2015 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

OF

THE EASTERN COMPANY

PRELIMINARY PROXY STATEMENT

OF

THE BARINGTON GROUP

This proxy statement and the enclosed WHITE proxy card are being sent to you as one of the holders of common stock, no par value, of The Eastern Company, a Connecticut corporation (Eastern or the Company), in connection with our solicitation of your proxy for use at the 2015 Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of the Company scheduled to be held at _____, local time, on _____, _____, 2015, at the offices of the Company, 112 Bridge Street, Naugatuck, Connecticut 06770, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the 2015 Annual Meeting).

We are the Barington Group and we believe that the Company's value potential is not being realized under its current Board of Directors. As fellow shareholders of the Company, we are committed to seeking to enhance the long-term value of the Company's common stock and ensuring that shareholder interests are represented in the boardroom. We are therefore soliciting your proxy to vote at the 2015 Annual Meeting for, among other things, the election of our two highly qualified director nominees James A. Mitarotonda and Michael A. McManus, Jr. to enhance the long-term value of our and your investment in the Company.

This proxy statement and the enclosed WHITE proxy card are first being furnished to shareholders on or about _____, 2015.

We urge you to promptly sign, date and return the enclosed WHITE proxy card in favor of the election of our nominees.

THE PROPOSALS

Proposal No. 1 -- Election of the Barington Group Nominees as Directors

We are soliciting proxies from the holders of shares of the Company's common stock to elect two highly qualified directors to the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) to serve for a three-year term that expires at the 2018 Annual Meeting. Proposal No. 1 provides for the election of James A. Mitarotonda and Michael A. McManus, Jr. to serve as directors. See Information Regarding the Barington Group Nominees beginning on page [4] of this proxy statement for information concerning the background and experience of our director nominees.

The Board is presently comprised of five directors, who are divided into three classes, with three-year terms of office ending in successive years. The term of two of the current directors ends at the 2015 Annual Meeting. If elected, our nominees would constitute two out of the five directors on the Board, unless the Board expands its size as further discussed below. The director candidates who receive the most votes will be elected to fill the available seats on the Board. That means the two nominees for director receiving the greatest number of votes cast at the 2015 Annual Meeting will be elected.

On March 20, 2015, the Company announced that the Board had amended the Company's Bylaws, without shareholder approval, to provide the Board with the right (which previously only the Company's shareholders had) to fill vacancies created by an increase in the number of directors. The Company also announced that immediately after the 2015 Annual Meeting and regardless of the outcome of the election of directors at the meeting, the Board intends to expand the size of the Board from five to six directors and to appoint James H. Ozanne to fill this newly-created vacancy. The Barington Group believes that such action will disenfranchise shareholders, and, by letter dated March 27, 2015, has strongly encouraged the Board to reconsider its decision and publicly announce that Eastern will restore the Company's Bylaws to their previous state and not proceed with the contemplated appointment of Mr. Ozanne to the Board without shareholder approval. See Background of Proxy Solicitation beginning on page [6] of this proxy statement for a description of such letter. There can be no assurance, however, that the Board will change its decision. If the Board proceeds with its contemplated expansion of the Board and appointment of Mr. Ozanne as a director immediately after the 2015 Annual Meeting, the two nominees for director receiving the greatest number of votes cast at the 2015 Annual Meeting would comprise two out of six, rather than two out of five, directors.

We recommend that you vote FOR the election of the Barington Group nominees by checking the appropriate box and signing, dating and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card.

Each of the Barington Group nominees has consented to being named herein as a nominee for director of the Company and has agreed to stand for election as a director and to serve as a director, if elected.

We have no reason to believe that any of our nominees will be unable to serve if elected. However, if any of our nominees are unable to serve, we expect that the members of the Company's Board will fill the vacancy. Our nominees would recommend that the Company's Board fill any such vacancy with an individual willing to consider and implement our proposals to seek to enhance long-term shareholder value and improve the Company's corporate governance. However, there can be no assurance that the Board would follow our recommendation in filling any such vacancy.

Proposal No. 2 Ratification of the Appointment of Fiondella, Milone & LaSaracina LLP as the Company's Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm (Company Proposal)

As Proposal No. 2 for the 2015 Annual Meeting, the Company will ask shareholders to ratify the appointment of Fiondella, Milone & LaSaracina LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2015. See Auditors for further information regarding Fiondella, Milone & LaSaracina LLP.

We recommend that you vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of Fiondella, Milone & LaSaracina LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm by checking the appropriate box and signing, dating and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card.

THIS SOLICITATION IS BEING MADE BY THE BARINGTON GROUP AND IS NOT ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OR MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY. THE BARINGTON GROUP IS NOT AWARE OF ANY OTHER MATTERS TO BE BROUGHT BEFORE THE 2015 ANNUAL MEETING. SHOULD OTHER MATTERS BE BROUGHT BEFORE THE 2015 ANNUAL MEETING WHICH THE BARINGTON GROUP IS NOT AWARE OF A REASONABLE TIME BEFORE THIS SOLICITATION, THE PERSONS NAMED AS PROXIES IN THE ENCLOSED WHITE PROXY CARD WILL VOTE ON SUCH MATTERS IN THEIR DISCRETION.

REASONS FOR OUR SOLICITATION

We are the Barington Group. Collectively, we beneficially own over 5.2% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company. As a significant shareholder of Eastern, we have been extremely dissatisfied with the performance of the Company under its current Board of Directors. We are therefore soliciting your proxy to vote at the 2015 Annual Meeting for the election of our highly qualified director nominees who are committed to seeking to enhance long-term shareholder value and improve Eastern's corporate governance for the benefit of all shareholders of the Company.

We believe that Mr. Mitarotonda is qualified to serve as a director of the Company based on, among other things, his status as a shareholder representative; his extensive public company director experience; his financial, investment banking and corporate governance expertise; his experience as a chief executive officer; and his experience investing in manufacturing and industrial companies.

1 The foregoing information has been furnished to the Barington Group by the respective Barington Group nominees, each of whom is at least 18 years of age and has consented to serve as a director of the Company if elected. None of the entities referenced above is a parent or subsidiary of the Company.

Michael A. McManus, Jr.

Misonix, Inc.

Mr. McManus has served as a director of A. Schulman, Inc., an international supplier of plastic compounds and resins, since 2006, and as a director of Novavax, Inc., a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company, since 1998. He also serves as an advisor to Barington Capital Group, L.P.

Mr. McManus received a B.A. in economics from the University of Notre Dame and a J.D. from the Georgetown University Law Center.

We believe that Mr. McManus is qualified to serve as a director of the Company based on, among other things, his extensive business and leadership experience as a chief executive officer of two public companies; his public company director experience; his knowledge of equity and capital markets; and his significant experience in governance, legal and risk management.

We believe that our nominees have the boardroom experience, business and leadership skills and shareholder perspective that are needed to help the Company realize its value potential and ensure that shareholder interests are represented in the boardroom. While our nominees will only constitute two of the five members of the Eastern Board if elected, it is their intention to work constructively with the other members of the Board to help enhance long-term shareholder value for the benefit of all shareholders of Company. While there is no guarantee that the election of our nominees will in fact lead to the enhancement of long-term shareholder value, ask yourself: Are you comfortable trusting the Company's incumbent directors to do so on their own based on their track record to date?

WE ARE COMMITTED TO HELPING IMPROVE

LONG-TERM VALUE FOR ALL EASTERN SHAREHOLDERS

The Barington Group is a significant shareholder of the Company – we beneficially own 325,703 shares of Eastern common stock, representing over 5.2% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company. Our interests are clearly aligned with yours. We want to enhance long-term value for all Eastern shareholders.

One of our nominees, James A. Mitarotonda, is the Chairman and CEO of Barington Capital Group, L.P. (Barington), an investment firm with a fifteen-year track record of working with underperforming companies to help improve shareholder value. Barington has taken an active role in assisting companies such as A. Schulman, Inc., Lancaster Colony Corporation, Stewart & Stevenson Services, Inc., Gerber Scientific, Inc., The Warnaco Group, Inc. and Dillard's, Inc. improve their operations, strategic focus, profitability and corporate governance since January 2008. While past performance does not guarantee future success, it is our strong belief that we can help do the same at Eastern.

We believe that it is important for shareholders to finally have a choice with respect to who represents their interests in the Eastern boardroom. Please sign, date and return the enclosed WHITE proxy card to vote FOR the election of our nominees described in this proxy statement. Please also vote FOR ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

BACKGROUND OF PROXY SOLICITATION

Members of the Barington Group began purchasing shares of Eastern common stock in April 2013 because we believe that the Company's shares are undervalued and represent an attractive investment opportunity. On various dates from April 19, 2013 through September 24, 2014, members of the Barington Group purchased a total of 325,703 shares of common stock in the open market. The details of these purchases are set forth in Annex A attached to this proxy statement.

Between December 2010 and December 2012, representatives of Barington spoke by telephone on several occasions with Mr. Leonard F. Leganza, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. During such calls, Mr. Leganza and the Barington representatives discussed the Company and its prospects.

On December 3, 2012, a representative of Barington met with Mr. Leganza at Eastern's corporate headquarters in Naugatuck, Connecticut to talk about the Company and each of its businesses. During such meeting, the Barington representative expressed concern about the Company's capital allocation to its Metal Products segment and the comparatively low margins this segment generates. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Barington representative suggested to Mr. Leganza that the Company might benefit from conducting a strategic review of each of its businesses to determine opportunities to rationalize Eastern's portfolio of businesses and improve its return on invested capital (hereinafter, a strategic review).

On June 27, 2013, a representative of Barington spoke by telephone with Mr. Leganza to review the Company's financial performance. During such call, the Barington representative inquired as to the causes for the decline in revenue in the Company's Industrial Hardware segment and developments in the Class 8 truck market that this business segment serves. The Barington representative questioned whether the Company has a sufficiently robust plan to drive growth of its existing products in adjacent markets and introduce new products into Eastern's existing distribution channels.

On September 9, 2013, representatives of Barington, including James A. Mitarotonda, Barington's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, spoke with Mr. Leganza. During such conversation, Mr. Leganza recounted his professional career and the history of the Company, and the Barington representatives inquired as to reasons for the Company's lack of year-of-year revenue growth over the prior three quarters. At the conclusion of such discussion, the Barington representatives recommended that the Company consider conducting an in-depth assessment of each of its end-markets to identify which ones present the highest return and the greatest growth opportunities (hereinafter, an end-market analysis), and increase its investment in businesses that serve these end-markets.

On March 6, 2014, representatives of Barington, including Mr. Mitarotonda, met with Mr. Leganza at Eastern's corporate headquarters to receive an update on the performance of the Company. During such meeting, the Barington representatives expressed our concern that the Company does not appear to have an effective growth strategy, based on our observations that the Company is not generating sustainable organic growth in its core markets and our belief that the Company has failed over the past ten years to consummate any strategic acquisitions that we believe have materially strengthened the Company's core businesses or provide access to new high-growth markets. The Barington representatives also shared with Mr. Leganza our belief that these factors have contributed to the Company's poor share price performance relative to its peers and the market as a whole. To illustrate our perspectives, the Barington representatives shared with Mr. Leganza examples of other companies that have successfully grown revenue and generated meaningful share price performance over a sustained period. At the request of Mr. Leganza, the Barington representatives identified examples of merger partners that could potentially introduce new growth opportunities for the Company. Mr. Leganza inquired as to whether we could identify for him other potential merger partners, and on March 18, 2014, a representative of Barington sent a list of additional potential candidates to Mr. Leganza in response to such inquiry.

On July 2, 2014, representatives of Barington, including Mr. Mitarotonda, met with Mr. Leganza at Eastern's corporate headquarters to follow-up on the March 6th meeting. During such meeting, the Barington representatives discussed in further detail certain of Barington's recommendations for improving the Company's long-term financial and share price performance. Such recommendations include (a) conducting a strategic review and an end-market analysis to identify the Company's most profitable businesses and businesses with the highest growth potential, (b) identifying opportunities to rationalize the Company's portfolio of businesses by, among other things, disposing businesses deemed to have the least favorable long-term prospects, and (c) building scale in the Company's most attractive businesses through complimentary acquisitions that would help deliver purchasing, sales, marketing or other synergies. In response to our recommendations, Mr. Leganza requested that we provide a specific proposal for how Barington and its staff could support the Company in pursuing such opportunities.

On July 24, 2014, representatives of Barington, including Mr. Mitarotonda, met with Mr. Leganza at Eastern's corporate headquarters. During such meeting, the Barington representatives stated our belief that the Company lacked transparency with respect to its growth and acquisition plans and repeated our concerns about Company's growth trajectory. In addition, we repeated our belief that the Company would benefit from conducting a strategic review. Mr. Leganza questioned whether one was necessary. During such meeting, Mr. Leganza reiterated his request for a specific proposal for support from Barington and its staff.

On July 30, 2014, Mr. Mitarotonda sent a letter to Mr. Leganza (the July 30th Letter) to summarize ways in which Barington could assist Eastern in conducting a strategic review and growing the Company through acquisitions if Eastern needed additional resources to support its management team. As it had never been the intention of Barington to enter into a consulting arrangement with the Company, the letter was sent for discussion purposes in response to Mr. Leganza's repeated requests for a proposal. In the letter, we also proposed that the Company add two directors to the Eastern Board recommended by Barington that are reasonably acceptable to its current directors.

On August 28, 2014, Mr. Mitarotonda had lunch with Mr. Leganza and John L. Sullivan III, the Company's Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, at a restaurant in Naugatuck, Connecticut. During the lunch meeting, Mr. Mitarotonda provided Mr. Leganza and Mr. Sullivan with examples of how Barington has helped improve long-term shareholder value at other publicly traded companies such as A. Schulman and Gerber Scientific.

On September 29, 2014, Mr. Mitarotonda received a letter from Mr. Leganza dated September 25, 2014 in response to his July 30th Letter. The letter stated that while the Board would welcome proposals regarding potential acquisition opportunities and would expect to compensate Barington if a transaction was successfully consummated, the Board believes that the Company's in-house resources are adequate in the areas in which Barington offered to provide assistance in the July 30th Letter. Mr. Leganza also addressed the composition of the Eastern Board in his letter, stating:

We are aware that the Board has not transitioned for many years, and although there may be a trend towards Board rotation, it is our belief that a Board with fewer members is more agile and can be more attentive to issues with more meaningful input from each Board member. This is a topic which has been discussed by the Board over time and while we are sensitive to the issue, and remain open to further discussion, there are no proposed changes to the composition of our Board as of now.

On September 29, 2014, Mr. Mitarotonda spoke by telephone with Mr. Mr. Leganza and informed him that we were disappointed by his letter as well as the Company's record in creating shareholder value. He asked Mr. Leganza to reconsider Barington's suggestion that the Company add new directors proposed by Barington to the Board, and stated that he believes that such directors could assist the Company in improving its long-term financial and share price performance. Mr. Leganza suggested that the parties continue their discussions, and asked Mr. Mitarotonda to propose dates for a follow-up meeting.

On October 9, 2014, representatives of Barington met with Mr. Leganza at Eastern's corporate headquarters. During the meeting, the Barington representatives expressed our belief that the Company is not making sufficient progress in creating value for shareholders and reiterated our conviction that the Company would benefit from adding new directors to its Board. We also inquired as to the level of engagement of Eastern's current Board members and the level of support they provide Eastern's management team. Mr. Leganza stated, in response, that he does not need the Board to do anything to support him and his management team.

On November 11, 2014 Mr. Mitarotonda met with Mr. Leganza and two members of the Eastern Board at the Company's corporate headquarters. During such meeting, the Eastern directors asked various questions concerning Mr. Mitarotonda's background and experience, including his experience as a director of other publicly traded companies. At the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Leganza informed Mr. Mitarotonda that he wanted the two other members of the Board to also meet with him. Such a meeting, however, was never scheduled, and a number of Mr. Mitarotonda's follow-up calls to Mr. Leganza to inquire as to when such meeting would take place were unreturned.

On January 14, 2015, the Company announced that it had received a letter from Synalloy Corporation (the Synalloy Letter) expressing the interest of Synalloy in the possible acquisition of the Company for $6.69 per share in cash and approximately $12.43 in shares of Synalloy common stock. The announcement stated that the Eastern Board had carefully reviewed and unanimously determined that the proposal is not in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. Barington was also sent a copy of the Synalloy Letter, which was dated January 2, 2015, and called Mr. Leganza after receiving the letter to inform him of this fact.

On January 17, 2015, an article in the Republican American reported that Mr. Leganza regularly fields offers from corporations interested in merging with or acquiring Eastern, most of which are never made public, and that he does not like to respond to offers that are sent by email instead of by letter.

On February 6, 2015, Mr. Mitarotonda sent a letter to Mr. Leganza (the February 6 Letter). In the letter, Mr. Mitarotonda stated that while Barington is a patient, long-term investor, we have been extremely disappointed by the lack of progress at the Company and believe that it is time for decisive action and change at Eastern. He informed Mr. Leganza that Barington intends to share with him a detailed summary of Barington recommendations to enhance the Company's long-term financial and share price performance. These recommendations will include, among other things, measures to (i) improve Eastern's strategic focus, (ii) accelerate growth and product innovation in high-potential businesses, both organically and through targeted acquisitions, and (iii) improve Eastern's corporate governance. The letter also stated that while Barington does not support Eastern entering into any transaction which undervalues the Company—as appears to us to be the case with the terms proposed by Synalloy—we do not agree with the Board's decision to dismiss this transaction within 12 days of receiving the offer, as it is our belief that, at a minimum, that the Company should have conducted due diligence on potential synergies in order to assess whether a transaction with Synalloy could potentially create value for Eastern shareholders. Mr. Mitarotonda also informed Mr. Leganza in the February 6th Letter that Barington strongly believes that new, independent directors need to be promptly added to the Eastern Board, and noted that the Company has not added a new director since 1993 and has an average director tenure of approximately 27 years. The letter stated that Barington had identified several individuals with exceptional backgrounds and experience that Barington believes can help meaningfully improve long-term shareholder value, and that Barington would be nominating two of these candidates in order to comply with the advance notice provisions contained in the Company's Bylaws.

Following the Company's receipt of the February 6th Letter, a member of the Eastern Board called Mr. Mitarotonda to inform him that the Board intends to expand its size by one directorship and would be willing to interview any candidates for this directorship recommended by Barington. Mr. Mitarotonda suggested that the Board interview both Michael A. McManus, Jr. and him.

On February 20, 2015, representatives of the Eastern Board interviewed Mr. Mitarotonda by conference call. On the same date, Barington formally delivered to the Secretary of the Company a letter notifying the Company of Barington's intention to nominate Mr. Mitarotonda and Mr. McManus for election to the Board at the 2015 Annual Meeting.

On February 24, 2015, representatives of the Eastern Board interviewed Mr. McManus by conference call.

On March 2, 2015, the Barington Group filed its preliminary proxy statement with the SEC. On March 2, representatives of Barington also met with Mr. John W. Everets, a director of the Company, at the offices of the Company's legal counsel. During such meeting, Mr. Everets informed the Barington representatives that the Board intends to add at least two new directors. He also informed the Barington representatives that the Board is willing to add Mr. McManus to the expanded Board if Barington will agree to enter into a standstill agreement with the Company.

On March 9, 2015, Mr. Mitarotonda sent a letter to Mr. Everets (the March 9th Letter) in response to the settlement proposal made by Mr. Everets during the March 2 meeting. In the March 9th Letter, Mr. Mitarotonda informed Mr. Everets that Barington is amenable to entering into a settlement agreement with the Company that includes an appropriate standstill provision. However, given Eastern's share price performance and corporate governance under its current Board, Barington strongly believes that the addition of only one of our two director nominees to the Eastern Board is not sufficient to ensure that the Board has the experience and shareholder-focused representatives Barington believes are necessary to help improve long-term value and protect shareholder interests.

In the March 9th Letter, Mr. Mitarotonda also noted that the Eastern Board has overseen the implementation (or preservation) of an extensive list of anti-takeover defenses, which has caused Barington to question whether Eastern's incumbent directors are more focused on maintaining their directorships and the continued employment of Mr. Leganza than in protecting shareholder interests. Mr. Mitarotonda noted that, among other things, the Company has a staggered board of directors, a poison pill shareholder rights plan with a ten-percent trigger that has not been approved by shareholders, and a plurality voting standard for uncontested director elections. He also stated that the Company lacks an independent nominating and corporate governance committee and has not separated the roles of Chairman and CEO (or even appointed an independent lead or presiding director). Mr. Mitarotonda informed Mr. Everets that Barington is committed to seeing the Eastern Board take action to improve its corporate governance in these areas. He also stated that Barington recommends that the Eastern Board disclose details of its CEO succession plan, implement minimum share ownership requirements for the Board and senior management, add a clawback provision to the Company's compensation plans and consider replacing directors that have served for more than 20 years, and he informed Mr. Everets that Barington would be happy to share its views with him on Eastern's corporate governance in greater detail.

On March 20, 2015, the Company announced that the Board had amended Eastern's long-standing Bylaws, without shareholder approval, to provide the Board with the right (which previously only the Company's shareholders had) to fill vacancies created by an increase in the number of directors. The Company also announced that immediately after the 2015 Annual Meeting and regardless of the outcome of the election of directors, the Board intends to expand the size of the Board from five to six directors and to appoint James H. Ozanne to fill this newly-created vacancy.

On March 27, 2015, Barington sent a letter to Mr. Everets (the March 27th Letter) in response to the Company's March 20th announcement. In the letter, Barington states its belief that the Board's decision to expand its size by one directorship immediately after the 2015 Annual Meeting, and unilaterally appoint Mr. Ozanne to fill the new Board seat, disenfranchises shareholders by denying them the opportunity to vote on the addition of Mr. Ozanne to the Board. Barington also states in the March 27th Letter that it believes that the Board's appointment of Mr. Ozanne as a director immediately after the shareholder meeting which the Board has stated it intends to do regardless of the outcome of the election of directors would further disenfranchise shareholders if the Barington Group's proxy solicitation is successful by diminishing the influence of our two nominees on the Board, as they would then comprise two out of six directors rather than two out of five directors. In light of the foregoing, Barington's March 27th Letter strongly encourages the Board to promptly reconsider its decision and publicly announce that Eastern will restore the Company's Bylaws to their previous state and will not proceed with the contemplated appointment of Mr. Ozanne to the Board without shareholder approval.

On March 30, 2015, Barington delivered to the Secretary of the Company a letter demanding to inspect and copy the Company's shareholder records to permit the Barington Group to communicate with other shareholders of the Company in connection with the election of directors at the 2015 Annual Meeting.

Also on March 30, 2015, the Company announced that it has retained Wells Fargo Securities to assist the Board in a review of strategic alternatives for the Company. The Company stated in its announcement that [t]here is no set timetable for the review process, and there is no guarantee that any transaction will be consummated as a result of the review.

VOTING PROCEDURES

Who is entitled to vote?

If the Company's stock records show that you are a shareholder as of the close of business on the record date for the 2015 Annual Meeting, you are entitled to vote the shares of common stock that you held on such date. Even if you sell your shares after the record date for the 2015 Annual Meeting, you will retain the right to execute a proxy in connection with the 2015 Annual Meeting. Each outstanding share of common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote for each matter to be voted upon.

Can I attend the meeting?

All shareholders of record of the Company's common stock at the close of business on the record date for the 2015 Annual Meeting, or their designated proxies, are authorized to attend the 2015 Annual Meeting. If your shares are held of record by a bank, broker or other nominee, you will need to obtain a legal proxy form from your bank, broker or nominee if you wish to vote at the 2015 Annual Meeting.

What constitutes a quorum? How will abstentions and broker non-votes be counted?

The holders of shares representing a majority of the Company's common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the 2015 Annual Meeting. Broker non-votes are proxies from brokers or nominees indicating that such persons have not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other persons entitled to vote shares as to a matter with respect to which the brokers or nominees do not have discretionary power to vote. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. Brokers will not have discretionary authority to vote with respect to the election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of Fiondella, Milone & LaSaracina LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

What vote is required?

Assuming a quorum is present in person or by proxy at the 2015 Annual Meeting:

The two nominees for director receiving the greatest number of votes cast will be elected. Abstentions are not counted for purposes of election of directors. If the number of nominees for director exceeds the number of directors to be elected, then a director nominee must receive a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2015 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors.

To be ratified, the appointment of Fiondella, Milone & LaSaracina LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the 2015 Annual Meeting. Abstentions are not counted for purposes of the ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

How do I vote?

Voting by proxy for holders of shares registered in the name of a brokerage firm or bank. If your shares are held by a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., in street name), only your bank, broker or nominee can give a proxy with respect to your shares. You should receive a proxy instruction form from your bank or broker which you must return in the postage-paid envelope provided in order to have your shares voted. If you have not received a proxy card from your bank or broker, you may contact it directly to provide it with instructions on how you wish to vote. Telephone and internet voting may be available, please refer to your proxy instruction form for details. If you need assistance in dealing with your bank or broker, please call MacKenzie Partners toll-free at 1-800-322-2885 or collect at 1-212-929-5500.

Voting by proxy for holders of shares registered directly in the name of the shareholder. If you hold your shares in your own name as a holder of record, you may vote your shares by marking, signing, dating and mailing the WHITE proxy card in the postage-paid envelope that has been provided to you by the Barington Group. To vote your shares in accordance with your instructions at the 2015 Annual Meeting, we must receive your proxy as soon as possible but, in any event, prior to the 2015 Annual Meeting.

Vote in person. If you are a registered shareholder and attend the 2015 Annual Meeting you may deliver your completed WHITE proxy card in person. Street name shareholders who wish to vote at the 2015 Annual Meeting will need to obtain a legal proxy form from the broker, bank or other nominee that holds their shares of record and must bring that document to the meeting in order to vote in person at the 2015 Annual Meeting. If you need assistance, please call MacKenzie Partners toll-free at 1-800-322-2885 or collect at 1-212-929-5500.

What should I do if I receive a proxy card which is not WHITE?

If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card or instruction form, do NOT sign or return the proxy card or follow any voting instructions provided by the Company's Board of Directors unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest-dated proxy will be counted at the 2015 Annual Meeting.

Can I revoke my proxy instructions?

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it has been exercised at the 2015 Annual Meeting by:

delivering a written revocation to the Corporate Secretary of the Company or MacKenzie prior to the 2015 Annual Meeting;

submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date to the Corporate Secretary of the Company or MacKenzie; or appearing in person and voting by ballot at the 2015 Annual Meeting as described above under How do I vote? -- Vote in Person.

Any shareholder of record as of the record date of the 2015 Annual Meeting attending the 2015 Annual Meeting in person may vote in person whether or not a proxy has been previously given, but the presence (without further action) of a shareholder at the 2015 Annual Meeting will NOT constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

If you choose to revoke a proxy by giving written notice or a later-dated proxy to the Corporate Secretary of the Company, although you are not legally obligated to do so, we would appreciate if you would assist us in seeking to represent the interests of shareholders on an informed basis by sending us a copy of your revocation or proxy or by calling MacKenzie toll-free at 1-800-322-2885 or collect at 1-212-929-5500. Remember, your latest-dated proxy is the only one that counts.

Will other matters be voted on at the annual meeting?

We are not now aware of any matters to be presented at the 2015 Annual Meeting other than the election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. If any other matters not described in this proxy statement are properly presented at the 2015 Annual Meeting, which matters are not known to the proxy holders a reasonable time before the solicitation relating to the 2015 Annual Meeting, proxies will be voted in accordance with the best judgment of the proxy holders.

If I plan to attend the annual meeting, should I still submit a proxy?

Whether you plan to attend the 2015 Annual Meeting or not, we urge you to submit a proxy. Returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card will not affect your right to attend the 2015 Annual Meeting.

What do I need to do if I plan to attend the meeting in person?

If you plan to attend the 2015 Annual Meeting, you must provide proof of your ownership of the Company's common stock (such as a brokerage account statement or the voting instruction form provided by your broker) and a form of government-issued personal identification (such as a driver's license or passport) for admission to the meeting. If you wish to vote at the 2015 Annual Meeting you will have to provide evidence that you owned shares of the Company's common stock as of the record date of the 2015 Annual Meeting. If you own your shares in the name of a bank or broker, and you wish to be able to vote at the 2015 Annual Meeting, you must obtain a legal proxy, executed in your favor, from the bank or broker, indicating that you owned shares of the Company's common stock as of the record date (please see the instructions above regarding obtaining a legal proxy).

How will my shares be voted?

If you give a proxy on the accompanying WHITE proxy card, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you submit a proxy to us without instructions, the named proxy holders will vote your shares in favor of the election of the Barington Group nominees, and in favor of the ratification of the appointment of Fiondella, Milone & LaSaracina LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. Submitting a WHITE proxy card will entitle the named proxy holders to vote your shares in accordance with their discretion on matters not described in this proxy statement that may arise at the 2015 Annual Meeting, including matters incident to the conduct of the 2015 Annual Meeting. Unless a proxy specifies otherwise, it will be presumed to relate to all shares held of record on the record date for the 2015 Annual Meeting by the person who submitted it.

How can I receive more information?

If you have any questions about giving your proxy or about our solicitation, or if you require assistance voting your shares, please call MacKenzie Partners toll-free at 1-800-322-2885 or collect at 1-212-929-5500.

Your vote is important. No matter how many or how few shares you own, please vote to elect the Barington Group nominees by marking, signing, dating and mailing the enclosed WHITE proxy card promptly.
