Attached hereto is a letter dated May 26, 2016 (accompanied by a BLUE proxy card) that FISI is first mailing to shareholders on May 26, 2016 in which FISI comments on the proxy contest by Clover Partners, L.P. (Clover) and the other participants in its solicitation with respect to the 2016 Annual Meeting and reports that the two leading independent, third-party proxy advisory firms, Institutional Shareholder Services Inc. (ISS) and Glass, Lewis & Co., LLC (Glass Lewis), whose clients include institutional investors, mutual funds, pension funds and other fiduciaries, have each recommended to its clients that are FISI shareholders that they vote the BLUE proxy card FOR ALL four of FISI's director nominees Martin Birmingham, Samuel Gullo, Kim VanGelder and James Wyckoff standing for election at the 2016 Annual Meeting. As previously announced, Clover and the other participants in its solicitation have publicly disclosed that they intend to pursue a proxy contest to elect two nominees to the FISI Board of Directors at the 2016 Annual Meeting. FISI strongly urges shareholders to follow the recommendations of both ISS and Glass Lewis and vote only the BLUE proxy card FOR ALL four of FISI's director nominees recommended by the FISI Board of Directors.

VOTE THE BLUE PROXY CARD TODAY FOR ALL OF FISI S HIGHLY-QUALIFIED AND VERY EXPERIENCED BOARD NOMINEES

IMPORTANT RECENT DEVELOPMENTS!

THE TWO LEADING INDEPENDENT PROXY ADVISORY FIRMS, ISS AND GLASS LEWIS, RECOMMEND

THAT FISI SHAREHOLDERS VOTE THE BLUE PROXY CARD FOR ALL OF FISI S DIRECTOR NOMINEES

May 26, 2016

Dear Fellow Shareholder

We are extremely pleased to inform you that, over the past week, the two leading independent proxy advisory firms, Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) and Glass Lewis & Co., LLC (Glass Lewis), issued reports recommending that FISI shareholders vote the BLUE proxy card FOR ALL four of FISI s highly-qualified and very experienced director nominees Martin Birmingham, Samuel Gullo, Kim VanGelder and James Wyckoff standing for election at our upcoming 2016 Annual Meeting. In their reports, ISS and Glass Lewis recognized FISI s clear strategic direction, strong financial performance and record of outperforming its peers in returning value to shareholders. ISS and Glass Lewis also both came to the same conclusion that the dissident shareholder, Clover Partners, L.P., has not made a compelling case that additional change in FISI s board composition is warranted.

FISI S STRATEGIC DIRECTION, STRONG FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE AND SUPERIOR
SHAREHOLDER RETURNS ARE RECOGNIZED BY THE TWO LEADING INDEPENDENT PROXY ADVISORY FIRMS

ISS

Glass Lewis

Strength of Strategic Growth Plan

FISI has delivered solid growth and profitability over the past five years.

We find no cause for concern with the Company s strategic direction, which has been clearly communicated to investors and upon which management appears to be making progress, in our view.

Superior
Shareholder Returns

On a five-year and three-year basis, the Company s TSR [total shareholder return] appears to have handily outperformed peers through the date at which the dissident s involvement first became public.

We find that the Company has generally outperformed peers and regional bank indices over the near-and longer-term, including over the one-year, three-year and 10-year periods reviewed in our analysis.

Concerns About Clover Partners

Moreover, FISI s outperformance was reduced after the dissident filed its 13D, which does not suggest the market believed the company was in need of an intervention.

We are concerned that the Dissident s [Clover Partners] brief holding period and publicly stated interest in selling the Company could deny long-term shareholders the upside potential associated with the Company s stand-alone strategy.

Conclusion

As the dissident [Clover Partners] has not made a compelling case that additional change in the board level is warranted, votes FOR all management nominees Birmingham, Gullo, VanGelder, and Wyckoff are warranted.

In conclusion, we do not believe the Dissident [Clover Partners] has made a compelling case that electing its nominees to the board is warranted or in the best interests of all shareholders at this time.

We are very pleased that the two leading independent and highly reputable proxy advisory firms, ISS and Glass Lewis, carefully reviewed the voting alternatives and came to the same conclusion in recommending that shareholders should vote FOR ALL four of FISI's highly-qualified and very experienced director nominees on the BLUE proxy card. We are also pleased that in making their recommendations, both ISS and Glass Lewis recognized that your Board's strategic plan has been producing superior returns for shareholders over the last three years. Delivering value to our shareholders remains our top priority. We believe that our strategic plan will continue to drive growth and profitability and create superior value for shareholders and its success has been demonstrated by numerous measures of FISIs overall performance, including the following:

66% in total shareholder returns¹

50% growth in FISIs stock price

$32 million returned to shareholders through dividends

21% growth in net income; over 20% growth in loans, deposits and assets

21% growth in commercial business loans, 37% growth in commercial mortgages, and a 52% decrease in nonperforming loans

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT FOR THE FUTURE OF FISIs

Only the latest dated proxy card counts, so please vote the BLUE proxy card again TODAY!

The upcoming Annual Meeting, which is only days away on June 3rd, is a significant event that could determine the future of FISIs. We strongly urge all shareholders to follow the recommendations of the two leading, independent proxy advisory firms, ISS and Glass Lewis, and VOTE the BLUE proxy card TODAY FOR ALL your Board's four highly-qualified and very experienced nominees: Martin Birmingham, Samuel Gullo, Kim VanGelder and James Wyckoff. Voting the BLUE proxy card will ensure that FISIs is best positioned to continue executing on a strategic plan that has delivered increased growth, increased profitability, and achieved a 66% increase in total shareholder returns over the past three years.

We also urge you NOT to sign or return any white proxy card or voting instruction form that you may receive from Clover Partners. Even a WITHHOLD vote with respect to Clover Partners' proposed director nominees on its white proxy card or voting instruction form will cancel any BLUE proxy card or voting instruction form previously given to FISIs. If you do sign a white proxy card that is sent to you by Clover Partners, however, you have the right to change your vote by using the enclosed BLUE proxy card. Only the latest dated proxy card or voting instruction form you vote will be counted.

We encourage you to visit www.votefisi.com for more information about the Annual Meeting.

Thank you for your continued support and patience as we strive to ensure that we are providing you with the information necessary to make a fully informed voting decision.

Sincerely,

Board of Directors of Financial Institutions, Inc.
