Press Release

TIM: BOARD OF DIRECTORS EXPANDS MEMBERSHIP OF INTERNAL COMMITTEES AND ACKNOWLEDGES CLARIFICATIONS ON COMMENTS ABOUT THE BOARD MADE BY THE CEO

Rome, 25 June 2018

TIM's Board of Directors has met today and expanded the membership of its Internal Committees, increasing the number of members from 4 to 5 by appointing

Director Valensise to the Control and Risk Committee (which therefore now consists of Directors Giannotti Chairwoman, Gubitosi, Ferrari, Moretti and Valensise);

Director Moretti to the Related Parties Committee (which therefore now consists of Directors Morselli Chairwoman, Capaldo, Cappello, Moretti and Roscini);

Director Capaldo to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (which therefore now consists of Directors Altavilla Chairman, Bonomo, Capaldo, Sabelli and Valensise).

The Board of Directors has also launched a review of corporate governance documents, adopting a new (significantly updated) version of both the procedure for transactions with related parties and the regulation of the specific Committee which was established on 16 May this year to oversee such transactions. The review of the internal regulations on transactions with related parties has provided an opportunity to ascertain that the respective scope was up-to-date, given that the conditions for defining the relationship between Vivendi and TIM as one of de facto control no longer exist.

The new edition of the procedure (which will come into force from the second half of the year) and the Related Parties Committee regulations are being published on the Company's website.

The Board of Directors discussed the comments openly made by the CEO about some Board members, acknowledging his clarifications on the matter and his regret for having made inappropriate comments, subsequently amplified by the media. As a result of the discussion, the Board confirms that its members share a common vision and objectives for TIM, and continue to support the management team.

Cautionary Statement for Purposes of the Safe Harbor Provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a safe harbor for forward-looking statements. The Group's interim report as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2018 included in this Form 6-K contains certain forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts and can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as believes, may, is expected to, will, will continue, seeks or anticipates or similar expressions or the negative thereof or other comparable terminology, or by the forward-looking nature of discussions of strategy, plans or intentions.

Actual results may differ materially from those projected or implied in the forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking information is based on certain key assumptions which we believe to be reasonable but forward-looking information by its nature involves risks and uncertainties, which are outside our control, that could significantly affect expected results.

The following important factors could cause our actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied in any forward-looking statements:

1. our ability to successfully implement our strategy over the 2018-2020 period;
2. the continuing effects of the global economic crisis in the principal markets in which we operate, including, in particular, our core Italian market;
3. the impact of regulatory decisions and changes in the regulatory environment in Italy and other countries in which we operate;
4. the impact of political developments in Italy and other countries in which we operate;
5. our ability to successfully meet competition on both price and innovation capabilities of new products and services;
6. our ability to develop and introduce new technologies which are attractive in our principal markets, to manage innovation, to supply value added services and to increase the use of our fixed and mobile networks;
7. our ability to successfully implement our internet and broadband strategy;
8. our ability to successfully achieve our debt reduction and other targets;
9. the impact of fluctuations in currency exchange and interest rates and the performance of the equity markets in general;

10. the outcome of litigation, disputes and investigations in which we are involved or may become involved;
11. our ability to build up our business in adjacent markets and in international markets (particularly in Brazil), due to our specialist and technical resources;
12. our ability to achieve the expected return on the investments and capital expenditures we have made and continue to make in Brazil;
13. the amount and timing of any future impairment charges for our authorizations, goodwill or other assets;
14. our ability to manage and reduce costs;
15. any difficulties which we may encounter in our supply and procurement processes, including as a result of the insolvency or financial weaknesses of our suppliers; and
16. the costs we may incur due to unexpected events, in particular where our insurance is not sufficient to cover such costs.

The foregoing factors should not be construed as exhaustive. Due to such uncertainties and risks, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. We undertake no obligation to release publicly the result of any revisions to these forward-looking statements which may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof, including, without limitation, changes in our business or acquisition strategy or planned capital expenditures, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
