(1) Same Stores Sales

In the second quarter of 2011, GPA Food posted gross sales of R$6,928.3 million, 10.2% up on 2Q10, while net sales came to R$6,228.7 million, up by 10.4%.

Excluding 2010 sales by Extra Eletro and Extra.com.br (transferred to Globex), GPA Food's gross and net sales would grow by 12.5% and 12.8% year-on-year, respectively.

On a same store basis, gross sales moved up by 9.1% and net sales by 9.3%. In real terms, i.e. deflated by the IPCA consumer price⁽²⁾, gross sales climbed by 2.3%.

Also on a same-store basis, gross food sales increased by 10.0% over 2Q10, with grocery and perishables recording similar performances, while non-food sales grew by 5.9%, led by general merchandise and fuels. In addition, this improvement took place despite the exceptionally strong comparative base provided by 2Q10, when sales grew by 16.2% over 2Q10, fueled by the World Cup.

The Group's best-performing formats were Extra Supermercado and Assaí, which posted gross same-store sales growth above the Group's average.

It is worth noting that GPA Food's second-quarter sales were positively impacted by the seasonal effect of Easter. In 2011, Easter fell at the end of April (April 24), benefiting sales in the latter month, while in 2010, it fell at the beginning of the month (April 4), thereby benefiting March sales.

In the first half, gross and net sales stood at R$13,568.5 million and R$12,213.1 million, respectively.

Excluding Extra Eletro and Extra.com.br, as mentioned above, gross and net sales increased by 9.6% and 9.8% year-on-year, respectively.

⁽²⁾ Like ABRAS (the Brazilian Supermarket Association), the Company has adopted the IPCA consumer price index as its inflation indicator, since it gives a more accurate reflection of the Company's product and brand mix. The 12-month IPCA used was 6.7%.

In same-store terms, gross sales climbed by 7.4%, while net sales moved up by 7.5%. In real terms, i.e. deflated by the IPCA consumer index, gross sales increased by 1.0%.

Still in same-store terms, gross food sales increased by 7.4%, while non-food sales climbed by 7.3%.

The 7.4% improvement in first-half same-store gross sales maintained the growth trend shown in 2H10, as can be seen in the graph below:

In the first half, gross profit totaled R$3,105.9 million, 10.8% up on the same period last year, accompanied by a gross margin of 25.4%, an increase of 70 bps over 1H10 (24.7%).

In the second quarter, GPA consolidated gross profit came to R$2,987.5 million, with a gross margin of 26.5%, 310 bps more than the 23.4% recorded in 2Q10. In addition to the above-mentioned gains by GPA Food, this result was positively impacted by Globex, whose 2Q11 gross margin stood at 28.1%, 190 bps up on the 26.2% recorded in 1Q11, chiefly due to commercial efficiency gains fueled by more advantageous prices and sales conditions as well as greater product availability and assortment. The reduction in logistics expenses from the consolidation of the Casas Bahia and Ponto Frio into the same structure also helped increase gross profit.

In the first half, GPA consolidated gross profit totaled R$5,835.9 million, a 76.6% improvement over the first six months of 2010, with a gross margin of 26.4%, 270 bps more than the 23.7% posted in 1H10.

In the second quarter, total GPA consolidated operating expenses came to R$2,346.3 million, equivalent to 20.8% of net sales, 290 bps up on the 17.9% posted in 2Q10. Thanks to the distinct nature of Globex's model, the latter's operating expenses represented a higher share of net sales than those of GPA Food.

In the first half, these expenses totaled R$4,611.9 million, equivalent to 20.8% of net sales.

This improvement was basically fueled by more efficient gross margin management and greater control over operating expenses.

It is worth noting that EBITDA was adjusted to meet the reclassification of the “employees’ profit sharing” line, as mentioned in the Operating Expenses section. Under the previous criterion, 2Q11 EBITDA would have come to R$429.0 million, with a margin of 6.9%. This result was obtained despite the greater contribution from Assaí (14.8% of gross sales, versus 11.9% in 2Q10), which operates with lower margins.

In the first half, EBITDA came to R$841.3 million, 13.2% higher than in 1H10, while the EBITDA margin widened from 6.5% in 1H10 to 6.9%.
