To Our Valued External Business Partners,

P&G's fourth quarter 2017 earnings report was shared on July 27. Our Chairman, President and CEO David Taylor shared with investors and the public that "We met or exceeded each of our going-in objectives for fiscal year 2017 in a challenging macro and competitive environment. We made significant progress on our key priorities: accelerating organic sales growth, continuing to drive strong productivity improvement and cost savings, strengthening our organization and culture and completing moves to simplify and strengthen our product portfolio. You can read about P&G's results in detail in our Q4 earnings release at www.pg.com, here: <http://news.pg.com/press-release/pg-corporate-announcements/pg-announces-fourth-quarter-and-fiscal-year-2017-results>

Our fiscal 2017 results demonstrate that the actions we have taken and the plan we have in place are working. In fact, we have met or exceeded each of our fiscal 2017 objectives and you, our external business partners, played a big role in that success. Thank you! Delivery of our financial goals has also translated into share price gains for our shareholders. Now is the time to build on our momentum, deliver on our commitments, and keep innovating and improving to win.

As you likely know, Triun Fund Management, a New York hedge fund, has nominated Nelson Peltz to stand for election to P&G's Board at our upcoming Annual Meeting of Shareholders on October 10, 2017. Shareholders are being asked to choose between a Board and management team that are successfully executing a proven plan to build a better and more valuable company and Mr. Peltz, who has not offered any new, actionable ideas to deliver value beyond the plan that we already have in place.

We strongly recommend shareholders vote the BLUE Proxy Card to maintain our momentum. What's best for P&G right now is balance and focus. P&G, and our business partners, will not benefit from change for the sake of change. If you'd like more information on this topic, you can find it here: <https://voteblue.pg.com>

Feel free, as always, to ask me any questions.

Finally, in my last letter to you, I spoke of the work we're doing in the areas of payments and digitization, and Coupa and Ariba specifically. While the Coupa and Ariba implementations are underway, it will take time to have both fully in-place globally and see the transformational benefits together. As such, I wanted to make you aware of our Adopt the Core program which will enable progress towards our Source-to-Pay Transformation vision by leveraging existing systems. You'll soon hear from your Supplier Relationship Owner or our central team to jointly determine which elements of the Adopt the Core program may be best suited for our business together. To help guide you in this, we've created a Supplier Systems Catalog, available at PGSupplier.com for Current Suppliers' Supplier Systems Catalog. Please review the catalog and proactively discuss it with your Supplier Relationship Owner.

Thank you for your partnership as we jointly transform our business together!

Sincerely,

Stewart Atkinson
