ILLUMINA'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS SENDS FOURTH LETTER TO STOCKHOLDERS

RECOMMENDS STOCKHOLDERS REJECT ROCHE'S OFFER AND VOTE WHITE PROXY CARD

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA April 9, 2012 Illumina, Inc. (NASDAQ:ILMN), a leading developer, manufacturer, and marketer of life science tools and integrated systems for the analysis of genetic variation and function, today is sending a letter from its Board of Directors highlighting supportive reports issued by two of the nation's leading proxy advisor firms. Illumina's Board recommends that stockholders reject Roche's offer and vote for the election of Illumina's highly qualified nominees at its 2012 Annual Meeting of Stockholders by completing the WHITE proxy card today.

Included below is the full text of the letter to Illumina stockholders:

April 9, 2012

Dear Fellow Stockholder:

Our Annual Meeting on April 18 is fast approaching and it is not too late to make your shares count. Please use the enclosed WHITE PROXY CARD to vote FOR Illumina's director nominees today. Since time is short, we encourage you to submit your vote by telephone or by Internet to ensure that your shares are represented.

LEADING INDEPENDENT PROXY ADVISORY FIRMS AGREE:

ILLUMINA STOCKHOLDERS SHOULD PROTECT THEIR INVESTMENT BY VOTING THE WHITE PROXY CARD

Just last week, two leading independent firms that advise institutional investors on proxy voting matters—ISS and Egan-Jones—both issued reports recommending that their clients SUPPORT ILLUMINA'S DIRECTOR NOMINEES at the April 18 Annual Meeting. In recommending that stockholders vote on the WHITE PROXY CARD, ISS wrote:

the current bid of $51.00 does not provide meaningful compensation for the potentially enormous long-term opportunity shareholders would forego by selling at this point [and] falls short of providing a compelling enough consideration to cause Illumina shareholders to support Roche's nominees.

*Institutional Shareholder Services Inc., M&A Edge Report, April 6, 2012

We agree with this assessment. The hostile offer by Roche to acquire Illumina is grossly inadequate. And Roche's effort to have its nominees elected in support of that grossly inadequate offer is a blatant attempt to steal value that belongs to you. In fact, ISS went even further, saying:

The change of control premium embedded in [Roche's] $51 offer would appear, in real terms, to be negligible, and Because the revised offer is not yet demonstrably in the range of a compelling starting point for negotiation, the Board appears to have acted appropriately in rejecting the Roche bid.

*Institutional Shareholder Services Inc., M&A Edge Report, April 6, 2012

ILLUMINA'S FUTURE GROWTH PROSPECTS ARE EXTRAORDINARY

Illumina has a very bright future and there has never been a better time to be an Illumina stockholder. We are the clear innovation and market leader in life science tools and integrated systems for the analysis of genetic variation and function at a time when our industry as a whole and Illumina in particular has the potential to experience extraordinary growth. Genetic information is on the verge of being broadly applied beyond molecular research into a whole new world of clinical diagnostics, personalized medicine and other emerging markets. Illumina is uniquely positioned for significant value creation by capitalizing on this rich set of opportunities.

With the lack of serious competition in the near future, and the vast potential for sequencing that is already starting to appear, the board should rightfully be concerned about unnecessary truncation of value by selling the company at too low a valuation of its future.

*Institutional Shareholder Services Inc., M&A Edge Report, April 6, 2012

ILLUMINA'S BOARD IS COMMITTED TO PROTECTING THE VALUE OF YOUR INVESTMENT

Please vote the WHITE PROXY CARD today to re-elect to the Illumina Board four highly qualified and experienced directors A. Blaine Bowman; Karin Eastham; Jay T. Flatley, President and CEO; and William H. Rastetter, Chairman who are committed to protecting your best interests. They will not allow Roche to rob Illumina stockholders of the tremendous value creation opportunities that lay ahead.

The board's decision to pull the annual meeting ahead by approximately three weeks suggests both an openness to shareholders' interests, and confidence in the integrity of the board's own position on the value being offered.

*Institutional Shareholder Services Inc., M&A Edge Report, April 6, 2012

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT PLEASE VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY!

Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, you have the opportunity to protect your investment by promptly voting the WHITE PROXY CARD. Again, we urge you to vote by telephone or by Internet to ensure that your shares are represented.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, we thank you for your continued support, and we look forward to continuing to deliver outstanding value to you in the future.

William H. Rastetter, Ph.D.
Chairman
