PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As announced in a Form 8-K filed with the Commission on September 8, 2005, the Company has been working to close the proposed acquisition of a Houston-based business, H & W Petroleum Company, Inc., which has been impeded by the recent evacuation of Houston on account of Hurricane Rita and related disruptions. In addition, the Company has been conducting extensive emergency operations supporting the storm relief work in the aftermath of both Hurricane Katrina and Rita. These factors have contributed to a delay in the finalization of the Company's financial results. Accordingly, the Company cannot file the subject report within the prescribed time period without incurring unreasonable effort or expense.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operation from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The completion of the Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2005 has been delayed by the pending acquisition of H & W Petroleum Company, Inc. The closing of the transaction is presently expected to occur on or about September 30, 2005.

The Company anticipates reporting a loss for the year ended June 30, 2005 of approximately $1.460 million, versus a loss of $0.698 million for the year ended June 30, 2004. The loss for the year ended June 30, 2004 reflects a gain of $0.757 million for the extinguishment of debt in connection with the Company's August 2003 financing; there was no such gain for the year ended June 30, 2005. A detailed explanation of the factors contributing to the change in results of operation for the corresponding periods will be discussed in the section entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation" in the Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2005.
