NOTICE OF WRITTEN CONSENT AND APPRAISAL RIGHTS

AND

INFORMATION STATEMENT

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND

YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

To our Stockholders:

This notice of written consent and appraisal rights and information statement is being furnished to the holders of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Company Common Stock) of Blue Buffalo Pet Products, Inc. (the Company), in connection with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 22, 2018, by and among General Mills, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Buyer), Bravo Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer (Merger Sub), and the Company (the Merger Agreement), a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this information statement. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company with the Company surviving such merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer (the Merger). Upon completion of the Merger, each share of Company Common Stock, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time) will be canceled and converted automatically into the right to receive $40.00 in cash, without interest and after giving effect to any required withholding taxes (the Merger Consideration). However, the Merger Consideration will not be paid in respect of (a) any shares of Company Common Stock held by Buyer, Merger Sub or the Company (including shares of Company Common Stock held in treasury by the Company) immediately prior to the effective time, which will automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist without any conversion thereof and for no consideration, or shares of Company Common Stock held by any wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer or the Company (other than Merger Sub) immediately prior to the Effective Time, which will remain outstanding without any conversion thereof and for no consideration and (b) those shares of Company Common Stock held by any person who has not voted in favor of the Merger or consented thereto in writing and who has properly exercised and perfected appraisal rights for such shares of Company Common Stock under Delaware law and not withdrawn his, her or its demand for appraisal rights.

The board of directors of the Company unanimously has (i) determined and resolved that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company and the stockholders of the Company, (ii) approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, (iii) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to the stockholders of the Company and (iv) determined and resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company adopt the Merger Agreement.

The adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company stockholders required the affirmative vote or written consent by holders of a majority of shares of Company Common Stock entitled to vote thereon. On February 22, 2018, Invus, L.P., The Bishop Family Limited Partnership, The Orca Trust and William W. Bishop, Jr. (collectively, the Majority Stockholders), which together on such date beneficially owned 101,294,224 shares of Company Common Stock (excluding shares of Company Common Stock held by such Majority Stockholder in street name) representing approximately 51.8% of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock, delivered a written consent approving and adopting in all respects the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger (the Written Consent), which Written Consent provides that it shall be of no further force or effect following termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (including, without limitation, a termination of the Merger Agreement in connection with the Company executing a definitive agreement with a third party with respect to a superior proposal in accordance with the Merger Agreement). As a result, no further action by any stockholder of the Company is required under applicable law or the Merger Agreement (or otherwise) to adopt the Merger Agreement, and the Company will not be soliciting your vote for or consent to the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the transactions contemplated thereby and will not call a stockholders meeting for purposes of voting on the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the transactions contemplated thereby. This notice and the accompanying information statement shall constitute notice to you from the Company of the Written Consent contemplated by Section 228(e) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL).

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, if the Merger is completed, subject to compliance with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL, holders of shares of Company Common Stock, other than the Majority Stockholders, will have the right to seek an appraisal for, and be paid the fair value in cash of, their shares of Company Common Stock (as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery) instead of receiving the Merger Consideration. To exercise your appraisal rights, you must submit a written demand for an appraisal no later than twenty (20) days after the mailing of this information statement, or April 19, 2018, and comply precisely with other procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL, which are summarized in the accompanying information statement. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to the accompanying information statement as Annex D. This notice and the accompanying information statement shall constitute notice to you from the Company of the availability of appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL in connection with the Merger.

We urge you to read the entire information statement carefully. Please do not send in your Company Common Stock certificates at this time. If the Merger is completed, you will receive instructions regarding the surrender of your Company Common Stock certificates and payment for your shares of Company Common Stock.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS,

William Bishop
Chairman of the Board of Directors

Lawrence Miller

The Merger (page 17)

On February 22, 2018, the Company entered into the Merger Agreement with Buyer and Merger Sub. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions provided in the Merger Agreement, and in accordance with Delaware law, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company, with the Company surviving such merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer (the Merger). Because the Merger Consideration (as defined below) will be paid in cash, you will receive no equity interest in Buyer, and after the Effective Time you will have no equity interest in the Company.

Table of Contents

The Merger Consideration (page 55)

Upon consummation of the Merger, each share of common stock of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (Company Common Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Dissenting Shares, shares held in treasury and shares owned by Buyer, Merger Sub or any other subsidiary of Buyer or the Company, will automatically be converted into the right to receive $40.00 in cash, without interest and after giving effect to any required withholding taxes (the Merger Consideration), upon the surrender of such shares in accordance with the Merger Agreement.

At the Effective Time, each stock option of the Company (Option), whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately before the Effective Time will be automatically cancelled and will only entitle the holder of such Option to receive a cash payment equal to the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price of such Option and each restricted stock unit of the Company (RSU), whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will automatically be cancelled and will only entitle the holder of such RSU to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to the RSU multiplied by (B) the Merger Consideration. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the holding restrictions applicable to each share of restricted stock of the Company (Restricted Stock) outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will automatically expire and each such share of Restricted Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this information statement, as it is the legal document that governs the Merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby.

Reasons for the Merger (page 27)

After consideration of various factors as discussed in The Merger Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 27, the board of directors of the Company (the Board), after consultation with its financial advisors and its legal counsel, unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, were advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and approved the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby.

Required Stockholder Approval for the Merger (page 73)

The adoption of the Merger Agreement by our stockholders required the affirmative vote or written consent of stockholders of the Company holding in the aggregate at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock. On February 22, 2018, following the execution of the Merger Agreement, Invus, L.P., The Bishop Family Limited Partnership, The Orca Trust and William W. Bishop, Jr. (the Majority Stockholders), which together on such date beneficially owned 101,294,224 shares of Company Common Stock (excluding shares of Company Common Stock held by such Majority Stockholder in street name) representing approximately 51.8% of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock, delivered a written consent approving and adopting in all respects the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger (the Written Consent), which Written Consent provides that it will be of no further force or effect following termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (including, without limitation, a termination of the Merger Agreement in connection with the Company executing a definitive agreement with a third party with respect to a Superior Proposal (as defined in The Merger Agreement Superior Proposal beginning on page 64 and in the Merger Agreement)). No further action by any other Company stockholder is required under applicable law or the Merger Agreement (or otherwise) in connection with the adoption of the Merger Agreement. As a result, the Company is not soliciting your vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement and will not call a stockholders meeting for purposes of voting on the adoption of the Merger Agreement. No action by the stockholders of Buyer is required to complete the Merger and all requisite corporate action by and on behalf of Merger Sub required to complete the Merger has been taken.

When actions are taken by written consent of less than all of the stockholders entitled to vote on a matter, Delaware law requires notice of the action to those stockholders who did not consent in writing and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting. This information statement and the notice attached hereto constitute notice to you from the Company of the Written Consent as required by Delaware law.

Opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (page 31 and Annex B)

At the meeting of the Board on February 22, 2018, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (J.P. Morgan) rendered its oral opinion to the Board that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. J.P. Morgan has confirmed its February 22, 2018 oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the Board, dated February 22, 2018, that, as of such date, the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of J.P. Morgan dated February 22, 2018, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this information statement and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the opinion of J.P. Morgan set forth in this information statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The Company's stockholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. J.P. Morgan's written opinion was addressed to the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the proposed Merger, was directed only to the consideration to be paid in the Merger and did not address any other aspect of the Merger. J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration paid in connection with the Merger to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or as to the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the proposed Merger. The issuance of J.P. Morgan's opinion was approved by a fairness committee of J.P. Morgan. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company as to whether such stockholder should consent with respect to the proposed Merger or any other matter

For a description of the opinion that the Board received from J.P. Morgan, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled The Merger Opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Annex B.

Opinion of Centerview Partners LLC (page 37 and Annex C)

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated February 15, 2018, the Company retained Centerview Partners LLC (Centerview) as financial advisor to the Board in connection with the proposed Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, which are collectively referred to as the Transaction throughout this section and the summary of Centerview's opinion below under the caption The Merger Opinion of Centerview Partners LLC. In connection with this engagement, the Board requested that Centerview evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock (other than (i) shares of Company Common Stock held by Buyer, Merger Sub, the Company or any of their respective wholly owned subsidiaries (ii) Dissenting Shares, (iii) any shares of Company Common Stock held by any other affiliate of Buyer or the Company and (iv) any shares of Company Common Stock beneficially owned by Invus, L.P., The Bishop Family Limited Partnership, William W. Bishop, Jr. and The Orca Trust, which are collectively referred to as Excluded Shares throughout this section and the the caption "The Merger Opinion of Centerview Partners LLC") of the Merger Consideration proposed to be paid to such holders pursuant to the Merger Agreement. On February 22, 2018, Centerview rendered to the Board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated February 22, 2018 that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations upon the review undertaken by Centerview in preparing its opinion, the Merger Consideration proposed to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock (other than Excluded Shares) pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of Centerview's written opinion, dated February 22, 2018, which describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations upon the review undertaken by Centerview in preparing its opinion, is attached as Annex C and is incorporated herein by reference. Centerview's financial advisory services and opinion were provided for the information and assistance of the Board (in their capacity as directors and not in any other capacity) in connection with and for purposes of its consideration of the Transaction and Centerview's opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date thereof, to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock (other than Excluded Shares) of the Merger Consideration to be paid to such holders pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Centerview's opinion did not address any other term or aspect of the Merger Agreement or the Transaction and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company or any other person as to whether such stockholder should have executed a consent with respect to the Merger or as to how such stockholder or other person should otherwise act with respect to the Transaction or any other matter.

The full text of Centerview's written opinion should be read carefully in its entirety for a description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations upon the review undertaken by Centerview in preparing its opinion.

Financing (page 47)

In connection with its entry into the Merger Agreement, Buyer has entered into a commitment letter dated February 22, 2018 (the "Commitment Letter"), with Goldman Sachs Bank USA ("GS Bank") and Goldman Sachs Lending Partners LLC (together with GS Bank, the "Goldman Sachs Lenders") pursuant to which and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, the Goldman Sachs Lenders have agreed to provide a senior unsecured bridge term loan credit facility (the "Bridge Facility") of up to $8.5 billion in the aggregate for the purpose of providing the financing necessary to fund the consideration to be paid pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, refinance certain outstanding indebtedness of the Company and pay related fees and expenses. Commitments under the Bridge Facility will be reduced in equivalent amounts upon any issuance by Buyer of equity or notes in a public offering or private placement and/or the incurrence of term loans, in each case in replacement of all or any portion of the financing pursuant to the Commitment Letter (the "Permanent Financing") and upon other specified events prior to the consummation of the transaction. The funding of the Bridge Facility is contingent on the satisfaction of certain customary conditions. The obligations of Buyer and Merger Sub to complete the Merger are not subject to any financing condition.

The Merger Agreement (page 56 and Annex A)

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger (page 69)

The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, waiver, as of the closing of the Merger, of the following conditions:

the adoption of the Merger Agreement by holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with the DGCL;

the termination or expiration of any applicable waiting period (or any extensions thereof) under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the HSR Act) relating to the consummation of the Merger;

the absence of any order, injunction or judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental entity having jurisdiction over any party thereto and the absence of any applicable law or other legal restraint, injunction or prohibition that makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited; and the mailing of this information statement to the stockholders of the Company at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of the closing of the Merger.

The obligations of Buyer and Merger Sub to consummate the Merger are further subject to satisfaction or, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, waiver, as of the closing of the Merger of, among other things, the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of the Company are true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the Effective Time in the manner described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Merger beginning on page 69;

the Company has performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by it under the Merger Agreement at or prior to the consummation of the Merger;

the absence of, since the date of the Merger Agreement, a Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in The Merger Agreement Representations and Warranties beginning on page 57 and in the Merger Agreement); and the receipt by Buyer of a certificate signed by an executive officer of the Company on behalf of the Company stating that each of the conditions specified above has been satisfied.

The obligation of the Company to consummate the Merger is further subject to satisfaction or, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, waiver, as of the closing of the Merger of, among other things, the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Buyer and Merger Sub are true and correct except where such failure to be true and correct would not, individually or in the aggregate, prevent or have a material adverse effect on the ability of Buyer or Merger Sub to consummate the Merger;

Buyer and Merger Sub have performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by them under the Merger Agreement at or prior to the consummation of the Merger; and the receipt by the Company of a certificate signed by an executive officer of Buyer on behalf of the Buyer stating that each of the conditions specified above has been satisfied.

No Solicitation (page 63)

The Merger Agreement provides that (i) the Company and its officers and directors will not and (ii) the Company will cause its affiliates and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and (ii) will direct and otherwise use reasonable best efforts to cause its and their other representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit or knowingly encourage, or knowingly facilitate the submission or making of, any Acquisition Proposal (as defined in The Merger Agreement No Solicitation beginning on page 63 and in the Merger Agreement);

other than informing third parties of the existence of these restrictions, participate or engage in negotiations or discussions, or furnish any information concerning the Company or any of its

subsidiaries to, any third party, relating to any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction (as defined in The Merger Agreement No Solicitation beginning on page 63 and in the Merger Agreement);

enter into any contract or other agreement (binding or non-binding, preliminary or definitive) for any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction;

enter into any contract or other agreement to reimburse any third party for costs, expenses or other liabilities incurred in connection with making (or evaluating for the purpose of making) a potential Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction; or enter into any agreement that would prevent the Company from complying with any provision of the no-solicitation covenant in the Merger Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Merger Agreement, if, prior to 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on March 24, 2018, the Company receives an unsolicited, written bona fide Acquisition Proposal, the Company, the Board and their representatives may, until the Alternative Transaction End Time (as defined in The Merger Agreement Superior Proposal beginning on page 64 and in the Merger Agreement), engage in negotiations or discussions with, otherwise contact, or furnish any confidential information and reasonable access to, the third party making such Acquisition Proposal and its representatives, if and only if, the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to or result in, a Superior Proposal.

At any time prior to the Alternative Transaction End Time, if, in response to an unsolicited, written bona fide Acquisition Proposal, the Board determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors), that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and the failure to approve such Superior Proposal would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, the Company may terminate the Merger Agreement, subject to certain notice provisions and Buyer's right to renegotiate the terms of the Merger Agreement such that the Acquisition Proposal would no longer constitute a Superior Proposal and subject to the Company's substantially concurrent payment to Buyer of the Termination Fee described below.

The Company's rights to engage in negotiations or discussions with third parties and to terminate the Merger Agreement as described above ceased on March 24, 2018 in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

A more detailed description of the foregoing circumstances and other circumstances under which the Company or Buyer may terminate the Merger Agreement is provided in The Merger Agreement beginning on page 55.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the consummation of the Merger by the mutual written consent of Buyer and the Company.

In addition, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by either Buyer or the Company, if:

the Merger is not consummated at or prior to 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 22, 2018 (the "end date"), and we refer to Buyer's and the Company's right to terminate the merger agreement pursuant to this sub-bullet as the "End Date Termination Right"); or any court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental entity has issued a final, non-appealable order or taken any other action, in each case permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger, or any applicable law is in effect that makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited.

The Merger Agreement also may be terminated by Buyer if:

the Company has entered into any contract or other agreement with a third party constituting or relating to, or that is intended or would reasonably be expected to result in, any Acquisition Proposal or

Table of Contents

Acquisition Transaction (we refer to Buyer's right to terminate the merger agreement pursuant to this sub-bullet as the Alternative Acquisition Transaction Termination Right);

the Company has willfully breached any provision of the no-solicitation covenant (we refer to Buyer's right to terminate the merger agreement pursuant to this sub-bullet as the Non-Solicit Willful Breach Termination Right);

prior to the receipt of the Written Consent, the Board has effected a Change in Recommendation; or the Company has breached or failed to perform in any material respect its agreements and covenants or any representation or warranty of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement is not true and correct in a manner such that the conditions to Buyer's and Merger Sub's obligation to consummate the closing would not be satisfied and is not curable or, if curable, is not cured within thirty (30) calendar days after written notice thereof is given by Buyer (or, if earlier, by the end date); provided that Buyer is not in material breach of the Merger Agreement (we refer to Buyer's right to terminate the merger agreement pursuant to this sub-bullet as the Company Breach Termination Right).

The Merger Agreement also may be terminated by the Company:

prior to the Alternative Transaction End Time, in order to enter into a definitive acquisition agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a Superior Proposal, if the Company (i) has paid, or pays concurrently with the termination, the Termination Fee and (ii) concurrently with or immediately following such termination, enters into a definitive acquisition agreement for such Superior Proposal (we refer to the Company's right to terminate the merger agreement pursuant to this sub-bullet as the Superior Proposal Termination Right); or

Buyer or Merger Sub has breached or failed to perform in any material respect its agreements and covenants or any representation or warranty of Buyer or Merger Sub contained in the Merger Agreement is not true and correct in a manner such that the conditions to the Company's obligation to consummate the closing would not be satisfied and is not curable or, if curable, is not cured within 30 calendar days after written notice thereof is given by the Company (or, if earlier, the end date); provided that the Company is not in material breach of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement also provides that Buyer could have terminated the Merger Agreement if the Written Consent had not been executed and delivered to Buyer within twenty-four (24) hours following execution of the Merger Agreement; however, this termination provision expired following delivery of the Written Consent on February 22, 2018.

Termination Fee (page 71)

The Company will pay Buyer (or its designee) a termination fee of $234 million under the following circumstances:

if the Merger Agreement is terminated:

by (i) Buyer pursuant to the Company Breach Termination Right or (ii) either Buyer or the Company pursuant to the End Date Termination Right;

prior to the date of such termination an Acquisition Proposal has been communicated to the management of the Company or the Board or has been publicly disclosed; and within twelve (12) months after such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to any Acquisition Transaction with a third party that is thereafter consummated or the Company consummates any Acquisition Transaction with a third party, which, in either such case, need not be the same Acquisition Transaction referred to in the immediately preceding sub-bullet) (provided that for the purpose of this and the immediately preceding sub-bullet, all references in the definition of the term Acquisition Transaction to 15% will be deemed to be references to 50%).

if the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by Buyer pursuant to the Alternative Acquisition Transaction Termination Right or the Non-Solicit Willful Breach Termination Right or (ii) by the Company pursuant to the Superior Proposal Termination Right.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 48)

You should be aware that the Company's executive officers and directors have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the Company stockholders generally. The Board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement. These interests are described below in The Merger Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 48.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 53)

If you are a United States Holder (as defined in The Merger United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 51), the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A United States Holder of shares of Company Common Stock receiving the Merger Consideration in the Merger generally will recognize capital gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference between (x) the amount of cash the United States Holder receives (determined before deduction of any applicable withholding taxes) and (y) the adjusted tax basis of the surrendered shares of Company Common Stock.

If you are a Non-United States Holder (as defined in The Merger United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger), the Merger will generally not be a taxable transaction to you under United States federal income tax laws unless you have certain connections to the United States.

Holders of shares of Company Common Stock should read the section entitled The Merger United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 51 and consult their tax advisor about the United States federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals (page 55)

Under the HSR Act and related rules, certain transactions, including the Merger, may not be completed until notifications have been given and information furnished to the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (Antitrust Division) and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and all statutory waiting period requirements have been satisfied or early termination has been granted by the applicable agencies. On March 7, 2018, both the Company and Buyer filed their respective notification and report forms under the HSR. Early termination was granted on March 16, 2018.

Procedures for Receiving Merger Consideration (page 57)

Promptly after the Effective Time (but in no event later than two (2) business days thereafter or on the closing date of the Merger with respect to any stockholder of the Company holding five percent (5%) or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock who has taken the appropriate steps required by the Merger Agreement), Buyer will provide, or will cause a paying agent to provide, to each holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time a letter of transmittal and instructions as to how to surrender such holder's shares of Company Common Stock in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Holders of uncertificated shares of Company Common Stock (i.e., holders whose shares are held in book-entry form, including those held in street name) will, upon receipt by the paying agent of an agent's message in customary form, be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration, as promptly as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time without any further action required on the part of those holders (subject to the procedures and requirements of the paying agent).

Specific Performance (page 73)

The parties to the Merger Agreement are entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the Merger Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and any states appellate court therefrom, or, if such courts do not have proper jurisdiction, the Federal District Court located in Wilmington, Delaware, and any appellate court therefrom, and, in any action for specific performance, each party waives the defense of adequacy of a remedy at law and waives any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

Appraisal Rights (page 77 and Annex D)

Pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL, holders of shares of Company Common Stock who did not consent to the adoption of the Merger Agreement, and who validly exercise (and do not withdraw or fail to perfect) appraisal rights, will be entitled to have their shares appraised by the Delaware Court of Chancery, and to receive, in lieu of the Merger Consideration, payment in cash of the fair value of those shares, together with interest, if any, determined by the court. The value that you may be entitled to receive in an appraisal proceeding may be less than, equal to or more than the amount of Merger Consideration. Stockholders who wish to exercise appraisal must make a written demand for appraisal on or prior to April 19, 2018, which is the date that is twenty (20) days following the mailing of this information statement, and otherwise comply precisely with the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL for perfecting appraisal rights. For a summary of these procedures, see Appraisal Rights beginning on page 76. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to this information statement as Annex D. If you hold your shares of Company Common Stock through a bank, brokerage firm, trust or other nominee and you wish to exercise your appraisal rights, you should consult with your bank, brokerage firm, trust or other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by the bank, brokerage firm, trust or the other nominee.

Transaction Litigation (page 52)

On March 29, 2018, a stockholder filed a putative class action complaint, captioned William Shumaker v. Blue Buffalo Pet Products, Inc., et al., No. 3:18-cv-00535-MPS, in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut against the Company, the members of the Board, Buyer and Merger Sub. The complaint alleges violations of Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act related to alleged misrepresentations and/or omissions in the Preliminary Information Statement and breaches of fiduciary duty against the individual directors, alleging that the directors violated their duties of care, loyalty, good faith and/or candor owed to the stockholders of the Company. The plaintiff seeks an order, inter alia, enjoining the defendants from consummating the merger or rescinding it in the event it is consummated, as well as certification of the putative class, an accounting of all damages and attorneys fees and expenses.

Although it is not possible to predict the outcome of the litigation with certainty, the Company and the Board believe that the claims raised in the complaint are without merit and intend to defend their position in this matter vigorously.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

The following questions and answers are intended to briefly address commonly asked questions as they pertain to the Merger Agreement and the Merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a Company stockholder. Please refer to the Summary beginning on page 1 and the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this information statement, the annexes to this information statement and the documents referred to or incorporated by reference in this information statement, each of which you should read carefully. You may obtain additional information, which is incorporated by reference in this information statement, without charge by following the instructions in Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 84.

Q: What is the proposed transaction and what effects will it have on the Company?

A: The proposed transaction is the acquisition of the Company by Buyer pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Once the closing conditions under the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or waived and subject to the other terms and conditions in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company. The Company will be the surviving corporation of the Merger and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer, and the Company will cease to be an independent publicly traded company

Q: What will I receive in the Merger?

A: Upon completion of the Merger and subject to the terms and conditions in the Merger Agreement, you will receive the Merger Consideration, $40.00 in cash, without interest and after giving effect to any required withholding taxes, for each share of Company Common Stock that you own, unless you properly exercise, and do not withdraw or fail to perfect, appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL. For example, if you own 100 shares of Company Common Stock, you will receive $4,000.00 in cash in exchange for your shares of Company Common Stock, less any required withholding taxes. Upon completion of the Merger, you will not own any equity in the surviving corporation.

Q: What happens to Options, RSUs and Restricted Stock if the Merger is completed?

A: At the Effective Time, each Option whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately before the Effective Time will be automatically cancelled and will only entitle the holder of such Option to receive a cash payment equal to the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price of such Option and each RSU, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will automatically be cancelled and will only entitle the holder of such RSU to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to the RSU multiplied by (B) the Merger Consideration. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the holding restrictions applicable to each share of Restricted Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will automatically expire and each such share of Restricted Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Q: When do you expect the Merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as possible. We currently expect to complete the Merger promptly after all of the conditions to the Merger have been satisfied or waived and subject to the other terms and conditions in the Merger Agreement. Completion of the Merger is currently expected to occur in the second quarter of 2018, although the Company cannot assure completion by any particular date, if at all.

Q: What happens if the Merger is not completed?

A: If the Merger is not completed for any reason, stockholders will not receive any payment for their shares of Company Common Stock in connection with the Merger, Options and RSUs will remain outstanding and the holding restrictions applicable to each share of Restricted Stock will remain in place. Instead, the Company will remain a publicly traded company, and shares of Company Common Stock will continue to be traded on the NASDAQ.

Q: Why am I not being asked to vote on the Merger?

A: Applicable Delaware law and the Merger Agreement require the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders in the aggregate of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock in order to effect the Merger. The Company's certificate of incorporation permits stockholders to act by written consent in certain circumstances, including in connection with the approval of transactions such as the Merger. The requisite stockholder approval was obtained immediately following the execution of the Merger Agreement on February 22, 2018, when the Written Consent was delivered by the Majority Stockholders, which owned shares of Company Common Stock constituting approximately 51.8% of the issued and outstanding shares of Company Common Stock on that date. Therefore, your vote is not required and is not being sought. We are not asking you for a proxy, and you are requested not to send us a proxy.

Q: Why did I receive this information statement?

A: Applicable laws and securities regulations require us to provide you with notice of the Written Consent that was delivered by the Majority Stockholders, as well as other information regarding the Merger, even though your vote or consent is neither required nor requested to adopt or authorize the Merger Agreement or complete the Merger. This information statement also constitutes notice to you of the availability of appraisal rights in connection with the Merger under Section 262 of the DGCL, a copy of which is attached to this information statement as Annex D.

Q: Did the Board approve and recommend the Merger Agreement?

A: Yes. After careful consideration, the Board unanimously (i) determined and resolved that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company and the stockholders of the Company, (ii) approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, (iii) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to the stockholders of the Company and (iv) determined and resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company adopt the Merger Agreement.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares before completion of the Merger?

A: If you transfer your shares of Company Common Stock before consummation of the Merger, you will have transferred the right to receive the Merger Consideration and lose your appraisal rights. In order to receive the Merger Consideration or exercise appraisal rights, you must hold your shares through the Effective Time of the Merger.

Q: Should I send in my Company Common Stock certificates now?

A: No. You will be sent a letter of transmittal with related instructions after completion of the Merger, describing how you may exchange your shares of Company Common Stock for the Merger Consideration. Please do NOT return your Company Common Stock certificate(s) to the Company. If you are the beneficial owner of shares of Company Common Stock held in street name, you may receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee as to what action, if any, you need to take to effect the surrender of such shares.

Q: Is the Merger subject to the fulfillment of certain conditions?

A: Yes. Before the Merger can be completed, the Company, Buyer and Merger Sub must fulfill or, if permissible, waive several closing conditions. If these conditions are not satisfied or waived, the Merger will not be completed. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Merger beginning on page 69.

Q: Am I entitled to exercise appraisal rights instead of receiving the Merger Consideration for my shares?

A: Yes. As a holder of Company Common Stock, you are entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL in connection with the Merger if you meet certain conditions and comply with the applicable statutory procedures for perfecting appraisal rights, which are described in this information statement in Appraisal Rights beginning on page 76.

Q: Will the Investor Rights Agreement affect my receipt of the Merger Consideration?

A: Upon the consummation of the Merger, the Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement (the Investor Rights Agreement), dated as of January 21, 2015, by and among the Company and the stockholders listed on Exhibit A thereto and Invus, L.P., as amended July 28, 2017, will, along with all transfer restrictions thereunder, terminate in accordance with its terms and each stockholder party to the Investor Rights Agreement will be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with the Merger Agreement. All provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement, including the transfer restrictions, will otherwise remain in effect until the consummation, if any, of the Merger.

Q: What happens if a third party makes an offer to acquire the Company before the Merger is completed?

A: If a third party makes an unsolicited, written bona fide Acquisition Proposal to the Company prior to 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on March 24, 2018, the Company may, prior to the Alternative Transaction End Time, negotiate and discuss such proposal with the third party under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement. If the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to or result in, a Superior Proposal and the Company notifies Buyer and complies with certain additional requirements in the Merger Agreement, including, if requested by Buyer, negotiating with Buyer during a period of three (3) business days, so that Buyer has the opportunity to submit a matching or topping proposal, and Buyer does not submit a matching or topping proposal during such three (3) business day period, then the Company may terminate the Merger Agreement. The Company must pay Buyer the Termination Fee substantially concurrently with such termination. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 70. The Company's rights to engage in negotiations or discussions with third parties and to terminate the Merger Agreement as described above ceased on March 24, 2018 in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Q: Will I owe taxes as a result of the Merger?

A: The Merger will generally be a taxable transaction for United States Holders of shares of Company Common Stock. As a result, assuming you are a United States Holder, you will recognize gain or loss with respect to the Merger Consideration received in exchange for shares of Company Common Stock in the Merger equal to the difference between (x) the amount of cash you receive (determined before the deduction of any applicable withholding taxes) and (y) the adjusted tax basis of your surrendered shares of Company Common Stock. If you are a Non-United States Holder, the Merger will generally not be a taxable transaction to you under United States federal income tax laws unless you have certain connections to the United States.

Table of Contents

See The Merger United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 51 for a more detailed explanation of the tax consequences of the Merger. Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. We urge you to consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Q: What is householding and how does it affect me?

A: The SEC permits companies to send a single set of certain disclosure documents to stockholders who share the same address and have the same last name, unless contrary instructions have been received, but only if the applicable company provides advance notice and follows certain procedures. In such cases, each stockholder continues to receive a separate set of disclosure documents. This practice, known as householding, is designed to reduce duplicate mailings and save significant printing and postage costs as well as natural resources.

If you received a householded mailing and you would like to have additional copies of this information statement mailed to you, or you would like to opt out of this practice for future mailings, please submit your request to the Company by phone at (203) 665-3400 or by mail to Blue Buffalo Pet Products, Inc., 11 River Road, Wilton, Connecticut 06897. We will promptly send additional copies of this information statement upon receipt of such request.

Q: Where can I find more information about the Company?

A: We file periodic reports and other information with the SEC. You may read and copy this information at the SEC's public reference facilities. Please call the SEC at (800) SEC-0330 for information about these facilities. This information is also available on the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov. THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

The Board regularly reviews and assesses the Company's performance, risks, opportunities and strategy. Additionally, as part of its ongoing oversight and management of the Company's business, from time to time the Board and the Company's management, together with their legal and financial advisors, review and evaluate strategic opportunities and alternatives available to the Company with a view to maximizing stockholder value. Such opportunities and alternatives include, among other things, remaining as a stand-alone entity and pursuing organic growth initiatives (including the expansion of its distribution channels to include the food, drug and mass market (FDM) channel in the third quarter of 2017), share repurchases (including pursuant to the share repurchase program authorized in July 2017), business combinations and similar transactions.

As part of this ongoing review and evaluation, representatives of J.P. Morgan have periodically met with the Board and the Company's management and have advised the Company with respect to such strategic opportunities and alternatives. The Company has had a longstanding relationship with J.P. Morgan and retained J.P. Morgan to act as its financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger based on, among other factors, J.P. Morgan's overall reputation and experience as an investment banking firm, and its knowledge of the food sector and consumer packaged goods industry generally and the Company's business and operations in particular.

From time to time prior to and since the Company's initial public offering of shares of Company Common Stock in July 2015, various strategic parties have approached the Company regarding possible acquisitions of or other strategic transactions involving the Company. In response to such parties' expressions of interest in a potential transaction, the Company's management, in consultation with the Board, has generally engaged in discussions with such parties to assess such parties' seriousness with respect to pursuing a potential transaction that would maximize stockholder value. These discussions historically either have not resulted in formal proposals for the Company to evaluate or, in certain cases, resulted in proposals that the Company concluded significantly undervalued the Company. In particular, one strategic party expressed interest in a potential acquisition of the Company on multiple occasions, including most recently in the first quarter 2016. The Company expressed receptivity to assessing any proposal but such party never submitted a proposal or further pursued discussions regarding a transaction. The Company's understanding was that, among other things, such party was not prepared to pursue an acquisition of the Company based on such party's view that the Company's valuation was too high at its then trading price, which was at that time below $20 per share.

On September 21, 2017, Doug Power, the Global Head of M&A at Buyer, contacted Raymond Debbane, a member of the Board and the President and Chief Executive Officer of The Invus Group, LLC (Invus), the financial sponsor behind the Company since 2006, requesting a meeting to discuss the Company.

On October 5, 2017, Mr. Power met with Mr. Debbane and Evren Bilimer, another member of the Board and a Managing Director at Invus. At the meeting, Mr. Power described the business priorities of Buyer and the success Buyer had previously had expanding its brand portfolio into the organic and natural food products business with its acquisition of Annie's, Inc. in 2014. The parties also discussed the business of the Company, Buyer's ongoing efforts to reshape its brand portfolio and, in the context of that discussion, among other things, the concept of a potential business combination.

On October 16, 2017, Mr. Power contacted Mr. Debbane and Mr. Bilimer to request an opportunity to speak further as a follow-up to their preliminary discussion on October 5. Later that day, Mr. Debbane contacted Mr. William Bishop, Chairman of the Board, and Mr. William Bishop, Jr., Chief Executive Officer of the Company and a member of the Board (Billy Bishop or Mr. Bishop), to report on the October 5 discussions with Mr. Power and to discuss the possibility of Mr. Debbane having a further conversation with Mr. Power as per Mr. Power's request.

On October 17, 2017, Mr. Debbane spoke with Mr. Power. Mr. Power indicated that the management of Buyer were potentially interested in evaluating a business combination between Buyer and the Company.

Table of Contents

Mr. Debbane indicated that Invus would be open to supporting a transaction that was in the best interest of all the Company's stockholders and that, in his capacity as a director, he was interested in evaluating any opportunities that were value maximizing. Messrs. Power and Debbane concluded that the appropriate next step would be a discussion between the companies' respective CEOs and agreed to work with Mr. Power to arrange such a meeting. Following the meeting Mr. Debbane contacted William Bishop and Billy Bishop to report on the discussion.

On October 19, 2017, Mr. Bishop provided a report regarding the foregoing discussions between Mr. Debbane, Mr. Bilimer and Mr. Power to the other members of the Board and also indicated that he planned to speak with representatives of J.P. Morgan, as a long-time advisor to the Company, to assist in his preparation for the planned meeting with Jeff Harmening, CEO of Buyer.

Also on October 19, Larry Miller, General Counsel of the Company, contacted the Board to schedule a special meeting following the anticipated meeting between Messrs. Bishop and Harmening so that the Board could receive a report on such meeting.

On October 27, 2017, Mr. Bishop met with Mr. Harmening. During such conversation, Mr. Harmening described the corporate culture at Buyer and Buyer's current strategy with respect to its brand portfolio generally, and how acquisitions fit into that strategy in particular. At the end of the conversation, without mentioning any transaction terms, Mr. Harmening asked Mr. Bishop if he thought the Board would be receptive to further evaluation by Buyer of a potential acquisition of the Company. Mr. Harmening also observed that an acquisition of the Company would involve Buyer entering a new product category and, as a result, it would be important to Buyer's interest in a transaction for key members of the Company's management team to continue their roles following a transaction to build on the Company's historic success, although no retention or employment arrangements were discussed. Mr. Bishop indicated that although the Company was not currently exploring a sale, he would raise the question to the Board.

Later that day on October 27, the Board convened a special meeting to receive a report on the contacts initiated by Buyer. Representatives of senior management, J.P. Morgan and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP (Simpson Thacher), outside counsel to the Company, participated in the meeting. Messrs. Debbane and Bishop described the initial contacts with representatives of Buyer, including such representatives' suggestion that they would be interested in evaluating a potential acquisition of the Company. Mr. Bishop further informed the Board that he was generally in listen mode during the October 27 meeting and that Mr. Harmening described Buyer's business and its potential interest in evaluating a potential acquisition of the Company. Mr. Bishop also noted that Mr. Harmening had indicated the board of directors of Buyer would be meeting on November 6, 2017 and that Mr. Harmening expected to further discuss the topic of a potential business combination with the Company at such meeting. Representatives of Simpson Thacher discussed the Board's role in the event Buyer and the Company were to explore a potential transaction, including, among other things, the Board's fiduciary duties in connection with its review and consideration of any such potential transaction and the exploration of other strategic alternatives more generally. The representatives of J.P. Morgan also discussed with the Board market conditions generally, background information regarding Buyer, its potential reasons for exploring an acquisition of the Company and an overview of other potential acquirers of the Company. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Board determined that Mr. Bishop should convey to Buyer that the Company would be receptive to reviewing a specific proposal from Buyer.

On October 31, 2017, Mr. Bishop contacted Mr. Harmening to indicate that the Board would be receptive to reviewing a specific proposal from Buyer as it was always open to considering credible, value maximizing alternatives for the Company's stockholders. Mr. Harmening responded that he would discuss the topic with Buyer's board of directors at its meeting on November 6 and follow up with Mr. Bishop thereafter.

On November 7, 2017, Mr. Harmening informed Mr. Bishop that Buyer's board of directors was supportive of Mr. Harmening further evaluating a potential acquisition of the Company and that he would like to speak further with Mr. Bishop.

On November 10, 2017, Mr. Bishop spoke with Mr. Harmening. Mr. Harmening indicated that Buyer would need to conduct further internal analysis, which Mr. Harmening estimated would take five to six weeks, following which he would be in a position to revert to Mr. Bishop about any potential next steps. Mr. Bishop expressed again the Board's general receptiveness to evaluating specific proposals regarding potential value-maximizing alternatives, but also reiterated that the Board would require a specific written proposal to authorize significant engagement.

On December 8, 2017, Mr. Bishop spoke again with Mr. Harmening, at Mr. Harmening's request. Mr. Harmening reiterated Buyer's interest in evaluating a potential transaction, noting the apparent cultural fit of the organizations and the unique strategic opportunity such an acquisition would present for Buyer. Mr. Harmening also indicated that Buyer might need to discuss certain aspects of the business of the Company in order to finalize a preliminary view on valuation. Mr. Bishop reiterated the Company's preference that Buyer submit a preliminary proposal so that the Board could assess Buyer's seriousness.

On December 14, 2017, the Board held a regularly scheduled meeting. At that meeting, members of management presented a number of reports to the Board regarding the ongoing stand-alone operations of the Company, including regarding (i) the Company's financial performance for the 2017 fiscal year, (ii) the outlook for the pet food industry over the next five years and management's preliminary plans for fiscal year 2018, (iii) the Company's potential acquisition pipeline and (iv) ongoing legal matters. The presentation included management's draft 5-year financial plan with respect to the Company, including the potential short- and long-term financial impacts of the Company's base strategic initiatives, the challenging near-to-intermediate-term operational and financial risks for the Company's strategy to expand its FDM distribution, the impact on earnings growth and earnings predictability, and the impact of such a strategy on earnings and other financial metrics. The Board also received a report on the status of the outreach by Buyer and approved sharing the draft 5-year financial plan with J.P. Morgan for use in connection with its financial analysis to provide the Board additional context and stand-alone valuation perspectives for consideration when assessing any proposal that might be submitted by Buyer.

On December 22, 2017, Mr. Bishop spoke again with Mr. Harmening at Mr. Harmening's request. Mr. Harmening conveyed that the board of directors of Buyer was supportive of Buyer continuing to evaluate a transaction with the Company following its internal analysis. However, Mr. Harmening indicated that Buyer would need to conduct preliminary non-public due diligence on three topics so that Buyer could formulate a specific proposal: (i) the in-process expansion of the Company's distribution channels, especially with respect to FDM, (ii) the Company's financial projections and (iii) potential synergies. Mr. Bishop indicated that he would consider this request and speak with Mr. Harmening again the following week. Mr. Harmening also noted that Buyer would be willing to enter into a customary non-disclosure agreement to facilitate the foregoing due diligence.

Later that day on December 22, William Bishop, Billy Bishop, Mr. Debbane, Aflalo Guimarães, a member of the Board and a Managing Director at Invus, and Mr. Bilimer participated in a conference call with representatives of senior management, J.P. Morgan and Simpson Thacher to discuss the message conveyed by Mr. Harmening to Mr. Bishop and Buyer's requests for additional information. The members of the Board present also discussed the merits of sharing some threshold non-public information with Buyer pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement.

On December 27, 2017, Mr. Bishop spoke again with Mr. Harmening and tentatively agreed to a meeting in early January to discuss the specific topics Mr. Harmening had previously outlined, subject to the execution of a satisfactory non-disclosure agreement. The Company provided a draft of a non-disclosure agreement to Buyer later that day.

On January 2, 2018 the Company and Buyer executed a non-disclosure agreement. Such non-disclosure agreement included a standstill provision, the key provisions of which would automatically expire upon the Company entering into a definitive agreement relating to certain extraordinary transactions, and a prohibition on Buyer contacting financing sources (with the exception of one permitted financing source requested by Buyer to assist in its evaluation of the pricing and structure of its necessary financing to inform its formulation of a proposal) without the Company's prior approval.

On January 8, 2018, Messrs. Bishop, Miller and Bilimer met with Mr. Harmening, Donal Mulligan, Chief Financial Officer of Buyer, Richard Allendorf, General Counsel of Buyer, and Mr. Power. At this meeting, the representatives of the Company discussed (i) the Company's overall strategy, including its ongoing expansion in FDM and e-commerce sales channels, (ii) a high-level summary of the Company's recent financial performance and management's key financial targets for the next five years and (iii) the potential sources of synergies in the event of a transaction between the Company and Buyer. The representatives of Buyer asked questions regarding, among other things, the Company's margins and brand differentiation. They also noted Buyer's M&A strategy generally and reiterated its interest in key members of the Company's management team continuing in their roles following a transaction to build on the Company's historic success, although no retention or employment arrangements were discussed. At the conclusion of this meeting, the representatives of Buyer informed the Company's representatives that they would incorporate the information provided at the meeting into the internal work being conducted at Buyer regarding a potential transaction and that they would contact the Company within two weeks should Buyer determine to submit a specific proposal. Following the meeting, at Buyer's request, representatives of the Company e-mailed to Buyer sections of the presentation materials discussed at the meeting for its reference.

On January 16, 2018, Mr. Harmening contacted Mr. Bishop to inform him that Buyer would shortly be submitting a preliminary, non-binding proposal to acquire the Company at a valuation range of $38-40 per share in cash. Mr. Harmening also detailed the areas of focus for Buyer's next stage of due diligence and requested the opportunity for Buyer to visit the Company's production and manufacturing facilities. Later in the day on January 16, Buyer submitted a written, preliminary and non-binding indication of interest (the Preliminary Proposal) to Mr. Bishop that confirmed the foregoing details and indicated that the Preliminary Proposal was not subject to any financing condition.

On January 17, 2018, the Board held a previously scheduled meeting. Representatives of senior management, Simpson Thacher and J.P. Morgan were in attendance. Prior to the meeting a copy of the Preliminary Proposal was shared with the Board. At the meeting, Mr. Bishop provided a report to the Board regarding, and the Board discussed, the high level due diligence meeting with Buyer earlier in the month and the Preliminary Proposal. The representatives of J.P. Morgan provided, among other things certain preliminary information to the Board and noted that a preliminary detailed valuation analysis utilizing the draft 5-year financial plan would be presented to the Board at a subsequent meeting. Representatives of J.P. Morgan then discussed the current mergers and acquisitions environment generally and with respect to the food and consumer packaged goods industry in particular and J.P. Morgan's preliminary views with respect to other parties that could potentially be interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with the Company. Representatives of J.P. Morgan expressed the view that it was likely that there were a limited number of potential buyers for the Company in light of, among other things, the valuation implied by the value range proposed in the Preliminary Proposal. The Board also discussed with the representatives of Simpson Thacher the appropriate considerations, including with respect to the directors' fiduciary duties, in evaluating the Preliminary Proposal and the potential next steps related thereto. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Board determined it was appropriate for management to engage further with Buyer to understand the seriousness of its proposal and its plans for due diligence without offering any perspective regarding Buyer's proposed value range until the Company's advisors had an opportunity to provide the Board a more detailed valuation analysis.

Following the January 17 meeting of the Board, all of the members of the Board discussed engaging Centerview as an additional financial advisor in light of, among other things, Centerview's overall reputation and experience as an investment banking firm generally and its knowledge of the food and consumer packaged goods industry in particular. The members of the Board agreed to engage Centerview as an additional financial advisor, and requested Centerview attend the next meeting of the Board at which Buyer's non-binding indication of interest would be discussed.

Also on January 17, 2018, as directed by the Board, Mr. Bishop spoke with Mr. Harmening to indicate that the Preliminary Proposal was sufficiently credible that it was appropriate for the Company to permit Buyer to engage in further due diligence to refine its proposal.

On January 18, 2018, Mr. Miller and Mr. Allendorf spoke by telephone to discuss various process matters, including further due diligence by Buyer and, following this conversation, Buyer provided to the Company commercial and legal due diligence requests.

On January 19, 2018, Mr. Harmening e-mailed Mr. Bishop to highlight that since an acquisition of the Company would involve Buyer entering a new product category an area of particular focus for Buyer's due diligence efforts would be the evaluation of the Company's employee base. Mr. Harmening also requested a call on January 24 with Mr. Bishop and Buyer's Chief Human Resources Officer to discuss this topic in more detail. No retention or employment arrangements were discussed during this call.

On January 23, 2018, the Board held a special meeting in person at the offices of Simpson Thacher, at which representatives of senior management, Simpson Thacher, J.P. Morgan and Centerview were in attendance. Prior to the meeting, the Board was provided with disclosures for its review regarding J.P. Morgan's involvement in certain transactions involving the Company, Invus and its affiliates, Buyer and certain other relevant parties. Mr. Bishop and Mr. Miller first reported to the Board on the contact between representatives of the Company and Buyer since the January 17 board meeting. Mr. Bishop and Mr. Miller also described updates, which had been circulated to the Board on January 22 (discussed under "The Merger - Certain Company Forecasts"), to the draft 5-year financial plan, including to reflect actual results from December and more current forecasts in light of such results as well as new tax rates (the "5-Year Plan"). Following this report, representatives from Simpson Thacher discussed the Board's fiduciary duties in connection with their review and consideration of the Preliminary Proposal and the exploration of other strategic alternatives more generally. In anticipation of the deal structure that Buyer was likely to demand, Simpson Thacher also previewed for the Board the available mechanisms for obtaining stockholder approval for a transaction, including receipt of a written consent by the Company's majority stockholders as permitted by the Company's organizational documents. Following the presentation by Simpson Thacher, at the request of the Board, representatives of J.P. Morgan and Centerview discussed preliminary valuation topics regarding the Company based on the 5-Year Plan and the Preliminary Proposal submitted by Buyer, including observations regarding the valuation multiples in the Preliminary Proposal relative to other transactions in the food and consumer packaged goods industry. Centerview and J.P. Morgan also discussed financial topics in the food and consumer packaged goods industry generally, including the M&A environment thereof and the positioning of the pet food sector within the industry as well as the elevated trading multiples of most participants in the sector. In the context of the discussion of the Preliminary Proposal there was also a discussion of the Company's stand-alone prospects, including the risks and opportunities embedded in the 5-Year Plan that could impact the Company's stand-alone value. Such risks include the Company's ability to execute its prospective channel expansion and related existing customer concentration risks, pricing pressure in e-commerce and competition in FDM and the significance of the continuation of the existing authentic/founder led management team. As part of their discussion with the Board, the representatives of J.P. Morgan and Centerview also discussed with the Board other potential acquirers of the Company, with J.P. Morgan and Centerview expressing their view that it was likely there were a limited number of other potential buyers for the Company at the valuations reflected in the Preliminary Proposal. Simpson Thacher and representatives of senior management also discussed with the Board the potential increased execution risks and timing considerations presented by certain of the noted potential alternative acquirers relative to Buyer. The Board then discussed the Preliminary Proposal and strategies it might pursue with respect to next steps and determined, given the attractive valuation reflected in the price range presented by Buyer, to authorize management to continue discussions and due diligence with Buyer to facilitate the submission of a more refined value proposal that the Board could subsequently assess against its other strategic alternatives, including continuing to operate as a stand-alone company. The Board further concluded that efforts regarding a potential transaction should remain focused on Buyer and the Company should not contact other potential buyers at this time given the associated risks, including potential management distraction, risk of disruptive publicity and the potential impact on Buyer's engagement, but directed that the Company require any definitive agreement for a potential transaction include an adequate period of time for other potential acquirers to submit alternative proposals to the Board following any announcement of a potential transaction and adequate flexibility for the Board to evaluate and accept any such alternative proposals determined by the Board to be superior to a transaction with Buyer.

On January 24, 2018, Mr. Bishop and Mr. Harmening spoke regarding the status of the diligence process. During this discussion, Mr. Bishop expressed his initial views regarding the positive fourth quarter results the Company was likely to report and expressed his hope that any refined proposal from Buyer would take such strong performance and other positive factors into account. Later that day, the Company provided Buyer and its representatives with access to a virtual data room containing due diligence information requested by Buyer, which data room included the 5-Year Plan.

Also on January 24, representatives of Simpson Thacher and Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP (Cleary Gottlieb), outside counsel to Buyer, spoke regarding process matters and the representatives of Cleary Gottlieb noted, among other things, that they would provide to Simpson Thacher for discussion a draft merger agreement. Later that day, Cleary Gottlieb sent Simpson Thacher a draft merger agreement (such draft, and subsequent iterations thereof exchanged between the parties, referred to as the Draft Merger Agreement) that, among other things, (i) contemplated the Company's Majority Stockholders delivering an irrevocable written consent approving the transaction immediately after signing of the Draft Merger Agreement, (ii) did not include any flexibility for the Company to accept a superior proposal between signing and closing, and (iii) included a requirement that Buyer be permitted to avail itself of a so-called marketing period after all of the conditions to closing had been satisfied in order for Buyer to market and obtain permanent acquisition financing.

Also on January 24, Messrs. Bishop and Miller spoke with Mr. Harmening and Jacqueline Williams-Roll, the Chief Human Resources Officer of Buyer, to discuss preliminary diligence topics regarding the Company's employees. No retention or employment arrangements were discussed.

Between January 24 and February 13, 2018, representatives of J.P. Morgan, Centerview and Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC (Goldman Sachs), financial advisor to Buyer, discussed at regular intervals the progress of the due diligence process and the expected timing of Buyer's submission of a more refined value proposal.

On January 31, 2018, Mr. Miller spoke with Mr. Allendorf to discuss several topics, including the progress of due diligence and the continued importance of (and the Company's sensitivity regarding) confidentiality. Louis Lambert, Associate General Counsel of Buyer, e-mailed Mr. Miller regarding several follow-up items the next day, including coordination in the event of any media coverage of the parties' discussion and specific diligence matters.

On February 1, 2018, Cleary Gottlieb provided a draft of a form support agreement, including a form of written consent, that it requested the Majority Stockholders sign concurrently with the execution of the Draft Merger Agreement. Later in the day on February 1, Simpson Thacher provided a revised Draft Merger Agreement to Cleary Gottlieb which provided for, among other things, a 60-day window shop period during which the Company could consider and engage with third parties regarding unsolicited acquisition proposals and, in the event any such acquisition proposal was deemed a superior proposal, terminate the Draft Merger Agreement to accept such superior proposal, subject to a two-business day match right period and payment of a termination fee equal to 2.25% of transaction equity value. Simpson Thacher's revised Draft Merger Agreement also deleted the proposed marketing period concept. The revised Draft Merger Agreement also indicated, consistent with Buyer's request, that the Company might establish a retention program for non-named executive officers on terms determined in consultation with Buyer.

On February 4, 2018 and again on February 6, 2018, representatives of Simpson Thacher discussed with Cleary Gottlieb the revised Draft Merger Agreement provided by Simpson Thacher. In particular, Simpson Thacher conveyed that the Board would not proceed with any transaction that did not permit the Company to consider and engage with unsolicited acquisition proposals from third parties received after announcement of any transaction with Buyer. On the morning of February 6, Cleary Gottlieb distributed a revised Draft Merger Agreement to Simpson Thacher which included, among other things: (i) a window shop period of 25 days with no extension for any match period in process at the 25th day, (ii) a match right period of four business days, (iii) a termination fee equal to 3.50% percent of transaction equity value and (iv) acceptance of obligations on the Buyer to make any divestitures required to obtain required antitrust clearance, except to the extent doing so would cause a Material Adverse Effect on the Company.

During the day on February 5 and February 6, 2018, members of the Company's management participated in commercial and legal due diligence calls with representatives of Buyer.

On February 5, 2018, Mr. Bishop spoke with Mr. Harmening. The conversation between the CEOs focused on (i) a status update on the progress of due diligence and (ii) a conceptual discussion of the parameters of any retention and incentive programs for non-executive officer employees as requested by Buyer to ensure a smooth transition.

On February 6, 2018, the Board held a special meeting, at which representatives of senior management, Simpson Thacher, J.P. Morgan and Centerview were in attendance. Representatives of Centerview first provided a report to the Board on Buyer's diligence and financing efforts and noted for the Board the positive message being conveyed by Buyer with respect thereto. Mr. Bishop also made a report to the Board on his conversation with Mr. Harmening the previous day. Representatives of Simpson Thacher then reported to the Board on the status of negotiations regarding the Draft Merger Agreement and observed for the Board that the revised Draft Merger Agreement received from Cleary Gottlieb earlier in the day reflected an agreement-in-principle by Buyer with the Board's requirement that the Draft Merger Agreement include a window shop period, noting, however, that the details of such provision were still being negotiated. In connection with the Board's further consideration of whether to continue operating the Company as a stand-alone business in lieu of a strategic transaction, representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan then discussed with the Board the 5-Year Plan. This discussion addressed, among other things, the key components of the plan, comparisons to research analyst expectations and a discussion of key risks and opportunities facing the Company. The financial advisors observed that the 5-Year Plan included projections for revenue growth and margin expansion that were above research analyst expectations, and in particular discussed with the Board the fact that Buyer's representatives had communicated on multiple occasions during their due diligence efforts a belief that the 5-Year Plan did not sufficiently reflect risks associated with the Company's ongoing expansion of its sales channels. The representatives of Centerview also highlighted again for the Board the elevated trading multiples currently being experienced by participants in the food and consumer packaged goods industry. Representatives of J.P. Morgan also provided an update on recent developments in financial markets and discussed with the Board the increased financial market volatility since the Board's last meeting, including the resulting decline in the trading price of Buyer's stock and the increased financing costs for corporate borrowers. Notwithstanding Buyer's perceived risks in the execution of the 5-Year Plan and the volatility in the debt and equity markets, the Board directed its financial advisors to, in advance of Buyer's next meeting of its board of directors the following week, encourage Buyer to improve its offer.

On February 8, 2018, representatives of J.P. Morgan and Centerview spoke with representatives of Goldman Sachs and, consistent with the Board's prior instructions, encouraged Buyer to improve its offer. Also on February 8, Simpson Thacher sent a revised draft of the majority stockholders' support agreement and an initial draft of the Company's disclosure schedules to Cleary Gottlieb. Later in the day on February 8, 2018, Cleary Gottlieb provided a draft of its debt commitment letter with affiliates of Goldman Sachs for the potential transaction to Simpson Thacher.

On February 9, 2018, Simpson Thacher sent a revised Draft Merger Agreement to Cleary Gottlieb, which draft included, among other things: (i) a window shop period of 50 days, (ii) a match right period of three business days and (iii) a termination fee equal to 2.50% of transaction equity value.

On February 13, 2018, representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan spoke with representatives of Goldman Sachs, who, at the direction of the board of directors of Buyer, conveyed a revised proposal from Buyer to acquire the Company for $38.50 per share in cash. In conveying this proposal, the representatives of Goldman Sachs emphasized to the Company's financial advisors several potential risks that Buyer had identified during due diligence as well as the recent financial market volatility and associated increases in Buyer's expected borrowing costs and the industry leading multiple for a transaction of this size reflected in Buyer's revised proposal, while also reiterating Buyer's eagerness to conclude a transaction at an appropriate valuation. Representatives of Goldman Sachs also conveyed to the Company's financial advisors Buyer's desire to maintain a specific investment-grade rating and its plan to issue up to $1 billion in new equity to finance the transaction. Representatives of Goldman Sachs also requested on behalf of Buyer meetings with additional members of the Company's management and an opportunity to visit the Company's production and manufacturing facilities.

On February 14, 2018, an article was published in certain media outlets suggesting that the Company had been approached about a potential takeover, without naming an acquirer or proposed price. At the direction of the Board, representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan discussed these rumors with representatives of Goldman Sachs per a pre-agreed protocol for rapidly reacting to media reports to minimize disruption to the respective parties' businesses.

Later in the day on February 14, the Board held a special meeting in person at the offices of Simpson Thacher, at which representatives of senior management, Simpson Thacher, J.P. Morgan and Centerview were in attendance. Prior to the meeting, the Board was provided with disclosures for its review regarding Centerview's involvement in certain transactions involving the Company, Invus and its affiliates, Buyer and certain other relevant parties. Representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan began by updating the Board on the revised proposal received from Buyer and certain additional due diligence requests. They also reported to the Board the market rumors from earlier that day regarding a potential transaction and the Board determined not to comment or otherwise respond to such rumors while continuing to monitor developments. Representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan next presented to the Board regarding market perspectives of the Company and updates on its industry and reviewed with the Board again certain elements of the 5-Year Plan. At the request of the Board, representatives of each of J.P. Morgan and Centerview then presented their respective preliminary financial analyses with respect to the Company and the proposed transaction and they also reviewed with the Board a presentation regarding Buyer and its financing considerations. The Board engaged in a lengthy discussion with its financial advisors regarding valuation considerations with respect to the Company and tactics for obtaining a higher per share price from Buyer. The Board then convened an executive session to discuss these and other topics, following which, notwithstanding the observation by the Board that Buyer's revised proposal reflected an attractive price in light of the financial analyses conducted by its advisers and the ongoing risks associated with execution of the Company's stand-alone strategy, the Board directed J.P. Morgan and Centerview to convey to Buyer that the Company would not proceed with a transaction at a price of $38.50 per share and Buyer should therefore increase its price if they wished to proceed.

Shortly after the Board meeting on February 14, representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan spoke with representatives of Goldman Sachs to convey the Board's directive that the revised price did not represent a proposal the Board would consider moving forward with and that Buyer should resubmit its proposal with a higher price, without providing Goldman Sachs further guidance as to what price would be acceptable to the Board.

Table of Contents

On February 17, 2018, at the direction of the board of directors of Buyer, representatives of Goldman Sachs called representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan to convey a revised proposal from Buyer to acquire the Company for $39.50 per share in cash. Later on February 17, following discussions with members of the Board, at the direction of the Board representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan conveyed to representatives of Goldman Sachs that Buyer's proposed price of $39.50 per share remained inadequate and, consistent with the Board's prior instructions to continue to push for the highest price available, requested Buyer to again increase its proposal. During these exchanges on February 17, at the direction of the Board to further emphasize the rationale for the Company's request for an improved proposal, the representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan conveyed to representatives of Goldman Sachs that the Company expected to offer stronger earnings guidance during its upcoming earnings call than previously anticipated.

On February 18, 2018, Mr. Harmening reached out to Mr. Bishop to convey that Buyer remained enthusiastic about a potential transaction, but Buyer was unwilling to offer more than $40.00 per share, noting that if the parties could not reach a deal at $40.00 per share Buyer would be compelled to turn its attention to other opportunities. Mr. Bishop emphasized the strong financial performance of the Company, including its plans for stronger earnings guidance, but Mr. Harmening reiterated that $40.00 per share represented the maximum price Buyer would offer and already incorporated all such positive considerations. Mr. Harmening also conveyed to Mr. Bishop in connection with raising Buyer's price to $40.00 per share that any window shop period in the merger agreement would need to be limited to 30 days from signing of the Draft Merger Agreement to ensure it did not unduly delay or otherwise complicate the significant acquisition financing Buyer expected to pursue to consummate a potential transaction with the Company.

On February 19, 2018, the Board held a conference call to discuss Buyer's revised proposal. Representatives of Centerview and J.P. Morgan first provided a report to the Board on negotiations with Buyer since the previous Board meeting on February 14. Mr. Bishop then reported to the Board his conversation with Mr. Harmening the day before, during which Mr. Harmening had indicated that Buyer would not offer to acquire the Company at a price greater than $40.00 per share and would require any window shop period be limited to 30 days. Representatives of Simpson Thacher then reminded the Board of the status of negotiations regarding the Draft Merger Agreement, noting that Cleary Gottlieb had also indicated the window shop period should be limited to 30 days and that Buyer's most recent proposal in the Draft Merger Agreement provided for a termination fee of 3.50%. The Board then engaged in a lengthy discussion regarding Buyer's offer price and request for a 30-day window shop period and 3.50% termination fee. The Board assessed that, following several successful attempts to extract price increases from Buyer, Buyer was unlikely to increase its price above $40.00 per share and that, based on the Company's and its advisors' knowledge of other potential acquirers, neither a 30-day window shop period nor a 3.50% termination fee would deter any truly interested third party from submitting a competing proposal and, in fact, the public announcement of a transaction might spur other potential acquirers to action without jeopardizing the value opportunity at hand. Nevertheless, the Board directed that the Company's management and advisors continue to negotiate the window shop period and termination fee to obtain the best terms possible and authorized management to finalize terms of definitive agreements at a price equal to $40.00 per share in cash.

During the course of the week of February 19 until the execution of the Merger Agreement, the respective management teams of the parties, together with representatives of Simpson Thacher and Cleary Gottlieb and the parties' financial advisors, discussed and negotiated the remaining open items in the transaction documents.

On February 21, 2018, following agreement between the parties with respect to the merger consideration (subject to finalizing the other terms of the Merger Agreement) and consistent with the respective boards' expectations regarding the timing of such discussions, representatives of Buyer presented to Mr. Bishop an offer letter (the February 21 Offer Letter) reflecting proposed terms for Mr. Bishop's employment, following closing, as a Senior Vice President of Buyer and head of its newly established pet segment, including terms regarding base salary, incentive and retention bonuses and awards and severance protection following consummation of a transaction. Mr. Bishop did not negotiate or engage with Buyer regarding the terms of the February 21 Offer Letter.

On February 21 and February 22, 2018, representatives of Buyer accompanied representatives of the Company on diligence visits to the Company's production and manufacturing facilities in Richmond, Indiana and Joplin, Missouri.

Late in the evening on February 21, 2018 and early in the morning on February 22, 2018, Cleary Gottlieb sent revised drafts of the transaction documents to Simpson Thacher, including a revised Draft Merger Agreement which included, among other things: (i) a window shop period of 30 days subject to an extension (solely with respect to a superior proposal made prior to the 30th day) until the next business day following the end of any in process match right period with respect to such superior proposal and (ii) a termination fee equal to 2.95% of transaction equity value. During the day on February 22, Simpson Thacher and Cleary Gottlieb finalized the transaction documents consistent with such terms.

Also on February 22, Mr. Bilimer, in his capacity as chairman of the Board's compensation committee, spoke with Ms. Williams-Roll to discuss the February 21 Offer Letter. During this conversation, Mr. Bilimer indicated that the Board expected to offer Mr. Bishop an increase in his base salary for the subsequent year in the ordinary course absent the potential transaction. Following this conversation, representatives of Buyer presented to Mr. Bishop a revised offer letter (the February 22 Offer Letter) reflecting an increased base salary, which base salary was also approved by the compensation committee of the Board during the day on February 22. Later that day, Mr. Bishop executed the February 22 Offer Letter. See also Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Offer Letter between Buyer and William Bishop, Jr beginning on page 48.

On February 22, 2018, the Board held a special meeting, with representatives of senior management, Simpson Thacher, J.P. Morgan and Centerview in attendance. At the request of the Board, J.P. Morgan reviewed with the Board J.P. Morgan's financial analysis of the Merger Consideration, and rendered its oral opinion to the Board that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. J.P. Morgan subsequently confirmed its February 22, 2018 oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the Board, dated February 22, 2018, that, as of such date, the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. For a detailed discussion of J.P. Morgan's opinion, please see below under The Merger Opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC. At the request of the Board, representatives of Centerview reviewed with the Board Centerview's financial analysis of the Merger Consideration, and rendered to the Board an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated February 22, 2018 that, as of such date and based upon and subject to various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations upon the review undertaken in preparing its opinion, the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock (other than as specified in such opinion) pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. For a detailed discussion of Centerview's opinion, please see below under the caption The Merger Opinion of Centerview Partners LLC. Representatives of Simpson Thacher then provided the Board with a summary of the key terms of the Draft Merger Agreement and described the resolutions before the Board. After further discussion by the Board, including further discussion of the resolutions to be adopted by the Board, the Board unanimously (i) resolved that the Draft Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the potential merger, were advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company and the stockholders of the Company, (ii) approved the Draft Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the potential merger, (iii) directed that the Draft Merger Agreement be submitted to the stockholders of the Company and (iv) determined and resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company adopt the Draft Merger Agreement.

Following the meeting, on February 22, 2018, the Company and Buyer executed the Merger Agreement, Buyer delivered a copy of the executed debt commitment letter and the Majority Stockholders delivered executed support agreements. Shortly after execution of the Merger Agreement and the support agreements, the Majority Stockholders delivered the Written Consent. The Company and Buyer issued a joint press release announcing the entry into the Merger Agreement before the opening of the U.S. stock exchanges on February 23, 2018.

Reasons for the Merger

In the course of the Board making the determinations described above in The Merger Background of the Merger beginning on page 17, the Board consulted with management of the Company, as well as the Company's legal and financial advisors, and considered the following potentially positive factors, which are not intended to be exhaustive and are not presented in any relative order of importance:

Merger Consideration. The Board considered the $40.00 per share in cash to be paid as merger consideration in relation to (i) the Board's estimate of the current and future value of the Company as an independent entity, (ii) the multiple of enterprise value to EBITDA implied by such price and (iii) the market price of the Company Common Stock on February 13, 2018, the last trading day prior to news reports that the Company had received an approach about a possible acquisition of the Company.

Negotiations with Buyer: The Board considered its belief that, after extensive negotiations and several increases in price by Buyer, the Company obtained the highest price and most favorable terms to which Buyer was willing to agree.

Strategic Alternatives: The Board considered the likelihood and potential benefits of other potential strategic or other business combination transactions (including with alternative acquirers) and continuing as an independent company.

The Board considered the potential values, benefits, risks and uncertainties facing the Company's stockholders associated with possible strategic alternatives to the Merger (including possible alternative business combinations and scenarios involving the possibility of remaining independent), and the timing, risks and likelihood of accomplishing such alternatives, taking into account (i) the fact that the Company has, since its initial public offering, engaged in discussions with parties that have expressed interest in a potential transaction with the Company and which have historically not resulted in formal proposals for the Board to evaluate or and (ii) after consultation with the Financial Advisors, the fact that there were likely no other potential strategic purchasers that would be reasonably likely to engage in a transaction in the near term at a price greater than the price being offered by Buyer and no financial sponsors that would be reasonably likely to make an offer at a price greater than the price being offered by Buyer.

The Board also considered the fact that the Company had not been contacted regarding any alternative acquisition proposals since the initial meeting with Buyer in October 2017, despite the February 14, 2018 publication of an article suggesting that the Company was approached about a potential takeover.

The Board also considered the risk that prolonging the sale process further could have resulted in the loss of an opportunity to consummate a transaction with Buyer and distracted senior management from implementing the Company's business plan.

While the Board remained supportive of the Company's strategic plan and optimistic about its prospects on a stand-alone basis, the Board considered the Company's future prospects if the Company were to remain an independent public company, including the competitive landscape, the business, financial and execution risks and the Company's relationships with customers, providers and suppliers and the potential impact of those factors on the trading price of Company Common Stock (which cannot be quantified numerically).

Based on the value, risk allocation, timing and other terms and conditions negotiated with Buyer, the Board ultimately determined that the acquisition by Buyer is more favorable to the Company's stockholders than any other strategic alternative reasonably available to the Company, including continuing as an independent public company.

Premium to trading price: The Board considered that the Merger Consideration of $40.00 per share to be received by the Company stockholders in the Merger represents a significant premium over the market prices at which shares of Company Common Stock traded prior to the announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement, including the fact that the Merger Consideration of $40.00 represented a premium of approximately:

21.0% over the closing price of shares of Company Common Stock as of February 13, 2018, the day before the publication of an article suggesting that the Company was approached about a potential takeover (the Unaffected Date),

17.2% over the closing price of shares of Company Common Stock on February 22, 2018, the last trading day before the announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement,

26.2% to the volume weighted average price of the Company Common Stock during the 90 days prior to the Unaffected Date, and 100% over the Company's initial public offering price.

Cash consideration: The Board considered the fact that the Merger Consideration is all cash, which provides certainty and immediate liquidity and value to the Company's stockholders, enabling the Company's stockholders to realize value that has been created at the Company while eliminating long-term business and execution risk.

Majority Stockholder support: The Board considered the support of the Majority Stockholders, which collectively controlled approximately 51.8% of the aggregate outstanding shares of Company Common Stock as of February 22, 2018 and which will be receiving the same form and amount of Merger Consideration for their shares of Company Common Stock as all other stockholders of the Company.

Buyer's reputation: The Board considered the business reputation, experience and capabilities of Buyer and its management.

Fairness opinions: The Board considered the respective financial analyses of J.P. Morgan and Centerview, as well as the respective opinion of each of J.P. Morgan and Centerview, rendered to the Board on February 22, 2018, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated February 22, 2018 that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations upon the review undertaken by J.P. Morgan and Centerview in preparing their respective opinions, the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock (other than as specified in such opinion) pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The J.P. Morgan and Centerview opinions are more fully described below under the captions The Merger Opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC beginning on page 31 and The Merger Opinion of Centerview Partners LLC beginning on page 38 and the full text of the J.P. Morgan opinion and the Centerview opinion is attached to this information statement as Annex B and Annex C, respectively.

Merger Agreement: The board considered, in consultation with its outside legal counsel, the terms of the Merger Agreement, which were the product of arm's-length negotiations and contained terms and conditions that were, in the Board's view, advisable and favorable to the Company and its stockholders, including:

the representations, warranties and covenants of the parties, the conditions to the parties obligations to complete the merger and their ability to terminate the Merger Agreement;

the limited number and nature of the conditions to Buyer's obligation to consummate the Merger;

the Company's ability, under certain limited circumstances, to furnish information to and conduct negotiations with third parties regarding an acquisition proposal;

the fact that the definition of material adverse effect has a number of customary exceptions and is generally a very high standard applied by courts;

the fact that the Company has sufficient operating flexibility to conduct its business in the ordinary course between execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger;

the Merger not being subject to a financing condition, the limited number and nature of the conditions to funding set forth in the financing commitment letter and the obligation of Buyer and Merger Sub to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain the financing;

the ability of the Company to seek specific performance in the event that Buyer breaches the Merger Agreement;

the requirement that the parties use their respective reasonable best efforts to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement as promptly as practicable, including obtaining all necessary governmental approvals;

the inclusion of provisions that will allow the Board, under certain circumstances and even though the Company already obtained stockholder approval by written consent, until 11:59 p.m. New York City time on March 24, 2018, in response to an unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal, to engage in negotiations or discussions, otherwise contact, or furnish any confidential information and reasonable access to, the third party making such acquisition proposal and its representatives, subject to certain notice and other requirements, and until 11:59 p.m. New York City time on March 24, 2018 to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal, subject to certain notice requirements and other conditions and the requirement that the Company pay the Company Termination Fee as more fully described in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 70, which provisions the Board determined were reasonable in light of, among other things, the benefits of the Merger to the Company stockholders, the typical length of time of such window shop periods and size of such fees in similar transactions and the likelihood that a window shop period of such length and a fee of such size would not preclude or unreasonably restrict the emergence of an acquisition proposal or acquisition transaction.

Likelihood of consummation: The Board considered the likelihood that the Merger would be completed, in light of, among other things, the conditions to the Merger, the absence of a financing condition, the covenants by the parties to use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary governmental approvals and the likelihood of obtaining required regulatory approvals for a transaction with Buyer prior to the outside date (as defined in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 70) and the potential regulatory challenges that certain other potential buyers would face in connection with an acquisition of the Company.

Financing: The Board considered that Buyer obtained committed debt financing for the transaction from a reputable financial institution as well as the fact that Buyer must use its reasonable best efforts to consummate the debt financing or other permanent financing in lieu thereof, and such financing, together with cash available on hand at Buyer, provides for sufficient funds to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including related fees and expenses required to be paid as of the consummation of the Merger.

Appraisal rights: The Board considered the fact that appraisal rights are available to the Company's stockholders who properly exercise their statutory rights under Section 262 of the DGCL (see Appraisal Rights beginning on page 76 and Annex D).

The Board also considered and balanced against the potentially positive factors a number of potentially negative factors concerning the Merger, including the following factors:

Participation in future gains: The Board considered the fact that following the completion of the Merger, the Company will no longer exist as an independent public company and that the Company's existing stockholders will not be able to participate in any future earnings or growth of the Company, or in any future appreciation in value of shares of Company Common Stock.

Risks associated with announcement of the Merger: The Board considered the possibility of disruption to the Company's business that could result from the announcement of the Merger on the Company's operations, stock price, business ventures, employees, distributors, customers, suppliers and other business partners and the resulting distraction of management's attention from day-to-day operations of the business and its ability to attract and retain key employees during the pendency of the Merger.

Risks associated with a failure to consummate the Merger: The Board considered the fact that, while the Merger is expected to be completed, there are no assurances that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the Merger will be satisfied or waived, and as a result, it is possible that the Merger may not be completed, as described under "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to Consummation of the Merger" beginning on page 70. The Board noted the fact that, if the Merger is not completed, (i) the Company will have incurred significant risk, transaction expenses and opportunity costs, including the possibility of disruption to its operations, diversion of management and employee attention, employee attrition and a potentially negative effect on our business and client relationships, (ii) depending on the circumstances that caused the Merger not to be completed, it is likely that the trading price of the Company Common Stock will decline, potentially significantly and (iii) the market's perception of the Company's prospects could be adversely affected.

Restrictions on the operation of the Company's business: The Board considered the fact that the Merger Agreement prohibits the Company from taking a number of actions relating to the conduct of its business prior to the closing without the prior written consent of Buyer, which may delay or prevent the Company from undertaking business opportunities that may arise during the pendency of the Merger, whether or not the Merger is completed.

Solicitation Efforts: The fact that the Company decided not to engage in a competitive bid process or other broad solicitation of interest prior to execution of the Merger Agreement, which decision by the Board, however, was informed by (i) the price and premium proposed by Buyer, (ii) the board's concern regarding increased risk of leaks if the Company contacted third parties regarding a potential transaction, (iii) the views expressed by J.P. Morgan and Centerview that there was a limited likelihood that other strategic buyers would be interested in pursuing a transaction with the Company at this time and that financial buyers would not be interested in making a fully financed, non-contingent offer to acquire the Company at a price per share greater than $40.00, (iv) the Company's historical experience with the most likely other strategic acquirers being uninterested in moving forward with an acquisition process and (v) the inclusion in the Merger Agreement of a "window shop period" during which potentially interested parties could submit a superior proposal.

No-solicitation provision: The Board considered the fact that the Merger Agreement restricts the Company's ability to actively solicit acquisition proposals.

Written Consent: The Board considered the fact that, as a condition to entering into the Merger Agreement, Buyer required that the Merger Agreement include a provision permitting Buyer to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Majority Stockholders failed to execute and deliver the Written Consent within twenty-four (24) hours of executing the Merger Agreement.

Termination fees: The Board considered the possibility that the $234 million termination fee payable to Buyer if the Board accepts a superior proposal might have the effect of discouraging acquisition proposals.

Table of Contents

Tax Treatment: The Board considered the fact that any gains arising from the receipt of the Merger Consideration would generally be taxable to the Company stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Stockholder Litigation: The board considered the risk of litigation arising from stockholders in respect of the Merger Agreement or transactions contemplated thereby.

During its consideration of the transaction with Buyer, the Board was also aware of and considered that the Company's directors and executive officers may have interests in the Merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as stockholders of the Company generally, as described under "The Merger - Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 48.

After taking into account all of the factors set forth above, as well as others, the Board determined that the potentially positive factors outweighed the potentially negative factors. The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but summarizes the material information and factors considered by the Board in its consideration of the Merger. The Board reached the decision to recommend and approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, in light of the factors described above and other factors the Board felt were appropriate. In view of the variety of factors and the quality and amount of information considered, the Board did not find it practicable to and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination and individual members of the Board may have given different weights to different factors. The Board conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including thorough discussions with, and questioning of, senior management of the Company, J.P. Morgan and Centerview as financial advisors, and Simpson Thacher as legal advisors, and considered the factors overall to be favorable to, and to support, its determinations. This explanation of the reasoning of the Board and certain information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and should be read in light of the factors set forth in "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 14.

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated February 9, 2018, the Company retained J.P. Morgan as its financial advisor in connection with the proposed Merger. At the meeting of the Board on February 22, 2018, J.P. Morgan rendered its oral opinion to the Board that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. J.P. Morgan has confirmed its February 22, 2018 oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the Board, dated February 22, 2018, that, as of such date, the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The full text of the written opinion of J.P. Morgan dated February 22, 2018, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this Information Statement and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the opinion of J.P. Morgan set forth in this Information Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The Company's stockholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. J.P. Morgan's written opinion was addressed to the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the proposed Merger, was directed only to the consideration to be paid in the Merger and did not address any other aspect of the Merger. J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration paid in connection with the Merger to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or as to the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the proposed Merger. The issuance of J.P. Morgan's opinion was approved by a fairness committee of J.P. Morgan. The summary of the opinion of J.P. Morgan set forth in this Information Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company as to whether such stockholder should consent with respect to the proposed Merger or any other matter.

In arriving at its opinion, J.P. Morgan, among other things:

reviewed the Merger Agreement;

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning the Company and the industries in which it operates;

compared the proposed financial terms of the Merger with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies J.P. Morgan deemed relevant and the consideration paid for such companies;

compared the financial and operating performance of the Company with publicly available information concerning certain other companies J.P. Morgan deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of the shares of Company Common Stock and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies;

reviewed certain internal financial analyses and projections prepared by the management of the Company relating to its business (referred to in this section as the Company Forecasts), which projections are set forth in the section of this Information Statement entitled The Merger Certain Financial Projections ; and performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as J.P. Morgan deemed appropriate for the purposes of its opinion.

In addition, J.P. Morgan held discussions with certain members of the management of the Company with respect to certain aspects of the Merger, and the past and current business operations of the Company, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of the Company, and certain other matters J.P. Morgan believed necessary or appropriate to its inquiry.

In giving its opinion, J.P. Morgan relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with J.P. Morgan by the Company or otherwise reviewed by or for J.P. Morgan, and J.P. Morgan did not independently verify any such information or its accuracy or completeness and, pursuant to its engagement letter with the Company, did not assume any obligation to undertake any such independent verification. J.P. Morgan did not conduct and was not provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor did J.P. Morgan evaluate the solvency of the Company or Buyer under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to J.P. Morgan or derived therefrom, J.P. Morgan assumed that they were reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of the Company to which such analyses or forecasts relate. J.P. Morgan expressed no view as to such analyses or forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. J.P. Morgan also assumed that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement would be consummated as described in the Merger Agreement. J.P. Morgan also assumed that the representations and warranties made by the Company and Buyer in the Merger Agreement and the related agreements were and would be true and correct in all respects material to its analysis. J.P Morgan is not a legal, regulatory or tax expert and relied on the assessments made by advisors to the Company with respect to such issues. J.P. Morgan further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger would be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company or on the contemplated benefits of the Merger.

J.P. Morgan's opinion was necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to J.P. Morgan as of, the date of such opinion. J.P. Morgan's opinion noted that subsequent developments may affect J.P. Morgan's opinion, and that J.P. Morgan does not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm such opinion. J.P. Morgan's opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the proposed Merger, and J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration paid in connection with the proposed Merger to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or as to the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the proposed Merger. Furthermore, J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the proposed Merger, or any class of such persons relative to the consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock in the proposed Merger or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation. J.P. Morgan was not authorized to and did not solicit any expressions of interest from any other parties with respect to the sale of all or any part of the Company or any other alternative transaction.

The terms of the Merger Agreement were determined through arm's-length negotiations between the Company and Buyer, and the decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the Board. J.P. Morgan's opinion and financial analyses were only one of the many factors considered by the Board in its evaluation of the proposed Merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Board or management with respect to the proposed Merger or the Merger Consideration.

In accordance with customary investment banking practice, J.P. Morgan employed generally accepted valuation methodologies in rendering its opinion to the Board on February 22, 2018 and contained in the presentation delivered to the Board on such date in connection with the rendering of such opinion. The following summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by J.P. Morgan. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables are not intended to stand alone, and in order to more fully understand the financial analyses used by J.P. Morgan, the tables must be read together with the full text of each summary. Considering the data set forth below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of J.P. Morgan's analyses.

Public Trading Multiples Analysis.

Using publicly available information, J.P. Morgan compared selected financial data of the Company with similar data for selected publicly traded companies engaged in businesses which J.P. Morgan judged to be analogous in certain respects to the Company or aspects thereof based on J.P. Morgan's experience and its familiarity with the industries in which the Company operates. The companies selected by J.P. Morgan were as follows:

The Estée Lauder Companies Inc.

Monster Beverage Corporation

lululemon athletica inc.

Under Armour, Inc.

National Beverage Corp.

Freshpet, Inc.

None of the selected companies reviewed is identical to the Company. Certain of these companies may have characteristics that are materially different from those of the Company. However, the companies were selected, among other reasons, because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of the Company. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies differently than they would affect the Company.

With respect to the selected companies, the information J.P. Morgan presented included the multiple of firm value (calculated as equity value plus or minus, as applicable, net debt or net cash) to estimates of earnings before interest expense, income taxes, depreciation and amortization less stock-based compensation expense and adjusted for non-recurring items, or Adjusted EBITDA, of the applicable selected company for calendar year

2018, referred to in this section as FV/2018 Adjusted EBITDA. Financial data for the selected companies was based on the selected companies' filings with the SEC and publicly available Wall Street research analyst consensus estimates for calendar year 2018 that J.P. Morgan obtained from FactSet Research Systems. Results of this analysis were presented for the selected companies, as indicated in the following table:

Selected Company	FV/2018 Adjusted EBITDA¹
The Estée Lauder Companies Inc.	18.7x
Monster Beverage Corporation	24.2x
lululemon athletica inc.	15.4x
Under Armour, Inc.	25.2x
National Beverage Corp.	18.2x
Freshpet, Inc.	NM
Mean	20.3x
Median	18.7x

¹ Enterprise Value/Adjusted EBITDA 2018E noted as NM as value is above 40.0x.

Based on the above analysis and other factors that J.P. Morgan considered appropriate in its professional judgment, J.P. Morgan selected an FV/2018 Adjusted EBITDA multiple reference range for the Company of 17.5x to 23.0x. J.P. Morgan then applied that range to the Company's estimated calendar year 2018 Adjusted EBITDA of approximately $352 million derived from the Company Forecasts (utilizing the Company's estimated 2018 calendar year Adjusted EBITDA as set forth in the Company Forecasts and subtracting estimated stock-based compensation as set forth in the Company Forecasts). The analysis indicated an implied equity value per Share (rounded to the nearest $0.25), which J.P. Morgan compared to the Merger Consideration of $40.00 per share of Company Common Stock, to the closing price per Share as of February 20, 2018 and to the closing price per share of Company Common Stock as of February 13, 2018 (the day before the publication of an article suggesting that the Company was approached about a potential takeover), as follows:

Implied Equity Value per Share

Reference Range¹	Merger Consideration	2/20/2018 Closing Price Per Share	2/13/2018 Closing Price Per Share
$30.50 - $40.25	$ 40.00	$ 34.76	$ 33.05

¹ Assumes debt of $394mm and cash of $282mm as of 12/31/17 as per management guidance.

Selected Transaction Analysis.

Using publicly available information, J.P. Morgan examined selected transactions with respect to businesses which J.P. Morgan judged to be analogous to the Company's business or aspects thereof based on J.P. Morgan's experience and familiarity with the industries in which the Company operates. The transactions indicated in the following table were selected by J.P. Morgan as relevant in evaluating the proposed Merger. Using publicly available information, J.P. Morgan calculated, for each selected transaction, among other things, the multiple of the target company's firm value (calculated as described above) implied in the relevant transaction to the target company's EBITDA for the last twelve-month period for which financial information had been made public (which we refer to as LTM) at the time of the transaction announcement (such multiple referred to in this section as FV/LTM Adjusted EBITDA). Financial data for the target companies was based on press releases, equity research and the target company s filings with the SEC, including filings made in connection with the applicable selected transaction. Results of this analysis were presented for the selected transactions, as indicated in the following table:

Announcement Date	Acquiror	Target	FV/LTM Adjusted EBITDA
September 2014	General Mills, Inc.	Annie s, Inc.	38.7x
November 2012	Reckitt Benckiser Group plc	Schiff Nutrition International, Inc.	26.2x

Announcement Date	Acquiror	Target	FV/LTM Adjusted EBITDA
July 2007	Danone	Royal Numico N.V.	24.3x

October 2007	The Clorox Company	Burt's Bees, Inc.	22.2x
April 2012	Nestle S.A.	Wyeth Nationals (Pfizer)	21.7x
May 2014	Bayer AG	Merck Consumer Care	21.0x

July 2017	McCormick & Company, Incorporated	The French's Food Company	20.0x
December 2017	The Hershey Company	Amplify Snack Brands, Inc.	19.7x
April 2008	Mars, Incorporated	Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company	18.4x
February 2017	Reckitt Benckiser Group plc	Mead Johnson Nutrition Company	17.4x
Median			21.0x

None of the selected transactions reviewed was identical to the Merger. Certain of these transactions may have characteristics that are materially different from those of the Merger. However, the transactions selected were chosen because the participants in and certain other aspects of the transactions, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar to the participants in and aspects of the merger. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the transactions differently than they would affect the Merger.

Based on the above analysis and other factors that J.P. Morgan considered appropriate in its professional judgment, J.P. Morgan then selected an FV/LTM Adjusted EBITDA multiple reference range for the Company of 17.5x to 26.0x. J.P. Morgan then applied that range to the Company's LTM Adjusted EBITDA of approximately $315 million included in the Company Forecasts. The analysis indicated an implied equity value per share of Company Common Stock (rounded to the nearest $0.25), which J.P. Morgan compared to the Merger Consideration of $40.00 per share of Company Common Stock, to the closing price per share of Company Common Stock as of February 20, 2018 and to the closing price per share of Company Common Stock as of February 13, 2018 (the day before the publication of an article suggesting that the Company was approached about a potential takeover), as follows:

Implied Equity Value per Share

Reference Range¹	Merger Consideration	2/20/2018 Closing Price Per Share	2/13/2018 Closing Price Per Share
$27.25 - $40.75	$ 40.00	$ 34.76	$ 33.05

¹ Assumes debt of $394mm and cash of $282mm as of 12/31/17 as per management guidance.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

J.P. Morgan conducted a discounted cash flow analysis for the purpose of determining the fully diluted equity value per share of Company Common Stock of the Company. J.P. Morgan calculated the unlevered free cash flows that the Company is expected to generate during calendar years 2018 through 2022 as derived from the Company Forecasts.

J.P. Morgan also calculated a range of terminal values of the Company at the end of this period by applying perpetuity growth rates ranging from 2.5% to 3.5% to estimates of the unlevered free cash flow of the Company during calendar year 2022 as provided in the Company Forecasts. The unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal values were then discounted to present values using a range of discount rates from 8.25% to 9.25% and the mid-period convention, which were chosen by J.P. Morgan based upon an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of the Company. The present value of the unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal asset values were then adjusted for the Company's 2017 fiscal year-end excess cash and total debt. This analysis indicated a range of implied equity values for the Company, which J.P. Morgan divided by the total number of share of Company Common Stock outstanding as of February 20, 2018, calculated on a fully-diluted basis based on information provided by the Company's management, to derive a range of implied equity values per share of Company Common Stock (rounded to the nearest $0.25), which J.P. Morgan compared to the Merger Consideration of $40.00 per share of Company Common Stock, to the closing price per share of Company Common Stock as of February 20, 2018 and to the closing price per share of Company Common Stock as of February 13, 2018 (the day before the publication of an article suggesting that the Company was approached about a potential takeover), as follows:

Implied Equity Value per Share

Reference Range	Merger Consideration	2/20/2018 Closing Price Per Share	2/13/2018 Closing Price Per Share

Miscellaneous

The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by J.P. Morgan. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. J.P. Morgan believes that the foregoing summary and its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the foregoing summary and these analyses, without considering all of its analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses and its opinion. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or combination of analyses described above were merely utilized to create points of reference for analytical purposes and should not be taken to be the view of J.P. Morgan with respect to the actual value of the Company. The order of analyses described does not represent the relative importance or weight given to those analyses by J.P. Morgan. In arriving at its opinion, J.P. Morgan did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative), considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, J.P. Morgan considered the totality of the factors and analyses performed in determining its opinion.

Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties and their advisors. Accordingly, forecasts and analyses used or made by J.P. Morgan are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by those analyses. Moreover, J.P. Morgan's analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be acquired or sold. None of the selected companies reviewed as described in the above summary is identical to the Company, and none of the selected transactions reviewed was identical to the Merger. However, the companies selected were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of the Company. The transactions selected were similarly chosen because their participants, size and other factors, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar to the Merger. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies compared to the Company and the transactions compared to the Merger.

As a part of its investment banking business, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates are continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, investments for passive and control purposes, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for corporate and other purposes. J.P. Morgan was selected to advise the Company with respect to the Merger on the basis of, among other things, such experience and its qualifications and reputation in connection with such matters and its familiarity with the Company and the industries in which it operates.

For financial advisory services rendered in connection with the proposed Merger (including the delivery of its opinion), the Company has agreed to pay J.P. Morgan a fee of approximately $22 million, $3 million of which was payable upon delivery by J.P. Morgan of its opinion, and the remainder of which will become due upon the closing of the proposed Merger. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse J.P. Morgan for certain of its reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with its services, including certain of the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel, and will indemnify J.P. Morgan against certain liabilities arising out of J.P. Morgan's engagement. During the two years preceding the date of J.P. Morgan's opinion, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates have had commercial or investment banking relationships with the Company and Buyer for which J.P. Morgan and such affiliates have received customary compensation. Such services during such period have included acting as joint lead bookrunner on the Company's offerings of equity securities in June 2016 and September 2016 and as joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner on the Company's credit facility in May 2017, and acting as joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner on Buyer's credit facility in May 2016 and joint lead bookrunner on Buyer's offering of debt securities in September 2017. During the two years preceding the date of J.P. Morgan's opinion, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates have also had commercial or investment banking relationships with portfolio companies of Invus, the Company's financial sponsor that are unrelated to the Merger, for which J.P. Morgan and such affiliates have received customary compensation. Such services have included debt syndication and equity and debt underwriting. In addition, J.P. Morgan's commercial banking affiliate is an agent bank and a lender under outstanding credit facilities of such portfolio companies, for which it receives customary compensation or other financial benefits. In addition, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates hold, on a proprietary basis, less than 1% of the outstanding common stock of each of the Company, Invus and Buyer. During the two year period preceding delivery of its opinion, the aggregate fees received by J.P. Morgan from the Company were approximately $6 million. During the two year period preceding delivery of its opinion, the aggregate fees received by J.P. Morgan from Buyer were approximately $3 million. During the two year period preceding delivery of its opinion, the aggregate fees received by J.P. Morgan from Invus were approximately $12 million. In the ordinary course of J.P. Morgan's businesses, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of the Company or Buyer for its own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities or other financial instruments.

Summary of Centerview Financial Analysis

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses prepared and reviewed with the Board in connection with Centerview's opinion, dated February 22, 2018. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed or factors considered by, and underlying the opinion of, Centerview, nor does the order of the financial analyses described represent the relative importance or weight given to those financial analyses by Centerview. Centerview may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions, so the reference ranges resulting from any particular portion of the analyses summarized below should not be taken to be Centerview's view of the actual value of the Company. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses set forth below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary, as the tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Centerview. Considering the data in the tables below without considering all financial analyses or factors or the full narrative description of such analyses or factors, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying such analyses or factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying Centerview's financial analyses and its opinion. In performing its analyses, Centerview made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of the Company or any other parties to the Transaction. None of the Company, Buyer, Merger Sub or Centerview or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those discussed. Any estimates contained in these analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than as set forth below. In addition, analyses relating to the value of the Company do not purport to be appraisals or reflect the prices at which the Company may actually be sold. Accordingly, the assumptions and estimates used in, and the results derived from, the financial analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before February 20, 2018 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Selected Public Company Analysis

Centerview reviewed certain financial information of the Company and compared it to corresponding financial information of certain publicly traded companies that Centerview selected based on its experience and professional judgment (which we refer to as the selected companies in this summary of Centerview's opinion). Although none of the selected companies is directly comparable to the Company, the companies listed below were chosen by Centerview, among other reasons, because they are publicly traded companies with certain operational, business and/or financial characteristics that, for purposes of Centerview's analysis, may be considered similar to those of the Company. However, because none of the selected companies is exactly the same as the Company, Centerview believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the selected public company analysis. Accordingly, Centerview also made qualitative judgments, based on its experience and professional judgment, concerning differences between the business, financial and operating characteristics and prospects of the Company and the selected companies that could affect the public trading values of each in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis.

Using publicly available information obtained from SEC filings and other data sources as of February 20, 2018, Centerview calculated, among other things, for each selected company set forth below, the implied enterprise value

(calculated, to the extent publicly available, as the market value of common equity (determined using the treasury stock method and taking into account outstanding in the money options, other equity awards and other convertible securities, as applicable) plus the debt, preferred stock and noncontrolling interests less cash and cash equivalents (excluding cash held on trust and restricted cash, as applicable) and equity investments) as a multiple of Wall Street research analyst consensus estimated earnings before interest expense, income taxes, depreciation and amortization and non-recurring items (which we refer to in this summary of Centerview's opinion as Adjusted EBITDA) for calendar year 2018. The results of this analysis are summarized as follows:

Selected Companies	Enterprise Value/ 2018E Adjusted EBITDA
Freshpet, Inc.	44.7x
McCormick & Company, Incorporated	16.6x ¹
Monster Beverage Corporation	24.2x
National Beverage Corp.	18.2x

The J.M. Smucker Company	11.0x

² The Hershey Company figures pro forma for acquisition of Amplify Snack Brands, Inc.

Based on the foregoing analysis and other considerations that Centerview deemed relevant in its professional judgment and experience, Centerview selected a reference of multiples of enterprise value to estimated 2018 calendar year Adjusted EBITDA of 16.5x to 21.0x. In selecting this range of multiples, Centerview made qualitative judgments based on its experience and professional judgment concerning differences between the business, financial and operating characteristics and prospects of the Company and the selected companies that could affect the public trading values in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis. Centerview applied this range to the Company's estimated 2018 calendar year Adjusted EBITDA of approximately $352 million derived from the Forecasts (utilizing the Company's estimated 2018 calendar year Adjusted EBITDA as set forth in the Forecasts and subtracting estimated stock-based compensation as set forth in the Forecasts) to derive a range of implied enterprise values for the Company. Centerview subtracted from this range of implied enterprise values the Company's net debt as of December 31, 2017, as set forth in the Internal Data, to derive a range of equity values for the Company. Centerview then divided these ranges of implied equity values by the number of fully-diluted outstanding shares of Company Common Stock as of February 20, 2018 set forth in the Internal Data to derive a range of implied values per share of Company Common Stock of approximately $28.80 to $36.75, rounded to the nearest $0.05. Centerview compared this range to the Merger Consideration of $40.00 per share of Company Common Stock to be paid pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

Selected Transactions Analysis

Centerview reviewed and compared certain information relating to the following selected transactions that Centerview, based on its experience and professional judgment, deemed relevant to consider in relation to the Company and the Transaction. These transactions were selected, among other reasons, because their participants, size or other factors, for purposes of Centerview's analysis, may be considered similar to the Transaction. Centerview used its experience, expertise and knowledge of these industries to select transactions that involved companies with certain operations, results, business mix or product profiles that, for purposes of this analysis, may be considered similar to certain operations, results, business mix or product profiles of the Company.

Centerview calculated, for each selected transaction set forth below, among other things, the enterprise value (calculated as described above) implied for the applicable target company based on the consideration payable in the applicable selected transaction as a multiple of the target company's Adjusted EBITDA for the latest twelve-month period (which we refer to as LTM) at the time of the transaction announcement. The results of this analysis are summarized as follows:

² Utilized an estimated FY2011 multiple.

³ Utilized an estimated LTM multiple based on an average of FY2016 and 2017E figures publicly disclosed. No company or transaction used in this analysis is identical or directly comparable to the Company or the Transaction. The companies included in the selected transactions listed above were selected, among other reasons, based on Centerview's experience and professional judgment, because they have certain characteristics that, for the purposes of this analysis, may be considered similar to certain characteristics of the Company. The reasons for and the circumstances surrounding each of the selected transactions analyzed were diverse and there are inherent differences in the business, operations, financial conditions and prospects of the Company and the companies included in the selected transactions analysis. Accordingly, Centerview believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the selected transactions analysis. This analysis involves complex considerations and qualitative judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading, acquisition or other values of the selected target companies and the Company.

Based on its analysis and other considerations that Centerview deemed relevant in its professional judgment and experience, Centerview selected a reference of multiples of enterprise value to LTM Adjusted EBITDA of 17.5x to 24.5x. In selecting this range of multiples, Centerview made qualitative judgments based on its experience and professional judgment concerning differences between the business, financial and operating characteristics and prospects of the Company and the companies included in the selected transactions and other factors that could affect the public trading, acquisition or other values of such companies or the Company in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis. Centerview applied this range to the Company's LTM Adjusted EBITDA of $315 million for the period ended December 31, 2017 to derive a range of implied enterprise values for the Company. Centerview subtracted from this range of implied enterprise values the Company's net debt as of December 31, 2017, as set forth in the Internal Data, to derive a range of equity values for the Company. Centerview then divided these ranges of implied equity values by the number of fully-diluted outstanding shares of Company Common Stock as of February 20, 2018 as set forth in the Internal Data to derive a range of implied values per share of Company Common Stock of approximately $27.30 to $38.40, rounded to the nearest $0.05. Centerview compared this range to the Merger Consideration of $40.00 per share of Company Common Stock to be paid pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Centerview performed a discounted cash flow analysis of the Company based on the Forecasts and the calculations of unlevered free cash flows set forth in The Merger Certain Financial Projections. A discounted cash flow analysis is a traditional valuation methodology used to derive a valuation of an asset by calculating the present value of estimated future cash flows of the asset. Present value refers to the current value of future cash flows and is obtained by discounting those future cash flows by a discount rate that takes into account macroeconomic assumptions and estimates of risk, the opportunity cost of capital, expected returns and other appropriate factors.

In performing this analysis, Centerview calculated a range of illustrative equity values for the Company by (a) discounting to present value using discount rates ranging from 8.5% to 9.5% (reflecting Centerview's analysis of the Company's weighted average cost of capital) and the mid-year convention: (i) the forecasted fully taxed unlevered free cash flows of the Company over the period beginning January 1, 2018 and ending on December 31, 2022, as set forth in The Merger Certain Financial Projections, and (ii) a range of illustrative terminal values of the Company, calculated by Centerview applying perpetuity growth rates ranging from 2.5% to 3.5% to the Company's fully taxed unlevered free cash flows for the terminal year (as set forth in The Merger Certain Financial Projections) and (b) subtracting from the foregoing results the Company's net debt as of December 31, 2017, as set forth in the Internal Data. Centerview divided the result of the foregoing calculations by the number of fully-diluted outstanding shares of Company Common Stock as of February 20, 2018 based on the Internal Data to derive a range of implied values per Share of approximately $32.20 to $44.30 per share of Company Common Stock, rounded to the nearest $0.05. Centerview compared this range to the Merger Consideration of $40.00 per share of Company Common Stock to be paid pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

Other Factors

Centerview noted for the Board certain additional factors solely for informational purposes, including, among other things, the following:

Historical Stock Price Trading Analysis. Centerview reviewed historical share price performance of the shares of Company Common Stock for the 52-week period ended February 20, 2018, which reflected low and high intraday prices for the shares of Company Common Stock during this 52-week period of $21.51 and $35.81 (or $34.31, disregarding high closing prices for the shares of Company Common Stock after February 14, 2018, the day of the publication of an article suggesting that the Company was approached about a potential takeover).

Analyst Price Target Analysis. Centerview reviewed stock price targets for the shares of Company Common Stock in Wall Street research analyst reports publicly available as of February 20, 2018, noting these stock price targets ranged from $28.50 per share of Company Common Stock to $52.00 per share of Company

Common Stock. The 25th percentile and 75th percentile for the equity research analyst share price targets for the shares of Company Common Stock were as follows:

25 th Percentile	$30.00 per share of Company Common Stock
75 th Percentile	$37.00 per share of Company Common Stock

Enterprise Value to LTM Net Revenue Multiple. For reference purposes only, Centerview performed the selected transactions analysis described above using enterprise value to LTM net revenue multiples. Centerview calculated, for each selected transaction set forth above, among other things, the implied enterprise value (calculated as described above) as a multiple of the target company's LTM net revenue at the time of the transaction announcement (except with respect to Pfizer Nutrition/Nestle where estimates of fiscal year 2011 were used, and Gerber/Nestle where calendar year 2007 was used). This analysis resulted in a median enterprise value to LTM net revenue multiple of 3.38x. Based on its analysis and other considerations that Centerview deemed relevant in its professional judgment and experience, Centerview selected a range of multiples of enterprise value to LTM net revenue of 4.00x to 5.50x. In selecting this range of multiples, Centerview made qualitative judgments based on its experience and professional judgment concerning differences between the business, financial and operating characteristics and prospects of the Company and the companies included in the selected transactions and other factors that could affect the public trading, acquisition or other values of such companies or the Company in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis. Centerview applied this range to the Company's LTM net revenue of $1.275 billion for the period ended December 31, 2017, to derive a range of implied enterprise values for the Company. Centerview subtracted from this range of implied enterprise values the Company's net debt as of December 31, 2017, as set forth in the Internal Data, to derive a range of equity values for the Company. Centerview then divided these ranges of implied equity values by the number of fully-diluted outstanding shares of Company Common Stock as of February 20, 2018 set forth in the Internal Data to derive a range of implied values per share of Company Common Stock of approximately $25.20 to $34.80, rounded to the nearest $0.05. Centerview compared this range to the Merger Consideration of $40.00 per share of Company Common Stock to be paid pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

General

The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a financial opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Centerview did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any factor or analysis that it considered. Rather, Centerview made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of the analyses.

Centerview's financial analyses and opinion were only one of many factors taken into consideration by the Board in its evaluation of the Transaction. Consequently, the analyses described above should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Board or management of the Company with respect to the Merger Consideration or as to whether the Board would have been willing to determine that a different consideration was fair. The consideration for the transaction was determined through arm's-length negotiations between the Company and Buyer and was approved by the Board. Centerview provided advice to the Company during these negotiations. Centerview did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to the Company or the Board or that any specific amount of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the Transaction.

Centerview is a securities firm engaged directly and through affiliates and related persons in a number of investment banking, financial advisory and merchant banking activities. In the two years prior to the date of its written opinion Centerview was not (except for its current engagement) engaged to provide financial advisory or other services to the Company, and Centerview did not receive any compensation from the Company. In the two years prior to the date of its written opinion, Centerview was not engaged to provide financial advisory or other services to Buyer, and Centerview did not receive any compensation from Buyer. Centerview may provide financial advisory and other services to or with respect to the Company or Buyer or their respective affiliates and portfolio companies of such affiliates in the future, for which Centerview may receive compensation. Certain (i) of Centerview and Centerview's affiliates' directors, officers, members and employees, or family members of such persons, (ii) of Centerview's affiliates or related investment funds and (iii) investment funds or other persons in which any of the foregoing may have financial interests or with which they may co-invest, may at any time acquire, hold, sell or trade, in debt, equity and other securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of, or investments in, the Company, Buyer, Invus or any of their respective affiliates and portfolio companies of such affiliates, or any other party that may be involved in the Transaction.

The Board selected Centerview as its financial advisor in connection with the Transaction based on, among other things, Centerview's overall reputation and experience as an investment banking firm generally and its knowledge of the food and consumer packaged goods industry in particular. Centerview is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the Transaction.

In connection with Centerview's services as the financial advisor to the Board, the Company has agreed to pay Centerview an aggregate fee of approximately $22 million, $3 million of which was payable upon the rendering of Centerview's opinion and approximately $19 million of which is payable contingent upon consummation of the Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse certain of Centerview's expenses arising, and to indemnify Centerview against certain liabilities that may arise, out of Centerview's engagement.

Certain Financial Projections

The Company does not, as a matter of general practice, publicly disclose detailed internal projections of its future financial performance. The Company has, however, as part of its ordinary course strategic and business planning efforts prepared forecasts and projections for internal use, which forecasts and projections, among other things, may have informed its publicly disclosed high level financial guidance. Certain financial forecasts were prepared by the Company's management in Fall 2017 and subsequently updated in January 2018 to take into account, among other things, fourth quarter actual results and updates to management's revised forecast in light of such performance and additional information, including updated tax rate information (the "Financial Projections"). The Financial Projections were provided to J.P. Morgan and Centerview for use in connection with performing their respective financial analyses summarized under "Opinion of J.P. The Financial Projections were not prepared with a view to compliance with generally accepted accounting principles as applied in the United States, the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections and forward-looking statements or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. Neither the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the Financial Projections included below, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and they assume no responsibility for, and express no opinion on, the Financial Projections.

The Financial Projections included in this information statement have been prepared by the Company's management and are subjective in many respects. Furthermore, the Financial Projections do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared. The Financial Projections are not fact and should not be relied upon as being necessarily indicative of future results, and readers of this information statement are cautioned not to place undue reliance on this information. Although this summary of the Financial Projections is presented with numerical specificity, the projections reflect numerous variables, assumptions and estimates as to future events made by our management that our management believed were reasonable at the time the Financial Projections were prepared, taking into account the relevant information available to management at the time. However, such variables, assumptions and estimates are inherently uncertain and many of which are beyond the control of our management. Because the Financial Projections cover multiple years, by their nature, they become subject to greater uncertainty with each successive year. The Financial Projections reflect numerous estimates and assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to the Company's business, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the Company's control. As a result, there can be no assurance that the projected results will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than projected. The Financial Projections are subjective in many respects and thus are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. As such, the Financial Projections constitute forward-looking information and are subject to risks and uncertainties, including the various risks set forth in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and the other reports filed by the Company with the SEC.

As a result, there can be no assurance that the Financial Projections will be realized, and actual results may be materially better or worse than those contained in the Financial Projections. The inclusion of this information should not be regarded as an indication that the Board, the Company, J.P. Morgan, Centerview, Buyer, Buyer's representatives and affiliates or any other recipient of this information considered, or now considers, the Financial Projections to be predictive of actual future results.

The Financial Projections are forward-looking statements. For information on factors that may cause the Company's future results to materially vary, see the section entitled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Except to the extent required by applicable federal securities laws, we do not intend, and expressly disclaim any responsibility, to update or otherwise revise the Financial Projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date when management prepared the Financial Projections or to reflect the occurrence of future events or changes in general economic or industry conditions, even in the event that any of the assumptions underlying the Financial Projections are shown to be in error. By including in this document a summary of certain Financial Projections, neither the Company nor any of its representatives or advisors (including J.P. Morgan and Centerview) nor Buyer, Buyer's representatives and affiliates makes any representation to any person regarding the ultimate performance of the Company or the surviving corporation compared to the information contained in such financial forecasts and should not be read to do so.

Financing

In connection with its entry into the Merger Agreement, Buyer has entered into the Commitment Letter with the Goldman Sachs Lenders pursuant to which and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, the Goldman Sachs Lenders have agreed to provide a Bridge Facility of up to $8.5 billion in the aggregate for the purpose of providing the financing necessary to fund the consideration to be paid pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, refinance certain outstanding indebtedness of the Company and pay related fees and expenses. Commitments under the Bridge Facility will be reduced in equivalent amounts in respect of any Permanent Financing or upon other events specified in the Commitment Letter. The funding of the Bridge Facility is contingent on the satisfaction of certain customary conditions, including, among others:

the consummation of the Merger substantially concurrently with the borrowing under the Bridge Facility, in all material respects in accordance with the Merger Agreement after giving effect to any modifications, amendments, supplements, consents, waivers or requests, other than those modifications, amendments, supplements, consents, waivers or requests that are materially adverse to the lenders without the consent of GS Bank;

the delivery of certain financial statements relating to Buyer and its subsidiaries;

since February 22, 2018, the absence of a Company Material Adverse Effect;

the accuracy in all material respects of certain limited representations and warranties;

the execution and delivery of definitive documentation with respect to the Bridge Facility;

the Goldman Sachs Lenders' receipt of standard closing deliverables (including, among others, a solvency certificate and customary legal opinions);

payment of fees and expenses to the Goldman Sachs Lenders and the other lenders; and delivery of all know your customer and anti-money laundering documentation and other information reasonably requested by the Goldman Sachs Lenders regarding Buyer.

The obligations of Buyer and Merger Sub to complete the Merger are not subject to any financing condition.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

You should be aware that the Company's executive officers and directors have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of the Company stockholders generally. The Board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement. These interests are described below.

Offer Letter from Buyer to William Bishop, Jr.

In connection with the Merger and subject to its consummation, Buyer has offered Mr. William Bishop, Jr. employment with the Buyer as SVP, Group President, Pet Segment, in overseeing the Blue Buffalo Pet Products business (the Blue Buffalo Business), effective upon closing of the Merger, with an annual base salary of $650,000.00 (consistent with Mr. Bishop's expected 2018 base salary at the Company) and annual bonus and long-term incentive opportunities. Mr. Bishop will also be entitled to a retention bonus equal to $1,200,000.00 (the Retention Bonus) if Mr. Bishop remains employed with Buyer for at least twelve (12) months following the closing of the Merger and a performance-based retention bonus of up to $800,000.00, subject to certain performance objectives and Mr. Bishop's continued employment with the Buyer through Buyer's 2019 fiscal year. In addition, Mr. Bishop will be entitled to receive a retention stock award composed of 25% Buyer restricted stock units, 50% Buyer stock options and 25% Buyer performance share units, having a combined value equal to $800,000.00. The restricted stock units and options will have a two-year graded vesting schedule and the performance share units will have a three-year cliff vesting schedule, subject to achievement of certain performance measures. Mr. Bishop will be entitled to severance under Buyer's Separation Pay and Benefits Program for Officers (the Severance Plan) and payment of the Retention Bonus if he is terminated under circumstances making him eligible for severance under the Severance Plan. Payment of the Retention Bonus will reduce the amount owed to Mr. Bishop under the Severance Plan. Mr. Bishop will be restricted from competing with the Blue Buffalo Business, soliciting customers of the Blue Buffalo Business or employees of the Buyer or the Blue Buffalo Business until the later of (x) three years following the closing of the Merger and (y) two years following Mr. Bishop's termination of employment with Buyer. Mr. Bishop will also be restricted from disclosing any trade secrets or other confidential information about the Company or Buyer.

Long-Term Incentive Awards

On March 13, 2018, as permitted by the Merger Agreement, in connection with the Company's fiscal year 2018 annual grant process in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, our compensation committee granted long-term incentive awards to certain employees thereunder, including Messrs. Bishop and Nathenson. These awards will become effective on April 2, 2018 and will entitle the recipients to a cash bonus based on the achievement of certain net revenue and adjusted operating income performance goals at the end of a three-year performance period. The amounts payable to Messrs. Bishop and Nathenson on achievement of the goals are $975,000 and $357,499, respectively. In the event an award recipient is terminated without cause within twelve months following a change in control of the Company, the award recipient will be entitled to payment of a pro rata portion of his or her bonus amount, based on the time such recipient was employed during the performance period.

Table of Contents

Treatment of Company Stock Awards

Under our equity compensation program, we grant equity awards in the form of Options and RSUs to our executive officers to incentivize and reward them for our long-term corporate performance, based on the value of the Company Common Stock. Our non-employee directors are granted fully vested Restricted Stock, with a three-year holding period, as part of their annual retainer.

Options. The Merger Agreement provides that each Option, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will automatically be cancelled and will only entitle the holder of such Option to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to the Option multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price of such Option.

RSUs. The Merger Agreement also provides that each RSU outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, whether vested or unvested, automatically be cancelled and will only entitle the holder thereof to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to the RSU multiplied by (ii) the Merger Consideration.

Restricted Stock. The Merger Agreement provides that immediately prior to the Effective Time, the holding restrictions applicable to each share of Restricted Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will automatically expire and each such share of Restricted Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Based on equity compensation holdings as of March 27, 2018, the number of vested and unvested Options held by the executive officers are as follows: William Bishop, Jr., 119,819.00 (unvested); Mike Nathenson, 436,191.00 (vested), 69,525.00 (unvested).

Based on equity compensation holdings as of March 27, 2018, the number of unvested RSUs held by the executive officers are as follows: William Bishop, Jr., 17,998.00; Mike Nathenson, 10,461.00. None of the RSUs granted to the executive officers have vested.

Based on equity compensation holdings as of March 27, 2018, the number of fully vested shares of Restricted Stock held by our non-employee directors (as a group) are 114,051.00.

Other Interests

As of the date of this information statement, none of our other executive officers has entered into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with Buyer regarding employment with, or compensation going forward from, Buyer. Prior to the closing of the Merger, however, our other executive officers may discuss or enter into agreements, arrangements or understandings with Buyer regarding employment with, or compensation going forward from, Buyer.

Golden Parachute Compensation

In accordance with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K of the Securities Act, the table below sets forth the compensation that is based on, or otherwise relates to, the Merger that will or may become payable to each named executive officer of the Company in connection with the Merger. For additional details regarding the terms of the payments and benefits described below, see the discussion under the caption Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger above.

Table of Contents

The amounts shown in the table below are estimates based on several assumptions that may or may not actually occur or be accurate on the relevant date, including the assumptions described below and in the footnotes to the table, and do not reflect certain compensation actions that may occur prior to completion of the Merger. The following table does not include any amounts that are payable to the named executive officer irrespective of the closing of the Merger. For example, the table does not include amounts that are payable with respect to Options, RSUs and Restricted Stock that are vested prior to the effective time of the Merger. For purposes of calculating such amounts, the value of the Company Common Stock was based on the Merger Consideration ($40.00 per share) and the following assumptions were used:

The effective date of the Merger is March 27, 2018, which is the assumed date of the closing of the Merger solely for purposes of the disclosure in this section; and

The employment of Messrs. Bishop and Nathenson will have been terminated by Buyer without cause or, with respect to Mr. Nathenson, due to his resignation for good reason (as such terms are defined in the Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP) and Mr. Nathenson's offer letter, as applicable), in either case immediately following the assumed effective time of the Merger on March 27, 2018.

Name	Cash(1) ($)	Equity(2) ($)	Perquisites/ Benefits(3) ($)	Total ($)
Billy Bishop	2,000,000	3,470,293	N/A	5,460,293
Michael Nathenson	0	1,507,313	29,439	1,536,752

- (1) The amounts set forth in the table for Messrs. Bishop and Nathenson represent the pro rata portion of their LTIP awards, assuming that they were terminated without cause immediately following the assumed effective date of the Merger and are based on the time they were employed with us during the three-year performance period, measured as of the date of termination. As noted above, the LTIP provides for the payment of a pro rata portion of an award recipient's bonus amount if such recipient's employment is terminated by us without cause within twelve months following a change in control of the Company. The amount payable to each of Messrs. Bishop and Nathenson is a double-trigger payment, which means the amount will become payable only upon a termination of employment within twelve months following the effective time of the Merger. The amount set forth in the table for Mr. Bishop also represents the maximum amount payable as retention bonuses in accordance with the offer letter from Buyer to Mr. Bishop, pursuant to which Mr. Bishop will be entitled to a retention bonus equal to $1,200,000.00 if Mr. Bishop remains employed with Buyer for at least twelve (12) months following the closing of the Merger and a performance-based retention bonus of up to $800,000.00, subject to certain performance objectives and Mr. Bishop's continued employment with the Buyer through Buyer's 2019 fiscal year. The cash-based retention arrangements with regard to Mr. Bishop are more fully described under the caption Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Offer Letter from Buyer to William Bishop, Jr. above.
- (2) As noted above, all of the unvested Options and RSUs held by the executive officers will be cancelled at the Effective Time and the executive officers will be entitled to a cash payment equal to the Merger Consideration multiplied by the number of shares of Company Common Stock underlying the unvested Options and RSUs. The amounts set forth in the table represent the following amounts that will become payable to Messrs. Bishop and Nathenson on account of their unvested Options and RSUs, respectively: Mr. Bishop $1,950,373 (Options), $719,920 (RSUs); and Mr. Nathenson $1,088,873 (Options), $418,440 (RSUs). The amount set forth in the table for Mr. Bishop also includes the maximum amount of retention equity issuable in accordance with the offer letter from Buyer to Mr. Bishop, pursuant to which Mr. Bishop will be entitled to receive a retention stock award composed of 25% Buyer restricted stock units, 50% Buyer stock options and 25% Buyer performance share units, having a combined value equal to $800,000.00. The restricted stock units and options will have a two-year graded vesting schedule and the performance share units will have a three-year cliff vesting schedule, subject to achievement of certain performance measures. The equity-based retention arrangements with regard to Mr. Bishop are more fully described under the caption Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Offer Letter from Buyer to William Bishop, Jr. above.

- (3) The amount set forth in the table for Mr. Nathenson represents the cost of his continued COBRA coverage under our health care plan (assuming a 20% inflation factor) that we are obligated to reimburse him for in the event of his termination without cause or for good reason (as such terms are defined in his offer letter) in connection with or within 12 months following a change in control of the Company.

Executive Employee Offer Letter

Mr. Nathenson's offer letter with the Company provides that in the event of his termination without cause or for good reason (as such terms are defined in his offer letter) in connection with or within twelve (12) months following a change in control of the Company, subject to his signing a standard release of claims, (i) all of his unvested options will become fully vested and (ii) the Company will reimburse him for the actual cost of his continued health care coverage under the Company's health insurance plan pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) for the maximum period of time permitted by law.

Table of Contents

Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance

The Merger Agreement provides that for six (6) years following the Effective Time, the Company, as the surviving corporation, will maintain in effect directors and officers liability insurance in respect of acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time covering each such indemnified person currently covered by the Company's officers and directors liability insurance policy on terms with respect to such coverage and in amounts no less favorable in any material respect than those of such policy in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that Buyer and the surviving corporation will not be required to pay an aggregate premium in excess of 300% of the amount the Company paid in its last full fiscal year prior to the date of the Merger Agreement. The foregoing insurance requirement will be deemed satisfied if prepaid tail or runoff policies are obtained by the Company prior to the Effective Time or by the surviving corporation at, or after, the Effective Time with coverage as described above for a period of six (6) years with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the Effective Time, provided the surviving corporation does not pay more than 300% of the annual premiums as described above.

The Merger Agreement provides that, following the Effective Time, the Company, as the surviving corporation, will indemnify and hold harmless all past and present officers and directors of the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, pursuant to each indemnification agreement in effect as of the date of the Merger Agreement between the Company or any of its subsidiaries and such indemnified person or the Company's certificate of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement, subject to any limitation imposed from time to time under applicable law, for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time.

Retention Plan

Prior to entering into the Merger Agreement, but in anticipation of consummation of the Merger, the Company established a retention program to encourage Company employees to remain employed with the Company and the surviving corporation prior to and following the Effective Time (the Retention Program). The Retention Program allows for up to $6.5 million (in the aggregate) in payments of retention bonus awards. Individual awards to be made under the Retention Program will be determined by the Company's chief executive officer in consultation with the compensation committee and the chief executive officer of Buyer. Each retention bonus will be payable on March 1, 2019, subject to the employee's continued employment with the surviving corporation (or such other affiliate of Buyer that employs the individual after the closing of the Merger), but will be payable earlier upon any termination of such employment without cause (as defined in the Company's 2015 Omnibus Incentive Plan).

Delisting and Deregistration of Company Common Stock

If the Merger is completed, the Company Common Stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ and deregistered under the Exchange Act, and we will no longer file periodic reports with the SEC on account of the Company Common Stock.

Transaction Litigation

On March 29, 2018, a stockholder filed a putative class action complaint, captioned William Shumaker v. Blue Buffalo Pet Products, Inc., et al., No. 3:18-cv-00535-MPS, in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut against the Company, the members of the Board, Buyer and Merger Sub. The complaint alleges violations of Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act related to alleged misrepresentations and/or omissions in the Preliminary Information Statement and breaches of fiduciary duty against the individual directors, alleging that the directors violated their duties of care, loyalty, good faith and/or candor owed to the stockholders of the Company. The plaintiff seeks an order, inter alia, enjoining the defendants from consummating the merger or rescinding it in the event it is consummated, as well as certification of the putative class, an accounting of all damages and attorneys' fees and expenses.

Table of Contents

Although it is not possible to predict the outcome of the litigation with certainty, the Company and the Board believe that the claims raised in the complaint are without merit and intend to defend their position in this matter vigorously.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following is a summary of United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger generally applicable to holders of Company Common Stock who exchange their shares of Company Common Stock for cash pursuant to the Merger. The summary is based on the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), applicable United States Treasury Regulations issued thereunder, judicial authority and administrative rulings and pronouncements, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. The discussion applies only to holders whose shares of Company Common Stock are held as capital assets (generally, property held for investment), and does not address the tax consequences that may be relevant to holders of Company Common Stock that are subject to special tax rules, such as insurance companies, United States expatriates, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, holders subject to the alternative minimum tax, tax-exempt organizations, broker-dealers, financial institutions, cooperatives, traders in securities that elect to mark to market, United States Holders whose functional currency is not the United States dollar, holders who hold Company Common Stock through pass-through entities for United States federal income tax purposes or as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction, holders deemed to sell Company Common Stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code, holders who exercise appraisal rights, or holders who acquired Company Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation. Except as specifically noted below, this summary does not address any aspect of state, local or foreign taxation, and does not address any United States federal taxation other than income taxation.

For purposes of this information statement, a United States Holder means a beneficial owner of Company Common Stock that is a citizen or individual resident of the United States, a corporation (or any entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created or organized in the United States or any state thereof (including the District of Columbia), an estate, the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source, or a trust if (i) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (ii) the trust has a valid election in effect to be treated as a United States person. If a partnership (including any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) is a holder of Company Common Stock, the United States federal income tax treatment of a partner in that partnership will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners should consult their own tax advisors as to the particular United States federal income tax consequences to them. The term Non-United States Holder refers to any beneficial owner of Company Common Stock, other than a partnership or other entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes, that is not a United States Holder.

The United States federal income tax consequences set forth below are included for general informational purposes only and are based upon current law as of the date hereof. Because individual circumstances may differ, each holder of Company Common Stock should consult such holder's own tax advisor to determine the applicability of the rules discussed below to such holder and the particular tax effects of the Merger, including the application and effect of state, local, foreign income and other tax laws.

United States Holders. The receipt of the Merger Consideration by a United States Holder in exchange for shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes (and also may be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local, foreign and other income tax laws). In general, for United States federal income tax purposes, a United States Holder who receives the Merger Consideration will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (x) the amount of cash the United States

Holder receives (determined before deduction of any applicable withholding taxes) and (y) the adjusted tax basis of the surrendered shares of Company Common Stock. A United States Holder's adjusted tax basis generally will equal the price the United States Holder paid for such shares. Gain or loss will be calculated separately for each block of Company Common Stock converted in the Merger (generally shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction). Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Company Common Stock has been held for more than one year as of the Effective Time. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate United States Holders may be eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is limited.

Cash consideration received by a United States Holder in the Merger may be subject to backup withholding. Backup withholding generally will apply only if the United States Holder fails to furnish a correct social security number or other taxpayer identification number, or otherwise fails to comply with applicable backup withholding rules and certification requirements. Corporations generally are exempt from backup withholding. Each United States Holder should complete and sign the Form W-9 that will be part of the letter of transmittal to be returned to the paying agent (or other agent) in order to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding, unless an applicable exemption exists and is otherwise proved in a manner satisfactory to the paying agent (or other agent). Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Amounts so withheld can be credited against such holder's federal income tax liability and may entitle such holder to a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service, or IRS.

Non-United States Holders. Subject to the discussion below regarding backup withholding, a Non-United States Holder that receives cash for shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger generally will not be subject to United States federal income tax on any gain realized on the disposition, unless (i) such holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 or more days during the taxable year of the Merger and certain other conditions are met, (ii) the gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States by the Non-United States Holder (and, in the case of certain income tax treaties, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base with the United States) or (iii) such holder owned, directly or under certain constructive ownership rules of the Code, more than 5% of the Company Common Stock at any time during the five-year period preceding the Merger, and the Company is or has been a United States real property holding corporation for United States federal income tax purposes at any time during the shorter of the five-year period preceding the Merger or the period that the Non-United States Holder held Company Common Stock. The Company believes it has not been a United States real property holding corporation for United States federal income tax purposes at any time during the five-year period preceding the Merger.

If you are a Non-United States Holder who is an individual and has been present in the United States for 183 or more days during the taxable year of the Merger and certain other conditions are satisfied, you will be subject to a 30% (or a lower treaty rate) tax on your net capital gains.

If you are a Non-United States Holder and your gain is effectively connected with a United States trade or business (and, in the case of certain income tax treaties, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base with the United States), you will be subject to United States federal income tax on your gain on a net basis in the same manner as United States Holders. Non-United States Holders that are corporations may also be subject to a branch profits tax on their effectively connected income at a rate of 30% or such lower rate as may be specified in an applicable income tax treaty, subject to adjustments.

Backup withholding and information reporting may apply to the payment of cash to a Non-United States Holder for Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger unless the holder certifies under penalties of perjury to its Non-United States Holder status or otherwise establishes an exemption. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Amounts so withheld can be credited against such holder's federal income tax liability and may entitle such holder to a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS. To avoid backup withholding, a tendering Non-United States Holder should complete IRS Form W-8BEN or other applicable IRS Form W-8.

Non-United States Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of United States federal income tax laws, including information reporting and backup withholding, to their particular situations.

Regulatory Approvals

Under the Merger Agreement, we and the other parties to the Merger Agreement have agreed to use our respective reasonable best efforts to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement as promptly as practicable, including obtaining all necessary governmental approvals.

Under the HSR Act and related rules, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be completed until notifications have been given and information furnished to the Antitrust Division and the FTC and all statutory waiting period requirements have been satisfied or early termination has been granted by the applicable agencies. On March 7, 2018, both the Company and Buyer filed their respective notification and report forms under the HSR Act and requested early termination of the initial 30-day waiting period under the HSR Act. Early termination was granted on March 16, 2018.

At any time before or after the Effective Time of the Merger, the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take action under the antitrust laws, including seeking to prevent the Merger, to rescind the Merger or to conditionally approve the Merger upon the divestiture of assets of the Company or Buyer or subject to regulatory conditions or other remedies. In addition, U.S. state attorneys general could take action under the antitrust laws as they deem necessary or desirable in the public interest, including, without limitation, seeking to enjoin the completion of the Merger or permitting completion subject to regulatory conditions. Private parties may also seek to take legal action under the antitrust laws under some circumstances. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the Merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if such a challenge is made, that it would not be successful.

This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement carefully and in its entirety. This section is not intended to provide you with factual information about the Company. Such information can be found elsewhere in this information statement and in the public filings the Company makes with the SEC, which may be obtained by following the instructions set forth in the section entitled, Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 84.*

Explanatory Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Buyer or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made by the parties thereto only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement (such disclosures include information that has been included in the Company's public disclosures, as well as additional nonpublic information); may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to you. You should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or Buyer or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Additionally, the representations, warranties, covenants, conditions and other terms of the Merger Agreement may be subject to subsequent waiver or modification. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

Form of Merger

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, and in accordance with the DGCL, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company, whereupon the separate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and the Company will continue its existence under Delaware law as the surviving corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer.

Consummation and Effectiveness of the Merger

The Merger will become effective on such date and at such time as when the certificate of merger has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such date and time as Buyer and the Company agree in writing and specify in the certificate of merger. The closing of the Merger will occur on the date that is the third (3rd) business day after the satisfaction or, to the extent permitted, waiver of all conditions to the consummation of the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement, unless another time, date or place is agreed to in writing by Buyer and the Company.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

Upon consummation of the Merger, each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Dissenting Shares, shares held in treasury or shares owned by

Buyer, Merger Sub or any other subsidiary of Buyer or the Company, will automatically be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, upon the surrender of such shares in accordance with the Merger Agreement.

In addition, upon consummation of the Merger:

each Option, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will automatically be cancelled and will only entitle the holder of such Option to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to the Option multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price of such Option;

each RSU outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, whether vested or unvested, automatically be cancelled and will only entitle the holder thereof to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to the RSU multiplied by (ii) the Merger Consideration;

the holding restrictions applicable to each share of Restricted Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will automatically expire and each such share of Restricted Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Dissenting Shares

Shares of Company Common Stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by any person who has not voted in favor of the Merger or consented thereto in writing and who has properly exercised and perfected appraisal rights for such shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (Dissenting Shares) will not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, but, instead, will be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the DGCL to a holder of Dissenting Shares. If any such holder of Dissenting Shares fails to timely perfect, effectively withdraws or loses such holder's right to appraisal, pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL with respect to such shares, or if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such holder is not entitled to the relief provided by Section 262 of the DGCL, then such shares will immediately cease to be Dissenting Shares and will be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into, and to have become exchangeable solely for, the right to receive the Merger Consideration. The Company will provide Buyer prompt notice of any demands for appraisal, withdrawals of such demand and any other demand, notice or instrument delivered prior to the Effective Time pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL that relate to such demand, and Buyer will have the opportunity and right to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Except with the prior written consent of Buyer, the Company will not make any payment with respect to, settle or offer to settle, or otherwise negotiate any such demands or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Procedures for Receiving Merger Consideration

Promptly after the Effective Time (but in no event later than two (2) business days thereafter or on the closing date of the Merger with respect to any stockholder holding five percent (5%) or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock who has taken the appropriate steps required by the Merger Agreement, Buyer will provide, or will cause a paying agent to provide, to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Common Stock, and each holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time held in book-entry form, (A) transmittal materials and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of shares of Company Common Stock, as applicable, in exchange for Merger Consideration.

Upon surrender of such certificates to the paying agent (or delivery of an affidavit of loss thereof in accordance with the Merger Agreement), together with a duly completed and validly executed letter of transmittal and such other documents as may reasonably be requested by the paying agent, the holder of such certificate will be entitled to receive, in exchange thereof, the amount of cash into which the shares of Company Common Stock theretofore represented by such certificate are converted pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and the surrendered certificate will be immediately canceled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon surrender of such certificates.

If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the surrendered certificate is registered, it will be a condition to such payment that (i) either such certificate be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and (ii) the person requesting such payment will pay to the paying agent any transfer or other tax required as a result of such payment or establish to the satisfaction of the paying agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

Buyer, the surviving corporation, any affiliates of the foregoing, or the paying agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from amounts otherwise payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock, Dissenting Shares, Options, RSUs, or shares of Restricted Stock, such amounts as are required to be deducted and withheld pursuant to any applicable tax laws.

Holders of record of book-entry shares will not be required to deliver a certificate or an executed letter of transmittal to the paying agent to receive the Merger Consideration. In lieu thereof, such holder will, upon receipt by the paying agent of an agent's message in customary form, be entitled to receive as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter), an amount of cash into which such book-entry shares are converted pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and such book-entry shares will be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon surrender or transfer of such book-entry shares.

The Merger Agreement provides that the term Acquisition Transaction means any transaction (including any single- or multi-step transaction) or series of transactions with a person or group (as defined in the Exchange Act) relating to:

acquisition of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the assets of, equity interests in, or business of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, pursuant to a merger, reorganization, recapitalization, consolidation, joint venture or other business combination, sale combination, sale of shares of capital stock, sale of assets, tender offer, exchange offer or otherwise; or any related combination of the foregoing types of transactions if the sum of the percentage of consolidated assets, consolidated revenues or earnings of the Company involved is fifteen percent (15%) or more.

From and after the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, the Company will, and will cause its affiliates and will direct its and their respective representatives to:

immediately cease and cause to be terminated all discussions or negotiations with any person existing on the date of the Merger Agreement with respect to such person making (or evaluating for the purpose of making) any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction;

terminate access by any third party to any physical or electronic data room or other access to data or information of the Company, in each case relating to or in connection with such person making (or evaluating for the purpose of making) any Acquisition Proposal or engaging in a potential Acquisition Transaction request the prompt return or destruction of all information provided to any third party in connection with such third party making (or evaluating for the purpose of making) any Acquisition Proposal or any potential Acquisition Transaction; and enforce, and not waive or modify, the provisions of any existing confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement entered into with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or any potential Acquisition Transaction, including any standstill provisions contained therein.

Superior Proposal

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, if at any time prior to 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on March 24, 2018 the Company receives an unsolicited, written bona fide Acquisition Proposal, the Company has not breached its obligations pursuant to the no-solicitation covenant of the Merger Agreement, and if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel and outside financial advisors, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to or result in, a Superior Proposal (as defined below), then the Company, Board and its representatives may, until the Alternative Transaction End Time engage in negotiations or discussions with and furnish information with respect to the Company and its subsidiaries to the third party making such Acquisition Proposal pursuant to an acceptable confidentiality agreement and provided that all such information has previously been provided to Buyer or is provided to Buyer promptly (and in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours) following it being furnished to such third party. The Company will give Buyer written notice of such determination promptly after the Board makes any such determination described in the previous sentence (and in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours).

With respect to the Company receiving an Acquisition Proposal, the Company will promptly (and in any event within one (1) business day) advise Buyer in writing of:

the receipt of any bona fide Acquisition Proposal, the material terms and conditions of any such Acquisition Proposal, including the identity of the third party making any such Acquisition Proposal, copies of documentation and a written summary of any oral proposals;

Table of Contents

any determination of the Board pursuant to the paragraph above; and any material changes to the terms of any such Acquisition Proposal.

The Merger Agreement provides that the term Alternative Transaction End Time means March 24, 2018 unless prior to such date, the Company has delivered to Buyer a Superior Proposal Notice (as defined below) in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, in which case the Alternative Transaction End Time will be extended solely with respect to the third party making the Superior Proposal set forth in such Superior Proposal Notice, and the Company may continue to engage in the activities with such third party and its representatives that would otherwise be permitted under the Merger Agreement, until the earlier of (x) 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the next calendar day following the three (3) business day period (or two (2) business day period if such Superior Proposal Notice is delivered prior to such time in response to a change in material terms) contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (y) the time of withdrawal or termination of the Superior Proposal set forth in such Superior Proposal Notice.

If, in response to an unsolicited, written bona fide Acquisition Proposal, the Board determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors), that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and the failure to approve such Superior Proposal would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, the Company may terminate the Merger Agreement; provided that the Company has:

provided Buyer three (3) business days prior written notice (the Superior Proposal Notice) advising Buyer that Company intends to take such action and specifying the reasons for such action and the terms and conditions of any such Superior Proposal, including the identity of the third party who has made such Superior Proposal and provided Buyer a copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreement or the latest draft thereof (including any related financing commitments, fee letters and other transaction documents received by the Company) or, if no such agreement, draft commitments, letters or documents exist, a written summary of the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal;

during such (3) business day period, (x) if requested by Buyer, engaged in good faith negotiations with Buyer regarding improvements to the terms of the Merger Agreement or any other proposal intended to cause such Acquisition Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal, (y) considered any adjustments to the Merger Agreement (including a change to the price terms hereof) and any other agreements that may be proposed or other proposals made, in each case to the extent binding, irrevocable and in writing by Buyer (the Proposed Changed Terms) and (z) determined in good faith (after consultation) that the Superior Proposal would continue to constitute a Superior Proposal if such Proposed Changed Terms were given effect and failure to approve such Superior Proposal would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law. If Buyer, within such three (3) business day period, makes Proposed Changed Terms that, as determined in good faith by the Board (after consultation with its outside counsel and financial advisors), results in the applicable Acquisition Proposal no longer being a Superior Proposal, then the Company will have no right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement as a result of such Acquisition Proposal (on such terms), and any (1) revisions to the financial terms or any other material terms of a Superior Proposal or (2) revisions to the financial terms or any other material terms to an Acquisition Proposal that the Board had determined no longer constitutes a Superior Proposal, will constitute a new Acquisition Proposal and will in each case require the Company to deliver to Parent a new Superior Proposal Notice and comply with the applicable terms of the Merger Agreement and a new two (2) business day period (in lieu of a three (3) business day period) will commence thereafter.

prior to or concurrently with such termination pays the Termination Fee; and concurrently with or immediately following such termination, enters into a definitive written acquisition agreement for such Superior Proposal.

The Merger Agreement provides that the term Superior Proposal means any bona fide written Acquisition Proposal, (provided, that for purposes of this definition, the references to at least fifteen percent (15%) in the definition of Acquisition Transaction will be deemed to be references to more than fifty percent (50%)) made by a third party that the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside financial advisors and outside legal counsel, and considering all the relevant terms of the Acquisition Proposal (including the legal, financial and regulatory aspects of such proposal, the identity of the third party making such proposal, whether the financing for such proposal is fully committed and reasonably likely to be obtained and the conditions for completion of such proposal), (i) would, if consummated, result in a transaction that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Stock than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (after giving effect to all Proposed Changed Terms) and (ii) is reasonably expected to be consummated (if accepted).

The Company's rights to engage in negotiations or discussions with third parties and to terminate the Merger Agreement as described above ceased on March 24, 2018 in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Nothing in the Merger Agreement prohibits the Company from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position pursuant to SEC rules with respect to a tender or exchange offer by a third party or any similar disclosure to its stockholders if the Board determines (after consultation with its outside counsel) that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its obligations under applicable law, subject to compliance with the procedures set forth above in connection with a change of recommendation.

Change of Recommendation

The Board and any committee thereof cannot:

withdraw (or qualify or modify in any manner adverse to Buyer), or publicly propose to withdraw (or modify), the Board's recommendation that the stockholders of the Company adopt the Merger Agreement;

Take any action to exempt any person (other than Buyer and its affiliates) from the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL or any other moratorium, control share acquisition, business combination, fair price or other form of anti-takeover law or regulation or provision in the organizational documents of the Company;

fail to recommend, in a Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9, against any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction subject to Regulation 14D under the Exchange Act within ten (10) business days after the commencement of such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction or any material amendment of such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction;

approve, adopt or recommend any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction, or propose publicly to approve, adopt or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction (any action described in the first four bullets is referred to herein as a Change in Recommendation);

approve, adopt or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, adopt or recommend, or allow the Company or any of its subsidiaries to execute or enter into any contract or other agreement, other than an acceptable confidentiality agreement as permitted by the Merger Agreement, with a third party constituting or relating to, or that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to lead to or result in, any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Merger Agreement, at any time prior to the receipt of the Written Consent by the Company, in the event a material development or material change in circumstances (other than relating to an Acquisition Proposal, Acquisition Transaction or Superior Proposal) occurs or arises after the date of the Merger Agreement that was not known and not reasonably foreseeable by the Board as of the date of the Merger Agreement, the Board may make a Change in Recommendation if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, that the Company provided Buyer three (3) business days' prior written notice advising Buyer of its intention to take such action and specifying, in reasonable detail, the reasons for such action and during such three (3) business day period:

if requested by Buyer, the Company engaged in good faith negotiations with Buyer regarding improvements to the terms of the Merger Agreement or any other proposal; and the Company considered any Proposed Changed Terms and determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors) that the failure to make a Change in Recommendation would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Employees

Following the Effective Time and continuing through December 31, 2018, Buyer will or will cause the surviving corporation to provide each of the Company's employees that remain employees of the surviving corporation or any of its subsidiaries with employee benefits (excluding equity-based compensation) that are at least as favorable, in the aggregate, to the employee benefits (excluding equity-based compensation) provided to such employees immediately prior to the Merger. Following the Effective Time and continuing for a period of one year, Buyer will or will cause the surviving corporation to provide each of the Company's employees that remain employees of the surviving corporation or any of its subsidiaries (i) at least the same level of hourly salary or base wages and annual target bonus opportunity as provided to such employee immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) such equity-based compensation and other long-term incentive compensation substantially similar to that provided to similarly situated employees of Buyer and (iii) severance benefits that are no less favorable than the severance benefits provided to similarly situated employees of Buyer.

Buyer will give (or cause the surviving corporation to give) the Company employees full credit for such employees' service with the Company for purposes of eligibility and vesting, but not for purposes of benefit accruals (except for vacation and severance) or for purposes of any plan, program or arrangement (x) under which similarly situated employees of Buyer and its subsidiaries do not receive credit for prior service or (y) that is grandfathered or frozen, either with respect to level of benefits or participation, under any benefit plans made generally available to employees maintained by Buyer or the surviving corporation in which an employee participates to the same extent recognized by the Company immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger, provided, however, that such service will not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits with respect to the same period of service.

With respect to any plan that provides medical, dental or vision insurance benefits, for the plan year in which any Company employee is first eligible to participate following the Effective Time, Buyer will use reasonable best efforts to (A) cause any pre-existing condition limitations or eligibility waiting periods under such plan to be waived with respect to such employee to the extent such limitation would have been waived or satisfied under the Company benefit plan in which such employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (B) credit each employee for an amount equal to any medical, dental or vision expenses incurred by such employee in the year that includes the date of the closing of the Merger (or, if later, the year in which such employee is first eligible to participate in such plan) for purposes of any applicable deductible and annual out-of-pocket expense requirements under any such plan to the extent such expenses would have been credited under the Company benefit plan in which such employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time. Such credited expenses will also count toward any annual or lifetime limits, treatment or visit limits or similar limitations that apply under the terms of the applicable plan.

The foregoing insurance requirement will be deemed satisfied if prepaid tail or runoff policies are obtained by the Company prior to the Effective Time or by the surviving corporation at, or after, the Effective Time, which policies provide each such person currently covered by the Company's officers and directors liability insurance policy with coverage and amount no less favorable in any material respect than those of such policy in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement for an aggregate period of six (6) years with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the Effective Time, including, in respect of the transactions contemplated thereby, provided that the surviving corporation does not pay more than 300% of the annual premiums as described above. Financing Covenant; Company Cooperation

Buyer will use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to arrange and obtain the debt financing pursuant to the Commitment Letter (the Bridge Financing), or the Permanent Financing in lieu thereof on the terms and conditions described in the Commitment Letter, including using reasonable best efforts to enforce its rights and exercise any remedies under the Commitment Letter. Buyer will keep the Company reasonably informed on a timely basis of the status of its efforts to obtain the Bridge Financing or Permanent Financing and will give the Company prompt notice of any fact, change, event or circumstance that is reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse impact on any portion of the Bridge Financing or Permanent Financing necessary for the satisfaction of all of Buyer's obligations under the Merger Agreement.

Buyer has also agreed not to permit certain amendments, replacements, modifications, assignments, terminations, waivers, reductions or substitutions under the Commitment Letter without the Company's prior written consent. In addition, if any portion of the Bridge Financing becomes unavailable, other than as a result of the availability of proceeds from the Permanent Financing, Buyer will (i) give the Company prompt written notice when it becomes aware of such event and (ii) use reasonable best efforts to arrange alternative financing, including from alternative sources, in an amount sufficient to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, provided that Buyer is not obligated to obtain alternative financing on terms and conditions materially less favorable to Buyer notify each other, in writing, of certain events, including or any notice or other communication (i) received from any person alleging that the consent, approval, permission of or waiver from such party is or may be required in connection with the Merger or (ii) received from any governmental entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, if the subject matter of such communications would reasonably be expected to be material to the Company, the surviving corporation or Buyer.

In addition, the Company will:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any such access will be conducted in such a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the business or operations of the Company or its subsidiaries;

as promptly as reasonably practicable (and in any event within one (1) business day) notify Buyer in writing of, and will keep Buyer reasonably apprised with respect to any, stockholder litigation. The Company will consult with Buyer in connection therewith and will not agree to any full or partial settlement of any stockholder litigation without the prior written consent of Buyer (not to be unreasonably conditioned, withheld or delayed); and

the representations and warranties of Buyer and Merger Sub are true and correct except where such failure to be true and correct would not, individually or in the aggregate, prevent or have a material adverse effect on the ability of Buyer or Merger Sub to consummate the Merger;

Buyer and Merger Sub have performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by it under the Merger Agreement at or prior to the consummation of the Merger;

the receipt by the Company of a certificate signed by an executive officer of Buyer on behalf of Buyer stating that each of the conditions specified above has been satisfied.

The failure of any party to the Merger Agreement to exercise any of its rights, powers or privileges under the Merger Agreement will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise of such rights, powers or privileges under the Merger Agreement preclude any other or further exercise thereof. Table of ContentsSUPPORT AGREEMENT

The summary of the material provisions of the Support Agreements (as defined below) set forth below and elsewhere in this information statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Support Agreements, the form of which is attached to this information statement as Annex E and which is incorporated by reference in this information statement. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the Support Agreements and not by this discussion, which is summary by nature. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the Support Agreement that is important to you. We encourage you to read the form of Support Agreement carefully in its entirety, as well as this information statement and any documents incorporated herein by reference.

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, each of the Majority Stockholders, who collectively are the record owners of 101,294,224 shares of Company Common Stock (which excludes shares of Company Common Stock held by such Majority Stockholder in street name) entitled to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement, entered into a support agreement with Buyer (each, a Support Agreement). Each Support Agreement provides that immediately following the execution of the Support Agreement and the Merger Agreement, the Majority Stockholders are required to execute and deliver to the Company (with a copy to Buyer) the Written Consent. Following the execution of the Merger Agreement, on February 22, 2018, the Majority Stockholders, collectively owning approximately 51.8% of the shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding on such date, executed and delivered the Written Consent.

The Support Agreement further provides that, during the term of the Support Agreement, each Majority Stockholder must, among other things, vote (or deliver a duly executed written consent with respect thereto) all of the shares of Company Common Stock such Majority Stockholder is entitled to vote (or deliver a duly executed written consent with respect thereto) (i) in favor of adopting the Merger Agreement, (ii) against any Acquisition Proposal, without regard to the terms of such Acquisition Proposal, or any other proposal, agreement or action made in opposition to the adoption of the Merger Agreement, (iii) against any action that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach by the Company of the Merger Agreement or any of the conditions to closing set forth there in not being satisfied, (iv) against any action that would change the capitalization of the Company, except as expressly contemplated by the Merger Agreement or consented to in writing by Buyer and (v) against any other action that is intended or could prevent, impede or, in any material respect, interfere with or delay the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Each Majority Stockholder has also agreed to waive and not exercise any appraisal or right to dissent from the merger that it may have under applicable law. While the Support Agreement remains in effect, each Majority Stockholder is prohibited from transferring any shares of Company Common Stock beneficially owned by such Majority Stockholder (excluding shares of Company Common Stock or options, warrants and other rights to purchase shares of voting capital stock or other voting equity interests of the Company or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for such shares or equity interests held by such Majority Stockholder in street name), subject to certain exceptions. Each Majority Stockholder has also agreed that it will not, and that such Majority Stockholder will cause its affiliates and representatives not to, directly or indirectly (i) initiate, solicit, or knowingly encourage, or knowingly facilitate the submission or making of, any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) other than informing third parties of the existence of the non-solicitation provision in the Support Agreement, participate or engage in negotiations or discussions, or furnish any information concerning the Company or any of its subsidiaries to, any third party relating to any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction, (iii) enter into any contract or other agreement for any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction, (iv) enter into any contract or other agreement to reimburse any third party for costs, expenses or other liabilities incurred in connection with making (or evaluating for the purpose of making) a potential Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction or (v) enter into any agreement that would prevent such Majority

Stockholder from complying with any provision of this covenant. Each Majority Stockholder has agreed to promptly (and in any event within one (1) business day following receipt) advise Buyer in writing in the event that prior to the Alternative Transaction End Time, such stockholder or, if applicable, its affiliates or representatives, receives any bona fide Acquisition Proposal, and in connection with such notice, provide to Buyer the material terms and conditions (including the identity of the third party making any such Acquisition Proposal, copies of any documentation and a written summary of any oral proposals) of any such Acquisition Proposal; provided that such Majority Stockholder's obligation pursuant to this sentence will be satisfied if the Company provides a notification with respect to such Acquisition Proposal pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Each Support Agreement will terminate automatically upon the earliest of (i) the Effective Time, (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms and (iii) any amendment to the Merger Agreement effected without the consent of such Majority Stockholder that is adverse to such Majority Stockholder.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

The discussion of the provisions set forth below is not a complete summary regarding your appraisal rights under Delaware law and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 262 of the DGCL which is attached to this information statement as Annex D. Stockholders intending to exercise appraisal rights should carefully review Annex D in its entirety. Failure to follow precisely any of the statutory procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will result in a loss of these rights.

Under the DGCL, holders of shares of Company Common Stock who did not consent to the adoption of the Merger Agreement, who submit a demand for appraisal rights and who otherwise follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will be entitled to have their shares appraised by the Delaware Court of Chancery and to receive payment in cash of the fair value of those shares, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be fair value, but exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger. To exercise and perfect appraisal rights, a record holder of shares of Company Common Stock must follow precisely the statutory procedures required to be followed by a stockholder to perfect appraisal rights by Section 262 of the DGCL.

Section 262 of the DGCL is reprinted in its entirety as Annex D to this information statement. Set forth below is a summary description of Section 262 of the DGCL. The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of statutory procedures required to be followed by a stockholder to perfect appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 262 of the DGCL, which is attached to this information statement as Annex D. All references in Section 262 and this summary to stockholder are to the record holder of the shares of Company Common Stock as to which appraisal rights are asserted. Failure to comply strictly with the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will result in the loss of appraisal rights.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, where a merger is adopted by stockholders acting by written consent in lieu of a meeting of the stockholders, then either the corporation, before the effective time of the merger or the surviving corporation within ten (10) days thereafter, shall notify each of its stockholders who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such stock of the corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive the notice required under Section 262 of the DGCL, each constituent corporation may fix in advance, a record date that shall not be more than ten (10) days prior to the date notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed in advance and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given. This information statement constitutes such notice to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock and Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to this information statement as Annex D. Any stockholder who wishes to exercise such appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve his, her or its right to do so should review the following discussion and Annex D carefully, because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the loss of appraisal rights under the DGCL.

Holders of shares of Company Common Stock who desire to exercise their appraisal rights must deliver to the Company a written demand for appraisal of their shares of Company Common Stock no later than twenty (20) days after the date of mailing of this Notice of Written Consent and Appraisal Rights and Information Statement, or April 19, 2018. A demand for appraisal will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the Company of the identity of the stockholder and that such stockholder intends thereby to demand appraisal of such stockholder's shares of Company Common Stock in connection with the Merger. If you wish to exercise your appraisal rights you must be the record holder of such shares of Company Common Stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made and you must continue to hold such shares of Company Common Stock through the Effective Time. Accordingly, a stockholder who is the record holder of shares of Company Common Stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made, but who thereafter transfers such shares prior to the Effective Time, will lose any right to appraisal in respect of such shares.

All written demands for appraisal of shares of Company Common Stock must be mailed or delivered to: Blue Buffalo Pet Products, Inc., 11 River Road, Wilton, Connecticut 06897, Attention: General Counsel. Only a holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock is entitled to demand an appraisal of the shares registered in that holder's name. Accordingly, to be effective, a demand for appraisal by a stockholder of shares of Company Common Stock (a) must be made by, or in the name of, the record stockholder, fully and correctly, as the stockholder's name appears on the stockholder's stock certificate(s) or in the transfer agent's records, in the case of uncertificated shares, (b) should specify the stockholder's mailing address and the number of shares registered in the stockholder's name, and (c) must state that the person intends thereby to demand appraisal of the stockholder's shares in connection with the Merger. The demand cannot be made by the beneficial owner if he or she is not the record holder of the shares of Company Common Stock. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the registered owner, such as a bank, brokerage firm, trust or other nominee, submit the required demand in respect of those shares of Company Common Stock. If you hold your shares of Company Common Stock through a bank, brokerage firm, trust or other nominee and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you should consult with your bank, brokerage firm, trust or the other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by the bank, brokerage firm, trust or the other nominee. A person having a beneficial interest in shares held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker, bank, trust or other nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow properly and in a timely manner the steps necessary to perfect appraisal rights in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL.

If shares of Company Common Stock are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of a demand for appraisal should be made by the fiduciary in that capacity. If the shares of Company Common Stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an authorized agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent for the record owner. A record owner, such as a bank, brokerage firm, trust or other nominee, who holds shares of Company Common Stock as a nominee for others, may exercise his or her right of appraisal with respect to the shares of Company Common Stock held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares of Company Common Stock as to which appraisal is sought. If you hold shares of Company Common Stock through a broker who in turn holds the shares through a central securities depository nominee, such as Cede & Co., a demand for appraisal of such shares of Company Common Stock must be made by or on behalf of the depository nominee and must identify the depository nominee as record holder. Where no number of shares of Company Common Stock is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of Company Common Stock held in the name of the record owner.

Within ten (10) days after the Effective Time, the surviving corporation in the Merger must give written notice that the Merger has become effective to each of the Company's stockholders; provided that if such notice is sent more than twenty (20) days following the sending of this notice, such notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded an appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL. At any time within sixty (60) days after the Effective Time, any stockholder who has demanded an appraisal, but has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined a proceeding as a named party may withdraw the demand and accept the Merger Consideration for that stockholder's shares of Company Common Stock by delivering to the surviving corporation a written withdrawal of the demand for appraisal. Any such attempt to withdraw the demand and accept the Merger Consideration made more than sixty (60) days after the Effective Time will require written approval of the surviving corporation. Unless the demand is properly withdrawn by the stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party within sixty (60) days after the Effective Time, no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, with such approval conditioned upon such terms as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just. If the surviving corporation does not approve a request to withdraw a demand for appraisal when that approval is required, or, except with respect to any stockholder who withdraws such stockholder's right to appraisal in accordance with the proviso in the immediately preceding sentence, if the Delaware Court of Chancery does not approve the dismissal of an appraisal proceeding, the stockholder will be entitled to receive only the appraised value of such stockholder's shares as determined in any such appraisal proceeding, which value could be less than, equal to or more than the Merger Consideration.

Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the Effective Time, but not thereafter, either the surviving corporation or any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL and is entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of Company Common Stock held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal. Upon the filing of the petition by a stockholder, service of a copy of such petition shall be made upon the surviving corporation. The surviving corporation has no obligation to file such a petition, has no present intention to file a petition and holders of shares of Company Common Stock should not assume that the surviving corporation will file a petition.

Accordingly, it is the obligation of the holders of shares of Company Common Stock to initiate all necessary action to perfect their appraisal rights in respect of shares of Company Common Stock within the time prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL and the failure of a stockholder to file such a petition within the period specified in Section 262 of the DGCL will result in a loss of such stockholder's appraisal rights. In addition, within one hundred twenty (120) days after the Effective Time, any stockholder who has properly complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL will be entitled to receive from the surviving corporation, upon written request, a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock not voted in favor of the Merger Agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. The statement must be mailed within ten (10) days after such written request has been received by the surviving corporation or within ten (10) days after the expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal, whichever is later. A person who is the beneficial owner of shares of Company Common Stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition for appraisal or request from the surviving corporation such statement.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a stockholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving corporation, then the surviving corporation will be obligated, within twenty (20) days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares of Company Common Stock and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares of Company Common Stock have not been reached by the surviving corporation. After notice to stockholders who have demanded appraisal, if such notice is ordered by the Delaware Court of Chancery, the Delaware Court of Chancery is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition and to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 of the DGCL and who have become entitled to the appraisal rights provided by Section 262 of the DGCL. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require stockholders who hold stock represented by certificates and who have demanded payment for their shares of Company Common Stock to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings, and if any stockholder fails to comply with that direction, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder. In addition, the Delaware Court of Chancery will dismiss the proceedings as to all holders of such shares who are otherwise entitled to appraisal rights unless (1) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock entitled to appraisal exceeds 1% of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock, or (2) the value of the consideration provided in the Merger for such total number of shares of Company Common Stock exceeds $1 million.

Upon application by the surviving corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Delaware Court of Chancery may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. After determination of the stockholders entitled to appraisal of their shares of Company Common Stock, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Delaware Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Delaware Court of Chancery will determine the fair value of the shares of Company Common Stock, as of the Effective Time after taking into account all relevant factors exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. When the fair value has been determined, the Delaware Court of Chancery will direct the payment of such value upon surrender of the certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock, in the case of holders of shares of Company Common Stock represented by certificates, and forthwith, in the case of holders of book-entry shares. Unless the Delaware Court of Chancery in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the Effective Time through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the Effective Time and the date of payment of the judgment. At any time before the entry of judgment in the proceedings, the surviving corporation may pay to each holder of shares of Company Common Stock entitled to appraisal an amount in cash, in which case interest shall accrue thereafter only upon the sum of (a) the difference, if any, between the amount so paid and the fair value of the shares of Company Common Stock as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and (b) interest theretofore accrued, unless paid at that time.

You should be aware that an investment banking opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received in a sale transaction, such as the Merger, is not an opinion as to fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL. Although we believe that the Merger Consideration is fair, no representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and stockholders should recognize that such an appraisal could result in a determination of a value higher or lower than, or the same as, the Merger Consideration. Moreover, we do not anticipate offering more than the Merger Consideration to any stockholder exercising appraisal rights and reserve the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that, for purposes of Section 262 of the DGCL, the fair value of a share of Company Common Stock is less than the Merger Consideration. In determining fair value, the Court is required to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered and that [f]air price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that in making this determination of fair value, the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts which were known or which could be ascertained as of the date of the Merger which throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 of the DGCL provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court also stated that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the Merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered. In addition, the Delaware courts have decided that the statutory appraisal remedy, depending on factual circumstances, may or may not be a dissenting stockholder's exclusive remedy.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding (which do not include attorneys' fees or the fees and expenses of experts) may be determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and imposed upon the parties participating in the appraisal proceeding by the Delaware Court of Chancery, as it deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon the application of a stockholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts used in the appraisal proceeding, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of Company Common Stock entitled to appraisal. Any stockholder who demanded appraisal rights will not, after the Effective Time, be entitled to vote shares of Company Common Stock subject to that demand for any purpose or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to those shares of Company Common Stock, other than with respect to payment as of a record date prior to the Effective Time. If no petition for appraisal is filed within one hundred twenty (120) days after the Effective Time, or if the stockholder otherwise fails to perfect, successfully withdraws or loses such holder's right to appraisal, then the right of that stockholder to appraisal will cease and that stockholder's shares of Company Common Stock will be deemed to have been converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest thereon. A stockholder will fail to perfect, or effectively lose, the right to appraisal if no petition for appraisal is filed within one hundred twenty (120) days after the Effective Time. In addition, as indicated above, a stockholder may withdraw his, her or its demand for appraisal in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL at any time within sixty (60) days after the Effective Time (or thereafter with the written approval of the Company) and accept the Merger Consideration offered pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Once a petition for appraisal has been filed with the Delaware Court of Chancery, however, the appraisal proceeding may not be dismissed as to any stockholder of the Company without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just; provided, that such restriction shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined the appraisal proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the Merger Consideration within sixty (60) days after the Effective Time. Failure to comply strictly with all of the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will result in the loss of a stockholder's statutory appraisal rights.

In view of the complexity of Section 262 of the DGCL, the Company's stockholders who may wish to pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal and financial advisors.

Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint a paying agent reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Paying Agent) and shall enter into an agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Company for payment of the Merger Consideration to record holders of Shares immediately prior to the Effective Time. Concurrently with the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the Paying Agent the aggregate Merger Consideration to be paid in respect of the Shares pursuant to Section 2.06(a) (the Payment Fund).

(b) Transmittal Materials. Promptly after the Effective Time (but in no event later than two (2) Business Days after the Effective Time or on the Closing Date with respect to any stockholder holding five percent (5%) or more of the Shares who has taken the steps required by Section 2.07(c) in advance of the Closing), Parent shall send or otherwise provide, or shall cause the Paying Agent to send or otherwise provide, to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding Shares, if any (Certificates), and each holder of record of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time held in book-entry form (Book-Entry Shares), (A) transmittal materials, including a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that the delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title shall pass, only upon proper delivery or transfer of the Certificates to the Paying Agent) or, with respect to Book-Entry Shares, only upon delivery of an agent s message regarding the book-entry transfer of Book-Entry Shares and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, as applicable, in exchange for Merger Consideration.

(c) Surrender of Certificates. Upon surrender of Certificates to the Paying Agent (or delivery of an affidavit of loss thereof in accordance with Section 2.13) together with a duly completed and validly executed letter of transmittal and such other documents as may reasonably be requested by the Paying Agent, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange thereof, and the Surviving Corporation or Parent shall cause the Paying Agent to pay and deliver as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter, the amount of cash into which the Shares theretofore represented by such Certificate are converted pursuant to Section 2.06(a) (after giving effect to any required Tax withholdings as provided in Section 2.11), and the Certificates so surrendered shall immediately be cancelled. Until so surrendered or transferred, each Share and each such Certificate shall represent after the Effective Time for all purposes only the right to receive such Merger Consideration and no other rights or interests whatsoever. No interest shall be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon the surrender or transfer of such Certificate.

(d) Book-Entry Shares. No holder of record of Book-Entry Shares shall be required to deliver a Certificate or an executed letter of transmittal to the Paying Agent to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of such Book-Entry Shares. In lieu thereof, such holder of record of Book-Entry Shares shall, upon receipt by the Paying Agent of an agent s message in customary form (or such other evidence, if any, as the Paying Agent may reasonably request), be entitled to receive, and the Surviving Corporation or Parent shall cause the Paying Agent to pay and deliver as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter, an amount cash into which such Book-Entry Shares are converted pursuant to Section 2.06(a) (after giving effect to any required Tax withholdings as provide in Section 2.11) and such Book-Entry Shares so surrendered shall be canceled. No interest shall be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon the surrender or transfer of such Book-Entry Shares.

(e) Unregistered Transferees. If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name the surrendered Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition to such payment that (i) either such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or shall otherwise be in proper form for transfer and (ii) the Person requesting such payment shall pay to the Paying Agent any transfer or other Tax required as a result of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of the Paying Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

formerly represented by such Certificates and from and after the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers of Shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time on the stock transfer books of the Company. If, after the Effective Time, any Certificate is presented to the Surviving Corporation or Parent for transfer representing Shares that have been converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.06(a), they shall be cancelled and exchanged in accordance with this Article 2.

(g) Termination of the Payment Fund. Any portion of the Payment Fund that remains unclaimed by the holders of Shares twelve (12) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Surviving Corporation, upon demand, and any such holder who has not exchanged Shares for the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 2.06 and this Section 2.07 prior to that time shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation as a general creditor thereof for payment of the Merger Consideration.

Section 2.08 Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding Section 2.06 or any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by any Person who has not voted in favor of the Merger or consented thereto in writing and who has properly exercised and perfected appraisal rights for such Shares in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (Dissenting Shares) shall not be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration but instead shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the DGCL to a holder of Dissenting Shares; provided, however, that if such holder fails to timely perfect, effectively withdraws or loses such holder's right to appraisal, pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL with respect to such Shares, or if a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that such holder is not entitled to the relief provided by Section 262 of the DGCL, such Shares shall immediately cease to be Dissenting Shares and shall be treated as if they had been Shares converted as of the Effective Time into, and to have become exchangeable solely for, the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 2.06(a) (less any payments made by the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Shares in accordance with Section 262(h) of the DGCL) without interest thereon, upon surrender of such Certificate formerly representing such Share in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.07. The Company shall provide Parent prompt written notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisal of Shares, any withdrawal of any such demand and any other demand, notice or instrument delivered to the Company prior to the Effective Time pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL that relate to such demand, and Parent shall have the opportunity and right to participate in all negotiations and Proceedings with respect to such demands. Except with the prior written consent of Parent, the Company shall not make any payment with respect to, or offer to settle or settle, otherwise negotiate any such demands or agree to do any of the foregoing.

(a) Treatment of Company Stock Options. At the Effective Time, each Company Stock Option, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall automatically and without any required action on the part of the holder thereof, be cancelled and shall only entitle the holder of such Company Stock Option to receive (without interest) an amount in cash equal to the product of (x) the total number of Shares subject to the Company Stock Option multiplied by (y) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the per-share exercise price of such Company Stock Option, less applicable Taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment; provided that any such Company Stock Option with respect to which the per-share exercise price subject thereto is equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration shall be canceled in exchange for no consideration. The Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, pay to the holders of Company Stock Options the cash payments described in this Section 2.09(a) through its payroll provider on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date, but in any event no later than the first regularly scheduled payroll date for the Company following the Closing Date. From and after the Effective Time, no Company Stock Option shall be exercisable, and each Company Stock Option shall only entitle the holder thereof to the payment (if any) provided for in this Section 2.09(a).

(b) Treatment of Company RSUs. At the Effective Time, each Company RSU outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, whether vested or unvested, automatically and without any required action on the part of the holder thereof, be cancelled and shall only entitle the holder of such Company RSU to receive (without interest) an amount in cash equal to the product of (x) the total number of Shares subject to the Company RSU multiplied by (y) the Merger Consideration, less applicable Taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. The Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, pay to the holders of Company RSUs the cash payments described in this Section 2.09(b) through its payroll provider (or other appropriate means for each holder who is a non-employee director) on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date, but in any event no later than the first regularly scheduled payroll date for the Company following the Closing Date.

(c) Treatment of Company Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the holding restrictions applicable to each share of Company Restricted Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, automatically and without any required action on part of the holder thereof, expire and each such share of Company Restricted Stock shall be treated in accordance with Section 2.06(a).

(d) Corporate Actions. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take any actions which are necessary to effectuate the provisions of Section 2.09(a), Section 2.09(b) and Section 2.09(c), it being understood and agreed that from and after the Effective Time, no Company Stock Award holder shall have any right with respect to any Company Stock Award other than to receive the payment (if any) provided for in this Section 2.09. No later than the Effective Time, Parent shall provide to the Surviving Corporation all funds necessary to fulfill the obligations under this Section 2.09.

Section 2.10 Adjustments. If, during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company shall occur, including by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split (including reverse stock split) or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend, all references herein to specified numbers of shares affected thereby, and any calculations that are based upon such numbers of shares affected thereby, including the Merger Consideration and any other amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement, shall be appropriately adjusted. Nothing in this Section 2.10 shall be construed as permitting the Company to take any action that is otherwise prohibited by this Agreement.

Section 2.11 Withholding Rights. Each of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the Surviving Corporation and the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any Person pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as may be required to be deducted and withheld from such payment under any provision of any applicable Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld by Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, made such deduction and withholding.

Section 2.12 No Liability. None of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any cash from the Payment Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to and in accordance with any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Applicable Law. If any Certificate shall not have been surrendered immediately prior to such date on which any amounts payable pursuant to this Article 2 would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity, any such amounts shall, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation, free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

Section 2.13 Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by the Paying Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such customary amount as the Paying Agent may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will

Initial Alternative Transaction End Time means 11:59 P.M. Eastern Time on March 24, 2018 and Alternative Transaction End Time means the Initial Alternative Transaction End Time unless prior to the Initial Alternative Transaction End Time the Company has delivered to Parent a Superior Proposal Notice in accordance with Section 6.04(e), in which case the Alternative Transaction End Time shall be extended solely with respect to the Third Party making the Superior Proposal set forth in such Superior Proposal Notice (and not any other Third Party), and the Company may continue to engage in the activities with such Third Party and its Representatives that would otherwise be permitted under this Section 6.04(b), until the earlier of (x) 11:59 P.M. Acquisition Transaction subject to Regulation 14D under the Exchange Act within ten (10) Business Days after the commencement of such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction or any material amendment of such Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction or (D) approve, adopt or recommend any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction, or propose publicly to approve, adopt or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction (any action described in this clause (i) is referred to herein as a Change in Recommendation) or (ii) approve, adopt or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, adopt or recommend, or allow the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to execute or enter into any Contract or other agreement (binding or non-binding, preliminary or definitive), other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement as permitted by Section 6.04(b), with a Third Party constituting or relating to, or that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to lead to or result in, any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction (any such document, agreement or arrangement, an Alternative Acquisition Agreement). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, at any time prior to the receipt of the Stockholder Written Consent by the Company, in the event a material development or material change in circumstances (other than relating to an Acquisition Proposal, Acquisition Transaction or Superior Proposal) occurs or arises after the date of this Agreement that was not known and not reasonably foreseeable by the Company Board as of the date of this Agreement, the Company Board may make a Change in Recommendation if and only if the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel and outside financial advisors, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Company Board's fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company under Applicable Law; provided, that the Company shall have provided Parent three (3) Business Days' prior written notice advising Parent that it intends to take such action and specifying, in reasonable detail, the reasons for such action and:

(i) during such three (3) Business Day period, if requested by Parent, the Company shall have engaged in good faith negotiations with Parent (and the Company shall have caused its Affiliates and its and their directors, officers and employees and directed and otherwise used its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their other Representatives, including its outside legal counsel and outside financial advisors, to have engaged in good faith negotiations with Parent and its Representatives) regarding improvements to the terms of this Agreement or any other proposal; and

(ii) the Company shall have considered any adjustments to this Agreement (including a change to the price terms hereof) and any other agreements that may be proposed or other proposals made, in each case to the extent binding, irrevocable and in writing by Parent (the Proposed Changed Terms) no later than 11:59 p.m., Eastern time, on the third (3rd) Business Day of such three (3) Business Day period and shall have determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and outside financial advisors) that the failure to make a Change in Recommendation would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Company Board's fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company under Applicable Law.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, at any time prior to the Alternative Transaction End Time, if, in response to an unsolicited, written bona fide Acquisition Proposal made after the date of this Agreement that did not result from a material breach of this Section 6.04, the Company Board determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and outside financial advisors) that (i) such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and (ii) the failure to approve such Superior Proposal would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Company Board's fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company under Applicable Law, the Company may terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.01(d)(i) and this Section 6.04(d) (and concurrently therewith take the actions described in clauses (i) and (ii) of the first sentence of Section 6.04(c)); provided, however, that the Company shall not terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01(d)(i) and this Section 6.04(d) unless the Company (x) has first complied with Section 6.04(e), (y) pays, or causes to be paid, to Parent the Company Termination Fee payable pursuant to Section 8.03(a)(ii) prior to or concurrently with such termination and (z) concurrently with or immediately following such termination, enters into a definitive written acquisition agreement for such Superior Proposal.

have provided to Parent three (3) Business Days prior written notice (the Superior Proposal Notice) advising Parent that the Company intends to take such action (and specifying, in reasonable detail, the reasons for such action and the terms and conditions of any such Superior Proposal, including the identity of the Third Party who has made such Superior Proposal) and provided Parent a copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreement or the latest draft thereof (including any related financing commitments, fee letters and other transaction documents received by the Company) or, if no such agreement, draft commitments, letters or documents exist, a written summary of the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and (y):

(i) during such three (3) Business Day period, if requested by Parent, the Company shall have engaged in good faith negotiations with Parent (and the Company shall have caused its Affiliates and its and their directors, officers and employees and directed its and their other Representatives, including its outside legal counsel and outside financial advisor, to have engaged in good faith negotiations with Parent and its Representatives) regarding improvements to the terms of this Agreement or any other proposal intended to cause such Acquisition Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal; and

(ii) the Company shall have considered any Proposed Changed Terms proposed by Parent no later than 11:59 p.m., Eastern time, on the third (3rd) Business Day of such three (3) Business Day period and shall have determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and outside financial advisors) that (x) the Superior Proposal would continue to constitute a Superior Proposal if such Proposed Changed Terms were to be given effect and (y) the failure to approve such Superior Proposal would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Company Board's fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company under Applicable Law.

The parties acknowledge and agree that, (A) if Parent, within three (3) Business Days following its receipt of a Superior Proposal Notice, makes Proposed Changed Terms that, as determined in good faith by the Company Board (after consultation with its outside counsel and outside financial advisors), results in the applicable Acquisition Proposal no longer being a Superior Proposal, then the Company shall have no right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.04(d) and Section 8.01(d)(i) as a result of such Acquisition Proposal (on such terms), and (B) any (1) revisions to the financial terms or any other material terms of a Superior Proposal or (2) revisions to the financial terms or any other material terms to an Acquisition Proposal that the Company Board had determined no longer constitutes a Superior Proposal, shall constitute a new Acquisition Proposal and shall in each case require the Company to deliver to Parent a new Superior Proposal Notice and comply with this Section 6.04(e) and a new two (2) Business Day period (in lieu of a three (3) Business Day period) shall commence thereafter.

(f) From and after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Company shall promptly (and in any event within one (1) Business Day following the time of receipt) advise Parent in writing in the event that (i) it or any of its Subsidiaries, any of its or its Subsidiaries' officers, directors or employees or, to the Company's Knowledge, any of its or its Subsidiaries' Representatives receives any bona fide Acquisition Proposal, and in connection with such notice, provide to Parent the material terms and conditions (including the identity of the Third Party making any such Acquisition Proposal, copies of any documentation and a written summary of any oral proposals) of any such Acquisition Proposal, (ii) any determination by the Company Board pursuant to Section 6.04(b) or (iii) any material changes to the terms of any such Acquisition Proposal, including copies of any amended or revised documentation with respect to such material changes.

(g) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company or the Company Board, directly or indirectly through their respective Representatives, from (i) taking and disclosing any position or disclosing any information reasonably required under Rule 14d-9, Rule 14e-2(a) or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A promulgated under the Exchange Act, (ii) making any "stop, look and listen" communication to the stockholders of the Company pursuant to Rule 14d-9(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act or (iii) making any disclosure to stockholders with regard to the

If any moratorium, control share acquisition, business combination, fair price or other form of anti-takeover law or regulation becomes or is deemed to be applicable to the Company, Parent, Merger Sub, the Merger or any other transactions contemplated hereby, then each of the Company, Parent, Merger Sub, and their respective Boards of Directors shall grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that the Merger may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise act to render such anti-takeover Applicable Law inapplicable to the foregoing.

Section 6.08 Stock Exchange Delisting: Director Resignations. Prior to the Closing Date, the parties shall cooperate and use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on its part under Applicable Law and rules and policies of Nasdaq to enable the delisting by the Surviving Corporation of the Shares from Nasdaq and the deregistration of the Shares under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time (if such delisting and deregistration will not have already occurred at or prior to the Effective Time).

Section 6.09 Director and Officer Liability.

(a) For six (6) years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall maintain officers and directors liability insurance in respect of acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time covering each such Person currently covered by the Company's officers and directors liability insurance policy on terms with respect to coverage and amount no less favorable in any material respect than those of such policy in effect on the date of this Agreement; provided, however, that in satisfying its obligation under this Section 6.09(a), the Surviving Corporation shall not be obligated to pay aggregate premiums in excess of 300% of the amount the Company paid in its last full fiscal year prior to the date of this Agreement (the Current Premium) and, if such aggregate premiums for such insurance would exceed 300% of the Current Premium, then the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance that, in the Surviving Corporation's good faith judgment, provide the maximum coverage available for an aggregate premium equal to 300% of the Current Premium. The provisions of the immediately preceding sentence shall be deemed to have been satisfied if prepaid tail or runoff policies have been obtained by the Company prior to the Effective Time or by the Surviving Corporation at or after the Effective Time, which policies provide each such Person currently covered by the Company's officers and directors liability insurance policy with coverage and amount no less favorable in any material respect than those of such policy in effect on the date of this Agreement for an aggregate period of six (6) years with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the Effective Time, including, in respect of the transactions contemplated hereby, provided, however, that the amount paid for such prepaid policies shall not exceed 300% of the Current Premium without the prior written consent of Parent. If such prepaid policies have been obtained prior to the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall maintain such policies in full force and effect for their full term and continue to honor the obligations thereunder. If requested by Parent, the Company shall cooperate with Parent to obtain such tail or runoff policies as of the Effective Time.

(b) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of the Company and its Subsidiaries pursuant to (i) each indemnification agreement in effect as of the date of this Agreement between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and any individual who at the Effective Time is, or at any time prior to the Effective Time was, a director or officer of the Company or of any of the Company's Subsidiaries (each, an Indemnified Party) and (ii) any indemnification provision and any exculpation provision set forth in the certificate of incorporation, as amended, or bylaws of the Company as in effect on the date of this Agreement.

(c) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Party, against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, liabilities or awards paid in settlement incurred in connection with any actual or threatened

Proceeding, arising out of, relating to or in connection with matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time by virtue of the fact that such Person is or was a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time, to the fullest extent that the Company would have been permitted under Delaware Law and its Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws in effect on the date of this Agreement to indemnify such Person (and the Surviving Corporation shall advance expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) incurred in the defense of any such Proceeding, including any expenses incurred in successfully enforcing such Person's rights under this Section 6.09; provided that the Person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Person is not entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Section 6.09 or Applicable Law). In the event of any such Proceeding (x) neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation shall settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any Proceeding in which indemnification has been sought by such Indemnified Party hereunder, unless such settlement, compromise or consent includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability arising out of such Proceeding or such Indemnified Party otherwise consents (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), (y) the Surviving Corporation shall reasonably cooperate with the Indemnified Party in the defense of any such matter and (z) the Indemnified Party shall not settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any Proceeding in which indemnification has been sought by such Indemnified Party hereunder without the prior written consent of Parent or the Surviving Corporation (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld). In the event any Proceeding is brought against any Indemnified Party and in which indemnification or advancement is sought by such Indemnified Party under this Section 6.09, the Surviving Corporation shall have the right to control the defense thereof after the Effective Time. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 6.09, upon learning of any such Proceeding, shall promptly notify Parent thereof.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.09 are (i) intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party, his or her heirs and his or her representatives and (ii) in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such individual may have under the articles of organization or bylaws, by Contract or otherwise.

Section 6.10 Efforts.

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein the Company and Parent shall each use their reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things reasonably necessary under Applicable Law to consummate the Merger, including (i) the obtaining of all necessary actions, waivers, consents and approvals from Governmental Entities, the expiry or early termination of any applicable waiting periods, and the making of all necessary registrations and filings (including filings with Governmental Entities, if any) and the taking of all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or Proceeding by, any Governmental Entities, (ii) the delivery of required notices to, and the obtaining of required consents or waivers from, Third Parties and (iii) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the Merger and to fully carry out the purposes of this Agreement; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required or permitted to pay, and Parent shall not be obligated to pay or permit or agree to the Company paying, any material cash consideration to any Third Party from whom consent or approval is required and the Company shall not be required or permitted to modify or enter into any Contract or Company Real Property Lease or limit or dispose of any non-cash rights, assets or properties, and Parent shall not be obligated to permit or agree to the Company's modification or entrance into any Contract or Company Real Property Lease or, on behalf of itself or any of its pre-Closing Affiliates, modify or enter into any agreement or limit or dispose of any non-cash rights, assets or properties, in each case pursuant to this Section 6.10(a) or any provision that cross-references the proviso to this Section 6.10(a). Parent shall have the right to control the strategy, tactics and other aspects of obtaining clearances under the HSR Act or other Applicable Laws or consents of Third Parties.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of the undertakings pursuant to this Section 6.10, each of Parent and the Company, as applicable, shall (i) promptly prepare and file any notification and report forms and related material required under the HSR Act and any additional filings or notifications and related material that are necessary or proper to permit consummation of the Merger and (ii) provide or cause to be provided as promptly as practicable any information and documentary material that may be requested by the DOJ, FTC or any other Governmental Entity with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby. In the case of the Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act (pursuant to which the parties shall request early termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act), each of Parent and the Company shall make or cause to be made the appropriate filing within ten (10) Business Days after the date hereof.

(c) Subject to Applicable Law relating to the exchange of information and the last sentence of Section 6.10(a), the Company and Parent and their respective Subsidiaries, Affiliates and counsel shall (i) provide each other with a reasonable advance opportunity to review and comment upon and consider in good faith the views of the other in connection with all communications (including any analyses, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments, opinions and proposals made or submitted by or on behalf of any party hereto relating to Proceedings under the Antitrust Laws) with a Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) promptly inform each other of any material communication (or other material correspondence or memoranda) received from, or given to, any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and (iii) promptly furnish each other with copies of all material correspondence, filings and written communications between them or their Subsidiaries or Affiliates, on the one hand, and any Governmental Entity or its respective staff, on the other hand, with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and (iv) agree not to extend any waiting period under the HSR Act or enter into any agreement with any Governmental Entity not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, except with the prior written consent of the other party not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Company and Parent and their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates shall, to the extent practicable, provide the other party and its counsel with advance notice of and the opportunity to participate in any material discussion or meeting with any Governmental Entity in respect of any filing, investigation or other inquiry in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby. The parties may designate any competitively sensitive materials provided to the other under this Section 6.10(c) as outside counsel only. Such materials and the information contained therein shall be given only to outside counsel and previously-agreed outside economic consultants of the recipient and will not be disclosed by such outside counsel or outside economic consultants to employees, officers, or directors of the recipient without the advance written consent of the party providing such materials. This Section 6.10(c) shall not apply in respect of Taxes.

(d) Notwithstanding anything else contained herein, Parent shall not be required to, and the Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, offer, propose, agree, or commit (i) to sell, divest, hold separate, license, cause a Third Party to acquire, or otherwise dispose of (A) any of the respective Affiliates of the Company or Parent or (B) any of the respective operations, divisions, businesses, product lines, customers, assets, properties or rights of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Affiliates, prior to, contemporaneously with or after the Closing and regardless as to whether a Third Party purchaser must be identified or approved prior to the Closing (a Divestiture), (ii) to take any other actions that may limit Parent's, its Affiliates', the Company's or its Affiliates' conduct in any way or any of the foregoing's freedom of action with respect to, or ability to retain, one or more of its operations, divisions, businesses, products lines, customers, assets, properties or rights (a Restraint) or (iii) to enter into any Order, consent decree or other agreement to effectuate a Divestiture or Restraint, except to the extent that such actions set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) above would not be reasonably likely to result in, either individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the business, assets, Liabilities, financial condition or results of operations of the Company.

(e) Parent shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates not to, acquire or agree to acquire, in any manner, any business, Person or assets, or take any other action, if the entering into of a definitive agreement relating to, or the consummation of such acquisition or other action, would reasonably be expected to (i) impose any material delay in the obtaining of, or materially increase the risk of not obtaining, any authorizations, consents, orders or declarations of any Governmental Entity necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby or the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period; (ii) materially increase the risk of any Governmental Entity entering an order prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; (iii) materially

(a) Subject to Section 6.11(d), Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and do, or cause to be done all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to arrange and obtain the Bridge Financing (or the Permanent Financing in lieu thereof) on the terms and conditions described in the Commitment Letter (including the related flex provisions), including using reasonable best efforts to enforce its rights and exercise any remedies under the Commitment Letter.

(b) Parent will keep the Company reasonably informed on a timely basis of the status of Parent's efforts to obtain the Financing and shall give the Company prompt notice of any fact, change, event or circumstance that is reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse impact on any portion of the Financing necessary for the satisfaction of all of Parent's obligations under this Agreement.

(c) Parent may amend, modify, replace, terminate, assign or agree to any waiver or reduction of commitments under, the Commitment Letter and/or substitute commitments under the Commitment Letter with commitments or proceeds in respect of any Permanent Financing, in each case without the prior written approval of the Company; provided, that Parent shall not, without the Company's prior written consent, permit any such amendment, replacement, modification, assignment, termination, waiver, reduction or substitution to be made, or consent to any waiver of any provision of or remedy under the Commitment Letter which would (i) reduce the aggregate cash amounts of the Financing to an aggregate amount less than the amount necessary for the representation in Section 5.06(e) to be true at the time of any such change, (ii) impose new or additional conditions to the funding of the Financing or otherwise expand, amend, modify or waive any of the conditions under the Commitment Letter in each case from those set forth in the Commitment Letter on the date hereof in a manner that would (A) materially delay or prevent the Closing or (B) make the funding of any portion of the Financing necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement less likely to occur or (iii) otherwise adversely affect the ability of Parent to enforce its rights under the Commitment Letter or consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent may modify, supplement or amend the Commitment Letter to (1) add lenders, lead arrangers, bookrunners, syndication agents or similar entities that have not executed the Commitment Letter as of the date of this Agreement and (2) implement or exercise any market flex provisions contained in any related fee letters. Parent shall promptly deliver to the Company copies of any termination, amendment, modification, waiver or replacement of the Commitment Letter.

(d) Parent shall give the Company prompt written notice if and when Parent becomes aware that all or any portion of the Bridge Financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter will not be available other than as contemplated by Section 6.11(c). If any portion of the Bridge Financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the Commitment Letter (other than as contemplated by the Commitment Letter and any market flex provisions in any related fee letters) and such portion is necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to arrange to obtain in replacement thereof alternative financing, including from alternative sources, in an amount sufficient, when added to the portion of the Bridge Financing that is available and any cash of Parent and its Subsidiaries on hand at the Closing Date (including the proceeds of any Permanent Financing), to consummate the transactions contemplated by this agreement (Alternative Financing) as promptly as practicable following the occurrence of such event; provided, that Parent shall not be obligated to seek or obtain

Alternative Financing on terms and conditions materially less favorable to Parent in the aggregate than the Bridge Financing contemplated by the

Such credited expenses shall also count toward any annual or lifetime limits, treatment or visit limits or similar limitations that apply under the terms of the applicable plan.

(d) The Company will provide Parent with a copy of any material written communications intended for broad-based and general distribution to any current or former employees of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries if such communications relate to the compensation, employment or labor aspects of the transactions contemplated hereby, and will provide Parent with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such communications prior to distribution.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement shall confer upon any Company Employee or other service provider any right to continue in the employ or service of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any Affiliate of Parent, or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their Affiliates, which rights are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge or terminate the services of any Company Employee at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to (i) establish, amend, or modify any Company Benefit Plan or any employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, or any other benefit plan, program or Contract maintained or sponsored by Parent, the Surviving Corporation, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries (including, after the Closing Date, the Company and its Subsidiaries) or Affiliates; or (ii) alter or limit the ability of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their Subsidiaries (including, after the Closing Date, the Company and its Subsidiaries) or Affiliates to amend, modify or terminate any Company Benefit Plan or any other compensation or benefit or

(c) The Company shall cause the Information Statement to comply in all material respects as to form with the requirements of the Exchange Act, and any other Applicable Law, except that the Company shall have no such obligation with respect to statements made in the Information Statement based on information supplied by Parent expressly for inclusion therein. The Company shall cause the definitive Information Statement (or any amendment or supplement thereto) that is filed with the SEC and at the time the definitive Information Statement is mailed to the stockholders of the Company, to not (i) contain any untrue statement of a material fact or (ii) omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, except that the Company shall have no such obligation with respect to statements made therein based on information supplied by Parent or Merger Sub expressly for inclusion therein.

(d) Parent and the Company shall, upon request, furnish each other with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Information Statement or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Parent agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it to the Company specifically for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Information Statement will when filed with the SEC and at the time it is mailed to holders of Company Common Stock, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading. Parent further agrees that if it becomes aware that any such information would cause any of the statements in the Information Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the Company and to take appropriate steps to correct the Information Statement. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to resolve all SEC comments with respect to the Information Statement as promptly as reasonably practicable after receipt thereof and to have the Information Statement cleared by the staff of the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable after such filing.

(e) No amendment or supplement to the Information Statement shall be made by Company without the reasonable advance notice to Parent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). The Company shall promptly provide notice to Parent of any correspondence or communications with or comments from the SEC and shall provide Parent with copies of all such written comments and written correspondence. The Company shall not submit any response letters or other correspondence to the SEC without the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). The Company shall (i) provide Parent with reasonable prior notice of any scheduled telephone calls between the Company or its Representatives and the SEC, and (ii) use its reasonable best efforts to allow Parent or its Representatives to participate in all such telephone calls.

(f) Prior to filing or mailing the Information Statement (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC (or the staff of the SEC) with respect thereto, the Company shall provide Parent a reasonable opportunity to review and to propose comments on such document or response and shall, in good faith, consider the reasonable comments of Parent. As promptly as reasonably practicable after the Information Statement has been cleared by the SEC or promptly after ten (10) calendar days have passed since the date of filing of the preliminary Information Statement with the SEC without notice from the SEC of its intent to review the Information Statement, the Company shall file with the SEC the Information Statement in definitive form as contemplated by Rule 14c-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act substantially in the form previously cleared or filed with the SEC, as the case may be, and mail a copy of the Information Statement to Company's stockholders of record in accordance with Sections 228 and 262 of the DGCL.

(b) Covenants. The Company shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it at or prior to the Closing;

(c) No Material Adverse Effect. Since the date of this Agreement, there have not been any Effects that have had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect; and

(d) Certificate. Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by an executive officer of the Company as to the satisfaction of the conditions in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of this Section 7.02.

Section 7.03 Conditions to the Obligations of the Company. The obligation of the Company to consummate the Merger shall be further subject to the satisfaction, or to the extent not prohibited by Applicable Law, waiver of, as of the Closing each of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct, except for any failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct that would not, individually or in the aggregate, prevent or have a material adverse effect on the ability of Parent or Merger Sub to consummate the Merger, in each case, as of the date of the Closing as though made on and as of such date (except to the extent such representations and warranties are expressly made as of a specific date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be so true and correct as of such specific date only);

(b) Covenants. Parent and Merger Sub shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it at or prior to Closing; and

(c) Certificate. The Company shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent by an executive officer of Parent as to the satisfaction of the conditions in clauses (a) and (b) of this Section 7.03.

(ii) any court of competent jurisdiction or any Governmental Entity shall have issued a final, non-appealable Order or taken any other action, in each case permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger, or any Applicable Law shall be in effect that makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited; or

(c) by Parent:

(ii) prior to receipt of the Stockholder Written Consent by the Company, the Company Board shall have effected a Change in Recommendation;

(iii) if the Company shall have breached or failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants or other agreements contained in this Agreement or any representation or warranty of the Company contained in this Agreement shall not be true and correct, which breach, failure to perform or failure to be true and correct (A) would give rise to the failure of one of the conditions set forth in Section 7.02(a) or Section 7.02(b) to be satisfied and (B) is incapable of being cured or has not been cured by the Company within thirty (30) calendar days after written notice has been given by Parent to the Company of such breach, failure to perform or failure to be true and correct (or, if earlier, by the End Date); provided, however, that Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.01(c)(iii) if, at the time such termination would otherwise take effect in accordance with the foregoing, Parent or Merger Sub is in material breach of this Agreement; or

(iv) the Stockholder Written Consent has not been executed and delivered to Parent within twenty-four (24) hours following the execution of this Agreement; or

(d) by the Company:

(ii) if Parent or Merger Sub shall have breached or failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants or other agreements contained in this Agreement or any representation or warranty of Parent or Merger Sub contained in this Agreement shall not be true and correct, which breach, failure to perform or failure to be true and correct (A) would give rise to the failure of one of the conditions set forth in Section 7.03(a) or Section 7.03(b) to be satisfied, and (B) is incapable of being cured or has not been cured by Parent within thirty (30) calendar days after written notice has been given by the Company to Parent of such breach, failure to perform or failure to be true and correct (or, if earlier, by the End Date); provided, however, that the Company may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.01(d)(ii) if, at the time such termination would otherwise take effect in accordance with the foregoing, the Company is in material breach of this Agreement.

The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.01 (other than pursuant to Section 8.01(a)) shall give notice of such termination to each other party hereto and specify the applicable provision or provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is effected and the basis for such termination.

Section 8.02 Effect of Termination. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.01, this Agreement shall become void and of no effect without liability of any party to each other party hereto; provided, however, that the provisions of this Section 8.02, Section 8.03 and Article 9 shall survive any termination hereof pursuant to Section 8.01; provided, further, that nothing herein shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any fraud or Willful Breach of this Agreement prior to such termination (which liability shall include, in the case of a breach by Parent or Merger Sub, liability to the Company for lost stockholder premium to the extent such damages are established by the Company and awarded by the applicable court).

Section 8.03 Company Termination Payments.

(a) If, but only if, this Agreement is terminated by:

(i) Parent pursuant to Section 8.01(c)(iii) or either Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.01(b)(i), and in any such case (x) prior to the date of such termination, an Acquisition Proposal shall have been communicated to the management of the Company or the Company Board or shall have been publicly disclosed and (y) within twelve (12) months after such termination, (1) the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to any Acquisition Transaction with a Third Party that is thereafter consummated or (2) the Company consummates any Acquisition Transaction with a Third Party, which, in the case of (1) or (2), need not be the same Acquisition Transaction described in clause (x) above; provided; that for the purpose of this Section 8.03(a)(i), all references in the definition of the term Acquisition Transaction to 15% will be deemed to be references to 50% ;

(ii) the Company pursuant to Section 8.01(d)(i); or

(iii) Parent pursuant to Section 8.01(c)(i), then the Company shall pay, or cause to be paid, to Parent or Parent's designee(s), as the case may be, an amount in cash equal to $234,000,000 (such amount, the Company Termination Fee).

(b) Any payments required to be made under Section 8.03(a) shall be made by wire transfer of same day funds to the account or accounts designated by Parent, (w) in the case of Section 8.03(a)(i), on the same day as the consummation of any transactions contemplated by an Acquisition Proposal or the entry into a definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, (x) in the case of Section 8.03(a)(ii), immediately prior to or concurrently with such termination, and (y) in the case of Section 8.03(a)(iii), promptly, but in no event later than two (2) Business Days after the date of such termination.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, any payment made by the Company under this Section 8.03 shall be payable only once with respect to this Section 8.03 and not in duplication even though such payment may be payable under one or more provisions hereof.

(d) Each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.03 are an integral part of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and that without such agreements the Company, Parent and Merger Sub would not have entered into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails to pay the Company Termination Fee due pursuant to this Section 8.03 or any portion thereof and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent or Merger Sub commences a suit which results in an Order against the Company for such amounts or any portion thereof, the Company shall pay to Parent or Merger Sub their costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amount of the Company Termination Fee (or any portion thereof that has not been paid timely in accordance with this Agreement) and on the amount of such costs and expenses, in each case from and including the date payment of such amount was due to through the date of actual payment at the prime rate set forth in The Wall Street Journal in effect on the date such payment was required to be made.

Section 9.02 Survival of Representations, Warranties and Covenants. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained herein and in any certificate or other writing delivered pursuant hereto shall not survive the Effective Time; provided, that this Section 9.02 shall not limit any covenant or agreement of the parties which by its terms contemplates performance after the Effective Time or otherwise expressly by its terms survives the Effective Time, which covenants or agreements shall survive until fully performed.

Section 9.03 Amendments, Modification and Waivers.

(a) Any provision of this Agreement may be amended, modified or waived at any time before or after approval of this Agreement and the Merger by the Boards of Directors of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub if, but only if, such amendment, modification or waiver is in writing and is signed, in the case of an amendment, by each party to this Agreement or, in the case of a waiver, by each party against whom the waiver is to be effective; provided, however, that following the receipt of the Requisite Company Stockholder Approval, no such amendment, modification or waiver shall be made or given that requires the approval of the stockholders of the Company under the DGCL unless the required further approval is obtained; and provided, further, that no amendment of this proviso to Section 9.03, clause (ii) of the second sentence of Sections 9.05, 9.06, 9.07(b), 9.08, 9.15 or the definition of Debt Financing Sources (or any provision of this Agreement to the extent an amendment or modification of such provision would modify the substance of any of the foregoing provisions), in each case to the extent such Section related to the Debt Financing Sources that is adverse to any Debt Financing Source shall be effective without the written consent of the Lenders.

(b) Any failure of any of the parties to comply with any obligation, covenant, agreement or condition herein may be waived at any time prior to the Effective Time by any of the parties entitled to the benefit thereof only by a written instrument signed by each such party granting such waiver. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. Except as otherwise provided herein, the rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by Applicable Law.

Section 9.04 Costs; Expenses. Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such cost or expense, except that any filing fees paid to the FTC or the DOJ in connection with filings made pursuant to the HSR Act shall be paid by Parent.

Section 9.05 Assignment; Benefit. This Agreement shall not be assigned by any of the parties hereto (whether by operation of Applicable Law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other parties and any purported assignment in violation of this Section 9.05 shall be null and void; provided that, following the Effective Time, Parent or Merger Sub, upon prior written notice to the Company, may assign, in its sole discretion, any of or all its rights, interests and obligations under this Agreement to Parent or to any direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent, but no such assignment shall relieve Parent or Merger Sub of any of its obligations hereunder. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer on any Person other than the parties hereto or their respective successors, and permitted assigns any rights, remedies, obligations or Liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement, except for (i) the provisions of Section 6.09, which shall inure to the benefit of the Persons or entities benefiting therefrom who are expressly intended to be third-party beneficiaries thereof and who may enforce the covenants contained therein, (ii) the provisions of this clause (ii) of Section 9.05, the second proviso of Section 9.03(a), and Sections 9.06, 9.07(b), 9.08 and 9.15 (in each case to the extent such Section relates to the Debt Financing Sources) shall inure to the benefit of the Debt Financing Sources and such Debt Financing Sources shall be entitled to rely on and enforce the provision of such sections and (iii) the provisions of Section 9.15, which shall inure to the benefit of the Company Related Parties and the Parent Related Parties and (iv) at and after the Effective Time, the provisions of Sections 2.06, 2.07 and 2.09 which shall inure to the benefit of the holders of Shares to receive the Merger Consideration and the holders of Company Stock Options, Company RSUs and Company Restricted Stock to receive the payments contemplated by the applicable provisions of such sections.

Section 9.06 Governing Law. This Agreement and any Proceedings arising out of or related hereto or to the Merger or to the inducement of any party hereto to enter into this Agreement (whether for breach of contract, tortious conduct or otherwise and whether predicated on common law, statute or otherwise) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Applicable Law of the State of Delaware, including all matters of construction, validity and performance, without regard to the conflicts of law rules of such State that would refer a matter to the laws of another jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except to the extent relating to the interpretation of any provisions in this Agreement (including those provisions of, and references to, this Agreement that are referred to, or incorporated by reference in, the Commitment Letter), the parties hereto agree that any Proceeding of any kind or nature, whether at law or equity, in contract or in tort, to which the Debt Financing Sources are a party in connection with this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or that may be based upon, arise out of or relate to the Commitment Letter or the Financing (including the transactions contemplated thereby) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Applicable Law of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) that would cause application of the Applicable Law of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York.

Section 9.07 Jurisdiction.

(a) The parties hereto agree that any Proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be brought in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and any state appellate court therefrom, or, if the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware does not have proper jurisdiction, the Federal District Court for the District of Delaware located in Wilmington, Delaware, and any appellate court therefrom. Each party hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court in respect of any legal or equitable Proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or relating to enforcement of any of the terms of this Agreement, and hereby waives, and agrees not to assert, as a defense in any such Proceeding, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of such court, that the Proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the Proceeding is improper or that this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby may not be enforced in or by such courts. Each party agrees that notice or the service of process in any Proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be properly served or delivered if delivered in the manner contemplated by Section 9.01 or in any other manner permitted by Applicable Law.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement (including this Section 9.07), each party agrees that it will not bring or support, or permit any of their controlled Affiliates to bring or support, any action, cause of action, claim, cross-claim or third party claim of any kind or description, whether in law or in equity, whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, against the Debt Financing Sources in any way relating to this Agreement or the Financing, in any forum other than the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, or, if under applicable law exclusive jurisdiction is vested in the Federal courts, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom).

Section 9.08 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR IN ANY ACTION RELATING TO THE FINANCING OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY OR INVOLVING A DEBT FINANCING SOURCE.

Section 9.09 Specific Performance; Remedies. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur and that the parties would not have any adequate remedy at law in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties hereto shall be entitled to injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and any state appellate court therefrom, or, if the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware does not have proper jurisdiction, the Federal District Court located in Wilmington, Delaware, and any appellate court therefrom, and, in any action for specific performance, each party waives the defense of adequacy of a remedy at law and waives any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

Section 9.10 Severability. Other than with respect to Section 8.03, which are integral parts of this Agreement, if any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Entity to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated so long as the economic or legal substance of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such a determination, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner, in order that the Merger be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

Section 9.11 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Confidentiality Agreement, the exhibits to this Agreement, the Schedules, the Company Disclosure Letter and the Parent Disclosure Letter and any documents delivered by the parties hereto in connection herewith constitute the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect thereto.

Section 9.12 Rules of Construction. Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that it has been represented by counsel of its choice throughout all negotiations that have preceded the execution and delivery of this Agreement, and that it has executed the same with the advice of said independent counsel. Each party hereto and its counsel cooperated and participated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement and the documents referred to herein, and any and all drafts relating thereto exchanged among the parties shall be deemed the work product of all of the parties and may not be construed against any party hereto by reason of its drafting or preparation. Accordingly, any rule of law or any legal decision that would require interpretation of any ambiguities in this Agreement against any party that drafted or prepared it is of no application and is hereby expressly waived by each of the parties hereto, and any controversy over interpretations of this Agreement shall be decided without regard to events of drafting or preparation.

Section 9.13 Headings. Headings of the Articles and Sections of this Agreement are for convenience of the parties only and shall be given no substantive or interpretive effect whatsoever. The table of contents to this Agreement is for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 9.14 Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. This Agreement shall become effective when each party hereto shall have received a counterpart hereof signed by all of the other parties hereto. Until and unless each party hereto has received a counterpart hereof signed by each other party hereto, this Agreement shall have no effect and no party shall have any right or obligation hereunder (whether by virtue of any other oral or written agreement or other communication). Signatures to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile transmission, by electronic mail in PDF form, or by any other electronic means designed to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, will be deemed to have the same effect as physical delivery of the paper document bearing the original signatures.

Section 9.15 Non-Recourse. This Agreement may only be enforced against, and any claim or cause of action based upon, arising out of, or related to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby may only be brought against the Persons that are expressly named as parties hereto and then only with respect to the specific obligations set forth herein with respect to such party. In furtherance of the foregoing, (i) no Parent Related Party shall have any Liability (whether at law, in equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise) to the Company, any holder of Shares or any other Person for any obligations or Liabilities to any party hereto under this Agreement and (ii) no Company Related Party shall have any Liability (whether at law, in equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise) to Parent, Merger Sub, or any other Person for any obligations or Liabilities to any party hereto under this Agreement. No Debt Financing Source shall have any Liability (whether at law, in equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise) to the Company or any holder of Shares for any obligations or Liabilities in connection with the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. This Section 9.15 shall not impair, limit or affect any claims or causes of action related to (i) agreements entered into with the Debt Financing Sources by the parties thereto or (ii) the Support Agreements.

To the fullest extent that the DGCL as it exists on the date hereof, or as it may hereafter be amended, permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of directors, no director shall be liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damage for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Any repeal or amendment of this Article Seven will not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability or alleged liability of a director arising from any act or omission of that director occurring prior to the time of such repeal or amendment.

ARTICLE EIGHT

The directors shall have powers, without the assent or vote of the stockholders, to fix and vary the amount to be reserved for any proper purpose; to authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon all or any part of the property of the Company; to determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits; and to fix the times for the declaration and payment of dividends.

ARTICLE NINE

The directors in their discretion may submit any contract or act for approval or ratification at any annual meeting of the stockholders or at any meeting of the stockholders called for the purpose of considering any such act or contract, and any contract or act that shall be approved or be ratified by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the Company as is represented in person or by proxy at such meeting and entitled to vote thereat (provided that a lawful quorum of stockholders be there represented in person or by proxy) shall be as valid and as binding upon the Company and upon all the stockholders as though it had been approved or ratified by every stockholder of the Company, whether or not the contract or act would otherwise be open to legal attack because of directors' interest or for any other reason.

ARTICLE TEN

In addition to the powers and authorities hereinbefore or by statute expressly conferred upon them, the directors are hereby empowered to exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company; provided, however, that any act or thing of the directors is subject to the statutes of the State of Delaware (the Delaware Code), this Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (this Certificate) and any Bylaws from time to time made by the stockholders; provided, further, that no Bylaws so made shall invalidate any prior act or thing of the directors which would have been valid if such Bylaw had not been made.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Company shall, to the full extent permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL, as may be amended from time to time, indemnify all persons whom it may indemnify pursuant thereto.

ARTICLE TWELVE

ARTICLE THIRTEEN

Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Company and its creditors or any class of them, and/or between the Company and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the Company or of any creditor or stockholder thereof, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Company under Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code, or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Company under Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Company, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Company, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the Company as consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Company, as the case may be, and also on the Company.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN

(a) Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a proceeding), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or an officer of the Company or, while a director or officer of the Company, is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, agent or trustee of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an indemnitee), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee, agent or trustee or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee, agent or trustee, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Company to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith; provided, however, that, except as provided in Article fourteen, section (c) with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses or with respect to any compulsory counterclaim brought by such indemnitee, the Company shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors.

(b) Right to Advancement of Expenses. In addition to the right to indemnification conferred in Article Fourteen, section (a), an indemnitee shall also have the right to be paid by the Company the expenses (including attorney s fees) incurred in appearing at, participating in or defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition or in connection with a proceeding brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification or advancement of expenses under this Article Fourteen (which shall be governed by Article 14, section (c) (hereinafter an advancement of expenses); provided, however, that, if the DGCL requires or in the case of an advance made in a proceeding brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification or advancement, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such indemnitee, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) shall be made solely upon delivery to the Company of an undertaking (hereinafter an undertaking), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a final adjudication) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified or entitled to advancement of expenses under Article Fourteen sections (a) and (b) or otherwise.

(c) Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under Article Fourteen sections (a) or (b) is not paid in full by the Company within (i) 60 days after a written claim for indemnification has been received by the Company or (ii) 20 days after a claim for an advancement of expenses has been received by the Company, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim or to obtain advancement of expenses, as applicable. To the fullest extent permitted by law, if successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Company to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms 18 of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit brought by the Company to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Company shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the DGCL. Neither the failure of the Company (including its directors who are not parties to such action, a committee of such directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the DGCL, nor an actual determination by the Company (including its directors who are not parties to such action, a committee of such directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or brought by the Company to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this Article Fourteen or otherwise shall be on the Company.

A-66

Table of Contents

(d) Indemnification Not Exclusive.

(1) The provision of indemnification to or the advancement of expenses and costs to any indemnitee under this Article Fourteen, or the entitlement of any indemnitee to indemnification or advancement of expenses and costs under this Article Fourteen, shall not limit or restrict in any way the power of the Company to indemnify or advance expenses and costs to such indemnitee in any other way permitted by law or be deemed exclusive of, or invalidate, any right to which any indemnitee seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses and costs may be entitled under any law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such indemnitee's capacity as an officer, director, employee or agent of the Company and as to action in any other capacity.

(2) Given that certain jointly indemnifiable claims (as defined below) may arise due to the service of the indemnitee as a director of the Company at the request of the indemnitee-related entities (as defined below), the Company shall be fully and primarily responsible for the payment to the indemnitee in respect of indemnification or advancement of expenses in connection with any such jointly indemnifiable claims, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of this Article Fourteen, irrespective of any right of recovery the indemnitee may have from the indemnitee-related entities. Under no circumstance shall the Company be entitled to any right of subrogation or contribution by the indemnitee-related entities and no right of advancement or recovery the indemnitee may have from the indemnitee-related entities shall reduce or otherwise alter the rights of the indemnitee or the obligations of the Company hereunder. In the event that any of the indemnitee-related entities shall make any payment to the indemnitee in respect of indemnification or advancement of expenses with respect to any jointly indemnifiable claim, the indemnitee-related entity making such payment shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of the indemnitee against the Company, and the indemnitee shall execute all papers reasonably required and shall do all things that may be reasonably necessary to secure such rights, including the execution of such documents as may be necessary to enable the indemnitee-related entities effectively to bring suit to enforce such rights. Each of the indemnitee-related entities shall be third-party beneficiaries with respect to this section (d)(2) of Article Fourteen, entitled to enforce this section (d)(2) of Article Fourteen.

For purposes of this Section (d)(2) of Article Fourteen, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

The term "indemnitee-related entities" means any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise (other than the Company or any other corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise for which the indemnitee has agreed, on behalf of the Company or at the Company's request, to serve as a director, officer, employee or agent and which service is covered by the indemnity described herein) from whom an indemnitee may be entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses with respect to which, in whole or in part, the Company may also have an indemnification or advancement obligation.

The term jointly indemnifiable claims shall be broadly construed and shall include, without limitation, any action, suit or proceeding for which the indemnitee shall be entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses from both the indemnitee-related entities and the Company pursuant to Delaware law, any agreement or certificate of incorporation, bylaws, partnership agreement, operating agreement, certificate of formation, certificate of limited partnership or comparable organizational documents of the Company or the indemnitee-related entities, as applicable.

(e) Nature of Rights. The rights conferred upon indemnitees in this Article Fourteen shall be contract rights and such rights shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. Any amendment, alteration or repeal of this Article Fourteen that adversely affects any right of an indemnitee or its successors shall be prospective only and shall not limit, eliminate, or impair any such right with respect to any proceeding involving any occurrence or alleged occurrence of any action or omission to act that took place prior to such amendment or repeal.

(f) Insurance. The Company may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the DGCL.

(g) Indemnification of Employees and Agents of the Company. The Company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Company to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article Fourteen with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Company.

Any reference to an officer of the Company in this Article Fourteen shall be deemed to refer exclusively to the Chief Executive Officer, President, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel and Secretary of the Company appointed pursuant to the Company's bylaws, and to any Vice President, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer or other officer of the Company appointed by the Board of Directors pursuant to the Company's bylaws, and any reference to an officer of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise shall be deemed to refer exclusively to an officer appointed by the board of directors or equivalent governing body of such other entity pursuant to the certificate of incorporation and bylaws or equivalent organizational documents of such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise. The fact that any person who is or was an employee of the Company or an employee of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise has been given or has used the title of Vice President or any other title that could be construed to suggest or imply that such person is or may be an officer of the Company or of such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise shall not result in such person being constituted as, or being deemed to be, an officer of the Company or of such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise for purposes of this Article Fourteen.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN

The Company reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights and powers conferred herein on stockholders, directors and officers are subject to this reserved power.

Members of the Board of Directors:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Company Common Stock), of Blue Buffalo Pet Products, Inc. (the Company) of the consideration to be paid to such holders in the proposed merger (the Transaction) of the Company with General Mills, Inc. (the Acquiror). Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 22, 2018, (the Agreement), by and among the Company, the Acquiror and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Bravo Merger Corp., the Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Acquiror, and each outstanding share of Company Common Stock, other than shares of Company Common Stock held in treasury or owned by the Acquiror or wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company or the Acquiror and Dissenting Shares (as defined in the Agreement), will be converted into the right to receive $40.00 per share in cash (the Consideration).

In connection with preparing our opinion, we have (i) reviewed the Agreement; (ii) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning the Company and the industries in which it operates; (iii) compared the proposed financial terms of the Transaction with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies we deemed relevant and the consideration paid for such companies; (iv) compared the financial and operating performance of the Company with publicly available information concerning certain other companies we deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of the Company Common Stock and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies; (v) reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the management of the Company relating to its business; and (vi) performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as we deemed appropriate for the purposes of this opinion.

In addition, we have held discussions with certain members of the management of the Company with respect to certain aspects of the Transaction, and the past and current business operations of the Company, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of the Company, and certain other matters we believed necessary or appropriate to our inquiry.

In giving our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with us by the Company or otherwise reviewed by or for us. We have not independently verified any such information or its accuracy or completeness and, pursuant to our engagement letter with the Company, we did not assume any obligation to undertake any such independent verification. We have not conducted or been provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor have we evaluated the solvency of the Company or the Acquiror under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to us or derived therefrom, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of the Company to which such analyses or forecasts relate. We express no view as to such analyses or forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. We have also assumed that the Transaction and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement will be consummated as described in the Agreement. We have also assumed that the representations and warranties made by the Company and the Acquiror in the Agreement and the related agreements are and will be true and correct in all respects material to our analysis. We are not legal, regulatory or tax experts and have relied on the assessments made by advisors to the Company with respect to such issues. We have further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company or on the contemplated benefits of the Transaction.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect this opinion and that we do not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration to be paid to the holders of the Company Common Stock in the proposed Transaction and we express no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration paid in connection with the Transaction to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or as to the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Transaction. Furthermore, we express no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Transaction, or any class of such persons relative to the Consideration to be paid to the holders of the Company Common Stock in the Transaction or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation.

We note that we were not authorized to and did not solicit any expressions of interest from any other parties with respect to the sale of all or any part of the Company or any other alternative transaction.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company with respect to the proposed Transaction and will receive a fee from the Company for our services, a substantial portion of which will become payable only if the proposed Transaction is consummated. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. During the two years preceding the date of this letter, we and our affiliates have had commercial or investment banking relationships with the Company and the Acquiror, for which we and such affiliates have received customary compensation. Such services during such period have included acting as joint lead bookrunner on the Company's offerings of equity securities in June 2016 and October 2016 and as joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner on the Company's credit facility in May 2017, and acting as joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner on the Acquiror's credit facility in May 2016 and joint lead bookrunner on the Acquiror's offering of debt securities in October 2017. During the two years preceding the date of this letter, we and our affiliates have also had commercial or investment banking relationships with portfolio companies of The Invus Group, LLC (Invus), the Company's significant shareholder, that are unrelated to the Transaction, for which we and such affiliates have received customary compensation. Such services have included debt syndication and equity and debt underwriting. In addition, our commercial banking affiliate is an agent bank and a lender under outstanding credit facilities of such portfolio companies, for which it receives customary compensation or other financial benefits. In addition, we and our affiliates hold, on a proprietary basis, less than 1% of the outstanding common stock of each of the Company, Invus and the Acquiror. In the ordinary course of our businesses, we and our affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of the Company or the Acquiror for our own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, we may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities or other financial instruments.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion as of the date hereof that the consideration to be paid to the holders of the Company Common Stock in the proposed Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The issuance of this opinion has been approved by a fairness opinion committee of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC. This letter is provided to the Board of Directors of the Company (in its capacity as such) in connection with and

The Board of Directors:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Shares) (other than Excluded Shares, as defined below), of Blue Buffalo Pet Products, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), of the $40.00 per Share in cash, without interest, proposed to be paid to such holders pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger proposed to be entered into by and among General Mills, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), Bravo Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and the Company (the Agreement). The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with the Transaction. We will receive a fee for our services in connection with the Transaction, a portion of which is payable upon the rendering of this opinion and a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse certain of our expenses arising, and indemnify us against certain liabilities that may arise, out of our engagement.

We are a securities firm engaged directly and through affiliates and related persons in a number of investment banking, financial advisory and merchant banking activities. In the past two years, we have not (except for our current engagement) been engaged to provide financial advisory or other services to the Company, and we have not received any compensation from the Company. In the past two years, we have not been engaged to provide financial advisory or other services to Parent, and we have not received any compensation from Parent. or family members of such persons, (ii) of our affiliates or related investment funds and (iii) investment funds or other persons in which any of the foregoing may have financial interests or with which they may co-invest, may at any time acquire, hold, sell or trade, in debt, equity and other securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of, or investments in, the Company, Parent, or any of their respective affiliates and portfolio companies of such affiliates, or any other party that may be involved in the Transaction.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement dated February 22, 2018 (the Draft Agreement); (ii) Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015; (iii) the Registration Statements on Form S-1 of the Company, as amended; (iv) certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company; (v) certain publicly available research analyst reports for the Company; (vi) certain other communications from the Company to its stockholders; and (vii) certain internal information relating to the business, operations, earnings, cash flow, assets, liabilities and prospects of the Company, including certain financial forecasts, analyses and projections relating to the Company prepared by management of the Company and furnished to us by the Company for purposes of our analysis (the Forecasts) (collectively, the Internal Data). We have also participated in discussions with members of the senior management and representatives of the Company regarding their assessment of the Internal Data. In addition, we reviewed publicly available financial and stock market data, including valuation multiples, for the Company and compared that data with similar data for certain other companies, the securities of which are publicly traded, in lines of business that we deemed relevant. We also compared certain of the proposed financial terms of the Transaction with the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain other transactions that we deemed relevant and conducted such other financial studies and analyses and took into account such other information as we deemed appropriate.

We have assumed, without independent verification or any responsibility therefor, the accuracy and completeness of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information supplied to, discussed with, or reviewed by us for purposes of this opinion and have, with your consent, relied upon such information as being complete and accurate. In that regard, we have assumed, at your direction, that the Internal Data (including, without limitation, the Forecasts) has been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company as to the matters covered thereby and we have relied, at your direction, on the Internal Data for purposes of our analysis and this opinion. We express no view or opinion as to the Internal Data or the assumptions on which it is based. In addition, at your direction, we have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent, derivative, off-balance-sheet or otherwise) of the Company, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal, and we have not been asked to conduct, and did not conduct, a physical inspection of the properties or assets of the Company. We have assumed, at your direction, that the final executed Agreement will not differ in any respect material to our analysis or this opinion from the Draft Agreement reviewed by us. We have also assumed, at your direction, that the Transaction will be consummated on the terms set forth in the Agreement and in accordance with all applicable laws and other relevant documents or requirements, without delay or the waiver, modification or amendment of any term , condition or agreement, the effect of which would be material to our analysis or this opinion and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory and other approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the Transaction, no delay, limitation, restriction, condition or other change will be imposed, the effect of which would be material to our analysis or this opinion. We have not evaluated and do not express any opinion as to the solvency or fair value of the Company, or the ability of the Company to pay its obligations when they come due, or as to the impact of the Transaction on such matters, under any state, federal or other laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. We are not legal, regulatory, tax or accounting advisors, and we express no opinion as to any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters.

We express no view as to, and our opinion does not address, the Company's underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the Transaction, or the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available to the Company or in which the Company might engage. This opinion is limited to and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof, to the holders of the Shares (other than Excluded Shares) of the Consideration to be paid to such holders pursuant to the Agreement. We have not been asked to, nor do we express any view on, and our opinion does not address, any other term or aspect of the Agreement or the Transaction, including, without limitation, the structure or form of the Transaction, or any other agreements or arrangements contemplated by the Agreement or entered into in connection with or otherwise contemplated by the Transaction, including, without limitation, the fairness of the Transaction or any other term or aspect of the Transaction to, or any consideration to be received in connection therewith by, or the impact of the Transaction on, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or any other party. In addition, we express no view or opinion as to the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of the Company or any party, or class of such persons in connection with the Transaction, whether relative to the Consideration to be paid to the holders of the Shares pursuant to the Agreement or otherwise. Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, monetary, currency, market and other conditions and circumstances as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof, and we do not have any obligation or responsibility to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date hereof. Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company or any other person as to whether or how such stockholder should execute a consent with respect to the Merger or otherwise act with respect to the Transaction or any other matter.

Our financial advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of the Company (in their capacity as directors and not in any other capacity) in connection with and for purposes of its consideration of the Transaction. The issuance of this opinion was approved by the Centerview Partners LLC Fairness Opinion Committee.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, including the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations set forth herein, we are of the opinion, as of the date hereof, that the Consideration to be paid to the holders of Shares (other than Excluded Shares) pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.
