Edgar Filing: BULL RUN CORP - Form DEFA14A

"We are very pleased with the significant improvement in our operating business this past year under the leadership of Tom Stultz," said Robert S. Prather, Jr., President and CEO of Bull Run. "We believe that eliminating the loss-producing segment a year ago and focusing on the core, historically-profitable collegiate marketing and association management businesses has been a successful strategy."

In August 2005, Bull Run announced its intention to merge with Triple Crown Media, Inc. Following the merger, Triple Crown Media would be comprised of Bull Run's collegiate marketing and association management businesses, and the newspaper publishing business and Graylink Wireless business currently operated by Gray Television, Inc. The merger, which is subject to certain closing conditions, including an affirmative vote by Bull Run's shareholders, is expected to be completed by the first quarter of 2006.

Thomas J. Stultz, President and CEO of Bull Run's operating subsidiary, Host Communications, Inc., commented, "We made some incredible strides this year, from the reestablishment of key business relationships, to an important 10-year contract extension with the University of Kentucky for multi-media marketing rights, to contract extensions with all of our association clients and the addition of a new association client. We are extremely excited to combine the growth potential of the core businesses of Host together with the newspaper publishing and wireless businesses of Gray under Triple Crown Media." Stultz, who formerly managed the newspaper publishing business at Gray, will become President and CEO of Triple Crown Media upon completion of the merger.
