such restraints that may be entered to the extent required by the merger agreement).

The obligation of Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub to effect the merger is further subject to the satisfaction, or waiver by Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub, on or prior to the closing date of the merger, of the following conditions:

accuracy as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing of the merger of the representations and warranties made by us to the extent specified in the merger agreement;

performance of or compliance with the covenants and agreements contained in the merger agreement to be performed or complied with by us prior to or on the closing date to the extent specified in the merger agreement; delivery to Berkshire Hathaway of a certificate signed by our chief executive officer and chief financial officer certifying to the satisfaction of the two conditions above-mentioned; and no order or law shall have been promulgated, entered, enforced, enacted, issued or applicable to the merger by any governmental entity which would impose or require any restriction, and no action or proceeding by any governmental entity shall be pending which seeks any restriction, other than restrictions, individually or in the aggregate with all other restrictions, for which the aggregate fair value of all businesses or assets (including stock) affected, prior to giving effect to the merger, (x) would not exceed $50,000,000 in the case of Lubrizol and its subsidiaries and affiliates, taken as a whole, and (y) would not exceed $50,000,000 in the case of Berkshire Hathaway and its subsidiaries and affiliates, taken as a whole. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any action or proceeding by a governmental entity that seeks any restriction, which action or proceeding is pending as of September 14, 2011, shall not be taken into account when determining whether the conditions set forth in this paragraph have been satisfied as of that date.

The obligation of Lubrizol to effect the merger is further subject to the satisfaction, or waiver by Lubrizol, on or prior to the closing date of the merger, of the following conditions:

accuracy as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing of the merger of the representations and warranties made by Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub to the extent specified in the merger agreement;

performance of or compliance with the covenants and agreements of each of Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub contained in the merger agreement to be performed or complied with by it prior to or on the closing date to the extent specified in the merger agreement; and delivery to us of a certificate signed by each of Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub's chief executive officer (or chief legal officer in the case of Berkshire Hathaway) and chief financial officer certifying to the satisfaction of the two conditions above-mentioned.

Lubrizol and Berkshire Hathaway can provide no assurance that all of the conditions precedent to the merger will be satisfied or waived by the party permitted to do so.

Termination

Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and Ohio Merger Sub may mutually agree in writing, at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, to terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger. Also, either Berkshire Hathaway or Lubrizol may terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger without the consent of the other, at any time prior to the effective time of the merger if:

the merger is not consummated on or before September 15, 2011, referred to as the outside date (the outside date will be extended on a day-to-day basis to October 14, 2011, without any action on the part of the parties to the merger agreement (and such date will become the outside date) if, on September 15, 2011, all conditions to the closing of the merger either have been fulfilled or are then capable of being fulfilled, except the governmental approval condition); provided that a party whose breach of any provision of the merger agreement results in a failure of the merger to be consummated by the outside date will not be able to terminate under this provision;

a permanent injunction or other order which is final and nonappealable has been issued or taken, which restrains or otherwise prohibits consummation of the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; provided that the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement pursuant to this provision has used all reasonable best efforts to prevent the entry of such permanent injunction or other order to the extent required by and subject to the merger agreement; or our shareholders fail to adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting (including any adjournments and postponements thereof) except as provided in the merger agreement.

Berkshire Hathaway can terminate the merger agreement before the effective time of the merger if:

our Board or any committee thereof has withdrawn or modified, or proposed publicly to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Berkshire Hathaway, the approval, determination of advisability or recommendation of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or proposed publicly to approve, determine to be advisable or recommend, any takeover proposal, or our Board or any committee thereof has resolved to take any of the foregoing actions; or Lubrizol breaches or fails to perform or comply with any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform or comply would give rise to the failure to satisfy certain conditions to completion of the merger, and such breach or failure cannot be cured by the outside date (provided that Berkshire Hathaway is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, agreement or covenant contained in the merger agreement).

Lubrizol can terminate the merger agreement:

if either Berkshire Hathaway or Ohio Merger Sub breaches or fails to perform or comply with any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform or comply would give rise to the failure to satisfy certain conditions to completion of the merger, and such breach or failure cannot be cured by the outside date (provided that we are not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, agreement or covenant contained in the merger agreement); or prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by our shareholders at the special meeting, in order to concurrently enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal subject to our compliance with the non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement and payment of the related termination fee (as set forth below).

Termination Fee

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Lubrizol will be required to pay Berkshire Hathaway a termination fee equal to $200 million, if the merger agreement is terminated:

by either Berkshire Hathaway or us if (i) Lubrizol's shareholders fail to adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting or (ii) the outside date has arrived and (A) prior to any such termination a takeover proposal shall have been made known to Lubrizol or its shareholders or shall have otherwise become publicly known and (B) at any time on or prior to the 12-month anniversary of such termination Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a takeover proposal or consummates a takeover proposal (whereby a third party acquires more than 30% of the stock or assets of Lubrizol);

by either Berkshire Hathaway or us if a permanent injunction or other final order has been issued by a governmental authority based on the existence of a takeover proposal and (i) prior to any such termination a takeover proposal shall have been made known to Lubrizol or its shareholders or shall have otherwise become publicly known and (ii) at any time on or prior to the 12-month anniversary of such termination Lubrizol or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a takeover proposal or consummates a takeover proposal (whereby a third party acquires more than 30% of the stock or assets of Lubrizol);

by us prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by our shareholders to accept a superior proposal and enter into a definitive agreement in connection with that superior proposal; or by Berkshire because our Board changes its recommendation or recommends a takeover proposal.

If we fail to pay in a timely manner any amount due as described above and, in order to obtain such payment, Berkshire Hathaway or Ohio Merger Sub commences a claim, action, suit or other proceeding that results in a judgment against us, we will have to pay to Berkshire Hathaway interest on such amount from and including the date payment of such amount was due to but excluding the date of actual payment at the prime rate set forth in the Wall Street Journal in effect on the date such payment was required to be made plus 1%, together with reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred in connection with such claim, suit, proceeding or other action.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated by us or Berkshire Hathaway in accordance with its terms, the merger agreement will become void and of no effect, with no liability on the part of any party (or any shareholder, director, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of such party) to the other party to the merger agreement; provided, however, that if such termination results from the (i) failure of either party to fulfill a condition to the performance of the obligations of the other party or (ii) failure of either party to perform an agreement or covenant thereof, such party shall not be relieved of any liability to the other party as a result of such failure or breach. In the event the merger agreement is terminated, certain provisions of the merger agreement, including but not limited to those related to publicity and termination fees, and the provisions pursuant to the confidentiality agreement will survive the termination.

Amendment

Subject to the requirements of applicable law, the merger agreement may be amended by the parties thereto by action taken or authorized by or on behalf of their respective boards of directors, at any time prior to the closing date, whether before or after adoption of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Lubrizol; provided that the merger agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the parties to the merger agreement.

Extension; Waiver

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, any party to the merger agreement may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties to the merger agreement, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties by the other party contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant thereto, and (iii) subject to the requirements of applicable law, waive compliance by the other party with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement. Any such extension or waiver will be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by the party or parties to be bound thereby. The failure of any party to the merger agreement to assert any of its rights under the merger agreement or otherwise will not constitute a waiver of such rights.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company each have approved, and in the case of the Company and Merger Sub deem it advisable and in the best interests of their respective shareholders to consummate, the acquisition of the Company by Parent by means of a merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, whereby each issued and outstanding share of the Company's Common Stock (such issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock, collectively, the Shares), other than Dissenting Shares, Shares owned by Parent or any wholly-owned Subsidiaries of Parent, and any shares of Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company, will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

Section 1.1 The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement and in accordance with Ohio Law, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger), the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and the Company will continue as the surviving corporation. The Company as the surviving corporation after the Merger is referred to in this Agreement as the Surviving Corporation.

Section 1.2 Closing. The closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at 10:00 a.m. on the second Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of all of the conditions (other than any condition that by its nature cannot be satisfied until the Closing, but subject to satisfaction of any such condition) set forth in Article VII (the Closing Date), at the offices of Jones Day, North Point, 901 Lakeside Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44114, unless another date or place is agreed to in writing by the parties to this Agreement.

Section 1.3 Effective Time. The parties to this Agreement shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing a certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger) on the Closing Date (or on such other date as Parent and the Company may agree in writing) with the Secretary of State of the State of Ohio, in such form as required by, and executed in accordance with, the relevant provisions of Ohio Law (the date and time of the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Ohio, or such later time as is specified in the Certificate of Merger and as is agreed to by Parent and the Company in writing, being the Effective Time).

Section 1.4 Effect of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in the applicable provisions of Ohio Law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and subject thereto, at the Effective Time, all the property, rights, privileges, immunities, powers, franchises and authority of the Company and Merger Sub shall vest in the Surviving Corporation and all debts, liabilities and duties of the Company and Merger Sub shall become the debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 1.5 Articles of Incorporation and Code of Regulations of the Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, the articles of incorporation and code of regulations of the Company, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be amended and restated as of the Effective Time to be in the form of (except with respect to the name of the Company) the articles of incorporation and code of regulations of Merger Sub, and as so amended shall be the articles of incorporation and code of regulations of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided therein or by applicable Law (and subject to Section 6.7 hereof).

Section 1.6 Directors and Officers of the Surviving Corporation. The directors of Merger Sub immediately before the Effective Time will be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation and the officers of the Company immediately before the Effective Time will be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation, in each case until their successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the articles of incorporation and the code of regulations of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 1.7 Subsequent Actions. If, at any time after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, assurances or any other actions or things are necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise in the Surviving Corporation, its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of either of the Company or Merger Sub vested in or to be vested in the Surviving Corporation as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger or otherwise to carry out this Agreement, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of either the Company or Merger Sub, all such deeds, bills of sale, assignments and assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of each of such corporations or otherwise, all such other actions and things as may be necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm any and all right, title and interest in, to and under such rights, properties or assets in the Surviving Corporation or otherwise to carry out this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON CAPITAL STOCK

Section 2.1 Conversion of Securities. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or the holders of Shares or securities of Parent or Merger Sub:

(a) Each Share issued and outstanding immediately before the Effective Time (other than any Shares to be cancelled pursuant to Section 2.1(b) and any Dissenting Shares) will be cancelled and extinguished and be converted into the right to receive $135.00 in cash payable to the holder of such Share, without interest (the Merger Consideration), upon surrender of either certificates formerly representing such Shares (Certificates) or any book-entry Shares (Book-Entry Shares) in the manner provided in Section 2.2. All such Shares, when so converted, will no longer be outstanding and will be automatically cancelled, retired and cease to exist. Each holder of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares will cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration for such Shares upon the surrender of such Certificate or Book-Entry Share in accordance with Section 2.2, without interest.

(b) Each share held in the treasury of the Company and each Share owned by Parent or any direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent immediately before the Effective Time will be cancelled and extinguished, and no payment or other consideration will be made with respect to such shares.

(c) Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately before the Effective Time will thereafter represent one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 2.2 Payment; Surrender of Shares; Stock Transfer Books.

(a) Before the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall designate the Company's transfer agent or another bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company to act as agent for the holders of Shares in connection with the Merger (the Paying Agent) to receive the funds necessary to make the payments contemplated by Section 2.1(a). When and as needed, Parent or Merger Sub shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, in trust with the Paying Agent in a separate account for the benefit of holders of Shares (the Payment Fund) the aggregate Merger Consideration to which such holders shall be entitled at the Effective Time pursuant to Section 2.1(a). If for any reason the cash in the Payment Fund shall be insufficient to fully satisfy all of the payment obligations to be made in cash by the Paying Agent hereunder, Parent shall promptly deposit cash into the Payment Fund in an amount which is equal to the deficiency in the amount of cash required to fully satisfy such cash payment obligations.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time and in any event not later than three Business Days following the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each holder of record of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares whose Shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.1(a) (i) a letter of transmittal (which must specify that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares will pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent or, in the case of Book-Entry Shares, upon adherence to the procedures set forth in the letter of transmittal, and will be in such form and have such other provisions as the Company and Merger Sub may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for surrendering Certificates or Book-Entry Shares in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Each holder of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares may thereafter until the first anniversary of the Effective Time surrender such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to the Paying Agent under cover of the letter of transmittal, as agent for such holder. Upon delivery of a valid letter of transmittal and the surrender of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares on or before the first anniversary of the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall cause the Paying Agent to pay the holder of such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, in exchange for the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, cash in an amount equal to the Merger Consideration multiplied by the number of Shares represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares. Until so surrendered, Certificates (other than Certificates representing Dissenting Shares, Shares held by Parent or any direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent, and shares held in the treasury of the Company) or Book-Entry Shares will represent solely the right to receive the aggregate Merger Consideration relating to the Shares represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares.

(c) If payment of the Merger Consideration in respect of cancelled Shares is to be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name surrendered Certificates are registered, it will be a condition to such payment that the Certificates so surrendered will be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such payment shall have paid any transfer and other Taxes required by reason of such payment in a name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificates surrendered or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Paying Agent that such Tax is not applicable. The Merger Consideration paid upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates in accordance with the terms of this Article II will be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Shares theretofore represented by such Certificates, subject, however, to the Surviving Corporation's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distributions, in each case with a record date (i) prior to the Effective Time that may have been declared or made by the Company on such Shares in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or (ii) prior to the date of this Agreement, and in each case which remain unpaid at the Effective Time.

(d) At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company will be closed and there will not be any further registration of transfers of any shares of the Company's capital stock thereafter on the records of the Company. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of Certificates and Book-Entry Shares will cease to have any rights with respect to any Shares, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement or by applicable Law. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates (other than Certificates representing Dissenting Shares, Shares held by Parent or any direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent, and shares held in the treasury of the Company) or Book-Entry Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation, they will be cancelled and exchanged for Merger Consideration as provided in this Article II. No interest will accrue or be paid on any cash payable upon the surrender of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares which immediately before the Effective Time represented the Shares.

(e) Promptly following the date which is one year after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will be entitled to require the Paying Agent to deliver to it any cash, including any interest received with respect to such cash, and any Certificates or other documents, in its possession relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the Transactions), which had been made available to the Paying Agent and which have not been disbursed to holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares or previously delivered to the Surviving Corporation, and thereafter such holders will be entitled to look to the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws) only as general creditors of the Surviving Corporation with respect to the Merger Consideration payable upon due surrender of their Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, without any interest on such Merger Consideration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent will be liable to any holder of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for Merger Consideration delivered to a Governmental Entity pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(f) Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, Parent, the Surviving Corporation and the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable under this Agreement to any holder of Shares, and from amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.3, such amounts as are required to be withheld or deducted under the Code, the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of U.S. state or local Tax Law with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent that amounts are so withheld or deducted and paid over to the applicable Governmental Entity, such withheld or deducted amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Shares or other securities in respect of which such deduction and withholding were made.

Section 2.3 Treatment of Stock Plans.

(a) Each option to purchase shares granted under the Company Stock Plans (an Option) that is outstanding and unexercised as of the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall be adjusted by the applicable Company Stock Plan committee and converted into the right of the holder to receive from the Surviving Corporation an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock previously subject to such Option and (B) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per share set forth in such Option, less any required withholding Taxes (the Option Cash Payment), and as of the Effective Time each holder of an Option shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Option Cash Payment. The Option Cash Payment shall be made promptly (and in any event within 15 Business Days) following the Effective Time.

(b) Each award granted pursuant to a Company Plan that is maintained primarily for international employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries (collectively, the International Equity Plans) entitling the holder thereof to shares of Common Stock or cash equal to or based on the value of shares of Common Stock (an International Award) that is outstanding and, to the extent applicable, unexercised as of the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) will be settled at the Effective Time in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable International Equity Plan but solely in cash (such cash payment, the Settlement Payment). As of the Effective Time, each holder of an International Award shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Settlement Payment. All Settlement Payments shall be made promptly (and in any case within 15 Business Days) following the Effective Time; provided, however, in the event that such payment would cause any additional Taxes to be payable pursuant to Section 409A of the Code or other applicable Law with respect to an International Award, the payment shall instead be made at the time specified in the applicable International Equity Plan and related award agreement.

(c) Each award of a right under any Company Plan (other than awards of Options, International Awards and Deferred Compensation Plans, the treatment of which is specified in Section 2.3(a), Section 2.3(b) and Section 2.3(d), respectively) entitling the holder thereof to shares of Common Stock or cash equal to or based on the value of shares of Common Stock (a Share Unit) that is outstanding or payable as of the Effective Time shall be adjusted by the applicable Company Plan committee and converted into the right of the holder to receive from the Surviving Corporation an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) (i) in the case of Share Units subject to performance-based vesting conditions, the number of shares of Common Stock determined based on performance as of the Effective Time (calculated in accordance with the terms of the applicable Company Plans) and (ii) in the case of Share Units subject to time-based vesting conditions, the total number of shares of Common Stock underlying such Share Units, and (B) the Merger Consideration, less any required withholding Taxes (the Share Unit Payment), provided, however, that the Share Unit Payment shall in no case be less than if it had been determined in accordance with the terms of the applicable Company Plans. As of the Effective Time each holder of a Share Unit shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the applicable Share Unit Payment. All Share Unit Payments shall be made promptly (and in any case within 15 Business Days) following the Effective Time; provided, however, in the event that such payment would cause any additional Taxes to be payable pursuant to Section 409A of the Code with respect to a Share Unit, the payment shall instead be made at the time specified in the applicable Company Plan and related award document. Company Plan for purposes of this Section 2.3 and Section 3.4, shall mean a Company Plan without regard to materiality.

(d) All account balances (whether or not vested) under any Company Plan that provides for the deferral of compensation and represents amounts notionally invested in a number of shares of Common Stock or otherwise provides for distributions or benefits that are calculated based on the value of a share of Common Stock (collectively, the Deferred Compensation Plans), shall be adjusted by the applicable Company Plan committee as of the Effective Time, and shall be converted into a right of the holder to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of Common Stock previously deemed invested under or otherwise referenced by such account and (B) the Merger Consideration, less any required withholding Taxes (the Deferred Payment), and shall cease to represent a right to receive a number of shares or cash equal to or based on the value of a number of shares of Common Stock. The Deferred Payment shall be made at the time specified in the applicable Company Plan and related deferral documents.

(e) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all such lawful action as may be necessary (which includes satisfying the requirements of Rule 16b-3(e) promulgated under the Exchange Act), without incurring any liability in connection therewith, to provide for and give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Section 2.3.

Section 2.4 Dissenting Shares.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, any Shares held by a holder who has demanded and perfected his, her or its demand for appraisal of his, her or its Shares in accordance with Ohio Law (including but not limited to Section 1701.85 of Ohio Law) and as of the Effective Time has neither effectively withdrawn nor lost his, her or its right to such appraisal (Dissenting Shares), will not be converted into or represent a right to receive cash pursuant to Section 2.1(a), but the holder of the Dissenting Shares will be entitled to only such rights as are granted to holders of Dissenting Shares by Ohio Law.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.4(a), if any holder of Shares who demands appraisal of his, her or its Shares under Ohio Law effectively withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) his, her or its right to appraisal, then as of the Effective Time or the occurrence of such event, whichever later occurs, such holder's Shares will automatically be converted into and represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.1(a), without interest thereon, upon surrender of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares representing such Shares pursuant to Section 2.2.

(c) The Company shall give Merger Sub prompt notice of any written demands for appraisal or payment of the fair value of any Shares, withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to Ohio Law received by the Company. The Company shall not voluntarily make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal and shall not, except with the prior written consent of Merger Sub, settle or offer to settle any such demands.

Section 2.5 Adjustments. If, during the period between the date hereof and the Effective Time, any change in the Shares shall occur, by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend thereon with a record date during such period, but excluding any change that results from any exercise of Options, the Merger Consideration, and any other amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement, shall be appropriately adjusted.

Section 2.6 Lost Certificates. If any Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificates to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificates, the Paying Agent will pay, in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates, the Merger Consideration to be paid in respect of the Shares represented by such Certificates, as contemplated by this Article II.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

The Company represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub, subject to the exceptions with respect to particular representations and warranties disclosed in the letter from the Company, dated the date hereof, addressed to Parent and Merger Sub (the Company Disclosure Letter), and except as set forth in the Company SEC Documents filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement, as follows:

Section 3.1 Organization.

(a) Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries is a corporation, partnership or other entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization and has all requisite corporate or other power and authority and all necessary governmental approvals to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as now being conducted, except (other than with respect to the Company's due organization, valid existence and good standing) where the failure to be so organized, existing and in good standing or to have such power, authority and governmental approvals would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. For purposes of analyzing whether any state of facts, change, development, effect, occurrence or condition has resulted in a Material Adverse Effect under this Agreement, Parent and Merger Sub will not be deemed to have knowledge of any state of facts, change, development, effect, occurrence or condition relating to the Company or its Subsidiaries unless it is disclosed in the Company SEC Documents or the Company Disclosure Letter.

(b) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries is duly qualified or licensed to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction in which the property owned, leased or operated by it or the nature of the business conducted by it makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except where the failure to be so duly qualified or licensed and in good standing would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in Section 3.1(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter, the Company does not own any equity interests in any corporation or other entity, except for its Subsidiaries.

Section 3.2 Authorization: Validity of Agreement: Company Action.

the consummation by it of the Transactions, have been duly and validly authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company (the Company Board), and no other corporate action on the part of the Company is necessary to authorize the execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement and the consummation by it of the Transactions, except that the consummation of the Merger requires the Shareholder Approval. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming due and valid authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub, is a valid and binding obligation of the Company enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except that (i) such enforcement may be subject to applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium or other similar Laws, now or hereafter in effect, affecting creditors' rights generally and (ii) the remedy of specific performance and injunctive and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought.

(b) Assuming the accuracy of the representation and warranty in Section 4.4, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Shares to adopt this Agreement (the Shareholder Approval) is the only vote or consent of the holders of any class or series of the Company's capital stock, or any of them, that is necessary in connection with the consummation of the Merger.

(c) At a meeting duly called and held, the Company Board (i) determined that this Agreement and the Transactions are fair to and in the best interests of the Company's shareholders and declared this Agreement advisable, (ii) approved this Agreement and the Transactions, (iii) directed that the adoption of this Agreement be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the Company's shareholders and (iv) resolved (subject to Section 5.2) to recommend to the Company's shareholders that they adopt this Agreement (such recommendation, the Company Recommendation).

(d) The copies of the Company's Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Second Amended and Restated Regulations, in the forms most recently filed in the Company SEC Documents, are true, complete and correct copies of such documents as in effect as of the date of this Agreement.

Section 3.3 Consents and Approvals; No Violations.

(b) Except as set forth in Section 3.3(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company nor the consummation by the Company of the Transactions, nor compliance by the Company with any of the terms or provisions hereof, will (i) conflict with or violate any provision of the Company's Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or its Second Amended and Restated Regulations or any of the similar organizational documents of any of its Subsidiaries or (ii) assuming that the authorizations, consents and approvals referred to in Section 3.3(a) are duly obtained, (x) violate any Order or Law applicable to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective properties or assets, or (y) violate, conflict with, result in the loss of any material benefit under, constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, result in the termination of or a

The Company and its Subsidiaries hold all governmental licenses, authorizations, permits, consents, approvals, variances, exemptions and orders necessary for the operation of the businesses of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole (the Company Permits), except where such failure would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. It is agreed that any violation of the restrictions set forth in the preceding sentence by any executive officer, director or investment banker, attorney or other advisor or representative of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall be deemed to be a breach of this Section 5.2(a) by the Company. The Company agrees not to waive or fail to enforce any provision of any confidentiality or standstill agreement to which it is a party relating to a potential or actual Takeover Proposal.

(b) Except as expressly permitted in this Section 5.2(b), neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall (i) withdraw or modify, or propose publicly to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, the approval, determination of advisability, or recommendation by the Company Board or such committee of this Agreement, the Merger, and the other Transactions, (ii) approve, determine to be advisable, or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, determine to be advisable, or recommend, any Takeover Proposal or (iii) cause the Company to enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement (each, an Acquisition Agreement) related to any Takeover Proposal (other than a customary confidentiality agreement referred to in clause (B) of the proviso to Section 5.2(a)). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company Board determines in good faith, in response to a Superior Proposal that was unsolicited and made after the date hereof in circumstances not otherwise involving a breach of this Agreement, after considering applicable provisions of state law and after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, the Company Board may (subject to compliance with this sentence and to compliance with Sections 5.2(a) and 5.2(c)) (x) withdraw or modify its approval, determination of advisability, or recommendation of this Agreement, the Merger, and the other Transactions or (y) approve, determine to be advisable, or recommend a Superior Proposal, or (z) cause the Company to enter into an Acquisition Agreement, provided, however, that any actions described in clause (x), (y) or (z) may be taken only at a time that is after the second business day following Parent's receipt of written notice from the Company advising Parent that the Company Board has received a Superior Proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal, identifying the person making such Superior Proposal and providing notice of the determination of the Company Board of what actions described in clause (x), (y) or (z) the Company Board has determined to take, and further provided, that the action described in clause (z) may be taken only upon compliance by the Company with Section 8.1(c) and Section 8.2(b). In addition, and notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company Board may at any time (other than in connection with a Takeover Proposal) withdraw or modify its approval, determination of advisability, or recommendation of this Agreement, the Merger, and the other Transactions in the event it determines in good faith, after considering applicable provisions of state law and after consultation with outside counsel, that any such withdrawal or modification of its approval, determination of advisability or recommendation is required in order for the Company Board to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, provided that the Company has provided to Parent five (5) Business Days prior written notice advising Parent that it intends to take such action and specifying, in reasonable detail, the reasons for such action.

(c) In addition to the obligations of the Company set forth in Section 5.2(a) and 5.2(b), the Company shall promptly advise Parent orally and in writing of any request for confidential information in connection with a Takeover Proposal or of any Takeover Proposal, the material terms and conditions of such request or the Takeover Proposal and the identity of the person making such request or Takeover Proposal and shall keep Parent promptly advised of all significant developments which could reasonably be expected to culminate in the Company Board withdrawing, modifying or amending its recommendation of this Agreement, the Merger and the other Transactions, or in exercising any of its other rights under Section 5.2(a) or (b).

(d) Nothing contained in this Section 5.2 or Section 6.6 shall prohibit the Company or the Company Board from taking and disclosing to its shareholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) or Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act or from making any other disclosure to the Company's shareholders if, in the Company Board's determination in good faith after consultation with outside counsel, the failure so to disclose would be inconsistent with its obligations under applicable Law; provided, however, neither the Company nor the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall, except as in accordance with Section 5.2(b), withdraw or modify, or propose publicly to withdraw or modify, its approval, determination of advisability or recommendation of this Agreement, the Merger and the other Transactions or approve, determine to be advisable, or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, determine to be advisable, or recommend, a Takeover Proposal.

(a) Prior to the Closing, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under any applicable Laws to consummate and make effective in the most expeditious manner possible the Transactions including (i) the preparation and filing of all forms, registrations and notices required to be filed to consummate the Transactions, (ii) the satisfaction of the other parties' conditions to consummating the Transactions, (iii) taking all reasonable actions necessary to obtain (and cooperation with each other in obtaining) any consent, authorization, Order or approval of, or any exemption by, any third party, including any Governmental Entity (which actions shall include furnishing all information required under the HSR Act and in connection with approvals of or filings with any other Governmental Entity) required to be obtained or made by Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Transactions or the taking of any action contemplated by the Transactions or by this Agreement, (iv) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the Transactions and to fully carry out the purposes of this Agreement. Additionally, each of Parent and the Company shall use all reasonable best efforts to fulfill all conditions precedent to the Merger and shall not take any action after the date of this Agreement that would reasonably be expected to materially delay the obtaining of, or result in not obtaining, any permission, approval or consent from any Governmental Entity necessary to be obtained prior to Closing.

(b) Prior to the Closing, each party shall promptly consult with the other parties to this Agreement with respect to, provide any necessary information with respect to (and, in the case of correspondence, provide the other parties (or their counsel) copies of), all filings made by such party with any Governmental Entity or any other information supplied by such party to, or correspondence with, a Governmental Entity in connection with this Agreement and the Transactions. Each party to this Agreement shall promptly inform the other parties to this Agreement of any communication from any Governmental Entity regarding any of the Transactions. In connection therewith, if any Action is instituted (or threatened to be instituted) challenging any of the Transactions as violative of any Antitrust Laws, each of Parent and the Company shall cooperate and use all reasonable best efforts to vigorously contest and resist any such Action, and to have vacated, lifted, reversed, or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that is in effect and that prohibits, prevents, or restricts consummation of the Merger or any other Transactions, including by vigorously pursuing all available avenues of administrative and judicial appeal unless, by mutual agreement, Parent and the Company decide that litigation is not in their respective best interests. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement, nothing in this Section 6.3(d) shall limit the right of any party hereto to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1, so long as such party hereto has, up to the time of termination, complied in all material respects with its obligations under this Section 6.3(d). Each of Parent and the Company shall use all reasonable best efforts to take such action as may be required to cause the expiration of the notice periods under the HSR Act or other Antitrust Laws with respect to the Transactions as promptly as possible after the execution of this Agreement.

cause either (i) any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect at any time from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time or (ii) any condition to the Merger to be unsatisfied in any material respect at the Effective Time and (b) any material failure of the Company, Merger Sub or Parent, as the case may be, or any officer, director, employee, agent or representative of the Company, Merger Sub or Parent as applicable, to comply with or satisfy any covenant or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under this Agreement; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 6.4 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available under this Agreement to the party receiving such notice.

Section 6.5 Access; Confidentiality. Subject to the Confidentiality Agreement and applicable Law relating to the sharing of information, the Company agrees to provide, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to provide, Parent and its representatives, from time to time prior to the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement, reasonable access during normal business hours to (i) the Company's and its Subsidiaries' respective properties, books, contracts, commitments, personnel and records, (ii) such other information as Parent shall reasonably request with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries and their respective businesses, financial condition and operations. Parent shall and shall cause Parent's Affiliates and representatives to keep confidential any non-public information received from the Company, its Affiliates or representatives, directly or indirectly, pursuant to this Section 6.5 in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement.

Section 6.6 Publicity. Neither the Company, Parent nor any of their respective Affiliates shall issue or cause the publication of any press release or other announcement with respect to this Agreement or the Transactions without the prior consultation of the other party and giving the other party the opportunity to review and comment on such press release or other announcement, if practicable, except as such party reasonably believes, after receiving the advice of outside counsel and after informing all other parties to this Agreement, is required by Law or by any listing agreement with or rules of any applicable national securities exchange, trading market or listing authority and except as may be requested by a Governmental Entity.

Section 6.7 Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement or who becomes such prior to the Effective Time, an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (the Indemnified Parties) against (i) any and all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, fines, liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement with the approval of the indemnifying party of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation based in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries whether pertaining to any action or omission existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time and whether asserted or claimed prior to, or at or after, the Effective Time (Indemnified Liabilities), and (ii) all Indemnified Liabilities based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to this Agreement or the Transactions; provided, however, that, in the case of the Surviving Corporation, such indemnification shall only be to the fullest extent a corporation is permitted under Ohio Law to indemnify its own directors and officers, and in the case of indemnification by Parent, Parent's indemnification shall not be limited by Ohio Law, but Parent shall not be required to indemnify Indemnified Parties if a final, non-appealable judgment or adjudication in an action against Indemnified Parties by a claimant (not including an action brought by Parent, Surviving Corporation, or any insurer of either) establishes: (A) that the acts or omissions of Indemnified Parties were the result of deliberate criminal or fraudulent acts by the Indemnified Party seeking indemnification; or (B) that the claim against Indemnified Party arises out of, is based upon, or is attributable to the gaining in fact of any financial profit or other advantage to which the Indemnified Party was not legally entitled. Parent, Merger Sub, and the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, will pay all expenses of each Indemnified Party in advance of the final disposition of any such action or proceeding, but in the case of Merger Sub and the Surviving Corporation only to the fullest extent permitted by law upon receipt of an undertaking of the kind described in Section 1701.13(E)(5) of Ohio Law and in the form provided for in the indemnification agreements with Company directors and officers in effect as of the date of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, in the event any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation is brought against any Indemnified Party (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them and reasonably satisfactory to Parent, (ii) Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received, and (iii) Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, use all reasonable efforts to assist in the vigorous defense of any such matter, provided that none of Parent, Merger Sub or the Surviving Corporation shall be liable for any settlement of any claim effected without its written consent, which consent, however, shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 6.7, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall notify Parent, Merger Sub or the Surviving Corporation (but the failure so to notify an indemnifying party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have under this Section 6.7 except to the extent such failure materially prejudices such party), and shall deliver to the Surviving Corporation (but not Parent) an undertaking of the kind described in Section 1701.13(E)(5) of Ohio Law and in the form provided for in the indemnification agreements with Company directors and officers in effect as of the date of this Agreement.

(b) The articles of incorporation and regulations of the Surviving Corporation shall contain the provisions with respect to indemnification set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Second Amended and Restated Regulations of the Company, which provisions shall not be amended, modified or otherwise repealed for a period of six years from the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder as of the Effective Time of any individual who at the Effective Time is an Indemnified Party, unless such modification is required after the Effective Time by Law and then only to the minimum extent required by such Law.

(c) The rights of each Indemnified Party under this Section 6.7 shall be in addition to any rights such individual may have under the Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Second Amended and Restated Regulations (or other governing documents) of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries, under Ohio Law or any other applicable Laws or under any agreement of any Indemnified Party with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. These rights shall survive consummation of the Merger and are intended to benefit, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party.

(d) In the event that the Parent or Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and is not the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision will be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.7.

Section 6.8 Merger Sub Compliance. Parent shall cause Merger Sub to comply with all of its obligations under or related to this Agreement.

Section 6.9 Employee Matters.

(a) For a period of two years from the Closing Date, Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall provide, or cause to be provided, compensation and benefits to the employees and former employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries (the Company Employees) that are no less favorable, in the aggregate, than the compensation and benefits that are provided to the Company Employees immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, that the foregoing obligation shall not restrict Parent and the Surviving Corporation from making changes that (i) are consistent with changes currently planned or contemplated by the Company, (ii) are in response to business conditions which may exist at the time of such changes or (iii) are collectively bargained for. Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, honor in accordance with their terms all Company Plans; provided, however, that Parent or the Surviving Corporation may amend, modify or terminate any individual Company Plan in accordance with its terms and applicable Law (including obtaining the consent of the other parties to and beneficiaries of such Company Plan to the extent required thereunder). Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else in this Agreement to the contrary, the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall not, after the Effective Time, provide any form of equity-based compensation, including, without limitation, options to purchase shares of capital stock in the Surviving Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries; provided that any equity-based compensation provided by the Company and its Subsidiaries pursuant to the Company Plans immediately prior to the Effective Time (including but not limited to long term incentive compensation grants or awards) shall be taken into account in determining whether the compensation and benefits provided by Parent and the Surviving Corporation are less favorable than those provided by the Company for purposes of the first sentence of this Section 6.9(a).

(b) For purposes of all employee benefit plans (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) and other employment agreements, arrangements and policies of the Surviving Corporation under which an employee's benefits depends, in whole or in part, on length of service, credit will be given to current employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries for service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or predecessors prior to the Effective Time, provided that such crediting of service does not result in duplication of benefits.

(c) The provisions of this Section 6.9 are solely for the benefit of the respective parties to this Agreement and nothing in this Section 6.9, express or implied, shall confer upon any Company Employee, or legal representative or beneficiary thereof, any rights or remedies, including any right to employment or continued employment for any specified period, or compensation or benefits of any nature or kind whatsoever under this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

(ii) The representations and warranties of the Company contained in Sections 3.4(a) and 3.18 of this Agreement shall be true and correct in all respects (except, in the case of Section 3.4(a), for de minimis inaccuracies therein) at and as of the date of this Agreement and at and as of the Closing (without regard to any qualifications therein as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect), as though made at and as of such time (or, if made as of a specific date, at and as of such date).

(c) No Orders or Laws. No Order or Law shall have been promulgated, entered, enforced, enacted, issued or applicable to the Merger by any Governmental Entity which would impose or require any Restriction, and no action or proceeding by any Governmental Entity shall be pending which seeks any Restriction, other than Restrictions, individually or in the aggregate with all other Restrictions, for which the aggregate fair value of all businesses or assets (including stock) affected, prior to giving effect to the Merger, (x) would not exceed $50,000,000 in the case of the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, taken as a whole, and (y) would not exceed $50,000,000 in the case of Parent and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, taken as a whole. (d) Officers Certificate. The Company shall have furnished Parent with a certificate dated the Closing Date signed on its behalf by its chief executive officer and chief financial officer to the effect that the conditions set forth in Section 7.2(a) and Section 7.2(b) have been satisfied.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Parent and Merger Sub. Each of Parent and Merger Sub shall have performed or complied with in all material respects (or with respect to any covenant or agreement qualified by materiality or material adverse effect, in all respects) the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it prior to or on the Closing Date.

Table of Contents

Section 7.4 Frustration of Closing Conditions. Neither Parent or Merger Sub nor the Company may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.1, Section 7.2 or Section 7.3, as the case may be, to be satisfied to excuse it from its obligation to effect the Merger if such failure was caused by such party's failure to comply with its obligations to consummate the Merger and the other Transactions to the extent required by and subject to Section 6.3.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION

Section 8.1 Termination. Anything herein or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, this Agreement may be terminated and the Merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time (notwithstanding any Shareholder Approval):

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company if:

(i) the Merger has not been consummated on or before September 15, 2011 (the Outside Date); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b)(i) shall not be available to any party whose breach of any provision of this Agreement results in the failure of the Merger to be consummated by such time; provided further, however, that, if, on the Outside Date, any of the conditions to the Closing set forth in Section 7.1(b) shall not have been fulfilled but all other conditions to the Closing either have been fulfilled or are then capable of being fulfilled, then the Outside Date shall, without any action on the part of the parties hereto, be extended day-by-day for each day during which any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1(b) remain unfulfilled; provided further, however, that the Outside Date shall not be extended past October 14, 2011;

(ii) a permanent injunction or other Order which is final and nonappealable shall have been issued or taken restraining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the Merger or any of the other Transactions (any such injunction or Order, a Final Order); provided, however, that the party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b)(ii) shall have used all reasonable best efforts to prevent the entry of such permanent injunction or other Order to the extent required by and subject to Section 6.3; or

(iii) if the Special Meeting (including any adjournments and postponements thereof) shall have concluded without the Shareholder Approval having been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote of the holders of Shares, provided, however, that the Company's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b)(iii) is subject to the Company's compliance with clause (y) of the third sentence of Section 6.2(a);

(c) by the Company prior to the receipt of the Shareholder Approval, if the Company concurrently enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal; provided that the Company shall have complied with all provisions of Section 5.2 and shall have previously paid or shall concurrently with such termination pay the fees due under Section 8.2(b);

(d) by Parent, if the Company Board or any committee thereof shall have withdrawn or modified, or proposed publicly to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, the approval, determination of advisability or recommendation of this Agreement, the Merger and the other Transactions, or approved, determined to be advisable or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve, determine to be advisable or recommend, any Takeover Proposal, or the Company Board or any committee thereof shall have resolved to take any of the foregoing actions;

(e) by Parent, if the Company breaches or fails to perform or comply with any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform or comply

(i) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.2(a) or Section 7.2(b) and (ii) cannot be cured by the Outside Date (provided that Parent is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, agreement or covenant contained in this Agreement); or

We do not express any view on, and our opinion does not address, the fairness of the proposed transaction to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company, nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of the Company, or any class of such persons, whether relative to the Consideration or otherwise. We have assumed that any modification to the structure of the transaction will not affect our analysis in any material respect. This letter, and the opinion expressed herein is addressed to, and for the information and benefit of, the Board of Directors in connection with their evaluation of the proposed Transaction. The issuance of this opinion has been approved by an Opinion Committee of Evercore Group L.L.C.

March 12, 2011

The Board of Directors

The Lubrizol Corporation

29400 Lakeland Boulevard

Wickliffe, Ohio 44092-2298

The Board of Directors:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the common stock of The Lubrizol Corporation (Lubrizol) of the Merger Consideration (defined below) to be received by such holders pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) proposed to be entered into among Berkshire Hathaway Inc. (Berkshire Hathaway), Ohio Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway (Merger Sub), and Lubrizol. As more fully described in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Lubrizol (the Merger) and each outstanding share of the common stock, without par value, of Lubrizol (Lubrizol Common Stock) will be converted into the right to receive $135.00 per share in cash (the Merger Consideration).

In arriving at our opinion, we reviewed a draft dated March 12, 2011 of the Merger Agreement and held discussions with certain senior officers, directors and other representatives and advisors of Lubrizol concerning the business, operations and prospects of Lubrizol. We reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Lubrizol as well as certain financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Lubrizol which were provided to or discussed with us by the management of Lubrizol. We reviewed the financial terms of the Merger as set forth in the Merger Agreement in relation to, among other things: current and historical market prices and trading volumes of Lubrizol Common Stock; the historical and projected earnings and other operating data of Lubrizol; and the capitalization and financial condition of Lubrizol. We analyzed certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the businesses of other companies whose operations we considered relevant in evaluating those of Lubrizol and analyzed, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other transactions which we considered relevant in evaluating the Merger. In addition to the foregoing, we conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information and financial, economic and market criteria as we deemed appropriate in arriving at our opinion. The issuance of our opinion has been authorized by our fairness opinion committee.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us and upon the assurances of the management of Lubrizol that it is not aware of any relevant information that has been omitted or that remains undisclosed to us. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Lubrizol provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us, we have been advised by the management of Lubrizol, and we have assumed, with your consent, that such forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Lubrizol as to the future financial performance of Lubrizol.

We have not made or been provided with an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Lubrizol nor have we made any physical inspection of the properties or assets of Lubrizol. We have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with its terms without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Lubrizol or the Merger. Representatives of Lubrizol have advised us, and we also have assumed, that the final terms of the Merger Agreement will not vary materially from those set forth in the draft reviewed by us.

Our opinion does not address any terms (other than the Merger Consideration to the extent expressly specified herein) or other aspects or implications of the Merger, including, without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger. We were not requested to, and we did not, solicit third-party indications of interest in the possible acquisition of all or a part of Lubrizol nor were we requested to consider, and our opinion does not address, the underlying business decision of Lubrizol to effect the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Lubrizol or the effect of any other transaction in which Lubrizol might engage. We also express no view as to, and our opinion does not address, the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount or nature or any other aspect of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the Merger, or any class of such persons, relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise. Our opinion is necessarily based upon information available to us, and financial, stock market and other conditions and circumstances existing and disclosed to us, as of the date hereof.

Citigroup Global Markets Inc. has acted as financial advisor to Lubrizol in connection with the proposed Merger and will receive a fee for such services, the principal portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. We also will receive a fee in connection with the delivery of this opinion. We and our affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide services to Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and/or certain of their respective affiliates and subsidiaries unrelated to the proposed Merger, for which services we and our affiliates have received and may receive compensation, including, during the two-year period prior to the date hereof, having acted or currently acting as (i) financial advisor to Lubrizol in connection with certain merger and acquisition transactions, (ii) co-lead arranger, co-bookrunner and/or agent for, and lender under, certain credit facilities of Lubrizol, (iii) joint bookrunner in connection with certain debt offerings and joint dealer manager in connection with certain debt tender offers of Lubrizol and (iv) a lender under certain credit facilities of Berkshire Hathaway and its subsidiaries. In the ordinary course of business, we and our affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and/or their respective affiliates and subsidiaries for our own account or for the account of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In addition, we and our affiliates (including Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates) may maintain relationships with Lubrizol, Berkshire Hathaway and/or their respective affiliates and subsidiaries.

Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information of the Board of Directors of Lubrizol (in its capacity as such) in its evaluation of the proposed Merger, and our opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed Merger or otherwise.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, our experience as investment bankers, our work as described above and other factors we deemed relevant, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Lubrizol Common Stock is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

Dissenters Rights under Sections 1701.84 and 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code

1701.84 Dissenting shareholders entitled to relief.

The following are entitled to relief as dissenting shareholders under section 1701.85 of the Revised Code:

- (A) Shareholders of a domestic corporation that is being merged or consolidated into a surviving or new entity, domestic or foreign, pursuant to section 1701.78, 1701.781, 1701.79, 1701.791, or 1701.801 of the Revised Code;
- (B) In the case of a merger into a domestic corporation, shareholders of the surviving corporation who under section 1701.78 or 1701.781 of the Revised Code are entitled to vote on the adoption of an agreement of merger, but only as to the shares so entitling them to vote;
- (C) Shareholders, other than the parent corporation, of a domestic subsidiary corporation that is being merged into the domestic or foreign parent corporation pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code;
- (D) In the case of a combination or a majority share acquisition, shareholders of the acquiring corporation who under section 1701.83 of the Revised Code are entitled to vote on such transaction, but only as to the shares so entitling them to vote;
- (E) Shareholders of a domestic subsidiary corporation into which one or more domestic or foreign corporations are being merged pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code;
- (F) Shareholders of a domestic corporation that is being converted pursuant to section 1701.792 of the Revised Code.

1701.85 Dissenting shareholders compliance with section fair cash value of shares.

- (A)(1) A shareholder of a domestic corporation is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder in respect of the proposals described in sections 1701.74, 1701.76, and 1701.84 of the Revised Code, only in compliance with this section.
- (2) If the proposal must be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation involved, the dissenting shareholder shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of a meeting of the shareholders at which the proposal is to be submitted, and such shares shall not have been voted in favor of the proposal. Not later than ten days after the date on which the vote on the proposal was taken at the meeting of the shareholders, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment to the dissenting shareholder of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, which demand shall state the dissenting shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the dissenting shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(3) The dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (C) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code and a dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (E) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date on which the agreement of merger was adopted by the directors of that corporation. Within twenty days after the dissenting shareholder has been sent the notice provided in section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment with the same information as that provided for in division (A)(2) of this section.

(4) In the case of a merger or consolidation, a demand served on the constituent corporation involved constitutes service on the surviving or the new entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation. In the case of a conversion, a demand served on the converting corporation constitutes service on the converted entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the conversion.

(5) If the corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand, a request for the certificates representing the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder, within fifteen days from the date of the sending of such request, shall deliver to the corporation the certificates requested so that the corporation may endorse on them a legend to the effect that demand for the fair cash value of such shares has been made. The corporation promptly shall return the endorsed certificates to the dissenting shareholder. A dissenting shareholder's failure to deliver the certificates terminates the dissenting shareholder's rights as a dissenting shareholder, at the option of the corporation, exercised by written notice sent to the dissenting shareholder within twenty days after the lapse of the fifteen-day period, unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. If shares represented by a certificate on which such a legend has been endorsed are transferred, each new certificate issued for them shall bear a similar legend, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares. Upon receiving a demand for payment from a dissenting shareholder who is the record holder of uncertificated securities, the corporation shall make an appropriate notation of the demand for payment in its shareholder records. If uncertificated shares for which payment has been demanded are to be transferred, any new certificate issued for the shares shall bear the legend required for certificated securities as provided in this paragraph. A transferee of the shares so endorsed, or of uncertificated securities where such notation has been made, acquires only the rights in the corporation as the original dissenting holder of such shares had immediately after the service of a demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares. A request under this paragraph by the corporation is not an admission by the corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under this section.

(B) Unless the corporation and the dissenting shareholder have come to an agreement on the fair cash value per share of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder or the corporation, which in case of a merger or consolidation may be the surviving or new entity, or in the case of a conversion may be the converted entity, within three months after the service of the demand by the dissenting shareholder, may file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation that issued the shares is located or was located when the proposal was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, or, if the proposal was not required to be submitted to the shareholders, was approved by the directors. Other dissenting shareholders, within that three-month period, may join as plaintiffs or may be joined as defendants in any such proceeding, and any two or more such proceedings may be consolidated. The complaint shall contain a brief statement of the facts, including the vote and the facts entitling the dissenting shareholder to the relief demanded. No answer to a complaint is required. Upon the filing of a complaint, the court, on motion of the petitioner, shall enter an order fixing a date for a hearing on the complaint and requiring that a copy of the complaint and a notice of the filing and of the date for hearing be given to the respondent or defendant in the manner in which summons is required to be served or substituted service is required to be made in other cases. On the day fixed for the hearing on the complaint or any adjournment of it, the court shall determine from the complaint and from evidence submitted by either party whether the dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares and, if so, the number and class of such shares. If the court finds that the dissenting shareholder is so entitled, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value. The appraisers have power and authority specified in the order of their appointment. The court thereupon shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share and shall render judgment against the corporation for the payment of it, with interest at a rate and from a date as the court considers equitable. The costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable. The proceeding is a special proceeding and final orders in it may be vacated, modified, or reversed on appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505. of the Revised Code. If, during the pendency of any proceeding instituted under this section, a suit or proceeding is or has been instituted to enjoin or otherwise to prevent the carrying out of the action as to which the shareholder has dissented, the proceeding instituted under this section shall be stayed until the final determination of the other suit or proceeding. Unless any provision in division (D) of this section is applicable, the fair cash value of the shares that is agreed upon by the parties or fixed under this section shall be paid within thirty days after the date of final determination of such value under this division, the effective date of the amendment to the articles, or the consummation of the other action involved, whichever occurs last. Upon the occurrence of the last such event, payment shall be made immediately to a holder of uncertificated securities entitled to payment. In the case of holders of shares represented by certificates, payment shall be made only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the shares for which the payment is made.

(C) If the proposal was required to be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation, fair cash value as to those shareholders shall be determined as of the day prior to the day on which the vote by the shareholders was taken and, in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, fair cash value as to shareholders of a constituent subsidiary corporation shall be determined as of the day before the adoption of the agreement of merger by the directors of the particular subsidiary corporation. The fair cash value of a share for the purposes of this section is the amount that a willing seller who is under no compulsion to sell would be willing to accept and that a willing buyer who is under no compulsion to purchase would be willing to pay, but in no event shall the fair cash value of a share exceed the amount specified in the demand of the particular shareholder. In computing fair cash value, any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the proposal submitted to the directors or to the shareholders shall be excluded.

(D)(1) The right and obligation of a dissenting shareholder to receive fair cash value and to sell such shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, and the right and obligation of the corporation to purchase such shares and to pay the fair cash value of them terminates if any of the following applies:

(a) The dissenting shareholder has not complied with this section, unless the corporation by its directors waives such failure;

(b) The corporation abandons the action involved or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying it out, or the shareholders rescind their adoption of the action involved;

(c) The dissenting shareholder withdraws the dissenting shareholder's demand, with the consent of the corporation by its directors;

(d) The corporation and the dissenting shareholder have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value per share, and neither the shareholder nor the corporation has filed or joined in a complaint under division (B) of this section within the period provided in that division.

(2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, if the merger, consolidation, or conversion has become effective and the surviving, new, or converted entity is not a corporation, action required to be taken by the directors of the corporation shall be taken by the partners of a surviving, new, or converted partnership or the comparable representatives of any other surviving, new, or converted entity.

(E) From the time of the dissenting shareholder's giving of the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of such class or any dividend, distribution, or interest is paid in money upon any securities issued in extinguishment of or in substitution for such shares, an amount equal to the dividend, distribution, or interest which, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares or securities, shall be paid to the holder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares. If the right to receive fair cash value is terminated other than by the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all rights of the holder shall be restored and all distributions which, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the holder of record of the shares at the time of termination.
