Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 20, 2018, Zebra Technologies Europe Limited (ZTEL), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Zebra Technologies Corporation (the Company), entered into a Master Accounts Receivable Purchase Agreement (Purchase Agreement) pursuant to which ZTEL will sell the accounts receivable of identified account debtors to MUFG Bank, Ltd. (the Bank) at a discounted price on an on-going basis (the Factoring). As a condition to the Factoring, the Bank requires the Company to execute the Purchase Agreement as a guarantor of the performance of ZTEL under the Purchase Agreement.

The Purchase Agreement establishes a revolving trade receivables factoring facility (the A/R Facility) that provides for up to $90 million in funding based on the availability of eligible receivables and other customary factors, and the satisfaction of certain conditions. The A/R Facility has an initial 364-day term, unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms, and provides for an automatic 364-day extension unless ZTEL provides notice of non-extension.

The Bank will purchase accounts receivable from ZTEL at a discount from face value with a discount rate equal to EURIBOR plus either 1.35% per annum or 1.50% per annum based upon the account debtors of the factored accounts receivable. ZTEL may add the accounts receivable of additional account debtors upon the Bank's approval.

The A/R Facility contains various covenants and default and termination provisions customary in accounts receivable sales and purchase agreements. In the event of a default, ZTEL will be obligated to repurchase the accounts receivable sold to MUFG. The Company has guaranteed ZTEL's performance of its obligations under the A/R Facility. If ZTEL fails in any manner to perform its obligations under the A/R Facility, then the Company is required to perform (or cause to be performed) those obligations as required under the A/R Facility.

The foregoing description of the A/R Facility does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which will be filed with the Company's 10-K.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The disclosure set forth above in Item 1.01 is incorporated by reference herein.
