Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

The information in Exhibit 99.1 is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On March 3, 2005, North Carolina enacted amendments to its Business Corporation Act, which become effective on October 1, 2005. In order to conform PepsiCo's By-laws to the amended North Carolina statute, the Board of Directors approved amended By-laws effective as of October 1, 2005 to: (i) clarify that notice of a shareholders' meeting is not required to be given to a shareholder in certain circumstances where previous notice or dividend payments to the shareholder have been returned as undeliverable; (ii) remove the limitation formerly imposed by North Carolina law that the size of the Board not be increased or decreased by more than thirty percent in any twelve month period; (iii) clarify the ability of the Board and the committees to take action via written consent without a meeting, if, before or after such action, unrevoked written consents thereto are signed by all members of the Board or the applicable committee; (iv) provide that any committee of the Board may have one or more members, except any executive committee, which must have three or more members and (v) clarify that any officer who was appointed by either a committee or another officer may be removed by such committee or officer. In addition, the amended By-laws clarify that a Vice Chairman is not mandatory, but may be appointed by the Board from time to time with such duties as the Board may determine.
