Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 14, 2007, Coinmach Service Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Spin Holdco Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), and Spin Acquisition Co., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company (the "Merger"), with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation. Parent and Merger Sub are affiliates of Babcock & Brown Limited.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which has been approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, each share of (a) class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the "Class A Common Stock"), including the shares of Class A Common Stock underlying the units of Income Deposit Securities of the Company, and (b) class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the "Class B Common Stock," and together with the Class A Common Stock, collectively, the "Shares") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (other than Shares owned by Parent, the Company or their respective subsidiaries or Shares with respect to which appraisal rights have been properly exercised), will be converted into the right to receive $13.55 in cash (the "Merger Consideration").

At the effective time of the Merger, each award of restricted Class A Common Stock granted under the Company's incentive plans will no longer be restricted and, unless otherwise agreed between Parent and the holder of such restricted Class A Common Stock, will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

The consummation of the Merger, as provided in the Merger Agreement, is not conditioned upon Parent's or Merger Sub's ability to obtain financing. Parent has obtained equity and debt financing commitments for the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the aggregate proceeds of which are expected to be sufficient for Parent to pay all amounts required to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The Company has made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants not to take certain actions during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger. The Company has also agreed not to (a) solicit or facilitate proposals that constitute, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an alternative proposal to acquire the Company, or (b) engage in any discussions regarding, or provide any confidential information in connection with, any alternative proposal to acquire the Company, in each case except as otherwise provided in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement allows, under certain specified circumstances, the Board of Directors of the Company to change its recommendation in respect of the Merger, to enter into an agreement in respect of an alternative transaction and to recommend or approve an alternative transaction.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including, among others, (a) approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders, (b) absence of any law or order prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, (c) expiration or termination of any applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, (d) each party's respective representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement being true and correct, subject to specified materiality standards contained in the Merger Agreement and (e) material compliance by each party with its respective covenants. The parties presently anticipate closing the transaction during the third quarter of 2007.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for each of the Company and Parent. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement, under specified circumstances (including, among other things, upon termination of the Merger Agreement by the Company if its Board of Directors authorizes the Company to enter into any letter of intent or agreement relating to an alternative proposal to acquire the Company), the Company will be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $15 million, plus up to $2 million in fees and expenses. If the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Company due to the failure of Parent or Merger Sub to perform their respective obligations necessary to consummate the Merger and certain other conditions are met, Parent and Merger Sub will be required to pay the Company a cash fee of $15 million, plus up to $2 million in fees and expenses and any outstanding amounts required to be reimbursed to the Company by Parent or Merger Sub under the Merger Agreement. The obligation of Parent and Merger Sub to pay the $15 million termination fee and up to $2 million in fees and expenses is supported by an equity commitment letter from Babcock & Brown Investment Holdings Pty Ltd., an affiliate of Parent, in favor of Parent.

On June 14, 2007, Parent entered into a Voting Agreement with Coinmach Holdings, LLC (a controlling stockholder of the Company and owner of all of the outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock), GTCR-CLC, LLC and certain members of the Company's senior management, pursuant to which, among other things, such parties agreed to vote their respective shares of capital stock of the Company in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. The Voting Agreement will terminate upon the earlier to occur of (a) the effective time of the Merger, (b) the date on which the Board of Directors of the Company effects a change of recommendation in accordance with the Merger Agreement, (c) the date on which the Merger Agreement is terminated, and (d) December 30, 2007.

On June 14, 2007, Parent entered into an Exchange Agreement with certain members of senior management of the Company, Coinmach Laundry Corporation and the secretary of Coinmach Laundry Corporation, pursuant to which, among other things, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, such members of senior management will exchange a portion of their shares of the Company for common stock of Parent. As contemplated by the Voting Agreement and the Exchange Agreement, the remainder of their shares of capital stock of the Company which has not been exchanged will be purchased, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, by Babcock & Brown Spinco LLC, an affiliate of Parent, or its designee.

The representations, warranties and covenants may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.
