Item 8.01. Other Events.

On May 28, 2015, Amarin Corporation plc (Amarin) announced that the federal district court for the District of Columbia granted Amarin's motion for summary judgment in Amarin's lawsuit against the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) seeking an order requiring FDA to recognize five-year, New Chemical Entity (NCE) marketing exclusivity for Vascepa® (icosapent ethyl) capsules. The decision vacated the FDA's denial of Amarin's claim for exclusivity and remanded to the FDA for proceedings consistent with the decision. An appeal of the court's decision can be filed within 60 days.

Forward-looking statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements, including statements about any appeal of this decision by FDA. These forward-looking statements are not promises or guarantees and involve substantial risks and uncertainties. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described or projected herein include the following: the risk that FDA may appeal the granting of Amarin's motion for summary judgment, and the result of any such appeal, and uncertainties associated generally with litigation, research and development, clinical trials and related regulatory approvals. A further list and description of these risks, uncertainties and other risks associated with an investment in Amarin can be found in Amarin's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including its most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Existing and prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. Amarin undertakes no obligation to update or revise the information contained in this Form 8-K, whether as a result of new information, future events or circumstances or otherwise.
