In the first quarter of 2006, the Company's high growth businesses which, among others, include broadband services and value-added services, sustained a rapid growth momentum. The number of broadband subscribers increased by 9.5% from the end of 2005 to 12.56 million in the first quarter of 2006, representing a net increase of 1.088 million. The ARPU of broadband services remained stable with a slight upward trend. The number of "Personalised Ring" service subscribers grew by 25.7% from the end of 2005 to 8.562 million, representing a net increase of 1.748 million. The volume of PHS short messages reached 1,972 million.

In the first quarter of 2006, the Company's efforts to maintain its leading position in the traditional fixed-line services market were rewarded as the number of fixed-line telephone subscribers continued to grow and reached 118 million, representing a net increase of 2.711 million from the end of 2005.

Edgar Filing: China Netcom Group CORP (Hong Kong) LTD - Form 6-K

In line with its business strategies for 2006, the Company will continue to invest heavily in high growth businesses, maintain the rapid growth momentum in its broadband services subscriber base, and achieve a breakthrough development in value-added services over fixed-line telephones, further increasing the contribution of these businesses to total revenue. To ensure the stable development of its traditional fixed-line services, the Company will accelerate the intelligence upgrade of its local access networks in order to provide multi-service bundling across its market, aiming to improve customers' loyalty and increase average voice usage. The Company will also actively prepare for its entry into the mobile telecommunications sector, building a mobile business talent pool with the support of extensive training programs. As a result of all these measures, the Company will continue to progress towards its goal of becoming a "Broadband Communications and Multi-media Services Provider".

The Board wishes to remind investors that the above financial and operational data for the first quarter in 2006 are unaudited. Investors are cautioned not to unduly rely on such data.

In the meantime, investors are advised to exercise caution in dealing in the securities of the Company.

By order of the Board
