Certain U.S. Federal Income

Tax Consequences: Pursuant to published guidance by the Internal Revenue Service, withholding on gross proceeds under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act will be delayed until January 1, 2019 rather than January 1, 2017. See Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations Legislation Affecting the Taxation of Debt Securities, Common Stock and Preferred Stock Held by or through Foreign Entities in the accompanying prospectus for additional information.

Additional tax considerations are discussed under Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations in the accompanying prospectus.

EU Directive on the

Taxation of Savings Income:

On November 10, 2015, the Council of the European Union adopted a Council Directive repealing the EC Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income, as amended (the Directive), from January 1, 2017, in the case of Austria, and from January 1, 2016, in the case of all other EU Member States (subject to on-going requirements to fulfill administrative obligations such as the reporting and exchange of information relating to, and accounting for withholding taxes on, payments made before those dates). The repeal is meant to prevent overlap between the Directive and a new automatic exchange of information regime to be implemented under Council Directive 2011/16/EU on Administrative Cooperation in the field of Taxation (as amended by Council Directive 2014/107/EU). The new regime under Council Directive 2011/16/EU (as amended) is in accordance with the Global Standard released by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development in July 2014. Council Directive 2011/16/EU (as amended) is generally broader in scope than the Directive, although it does not impose withholding taxes. See EU Directive on the Taxation of Savings Income in the accompanying Offering Circular.
