Companhia Siderúrgica Nacional Investor Relations Officer Paulo Penido Pinto Marques

Dear Sir,

Among other matters, an article published in the March 10 edition of the newspaper O Estado de São Paulo, states that:

- CSN will invest US$ 600 million in the construction of three cement factories in Brazil;
- With these new units and the doubling of capacity in the Volta Redonda factory, the Group s cement production capacity will reach around 6 million tonnes p.a.;
- CSN envisages investments in organic growth of R$ 3 billion p.a. over the next 5 years;
- Given its expansion plans, CSN may double in size within 3 years via organic growth alone;
- The company plans to have an iron ore production capacity of 150 million tonnes p.a. as a result, it may undertake an M&A investment in the operational area of MRS and the port of Sepetiba;
- CSN expects to sell 5 million tonnes of steel in 2010;
- CSN plans to become an operational holding company, with its 5 assets (steel, mining, logistics, energy and cement) under the same umbrella and may go public with each of these assets.

We would be grateful if you would clarify this matter and provide any other information considered important.

Sincerely,

Nelson Barroso Ortega Corporate Oversight Department BM&FBOVESPA S.A. Securities, Commodities and Futures Exchange Phone: (+55 11) 2565-6063 / 2565-7222
